SHORT TITLE INDEX. This is an index of short titles of bills containing such titles in their texts. It is arranged alphabetically according to the first word of the title.

SUBJECT INDEX. This index identifies public bills and resolutions by subject. The index is preceded by a list of principal subject headings under which more detailed index entries may be found. Measures which have received action and appear in either the "Public Laws" section or the "Other Measures Receiving Action" section are denoted by an asterisk. Measures are subject indexed only as introduced and not according to revisions made during the legislative process.

Preparation of the Digest is the responsibility of the Bill Digest Section, American Law Division, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress.

Whistleblower Protection Act of 1989 - Separates the Office of Special Counsel from the Merit Systems Protection Board. Empowers the Special Counsel to represent and act as legal counsel on behalf of employees alleging prohibited personnel practices, especially whistleblowers. Revises current law with respect to the Special Counsel to reflect its advocate status.

Authorizes the Board to grant protective orders to protect a witness or other individual from harassment either during a proceeding before the Board or during a Special Counsel investigation. Requires the Board, when it considers alternative places for conducting hearings or proceedings, to select the place closest to the location of the individual involved, unless the total administrative costs to the Government in conducting such hearings or proceedings would be less elsewhere.

Authorizes the Special Counsel to file a petition with the Board against an official for: (1) engaging in prohibited personnel practices; (2) violating a law within the jurisdiction of the Special Counsel; or (3) failing to comply with an order of the Board. Sets forth procedures for disciplining such officials.

Authorizes the Special Counsel to apply to the Board to enforce a court subpoena.

Prohibits the Special Counsel from intervening in cases without the employee's consent.

Prohibits the Special Counsel from providing information concerning any person making an allegation of a prohibited personnel practice without the consent of such person, except when necessary because of imminent danger to public health or safety or of imminent criminal act.

Prescribes procedures for the Special Counsel when disclosures are made by persons other than an employee, former employee, applicant for employment, or employee who obtained information in connection with official duties.

Requires the Special Counsel to report annually to the Congress on its activities.

Establishes requirements for the Special Counsel to make public certain information, including noncriminal matters.

Authorizes employees who have been adversely affected by a prohibited personnel practice to bring an action before the Board (instead of or in addition to taking such action to the Special Counsel).

Requires whistleblowers to show that their disclosure was a contributing factor in adverse actions against them in order to prove reprisal.

Authorizes Federal agencies to give preference in granting transfers to whistleblowers.

Provides interim relief for certain appellants to the Board.

Authorizes appropriations for the Merit Systems Protection Board for FY 1989 through 1994 and for the Office of Special Counsel for FY 1989 through 1992.

Public Law 101-14 Approved 4/18/89; H.R. 1750.

Declares that the purpose of this Act is to implement the Bipartisan Accord on Central America of March 24, 1989.

Authorizes the President to transfer to the Agency for International Development (AID) unobligated funds from specified defense appropriations accounts for: (1) humanitarian assistance (including transportation expenses) to the Nicaraguan Resistance to be available through February 28, 1990; and (2) operating expenses of AID to be available through March 31, 1990.

Requires the transportation of such assistance to be arranged solely by AID in a manner consistent with the Bipartisan Accord. Prohibits the transportation of any assistance not specified by this Act.

Authorizes the President to transfer to AID an additional amount from the specified accounts for medical assistance for the civilian victims of Nicaraguan civil strife. Requires such assistance to be transported and administered by the Nicaraguan Catholic Church.

Encourages the President to submit proposals for actions to: (1) provide additional economic assistance to the democratic countries of Central America; (2) facilitate the ability of Central American economies to grow through the development of infrastructure, expansion of exports, and increased investment opportunities; (3) provide a plan to assist Central American countries in managing debt; and (4) develop such initiatives in concert with Western Europe, Japan, and other democratic allies.

Rescinds funds available for research, development, test, and evaluation for the Navy for 1989.

Prohibits the obligation or expenditure of funds available under this Act to assist the Nicaraguan Resistance in military or paramilitary operations. Prohibits providing assistance under this Act to any group including an individual who has been found to engage in: (1) gross violations of internationally recognized human rights; or (2) drug smuggling or significant misuse of funds.

Grants congressional oversight for assistance under this Act to specified congressional committees.

Applies provisions of a specified Act concerning management and delivery of assistance to the Nicaraguan Resistance to assistance under this Act.

Prohibits additional U.S. assistance to the Nicaraguan Resistance unless authorized specifically by a subsequent Act.

Repeals title IX (Assistance for the Nicaraguan Resistance) of the Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 1989.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on progress in the peace and democratization process, including the use of assistance under this Act.

Martin Luther King, Jr., Federal Holiday Commission Extension Act - Extends the Martin Luther King, Jr. Federal Holiday Commission to April 20, 1994. (Current law terminates the Commission on April 20, 1989.) Makes the term of Commission members one year, except for Coretta Scott King (life term) and members of the family surviving Martin Luther King, Jr. (at the discretion of the family).

Prohibits the Commission from making any expenditures, or receiving or utilizing any assistance under this Act, for training activities for the purpose of directing or encouraging: (1) the organization or implementation of campaigns to protest social conditions; and (2) any form of civil disobedience.

Amends existing requirements to make the Commission's report on its activities reflect the most recent observance of the holiday.

Replaces provisions requiring all expenditures of the Commission to be from donated funds with provisions authorizing appropriations for each fiscal year. Makes payment of expenses for Commission members and staff salary subject to the availability of funds.

Repeals provisions exempting the Commission from the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the bronze replica of the Declaration of Independence should be returned to a place of prominence in the Rotunda of the U.S. Capitol.

Coquille Restoration Act - Extends Federal recognition to the Coquille Indian Tribe. Makes all laws and regulations generally applicable to Indians applicable to the Tribe and its members, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Restores all rights and privileges of the Tribe and its members under any Federal treaty, agreement, or other authority which were diminished or lost under a specified 1954 statute.

Makes the Tribe and its members eligible for all Federal services and benefits furnished to federally recognized tribes or their members without regard to the existence of a reservation. Deems members of the Tribe in specified counties in Oregon to be residing on a reservation for purposes of the availability of such services. Declares that the Tribe shall be considered an Indian tribe for the purposes of the Indian Tribal Government Tax Status Act.

Declares that the Indian Reorganization Act shall be applicable to the Tribe and its members.

Directs the Secretary of the Interior: (1) to enter into negotiations with the governing body of the Tribe, with respect to establishing a plan for economic development for the Tribe; (2) to develop such a plan not later than two years after adoption of a tribal constitution; and (3) upon approval by the governing body of the Tribe to submit such plan to the Congress.

Provides that any proposed transfer of real property contained in the plan shall be consistent with the requirements of this Act.

Directs the Secretary to accept in trust for the benefit of the Tribe not over 1,000 acres of land located in Coos and Curry Counties if such land is free of adverse legal claims at the time of such acceptance. Authorizes the Secretary to accept additional acreage in the Tribe's service area. Provides that such land taken in trust shall be made part of the tribe's reservation and shall be exempt from all local, State, and Federal taxation as of the transfer date.

Requires Oregon to exercise criminal and civil jurisdiction within the boundaries of the reservation.

Requires the Secretary to compile a Coquille Indian Tribal membership roll within one year of the enactment of this Act.

Specifies the criteria for enrollments. Requires the Secretary to accept any available evidence establishing Coquille ancestry and the required amount of Indian blood quantum. Specifies evidence the Secretary shall accept as conclusive evidence of Coquille ancestry.

Provides for the Tribe to be governed by an Interim Council until a new constitution and bylaws are adopted.

Provides for an election, by secret ballot, for the purpose of adopting a constitution and for electing tribal officials.

Public Law 101-46 Approved 6/30/89; S. 694.

Amends the Energy Policy and Conservation Act to extend from June 30, 1989, to April 1, 1990, the authority granted under the Act regarding domestic energy supply availability, especially the Strategic Petroleum Reserve.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to report by a specified date to certain congressional committees regarding alternative means of financing the filling of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve to 1,000,000,000 barrels (including specified aspects of long-term leasing of crude oil and storage facilities from both foreign and domestic entities). Sets October 15, 1989, as the deadline for an interim report, and February 1, 1990, as the deadline for the final report.

Imposes a moratorium upon Department of Energy sales of oil from the Naval Petroleum Reserve at Elk Hills (except to the Strategic Petroleum Reserve) until such final report has been submitted.

Apex Project, Nevada Land Transfer and Authorization Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary of the Interior to convey to Clark County, Nevada, certain Federal lands located in such County, solely for sale to Kerr-McGee, a U.S. chemical corporation, at the land's appraised fair market value. Directs the Secretary to grant specified utility and transportation rights-of-way to the County. Requires each right-of-way granted to be subject to rental payments under applicable Federal law. Authorizes the Secretary to sell additional land outside the boundaries of the Kerr-McGee Site and to grant such rights-of-way within the Apex Site (an area of Federal land within Clark County of which the Kerr-McGee Site is a parcel) to Clark County over a ten-year period. Authorizes the Secretary to grant to Clark County all necessary rights-of-way to support the development of a heavy-use industrial zone on some or all of the lands conveyed.

Withdraws all the lands authorized for transfer under this Act from all forms of entry and appropriation under the public land laws for 12 years after the enactment of this Act or until otherwise provided by an Act of Congress.

Authorizes the Secretary to grant rights-of-way to current holders of valid mill-site claims for the construction, operation, and maintenance of facilities required for the cogeneration of electricity.

Reserves to the United States certain right-of-way corridors in the transferred land. Requires the Secretary to administer such corridors.

Prohibits the Secretary from making such transfer until Kerr-McGee and Clark County have entered into an agreement to undertake all appropriate measures to prevent or mitigate any adverse environmental impacts on lands so transferred resulting from their use for heavy industrial purposes. Requires the Secretary to: (1) report to certain congressional committees as to the funds and personnel required to fully implement the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Desert Tortoise Plan (a plan to protect the desert tortoise species from extinction or species reduction due to the heavy industrial use of lands which are currently a part of such tortoise's natural habitat); (2) arrange for a survey of public lands in Clark County to assist in the implementation of the Plan; (3) invite public proposals for the designation of areas of critical environmental concern in the implementation of the Plan; (4) consider the desirability of restricting or eliminating uses of public lands in the Paiute Valley which may conflict with the implementation of the Plan; (5) submit to the Congress annually a statement of the amounts received from the sale of such conveyed lands; and (6) evaluate the desirability of acquiring other lands for the purpose of furthering environmental management policies and values. Requires the Secretary to file maps and legal descriptions of all lands transferred under this Act.

Directs the Secretary of the Interior to remove the restriction that a certain parcel of land in Roanoke, Virginia, be used exclusively for public park or public recreation purposes, on the condition that such land be transferred to the State of Virginia for use as a veterans' nursing home.

Prohibits the Secretary from removing such restriction if within four years the State of Virginia has not committed funds for such veterans' nursing home.

Provides that such parcel of land shall revert to the United States if, after the removal of such restriction, such parcel of land ceases to be used for purposes of a veterans' nursing home.

Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 - Title I: Purposes - Specifies the purposes of this Act, including regulatory reform, the establishment of an independent insurance agency to provide deposit insurance, and the provision of improved supervision and enhanced enforcement powers.

Title II: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation - Amends the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to authorize the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) to insure deposits held at savings associations as well as commercial banks.

Increases the membership of the FDIC's Board of Directors from three to five members. Specifies that one of the additional two members shall be the Director of the Office of Thrift Supervision and the other the Comptroller of the Currency.

Revises certain definitions for the purposes of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act. Specifies that the Director of the Office of Thrift Supervision (DOTS) shall be considered the appropriate Federal banking agency in the case of a savings association or a savings and loan holding company.

Provides that every FSLIC insured savings association shall continue to be insured by the FDIC without application or approval. Provides that whenever a depository institution files an application or notice for membership with, or to commence or resume business with, the appropriate Federal banking agency, such agency must provide such application to the FDIC for comment. Requires such agency to take the FDIC's comment into account in deciding whether to grant the application.

Provides that certain State depository institutions shall continue as insured institutions.

Allows any Federal savings association authorized to do business by the DOTS to become an insured depository institution upon the filing of an application with the FDIC together with a certificate issued by the DOTS unless insurance is denied by the FDIC. Sets forth procedures for the FDIC to evaluate such an application. Specifies the factors to be considered in granting or denying insurance coverage. Requires the FDIC to notify the DOTS if such insurance coverage is denied, and to give specific reasons in writing for such denial.

Requires every noninsured depository institution which becomes insured by the FDIC to pay any entrance fee prescribed by FDIC regulations. Requires that such fee be credited to either the Bank Insurance Fund (BIF) or the Savings Associations Insurance Fund (SAIF) depending on which fund the institution joins.

Prohibits any insured depository institution from participating in any type of conversion transaction which would result in a change of membership from one such fund to the other without the approval of the FDIC. Places a five-year moratorium on the approval of such conversion transactions, except in limited circumstances. Requires financial institutions which participate in such conversion transactions to pay specified entrance and exit fees.

Provides for conversion by merger.

Provides that whenever the FDIC incurs a loss in connection with the default of an insured depository institution, or in connection with providing assistance to an insured depository institution in danger of default, any other commonly-controlled insured depository institution shall be liable to the FDIC and on request shall reimburse the FDIC for any such loss. Specifies the method of calculating such liability. Sets forth procedures for imposing and collecting such liability. Limits the rights of any third parties in such proceedings. Provides that for a five-year period no BIF members shall be held liable for the default of a BIF member. Defines "commonly-controlled" for purposes of determining such liability.

Adds as a factor to be considered by the FDIC in evaluating applications for insurance coverage the risk presented to the BIF or the SAIF.

Allows the FDIC, after reaching agreement with the other Federal banking agencies, to require insured depository institutions to file additional reports for insurance purposes.

Requires the FDIC to set the assessment rate for insured depository institutions annually. Specifies that the annual assessment rate for BIF members shall be determined independently from the annual assessment rate for SAIF members. Prescribes the assessment rates for BIF members for 1989, 1990, and 1991 onward. Prescribes the assessment rates for SAIF members through 1990, for 1991 through 1993, for 1994 through 1997, and for 1998 onward. Allows the FDIC to raise or lower such assessment rates under specified circumstances. Specifies that such assessments shall be paid annually. Allows assessment credits to BIF members and SAIF members for years in which the reserve ratio is expected to exceed the designated reserve ratio in the succeeding year.

Permits insured savings associations to offset secondary reserves against assessed premiums.

Grants the FDIC the same authority to examine insured savings associations and to insure the deposits held at savings associations as it presently has with respect to insured banks.

Establishes two insurance funds (the Bank Insurance Fund (BIF) and the Savings Associations Insurance Fund (SAIF)) to be used by the FDIC to carry out the insurance purposes of this Act. Specifies that such funds are both to be operated and administered by the FDIC. Requires such funds to be separately maintained and not commingled. Specifies that the BIF shall consist of the assets of the Permanent Insurance Fund and all amounts assessed of BIF members. Specifies that the SAIF shall consist of all amounts assessed of SAIF members (which are not required for the Financing Corporation or the Resolution Funding Corporation pursuant to this Act) and of funds provided by the Secretary of the Treasury according to a specific schedule for FY 1991 through FY 1999. Authorizes the Secretary to provide additional amounts for such fund if the minimum net worth of the fund falls below a certain level. Authorizes appropriations for such funds. Authorizes the FDIC to borrow funds for the use of the SAIF. Provides that such borrowings shall be a direct liability of the SAIF and shall be subject to certain limitations.

Revises and defines the authorities and duties of the FDIC as the receiver or conservator for insured Federal financial institutions and for insured State financial institutions. Specifies that all insurance payments made on account of a closed bank or insured branch of a foreign bank shall be made only from the Bank Insurance Fund and all payments made on account of a closed savings association shall be made only from the Savings Association Insurance Fund.

Provides that when the FDIC pays insurance to a depositor, the FDIC shall be subrogated to the depositor's claim against the financial institution. (Such right of subrogation now applies only to national banks.)

Sets forth the authorities and duties of the FDIC in the establishment of bridge banks in cases of failed or failing financial institutions. Authorizes the FDIC to sue such bridge banks in the case of failed or failing financial instiutions as well as banks. Increases from one to three the number of times a bridge bank may be granted a one-year extension of its corporate existence. Prescribes procedures for the termination and dissolution of bridge banks.

Establishes the FSLIC Resolution Fund (Fund). Specifies that such Fund shall be managed by the FDIC and shall be separately maintained and not commingled. Transfers to such Fund the reserves and assets, debts, obligations, contracts, and other liabilities of the FSLIC existing on the date of the dissolution of the FSLIC. Outlines the Fund's funding sources. Provides for additional funding by the Secretary of the Treasury from appropriated funds in the event such funding sources are insufficient. Limits any judgment resulting from a civil action against the FSLIC or the FDIC to the assets of such Fund. Dissolves such Fund upon the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities and the sale of all assets acquired in case resolutions. Requires that any funds remaining in such Fund be covered into the Treasury.

Requires that any funds held in either the BIF or the SAIF must be invested in U.S. Government obligations or in obligations guaranteed by the U.S. Government.

Allows the FDIC to request a 60-day stay of any legal proceedings to which it becomes a party due to its acquisition of any asset or in the exercise of certain authorities.

Requires the FDIC, in determining whether to provide assistance to financial institutions, to consider: (1) the immediate and long-term obligations of the FDIC with respect to such assistance; and (2) the Federal tax revenues which would be forgone.

Provides that transfers of assets or liabilities associated with any trust business may be effected by the FDIC in connection with any asset purchase transaction without any further State or Federal approval.

Revises provisions relating to certain agreements against the interests of the FDIC.

Specifies that the Board of Directors of the FDIC may act by a 75 percent vote (current law requires a unanimous vote) in order to override a State's objection to an assisted interstate acquisition of an insured financial institution in default having $500,000,000 or more in assets.

Cites conditions which the Resolution Trust Corporation must consider when determining whether to provide monetary assistance upon the request of an SAIF member.

Increases the borrowing authority of the FDIC from $3,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000. Makes such borrowing authority subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Limits any State or local tax to which the FDIC may be subjected when acting as a receiver or conservator of a financial institution.

Limits the borrowing of both the BIF and the SAIF to the extent such liability reduces the fund's net worth to less than ten percent of assets.

Requires the FDIC to report to the President and the Congress annually regarding its operations, activities, budget, receipts, and expenditures. (Current law requires an annual report regarding only the FDIC's operations.) Requires the FDIC to make quarterly reports to the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to the FDIC's financial operating plans and forecasts.

Makes all insured financial institutions subject to the Bank Merger Act. Makes the Office of Thrift Supervision the responsible agency with respect to mergers where the acquiring, assuming, or resulting institution is to be a savings association.

Requires any insured savings association which establishes or controls a new company or elects to conduct any new activity to notify the FDIC and the DOTS.

Grants the FDIC and DOTS certain enforcement powers with respect to any company controlled by an insured savings association. Authorizes the FDIC to determine activities which are incompatible with deposit insurance. Prohibits State savings associations from engaging in any activity unless permitted by the FDIC.

Revises the statement of the policy of nondiscrimination against State nonmember banks under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to include State savings associations.

Prohibits a troubled financial instiution (one which has not met its minimum capital standards) from increasing its deposit accounts through the services of a deposit broker (unless the FDIC determines that such deposit does not constitute an unsafe or unsound practice).

Establishes the Savings Association Insurance Fund Industry Advisory Committee to advise on business conditions and regulatory matters affecting SAIF members. Terminates the Committee ten years after enactment of this Act.

Title III: Savings Associations - Amends the Home Owner's Loan Act of 1933 to establish the Office of Thrift Supervision in the Department of the Treasury. Establishes the position of the Director of the Office of Thrift Supervision, subject to the general oversight of the Secretary of the Treasury. Declares that the Chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on the date of enactment of this Act shall be the Director until such individual's term as Chairman would have expired. Outlines the duties of the Office with respect to the examination, supervision, and regulation of Federal savings associations. States that such authorities are intended to encourage such associations to maintain their role of providing credit for housing in a manner consistent with principles of safe and sound operation.

Requires the DOTS to prescribe accounting and disclosure standards for savings associations. Provides that such standards shall incorporate generally accepted accounting principles to the same degree such principles are used to determine compliance with the rules and regulations of other Federal banking agencies. Requires that the rules, regulations, and policies of the DOTS and FDIC governing the operation of savings associations shall be no less stringent than those of the Comptroller of the Currency for national banks.

Prohibits savings associations from participating in lotteries and related activities. Exempts from such proscription the performance of services for any State operating a lottery.

Requires approval of the DOTS before a savings association may issue securities or guarantee definite maturity dates for them.

Revises the Guidelines for savings associations regarding their commercial lending practices and demand accounts. Includes among the grounds for a DOTS appointment of a receiver for an association: (1) substantially insufficient capital; and (2) an inability to pay debts or obligations on a timely basis. Cites circumstances under which the DOTS may appoint a conservator or receiver of an insured State savings association in coordination with the appropriate State officials.

Authorizes stock to mutual conversions by savings associations subject to the approval of the DOTS.

Requires the DOTS to establish for all savings associations capital standards that are no less stringent than those applied to national banks.

Requires such standards to include risk-based capital standards.

Mandates that such capital standards require savings associations to maintain a three percent ratio of core capital to assets. Permits the inclusion of purchased mortgage servicing rights in the calculation of capitalization standards. Permits certain supervisory goodwill to be included in calculating core capital if certain conditions of financial soundness are met. Amortizes certain supervisory goodwill over a five-year period. Deducts from a savings association's capital (for purposes of capital standards compliance) its investment in, and loans to, any subsidiary engaged in activities that are impermissible for a national bank (except for mortgage banking activities).

Authorizes the DOTS to: (1) restrict (before a certain date) or prohibit (after that date) the asset growth of a savings association which is not in compliance with capital standards; and (2) require such association to submit an acceptable business plan.

Requires every insured savings association to maintain a liquid asset account according to standards set by the DOTS.

Provides that the expense of the examination of savings associations or their affiliates shall be assessed upon savings associations in proportion to their assets or resources. Specifies procedures for making such assessments and remedies in cases where an affiliate refuses to pay examination costs, permit examination, or provide required information.

Revises the guidelines under which savings and loan holding companies may control and acquire savings associations. Sets forth additional criteria for the qualified thrift lender test.

Makes applicable to savings associations certain provisions of the Federal Reserve Act relating to transactions with affiliates and loans and extensions of credit to directors and controlling persons.

Prohibits any savings association from carrying on any sale, plan, or practices or any advertising in violation of regulations promulgated by the DOTS.

Amends the Home Owner's Loan Act to revise the guidelines for the qualified thrift lender test. Sets forth transitional rules for: (1) certain transactions with affiliates; and (2) the retention of certain loans and investments.

Subjects the Office of Thrift Supervison to the audit authority of the General Accounting Office (GAO). Prohibits the Secretary of the Treasury from merging or consolidating the Office of Thrift Supervision with either the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency or the Comptroller of the Currency. Requires the Secretary of the Treasury to consult with the DOTS and the FDIC regarding the preservation of minority ownership of financial institutions.

Title IV: Transfer of Functions, Personnel, and Property - Terminates the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC) after the enactment of this Act. Abolishes the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB). Retains the position of Chairman of such Board solely to wind up the affairs of the FSLIC and the FHLBB.

Provides for the continuation and enforcement of all rules, regulations, and orders of the FSLIC and FHLBB. Provides for the transfer of the personnel and property of the FSLIC to the FDIC, the DOTS, the Federal Housing Finance Board, and the Resolution Trust Corporation. Requires the FHLBB Chairman to submit a final accounting of FSLIC finances and operations to the Secretary of the Treasury, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Congress within a 60-day deadline.

Title V: Financing For Thrift Resolutions - Subtitle A: Oversight Board and Resolution Trust Corporation - Establishes the Oversight Board to oversee and be accountable for the Resolution Trust Corporation, and to develop a strategic plan for conducting the Corporation's activities. Requires such plan to be submitted to the Congress before 1990. Terminates the Board within 60 days after it has fulfilled its responsibilities.

Establishes the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC) to: (1) carry out a program to manage and resolve cases involving institutions insured by the FSLIC for which a receiver or conservator has been appointed or is appointed within three years following the enactment of this Act; and (2) manage the assets of the Federal Asset Disposition Association (FADA). Provides that the RTC shall have the same case resolution and financial assistance rights and powers as the FDIC. Specifies that the RTC shall not have the authority to obligate the FDIC or its funds and that it shall be subject to the same limitations as the FDIC in connection with providing assistance to, or liquidating or otherwise resolving cases involving insured institutions.

Establishes the RTC as the successor to FSLIC conservatorship and receivership functions. Directs the RTC to review all insolvent institution cases resolved by the FSLIC between January 1, 1988, and the date of enactment of this Act in order to determine whether it can reduce costs under existing FSLIC agreements relating to such cases. Authorizes the RTC to renegotiate, modify, or restructure such agreements.

Requires the RTC to establish a Real Estate Asset Division (READ) to: (1) oversee the disposition of real property assets by entities or institutions under its purview; and (2) publish an inventory of such assets.

Sets guidelines for RTC disposition of rental properties to provide homeownership and rental housing opportunities for lower-income familites. Directs the Secretaries of Agriculture and of Housing and Urban Development to expedite financial assistance procedures for such program.

Directs the Oversight Board to establish a national advisory board and at least six regional advisory boards to advise it and the RTC, respectively, about the disposition of real property assets of certain institutions under RTC conservatorship or receivership.

Directs the RTC to liquidate the Federal Asset Disposition Association within 180 days of the enactment of this Act.

Provides that any guarantees issued by the FSLIC after January 1, 1989, and before the enactment of this Act shall be assumed by the RTC.

Authorizes the Oversight Board to remove the FDIC from its position as exclusive manager of the RTC under specified extraordinary circumstances.

Requires the RTC to terminate by December 31, 1996, and establishes the FDIC as successor to RTC conservatorships or receiverships. Provides that upon RTC termination all its assets and liabilities shall be transferred to the FSLIC Resolution Fund. Sets forth conflict-of-interest guidelines.

Directs the Comptroller General to examine and monitor all insolvent institution cases resolved by the FSLIC and to report their estimated costs to the Congress.

Subtitle B: Resolution Funding Corporation - Amends the Federal Home Loan Bank Act to establish the Resolution Funding Corporation (REFCorp) (under the regulation of the Oversight Board) to provide funds for the Resolution Trust Corporation. Sets forth capitalization guidelines. Requires the Oversight Board to report annually to the President and the Congress regarding REFCorp's activities. Terminates REFCorp after the maturity and full payment of all obligations issued by it. Mandates an annual REFCorp audit by the Comptroller General.

Grants the Financing Corporation new assessment authority against SAIF members in the same manner as exercised by the FDIC, with the approval of the FDIC Board of Directors. Prescribes the funding sources to be used by the Financing Corporation to make interest payments on obligations.

Title VI: Thrift Acquisition Enhancement Provisions - Amends the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 to allow bank holding companies to acquire any savings association with the approval of the Federal Reserve Board. Prohibits the Federal Reserve Board from imposing any restrictions on transactions between a savings association and its holding company affiliates other than those restrictions presently imposed under the Federal Reserve Act ("Tandem restrictions").

Amends the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 to cite additional circumstances in which certain companies with passive investments in grandfathered banks shall lose their exemption from treatment as non-bank holding companies.

Amends the Depository Institution Management Interlocks Act to prescribe guidelines under which savings and loan holding companies may purchase a minority stock interest in undercapitalized savings associations.

Title VII: Federal Home Loan Bank System Reforms - Subtitle A: Federal Home Loan Bank Act Amendments - Amends the Federal Home Loan Bank Act to establish the Federal Housing Finance Board as an independent agency in the executive branch to supervise the Federal home loan banks. Outlines the Board's responsibilities and subjects it to an audit by the Comptroller General. Establishes an Office of Inspector General for the Board.

Abolishes the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB).

Repeals the limitation placed on: (1) the lawful contract interest rate receivable by Federal Home Loan Bank member and nonmember borrowers; and (2) the interest rate payable on demand accounts by financial institutions under the Federal Home Loan Bank Board's jurisdiction.

Mandates that a specified number of Board-appointed Federal home loan bank directors be chosen from certain consumer and community activist organizations. Prohibits directors of any Federal home loan bank from serving as officers of any such bank, or from holding any interest in any Federal home loan bank members.

Authorizes Federal home loan banks to make loans to the FDIC for the use of the SAIF. Makes such loans a direct liability of the SAIF.

Authorizes the Federal Housing Finance Board to assess Federal home loan banks semiannually to provide for payment of the Board's estimated expenses.

Mandates that each Federal home loan bank: (1) establish a Community Investment Program and an Affordable Housing Program to promote community-oriented mortgage lending and long-term low- and moderate-income housing at subsidized interest rates; and (2) establish an Advisory Council to advise it on low- and moderate-income housing needs.

Requires annual status reports to the Congress regarding such housing programs.

Sets forth transfer procedures for Federal Home Loan Bank employees.

Subtitle B: Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporations - Amends the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation Act to declare that the purpose of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (FHLMC) is to: (1) provide stability in the secondary home mortgage market; (2) respond to the private capital market; and (3) provide increased liquidity of mortgage investments and expedited distribution of home mortgage financing investment capital. Modifies the structure of the Board of Directors and establishes an interim Board of Directors for a designated period. Confers general regulatory power over the Corporation upon the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development. Authorizes such Secretary to require that a portion of the corporation's mortgage purchases be related to the national goal of providing low- and moderate-income housing with reasonable economic return to the Corporation. Outlines Corporation operations. Subjects Corporation mortgage transactions to a GAO audit.

Subtitle C: Technical and Conforming Amendments - Sets forth technical and conforming amendments to related statutes.

Title VIII: Bank Conservation Act Amendments - Amends the Bank Conservation Act to prescribe guidelines authorizing the Comptroller of the Currency to appoint conservators for banks, including the appointment of the FDIC as conservator.

Title IX: Regulatory Enforcement Authority and Criminal Enhancements - Subtitle A: Expanded Enforcement Powers, Increased Penalties, and Improved Accountability - Amends the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and the Federal Credit Union Act to define the personnel liable for civil and criminal penalties for participating with knowing or reckless disregard with respect to: (1) any violation of any law or regulation; (2) any breach of fiduciary duty; or (3) any unsafe or unsound practice likely to cause an adverse effect upon an insured depository institution. Enhances the enforcement powers of banking regulatory agencies to include the authority to: (1) require restitution, reimbursement, indemnification, or guarantee against loss; (2) restrict the institution's growth; (3) dispose of any loan or asset; (4) rescind agreements or contracts; (5) require the employment of qualified personnel; (6) place restrictions upon an institution's activities; (7) apply enforcement actions to savings and loan affiliates and entities; (8) issue temporary orders with respect to incomplete or inaccurate recordkeeping by an insured financial institution; and (9) remove or prohibit certain personnel from engaging in banking activities on an industrywide basis. Sets forth a limitations period for enforcement proceedings against such personnel after separation from banking service. Establishes a tiered schedule of increased civil money penalties for violations by insured financial institutions or their personnel. Establishes a criminal penalty for participation in the affairs of either a bank holding company or a savings and loan holding company by individuals who are prohibited from engaging in the affairs of a financial institution. Increases the civil penalties for non-compliance with reporting requirements.

Authorizes the FDIC to take enforcement actions against savings associations if the DOTS has failed to take such action after being requested by the FDIC.

Requires banking regulatory agencies to publicly disclose final enforcement orders (or modifications thereof).

Requires insured depository institutions (including depository institution holding companies) to notify bank regulatory agencies before appointing senior executive personnel. Authorizes agencies to disapprove such appointments.

Requires Federal banking agencies and the National Credit Union Administration to report to the Congress the findings of a joint task force feasibility study regarding the delegation of investigation and enforcement authority to regional or district offices.

Requires annual agency reports to the Congress on all enforcement actions.

Amends the Federal Credit Union Act to mandate an outside, independent audit of insured credit unions experiencing certain deficiencies.

Subtitle B: Termination of Deposit Insurance - Amends the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to revise termination procedures for FDIC deposit insurance, and to authorize the temporary suspension of such insurance if the capital assets of an insured depository institution are determined to be deficient by the FDIC.

Sets forth special rules for savings associations under which goodwill must be included in the determination of tangible capital to the extent that it is considered a component of capital under the Home Owner's Loan Act.

Subtitle C: Improving Early Detection of Misconduct and Encouraging Informants - Amends the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and the Federal Credit Union Act to mandate that insured depository institutions furnish independent auditors with specified information. Provides employment protection for financial institution employees who report banking violations to the appropriate authorities. Authorizes such employees to file a wrongful discharge action in Federal district court and to seek employment protection remedies.

Subtitle D: Right to Financial Privacy Act - Amends the Right to Financial Privacy Act to specify that the exceptions to the requirements of such Act apply to supervisory agencies of any financial institution, holding company, or any subsidiary of a financial institution or holding company. Specifies that such exceptions extend to: (1) any supervisory agency of financial records or information in the exercise of its supervisory regulatory or monetary functions, including conservatorship or receivership functions; (2) the Federal Reserve or any Federal Reserve bank in the exercise of its authority to extend credit to depository institutions and others; and (3) the RTC in the exercise of its conservatorship, receivership, or liquidation functions.

Prohibits a financial institution which has been served a grand jury subpoena relating to possible crimes against financial institutions or regulatory agencies from notifying any person named in the subpoena about the existence or contents of any subpoena or any information that has been furnished to the grand jury in response to that subpoena. Authorizes the Securities and Exchange Commission to exchange customer record information with banking regulatory agencies.

Subtitle E: Civil Penalties for Violations Involving Financial Institutions - Establishes maximum civil penalties for specified violations involving financial institutions. Requires the Attorney General to establish the right to recovery by a preponderance of the evidence.

Subtitle F: Criminal Law and Procedure - Amends the Federal criminal code to increase the criminal penalties for specified criminal offenses affecting financinal institutions. Increases the statute of limitations pertaining to such crimes from five years to ten years. Directs the U.S. Sentencing Commission to promulgate guidelines for a substantial period of incarceration for violations that substantially jeopardize a federally insured financial institution. Establishes a criminal penalty for the disclosure by financial institution personnel to their customers that they are targets of a grand jury records subpoena if the intent of such disclosure is the obstruction of justice.

Provides for civil forfeiture and criminal forfeiture of any property derived from proceeds traceable to specified crimes affecting federally insured financial institutions.

Amends the Federal criminal code to allow the disclosure of certain matters occurring before a grand jury to certain Government attorneys to assist in the enforcement of Federal criminal or civil law and this Act. Allows certain other disclosures when permitted by a court.

Directs the Department of Justice to create regional offices of its Fraud Section in specified locations in Texas. Requires the Comptroller General to report to the Congress on the need for additional regional offices.

Authorizes appropriations for: (1) the Department of Justice to investigate and prosecute financial institution-related offenses; and (2) the Federal courts systems to process the caseload generated by this Act.

Title X: Studies of Federal Deposit Insurance, Banking Services, and the Safety and Soundness of Government-Sponsored Enterprises - Requires the Secretary of the Treasury to study and report to the Congress on the Federal deposit insurance system.

Requires the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to report annually to the Congress the results of an annual survey of retail banking services by insured financial institutions and the fees charged for them.

Requires the Comptroller General to report to the Congress the results of a study of: (1) certain deposit insurance issues; and (2) the risks undertaken by all government-sponsored enterprises and the appropriate capital requirements for such enterprises.

Title XI: Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments - Amends the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council Act of 1978 to establish the Appraisal Subcommittee to monitor: (1) State and Federal certification and licensing of appraisers involved in federally related transactions; and (2) the procedures and activities of the Appraisal Foundation. Requires the Subcommittee to submit an annual status report to the Congress and to maintain a national registry of State licensed appraisers eligible to perform appraisals in federally related transactions. Mandates that each State whose appraiser certification and licensing program complies with this Act transmit to such Subcommittee an annual roster of appraisers eligible to conduct federally-related transactions. Sets forth a time frame within which each Federal financial institutions regulatory agency and the Resolution Trust Corporation must prescribe real estate appraisal criteria for federally-related transactions under their jurisdiction. Establishes a civil penalty for financial institutions and specified Federal entities that knowingly obtain appraisal services for a federally-related transaction from a person who is neither State certified nor licensed.

Directs the appraisal Subcommittee to report to the Congress the results of studies regarding: (1) the sufficiency of real estate data to permit appraisers to estimate property values properly in federally-related transactions; and (2) the feasibility of extending the appraisal provisions of this Act to personal property in connection with Federal financial and public policy interests.

Title XII: Miscellaneous Provisions - Requires the Comptroller General to report to the Congress the results of a study regarding the structure and condition of the credit union system. Disaster Assistance Act of 1989 - Title I: Emergency Crop Loss Assistance - Subtitle A: Annual Crops - Extends disaster crop loss assistance through the 1989 crop year for wheat, feed grains, cotton, rice, peanuts, sugar, tobacco, soybeans, and other nonprogram crops.

Extends crop quality reduction disaster assistance through the 1989 crop year.

Reduces disaster assistance payments in relation to Federal crop insurance payments.

Requires producers to obtain Federal crop insurance for 1990 in order to be eligible for disaster payments and other specified assistance for 1989 crop losses. Sets forth exempted circumstances.

Requires the Secretary of Agriculture to announce within a specified time the conditions for establishing a 1989 farm yield for forage-use-crops.

Limits assistance under this Act to $100,000.

Authorizes the Secretary to determine a de minimis yield for each crop eligible for reduced yield disaster payments under this Act.

Reduces 1989 disaster payments by a replacement crop's value.

Authorizes the substitution of crop insurance program yields for 1989 disaster assistance eligibility purposes.

Subtitle B: Orchards - Provides disaster assistance (up to $25,000 or an equivalent value in seedlings) to orchardists who suffered qualifying tree losses as a result of 1989 freeze or related condition.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that Federal crop insurance should be made available to all orchard crops.

Subtitle C: Forest Crops - Provides disaster assistance (up to $25,000 or an equivalent in seedlings) to commercial tree farmers who suffered qualifying tree seedling losses as a result of 1989 drought or related condition.

Subtitle D: Additional Assistance - Prohibits the Secretary from reducing rental payments to an owner or operator who hays or grazes livestock during the 1989 crop year on land subject to a conservation reserve program contract to the extent that such owner or operator carries out and pays for specified additional conservation practices.

Amends the Agricultural Act of 1949 to provide assistance for deepening or constructing livestock ponds.

Subtitle E: Administrative Provisions - Makes a person with qualifying annual gross income (as defined by this Act) in excess of $2,000,000 ineligible for assistance under this Act.

Requires assistance applications to be made by March 31, 1990, or such later date as the Secretary may prescribe.

Limits 1989 program crop deficiency payments if 1989 national corn acreage exceeds a specified level.

Title II: Emergency Livestock Assistance - Amends the Agricultural Act of 1949 to authorize: (1) the use of Commodity Credit Corporation stored grain for emergency livestock assistance; and (2) funds for emergency livestock transportation and water assistance.

Directs the Secretary to study and report to the Congress on the methodology and justification of the calculations used to determine the animal unit figure used for the emergency food and feed assistance programs.

Title III: Disaster Credit and Forbearance - Makes producers who suffered 1989 crop losses eligible for emergency loans even if they had crop insurance.

Directs the Secretary to make direct and guaranteed farm operating loans (including funds from the Agricultural Credit Insurance Fund) available to producers who suffered 1989 crop losses due to moisture, freeze or related condition, and 1988 or 1989 crop losses due to drought or related condition.

Authorizes unpaid principal reductions for certain FmHA loans made to Indian tribes.

Title IV: Rural Businesses - Directs the Secretary to provide loan guarantees through the Rural Development Insurance Fund to rural business enterprises (including Indian tribes) which have suffered disaster damage in 1988 or 1989.

Limits: (1) individual guarantees to the lesser of 90 percent of principal and interest or $2,500,000; and (2) aggregate guarantees to $200,000,000.

Title V: Water-Related Assistance - Amends the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act to direct the Secretary to establish an emergency water assistance grant program for rural and small communities (not more than 15,000 population, median household income not more than State nonmetropolitan level) with significant water quantity or quality shortages or declines. Obligates at least 50 percent of program funds for rural communities of less than 5,000 persons.

Authorizes FY 1990 and 1991 appropriations.

Amends the Agricultural Credit Act of 1978 to authorize livestock water assistance activities.

Amends the Disaster Assistance Act of 1988 to authorize disaster assistance for watershed protection activities. Authorizes FY 1990 appropriations.

Title VI: General Provisions - Amends the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 to reduce the obligation of a handler to export peanuts by a specified shrinkage value.

Amends the Disaster Assistance Act of 1988 to delay the 1988 crop advanced deficiency repayment deadline.

Amends the Agricultural Act of 1949 to extend authority for alternate crop planting on permitted acreage.

Amends the Federal Crop Insurance Act to authorize crop insurance underwriting rules that ensure that yield coverage is provided to participating producers. Sets forth yield coverage provisions.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for the Federal Maritime Commission.

Directs the Commission to: (1) require that electronic copies of the Automated Tariff Filing and Information (ATFI) data base are made available in bulk in a timely and nondiscriminatory fashion; (2) assess fees for the service; (3) impose controls to limit remote access usage by any one person; and (4) allow information from the ATFI system to be used, resold, or disseminated without restriction and without payment of additional fees or royalties.

Amends the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933 to remove, for ships not carrying passengers, the requirement that terms and conditions of the transportation be framed under glass and posted on board the vessel.

Authorizes the Secretary of Transportation to issue a certificate of documentation for the coastwise trade or fisheries, or both, to four named vessels.

Authorizes the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to issue, subject to certain conditions, a certificate of documentation for a named vessel to acquire, purchase, process, and transport fish and fish products in the fisheries of the United States.

Authorizes the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to issue a certificate of documentation for the coastwise trade to a named vessel.

Drug Abuse Treatment Technical Corrections Act of 1989 - Amends the Public Health Service Act to revise the formula for allotments to States and territories for alcohol and drug abuse and mental health services block grants.

Authorizes the Secretary of Health and Human Services, notwithstanding specified provisions of the Public Health Service Act, with respect to FY 1989, to waive a requirement that certain amounts paid to a State for such block grants, obligated by the State, and remaining unexpended at the end of the fiscal year remain available during the succeeding fiscal year.

Authorizes the Secretary to waive the requirement in specified provisions regarding minimum expenditures by States for alcohol and drug abuse activities if the Secretary determines that the incidence of intravenous drug abuse in the State does not require the level of funding required in such provisions.

Amends provisions requiring a set-aside of a portion of the block grant funds for programs and services for women to require that the focus be on alcohol and drug abuse.

Declares that provisions requiring States to use a portion of the block grants for group homes for recovering substance abusers do not apply to any U.S. territory other than the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Prohibits an allotment of block grant funds being made to a State unless its legislature holds public hearings on the proposed use and distribution of funds. (Current law requires such hearings after the first fiscal year in which a State receives an allotment under provisions relating to set-aside for an Indian tribe or tribal organization.)

Changes the composition of State mental health services planning councils.

Requires the development of a model plan for a community-based system for seriously mentally ill individuals. (Current law requires development of such a plan for a system for chronically mentally ill individuals.)

Amends the Public Health Service Act to authorize the Administrator of the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration to establish program advisory committees and to pay members of the committees.

Amends provisions of the Public Health Service Act establishing a grant program for demonstration projects relating to, among other matters, mental health services to focus on seriously mentally ill individuals rather than chronically ill individuals.

Amends the Public Health Service Act to require the establishment of the National Deafness and Other Communication Disorders Advisory Board by April 1, 1989.

Allows exclusion, in computing the maximum number of commissioned officers of the Public Health Service authorized by law to hold a grade corresponding to brigadier or major general, for officers assigned to duty with the Department of Defense. (Current law allows exclusion for such officers only if assigned to duty with the office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs.)

Amends specified provisions of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act (McKinney Act) and the Public Health Service Act to read as if the amendments made by title VI (Revision and Extension of Programs of Health Care for the Homeless) of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988 had not been enacted.

Amends the McKinney Act so as to authorize appropriations for a National Mental Health Education Program rather than for community mental health services demonstration projects.

Amends the Public Health Service Act to allow recipients of grants for health service delivery to homeless individuals to provide dental, vision, and podiatry services as well as mental health and other services.

Amends provisions of the Public Health Service Act relating to grants and contracts for community-based evaluations of experimental therapies for infection with the etiologic agent for acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) to require that programs carried out with such assistance be designed to encourage schools of osteopathic medicine, as well as private industry and schools of medicine, to participate in and support the evaluations.

Amends provisions relating to default on loans under the Federal program of insured loans to graduate students in health professions schools to require the Secretary to make the payment or deny the claim not later than 60 days after the Secretary determines that the lender or holder has made reasonable efforts to secure and collect on a judgment against the borrower. (Current law requires the Secretary to take such action not later than 60 days after the eligible institution notifies the Secretary that judgment has been entered on an action for the default.)

Court of Veterans Appeals Judges Retirement Act - Title I: Judges Retirement and Survivor Annuity Program - Amends Federal veterans' benefits provisions concerning the U.S. Court of Veterans Appeals (Court) to outline the age and service requirements for full retirement benefits. Requires a judge who is unable to perform the duties of office due to permanent disability to retire. Provides that a judge serving for less than ten years who retires due to permanent disability shall receive retired pay of one-half of the rate of pay in effect at retirement. Requires an election to retire under such retirement provisions to be made while the judge is still an active judge. Prohibits revocation of such an election after the retired pay begins to accrue. Requires such election to be in writing and sent to the chief judge or, in the case of the chief judge, to the Director of the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). Outlines provisions concerning: (1) forfeiture of rights to retired pay while accepting employment with the United States; (2) the lack of an annuity payable under civil service retirement laws, as well as the lack of a deduction from retired pay for the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund; and (3) notice to the President in writing when a judge is unable to perform the duties of office due to a permanent disability.

Allows an individual who has elected to receive retired pay under these provisions to revoke such election at any time before the first day on which retired pay would begin to accrue. Requires notice of such revocation to be in writing and sent to the Director of OPM. Outlines the ramifications of such revocation (basically, reinclusion under Federal civil service retirement provisions).

Requires the Director of OPM to begin withholding one percent of the salary of a judge under this Act after proper notice of the election to receive retirement coverage under this Act. Requires withheld amounts to be credited to the Court of Veterans Appeals Judges Retirement Fund. Allows a judge to deposit into such Fund amounts for up to 15 years of service prior to the date on which contributions may be made under this Act.

Authorizes a judge to become a participant in the survivors annuity program by filing a written notice of such election under this Act while in office in a manner prescribed by the Court. Provides for a deduction of 3.5 percent of the judge's pay to provide coverage for the annuity. Requires amounts so withheld to be deposited into the Fund. Requires a judge to deposit into the Fund, for annuity coverage, 3.5 percent of the judge's pay or other compensation for service as a member of Congress or any other civilian Federal service. Allows such payments for prior years of service to be made in installments. Provides that if the service of a judge who makes an election to be covered under the annuity provisions is terminated, or if any judge ceases to be married after making the election and revokes the election, the amount in the judge's individual account shall be returned to the judge. Allows an annuity to be paid to the surviving spouse and dependent child of a judge under this Act if the judge dies after having rendered at least five years of civilian service and has made payments into the Fund for at least five years. Terminates the annuity to the surviving spouse upon his or her death or remarriage before age 55. Terminates the annuity payable to the child at the child's death. Recomputes the annuity payable to a dependent child after the death of a surviving spouse and after the death of another dependent child. Terminates any annuity payments if a judge making an election to be covered for annuity purposes dies before having rendered at least five years of civilian service or dies without a survivor entitled to such benefits. Provides, in such case, that the full amount of deposits made by the judge before his or her death, plus interest, shall be returned to the persons surviving on the date that title to the payment arises, in a specified order of priority. Provides for payment of the unpaid remaining annuity of a survivor or dependent upon the termination (other than by death) of the annuity of any individual based upon the service of a judge, in a specified order of preference. Provides for alternative measures to be taken for the payment of annuities to minors or mentally incompetent persons. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the time and amounts of annuity payments (determined on the basis of a judge's average annual pay). Requires the years of service for determining the amount of a surviving spouse's annuity rights to include years of service as a judge of the Court, as a member of Congress, and as a member of the armed forces (within a specified limit) and any other Federal civilian service.

Requires a judge making an election to provide an annuity under this Act to waive all benefits under the civil service retirement laws. Requires annuity payments to be increased whenever a judge's salary is increased as long as the deceased judge rendered some portion of his or her final 18 months as a judge of the Court.

Establishes in the Treasury the Court of Veterans Appeals Retirement Fund. Requires the chief judge of the Court to submit to the President an annual estimate of the expenditures and appropriations necessary for maintenance and operation of the Fund. Provides for periodic examinations of the Fund by an actuary. Requires deposits into the Fund as necessary to reduce to zero its unfunded liability.

Title II: Provisions Relating to Establishment of Court of Veterans Appeals - Directs the Administrator of General Services to provide suitable building space in the District of Columbia for use by the Court. Requires such space to be approved by the Court.

Extends the date by which an appeal must be filed with the Court with regard to Board of Veterans Appeals decisions made before notice of the commencement of operations by the Court has been published in the Federal Register. Provides for interim rules of the Court.

Provides for the appointment of a Court clerk, law clerks, secretaries, deputies, and other employees for the Court without regard to Federal law concerning appointments made in the competitive service. Prohibits any employee of the Court from being converted to the competitive service without the approval of the Court.

Title III: Technical Corrections - Makes technical corrections to current Federal law concerning the Board of Veterans Appeals.

Title IV: Miscellaneous Provisions - Excludes certain noncareer appointments and competitive service-excepted confidential or policy making positions in the Department of Veterans Affairs from a requirement prohibiting political affiliation or activity from being taken into account in connection with the appointment of personnel to certain positions.

Provides for an acting chief judge of the Court in the event of a vacancy.

District of Columbia Civil Contempt Imprisonment Limitation Act of 1989 - Amends the District of Columbia Code to limit the term of incarceration for civil contempt in child custody cases to 12 months, except in cases where a person incarcerated for civil contempt is charged with criminal contempt for failure to comply with a court order. Provides that an individual may be charged for criminal contempt no earlier than six months and no later than 12 months after incarceration for civil contempt in a child custody case, and be imprisoned until the completion of the trial for criminal contempt, but in no case for more than 18 months. Requires that such criminal contempt trial: (1) begin within 90 days after the individual is charged with criminal contempt; (2) be a trial by jury upon such individual's request; and (3) not be conducted before the judge who incarcerated such individual for contempt.

Requires the District of Columbia Court of Appeals to hear an appeal from an order of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia holding an individual in contempt and imposing imprisonment on such individual in the course of a child custody case within 60 days after such individual requests such appeal.

Directs the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs and the House Committee on the District of Columbia to study civil contempt law and procedures in District of Columbia courts and the Senate Committee on the Judiciary to study civil contempt laws and procedures in Federal courts. Requires reports on such studies by September 1, 1990.

Makes this Act applicable to persons imprisoned during the 18-month period beginning on the date of this Act's enactment.

Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act, 1990 - Title I: Department of Defense - Civil - Makes appropriations for FY 1990 for authorized civil functions of the Department of the Army relating to rivers and harbors, flood control, and beach erosion (including projects which involve State and local governmental participation).

Modifies the project for flood control, Wyoming Valley, Pennsylvania, to direct the Secretary of the Army to complete the design of the project so as to provide flood protection to the area protected by the existing projects from flood conditions which would occur as a result of the recurrence of tropical storms such as Agnes of 1972.

Modifies the Sacramento River Flood Control Project to direct the Secretary to proceed in FY 1990 and in subsequent years as necessary with construction of riverbed gradient restoration structures in the vicinity of River Mile 206, Sacramento River, California.

Amends the authorization for the Sims Bayou, Texas, project to reflect increased estimates of the project cost.

Modifies the project for shoreline protection for the Atlantic Coast of Maryland (Ocean City) to authorize the Secretary to construct hurricane and storm protection measures based on the District Engineer's Post Authorization Change Notification Report dated May 1989.

Authorizes the Secretary to transfer and reassign property accountability for the headquarters aircraft of the Corps of Engineers, Serial Number 045, from the assets of the civil works revolving fund to the military activity of the Army that the Secretary determines is appropriate. Requires that the aircraft be made available on a priority basis as necessary for activities in support of the Army's civil works mission.

Directs the Secretary to assume operation of the Sledge Bayou Drainage District's structure located in Quitman County, Mississippi.

Amends the Water Resources Development Act of 1986 to requires the Secretary to credit the Federal share of the cost of work by non-Federal interests on the Cherry Street Bridge in Massillon, Ohio, toward the non-Federal share of the cost of construction of the Walnut Street Bridge in Massillon.

Directs the Secretary to perform maintenance dredging to maintain Pump Slough from its confluence with the West Pearl River to the boat ramps in the vicinity of Interstate 59 and Crawford and Davis landings.

Modifies the project for mitigation of fish and wildlife losses at the Canaveral Harbor West Basin and Approach Channel project, Florida, to authorize the Secretary to construct that part of the project consisting of: (1) reshaping of four spoil islands located in the Banana River; (2) installation of culverts along the existing levee of the south mosquito control impoundment of Merritt Island; and (3) rehabilitation of the existing pump station located at the southern tip of the south mosquito control impoundment.

Amends the authorization for the Roanoke River Upper Basin, Virginia, project to reflect increased estimates of project cost.

Modifies the project for navigation, Bonneville Lock and Dam, Oregon and Washington, to authorize the Secretary to make available and deliver to specified Oregon and Washington ports excavated material surplus to the needs of such project.

Amends the Water Resources Development Act of 1988 to forgive Aberdeen, Washington's operation, maintenance, repair, and rehabilitation payment obligations in excess of $200,000 for FY 1989 associated with the transfer of responsibility for the Wynochee Dam project from the Corps of Engineers.

Designates the lake and recreation area at Dam Site 18 of the Papillion Creek Basin Project in Nebraska as the Ed Zorinsky Lake and Recreation Area.

Authorizes construction of the project for flood damage prevention along the Rillito River, Pima County, Arizona.

Title II: Department of the Interior - Makes appropriations for FY 1990 to the Department of the Interior for the Bureau of Reclamation for: (1) engineering and economic investigations of Federal reclamation and water conservation projects; (2) construction and rehabilitation projects; (3) operation and maintenance of reclamation projects; (4) loans to irrigation districts for construction of distribution systems on authorized Federal reclamation projects; (5) general administrative expenses in certain Bureau of Reclamation offices; (6) the "Emergency Fund" as authorized by an Act of June 26, 1948; (7) acquisition of computer capacity for the Business System Acquisition project and other capital equipment; (8) replacement passenger motor vehicles and aircraft; and (9) recovery of archaeological and paleontological remains in specified areas.

Authorizes an appropriation as compensation to the Strawberry Water Users Association which shall be available only for such compensation and must be used for Strawberry Valley Reclamation Project purposes. Requires the Association, upon receipt of such compensation, to relinquish all of its contractual surface rights and interests in the 56,775 acres of Project lands.

States that no part of any appropriation for the Bureau, contained in this Act or in any prior Act, which represents amounts earned under the terms of a contract but remaining unpaid, shall be obligated for any other purpose, regardless of when such amounts are to be paid.

States that no funds appropriated to the Bureau for operation and maintenance, except those derived from advances by water users, shall be used for the particular benefits of lands: (1) within the boundaries of an irrigation district; (2) of any member of a water users' organization; or (3) of any individual when such district, organization, or individual is in arrears for more than 12 months in the payment of charges due under a contract entered into with the United States pursuant to laws administered by the Bureau.

Authorizes the Bureau to accept the services of volunteers. Provides that such volunteers shall not be deemed employees of: (1) the United States except for purposes of compensation for work injuries; and (2) the Bureau except for the purposes of tort claims to the same extent as a regular employee of the Bureau would be under identical circumstances.

States that none of the funds made available by this or any other Act shall be used by the Bureau for contracts for surveying and mapping services unless such contracts for which a solicitation is issued after the date of this Act are awarded in accordance with the Federal Property and Administrative Service Act of 1949. Prohibits the uniform allowance for each uniformed employee of the Bureau from exceeding $400 annually.

Makes appropriations available to the Department of the Interior for: (1) damaged facilities or equipment belonging to the Department; (2) emergency prevention of forest or range fires; (3) operation of warehouses, garages, shops, and similar facilities, wherever consolidation of activities will contribute to efficiency or economy; and (4) general administrative expenses.

Repeals provisions of the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act of 1988 which: (1) directs that the McGee Creek Project of the Bureau of Reclamation not be deemed completed until all authorized components of the project are completed; and (2) prohibits the Bureau from transferring title of the project to any other entity, requiring repayment of the project, or permitting refinancing of the project until such project is completed.

Title III: Department of Energy - Makes appropriations to the Department of Energy for FY 1990 for: (1) specified energy supply, research, and development activities; (2) uranium supply and enrichment activities; (3) general science and research activities; (4) nuclear waste disposal activities (including funds for Nevada to conduct its oversight responsibilities under the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982); (5) activities related to the production and distribution of isotopes; (6) atomic energy defense activities; (7) departmental administrative expenses; (8) the Office of the Inspector General; (9) electrical power projects of the Alaska Power Administration; (10) expenses of the Northeast Oregon Spring Chinook Facility and Galbraith Springs/Sherman Creek Hatcheries and for official reception and representation costs of the Bonneville Power Administration; (11) operational and maintenance expenses related to electric power transmission for the Southeastern Power Administration; (12) operational and maintenance expenses (including official reception and representation expenses) related to electric power transmission for the Southwestern Power Administration; (13) operational and maintenance expenses of the Western Area Power Administration; (14) salaries and expenses of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission; (15) the Loan Guarantee and Interest Assistance Program authorized by the Geothermal Energy Research, Development and Demonstration Act of 1974; and (16) Department of Energy general passenger vehicles and security guard expenses.

States that none of the funds provided in this Act for the Superconducting Super Collider shall be available to finalize or implement any agreements for either in-kind or direct contributions from foreign countries until a full report on such international contributions has been provided to the Congress, unless the President or Secretary of Energy certifies in writing that it is in the national interest to implement such an agreement.

Requires the Secretary to ensure: (1) that at least ten percent of the Federal funding for the development, construction, and operation of the Superconducting Super Collider be made available to business concerns or other organizations owned or controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals; and (2) significant participation with regard to the Collider by such individuals and economically disadvantaged women.

Title IV: Independent Agencies - Makes appropriations for FY 1990 for: (1) programs authorized by the Appalachian Regional Development Act of 1965; (2) salaries and expenses of the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board; (3) salaries and expenses of, and the Federal contribution to, the Delaware River Basin Commission; (4) expenses of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin; (5) the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's expenses; (6) expenses of the Office of Inspector General of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission; (7) expenses of the U.S. member of the Susquehanna River Basin Commission; (8) expenses of the Tennessee Valley Authority; and (9) expenses of the Office of the Nuclear Waste Negotiator and the Nuclear Waste Technical Review Board.

Title V: General Provisions - Sets forth guidelines for the expenditure of appropriations under this Act.

States that none of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be used to implement a program of retention contracts for senior employees of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

States that none of the funds made available under this Act or any other law shall be used for conducting any studies relating to changing from the currently required "at cost" to a "market rate" or any other noncost-based method for the pricing of hydroelectric power by the six Federal public power authorities or other Federal agencies or authorities.

Prohibits appropriations for the Power Marketing Administration or the Tennessee Valley Authority (including funds authorized to be expended from the Bonneville Power Administration Fund and the Tennessee Valley Authority Fund) from being used for procuring extra high voltage (EHV) power equipment unless such agencies award contracts for equipment manufactured in the United States when they determine that there are one or more manufacturers of domestic end products offering a product that meets the technical requirements at a price not exceeding 130 percent of the bid or offering price of the most competitive foreign bidder.

Requires that such sums as may be necessary for FY 1990 pay raises for programs funded by this Act be absorbed within the levels appropriated in this Act.

Performance Management and Recognition System Reauthorization Act of 1989 - Extends the performance management and recognition system for Federal employees through March 31, 1991.

Revises provisions relating to merit increases under such system. Establishes a second reference rate (equal to the sum of the minimum basic pay rate for the grade of the position held by an employee and two-thirds of the difference between the maximum and minimum basic pay rates provided for such grade) for determining merit increases from October 1, 1989, through March 31, 1991. Provides that if the employee's basic pay rate falls between the two reference rates and the employee's performance is rated at, or one level above, the fully successful level, the employee's basic pay rate shall be increased by an amount equal to one-half of a merit increase.

Provides that the applicable minimum percentage of the aggregate basic pay for an agency to be paid in performance awards shall be 1.15 percent for FY 1990 and 1991. Limits the applicable maximum percentage for such years to 1.5 percent.

Requires each agency's performance appraisal system to include procedures under which an employee whose performance has been rated below fully successful shall be given: (1) a performance improvement plan describing improvements the employee must demonstrate to attain fully successful performance; and (2) reasonable time to attain fully successful performance.

Amends the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 to extend to civil service annuities commencing before December 3, 1989, the partial deferred payment of lump-sum credit for certain individuals electing alternative forms of annuities.

10-06-89	Public Law 101-114

Public Law 101-115 Approved 10/13/89; H.R. 1486.

Authorizes appropriations for the Maritime Administration for FY 1990 for: (1) operating-differential subsidies; (2) research and development; (3) manpower, education, and training; (4) operating programs; and (5) national security support capabilities, including for the National Defense Reserve Fleet and the Ready Reserve Force.

Amends the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 to revise Federal provisions relating to the making of student incentive payments to individuals enrolled in State maritime academies.

Mandates that a State maritime academy, in order to receive any payment or the use of any vessel under certain provisions, require, as a condition for graduation, that a U.S. citizen in a merchant marine officer preparation program pass the Coast Guard examination for a license.

Directs the Secretary of Transportation to submit to the Congress a study on providing training opportunities for State, regional, and Federal maritime academy students that will produce licensed graduate officers. Prohibits the Secretary from implementing any ship sharing program until at least 60 days after submission of the study to the Congress.

Amends the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 to set the cap on annual payments to regional maritime academies which meet certain requirements at $200,000.

Amends the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946 to replace provisions setting forth the composition of the national defense reserve fleet and making certain vessels available to State marine schools with provisions directing the Secretary of Transportation to maintain a National Defense Reserve Fleet, including any vessel assigned to the Ready Reserve Force component of the fleet, consisting of vessels owned or acquired by the United States that the Secretary determines are of value for national defense and decides to place and maintain in the fleet.

Sets forth permissible uses of the fleet. Prohibits the Secretary from requiring certain types of bonds from contractors for repair, alteration, or maintenance of vessels of the National Defense Reserve Fleet unless required by law or the Secretary determines that such a requirement would not preclude any responsible bidder or offeror from competing.

Amends the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 to condition war risk insurance and reinsurance for vessels on such vessels being available for the United States in time of war or national emergency. Extends until June 30, 1995, the expiration of the authority of the Secretary to provide war risk insurance or reinsurance.

Authorizes the Secretary of Transportation to designate National Maritime Enhancement Institutes. Allows activities undertaken by the Institute to include: (1) conducting research on methods to improve maritime industries' performance; (2) enhancing the competitiveness of domestic maritime industries in international trade; (3) forecasting trade trends; (4) assessing technological advancements; (5) developing management and training; (6) analyzing impacts of regulatory policies and pending international negotiations; (7) assessing the compatibility of domestic and overseas transport systems; (8) fostering innovations in maritime transportation pricing; and (9) improving maritime economics and finance.

Sets forth criteria for designation of an Institute.

Authorizes the Secretary to make research grants to an Institute, on an equal matching basis, to a specified aggregate limit.

Authorizes the Administrator of the Agency for International Development (AID) to use specified amounts of unexpended funds for assistance for the promotion of democracy and national reconciliation in Nicaragua. Restricts the use of such funds to assistance to internal groups, including political organizations, independent elements of the media, labor unions, business groups, support for the election process and monitoring, and support intended to ensure the conduct of free, fair, and open elections consistent with the charter of the National Endowment for Democracy. Earmarks funds for the Council of Freely-Elected Heads of Government, the Center for Democracy, and the Center for Training and Election Promotion.

Requires AID to report to the appropriate congressional committees prior to the obligation of funds under this Act.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the National Opposition Union's representative on the Supreme Electoral Council will seek to ensure that any funds going to the Council are used solely for technical electoral purposes, such as ballot boxes and ballot printing.

Makes funds under this Act available until February 28, 1990.

Public Law 101-134 Approved 10/30/89; S. 1792.

Amends the Disaster Assistance Act of 1989 to specify that the "net value" rather than the "value" of a replacement crop shall be considered when making specified disaster payment reductions.

Applies such reductions only to replanted acreage.

Requires separate consideration of planted and replanted acreage in determining emergency crop loss assistance under such Act.

Requires the Secretary of Agriculture in determining replacement crop value to: (1) consider only the amount of replacement crop production that is in excess of 50 percent of the county average yield for such crop; (2) base the value of the excess replacement crop production on average market prices for such crop over a representative period; (3) reduce such crop's value by 25 percent; and (4) consider historical cropping patterns.

Authorizes the Secretary to make crop acreage base adjustments to reflect crop rotation practices due to natural disasters.

Amends the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 to: (1) revise the formula for determining farm poundage quotas for dark air-cured tobacco and fire-cured tobacco; and (2) revise the definition of "preliminary farm yield" for other than flue-cured tobacco.

Amends the Food Security Act of 1985 to permit the Secretary to waive the principal due on agricultural regular or producer reserve loans in order to avoid loan collateral forfeiture.

Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and Independent Agencies Appropriations Act, 1990 - Title I: Department of Veterans Affairs - Makes appropriations for FY 1990 to the Department of Veterans Affairs for: (1) the payment of compensation benefits and readjustment benefits, veterans insurance and indemnities, the loan guaranty and insurance operations, and direct loans for specially adapted housing; (2) medical care facilities, medical and prosthetic research, medical administration, miscellaneous operating expenses, and grants to the Republic of the Philippines for assistance to a medical center; and (3) general operating expenses, the Office of the Inspector General, construction projects, the parking garage revolving fund, grants for the construction of State extended care facilities, and grants for the construction of State veterans cemeteries.

Makes funds available to assist the City of Sturgis, South Dakota, in improving a wastewater treatment plant used by the Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Fort Meade, South Dakota.

Authorizes the transfer of funds among specified appropriations.

Authorizes the use of appropriations to procure consultant services.

Makes certain appropriations available for the construction of any new hospital or home.

Prohibits the use of appropriations to hospitalize or examine non-beneficiaries, unless reimbursement is made at rates determined by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs.

Authorizes the use of certain appropriations to pay prior year accrued obligations for certain benefits.

Title II: Department of Housing and Urban Development - Makes appropriations for FY 1990 for the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for: (1) housing programs, including contributions for assisted housing, renewal of expiring subsidy contracts, moderate rehabilitation program, rental rehabilitation grants, congregate services, low-income housing projects, housing counseling assistance, multi-family housing project subsidies, the emergency shelter grants program, the transitional supportive housing demonstration program, grants for supplemental assistance for facilities to assist the homeless, and housing administration funds; (2) community development grants program; (3) the urban homesteading program; (4) research and technology; (5) fair housing activities; and (6) management and administration, including the Office of the Inspector General. Limits the amounts of specified loan obligations, including guarantee commitments of the Government National Mortgage Association.

Makes community development funds available for: (1) a special project for infrastructure development on Hawaiian home lands; (2) communities of Parshall and New Town, North Dakota, for municipal services in connection with properties owned by the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation Housing Authority; and (3) for West Valley City, Utah, for basic infrastructure in connection with the West Ridge Commerce Industrial Park.

Authorizes the city of College Park, Maryland, to retain any categorical settlement grant funds, urban renewal grant funds, and land disposition proceeds that remain after the financial closeout of the Lakeland Urban Renewal Project and to use such funds and proceeds for the community development block grant program.

Authorizes the city of Hartford, Connecticut, to retain any land disposition proceeds from the financially closed-out Sheldon-Charter Oak Urban Renewal Project and to use such proceeds for a community development block grant program.

Forgives certain accrued interest and requires return of interest paid by Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in connection with certain public housing project funds.

Authorizes the Seattle Housing Authority to use specified project reserves for a program of health care services for the elderly.

Amends the National Housing Act to modify the Federal Housing Authority (FHA) mortgage insurance program.

Amends the Dire Emergency Supplemental Appropriations and Transfers, Urgent Supplementals, and Correcting Enrollment Errors Act of 1989 to repeal the requirement that the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development review and report to the Congress on drug-related eviction procedures.

Requires the Secretary to indemnify public housing agencies that receive certain assistance to test and abate lead-based paint.

Sets aside funds for lower-income housing assistance for the Ganado Acres project in Arizona.

Title III: Independent Agencies - Makes appropriations for FY 1990 to the: (1) American Battle Monuments Commission; (2) Consumer Product Safety Commission; (3) Court of Veterans Appeals; (4) Department of Defense-Civil for cemeterial expenses, Army; (5) Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) for salaries and expenses, Office of Inspector General, research and development, abatement, control and compliance, buildings and facilities, Hazardous Substance Superfund Leaking Underground Storage Tank Trust Fund, and construction grants; (6) Executive Office of the President for the Council on Environmental Quality and the Office of Environmental Quality, the National Space Council, and the Office of Science and Technology Policy; (7) Federal Emergency Management Agency for disaster relief, salaries and expenses, the Office of Inspector General, emergency management planning and assistance, the National Flood Insurance Fund, and the emergency food and shelter program; (8) General Services Administration for the Consumer Information Center; (9) Department of Health and Human Services for the Office of Consumer Affairs; (10) National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) for research and development, space flight, control and data communications, construction of facilities, research and program management and the Office of Inspector General; (11) National Credit Union Administration for the obligations of the Central Liquidity Facility; (12) Interagency Council on the Homeless for salaries and expenses; (13) National Science Foundation for research and related activities, academic research facilities, the U.S. Antarctic logistical support activities, the U.S. Antarctic Program, science education activities and the Office of Inspector General; (14) Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation; (15) Selective Service System; and (16) National Institute of Building Sciences.

Makes funds available to NASA for the National Aerospace Plane.

Makes amounts deposited in the EPA Licensing and Other Services Fund from fees and charges assessed and collected by the Administrator available to carry out the programs for which the fees and charges were made.

Authorizes the Administrator to lease a portion of the Environmental Technology and Engineering Center in Edison, New Jersey, to the New Jersey Institute of Technology.

Requires the NASA Administrator to establish an annual goal of at least eight percent of the total value of contracts awarded in support of authorized programs, including the space station, to be made available to small business concerns or other organizations owned or controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, including historically Black colleges and universities and minority educational institutions.

Makes grade retention provisions of law applicable to certain NASA employees who were displaced by private sector positions.

Amends the Federal Credit Union Act to provide that the Community Development Credit Union revolving loan fund is subject only to the rules and regulations prescribed by the National Credit Union Administration Board.

Title IV: Corporations - Authorizes certain corporations and agencies of HUD to make commitments without regard to fiscal year limitations, with specified exceptions. Limits, with specified exceptions, new loan or mortgage purchase commitments to the extent expressly provided in this Act.

Appropriates funds as necessary for the payment of expenditures of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC) Resolution Fund for which other funds available to the Fund are insufficient. Requires the Chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to report quarterly to the Committees on Appropriations on the expected total costs to the Fund in FY 1990.

Title V: General Provisions - Limits travel expenditures for the agencies listed in this Act to the amounts set forth in the budget estimate, with specified exceptions. Permits the use of HUD and Selective Service System appropriations for: (1) uniforms; (2) the hiring of passenger vehicles; and (3) the employment of experts and consultants. Allows the use of HUD funds to pay for legal services and facilities provided by specified agencies.

Prohibits, with specified exceptions, the use of appropriated funds: (1) beyond the current fiscal year; (2) without a voucher describing the payees and services or specific statutory authorization; (3) for transportation between the domicile and place of employment of any officer or employee; (4) for payments to recipients that do not share in the cost of conducting research not specifically solicited by the Government; (5) for consultants paid in excess of the GS-18 rate; and (6) for compensation of non-Federal parties intervening in regulatory or adjudicatory proceedings. Prohibits the use of funds appropriated for personnel compensation and benefits for other object classifications in the budget estimates with specified exceptions.

Limits expenditures for consulting services to contracts which are a matter of public record and included in a publicly available list of: (1) contracts entered into within the past two years; and (2) contracts on which performance has not been completed.

Prohibits any executive agency from expending appropriations under this Act for a contract for services unless the agency: (1) complies with the Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act; and (2) requires reports prepared pursuant to such contract to disclose information about the contract and the contractor.

Prohibits the use of funds appropriated by this Act to: (1) provide a personal cook, chauffeur, or other personal servant to any officer or employee of any agency or department; or (2) procure automobiles with an EPA estimated miles per gallon average of less than 22 miles per gallon.

Requires FY 1990 pay raises to be absorbed within the levels appropriated in this Act.

Limits the number of noncareer, limited term, and limited emergency appointees to the Senior Executive Service in HUD.

Sets forth reductions in the funding of specified accounts and activities.

Extends the authority of the Department of Veterans Affairs to operate a leave transfer program for employees through December 31, 1989.

Prohibits the obligation of certain funds to any municipality that fails to adopt or enforce a policy prohibiting the use of excessive force by law enforcement agencies against individuals engaged in nonviolent civil rights demonstrations.

Child Nutrition and WIC Reauthorization Act of 1989 - Title I: Programs Under the National School Lunch Act and the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 - Part A: Programs Under the National School Lunch Act - Amends the National School Lunch Act (NSLA) to eliminate certain duplicate provisions.

Requires that lunches served by schools participating in the National School Lunch Program offer students fluid whole milk and fluid unflavored lowfat milk.

Makes certain private nonprofit organizations eligible to sponsor programs under the Summer Food Service Program for Children under specified conditions, including limitations on numbers of children served and on rural or urban sites. Requires a one-year waiting period from the time a public agency stops sponsoring the program in an area to the time certain private nonprofit organizations can begin such meal service to children in that area. Makes such waiting period inapplicable upon determination that the public agency would have discontinued its program participation regardless of whether a private nonprofit organization was available to sponsor the program in that area.

Allows higher education institutions that participate in the National Youth Sports Program to receive payments for meals served to children under such Program during the academic year, as well as during May through September, if the same State agency administers such program, under specified guidelines to be issued by the Secretary.

Directs the Secretary of Agriculture (the Secretary) and the States, during FY 1990 and 1991, to disseminate information to potentially eligible private nonprofit organizations concerning the amendments made by this Act regarding the eligibility of private nonprofit organizations for the Summer Food Service Program for Children.

Directs the Secretary, in addition to the normal monitoring of organizations receiving assistance under the Summer Food Service Program for Children, to establish a system under which the Secretary and the States monitor the compliance of private nonprofit organizations with requirements under such program. Requires that application forms or other printed materials provided to organizations intending to participate contain warnings about criminal penalties and termination procedures. Directs the Secretary to require and assist each State to establish and implement an ongoing training and technical assistance program for private nonprofit organizations. Authorizes the Secretary to reserve a specified portion of program funds for such purposes.

Extends through FY 1994 the authorization of appropriations for the Summer Food Service Program for Children.

Extends through FY 1994 the general authority for the Commodity Distribution Program (under which the Secretary provides commodities to participating schools for use in the school lunch program). Revises provisions relating to the computation of cash compensation to school districts under the Commodity Distribution Program.

Abolishes the National Advisory Council on Child Nutrition.

Renames the Child Care Food Program and the Adult Care Food Program as the Child and Adult Care Food Program.

Provides that eligible organizations under the Child Care Food Program must be reimbursed for expansion into low-income or rural areas. Directs the Secretary to conduct demonstration projects to test innovative approaches to remove or reduce barriers to Child Care Food Program participation by family or group day care homes operating in low-income areas or primarily serving low-income children. Directs the Secretary and State agencies to provide training and technical assistance to help family and group day care home sponsoring organizations in reaching low-income children.

Requires that meals served in adult day care programs, which are reimbursed under such day care food program, provide on the average at least one-third of the daily recommended dietary allowance. Requires such day care programs to make reasonable efforts to serve meals that meet the special dietary requirements of participants, including efforts to serve foods in forms palatable to them. Authorizes designation of a State agency other than that which administers the child care food program to administer the adult day care food program.

Directs the Secretary to carry out two statewide demonstration projects in which private for-profit organizations providing nonresidential day care services shall qualify as institutions for purposes of the Child Care Food Program, if at least 25 percent of the children served by each such organization meet the income eligibility criteria for free or reduced price meals. Requires examination of: (1) the budgetary impact of such change in eligibility on the extent to which additional low-income children can be reached through such change; and (2) the most effective outreach methods. Sets forth guidelines for choosing the two States. Requires such demonstration projects to begin between May 1, 1990, and June 30, 1990, and to terminate on September 30, 1992.

Amends the Hunger Prevention Act of 1988 to extend until September 30, 1990, a selected State (Minnesota) demonstration project to test the nutritional and participatory impact of providing an additional meal to children staying in family or group day care homes for at least eight hours.

Establishes a program of meal supplements for children in after-school care. Directs the Secretary to provide grants-in-aid and other assistance to States for such program in eligible elementary and secondary schools (which operate school lunch programs, sponsor after-school care programs, and participate in the child care food program as of May 15, 1989). Provides for reimbursement for such supplements for children who are not more than 12 years of age (or not more than 15 years of age, in the case of children of migrant workers or children with handicaps). Sets forth administrative provisions relating to payment rates, eligibility for supplements, and content of meal supplements.

Extends until September 30, 1992, certain pilot projects under which school districts receive cash payments or commodity letters of credit, instead of donated commodities, under the school lunch program, and under which compensation for certain losses is authorized. Directs the Secretary, directly or through contract, to administer such project.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) conduct demonstration projects designed to provide food service throughout the year to homeless children under age six in emergency shelters; (2) enter into agreements with private nonprofit organizations to participate in such projects; (3) establish specified types of eligibility requirements for such organizations; and (4) expend specified minimum amounts for such projects in FY 1990 through 1994. Requires at least one such project to begin by September 30, 1990, and all such projects to cease to operate by September 30, 1994.

Directs the Secretary, in carrying out NSLA and CNA, to: (1) reduce to the maximum extent possible the paperwork required of State and local educational agencies, schools, and other agencies participating in nutrition programs; (2) consult with State and local administrators, convene at least one meeting with them within ten months, and obtain suggestions from members of the public with respect to paperwork reduction; and (3) report within one year to the Congress on the extent to which such paperwork reduction has occurred.

Authorizes the Secretary to: (1) conduct training activities and provide technical assistance to improve specified skills of school food service program employees (in coordination with activities of any food service management institute established by this Act); and (2) establish and maintain a Food Service Management Institute for research, training, technical assistance, and information clearinghouse activities. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1994 for such training and technical assistance and for such Institute.

Establishes a unified system, to be prescribed and administered by the Secretary, for ensuring that participating local food service authorities comply with school lunch program requirements. Sets forth compliance monitoring duties of the Secretary and State educational agencies under such system, including a duty to minimize imposition of additional duties on local food service authorities. Authorizes appropriations (in addition to certain CNA funds) for such compliance and accountability activities for FY 1990 through 1994.

Directs the Secretary to provide to each appropriate State agency specified information on income eligibility of children to receive free or reduced price meals and on consideration of applications where the head of the household is less than 21 years old.

Directs the Secretary to review and simplify application forms and instructions for programs under NSLA and CNA by July 1, 1990.

Directs the Secretary and the Secretary of Health and Human Services, to jointly develop and approve, and update as necessary, a publication on nutrition guidance for child nutrition programs. Directs the Secretary to: (1) distribute such publication to school food authorities and other organizations participating in programs under the NSLA and CNA; and (2) revise menu planning guides to include recommendations for implementing such guidance. Requires school food authorities and other organizations to apply such dietary guidance in preparing meals and supplements under the school lunch program and the school breakfast program.

Part B: Programs Under the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 - Amends the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 (CNA) to provide for expansion of the School Breakfast Program. Requires State educational agencies (SEAs) to: (1) provide information to school boards and public officials on the benefits and availability of the School Breakfast Program; and (2) select each year, for informational efforts concerning such program, schools which do not participate in such program and in which a substantial portion of the enrollment consists of children from low-income families.

Directs the Secretary of Agriculture (the Secretary) to report by October 1, 1993, to specified congressional committees on Federal and State efforts to increase participation of schools in the school breakfast program.

Directs the Secretary to use specified amounts from appropriations for such program in FY 1990 through 1994 to make payments on a competitive basis to SEAs in a substantial number of States for startup costs of school breakfast programs at eligible schools which have a significant percentage of enrollment of children from low-income families and which agree to operate such a program for at least three years. Gives preference to SEAs that: (1) submit plans for expanding such programs; (2) do not have a breakfast program available to a large number of low-income children; or (3) serve a low percentage of free and reduced price breakfasts compared to that of free and reduced price lunches served. Requires SEAs to give preference to schools in greatest need. Directs the Secretary to report by December 31, 1993, to specified congressional committees on Federal and State efforts to increase participation of schools in the school breakfast program.

Revises provisions for funds for State administrative expenses to limit the amount of such funds which a State may carry over for an additional year. Provides that remaining funds in excess of this carry over limit must be returned to the Secretary for use for grants to private nonprofit organizations participating in pilot projects under NSLA and, if any amounts remain, for further payments for certain State administrative costs. Requires that appropriate reimbursement go to the State agency administering commodity distribution under CNA and NSLA. Requires States to agree to participate fully in studies authorized by the Secretary in order to receive payments for State administrative expenses. Extends through FY 1994 the authorization of appropriations for such State administrative expenses payments.

Sets forth additional activities and requirements with respect to the Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC).

Provides that income limits for the WIC program are met by persons who meet income limits for free or reduced price meals under the school lunch program, who receive food stamps or Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) or Medicaid, or who are members of a family in which a pregnant woman or an infant receives Medicaid.

Allows a State agency to exclude military housing allowances from income for purposes of WIC program eligibility.

Requires State agencies to provide adult participants in and applicants for the WIC program with information on food stamps, AFDC, and the child support enforcement program. Requires State agencies to provide such participants and applicants also with information on Medicaid, and to refer them to Medicaid if they are not participating in it and appear to have family income below its limits. Requires State agencies to ensure that each local agency under the WIC program maintains and makes available for distribution a list of local resources for substance abuse counseling and treatment.

Includes local breastfeeding promotion programs and alcohol and drug abuse treatment (as well as counseling) programs among those with which the WIC program is to be coordinated under the State plan.

Requires the State WIC plan to include a provision for: (1) getting benefits to eligible persons most in need; (2) reaching eligible persons not participating with program information, eligibility criteria, and application procedures; (3) reaching and enrolling eligible women in the early months of pregnancy and eligible migrants; (4) getting program benefits to unserved infants and children under care of foster parents, protective services, or child welfare authorities, including infants exposed to drugs perinatally; (5) nutrition education and breastfeeding promotion; and (6) improving program access for rural workers and residents.

Requires such State WIC plans, if the State agency chooses to provide program benefits to some or all eligible individuals who are incarcerated in prisons or juvenile detention facilities, to include a plan for providing them such benefits and meeting their special nutrition education needs.

Requires local WIC agencies operating within or in cooperation with a hospital to: (1) advise of the availability of WIC program benefits any potentially eligible individuals who receive inpatient or outpatient prenatal, maternity, or postpartum services, or accompany a child under age five receiving well-child services; and (2) provide an opportunity within the hospital for certification for WIC participation.

Requires State agencies to notify participants, giving relevant categories, before suspending or terminating WIC benefits due to a shortage of funds.

Requires State agencies for WIC to provide breastfeeding promotion materials and instruction in languages other than English.

Allows State agencies to adopt methods of delivering benefits to accommodate the special needs and problems of individuals who are incarcerated in prisons or juvenile detention facilities.

Allows State agencies to implement WIC income eligibility guidelines at the time the State implements such guidelines for Medicaid, as long as this is not later than July 1 of each year.

Requires local WIC agencies to provide information on other potential sources of food assistance in the local area to individuals who apply in person but cannot be served because the local WIC program is operating at capacity.

Requires State agencies to require local WIC agencies to: (1) attempt to contact pregnant women to reschedule missed application appointments; and (2) if such agencies do not routinely do so, schedule application or recertification appointments to minimize the time of employed individuals' absence from their workplace.

Extends through FY 1994 the authorization of appropriations for the WIC program. Sets forth provisions for availability and allocation of such funds. Increases the amount which may be reserved for studies, evaluation, and pilot projects.

Directs the Secretary, on completion of the 1990 decennial census and in coordination with the Secretary of Commerce, to make available an estimate, by State and county, of the number of women, infants, and children who are members of families with incomes below the maximum limit for WIC program participation.

Requires the Secretary to make available in each fiscal year, from WIC program funds, an amount sufficient to guarantee a national average per participant grant to be allocated for costs of WIC nutrition services and administration incurred by State and local agencies. Sets forth formulas for adjusting such amount and for determining State allotments. Provides that remaining amounts shall be made available for specified food benefits. Authorizes the Secretary to reduce a State agency's operational level for costs of nutritional services and administration if that level exceeds the grant by more than 15 percent without good cause.

Requires State agencies to expend a specified portion of WIC funds for nutrition education and breastfeeding promotion and support.

Allows State agencies, under specified conditions, to convert allocations for food benefits to costs of nutrition services and administration.

Sets forth provisions relating to WIC program cost containment systems. Requires States to use either competitive bidding, or an equally or more effective system of cost containment, for the procurement of infant formula. Requires the Secretary to inform specified congressional committees of waivers from such requirement.

Directs the Secretary to provide technical assistance in achieving cost containment to: (1) small Indian and State agencies; and (2) upon request, State agencies that do not have large caseloads and that desire to consider a cost containment system that covers more than one State agency. Authorizes the Secretary to waive the competitive bidding or cost containment system requirement for any Indian or State agency with 1,000 or fewer participants.

Authorizes the Secretary to establish a demonstration program of WIC clinics at community colleges that offer nursing education programs. Directs the Secretary to evaluate such demonstration programs and report to the Congress. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 for such demonstration program.

Authorizes the Secretary to make grants based on need to State agencies to improve and update information and data systems used to carry out WIC programs. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1994 for such grants.

Directs the Secretary, during FY 1990 and 1991, to review, and report to specified congressional committees on, the relationship between specified nutritional risk criteria and the priority system used under the WIC program.

Directs the Secretary to review, and report to the Congress by the end of June 1991 and 1992, the appropriateness of foods eligible for purchase under the WIC program.

Directs the Secretary to review, and report on to the appropriate congressional committees within one year, the effect on costs for nutrition services and administration incurred by State and local agencies of specified amendments made by this Act (including increases and decreases in imposed requirements).

Prohibits the Secretary, in implementing specified amendments to the WIC program under this Act, from imposing any new requirement on a State or local agency to place additional paperwork in, or otherwise additionally document, any case file maintained by it.

Revises CNA provisions for nutrition education and training. Includes institutions offering summer food service programs under the NSLA under provisions for nutrition education activities. Provides that personnel training shall be consistent with information and materials provided by a food service management institute.

Increases and extends through FY 1994 the authorization of appropriations for such nutrition education and training programs under the CNA. Requires, subject to minimum State grant requirements, that the amount of a State grant be based on a rate of 50 cents for each child enrolled in schools or institutions within such State, and that such amount be ratably reduced or increased depending on the amount appropriated. Sets forth increased minimum State grant requirements based on the amount appropriated.

Directs the Secretary to assess nutrition and education programs under the CNA to determine what nutrition education needs are for children participating under the NSLA in the school lunch, summer food service, and child care food programs. Requires completion of such assessment by October 1, 1990.

Part C: Cross-Program Provisions - Revises provisions for determination of total commodity assistance for the school lunch and child care food programs under the NSLA. Requires the Secretary of Agriculture (the Secretary) to estimate the total number of commodities to be delivered to each school or child care institution in the current year. Requires adjustments for differences between such prior year and current year numbers of meals served in subsequent estimations.

Title II: Paperwork Reduction Amendments - Part A: Reduction of Paperwork Under the National School Lunch Act - Requires that State-local agreements for carrying out the School Lunch Program under the NSLA be permanent agreements that may be amended as necessary, but does not limit an SEA's ability to suspend or terminate any such agreement in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture (the Secretary).

Authorizes the Secretary, State, or local food authority to verify data in the application. Authorizes any school food authority to certify any child for free or reduced price lunches, without further application, by directly communicating with the appropriate State or local agency to obtain documentation of the child's membership in a household receiving food stamps or a family receiving AFDC.

Provides that the member of the household who executes the application for the school lunch program must furnish only the social security account number of the parent or guardian who is the primary wage earner responsible for the care of the child for whom the application is made, or that of another appropriate member of the child's household; but requires that social security numbers for all adult household members be furnished if verification is sought.

Authorizes the Secretary, when appropriate, to request each school food authority in the school lunch program to report monthly to the SEA.

Directs the Secretary to permit institutions participating in the child care food program, at the option of the State agency, to reapply for such assistance at two-year intervals.

Directs the Secretary to carry out pilot projects in which schools with high percentages of low-income children have the option of using alternative methods of daily meal counting. Authorizes the Secretary to conduct other pilot projects to test alternative counting and claiming procedures. Requires evaluation after three years of operation.

Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress within one year on the extent to which paperwork reduction has occurred under the NSLA.

Part B: Reduction of Paperwork Under the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 - Requires SEAs to disburse funds paid to the State under the Special Milk Program to schools in accordance with agreements approved by the Secretary. Requires that such agreements be permanent (amendable as necessary) but does not limit the SEA's ability to suspend or terminate any such agreement in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture (the Secretary).

Requires that State-local agreements for carrying out the School Breakfast Program be permanent agreements (amendable as necessary), but does not limit an SEA's ability to suspend or terminate any such agreement in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

Allows local agencies under the WIC program to use a master file to document and monitor provision of nutrition education services to individuals required to be included by the agency in group nutrition education classes.

Authorizes State agencies under the WIC program to provide for delivery of vouchers to any participant not scheduled for nutrition education counseling or recertification interview through means, such as mailing, that do not require a participant to travel to the local agency. Requires State plans to describe mail issuance of vouchers. Prohibits disapproval of the mail issuance of vouchers in specified jurisdictions unless the Secretary finds that it would pose a significant threat to program integrity. Requires each State agency to conduct monitoring reviews of each local agency at least biennially under the WIC program.

Requires plans for nutrition education and training to be updated annually.

Title III: Technical Amendments - Part A: Amendments to the National School Lunch Act - Makes various technical amendments to the NSLA, including elimination of gender-specific references.

Part B: Amendments to the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 - Makes various technical amendments to the CNA, including elimination of gender-specific references.

Public Law 101-148 Approved 11/10/89; H.R. 3012.

Appropriates funds for FY 1990 for military construction operations administered by the Department of Defense (DOD) in specified amounts for: (1) military construction, Army; (2) military construction, Navy; (3) military construction, Air Force (including a rescission of funds); (4) military construction, defense agencies (including a specified transfer of funds and a rescission of a specified amount of budget authority for such account for FY 1989); (5) North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Infrastructure; (6) military construction, Army National Guard; (7) military construction, Air National Guard; (8) military construction, Army Reserve; (9) military construction, Naval Reserve; (10) military construction, Air Force Reserve; (11) family housing, Army; (12) family housing, Navy and Marine Corps; (13) family housing, Air Force; (14) family housing, defense agencies; (15) homeowners assistance fund, defense; and (16) the Department of Defense Base Closure Account.

Prohibits funds appropriated in this Act from being used for payments under certain cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts without specific approval by the Secretary of Defense.

Authorizes funds appropriated in this Act to be used for: (1) the hire of passenger motor vehicles; and (2) advances to the Federal Highway Administration, Department of Transportation, for the construction of defense access roads.

Prohibits funds appropriated in this Act from being used for: (1) construction of new bases inside the continental United States for which specific appropriations have not been made; (2) the purchase of certain lands or easements for amounts in excess of 100 percent of their value as determined by the Corps of Engineers or the Naval Facilities Engineering Command, except under specified conditions; (3) acquisition, site preparation, or the installation of any utilities for family housing, except for housing for which funds have been made available under annual military construction appropriation Acts; (4) transferring or relocating any activity from one base or installation to another without prior notification to the Committees on Appropriations; (5) the procurement of steel for any construction project or activity for which American steel producers have been denied the opportunity to compete; and (6) the performance of dredging work in the Indian Ocean by foreign contractors, with a specified exception.

Prohibits the use of funds available for military construction and housing during FY 1989 to pay real property taxes in any foreign nation.

Prohibits funds appropriated in this Act from being used for: (1) the initiation of a new installation overseas without prior notification to the Committees on Appropriations; (2) certain architect and engineer contracts for projects in Japan or in any NATO-member country, unless awarded to U.S. firms solely or in joint ventures; or (3) the award of any contract for military construction in the U.S. territories and possessions in the Pacific and on Kwajalein Island in excess of $1,000,000 to a foreign contractor, with specified exceptions.

Directs the Secretary to notify the Senate and House Armed Services and Appropriations Committees of the plans and scope of any military exercise involving U.S. personnel 30 days prior to its occurrence if amounts expended for construction are expected to exceed $100,000.

Transfers certain funds of the Military Family Housing Management Account to the appropriations for family housing provided in this Act.

Prohibits more than 20 percent of the funds appropriated in this Act which are limited for obligation during the current fiscal year from being obligated during the last two months of the fiscal year.

Makes certain prior year funds available for military construction authorized during the first session of the 101st Congress.

Directs the Secretary, by February 15, 1990, to provide the Appropriations Committees with a report detailing the specific actions proposed to be taken by DOD during FY 1990 to encourage other members of NATO and Japan to assume a greater share of the common defense burden of such nations and the United States.

Permits certain expired or lapsed funds to be used to pay certain overhead and other costs associated with military construction or family housing projects.

Prohibits the expenditure of funds appropriated by this Act, except NATO infrastructure funds, for planning, design, or construction of military facilities or family housing to support the relocation of the 401st Tactical Fighter Wing from Spain to another country.

Limits to four fiscal years after the original funding the time in which funds may be expended by a military department or defense agency for the construction of military projects, with certain conditions.

Limits the amount of funds that may be obligated for the contract cleaning of military family housing units.

Prohibits any funds appropriated in this Act from being used for new family housing units in the Republic of Korea in connection with any increase in accompanied tours after June 6, 1988.

Prohibits any funds appropriated in this Act for planning and design from being used to initiate design of the Pentagon Annex.

Absorbs within the levels appropriated in this Act necessary sums for FY 1990 pay raises for programs funded by this Act.

Prohibits any of the funds appropriated in this Act from being available for study, planning, design, or architect and engineer services related to the relocation of Yongsan Garrison, Korea.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to sell to the State of Hawaii the Manana Storage Area and Pearl City Junction, both located in Pearl City, Oahu, Hawaii. Provides sale conditions for both parcels. Prohibits the Secretary from entering into a sales contract for either parcel until he has reported the details of the proposed transactions to the appropriate congressional committees and 21 days have elapsed since such notice.

Amends the Independent Agencies Appropriations Act, 1988 to authorize the Administrator of the General Services Administration (GSA) to acquire from New York City by condemnation the real property necessary for the construction of a new courthouse annex for the southern district of New York, a Federal and municipal office building, and additional parking space. Authorizes the Administrator to: (1) establish the value of the just compensation for such real property by agreement with the City; (2) provide for payment of such compensation to the City by the contractor responsible for financing the construction of such buildings; (3) take title to such property for the United States after payment of such amount by the contractor; (4) reimburse the contractor for the payment of that amount plus interest over a period not to exceed 30 years out of funds available in the Federal Building Fund for the rental of space; and (5) establish rental rates for the lease of office space and associated parking to the City without applying a credit reflecting the value of the land acquired.

Requires such lease to provide for a lease period of 30 years and options for the City to renew the lease for up to three successive lease periods of 30 years each.

Prohibits the total rent paid by the City to GSA for each such renewal period from exceeding the City's pro rata share of the cost of the capital replacement, repair, maintenance, and operation of the building in which such office space used by the City is located and any associated parking facility.

Public Law 101-157 Approved 11/17/89; H.R. 2710.

Fair Labor Standards Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (the Act) to increase the minimum wage per hour from $3.35 in 1989 to: (1) $3.80 beginning April 1, 1990; and (2) $4.25 beginning April 1, 1991, and thereafter.

Increases the small business exemption by revising the definition of an enterprise engaged in commerce for purposes of coverage under the Act ("the enterprise test"). Exempts from such coverage those businesses whose annual gross volume of sales or business is less than $500,000 (currently $362,500), effective April 1, 1990. Requires employers who were covered as of March 31, 1990, but who are exempt under the new threshold, to continue to pay the $3.35 per hour minimum wage (and continue to be covered by overtime and child labor provisions of the Act).

Removes the Virgin Islands from coverage by provisions for special industry committee minimum wage determinations and orders, including those involving employment under special certificates for learners, apprentices, and messengers and for students. Adds references to American Samoa under such provisions (American Samoa is currently covered by such provisions through references under other special minimum wage provisions). Removes references to Puerto Rico under such provisions, but continues and revises the special minimum wage treatment of Puerto Rico as follows: (1) in addition to designated types of employees (Federal, hotel, motel, restaurant, and food service) entitled to receive the full Federal minimum wage, employees in industries averaging $4.65 or more per hour would be so entitled; (2) employees in industries averaging from $4.00 to $4.64 per hour would receive the full rate by April 1, 1994, after a four-year period of gradual increases; (3) employees in industries averaging less than $4.00 per hour would receive the full rate by April 1, 1995, after a five-year period of gradual increases; and (4) employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a municipality or other governmental entity of the Commonwealth, in categories averaging less than $4.00 per hour and covered by 1985 amendments to the Act, would receive the full rate by April 1, 1996, after a six-year period of gradual increases.

Increases the tip credit under the Act from 40 percent to 45 percent beginning April 1, 1990, and to 50 percent beginning April 1, 1991. (The tip credit deems the amount paid to a tipped employee, for minimum wage purposes, to be increased by an amount determined by the employer, but not by an amount in excess of the specified percentage of the applicable minimum wage rate.)

Allows employers to pay a training wage at less than the minimum wage rate. Allows such training wage to be paid only: (1) for an initial period until the employee has been employed a cumulative total of 90 days; or (2) for an additional 90-day period with another employer if a certificate is issued by the Secretary of Labor (the Secretary). Prohibits payment of such training wage to migrant or seasonal agricultural workers or nonimmigrant aliens or individuals more than 19 years old. Makes the individual responsible for providing proof of previous periods of employment with other employers. Allows such training wage to be paid only during the period from April 1, 1990, through March 31, 1993. Sets such training wage at: (1) not less than $3.35 per hour during the year beginning April 1, 1990; and (2) beginning April 1, 1991, not less than $3.35 per hour or 85 percent of the minimum wage, whichever is greater. Prohibits layoffs or termination of employment or reduction of the number of regular employees because of the training wage. Prohibits employee hours at the training wage during any month from exceeding one-fourth of all employee hours in the establishment. Sets forth notice requirements and enforcement provisions. Sets forth requirements for certification for the additional 90-day period of the training wage. Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress by March 1, 1993, on the effectiveness of the training wage.

Exempts from overtime provisions of the Act up to ten hours in any workweek if during such time the employee is receiving certain remedial education.

Applies the rights and protections under the Act to any employee: (1) in an employment position in, and any employing authority of, the House of Representatives, using remedies and procedures under the Fair Employment Practices Resolution; or (2) employed under the Architect of the Capitol.

Adds civil penalties for repeated or willful violations of specified provisions of the Act.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to: (1) instruct the U.S. executive directors to specified international financial institutions to support lending portfolios which allow debtor developing countries to reduce or restructure debt in concert with the sustainable use of natural resources; (2) report to the Congress on such program; (3) instruct such directors to seek the support of other donor countries in the implementation of such program; and (4) instruct the U.S. executive director to the World Bank to seek implementation by the Bank of the recommendations set forth in an April 1988 report on debt-for-nature swaps and to report to the Appropriations Committees on such program.

Requires the Secretary to incorporate natural resource management initiatives in the implementation of the Brady Plan and to report to the Appropriations Committees on the incorporation of such initiatives.

Directs the Secretary to instruct the U.S. executive director to the Inter-American Bank to: (1) seek implementation of the environmental reform measures agreed to in the Bank's seventh replenishment; (2) seek adoption of Bank policies regarding indigenous people, relations with nongovernmental organizations, and the protection of wildlife and unique natural and cultural features; (3) require the Bank to demonstrate how it has improved, and will improve, the monitoring of environmental and social components of loans; and (4) report to the Appropriations Committees on the progress in implementing such reforms.

Requires AID to focus: (1) tropical forestry assistance programs on the key middle- and low-income developing countries which are projected to contribute large amounts of greenhouse gases; and (2) energy assistance activities on countries where assistance would have the greatest impact on reducing emissions of greenhouse gases. Permits the use of funds made available under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 for such programs, subject to certain restrictions.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) AID should increase its efforts in the fields of energy efficiency, renewable energy, and energy planning; and (2) such increase should take place with respect to key countries and countries with large ESF assistance.

Requires AID to report to the Congress on: (1) potential contributions of developing countries to future global emissions of greenhouse gases under different economic growth scenarios; (2) an estimate of the relative contributions of such countries to global greenhouse gas emissions; and (3) specific key countries which stand to contribute significantly to global greenhouse gas emissions and in which actions to promote energy efficiency, reliance on renewable energy resources, and conservation of forest resources could significantly reduce such emissions.

Requires at least five percent of Export-Import Bank financing for energy sector exports to be used for renewable energy projects. Directs the Bank to take steps to finance information exchanges and training to link U.S. producers in the renewable energy sector with assistance programs and potential foreign customers. Requires the Chairman of the Bank to report annually to the Appropriations Committee on such financing.

Prohibits the use of development assistance funds to pay for: (1) abortions or involuntary sterilizations as a method of family planning or to motivate or coerce any persons to practice abortions or undergo sterilization; or (2) any biomedical research concerning abortions or involuntary sterilization as a method of family planning.

Reaffirms the congressional commitment to population, development assistance, and the need for informed voluntary family planning.

Earmarks specified amounts of development and economic support assistance appropriated by this Act for the Afghan people and for the United Nations Afghanistan Emergency Trust Fund.

Prohibits making any of the funds appropriated by this Act available to a private voluntary organization which fails to provide the records necessary for an AID audit or which is not registered with AID.

Withholds a specified amount of military aid and financing from El Salvador until the President reports to the Appropriations Committees that El Salvador has: (1) substantially concluded all investigations with respect to those responsible for the January 1981 murders of specified U.S. and Salvadoran land reformers; and (2) pursued all legal avenues to bring to trial and obtain a verdict of those responsible for such murders and the murders of ten peasants near San Francisco, El Salvador.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that all countries receiving U.S. foreign aid should cooperate in facilitating lasting solutions to refugee situations.

Calls upon the President to direct AID to work in a global effort to provide enhanced support toward achieving the goal of universal access to childhood immunization by 1990.

Prohibits making any of the funds appropriated by this Act available for: (1) costs of Ethiopia's forced resettlement or villagization programs; or (2) Sudan, Uganda, Liberia, Lebanon, Zaire, or Somalia, except through regular congressional notification procedures.

Earmarks certain appropriated funds for child survival activities and activities relating to research on, and the treatment and control of, AIDS in developing countries.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the United States should oppose all loans to Chile from international financial institutions, except those for basic human needs, until the Government of Chile: (1) ends its practice and pattern of gross abuse of internationally recognized human rights; and (2) takes steps to restore democracy. Prohibits making certain assistance available to Chile except for assistance supporting efforts to establish the importance of an independent judiciary.

Declares that the Congress supports the democratic transition underway in Chile and intends to assist the new democratically elected government with assistance to strengthen democratic institutions and establish a new relationship with the Chilean armed forces appropriate to a democratic government.

Permits a certain amount of international military education and training funds for FY 1990 to be made available to Chile if: (1) a civilian, democratically elected president is in power in Chile and has requested such funds; (2) human rights are being respected and the government is exercising independent and effective authority; and (3) the Chilean Government is making good-faith efforts in attempting to resolve the murders of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt.

Prohibits making any of the funds appropriated under any Act available for any testing, study, variety improvement, or certain other activities related to the growth or production in a foreign country of an agricultural commodity for export which would compete with a similar commodity grown or produced in the United States.

Prohibits the use of funds appropriated to AID, other than funds to carry out the Caribbean Basin Initiative, to procure studies or assist in establishing facilities for the manufacture of articles that compete with U.S. exports.

Prohibits making any of the funds appropriated under this Act available to finance indirectly any assistance or reparations to Angola, Cambodia, Cuba, Iraq, Libya, Vietnam, South Yemen, Iran, or Syria unless the President certifies that the withholding of these funds is contrary to the national interest of the United States.

Requires the President, in determining whether to furnish ESF assistance and foreign military financing to Liberia for FY 1990, to take into account whether Liberia has demonstrated its commitment to economic reform and to increased respect for human rights.

Earmarks specified amounts of foreign military financing for: (1) narcotics control activities in Bolivia, Ecuador, Jamaica, Peru, and Colombia; (2) the testing and use of herbicides for the aerial eradication of coca; and (3) arming aircraft used in narcotics control.

Prohibits the provision of assistance to countries which fail to take steps to prevent illicit drugs from being sold to U.S. Government personnel or from entering the United States illegally.

Sets forth reprogramming procedures for funds for countries which have not taken adequate steps to halt illicit drug production or trafficking.

Earmarks specified amounts of assistance made available to AID for narcotics education and awareness programs and narcotics related economic assistance activities.

Directs the Secretary of State to urge the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control to develop a more comprehensive program for enlisting support for coca control programs and related development activities in South America.

Requires that any agreement for the sale or provision of any article on the U.S. Munitions List shall expressly state that the article is being provided by the United States only with the understanding that it will not be transferred to Cyprus or otherwise used to further the severance or division of Cyprus. Directs the President to report to the Congress when such equipment is used for such purposes.

Permits the commercial leasing of defense articles (other than major defense equipment) by Israel, Egypt, NATO countries, and major non-NATO allies if the President determines that there are compelling foreign policy or national security reasons for those defense articles being provided by commercial lease rather than by government-to-government sale.

Provides that if the President makes available a specified amount of funds appropriated by this Act for the Cambodian non-Communist resistance forces, such funds shall be derived from foreign military financing and ESF assistance funds.

Authorizes the President to transfer excess defense articles to eligible NATO southern flank countries and major non-NATO allies on the southern and southeastern NATO flank.

Permits the President, subject to certain restrictions and with notification to the Congress, to transfer excess defense articles to any country: (1) which is a major illicit drug producing country in Latin America or the Caribbean with a democratic government; and (2) whose armed forces do not engage consistently in gross violations of internationally recognized human rights. Requires such countries to ensure that such articles will be used only in support of antinarcotic activities. Authorizes the transfer of such articles without cost to the recipient country.

Declares that the Congress intends that excess defense articles be made available to maintain the military balance in the Eastern Mediterranean. Requires the President to ensure, over a 3-year period beginning in FY 1990, that the ratio of the value of such articles made available for Turkey to those made available for Greece closely approximates the ratio of the amount of foreign military financing provided for Turkey to the amount provided for Greece.

Directs the Secretary to determine the eligibility of illicit drug producing countries to receive excess defense articles under this Act. Limits the aggregate value of such articles transferred to such a country to $10,000,000 per fiscal year.

Provides that all AID contracts and solicitations shall require U.S. marine insurance companies to have a fair opportunity to bid for marine insurance.

Requires the necessary amounts for FY 1990 pay raises for programs funded by this Act to be absorbed within the levels appropriated by this Act.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that funds made available for the International Fund for Ireland should be allocated to programs which emphasize jobs creation in areas having the highest rates of unemployment.

Prohibits the use of certain assistance provided under this Act for assistance to Afghanistan if such assistance would be provided through the Soviet-controlled government of Afghanistan.

Requires at least 25 percent of ESF assistance for El Salvador to be used for certain projects and activities in accordance with the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961.

Requires at least ten percent of FY 1990 development assistance and assistance for famine recovery and development in Africa (unless the AID Administrator determines otherwise) to be made available only for U.S. organizations and individuals that are: (1) business concerns or private organizations owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals; (2) historically black colleges or universities; and (3) colleges and universities in which more than 40 percent of the students are Hispanic American. Directs the Administrator to: (1) utilize the authority of the Small Business Act; (2) enter into contracts with small business concerns owned by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals using less than full and open competitive procedures; and (3) issue regulations requiring contracts in excess of $500,000 to provide that at least 10 percent of the contract shall be subcontracted to such organizations and individuals. Requires AID personnel with contracting authority to notify the AID Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization before advertising contracts in excess of $100,000. Directs the Administrator to: (1) include as part of the performance evaluation of any mission director such director's efforts to carry out such activities; and (2) report annually to the Congress on the implementation of such program.

Prohibits the United States from selling or making available Stinger missiles to any Persian Gulf country. Makes certain prohibitions concerning the transfer of Stingers inapplicable to Stingers previously transferred to Bahrain if the President notifies specified congressional committees that: (1) the Stingers are needed by Bahrain to counter an immediate air threat or to protect U.S. personnel, facilities, equipment, or operations; (2) no other appropriate system is available from the United States; and (3) Bahrain has agreed to safeguards to protect against diversion of the Stingers as may be required by the United States and to return to the control of the United States all Stingers made available at any time. Authorizes the replacement, pursuant to certain determinations by the President, of Stingers previously made available to Bahrain that were fired or destroyed.

Requires such missiles to be returned to the possession of the United States by the end of FY 1991, unless the President determines that certain conditions warranting the control of such missiles by Bahrain continue to apply and specified congressional committees are notified.

Prohibits the provision of funds appropriated under this Act to any person undertaking an action prohibited by U.S. law.

Amends the Foreign Service Act of 1980 to prohibit the Foreign Service Grievance Board from suspending a disciplinary action or involuntary separation of a Foreign Service member if there is reason to believe such member has committed a job-related crime for which a prison sentence may be imposed and has been suspended without pay. Makes such members subject to reinstatement with back pay if no cause for separation is established. Sets forth procedures for the suspension of such members.

Prohibits the location of U.S. stockpiles in any foreign country other than South Korea, Thailand, a NATO member country, or a country which is a major non-NATO ally. Limits the dollar amount of additions to such stockpiles for FY 1990.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President and the Secretary of State should convey to China and the United Kingdom strong concerns over the absence of full direct elections in Hong Kong and lack of independent human rights guarantees in the draft Basic Law, pending the colony's scheduled reversion to China in 1997.

Rescinds a specified amount of ESF assistance from unearmarked funds and funds for Subsaharan Africa, Sudan, Somalia, and Liberia.

Commends Israel's decision to open schools on the West Bank. Expresses the hope that all schools will be opened at an early date and will remain open, will not be used for political purposes, and will be respected and regarded as places of learning.

Extends the period during which the President may waive prohibitions on assistance to Pakistan to April 1, 1991.

Sets forth requirements for the maintenance of separate accounts for, and the use of, local currencies, cash transfers, and non-project sector assistance.

Requires AID to: (1) establish a system of indicators of poverty reduction on a country-by-country basis; and (2) identify poverty reduction objectives set for each country receiving development assistance and the progress achieved and future steps to be taken with respect to such objectives.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to: (1) instruct the U.S. executive director to the International Monetary Fund to promote specified policy and staffing changes to provide for the consideration of sustainable management of natural resources and public health and poverty impacts in the Fund's policy; and (2) report to the Congress on such reforms.

Welcomes the negotiating process set in motion in Mexico City by the El Salvadoran Government and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front and the willingness of such parties to continue such process. Urges such parties to achieve a cessation of hostilities and a political settlement of the conflict. Calls upon the Secretary of State to consult with the Congress on the status of such negotiations and the efforts taken by the President to support such negotiations.

Directs the President to: (1) encourage and participate in the creation of a multi-donor, multi-sectoral coordinating mechanism to be known as the Central American Development Coordination Commission (CADCC); and (2) provide a certain amount of assistance for the implementation of, and U.S. participation in, such Commission. Designates the United Nations Development Programme as the social service and refugee and displaced persons technical assistance secretariat for the CADCC. Authorizes the President to furnish CADCC assistance to Central American countries which are in compliance with the Esquipulas Accords.

Urges the President to encourage and secure greater international support for the implementation of the recommendations of the International Commission for Central American Recovery and Development. Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President, in attempting to secure support for such recommendations, should exert leadership in multilateral and regional forums and economic summits to further a multi-donor, multi-sector approach to the Central American crisis.

Requires OPIC to support projects in Poland and Hungary which enhance the nongovernmental sector and reduce state involvement in the economy.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the International Coffee Agreement is important in promoting economic and political stability in many developing countries; (2) the collapse of such Agreement would undermine Colombia's efforts at fighting illegal drugs; and (3) the Administration should make efforts to conclude a renewal of such Agreement.

Urges the President to raise the issue of political rights of the Baltic peoples in all diplomatic contacts with the Soviet Union.

Calls upon the Soviet Union to: (1) honor the international agreements it has entered into; (2) allow the Latvian, Estonian, and Lithuanian peoples their right of self-determination; (3) recognize the human rights of all peoples within the Soviet Union and under Soviet influence; and (4) replace the policy of aggressive industrialization in the Baltic States with one of environmental responsibility.

Considers to have been lawfully imported into the United States certain defense articles from Poland, Hungary, or Czechoslovakia that: (1) were imported into the United States before June 30, 1989, by, or on behalf of, tax-exempt museums or educational institutions; (2) were manufactured at least 20 years before such importation and have been disabled so that no weapon is functional; and (3) are to be used only for display to the public for educational purposes. Permits such articles to remain in the United States.

Calls on the Secretary General of the United Nations to: (1) act upon a specified resolution concerning Cuba which was approved by the Commission on Human Rights; (2) urge the Cuban Government to release 22 persons held in detention because of human rights activities; and (3) expand the United Nations' investigation of Cuba to include an examination of labor rights in recognition of current Cuban law which prohibits the formation of independent unions and has led to the imprisonment of Cuban workers who have tried to organize. Calls on the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations to make known U.S. dissatisfaction with the failure of the United Nations to continue to act on such resolution.

Makes additional appropriations for the Trade and Development Program.

Authorizes the reobligation of funds for activities in Hungary or Poland for similar activities in such countries.

Prohibits the expenditure of funds made available for Poland under this Act if: (1) any Polish official initiates martial law without the consent of the Polish Senate and Sejm; or (2) members of the Senate or Sejm are removed from office or arrested through extra-constitutional processes. Waives such prohibition if the President certifies to the Congress that it is in the U.S. foreign policy interest to do so.

Directs the Attorney General, in order to identify aliens as targets of persecution for purposes of admission into the United States, to establish categories of aliens who are or were nationals and residents of the Soviet Union, Vietnam, Laos, or Cambodia who share common characteristics identifying them as targets of persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a social group, or political opinion. Includes within such categories Soviet Jews and Evangelical Christians and Ukrainian Catholics or Orthodox. Allocates a specified amount of admissions to Ukrainian Catholic or Orthodox refugees.

Permits persons within such categories who were denied admission between August 14, 1988, and the date of enactment of this Act to reapply for refugee status.

Directs the Comptroller General to report to the Judiciary Committees on Soviet refugee processing in Italy and the Soviet Union.

Directs the Attorney General to adjust to permanent resident status the status of aliens who: (1) apply for such adjustment; (2) have been physically present in the United States for at least one year and are physically present on the date such application is filed; (3) are admissible as immigrants; and (4) pay an application processing fee. Applies such adjustment only to Soviet, Vietnamese, Laotian, or Cambodian nationals who were granted parole into the United States between August 15, 1988, and September 30, 1990, after being denied refugee status. Waives certain grounds for inadmissibility under the Immigration and Nationality Act with respect to such adjustments.

Repeals a provision of the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1990 which allows the Attorney General to collect fees to cover the costs of copying and distributing copies of Federal Judiciary tax decisions.

Authorizes the allocation of funds made available under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 for police training assistance for El Salvador, subject to certain conditions. Earmarks a specified amount of funds for FY 1990 for such assistance and for other administration of justice assistance.

Allows the President to provide assistance under such Act to Peru, Bolivia, and Jamaica for the production, processing, and marketing of crops which can be economically grown in areas of such countries which currently produce narcotic and psychotropic drug crops.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the success and continuation of land reform in El Salvador is vital to U.S. policy and to political stability, economic development, and maintenance of democratic institutions in such country. Requires the President, when allocating ESF funds to El Salvador, to take into consideration progress in the Salvadoran Land Reform Program.

Title VI: Funding Adjustments - Reduces appropriations made under this Act by a specified percentage. Exempts programs exempt from sequestration under the Deficit Control Act of 1985 from such reduction.

Makes appropriations for counter-narcotics programs.

Retains in the Treasury specified sums previously appropriated for a Federal payment for the design and construction of a prison facility within the District of Columbia, subject to certain conditions. Requires the District of Columbia to operate and maintain a telephone hotline for prison-area residents to receive information concerning escapes, fires, and riots at the prison.

Appropriates a specified amount to close open air drug markets, increase police visibility, and provide for speedier court processing of drug-related violent cases. Appropriates specified sums out of the District of Columbia general fund for the current fiscal year for: (1) governmental direction and support; (2) economic development and regulation; (3) public safety and jusctice; (4) public education; (5) human support services; (6) public works; (7) the Washington Convention Center Fund; (8) repayments of specified loans and interest; (9) repayment of the general fund deficit; (10) short-term borrowing; (11) employees' optical and dental benefits; (12) capital outlay; (13) the Water and Sewer Enterprise Fund and water construction projects; (14) the Lottery and Charitable Games Enterprise Fund; and (15) the Cable Television Enterprise Fund.

Requires the District of Columbia to operate and maintain a telephone hotline for Lorton-area residents to receive information concerning escapes, fires, and riots at Lorton prison.

Directs the Mayor to reduce, by a specified sum, appropriations and expenditures for energy, equipment, and personal services.

Sets forth restrictions on the expenditure of appropriations made by this Act.

Makes funds available for: (1) transportation allowances for official duties; (2) travel expenses and the payment of dues for organizations concerned with the work of the District of Columbia government; (3) refunds and the payment of judgements entered against the District of Columbia government; (4) the payment of public assistance; (5) the cost, subject to restriction, of overtime or temporary positions; and (6) payments authorized by the District of Columbia Revenue Recovery Act of 1977.

Prohibits the use of funds for: (1) the compensation of any permanent employee of the District of Columbia government appointed during any month in which the number of employees exceeds the number of positions authorized by this Act; (2) the compensation of any person appointed to fill a vacant position in an agency under the personnel control of the mayor unless such person is an officer of the Metropolitan Police Department or is a current D.C. employee who will not be moving to a higher grade level in accepting the position; (3) activities which permit or encourage partisan political activities; (4) the salary of any District of Columbia government employee whose work and salary history are not available for inspection by specified congressional committees or, with regard to name and salary, available for public inspection; (5) publicity or propaganda purposes; (6) implementation of a personal lottery for the hiring of firefighters or police officers; (7) reprogramming, unless the reprogramming was approved according to specified prociedures; (8) the provision of personal servants for any District of Columbia employee; or (9) the purchase of passenger automobiles with an estimated miles per gallon average of less than 22 miles per gallon. Requires the District to implement a residency preference system rather than a residency requirement for career and educational service positions available on or after March 16, 1989.

Prohibits use of the Federal funds provided in this Act to perform abortions, except where the life of the mother is endangered.

Requires that the annual budget for the District of Columbia government for FY 1991 be transmitted to the Congress by April 15, 1990.

Requires the Mayor to develop an annual plan for capital outlay borrowings.

Prohibits the Mayor from: (1) borrowing funds for capital projects without the prior approval of the District of Columbia Council; (2) using money borrowed for capital projects for operating expenses of the District of Columbia government.

Sets forth requirements with respect to the compensation of the City Administrator, the Board of Directors of the District of Columbia Redevelopment Land Agency, and District of Columbia employees generally.

Authorizes the Department of Administrative Services to pay rentals and alter and repair rented premises.

Directs the Mayor to submit to the D.C. Council, no later than 30 days after the end of the first quarter of FY 1990, the FY 1990 revenue estimate.

Amends the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act to extend, for one year, the District's authority to sell its general obligation bonds through negotiated sales.

Prohibits the renewal or extension or any sole source contract with the District of Columbia government without opening that contract to the competitive bidding process, subject to exception.

Requires any sequestration order to be applied to each account appropriating Federal funds in this Act (rather than to the aggregate total of those accounts) which is not specifically exempted from sequestration by specified Federal law. Provides for repayment to the Federal Treasury of any amounts appropriated and paid to the District of Columbia before a sequestration order is issued, applying the sequestration percentage proportionately to each account not specifically exempted from sequestration.

Amends the District of Columbia Public Works Act of 1954 to authorize the District of Columbia to receive direct quarterly payments from the Federal government for estimated Federal usage of D.C. water and sanitary sewer services from January 1, 1990 to December 31, 1990.

Amends the District of Columbia Appropriation Act, 1982, to eliminate the prohibition against: (1) the promotion or operation of revenue-raising games of chance in the Old Georgetown Historic District; and (2) the promotion of such games on public transportation and at stations and stops.

Authorizes the playing of such games in prohibited areas if they are sponsored by and conducted solely for the benefit of a tax-exempt organization.

Requires that the D.C. Council receive written notice at least 30 days before funds appropriated for activities for which it has approved a specific budget increase are reprogrammed or reduced.

Requires the District of Columbia to pay interest on its FY 1990 quarterly payments to the United States that are made more than 60 days after its receipt of an itemized statement from the Federal Bureau of Prisons of amount due for housing D.C. convicts in Federal penitentiaries.

Amends the District of Columbia Code (D.C. Code) to increase the number of associate judges in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia from 50 to 58, subject to the enactment of authorizing legislation.

Directs the Secretary of Education to award certain appropriated funds to the consortium of institutions of higher education in the D.C. metropolitan area for the establishment of an academic research library which links the library and information resources of the universities participating in the consortium.

Requires the Director of the Department of Human Services of the District of Columbia to establish the District of Columbia Task Force for Coordinated Service to Drug-Exposed Infants which shall develop, within one year of this Act's enactment, a plan for the most efficient and effective delivery of services to substance abusing pregnant women and infants who were exposed to maternal substance abuse during pregnancy.

Nation's Capital Religious Liberty and Academic Freedom Act - Amends the D.C. Code to deem it not to be an unlawful discriminatory practice in the District of Columbia for any school having a religious affiliation or association to deny or restrict: (1) the use of any fund, service, facility, or benefit; or (2) the granting of any endorsement, approval, or recognition to homosexuals.

Support for East European Democracy (SEED) Act of 1989 - Requires the United States to implement, beginning in FY 1990, a program to support East European democracy by providing assistance to Eastern European countries which have taken substantive steps toward institutionalizing political democracy and economic pluralism. Designates support for East European democracy activities as SEED.

Title I: Structural Adjustment - Directs the U.S. Government, to the extent that Poland and Hungary continue to evolve toward pluralism and democracy and to develop and implement economic reforms, to: (1) mobilize international financial institutions to provide resources to help Poland and Hungary; (2) support the Government of Poland in attacking hyperinflation and other economic problems and relieve urgent balance of payments requirements in Poland; (3) urge all creditor governments to adopt a generous and early debt rescheduling program for Poland and expedite consultations between Poland and such governments to facilitate such rescheduling; and (4) provide agricultural assistance to Poland.

Requires the Secretary of the Treasury to direct the U.S. executive director of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (World Bank) to urge expeditious approval and disbursement by the Bank of a structural adjustment loan to Poland to facilitate major economic reforms scheduled for early 1990.

Declares that the U.S. Government, to the extent that the International Monetary Fund (IMF) review of the Polish economy projects a probable balance of payments shortage for the fourth quarter of 1989, should work closely with the European Community and international financial institutions to determine the extent of emergency assistance required by Poland and consider extending a bridge loan to relieve urgent balance of payments requirements. States that the President should seek to ensure that industrialized democracies undertake an immediate effort to respond to Poland's request for $1,000,000 to support economic stabilization programs. Authorizes the President to furnish assistance to Poland for such programs. Authorizes appropriations.

Requires the U.S. Government to: (1) make available agricultural assistance to Poland to alleviate food shortages and to facilitate the transition to a free market economy; and (2) encourage parallel efforts by the European Community and other agricultural surplus countries.

Sets a minimum level of agricultural assistance for Poland for FY 1990.

Directs the President to take actions to encourage innovative approaches to debt reduction of East European countries which have taken substantive steps toward political democracy and economic pluralism. Authorizes the President to undertake the discounted sale to private purchasers of U.S. Government debt obligations of such countries. Permits such a sale only if it will facilitate a debt-for-equity or debt-for-development swap.

Title II: Private Sector Development - Authorizes the President to designate two private, nonprofit organizations as the Polish-American Enterprise Fund and the Hungarian-American Enterprise Fund to promote development of the Polish and Hungarian private sectors. Authorizes appropriations for the Funds.

Permits grants to be made to the Funds only if the Funds are in compliance with this title. Authorizes Fund monies to be used for: (1) employee stock ownership plans; (2) indigenous credit unions; (3) the modernization of Polish telecommunications; and (4) the economic foundation of NSZZ Solidarnosc.

Sets forth provisions with respect to the administration of the Funds and auditing, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements.

Requires the Secretary of Labor to provide technical assistance to Poland and Hungary for the implementation of labor market reform and to facilitate adjustment during the period of economic transition and reform. Outlines administrative authorities and types of assistance authorized. Authorizes appropriations.

Directs the Agency for International Development (AID) to implement a technical training program for Poland and Hungary to enable such countries to develop market economies. Permits AID to use the Polish-American and Hungarian-American Enterprise Funds and other appropriate Federal and private agencies and programs to carry out such training. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Prohibits funding for the Farmer-to-Farmer program to be made available under the Food Security Act of 1985 or a similar provision of law.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 to carry out Peace Corps programs in Poland and Hungary.

Permits the use of local currencies generated by the sale of agricultural commodities made available to Poland to: (1) complement certain assistance made available under this Act; and (2) support the activities of a joint commission established under the American Aid to Poland Act of 1988. States that the use of such currencies should emphasize agricultural development in Poland.

Declares that it is U.S. policy that: (1) U.S. persons, financial institutions, and other persons may provide financial and technical assistance to credit unions in Poland and Hungary; and (2) federally insured depository institutions may provide technical assistance to such credit unions, to the extent that such assistance is prudent and not inconsistent with safe and sound banking practice.

Amends the Federal Credit Union Act to allow Federal credit unions to provide technical assistance to credit unions in Poland and Hungary.

Title III: Trade and Investment - Amends the Trade Act of 1974 to remove Poland from the list of countries ineligible for designations as beneficiary developing countries.

Requires the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) to support projects in Poland and Hungary to enhance the nongovernmental sector and reduce state involvement in the economy.

Authorizes the Export-Import Bank to extend financial services to Poland and Hungary.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to authorize the President to provide guarantees to the Bank for liabilities incurred in connection with guarantees or insurance for financing involving exports of goods and services for the private sector in Poland. Limits such guarantees to short-term guarantees and insurance to be repayable within one year of the date of arrival of such goods and services. Permits economic support fund assistance to be made available to discharge such liabilities. Provides for the crediting of subsequent payments to a reserve fund. Limits the aggregate amount of outstanding guarantees. Requires the AID Administrator and the President of the Bank to report biannually to the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the amount and extension of such guarantees and insurance. Authorizes the Bank to charge fees and premiums in connection with such guarantees or insurance. Terminates the President's authority to make such guarantees after FY 1992.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 to carry out the Trade and Development Program in Poland and Hungary.

Urges the President to seek bilateral investment treaties with Poland and Hungary to establish a more stable legal framework for U.S. investment in such countries.

Amends the Tax Reform Act of 1986 to exempt certain Polish bonds from rules relating to below-market loans.

Title IV: Educational, Cultural, and Scientific Activities - Declares that the United States should: (1) expand its participation in educational and cultural exchange activities with Poland and Hungary especially activities that assist the development of free market economies in Poland and Hungary; and (2) take action to establish binational Fulbright commissions with Poland and Hungary.

States that the President should consider the establishment of reciprocal cultural centers in Poland, Hungary, and the United States to facilitate cultural exchanges.

Requires the President to encourage the establishment of "sister institution" programs between American and Polish, and American and Hungarian, organizations.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 for such activities.

Authorizes the AID Administrator to establish and administer a scholarship program to enable Polish and Hungarian students to study in the United States. Provides that such program shall emphasize scholarships for the study of business and economics.

Authorizes the Administrator to make grants to States to provide assistance in study areas related to the development needs of Poland and Hungary. Limits the annual Federal share for such grants to 50 percent of the total amount. Requires States to enlist the assistance of the private sector in meeting the non-Federal share of payments and to encourage the private sector to offer internships or other opportunities to scholarship recipients. Makes available economic support fund and development assistance to carry out such program. Authorizes additional appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 to implement the 1987 U.S.-Polish science and technology agreement and the 1989 U.S.-Hungarian science and technology agreement.

Title V: Other Assistance Programs - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 for the support of democratic institutions and activities in Poland and Hungary.

Provides that a high priority be given to pollution control and the restoration of the natural resource base in the implementation of assistance to Poland and Hungary.

Authorizes the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency to undertake environmental protection activities in Poland and Hungary.

Requires the Administrator to cooperate with Polish officials and experts to: (1) establish an air quality monitoring network in the Krakow metropolitan area; and (2) improve water quality and the availability of drinking water in such area.

Directs the Administrator to work with U.S. and Hungarian officials and private parties to establish and support a center in Budapest, Hungary, for facilitating cooperative environmental activities between governmental experts and U.S. and Eastern and Western European organizations.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to cooperate with Polish officials and experts to: (1) retrofit a coal-fired commercial power plant in Krakow, Poland, with advanced clean coal technology; and (2) assess and develop Poland's capability to manufacture or modify industrial equipment to enable industrial facilities to use fossil fuels cleanly. Authorizes apppropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Requires the Secretary of Energy to give high priority to assisting Poland and Hungary in improving energy efficiency.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the executive branch should work with the Hungarian Government to achieve environmentally safe alternative investments in energy efficiency, particularly with regard to projects along the Danube River.

Authorizes additional appropriations under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 for FY 1990 through 1992 to be available only for the provision of medical supplies and hospital equipment to Poland and the training of Polish medical personnel.

Title VI: Additional SEED Program Actions - Requires the President to designate a SEED program coordinator within the Department of State.

Directs the President to establish a SEED Information Center System to serve as a clearinghouse for information relating to business needs and opportunities in, and voluntary assistance to, Eastern Europe. Requires such system to encourage economically sound proposals to the Polish-American and Hungarian-American Enterprise Funds and other finance sources for the development of private enterprise in Eastern Europe. Provides that such system shall be based in Washington, D.C., Warsaw, Budapest and, as appropriate, other East European capitals.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should encourage national monetary and food contributions for assistance to Poland and to Romanian refugees in Hungary. Declares that the President should use all available authorities, request additional authorities, as needed, and encourage participation by private voluntary organizations in transporting nonfinancial private contributions to Poland.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the U.S. embassies in Budapest and Warsaw should each be assigned one additional economic and commercial officer; and (2) the U.S. Trade Center in Warsaw and the U.S. mission in Krakow should each be assigned an additional economic and commercial officer.

Title VII: Reports to Congress - Requires the President to report to the Congress on: (1) steps taken by the U.S. Government with respect to title I of this Act; and (2) Poland's requirements for additional agricultural assistance during FY 1990 through 1992 and how much assistance is proposed by the President. Provides for revised assessments of Poland's requirements for such assistance to be submitted to the Congress.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on the confidence building measures Poland and Hungary could undertake to facilitate the negotiation of agreements to encourage private sector investments in such countries and with respect to the treatment accorded to such countries under the Export Administration Act of 1979.

Requires the President to report annually to: (1) the Congress on the SEED program; and (2) the appropriate congressional committees on the extent of espionage activities against the United States and NATO member countries by operatives of East European countries receiving assistance under this Act.

Applies reprogramming notification requirements of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to funds made available under such Act to carry out this Act.

Title VIII: Miscellaneous Provisions - Declares that the President should suspend assistance to an East European country pursuant to this Act if the President reports to the Congress that: (1) such country is engaged in international activities that threaten U.S. national security interests; (2) a government official of such country initiates martial law or a state of emergency for reasons other than to respond to a natural disaster or a foreign invasion; or (3) any elected parliament member has been removed from office or arrested through extraconstitutional processes.

Congratulates the Hungarian people on the declaration of a Republic of Hungary and expresses the desire to enhance friendly relations between the Hungarian and American peoples and Governments.

Permits AID to use a specified amount of funds made available under this Act for administrative expenses.

Authorizes the AID Administrator, during FY 1990, to use excess foreign currencies for: (1) purposes for which economic assistance is provided under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961; and (2) any institution providing education to a significant number of U.S. nationals.

National Museum of the American Indian Act - Establishes within the Smithsonian Institution a memorial to Native Americans to be known as the National Museum of the American Indian, to provide for the study and research of Native Americans and their culture and the collection and exhibition of Native American objects.

Authorizes the Smithsonian to provide for the transfer of certain assets of the Heye Foundation for the use of the Museum.

Establishes the Board of Trustees of the Museum which shall: (1) recommend annual budgets for the Museum; (2) assist the Board of Regents on matters relating to the Museum; and (3) report annually to the Regents on the acquisition, disposition, and display of Native American objects and artifacts and on other appropriate matters. Grants the trustees sole authority to: (1) dispose of and acquire Museum property; and (2) specify criteria for appropriate use of Museum collections. Grants the Trustees authority to: (1) provide for the restoration, preservation, and maintenance of Museum collections; (2) solicit funds for the Museum; and (3) approve expenditures from the Museum's endowment.

Requires the Secretary of the Smithsonian to appoint a Director to manage the Museum and employees to serve under the Director.

Requires Foundation employees serving the day before the transfer to be offered employment by the Smithsonian.

Directs the Regents to plan, design, and construct a facility for the Museum in specified areas of the District of Columbia. Prohibits the Regents from paying more than two-thirds of the facility's total costs from appropriated funds with the remainder of such costs to be paid from non-Federal sources.

Authorizes the Administrator of the General Services Administration to lease space in the Old United States Custom House in New York City at a nominal charge to the Smithsonian for a period of not less than 99 years to house a portion of the Museum collections.

Authorizes the Administrator to reimburse the Federal Buildings Fund for the difference between the amount charged to the Smithsonian for leasing such space and the commercial charge which would otherwise apply to such space. Authorizes appropriations to the Administrator for FY 1991 and succeeding fiscal years to reimburse such Fund.

Directs the Regents to plan, design, and construct a facility in such space for the Museum to be known as the George Gustav Heye Center of the National Museum of the American Indian. Requires the Administrator to plan, design, and construct an auditorium and loading dock in the Custom House for the Museum and other occupants of that building. Makes the Regents responsible for repairs and alterations of the Center. Directs the Regents to: (1) reimburse the Administrator for the Smithsonian's share of service and repair costs with respect to such space; and (2) pay one-third of the center's costs from non-Federal sources.

Requires payments by the city and State of New York for the establishment of the Center to be made to the Regents according to a payment schedule to be agreed upon by such parties.

Prohibits the obligation of Federal funds for construction of the Center in a fiscal year until non-Federal sources have paid the estimated share of such costs to the Regents.

Directs the Regents to plan, design, and construct a facility for the conservation and storage of Museum collections at the Museum Support Center in Suitland, Maryland.

Authorizes the Regents and the Administrator to enter into agreements for planning, designing, and constructing such facilities which require the Regents to transfer funds to the Administrator to cover the expenses of establishing such facilities.

Prohibits the obligation of funds appropriated for establishing such facilities for actual construction of any facility until 60 days after the Regents transmit to the Congress an analysis of the total estimated cost of such construction and a cost-sharing plan projecting Federal appropriations and non-Federal contributions for such construction on a fiscal year basis.

Requires the Administrator to make necessary repairs and alterations in the portion of the Custom House that is not leased to the Regents and which, on the enactment of this Act, has not been altered. Authorizes appropriations from the Federal Buildings Fund to the Administrator to make such repairs and alterations and to plan, design, and construct an auditorium and loading dock at the Custom House.

Directs the Regents: (1) to assure that, when a qualified successor to the Heye Foundation at Audubon Terrace takes possession of Audubon Terrace, a specified area at that facility is accessible to the public and physically suitable for exhibition activities; and (2) upon written agreement between the Regents and any qualified successor, to lend objects from Smithsonian collections to the successor for exhibition at Audubon Terrace and to provide training, scholarship, and other assistance for exhibition activities at Audubon Terrace. Requires any charge by the Regents for activities pursuant to such agreements to be determined according to the successor's ability to pay.

Directs the Regents to give priority to agreements with appropriate Indian organizations, including Indian tribes, when entering into agreements with museums, educational institutions, and cultural organizations to: (1) loan Native American artifacts and objects from Smithsonian collections; (2) sponsor or coordinate traveling exhibitions of such items; or (3) provide training or technical assistance. Allows agreements with Indian organizations to provide that loans or services be furnished to such organizations at minimal or no cost.

Allows the Regents to establish programs to serve Indian tribes and communities and, in cooperation with educational institutions including tribally controlled community colleges, provide programs to enhance the opportunities for Indians in museum studies, management, and research.

Requires the Regents to establish an Indian Museum Management Fellowship program to provide stipend support to Indians for training in museum development and management.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 and each succeeding fiscal year for such Indian programs.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) inventory Indian human remains and funerary objects in the possession or control of the Smithsonian; and (2) identify the origins of such remains and objects using the best available scientific and historical documentation.

Provides that if the tribal origin of any such remains or objects is identified by a preponderance of the evidence, the Secretary shall so notify any affected Indian tribe at the earliest opportunity.

Provides that if any such remains are identified by a preponderance of the evidence as those of a particular individual or as those of an individual culturally affiliated with a particular Indian tribe, the Secretary, upon the request of the descendants of such individual or of the Indian tribe, shall expeditiously return such remains along with any associated funerary objects to the descendants or tribe.

Provides that if any Indian funerary object not associated with Indian human remains is identified by a preponderance of the evidence as having been removed from a specific burial site of an individual culturally affiliated with a particular Indian tribe, the Secretary, upon the request of the Indian tribe, shall expeditiously return such object to the tribe.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 and succeeding fiscal years to inventory, identify, and return such remains and objects held by the Smithsonian.

Directs the Secretary to appoint a special committee to monitor and review the inventory, identification, and return of such remains and items within 120 days after the enactment of this Act.

Directs the committee to: (1) ensure fair and objective consideration and assessment of all relevant evidence with respect to the inventory and identification; (2) review any finding relating to the origin or the return of such remains or objects upon the request of any affected party or otherwise; (3) facilitate the resolution of any dispute that may arise between Indian tribes with respect to the return of such remains or objects; and (4) perform other related functions as assigned.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress at the conclusion of the work of the committee. Terminates the committee 120 days after such report is submitted.

Authorizes appropriations to the committee for FY 1991 and succeeding fiscal years.

Requires the Secretary to inventory and identify Native Hawaiian human remains and funerary objects in the possession of the Smithsonian and to enter into an agreement with appropriate Native Hawaiian organizations with expertise in Native Hawaiian affairs to provide for the return of such remains and objects. Directs the Secretary to apply the principles and procedures set forth for the inventory, identification, and return of Indian human remains and funerary objects and for the special committee to the Native Hawaiian human remains and funerary objects.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to make grants to Indian tribes to assist such tribes in reaching and carrying out agreements for the return of Indian human remains and funerary objects. Authorizes appropriations for such grants for FY 1991 and succeeding fiscal years.

Authorizes the Secretary to make grants to Indian organizations for renovation and repair of museum and exhibit facilities to enable such organizations to exhibit objects and artifacts on loan from the Smithsonian collections or from other sources.

Establishes within the U.S. Treasury the Tribal Museum Endowment Fund from which the Secretary is required to make such grants.

Authorizes the Secretary to accept non-Federal contributions for deposit in the Fund. Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to credit to the Fund the interest on, and the proceeds from, the sale and redemption of obligations held in the Fund. Authorizes the Secretary to invest any portion of the Fund in interest-bearing obligations of the United States.

Authorizes appropriations to the Fund for FY 1992 and succeeding fiscal years.

Requires the Secretary of the Interior to report to the Congress annually on the financial condition of the Fund.

Authorizes appropriations to the Regents to carry out this Act.

National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Provides that authorizations of appropriations and of personnel strength levels in this Act for any fiscal year after 1990 are effective only with respect to appropriations made during the first session of the 101st Congress.

Limits the net amount authorized to be expended during FY 1990 from certain covered defense appropriations. Requires the Secretary of Defense and the Director of Central Intelligence to ensure compliance with such limitation. Requires the Secretary to ensure that outlay rates for congressional interest items are not reduced during FY 1990 to implement such limitation. Directs the Secretary to report to the Senate and House Armed Services and Appropriations Committees on implementation of such limitation. Requires the Directors of the Office of Management and Budget and of the Congressional Budget Office to submit to the Speaker of the House and specified congressional committees a joint report concerninig outlays and budget authority for that fiscal year. Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to required reductions and other changes in national defense outlays in relation to budget authority.

Division A: Department of Defense Authorizations - Title I: Procurement - Part A: Funding Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 to the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, and Air Force for: (1) aircraft; (2) missiles; (3) weapons and tracked combat vehicles; (4) ammunition; (5) shipbuilding and conversion; (6) other procurement; and (7) the installation of modernization equipment.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for: (1) procurement for the defense agencies and the reserves; and (2) the chemical demilitarization program.

Specifies programs for which the Secretary of the military department concerned may and may not use funds appropriated for FY 1990 to enter into multiyear procurement contracts for specified defense procurement programs.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 to reduce or increase various defense procurement program authorizations under such Act.

Part B: B-2 Aircraft Program - Limits the amount of FY 1990 Air Force funds which may be obligated for procurement of B-2 aircraft and spare parts. Prohibits such funds from being made available until a series of flight testing is completed and certain certifications are made with regard to the results of such tests. Prohibits the annual production of B-2 aircraft for fiscal years after FY 1990 unless certain certifications with regard to performance and testing milestones having been met. Requires the U.S. Comptroller General to conduct an ongoing evaluation of B-2 test and evaluation results and report periodically to the Congress on his findings. Requires the Secretary of Defense to report to the Senate and House Armed Services and Appropriations Committees (the defense committees) on the cost, schedule, and capability of the B-2 aircraft program.

Requires the Secretary to provide for an ongoing independent assessment of the technological capabilities and performance of the B-2 aircraft and submit periodic reports to the Congress. Requires the Secretary to submit to the defense committees an unclassified version of the B-2 performance matrix. Requires the Secretary to: (1) report to the defense committees on the implementation of certain contractor guarantee requirements with respect to B-2 aircraft procurement contracts; and (2) conduct a comprehensive study of the force structure of the B-2 aircraft. Expresses the sense of the Congress with regard to initial and full-rate production of B-2 aircraft, with emphasis on less use of the B-2 and more use of certain alternative aircraft in the future.

Part C: Other Strategic Programs - Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to proceed with the recovery program for the B-1B aircraft electronic countermeasures program only in accordance with the following conditions: (1) testing by the Secretary of Defense during FY 1990 and 1991 of the B-1B avionics modifications; (2) implementation of such modifications by the Secretary of the Air Force to not more than six B-1B aircraft; (3) bimonthly status reports by the Secretary of Defense with respect to the B-1B avionics modifications; and (4) an independent assessment by an outside panel, after completion of the test program, of the capabilities of the B-1B aircraft to penetrate air defenses of the Soviet Union. Provides funding for the avionics modification program.

Requires certain testing and certifications before FY 1990 Air Force funds may be obligated for procurement of missiles under the Advanced Cruise Missile program.

Limits to 50 the number of MX missiles that may be deployed at any one time.

Part D: Program Terminations - Directs the Secretary of Defense to terminate new production of F-14 aircraft under specified conditions which include the production of spare parts for existing aircraft and the production of such aircraft for which funds were already obligated before the enactment of this Act. Directs the Secretary to terminate new production of the following aircraft, with specified exceptions and conditions: (1) AH-64 helicopters; (2) AHIP Scout aircraft; (3) F-15 aircraft; (4) M88A2 recovery vehicles; and (5) reconnaisance aircraft.

Part E: Army Programs - Prohibits FY 1990 Army funds from being obligated to deactivate the Detroit Army Tank Plant. Prohibits such funds from being used for long-lead items and nonrecurring costs for the Block II modification program for the M-1 tank until the Secretary of the Army makes certain certifications to the Armed Services Committees on such program.

Limits the amount of FY 1989 Army funds that may be available for procuring and installing tanker refueling kits for use by heavy trucks configured with a palletized loading system.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to complete certain testing of the Army recovery vehicle program. Places certain conditions on production decisions with respect to such recovery vehicles.

Repeals the procurement requirement and limitation of funds for the Heavy Expanded Mobility Tactical Truck.

Prohibits FY 1990 Army procurement funds from being available for modifications for MH-60K and MH-47 helicopters until the Secretary of the Army makes certain certifications with regard to testing of such aircraft. Allows for the waiver of such certification under specified conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to accept delivery of new Stinger missiles only if the contractor has agreed to modify or retrofit such missiles in order to meet all performance specifications existing at the time of delivery.

Prohibits FY 1990 funding for the M109 Howitzer improvement program until certain certifications and reports are made by the Secretary of the Army.

Prohibits FY 1990 Army funds from being used to procure Sherpa aircraft unless the contractor commits to supporting equal employment opportunities.

Part F: Navy Programs - Places certain limitations on the procurement of V-22 Osprey aircraft.

Preserves the dual-source production base for the Standard Missile II.

Requires the Secretary of the Navy to submit annual reports to the defense committees on current and projected Navy aircraft requirements and Navy plans for aircraft acquisition and modernization.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to establish a fast sealift ship program. Requires the Secretary of the Navy to report to the Armed Services Committees on such program before any funds are obligated.

Directs the Secretary of the Navy to transfer certain aircraft from the Marine Corps to the Navy.

Requires a report from the Secretary of Defense to the Armed Services Committees evaluating the practicability and desirability of reducing the rate at which Trident submarines are procured.

Part G: Nonstrategic Air Force Programs - Prohibits the obligation of funds for payments under the MC-130H Combat Talon aircraft program until the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation completes certain tests and certifications.

Requires the Secretary of the Air Force to make certain certifications with respect to the AC-130U gunship aircraft program before funds may be obligated.

Prohibits the obligation of funds for full-rate production of the Advanced Medium-Range Air-to-Air missiles until the Director tests and certifies such missiles.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 to allow the Secretary of the Navy to lease aricraft for use by the Fleet Electronic Warfare Support Group if such lease results in cost reductions in meeting current fleet mission requirements.

Amends such Act to provide further incentives for local military installation commanders to pursue energy conservation initiatives.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to use operation and maintenance funds to purchase rights-of-way across tribal lands and to purchase and maintain the rail line over a right-of-way located near Wabusku, Nevada.

Authorizes the Army to enter into a long-term aircraft support contract at the U.S. Army Kwajalein Atoll.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to enter into a contract for services to train undergraduate naval flight officers after FY 1990 after conducting a competition for each contract for such services.

Requires the Secretary to increase the number of full-time personnel of the Defense Contract Audit Agency, with the requirement that a specified number be auditors.

Increases the uniform allowance for certain civilian DOD employees who are required by regulation or statute to wear a uniform.

Part D: Armed Forces Retirement Homes - Requires an annual authorization of appropriations for the operation of the U.S. Soldiers' and Airmen's Home.

Makes available a share of the stoppages, fines, and forfeitures adjudged against an enlisted member or warrant officer in the Navy and Marine Corps for the purpose of funding the Naval Home.

Provides for deductions from the pay of enlisted members and warrant officers to finance the Naval Home. Makes such provision inapplicable to reserve enlisted members or warrant officers.

Requires the DOD Inspector General to inspect the operations of the Armed Forces Retirement Homes during FY 1990. Requires the Inspector General to include in his report recommendations for future inspection requirements.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees regarding improvements in the operation and management of the military retirement homes.

Part E: Environmental Provisions - Requires the Secretary to submit a report to the Armed Services Committees on the manner in which the funds contained in the amended budget request for environmental restoration are spent before any amount above the budget request for FY 1990 is obligated.

Requires the Secretary to develop and maintain a comprehensive data base on DOD environmental activities to apply with applicable Federal and State environmental laws. Directs the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees on progress in the development of such data base.

Requires the Secretary to develop a comprehensive five-year plan for environmental restoration at military installations that will be closed or realigned during fiscal years 1991 through 1995.

Provides funding, under specified conditions, for waste minimization programs of DOD for certain industrial-type activities.

Expresses the sense of the Congresss requesting an investigation of soil and water contamination near Mead, Nebraska.

Requires DOD to establish programs for the reduction of emissions of chlorofluorocarbons and halons into the atmosphere as a consequence of maintenance procedures, training, and testing practices.

Directs the Secretary to develop and implement a method to track DOD expenditures related to compliance with applicable environmental laws. Requires the Secretary to report annually on such expenditures to the Congress beginning with the submission of the FY 1992 budget request.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees within two years after enactment of this Act on the long-range environmental challenges and goals of DOD.

Requires annual reports from the Secretary on the environmental contamination at the Jefferson Proving Ground, Indiana, resulting from activities of DOD, with a final report due no later than April 15, 1993.

Requires the Administrator of EPA to conduct a study, and submit an interim and final report, determining environmental damage impact to the Shenendoah River by companies under contract to DOD and NASA.

Directs the Secretary to study the feasibility of facilities such as commissaries, exchanges, cafeterias, and dining halls participating in programs to recycle post-consumer waste.

Part F: Miscellaneous Reports - Requires reports concerning: (1) military utilization of the inland navigation system of the United States in order to achieve savings and enhanced mobilization preparedness; (2) readiness of the armed forces, in terms of manpower, mobility, sustainability, and equipment, to perform assigned missions; (3) progress and timetables for DOD to establish a certified second production source for carbonizable rayon yarn; and (4) military recruiting advertising expenditures.

Title IV: Military Personnel Authorizations - Part A: Active Forces - Authorizes end strengths for active-duty forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Reduces, as of the end of FY 1991, the authorized end strength for Air Force colonels, such reduction to be redistributed by the Secretary of Defense among grades and services within the armed forces.

Part B: Reserve Forces - Authorizes end strengths for reserve components of the armed forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Authorizes end strength reductions for the Selected Reserve components of the armed forces for each such fiscal year. Authorizes increases for each such fiscal year in the number of certain personnel authorized to be on active duty in support of the reserve components.

Part C: Military Training Student Loads - Authorizes the average military training student loads for FY 1990 and 1991. Provides for the adjustment of such student loads consistent with manpower strengths authorized under this Act.

Part D: Authorizations of Appropriations - Authorizes appropriations for military personnel for FY 1990.

Title V: Military Personnel - Part A: Reserve Components Matters - Authorizes a person with no prior military service who is qualified for active-duty enlistment in the armed forces (regular) to be enlisted as a member of the reserves under a delayed entry program. Allows such person to be enlisted in a regular component of the armed forces within 365 days after enlistment in the reserves. Exempts members of the delayed entry program from otherwise applicable Ready Reserve training requirements. Prohibits the period of enlisted service under the delayed entry program from being counted as part of the years of service for the computation of the basic pay of a member.

Authorizes the Secretary to order a member of the Ready Reserve to muster duty one time each year without his consent. Authorizes a member of the Ready Reserve who is not a member of the National Guard or of the Selected Reserve to be entitled to an allowance for such muster duty if engaged in such duty for at least two hours.

Extends through FY 1992: (1) certain reserve officer management programs; and (2) the authority to make temporary promotions of certain Navy lieutenants. Amends the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1987 to extend through FY 1991 the authority for the enlistment in the reserves of single parents.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for an enlisted member who is assigned to a high priority unit of the Selected Reserve and who performs inactive duty for training with such unit. Terminates such special assignment pay after FY 1991. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the administration of such special pay program.

Provides conditions under which a civilian technician of the Army National Guard may not be denied a military promotion due to failure to attend the Battle Skills Course. Outlines certain education programs that will be recognized by the Secretary of the Army as satisfying the reserve component noncommissioned officers education requirements for civilian technicians who completed such education before the inception of the Battle Skills Course. Requires such Secretary to report to the defense committees a plan to utilize State and National Guard Bureau regional academies to provide a portion of such required education specifically related to military occupational specialties.

Part B: Other Matters - Increases the active-duty service obligations of graduates of the service academies and of the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences applicable to persons first admitted after December 31, 1991.

Extends through FY 1992 the authority of the Navy to make temporary promotions of certain Navy lieutenants possessing critical skills.

Provides discretion to the Secretaries of the military departments concerned as to whether drug and alcohol abuse testing is to be conducted at military entrance processing centers or at basic military training centers. Makes such provision applicable only to prior-service personnel.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned (or, in the case of the Coast Guard, the Secretary of Transportation) to make certain enlisted member promotion corrections on the military record of a member without intervention by the Board for Correction of Military Records. Makes such provision applicable to certain requirements of back pay and availability of appropriations that apply to the correction of similar records by such Board.

Redesignates the Registrar of the United States Air Force Academy as the Director of Admissions for such Academy.

Makes eligible for the awarding of a prisoner-of-war medal those personnel taken prisoner and held hostage by North Korea as a result of the seizure of the U.S.S. Pueblo.

Requires the Comptroller General to study and report on the provision of technical training for active-duty recruits and members of the reserves before actual military service.

Requires the Secretary to study and report on the current and future needs of members of the armed forces, civilian DOD employees, and dependents of such members and employees for post-secondary education services at overseas locations.

Requires the Secretary to prescribe regulations regarding the weight that promotion boards should give to the clinical proficiency of certain officers in the health professions in the selection process.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees on the issue of constructive service credit for nurses.

Title VI: Compensation and Other Personnel Benefits - Part A: Pay and Allowances - Waives the automatic adjustment authorized for military pay consistent with yearly increases in General Schedule pay rates, authorizing instead a 3.6 percent increase in the rates of basic pay, basic allowance for quarters, and basic allowance for subsistence. Increases cadet and midshipman pay. Makes each such increase effective as of January 1, 1990. Places a limitation on the adjustments in the variable housing allowance.

Part B: Bonuses and Special and Incentive Pay - Provides for an increase, in both the authorized enlistment bonus and the first installment payment of such bonus, for members of the armed forces with skills designated by their respective military department as critical to the current needs of such department. Limits the total payments to be made under such bonus.

Extends through FY 1992 the enlistment and reenlistment authority for members of the reserve forces. Extends through FY 1995: (1) the provision of special pay for nuclear-qualified officers extending their tour of active duty; (2) the nuclear career accession bonus program; and (3) the nuclear career annual incentive bonus program.

Part C: Travel and Transportation Allowances - Authorizes reimbursement of parking fees, ferry fees, and tolls incurred by military personnel incident to official travel.

Authorizes a lump-sum payment for certain costs incurred by military personnel moving into private housing overseas.

Reinstates the authorities of the Secretaries of the military departments to waive household goods weight allowances in certain instances.

Authorizes travel allowance for members assigned to ships undergoing construction.

Expands the current student travel program for overseas travel of dependents of members assigned overseas to include travel for dependents of members assigned to Alaska or Hawaii.

Part D: Military Aviators - Increases the flying duties required for an aviation officer to be entitled to aviation career incentive pay. Authorizes the Secretary concerned to waive such flying duty requirements to some extent on a case-by-case basis for the needs of the service. Requires, in the case of such aviation officers, that the computation of years of aviation service and years of military service include only periods of active duty. Increases the amount of incentive pay a qualified aviation officer is entitled to for periods of service in excess of six years. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress annually on the number of officers who failed to qualify for such incentive pay and the number of officers who continued to receive such incentive pay despite a failure to perform the minimum prescribed operational flying duty requirements. Authorizes the Secretary of the military department concerned to delay the implementation of such provisions under certain circumstances. Sets forth transitional provisions.

Extends until September 30, 1991, the period in which an aviation career officer may sign an agreement extending his or her tour of active duty, thereby making such officer eligible for an extension bonus. Allows the term of the agreement and the amount of the bonus to be prorated in certain circumstances. Authorizes the payment of the bonus in a lump-sum or in installments. Requires annual reports from the Secretary concerned to the Secretary of Defense analyzing the effect of the provision of retention bonuses to aviation officers during the preceding fiscal year on the retention of qualified aviators in the department of the Secretary concerned. Requires the Secretary of Defense to report to the defense committees annually on the reports received from the department Secretaries. Limits the amount of bonus payments made to officers of the Air Force and Navy during FY 1990. Requires the Secretary to reduce, as of the end of FY 1991 and 1992, the number of nonoperational flying duty positions in the armed forces by specified amounts. Prohibits an increase in such positions after FY 1991 unless the increase is specifically authorized by law.

Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees evaluating: (1) the minimum active duty obligations imposed on aviation officers; and (2) the adequacy of current life insurance programs for aviators and their crew members and the desirability of providing an additional accidental death insurance plan for such individuals.

Directs the Comptroller General to report to the defense committees evaluating the aviator assignment policies and practices of the armed forces.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should establish a commission to study the reasons for critical shortages of qualified aviators in both the armed forces and the commercial airlines industry in the United States and to consider effective and practical means of eliminating such shortages.

Part E: Montgomery GI Bill Amendments - Increases to $700 per month the amount of basic educational assistance permitted to members of the armed forces having critical specialties.

Expands the GI Bill educational program for members of the reserves to cover payments for vocational-technical training. Requires the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees on whether the reserve-component GI Bill should be modified to require reserve members participating in such program to have their pay reduced in order to contribute to such educational assistance program. Provides that reserve members performing active duty in support of the reserves are prohibited from receiving credit under the reserve educational assistance program for such service.

Part F: Personnel and Compensation Technical Amendments - Makes technical and clarifying amendments relating to: (1) the computation of the retired pay base for certain retired members of the armed forces; and (2) the Military Survivor Benefit Plan.

Repeals certain obsolete and expired provisions of Federal armed forces law and makes technical amendments. Removes a reference to the Canal Zone in a specified provision concerning the National Guard.

Part G: Miscellaneous - Directs the Secretary to provide relocation assistance to members of the armed forces and their families in order to help neutralize the negative effects of such relocation on retention, readiness, and morale. Outlines the types of assistance to be provided. Directs the Secretary to provide for the establishment of military relocation assistance programs in specified geographical areas. Requires information available through such programs to be managed through a computerized information system that can interact with all other relocation assistance programs of the military departments. Requires the Secretary to appoint a Director of Military Assistance Programs in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense to oversee such programs. Requires such Director to report to the Congress concerning such programs. Makes such programs inapplicable to the Coast Guard. Requires the Secretary to promulgate regulations to implement such programs and to report to the defense committees on the costs of implementation.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 to extend a test program for the reimbursement of members of the armed forces for certain adoption expenses to cover all adoptions initiated before October 1, 1990. Includes members of the Coast Guard in such test program.

Repeals a provision of Federal law which allows a uniform and equipment reimbursement monthly for a reserve officer who has not become entitled to a uniform reimbursement or allowance as an officer for the preceding four years.

Authorizes the reimbursement of charges incurred by a member of the armed forces or a civilian DOD employee resulting from an error in the mandatory direct deposit of pay to such member's or employee's account.

Title VII: Health Care Provisions - Part A: Health Care Professions Personnel Matters - Expands the types of education loans that qualify for repayment by the Secretary concerned in the case of certain health care professsionals in the Selected Reserve to include non-Federal loans used to finance basic or advanced health professions education. Extends until October 1, 1992, the authority to make such loan repayments. Directs the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees concerning such loan repayments.

Increases the amount of annual special pay authorized for medical officers of the armed forces, including reserve medical officers. Extends through FY 1992 the medical officer retention bonus program and limits the annual bonus. Requires a report from the Secretary to the Armed Services Committees on the success of such program in retaining medical officers. Provides transitional provisions for certain officers excluded during FY 1989.

Provides special pay for Army, Navy, and Air Force psychologists.

Provides a special pay accession bonus and stipend for registered nurses who sign an agreement for a minimum four-year period of obligated service in the armed forces or the Public Health Service as a registered nurse. Provides special incentive pay for nurse anesthetists who execute a written agreement to serve for a minimum one-year period.

Authorizes the payment of an accession bonus for an individual who executes a written agreement to accept an appointment as a nurse officer. Provides for the payment, in addition to such bonus, of an additional monthly stipend for individuals enrolled as full-time students in a nursing degree program. Limits the duration of the payment of such monthly stipends to 24 months.

Directs the Secretary of each military department to implement a program to appoint nurses having an associate degree or diploma in nursing as officers and to assign such officers to duty as nurses.

Establishes a mandatory retirement age of 68 (currently 67) for health professionals in the active and reserve components. Provides discretionary authority to the Secretaries of the military departments to continue health professionals in the reserve components in an active status. Authorizes the retention of reserve psychologists in an active status until age 67.

Reallocates certain naval reserve rear admiral positions authorized for the health professions.

Part B: Health Care Management - Prohibits the Secretary, during FY 1990 and 1991, from imposing a charge for the receipt of outpatient medical or dental care at a military medical treatment facility.

Authorizes DOD to use CHAMPUS funds to reimburse the Department of Veterans Affairs for medical care provided under DOD and Department sharing agreements.

Prohibits the reduction of end strength levels for medical personnel as a result of any military base closures or realignments.

Revises the deadline for the use of diagnosis-related groups for outpatient medical treatment.

Expands the current Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship program to provide an annual grant of $15,000 to health professional graduates pursuing an internship in a specialty designated as critical by the Secretary. Directs the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees describing the manner in which such new authority is implemented. Delays until October 1, 1991, the requirement for DOD to earmark 2,500 program awards to individuals in their third or fourth year of medical school who agree to accept residency training in a critically needed wartime skill.

Increases from two to five the number of faculty members at the Uniformed Service University of the Health Sciences who may be exempt from certain statutory restrictions on salary.

Authorizes retention in the appropriate military medical facility account of funds collected from third-party payers for the cost of care provided in such facilities to non-active-duty beneficiaries. (Previously, such collections went into the general funds of the Treasury.)

Directs the Secretaries of the Army and Navy to reallocate certain civilian positions designated for elimination to medical support positions. Requires such Secretaries to report to the Armed Services Committees on such reallocation.

Limits CHAMPUS payments to non-institutional health-care providers to 80 percent of billed charges (currently 90 percent) made for similar services in the same locality.

Permits former spouses of military personel to receive medical care in either military medical facilities or under CHAMPUS.

Title VIII: Acquisition Policy, Acquisition Management, and Related Matters - Part A: Procedures for Major Defense Acquisition Programs -Requires the Secretary to establish guidelines for determining the risk in the concurrent development of major defense acquisition systems (MDASs). Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on such risk for each MDAS in either full-scale development or low-rate initial production as of January 1, 1990.

Prohibits an MDAS from proceeding beyond initial low-rate production until initial operational test and evaluation (OTE) of the program is completed. Provides that such evaluation may not be conducted until the Director of OTE approves the adequacy of the plans for such OTE to be conducted in connection with that program. Requires the Director to submit certain reports with regard to such OTE. Outlines provisions concerning: (1) the determination of the quantity of articles required for operational testing; (2) impartiality of contractor testing personnel; (3) impartial advisory and assistance services; and (4) an annual report from the Director of OTE on the status of test and evaluation activities in connection with any MDAS.

Provides for the determination of low-rate initial production for articles of a MDAS, weapons systems, and naval vessel and satellite programs. Modifies certain reports related to live-fire testing programs.

Outlines additional certification procedures required for multiyear defense procurement contracts, including certification with respect to costs and cost savings achieved because of the length of such contracts.

Permits, under certain conditions, the transfer of technical data packages for large caliber cannon to allied countries.

Part B: Changes to Acquisition Statutes - Revises Federal provisions concerning unit cost reports contained in Selected Acquisition Reports concerning defense procurement contracts as managed by program managers for major defense programs. Requires the service acquisition executive (currently, the Secretary concerned) to receive and tabulate information from such unit cost reports and Selected Acquisition Reports. Requires the Secretary concerned to take certain steps when the current program acquisition unit costs have increased by more than 15 percent with regard to a major defense acquisition program. Requires notification to the Congress when such increases exceed 25 percent.

Authorizes the Secretary to enter into master agreements with specified sources for the peformance of advisory and assistance services. Places a two-year limitation on any such agreement. Requires competitive procedures to be used in making such agreements.

Allows funds available to a Federal agency for obligation for a contract at the time a protest is filed concerning the awarding of such contract to remain available for obligation for 90 days after the final ruling is made on the protest.

Revises certain post-employment restrictions for Government officials covered by appropriate provisions of the Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act. Includes provisions concerning: (1) permissible talks with a competing contractor concerning employment after certain notice and disqualification from participation in such procurement contract; (2) ethics advice from an agency to a former procurement official; and (3) waiver of certain employment restrictions on former Government personnel due to a need for employment of persons with critical skills.

Requires the Secretary, in the negotiation of memoranda of understanding and related agreements with foreign countries related to the research, production, and development of defense equipment, to: (1) consider the effects of such agreements on the defense industrial base of the United States; and (2) regularly solicit the comments and recommendations of the Secretary of Commerce with respect to the commercial implications of such agreements. Authorizes the Secretary to request inter-agency reviews of any such agreements in appropriate circumstances. Directs the President, when negotiating such agreements, to limit the adverse effects that offset arrangements would have on the defense industrial base of the United States.

Provides for the delegation of the authority of a senior procurement executive to approve the use of other-than-competitive procedures in the awarding of contracts between $10 million and $50 million to heads of procuring activities within such executive's organization who are general or flag officers or civilians of equivalent rank.

Authorizes funds for the procurement technical assistance cooperative agreement program in each of fiscal years 1990 and 1991, including funds for Native American tribal organizations and certain centers which serve more than one of the 12 Bureau of Indian Affairs regions of the United States.

Part C: Other Acquisition Policy Matters - Requires the Secretary to propose a revision to the Federal Acquisition Regulation making a certain certification requirement applicable to any foreign contractor bidding on a contract with any Government agency.

Requires the Secretary to prescribe a single, uniform rule for DOD with regard to the dissemination of, and access to, acquisition information.

Directs the Secretary to rescind his waiver of the Buy American Act with respect to the procurement of a particular product if the Secretary determines that a foreign country with which the United States has entered into a reciprocal defense procurement agreement has violated such agreement by discriminating against a similar U.S. product. Directs the Secretary to prepare a report on the amount of DOD purchases from foreign entities.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) prescribe and publish interim and final regulations with respect to the acquisition of commercial and nondevelopmental items; and (2) conduct an analysis of impediments to the acquisition of nondevelopmental items. Requires the Secretary to establish a program for training contracting officers, program managers, and other appropriate acquisition personnel in the acquisition of nondevelopmental items. Requires the Secretary to carry out a demonstration program with respect to the procurement of individual items of clothing issued to members of the armed forces.

Requires the President to conduct a study of and report to the Congress on the export financing of defense articles.

Part D: Provisions Relating to Small and Small Disadvantaged Businesses - Extends through FY 1993 a provision of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1987 extending a five percent contract goal for the awarding of certain DOD contracts to disadvantaged small business concerns. Extends certain report deadlines.

Provides DOD prime contractors with credit toward meeting minority subcontracting goals for certain contracts and subcontracts that were performed on Indian lands or by certain Indian-controlled joint ventures. Defines eligible work and limits the amount of such credit.

Directs the Secretary and the Small Business Administration (SBA) to establish a program during FY 1990 and 1991 for the use of bond waiver authority under the Small Business Act to assist certain small disadvantaged business concerns. Directs the Secretary to establish a test program under which one contracting activity in each military department and defense agency is authorized to undertake one or more demonstration projects to determine whether the negotiation and administration of comprehensive small business subcontracting plans will result in an increase in opportunities provided for small business concerns under DOD contracts.

Part E: Defense Industrial and Technology Base - Amends the National Science and Technology Policy, Organization, and Priorities Act of 1976 to require the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP) to establish within such Office a National Critical Technologies Panel to prepare a biennial national critical technologies report. Requires such report to identify those technologies that the Panel considers to be national critical technologies. Directs the Secretary of Defense to reimburse the Director of OSTP for expenses of the Panel for FY 1990. Directs the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees an annual plan for developing the technologies considered by the Secretary and the Secretary of Energy to be the technologies most critical to ensuring the long-term qualitative superiority of U.S. weapons systems. Authorizes the Secretary to enter into agreements with the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering, and the National Institute of Medicine to conduct studies in the fields of research and development essential to the development of the technologies identified in the most recent biennial report to the President by the Panel as most critical.

Requires the Defense Industrial Base Office to analyze the U.S. defense industrial base capability to fulfill national security needs. Directs the Secretary, acting through the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, to report to the Armed Services Committees on actions taken to improve the U.S. defense industrial base.

Directs the Secretary to take necessary and appropriate actions to promote and encourage an increase in the number of citizens and nationals of the United States who pursue courses of study in science, engineering, and other technical disciplines. Requires a report on such matter. Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations providing for fellowships to U.S. citizens and nationals pursuing graduate degrees in science, engineering, and other fields of study designated by the Secretary to be of priority interest to DOD. Provides funding for the awarding of such fellowships.

Part F: Miscellaneous - Outlines miscellaneous provisions and makes technical amendments to various Federal acquisition laws.

Title IX: Matters Relating to NATO Member Nations and Other Allies - Part A: Conventional Force Reductions in Europe - Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on an evaluation of the effect upon requirements of the United States for conventional forces and for military spending of: (1) full implementation of U.S.-Soviet Union force reductions; and (2) a conventional arms control agreement establishing parity of conventional NATO and Warsaw Pact forces in Europe.

Commends and supports the President's conventional arms control initiative announced in Brussels, Belgium, in May of 1989. Directs the President to report to the Congress on the foreign policy and military implications to NATO and the Warsaw Pact of significant reductions in conventional forces.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on the types of measures that would be required to verify the proposal for reductions in conventional forces in Europe adopted by member nations of NATO in May 1989.

Part B: Burden Sharing - Reduces the current authorized end strength for military personnel in Europe.

Directs the Secretary to report to specified congressional committees on the number of active-duty forces of the member nations of NATO in Europe.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that Japan should: (1) assume increased responsibility for its security; (2) offset direct costs incurred by the United States in deploying military forces for its defense; and (3) make a contribution to the common defense of the United States and Japan that is more commensurate with its economic status by taking specified steps. Requires the President to enter into negotiations with the Government of Japan toward achieving such results. Requires the President to report to the Congress on progress in achieving such goals.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees on practicable options available to DOD to reduce costs associated with maintaining overseas military and civilian DOD dependents.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the United States should review the missions, force structure, and locations of its military forces in the Republic of Korea and East Asia; (2) the Republic of Korea should assume increased responsibility for its security; (3) such nation should offset more of the direct costs incurred by U.S. military forces in its defense; and (4) the United States and the Republic of Korea should consult on the feasibility and desirability of partial, gradual reductions of U.S. military forces there. Requires the President to report to specified congressional committees on the military presence of the United States in East Asia, including the Republic of Korea.

Part C: Expenditures in Europe - Limits DOD expenditures for the relocation of functions located at Torrejon Air Base, Madrid, Spain.

Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to a gradual lessening of the presence of U.S. military facilities in NATO member countries.

Part D: Cooperative Agreements - Authorizes the Secretary to enter into a memorandum of understanding or other formal agreement with one or more major U.S. allies for conducting cooperative research and development projects on defense equipment and munitions. Outlines agreement conditions and other provisions. Requires the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition to report to the Speaker of the House and the congressional defense committees on progress on such agreements. Authorizes the Secretary to enter into bilateral or multilateral Weapon System Partnership Agreements with governments of NATO member countries participating in the operation of the NATO Maintenance and Supply Organization.

Revises and extends authority for: (1) the Secretary of Defense with respect to the NATO Airborne Warning and Control System; (2) the procurement of communications support and related supplies and services from other nations; (3) the provision of excess defense articles for the modernization of defense capabilities of countries on NATO southern and southeastern flanks; (4) exchange military training through the U.S. Army Russian Institute, West Germany; (5) the payment of certain expenses in connection with bilateral and regional cooperation programs; (6) the extension of H-1 immigration status for certain nonimmigrants employed in cooperative R&D projects and coproduction projects; and (7) methods of payment for acquisitions and transfers by the United States to allied countries.

Title X: Matters Relating to Arms Control - Requires reports from the President on: (1) possible effects of a strategic arms reduction agreement on the Trident submarine program; and (2) verification work conducted with regard to mobile ICBMs under a START agreement.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that any Strategic Arms Reduction (START) talks should not: (1) prevent the United States from deploying a force structure which emphasizes survivable strategic systems; (2) compromise the security of the U.S. ballistic-missile carrying submarine force; or (3) prohibit or limit the deployment of non-nuclear cruise missiles.

Directs the Secretary to study and report on the assymetry in the near-term capabilities of the United States and the Soviet Union to deploy ballistic missile defenses beyond those permitted under the 1972 ABM Treaty.

Reaffirms the sense of the Congress with respect to: (1) protection from the accidental launch of ballistic missiles; and (2) the violation of the 1972 ABM Treaty by the Krasnoyarsk radar system (a Soviet early-warning radar system).

Expresses the sense of the Congress concerning the feasibility of treaty limitations with the Soviet Union on weapons capable of threatening military space satellites. Directs the President to report to the Congress on U.S. antisatellite weapon activities and the survivability of U.S. satellites against current and potential antisatellite weapons deployed by the Soviet Union. Directs the President to report to the Congresss on the desirability of negotiations with the Soviet Union regarding limitations on antisatellite weapons.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to report to the Congress on the ability of the United States to verify compliance by the Soviet Union with any agreement to limit nuclear testing.

Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to arms control negotiations and U.S. modernization policy.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on the potential for interference with gamma-ray astronomy missions by the placement in Earth orbit of space nuclear reactors.

Expresses the sense of the Congress regarding negotiations with the Soviet Union and other countries regarding the prohibition of lethal chemical weapons.

Makes certain congressional findings with respect to on-site inspection personnel monitoring arms control agreements.

Title XI: Department of Defense Organization and Management Matters - Part A: Force Structure - Directs the Secretary to convene a study group to review the operation, effectiveness, and soundness of the total force policy, force mix, and military force structure of U.S. military forces. Outlines matters to be considered by the study group. Requires reports to the Secretary and the Armed Services Committees on group findings and recommendations.

Directs the Secretary to require the Institute for Defense Analysis and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to conduct independent studies of close support, including air support. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on the findings and recommendations of such studies.

Directs the Secretary of the Air Force to report to the Armed Services Committees on the strategic air defense alert mission, especially in the northern portion of the United States.

Expresses the sense of the Congress against the permanent reassignment of combat units from Fort Knox, Kentucky, to Fort Irwin, California.

Part B: General Management Matters - Provides additional funding for FY 1990 for specified activities related to the unified and specified combatant commands.

Establishes the position of Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Financial Management at Executive Schedule level IV.

Part C: Professional Military Education - Requires the Secretaries of each military department and the Secretary to submit reports relating to courses of instruction at certain professional military education schools and professional military education requirements for promotion to general or flag officer grade. Prohibits a school organized and operated within one military department from being considered a joint military education school.

Urges the Secretary to establish: (1) a coherent and comprehensive framework for the education of officers, including officers nominated for the joint specialty; (2) a two-phase approach to strengthening the focus on joint matters; and (3) a sequenced approach to joint education requiring officers to complete, in sequence, a two-phase process of joint education. Outlines such two-phase process. Establishes the minimum duration of the principal course of instruction at the Armed Forces Staff College at three months. Directs the Secretary to implement the three-month course of instruction no later than two years after the enactment of this Act. Directs the Secretary to include certain information regarding students attending the Armed Forces Staff College in an annual report required under Federal law.

Provides for the employment of civilian faculty members at the National Defense University, the Army War College, the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, the Naval War College, the Marine Corps Command and Staff College, and the Air University.

Part D: Contracting Out - Extends through FY 1990 the authority of military base commanders to contract for the performance of a commercial activity on a military installation.

Removes the requirement for DOD to conduct cost comparison studies for commercial activities when the contract award involves sheltered workshop programs under the Javits-Wagner-O'Day Act.

Prohibits commercial activities currently carried out by Government personnel at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, from being converted to performance by a private contractor until the Army completes a new commercial activities study for such military installation. Provides an identical prohibition with respect to commercial activities at the Niagara Falls Air Force Reserve Base, with the Comptroller General completing a specified evaluation with respect to such base.

Title XII: Military Drug Interdiction and Counter-drug Activities - Earmarks specified funds for military drug interdiction and counterdrug activities. Provides that DOD shall serve as the single lead agency of the Government for the detection and monitoring of aerial and maritime transit of illegal drugs into the United States.

Directs the Secretary to include a separate budget proposal for the next two years for drug interdiction and counterdrug support to civilian agencies.

Requires the Secretary to integrate into an effective communications network the command, control, communications, and technical intelligence assets of the United States that are dedicated to the interdiction of illegal drugs into this country. Requires the Secretary to ensure that adequate DOD R&D activities are devoted to improving the ability of DOD to detect and monitor illegal drugs and other dangerous and illegal substances that are concealed in containers.

Requires the Secretary to direct the armed forces to conduct military training exercises in drug-interdiction areas. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on implementation of such requirement.

Provides drug interdiction funding from the Secretary to the Governor of any State which submits a plan providing for the use of such State's National Guard for drug interdiction and counter-drug activities. Outlines plan requirements and requires the Secretary to approve such plan before such funding is awarded.

Authorizes the Secretary to transfer to Federal and State agencies personal property of DOD deemed suitable for use by such agencies in counter-drug activities and considered excess to the needs of DOD.

Directs the Secretary to pay for expenses of the Civil Air Patrol in conducting drug surveillance flights.

Revises a provision concerning restrictions on direct participation by military personnel in law enforcement activities.

Authorizes the Secretary, during FY 1990 and at the request of the head of a Federal agency, to provide specified support for the counter-drug activities of such agency. Requires specified reports from the President and the Secretary with regard to drug interdiction and counter-drug activities.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the cooperation that exists between State and local law enforcement officials and Federal agencies participating in the National Narcotics Border Interdiction System should be continued and enhanced by the President. Amends the Controlled Substances Act with respect to such cooperation.

Title XIII: Military Appellate Procedures - Revises the composition and term of members of the U.S. Court of Military Appeals. Revises provisions concerning: (1) the removal and incapacity of judges; (2) service and pay of senior judges; (3) temporary service by a U.S. appellate or district court judge on such Court; (4) Court organization and employees; (5) annuities for judges and survivors; (6) annual meetings of a survey committee to survey the organization of the Court; (7) transition rules relating to retirement of new judges; (8) appellate review procedures of actions taken by the Judge Advocate General under provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice; and (9) investigation and disposition of matters pertaining to judicial conduct.

Title XIV: Military Survivor Benefit Plan - Military Survivor Benefits Improvement Act of 1989 - Revises the reduction in retired pay for participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP). Differentiates, in the level premium to be paid each month by participants in the Plan, as to whether the annuity being provided is a standard or reserve-component annuity. Permits certain individuals to choose either the current reduction provision or the revised standard, depending on their needs and circumstance. Ensures that the SBP annuity for a surviving spouse will be based on the grade of the retirement-eligible officer at the time of death, regardless of time served in such grade.

Directs the Secretary of the military department concerned to carry out a program, to be known as the Supplemental Survivor Benefit Plan (SSBP), which would enable participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) who are providing coverage for a spouse or former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to also provide a supplemental annuity for that spouse or former spouse beginning when the participant dies or when the spouse or former spouse becomes 62 years of age, whichever is later, in order to offset the effects of the two-tier annuity computation under the SBP. Outlines the following administrative provisions concerning the SSBP: (1) commencement of annuity; (2) the amount of such annuity for the beneficiary of a person providing the standard or the reserve-component annuity under the SBP (the latter annuity further defined by whether or not the beneficiary under the SSBP is initially under 62 years of age at the commencement of the annuity); and (3) adjustments in such annuities required by periodic adjustments in the cost-of-living index. Terminates a SSBP annuity when the beneficiary dies or otherwise becomes ineligible to continue to receive an annuity under the original SBP.

Allows a person who provides an annuity for a spouse or former spouse under SBP to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under these provisions. Requires a person providing a supplemental spouse annuity to be a participant in the SBP in order to cover a spouse or former spouse under the SSBP. Requires such election to be voluntary. Allows a person to make such an election only if the beneficiary of such person's annuity is not currently computed under the determination of spouse or former spouse beneficiary annuity under the SBP. Allows a person who anticipates becoming a participant in the SBP who has a spouse or former spouse to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP. Outlines conditions and requirements for such an anticipatory election. Requires a person to actually provide a spouse or former spouse annuity under the SBP in order to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under SSBP.

Allows a person who elects to provide SBP coverage for a former spouse after having been an SBP participant without coverage for that former spouse to also provide a supplemental spouse annuity for such former spouse under the SSBP. Requires notice to a current spouse of a person providing coverage under the SBP and the SSBP to a former spouse. Provides for irrevocability after a specified period of time of the election to provide SSBP coverage under both a standard annuity and a reserve-component annuity.

Authorizes provision of a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions by a person who is a participant in the SBP and is providing coverage for a spouse (or spouse and child) but is not a participant in the SSBP, who does not have an eligible spouse under that Plan, and who remarries, thereby allowing such person to elect to provide such coverage for the former spouse. Requires the person to be under the SBP in order to make the election for such coverage under the SSBP. Outlines conditions for such an election. Outlines administrative guidelines to be followed: (1) when there is a change of a former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to a current spouse or child beneficiary under the SBP; and (2) upon reinstatement of an SSBP annuity after discontinuance of an SBP annuity and reinstatement of such annuity.

Requires a person who elects to provide a SSBP annuity to a former spouse to provide the Secretary concerned with a written statement as to whether the election being made is pursuant to a written agreement incident to a divorce, dissolution, or annullment that has been incorporated in, or ratified or approved by, a court order. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the enforcement of such voluntary written agreements ratified by a court order. Provides a time limit for the making of such an election of one year after the date of the court order or filing involved.

Directs the retired pay of a person electing to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions to be reduced each month as required under prescribed regulations. Outlines considerations for the determination of such regulations by the Secretary of Defense. Prohibits any reduction during any month in which there is no eligible spouse or former spouse beneficiary. Requires the amount of the reduction to be adjusted whenever there is an adjustment to the reduction in retired pay for beneficiary coverage under the original SBP. Directs the President to prescribe regulations to implement the SSBP.

Authorizes an eligible retired or former member of the armed forces to participate in the SBP during an open enrollment period. Allows such person, at the same time, to also elect to participate in the SSBP. Defines as eligible a person who on the day before the first day of the open enrollment period is not a participant in the SBP and is either entitled to retired pay or would be so entitled but for the fact that such member or former member is under 60 years of age (for reserve members or former members). Allows a person who is a participant in the SBP but not at the maximum base amount while providing coverage for a dependent child but not for a spouse or former spouse to: (1) elect to participate in the SBP at a higher amount; or (2) elect to provide an annuity under the SBP for a spouse or former spouse.

Authorizes current SBP participants to elect to participate in the SSBP during the open enrollment period. Outlines those persons eligible to make such an election and sets limitations on eligibility for certain SBP participants not affected by the two-tier annuity computation (a computation that differentiates in the annuity amount depending on whether the annuitant has attained the age of 65). Requires any SSBP election to be made in writing, signed by the person making the election, and received by the Secretary concerned before the end of the open enrollment period. Defines the open enrollment period as the one-year period beginning on October 1, 1991. States that if a person dies before the end of a two-year period after making such an election, the election is void and the amount of reduction in retired pay taken as a result of such election shall be paid in a lump sum to the person's beneficiary under the SBP.

Title XV: Military Child Care - Military Child Care Act of 1989 - Earmarks specified funds for operating expenses for military child development centers (MCDCs) and for child care and child-related services of DOD other than MCDCs. Provides that funds derived from parent fees for the provision of child care may be used during FY 1990 only for compensation of employees who are directly involved in providing child care. Requires the Secretary to report on the use of such funds.

Requires the Secretary to establish and implement a program for the training of child care employees among military departments of DOD. Requires each child care employee to complete such training within six months of being employed in such capacity. Directs the Secretary to require that at least one employee at each MCDC be a specialist in training and curriculum development. Directs the Secretary to conduct a program to increase the compensation of its child care employees. Requires the Secretary to conduct a test program under which qualified spouses of military personnel are given a preference in hiring for the position of child care employee if the spouse is among persons determined to be best qualified for such position. Requires the Secretary to report to the Armed Services Committees on both the increased employee compensation program and the spouse employment preference hiring program. Directs the Secretary to make available additional child care positions for FY 1990 and 1991. Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations establishing fees to be charged to parents for the attendance of children at MCDCs.

Directs the Secretary to establish a special task force to respond in the case of allegations of widespread child abuse at a military installation. Directs the Secretary to establish and publicize a national telephone hotline for persons to report suspected child abuse or safety violations at a MCDC or family home day care site. Requires assistance from local authorities when appropriate. Directs the Secretary to prescribe or require: (1) safety regulations at MCDCs; and (2) inspections at each facility at least four times a year. Outlines remedies for violations by MCDCs of any laws or regulations. Directs the Secretary to study and report to the Congress on matters relating to military child care that are of concern to the Department of Justice.

Directs the Secretary to require the establishment of parent boards and parent participation programs at each MCDC. Directs the Secretary to submit a report and plan to the Congress on demand for child care by military and civilian personnel of DOD during FY 1991 through 1995.

Authorizes the Secretary to use appropriated funds available for military child care purposes to provide assistance to family home day care providers so that such services can be provided to military personnel at a cost comparable to the cost of services provided by MCDCs.

Authorizes the Secretary to carry out an early childhood development program for accreditation of MCDCs with State early childhood educational requirements. Requires the Secretary to obtain an independent evaluation of such program.

Title XVI: General Provisions - Part A: Financial and Budget Matters - Provides for: (1) authority for the Secretary to transfer amounts of authorizations between various DOD authorizations; (2) submission to the Congress by the Secretary of a five-year defense program; (3) limitations with respect to the restoration of withdrawn unobligated balances within DOD; (4) a report from the Secretary on the status of Air Force funds in the Treasury M Account; (5) a prohibition on the transfer of funds to other departments or agencies; (6) the authority to transfer certain funds to the Secretary of Energy for atomic energy defense activities; (7) a one-year delay in any change of policy with respect to charges for certain administrative services under the Arms Export Control Act; and (8) the repair and replacement of DOD property damaged or destroyed by Hurricane Hugo.

Part B: Naval Vessels and Shipyards - Outlines or revises provisions concerning: (1) the identification and handling of hazardous wastes in connection with naval ship repair work; (2) limitations on progress payments under naval vessel repair contracts; (3) funding for ship production engineering; (4, depot-level maintenance of ships homeported in Japan; (5) a report on alternatives to Navy oxygen breathing apparatus for shipboard firefighting; and (6) the stripping of naval vessels prior to their use for experimental purposes.

Part C: Technical Corrections and General Technical and Clerical Amendments - Makes general technical, clerical, and conforming amendments.

Requires the Secretary to report to the congressional defense committees on recurring provisions of law enacted in the General Provisions title of the Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 1990.

Part D: Miscellaneous - Revises or sets forth provisions concerning: (1) a study concerning protection of U.S. civil aviation from terrorists overseas; (2) the dedication of a corridor in the Pentagon to service members who served in space-related activities; (3) findings and declarations with respect to service in the National Guard and Reserve; (4) expansion of the scope of the Civil Reserve Air Fleet enhancement program; (5) a report concerning certain persons participating in radiation-risk activities; (6) an expresssion of the sense of the Congress with respect to the kidnapping of Lieutenant Colonel Higgins by a Lebanese-based terrorist organization; (7) reports concerning controls on the transfer of missile technology and certain weapons to other nations; (8) reviews and reports on the decontrol of certain personal computers; and (9) an annual joint standoff weapons master plan and report on standoff munitions.

Division B: Military Construction Authorizations - Military Construction Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Title XXI (sic): Army - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units, to carry out architectural and engineering services and construction design, and to improve existing military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Army for fiscal years beginning after FY 1989 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title. Extends certain prior-year military construction projects.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1989 to increase the amount authorized under such Act for the construction of a community support center at the Marine Corps Air Station, Tustin, California. Authorizes the Secretary to use funds paid to the United States in settlement of certain litigation proceedings solely for the construction of military family housing at such Air Station.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Navy for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Title XXIII: Air Force - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units, to carry out architectural and engineering services and construction design, and to improve existing military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Air Force for fiscal years beginning after FY 1989 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title. Extends certain FY 1986-1988 military construction projects. Authorizes the Secretary to make a grant to the Douglas School District, South Dakota, for the construction of a school at Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 to increase the amount authorized for a military construction project at the Arnold Engineering Development Center.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Air Force for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Title XXIV: Defense Agencies -Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units and to improve existing military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1987 to extend through FY 1990 the authority of the Secretary to carry out military construction projects not otherwise authorized by law for conforming storage facilities.

Authorizes appropriations to the defense agencies for fiscal years beginning after FY 1989 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within DOD. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1989 to increase the amount authorized for the construction of a certain medical facility at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Extends certain FY 1987 and 1988 military construction projects.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations.

Authorizes appropriations to the defense agencies for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within DOD. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Title XXV: North Atlantic Treaty Organization Infrastructure - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to make contributions for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Infrastructure Program. Authorizes appropriations to the Secretary for fiscal years after 1989 for such contributions.

Title XXVI: Guard and Reserve Forces Facilities - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes appropriations for fiscal years after 1989 for acquisition, architectural and engineering services, and construction of facilities for the Guard and Reserve forces in specified amounts.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes appropriations for fiscal years after 1990 for acquisition, architectural and engineering services, and construction of facilities for the Guard and Reserve forces in specified amounts.

Title XXVII: Expiration of Authorizations - Terminates all authorizations contained in titles XXI through XXVI of this Division on October 1, 1991, or the date of enactment of an Act authorizing funds for military construction for fiscal year 1992, whichever is later, with specified exceptions.

Title XXVIII: General Provisions - Part A: Military Construction Program Changes - Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1984 to provide that a contract assuring the occupancy of rental housing owned by DOD may: (1) provide that utilities, trash collection, snow removal, and entomological services will be furnished by the Government to the same extent that such services are provided to other occupants of government-owned housing; and (2) require that rent collection and the operation and maintenance of the housing be accomplished through the use of separate agreements or the use of Government personnel.

Increases the leasing and the high-cost threshold amounts for military family housing as contained in Federal armed forces law.

Adds potable waste water treatment services to the authorized uses of long-term defense facilities contracts. Extends through FY 1991 the authority of the Secretary concerned to enter into all such contracts.

Waives a certain per-unit expenditure limitation for improvements to military family housing units if done to make the unit suitable for habitation by a handicapped person. Places a maximum improvement-cost limitation on any such unit.

Authorizes the Secretaries of the Navy and the Air Force to enter into contracts for a specified increased number of leased family housing units. Authorizes the use of such contracts through FY 1991.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to use one-step turn-key selection procedures to enter into contracts for the construction of authorized military construction projects. (Currently, the Secretaries may use such procedures only with approval of the Secretary of Defense.) Authorizes the use of such procedures through FY 1991.

Prohibits the employment of certain nonimmigrant aliens on military construction contracts on Guam, except under exceptional circumstances.

Revises Federal provisions concerning the authorized cost variations for a military construction project or for the construction, improvement, or acquisition of a military family housing project.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to enter into a lease for a facility on or near a military installation for the provision of the following activities or services: (1) administrative office space; (2) troop housing; (3) energy production facilities; (4) utilities, including potable and waste water treatment facilities; (5) hospital and medical facilities; (6) transient quarters; (7) depot or storage facilities; and (8) child care centers. Outlines lease provisions and conditions, including a congressional notice requirement.

Part B: Land Transactions - Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to sell a specified parcel of the Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, California, at fair market value. Requires the proceeds of such sale to be used for the construction of additional military family housing at the Marine Corps Air Station, Tustin, California.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to convey to the State of Georgia all right, title, and interest of the United States to a parcel of real property at Fort Gillem, Georgia, for use by the State for the administration of the Georgia Department of Defense, the Georgia National Guard, and other military activities.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to convey to the State of Hawaii all right, title, and interest of the United States to a parcel of real property located on Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii, under specified terms and conditions. Requires the proceeds from such sale to be used for military family housing on such base or returned to the Treasury.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1988 and 1989 to revise provisions concerning the sale of land and replacement of facilities at the Kapalama Military Reservation, Hawaii.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to: (1) sell and convey all right, title, and interest of the United States to specified real property comprising the Public Works Center, Great Lakes, Illinois; and (2) use the proceeds from such sale to construct additional military family housing units at the Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois, under specified terms and conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to sell specified real property at Fort Knox, Kentucky, and use the proceeds to construct up to four units of military family housing at such base.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to release to the State of Minnesota all reversionary interests of the United States over a specified parcel of land in such State known as Area J, under specified terms and conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to convey to Hudson County, New Jersey, all right, title, and interest of the United States to a portion of the Naval Reserve Center, Kearney, New Jersey, in order to provide additional parking facilities for such Center.

Transfers from the Secretary of Defense to the Secretary of Energy jurisdiction and control over certain real property at Sandia, New Mexico, for use by the Department of Energy in providing a location for the Center for National Security and Arms Control.

Authorizes the Secretary to sell to Carnegie-Mellon University at fair market value the Naval Reserve and Marine Corps Reserve Center, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, using the proceeds to finance partially the construction of an expanded reserve center.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to convey a portion of Fort Belvoir, Virginia, known as the Engineer Proving Ground to any grantee for the construction of such facilities and improvements as may be specified by the Secretary. Requires a congressional notice-and-wait period before taking any action under such agreement.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to modify the reversionary interest of the United States in specified real property conveyed to the Port of Benton, Washington, to permit a donation of real property to Washington State University for the establishment of a university branch, under specified terms and conditions.

Part C: Provisions Relating to Base Closures and Realignments - Authorizes the transfer of funds from the Base Closure Account for use with the homeowners assistance program. Prohibits the obligation of any funds so transferred after FY 1991.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that certain excess or surplus DOD real property resulting from base closures and realignments be used for prisons and drug treatment facilities.

Directs the Secretary to report annually to local educational agencies on significant changes to occur in the enrollment of dependents of military and civilian DOD employees caused by base closures and realignments.

Requires a report from the Comptroller General of the United States on the methodology, findings, and recommendations of the Commission on Base Realignment and Closure.

Part D: Miscellaneous Provisions - Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to issue a revocable license to a private partnership to search for treasure on the White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico. Requires any support provided by the Army to be on a reimbursable basis.

Authories community planning assistance for: (1) Fort Drum, New York; (2) Everett, Washington; and (3) Whiteman Air Force Base, Missouri.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to: (1) design and construct a multipurpose facility at Henderson Hall, Arlington, Virginia; (2) accept from the Navy Mutual Aid Association reimbursement for all costs of the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of such facility; and (3) lease to the Association at no cost approximately one-third of the square footage of the facility. Outlines lease terms and conditions.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to report to the Armed Services Committees concerning the Fort Meade Recreation Area.

Authorizes the Secretary to enter into cooperative arrangements with individuals and organizations for natural resource management on lands comprising DOD military installations.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to reimburse the Lake Charles Harbor and Terminal District for certain costs associated with naval homeporting there.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a study of the feasibility of selling or otherwise transferring DOD land in Virginia to such State in return for the establishment of a medium security prison there.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to make funds available to the Secretary of the Navy for the construction of military family housing at the Marine Corps Air Station, Tustin, California.

Division C: Department of Energy National Security Authorizations and Other Authorizations - Title XXXI (sic): Department of Energy National Security Programs - Part A: National Security Programs Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations to the Department of Energy (DOE) for FY 1990 for operating expenses incurred and for plant and capital equipment necessary in carrying out national security programs in the following areas: (1) weapons activities; (2) defense nuclear materials production; (3) verification and control technology; (4) nuclear materials safeguards and security technology development program; (5) security investigations; (6) new production reactors; (7) naval reactors development; and (8) capital equipment not related to construction. Places special funding limitations for DOE for FY 1990 for the following programs and projects: (1) SDI; (2) inertial confinement fusion; (3) special isotope separation; and (4) Lance Warhead follow-on.

Part B: Recurring General Provisions - Prohibits the use of funds appropriated pursuant to this title for: (1) the costs of a program exceeding 105 percent of the program authorization or $10,000,000 more than the amount authorized, whichever is the lesser; or (2) programs which have not been presented to, or requested of, the Congress, unless the Secretary of Energy transmits to the appropriate committees a full and complete statement of the action proposed and 30 days have elapsed since such statement was submitted.

Prohibits the total funds obligated pursuant to this title from exceeding the total amount authorized to be appropriated by this title.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to carry out any general plant project only if the maximum estimated cost of the project does not exceed $1,200,000. Requires reports to specified committees by the Secretary when the costs exceed such amount.

Sets forth procedures for the approval of projects which exceed by more than 25 percent their estimated cost or authorized amount. Exempts from such procedures any projects which have an estimated cost of less than $5,000,000.

Allows for the transfer of funds from specified projects to other Government agencies for the performance of work for which the funds were appropriated.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to transfer to the Secretary of Energy specified FY 1990 DOD research and development funds for the performance of work on SDI.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to perform advance planning and construction design services in connection with any proposed construction project if the total estimated cost for such services does not exceed $2,000,000. Authorizes the Secretary to notify specified congressional committees whenever the estimated cost of such planning and design exceeds $300,000. Requires specific authorization by law whenever such estimated costs exceed $2,000,000.

Authorizes the Secretary to perform emergency construction planning and design in order to meet the needs of national defense or to protect property or human life.

Makes funds appropriated for management and support activities and for general plant projects under this title available for all national security programs of DOE.

Part C: Technology Transfer - National Competitiveness Technology Transfer Act of 1989 - Amends the Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980 to extend to Government-owned, contractor-operated research laboratories the authority provided under such Act to enter into cooperative research and development agreements (CRDAs). Requires certain safeguards to avoid conflicts of interest and unjust enrichment of employees of such laboratories from Government research conducted there. Requires prompt DOE review of any CRADAs proposed by such a research laboratory. Provides contract provisions and other procedures, terms, and conditions with respect to CRADAs between each Government agency and Government-owned and contractor-operated research laboratories.

Part D: Environment, Safety, and Management - Directs the Secretary of Energy to establish and carry out a program of research for the development of technologies useful for: (1) the reduction of environmental hazards and contamination resulting from defense waste; and (2) environmental restoration of inactive defense waste disposal sites. Provides for coordination of research activities and a report from the Secretary on activities conducted under such program.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to establish and implement a management training program for DOE personnel involved in the management of atomic energy defense activites.

Requires the Secretary of Energy to report quarterly to the Armed Services and Appropriations Committees on each major DOE national security program. Defines such a program as one designated by the Secretary as such or one estimated to cost more than $500,000,000.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to prepare a five-year budget plan for the national security programs of DOE and to submit such plan to such committees.

Part E: Miscellaneous Provisions - Sets forth provisions concerning: (1) a prohibition and report on any bonuses given to DOE contractors operating defense nuclear facilities; (2) a hiring preference for workers at the Rocky Flats, Colorado, plant in any contract awarded for the decommissioning, cleanup, or decontamination of such facility; (3) authorization and funding for an agreement entered into between the State of Colorado and DOE with respect to the Rocky Flats plant; (4) a moratorium on the incineration of radioactive waste at the Los Alamos National Laboratory, New Mexico; (5) production of the 155-millimeter artillery-fired atomic projectile under the Department of Defense Authorization Act, 1985; (6) reports relating to the permanent closures of DOE defense nuclear facilities; and (7) defense program missions under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954.

Title XXXII: Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board Authorization - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for the establishment and operation of the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board.

Title XXXIII: National Defense Stockpile - Part A: Changes in Stockpile Amounts - Authorizes the National Defense Stockpile (NDS) Manager to make specified changes in quantities of materials to be acquired for the NDS as provided under the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act. Authorizes the Manager, during FY 1990 and 1991, to dispose of specified materials in the NDS that have been determined to be excess to current requirements. Directs the Manager, during each such fiscal year, to obligate specified funds from the National Defense Stockpile Transaction Fund for acquisitions.

Part B: Programmatic Changes - Makes programmatic changes with respect to: (1) the authority of the President with regard to strategic and critical materials research, development, and conservation; and (2) the development of domestic sources for strategic materials under the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act. Deletes a provision under such Act requiring the President to dispose of stockpile materials for domestic consumption only.

Title XXXIV: Civil Defense - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to carry out the Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950.

Title XXXV: Panama Canal Commission - Panama Canal Commission Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Panama Canal Commission to make such expenditures, contracts, and commitments as may be necessary for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the Panama Canal for FY 1990, including the purchase of passenger motor vehicles. Requires the Commission to provide written advance notification to the defense and merchant marine and fisheries committees regarding certain rates, payments, and projects associated with the operation and maintenance of the Canal. Authorizes funds for pay increases of officers and employees of the Commission as administratively authorized.

Intelligence Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1990 - Title I: Intelligence Activities - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for intelligence and intelligence-related activities in specified departments and agencies of the Government, including the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the Department of Defense (DOD).

Declares that the authorized amounts and personnel ceilings for such intelligence activities are those specified in the classified schedule of authorizations prepared by the conference committee to accompany this Act.

Authorizes the Director of Central Intelligence to employ civilian personnel in excess (by not more than two percent) of the ceiling for such personnel when necessary for the performance of important intelligence functions.

Restricts support for military and paramilitary operations in Nicaragua.

Title II: Intelligence Community Staff - Authorizes appropriations for the Intelligence Community Staff for FY 1990.

Establishes an end strength ceiling of 240 full-time Intelligence Community Staff employees. Provides that such staff shall be administered in the same manner as the CIA.

Title III: Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System and Related Provisions - Authorizes appropriations for the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability Fund for FY 1990.

Amends the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees to require participants, within the last two years before any separation from service, to complete at least one year of creditable civilian service to be eligible for an annuity.

Provides for precedence of survivor benefits over death in service benefits for certain former spouses of CIA employees eligible for such benefits.

Provides that the computation of survivor annuities for certain former spouses shall be reduced solely by the amount of survivor annuity payments made to such spouses under an election of survivor benefits.

Sets forth special annuity computation rules for certain CIA employees who served abroad. Requires the special accrual rates provided under the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1964 for computing the annuity of a CIA employee who has served overseas to be used to compute that employee's annuity for such service whether or not such employee is employed by the CIA at retirement. Requires that the amount of any annuity increase resulting from such computation be paid from the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability Assistance (CIARDS) Fund.

Amends the Central Intelligence Act of 1949 to provide CIA employees in the Civil Service Retirement System and the Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS) performing qualifying service with the same disability and death in service benefits as those received by employees who qualify under the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System and the FERS-Special Category.

Title IV: Central Intelligence Agency Administrative Provisions - Authorizes the CIA to procure commercial remote sensing data by whatever means it deems appropriate.

Title V: Improvements to Personnel Authorities for Intelligence Components of the Department of Defense - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to pay special pay to a civilian Defense Department officer or employee who has been certified as being proficient in a foreign language in a position in which such proficiency facilitates performance of officially assigned intelligence or intelligence-related duties.

Authorizes the Secretary to accept gifts for the Defense Intelligence College and pay all necessary expenses in connection with such acceptance.

Makes permanent the Secretary of Defense's authority to terminate employment of civilian intelligence officers and employees of military departments and of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA).

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to pay a death gratuity to survivors of a member of the armed forces who, while serving on active duty assigned to a Defense attache office outside the United States, died on or after June 15, 1988, as a result of hostile or terrorist activities. Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress on the advisability of making such authority permanent.

Provides that civilian employees of DIA need not be subject to FERS to receive special retirement accrual benefits for service abroad. Amends the National Security Agency Act of 1959 to authorize the Director of the National Security Agency to provide such benefits to certain National Security Agency (NSA) employees.

Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act with respect to citizenship requirements for staff of the U.S. Army Russian Institute.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to establish an undergraduate training program with respect to civilian employees of DIA to develop skills critical to the mission of DIA. Authorizes the Secretary to provide financial assistance for such employees.

Title VI: FBI New York Field Division Demonstration Project - Amends the Intelligence Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 to provide that New York Field Division employees need not be subject to directed geographical transfer or reassignment to receive periodic payments under a certain demonstration project for the Division.

Directs the President, in preparing the Budget of the United States for Fiscal Year 1991 for submission to the Congress, to take into account and, to the greatest extent possible, incorporate into such budget the recommendations of the National Advisory Commission on Law Enforcement as established by the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988.

Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to personnel ceilings for the United States and Soviet Missions.

Makes the FBI responsible for investigations of espionage by persons employed by, or assigned to, U.S. diplomatic missions abroad.

Title VII: General Provisions - Declares that appropriations authorized by this Act for Federal employee pay and benefits may be increased by such additional or supplemental amounts as may be necessary for increases in such compensation or benefits authorized by law.

Provides that the authorization of appropriations by this Act shall not constitute authority for the conduct of any intelligence activity which is not otherwise authorized by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

Requires the President to submit a report to the Congress by April 1, 1990, describing how intelligence activities relating to narcotics trafficking can be integrated.

Title VIII: Inspector General for Central Intelligence Agency - Amends the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 to replace certain reporting requirements by the Inspector General (IG) of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) with provisions establishing, by statute, an Office of Inspector General within the CIA.

Sets forth provisions with respect to the appointment and removal of the IG by the President and the supervision of the IG by the CIA Director.

Requires the IG to: (1) provide policy direction for and to conduct, supervise, and coordinate independently, inspections, investigations, and audits relating to CIA programs and operations to assure that they are conducted efficiently and in accordance with applicable law and regulations; (2) keep the Director informed of violations of law and regulations, fraud, and other serious problems, abuses and deficiencies in such programs and operations and of progress made in implementing corrective action; (3) take due regard for the protection of intelligence sources and methods in the preparation of all reports; and (4) comply with generally accepted Government auditing standards.

Sets forth requirements for reports by the IG to: (1) the Director and the House and Senate Select Committees on Intelligence (intelligence committees) including semiannual activity reports and immediate reports of serious or flagrant problems, abuses, or deficiencies; and (2) the intelligence committees regarding conflicts between the IG and the Director, investigations of the Director, and investigations requested by the Chairman or Ranking Minority Member of either committee.

Specifies that the IG shall have: (1) direct and prompt access to the Director when necessary for any purpose pertaining to the performance of his duties; (2) access to any employee of the CIA or a contractor whose testimony is needed for the performance of his duties; and (3) direct access to all records or other material relating to programs and operations for which the IG has responsibilities under this Act. Makes failure by any employee or contractor to cooperate with the IG grounds for appropriate administrative actions by the Director, including the termination of employment or the contractual relationship.

Authorizes the IG to receive and investigate employee complaints of violations of laws, rules, or regulations, mismanagement, gross waste of funds, abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to the public health and safety. Specifies that: (1) the IG shall not disclose the identity of the complainant without the employee's consent, unless such disclosure is unavoidable during the course of the investigation; and (2) no reprisal or threat thereof may be made against the employee unless the complaint was made or the information was disclosed with the knowledge that it was false or with willful disregard for its truth or falsity.

Authorizes the IG to administer to, or take from, any person an oath, affirmation, or affidavit whenever necessary in the performance of his duties.

Provides for office space, equipment, supplies, and services for the IG.

Directs the IG to select, appoint, and employ qualified officers and employees. Expresses the sense of the Congress that the IG should create a career cadre of sufficient size to provide appropriate continuity and objectivity needed for the effective performance of his duties.

Requires the Director, beginning in FY 1991, to include in the National Foreign Intelligence Program budget a separate account for the Office of Inspector General.

Transfers to the Office of the Inspector General created by this Act the personnel, assets, liabilities, authorization, and appropriations of the existing CIA Office of Inspector General.

Includes "covert actions" within the definition of "intelligence activities."

Ethics Reform Act of 1989 - Title I: Post Employment Restrictions on the Executive and Legislative Branches - Amends the Federal criminal code to revise provisions regarding former officers or employees of the executive branch or the District of Columbia attempting to influence the Government or the District.

Prohibits such officers or employees for one year after their employment ends, from representing or aiding and advising any person, with the intent to influence, regarding any trade or treaty negotiation in which the official participated personally and substantially within one year before termination of employment, if such official had access to information concerning such negotiation which is exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

Prohibits certain senior officials in the executive branch (including the President), for one year after their service ends, from attempting to influence the Government.

Prohibits former Members of Congress and elected officers of the Congress from attempting to influence any congressional official, or any congressional official in the House in which the ex-officer served, respectively, for one year after that individual leaves office regarding any matter on which such individual seeks official action.

Prohibits former personal staff employees of a Senator or Representative, within one year after their employment terminates, from attempting to influence that Senator or Representative or an employee thereof on any matter on which such employee seeks action by a congressional official.

Prohibits former employees of a congressional committee, within one year after termination of their employment, from attempting to influence any current or former Member or employee of such committee on any matter on which such employee seeks action by a Member in the Member's official capacity.

Prohibits former employees on the House or Senate leadership staffs, within one year after termination of their employment, from attempting to influence any Member or employee of the staff on which the individual served on any matter on which such individual seeks official action by a congressional official.

Prohibits former employees of any legislative office, within one year after termination of their employment, from attempting to influence current employees or officers of such office on any matter pending before such office or any matter on which such individual seeks action by such employees or officers in an official capacity.

Declares that the prohibitions set forth in this Act apply only to acts done for compensation at a rate equal to or greater than the rate of pay for a GS-17.

Prohibits individuals subject to the prohibitions of this Act from representing the interests of a foreign entity before, or advising such entity to attempt to influence a decision of, any officer or employee of the Federal Government.

Revises the authority of the Director of the Office of Government Ethics in designating separate agencies and bureaus.

Makes specified prohibitions of this Act inapplicable to appearances or communications on behalf of, or advice to, an international organization of which the United States is a member.

Title II: Financial Disclosure of Federal Personnel - Amends the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 to add Members of Congress, congressional officers and employees, and specified presidential appointees to the list of Federal personnel required to file financial disclosure reports. Requires the reporting of: (1) income and honoraria exceeding $200 (currently, $100); and (2) effective January 1, 1991, the source, date, and amount of payments made to charitable organizations in lieu of honoraria, together with a list of the recipients of such payments.

Revises financial reporting requirements for certain income by establishing new reporting categories above the current threshold of $100,000. Revises provisions excluding personal liabilities owed to a reporting individual by a relative by specifying that such exclusion applies only to liabilities owed by the spouse, parent, sibling, or child of the reporting individual.

Allows the use of alternative forms for financial disclosure.

Revises financial reporting requirements for assets, liabilities, and transactions in real property and securities by establishing new reporting categories above the current threshold of $250,000. Requires the reporting of: (1) the source and amount of any honoraria received by a spouse of a reporting individual; and (2) gifts or reimbursements received by a dependent child of such individual which are not received independently of the relationship of the child to such individual.

Increases civil penalties for violations of qualified blind trust disclosure requirements.

Prohibits a reporting individual from being required to report the financial interests held by a widely held investment fund if: (1) such fund is publicly traded or the fund assets are widely diversified; and (2) the reporting individual does not exercise control over the financial interests held by the fund.

Revises provisions regarding the failure to file or the filing of false reports to: (1) increase the civil penalties for such offenses; (2) require each congressional ethics committee or the Chairman of the Judicial Conference of the United States to refer the names of individuals believed to have committed such offenses to the Attorney General; (3) authorize such officials to take any appropriate action against such individuals; and (4) require individuals filing late reports to pay a filing fee.

Applies public access requirements with respect to reports to supervising ethics offices. Exempts from public access any report filed by an independent counsel whose identity has not been disclosed. Increases the penalty for obtaining or using reports filed by individuals exempt from public disclosure reporting requirements.

Revises provisions with respect to the review of reports to: (1) set forth procedures for the review of such reports; and (2) authorize each supervising ethics office to render advisory opinions interpreting this Act within its respective jurisdiction.

Authorizes each supervising ethics office (currently, the President) to require officers and employees under its jurisdiction (currently, executive branch officers and employees and special Government employees) to file confidential financial disclosure reports.

Requires the Comptroller General to conduct an annual study on whether financial disclosure requirements are being carried out effectively.

Makes technical amendments to provisions concerning notifications of actions to comply with ethics agreements.

Establishes the President's Commission on the Federal Appointment Process to study the simplification of the presidential appointment process by reducing the number and complexity of forms to be completed by nominees. Directs the Commission to submit a report of such study to the President within 90 days after its first meeting. Terminates the Commission upon the submission of its report.

Title III: Gifts and Travel - Revises provisions with respect to gifts to superiors to: (1) authorize the Office of Government Ethics to issue regulations exempting voluntary gifts given or received for special occasions such as marriage or retirement from prohibitions of gifts to superiors; and (2) repeal the requirement that employees violating such provisions be removed from the service to instead subject such an employee to appropriate disciplinary action by the employing agency or entity.

Requires the Administrator of General Services to prescribe the conditions under which heads of executive branch agencies may accept payment and reimbursement from non-Federal sources for travel expenses incurred by their employees for attending official functions or activities.

Directs executive agency heads to submit to the Director of the Office of Government Ethics reports of payments of more than $250 accepted under this title with respect to the employees of their agency. Requires the Director to make such reports available for public inspection and copying. Requires such reports to: (1) specify the amount and method of payment, the names of the employee and the person making the payment, the nature of the expenses and the meeting or similar function, the time and place of travel, and such other information as the Administrator of General Services may prescribe by regulation; and (2) be submitted by May 31 and November 30 of each year with respect to payments for the preceding six months.

Prohibits Federal employees and officials and Members of Congress from soliciting or accepting anything of value from a person: (1) seeking official action from, doing business with, or conducting activities regulated by the individual's employing agency; or (2) whose interests may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of the individual's official duties. Authorizes each supervising ethics office to issue rules or regulations implementing such prohibition and providing for reasonable exceptions. Prohibits the acceptance of any gift by a Member, officer, or employee in return for being influenced in the performance of any official act. Provides that employees who violate such prohibition shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary and other remedial action.

Title IV: Amendments to Title 18 of the United States Code - Amends Federal criminal code provisions regarding the following to provide that the punishment for an offense under such provisions shall be imprisonment for not more than one year, or not more than five years for willful offenses, or a fine in accordance with the criminal code, or both: (1) compensation to Members of Congress, officers, and others in matters affecting the Government; (2) practice in the United States Claims Court or Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit by such Members; (3) activities of officers and employees in claims against and other matters affecting the Government; (4) acts affecting a personal financial interest; and (5) salary of Government officials and employees payable only by the United States.

Includes officers and employees of the District of Columbia among the individuals subject to provisions with respect to: (1) compensation to Members of Congress, officers, and others in matters affecting the Government; and (2) activities of officers and employees in claims against and other matters affecting the Government.

Prohibits provisions concerning acts affecting a personal financial interest from applying: (1) in the case of a special Government employee serving on an advisory committee if the official responsible for the employee's appointment certified in writing that the need for the individual's services outweighs the potential for a conflict of interest created by the financial interest involved; or (2) if the financial interest that would be affected results solely from the interest of such officer or employee or his or her spouse or minor child in birthrights in certain Indian groups, allotments, or claims funds if the particular matter does not involve such group, allotment, or fund as a specific party. Requires copies of any determination granting an exemption for such employees to be submitted to the Director of the Office of Government Ethics who shall make all such determinations available to the public. Requires the information from the financial disclosure reports of the officer or employee involved describing the asset or assets that necessitated the waiver to be available to the public. Prohibits public disclosure of information with respect to such employee that is classified information.

Authorizes the Attorney General to bring a civil action in the appropriate U.S. district court against any person who engages in conduct constituting an offense under such provisions and, upon proof of such conduct by a preponderance of the evidence, makes such person subject to a civil penalty of the greater of $50,000 for each violation or the amount of compensation which the person received for the prohibited conduct. Provides that if the Attorney General believes that a person is engaging in conduct constituting an offense under such provisions, he or she may petition an appropriate U.S. district court for an order enjoining such conduct.

Title V: Other Ethics Reforms - Provides that if the Senate Ethics Committee determines that there is reason to believe that a Member, officer, or employee of the Senate may have committed an ethics violation, the Committee may request the Office of Special Investigations of the General Accounting Office to investigate the matter.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to provide for the nonrecognition of gains for sales of property to comply with conflict-of-interest requirements.

Directs agency heads to prescribe appropriate conditions for the incidental use, for other than official business, of Government vehicles. Specifies that such use with respect to vehicles owned or leased by, or the cost of which is reimbursed by, the House of Representatives or the Senate shall be only as prescribed by rule of the House or Senate as applicable.

Amends the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 to repeal provisions that exempt Members of the Congress in office on January 8, 1980, from the prohibition against converting excess campaign funds to personal use.

Repeals a provision restricting payment to certain U.S. officers for furnishing war materials to the United States.

Requires supervising officials of career appointees to submit a recommendation to their agency's performance review board as to whether such an appointee's performance justifies recertification as a senior executive based on certain factors. Requires the board to recommend that the appointee be recertified, conditionally recertified, or not recertified as a senior executive based on the recommendation of the supervising official and any statement submitted to the board by the appointee concerning his or her performance. Sets forth procedures and criteria for the recertification of senior executives. Provides for removal from the Senior Executive Service for any appointee not qualifying for recertification or conditional recertification.

Suspends for one year after the enactment of this Act: (1) provisions of the Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act governing the conduct of certain individuals involved in procurement-related activities; (2) miscellaneous procurement provisions regarding private employment contacts between certain Department of Defense (DOD) procurement officials and defense contractors and limitations on the employment by contractors of certain former DOD procurement officials; (3) restrictions on retired military officers participating in sales to, or claims against, the Government; and (4) certain provisions of the Department of Energy Organization Act regarding post employment prohibitions and associated reporting requirements.

Title VI: Limitations on Outside Employment and Elimination of Honoraria - Amends the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 to: (1) limit the outside income of Members of the House of Representatives and all other Federal employees and officials (except Senators) who are non-career employees paid at a grade GS-16 of the General Schedule or above to 15 percent of the pay for level II of the Executive Schedule in any calendar year; and (2) prohibit such individuals from receiving any honoraria while employed by the Government, beginning on January 1, 1991. Prohibits payments of honoraria on behalf of such an individual to a charitable organization in excess of $2,000 or to an organization from which such an individual or his or her spouse or any relative derives any financial benefit. Prohibits such individual from: (1) affiliating with, or being employed by, any entity to provide professional services which involve a fiduciary relationship for compensation; (2) permitting his or her name to be used by such an entity; (3) practicing a profession which involves such a relationship; (4) serving for compensation as an officer or member of any entity; or (5) receiving compensation for teaching without prior notification and approval of the appropriate supervising ethics entity administering this title. Authorizes the Attorney General to bring civil actions to enforce this title.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to prohibit such payments to charitable institutions from being treated as received by the employee or official and used as deductions under Federal, State, and local tax law beginning on January 1, 1991.

Provides that a repeal of the provisions of this Act with respect to salary increases for senior Government officials shall repeal provisions concerning such limitation and prohibitions on outside income.

Title VII: Citizens' Commission on Public Service and Compensation - Redesignates the Commission on Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Salaries as the Citizens' Commission on Public Service and Compensation. Increases the membership of the Commission from nine to 11 members, six of whom are to be selected for appointment without regard to political affiliation from among persons having experience or expertise in such areas as government, personnel management, or public administration. Prohibits Federal employees and officials, individuals registered under the Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act, and members of their immediate families from serving on the Commission. Requires the General Services Administrator to establish procedures by regulation for: (1) selecting the five remaining members by lot from among names randomly selected from voter registration lists; and (2) providing for the maximum degree of geographic diversity practicable among such members. Establishes a four-year term of office for such members after FY 1993.

Requires the President to transmit to the Congress on the first Monday after January 3 of the year after the Commission submits its report his or her recommendations regarding pay rights for certain Federal offices and positions in light of the Commission's report and recommendations, the prevailing market value of the service rendered in the offices and positions involved, the country's overall economic condition, and the fiscal condition of the Government. Requires such recommendations to take effect upon the enactment of a bill or joint resolution approving such recommendations in their entirety. Declares that a privileged bill or resolution making such an approval, if offered by the majority leader of either House of the Congress, would be in order in each such House during the 60 days following submission. Requires recommendations of the President for pay adjustments that are approved to take effect as of the date proposed by the President but only after a November congressional election occurs between the enactment of a bill or resolution approving such recommendations and such proposed date.

Requires the Commission to review recruitment and retention problems and any public policy issues involved in maintaining appropriate ethical standards with respect to public service in the Government and to report its findings and recommendations to the President.

Prohibits any provision increasing the pay rates of Members of Congress, certain legislative positions, judges, justices, certain other judicial personnel, and Executive Schedule positions from taking effect before the beginning of the Congress after the Congress during which such provision was enacted.

Provides that the basic pay rates for positions in the Federal and District of Columbia governments (except U.S. Senators) shall be determined as if provisions of law prohibiting increases in pay rates in FY 1989 and 1990 for positions compensated at a rate higher than level III of the Executive Schedule had never been enacted. Authorizes appropriate increases for Federal judges and justices of the Supreme Court. Prohibits any corresponding adjustment in any pay rate until the first pay period after the President's sequestration order of October 16, 1989, is rescinded.

Increases the annual salary rates for positions in the Executive Schedule, certain legislative branch positions and offices including the office of the Vice President, the Chief Justice, Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, U.S. circuit judges, U.S. district judges, and judges of the U.S. Court of International Trade by 25 percent beginning on or after January 1, 1991.

Revises the method for computing annual cost-of-living increases for certain executive, legislative, and judicial positions by using the most recent percentage change in the Employment Cost Index (a measure of wages and salaries for private industry) minus one-half of one percent. Prohibits the determination of any such percentage change from being less than zero or greater than five percent.

Amends the Federal judicial code to require a justice or judge who has retired from regular service but still retains the office (senior status) to be certified by the Chief Justice (for a justice) or by the chief judge of the circuit in which the judge sits in order to continue receiving the salary of the office. Sets forth certification criteria with respect to courtroom participation, judicial duties outside the courtroom, and administrative duties. Provides that in a case in which such justice or judge does not receive a certification the justice or judge shall continue to receive the last salary he or she was receiving in active service.

Title VIII: Amendments to the Rules of the House of Representatives - Amends rule XLIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives to: (1) increase from $50 to $75 the fair market value of personal gifts of hospitality which a Member, officer or employee of the House may accept in any calendar year; (2) prohibit such individuals from accepting gifts in any calendar year aggregating more than the minimal value established under provisions regarding the receipt and disposition of foreign gifts and decorations from any person except to the extent permitted by written waiver granted in exceptional circumstances by the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct; and (3) mandate that House employees who are required to file financial disclosure reports refrain from contacting any executive or judicial branch agency with respect to nonlegislative matters affecting any nongovernmental person in which the employee has a significant financial interest unless such employee first advises his employing authority of such interest and obtains a waiver from such authority stating that his or her participation is necessary. Directs such Committee to amend its advisory opinions relating to the acceptance of gifts to: (1) prohibit the receipt of lodging received as personal hospitality in excess of 30 days in any calendar year unless a written waiver is granted by the committee; and (2) exempt from coverage under rule XLIII gifts of food and beverages consumed not in connection with gifts of lodging.

Makes corresponding changes to provisions of previous titles of this Act with respect to the conversion of campaign funds.

Directs the Committee to issue an advisory opinion to provide for appropriate conditions for the incidental noncampaign use of campaign vehicles.

Amends rule XLIV to change the due date for the submission of financial disclosure reports.

Amends rule X to prohibit Members from serving on the Committee during more that three Congresses in any period of five successive Congresses, disregarding any service on such Committee for less than a full session in any Congress.

Directs each respective party caucus or conference of the House to nominate seven members at the beginning of each Congress to serve on the Committee.

Directs the Committee to adopt rules to establish investigative subcommittees.

Amends various rules with respect to the Committee regarding adjudicatory subcommittees, administrative actions, reports to the House, the statute of limitations applicable to violations that may be investigated, and right to counsel for respondents in investigations.

Directs the Committee to establish an Office on Advice and Education to: (1) provide information and guidance to House Members, officers, and employees regarding laws and other standards of conduct applicable to such individuals in their official capacities and any interpretations and advisory opinions of the committee; (2) recommend formal advisory opinions of general applicability; and (3) develop and carry out periodic educational briefings for Members, officers, and employees on those laws or other standards of conduct applicable to them.

Amends rule XLVIII to make changes corresponding to provisions of previous titles of this Act with respect to the elimination of honoraria and limitations on outside earned income and employment.

Directs the Committee to amend its advisory opinions relating to the acceptance of necessary travel expenses incurred on or after January 1, 1990, in connection with speaking engagements and similar events to: (1) prohibit the acceptance of such expenses for more than four consecutive days for domestic travel and seven consecutive days for foreign travel; and (2) permit the acceptance of travel expenses for the spouse or other family member in connection with any substantial participation event or fact-finding activity.

Title IX: Regulations Relating to the Senate - Prohibits Members, officials, or employees of the Senate or their spouses or dependents from knowingly accepting gifts totalling over: (1) $100 a year from any person or entity having a direct interest in legislation before the Congress or from any foreign national unless, in an unusual case, a waiver is granted by the Select Committee on Ethics; and (2) $300 a year from a person or entity unless, in an unusual case, a waiver is granted by the Select Committee on Ethics. States that such prohibitions do not apply to gifts: (1) from relatives; (2) with a value of less than $75; (3) of personal hospitality of an individual; or (4) from a foreign national not acting on behalf of a foreign business, association, political party, or government. Requires such individuals who unknowingly accept such a gift to return such gift or reimburse the donor for its value if it cannot be returned. Allows such individuals to participate in foreign educational programs involving travel to a foreign country paid by a foreign sponsor if such participation is not in violation of any law and is determined by the Select Committee on Ethics to be in the interests of the Senate and the United States. Requires an individual to notify the Committee of his or her acceptance of an invitation to participate in such a program. Prohibits such individuals from accepting funds in connection with participation in such a program if such funds are not used for necessary expenses. Provides that necessary expenses does not include expenses for food, lodging, or transportation for: (1) domestic travel in excess of three days and foreign travel in excess of seven days, unless such travel is approved by the Committee on Ethics; or (2) anyone accompanying Members, officers, or employees of the Senate other than their spouses or an employee acting as an aide to a Member.

Directs the Select Committee on Ethics to transmit a copy of each report filed with it under title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 (other than reports filed by Members of Congress) to the head of the employing office of the individual filing the report.

Mandates that Senate employees who are required to file a report pursuant to Senate regulations refrain from participating personally and substantially in any contacts with agencies of the executive and judicial branches with respect to non-legislative matters affecting any non-governmental person in which the employee has a significant financial interest. Makes such prohibition inapplicable if the employee advises his supervisor of his interest and obtains a waiver stating that the employee's participation is necessary.

Title X: Rulemaking Power of the Congress - States that the provisions of this Act applicable to Members, officers, or employees of the legislative branch are enacted by the Congress as an exercise of its rulemaking power with full recognition of the constitutional right of either House to change such rules.

Title XI: Pay and Honoraria Adjustments - Provides a salary increase to Senators to make up for the cost-of-living adjustments not applied for 1988 through 1990. Amends the Supplemental Appropriations Act, 1983 to reduce limits on honoraria to Senators as their income is increased by cost-of-living adjustments.

Prohibits the acceptance of honoraria in or after the calendar year after the limitation on honoraria equals one percent of a Senator's salary.

Prohibits any pay adjustment or honoraria limit reduction until the first pay period after the President's sequestration order of October 16, 1989, is rescinded.

Nevada Wilderness Protection Act of 1989 - Designates the following lands in Nevada as components of the National Wilderness Preservation System: (1) the Alta Toquima Wilderness and the Arc Dome Wilderness in the Toiyabe National Forest; (2) the Boundary Peak Wilderness in the Inyo National Forest; (3) the Currant Mountain Wilderness and the East Humboldts Wilderness in the Humboldt National Forest; (4) certain lands in the Humboldt National Forest which shall be incorporated in, and deemed a part of, the Jarbidge Wilderness; (5) the Mount Rose Wilderness in the Toiyabe National Forest; (6) the Quinn Canyon Wilderness and the Ruby Mountains Wilderness in the Humboldt National Forest; (7) the Mount Charleston Wilderness and the Table Mountain Wilderness in the Toiyabe National Forest; and (8) the Grant Range Wilderness, the Mount Moriah Wilderness, and the Santa Rosa-Paradise Peak Wilderness in the Humboldt National Forest.

Provides that the RARE II (second roadless area review and evaluation) final environmental statement (dated January 1979) with respect to national forest system lands in Nevada shall not be subject to judicial review. Releases national forest system lands in Nevada which were reviewed in the RARE II program from further review by the Department of Agriculture, pending the revision of initial national forest management plans. Releases lands in Nevada reviewed in the RARE II program and not designated as wilderness from management as wilderness areas. Prohibits the Department of Agriculture from conducting any further statewide roadless area review and evaluation of national forest system lands in Nevada without express congressional authorization. States that the provisions above apply to national forest system roadless lands in Nevada which are less than 5,000 acres in size.

Permits livestock grazing in such wilderness areas, subject to mandatory review by the Secretary of Agriculture. Requires the Secretary to report periodically to the Congress on livestock grazing in these wilderness areas.

Reserves to the United States a quantity of water sufficient to fulfill the purposes of the wilderness areas created by this Act. Declares that nothing in this Act relating to reserved Federal water rights shall be construed as establishing precedent with regard to future designations.

Does not preempt State jurisdiction over wildlife and fish in the national forests.

Permits the installation in wilderness areas of hydrologic, meteorologic, or climatological collection devices.

Declares that nothing shall preclude low level overflights of military aircraft, the designation of new units of special airspace, or the use or establishment of flight training routes over the Alta Toquima, Arc Dome, Currant Mountain, or Table Mountain Wilderness Areas.

Domestic Volunteer Service Act Amendments of 1989 - Title I: National Volunteer Antipoverty Programs - Amends the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973 (the Act) to revise recruitment, application, and placement procedures and add public awareness and recruitment activities relating to the selection and assignment of volunteers for Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA).

Requires the Director of the ACTION Agency (the Director) to establish a volunteer placement office within ACTION national headquarters to maintain a central information system for volunteers, projects, and programs. Requires the Director to: (1) appoint a national Administrator of Recruitment and Placement (the Administrator); (2) designate at least one ACTION employee in each region whose primary duty is to assist with recruitment and placement; and (3) hire appropriate support staff.

Requires the Director to provide VISTA volunteers assignments which, to the maximum extent practicable, are consistent with their abilities, experiences, and preferences, and with the needs and preferences of the projects or programs. Requires the Director, whenever feasible and appropriate, to assign low-income community volunteers to serve in their home communities in teams with nationally recruited specialist volunteers. Requires the Director to: (1) try to assign volunteers to serve in their homes or nearby communities; and (2) make national efforts to attract other individuals to serve in VISTA. Requires the Director to consider: (1) community-identified needs which cannot be met in the local area; and (2) individual volunteer desires with regard to geographic placement. Allows a sponsoring organization to recruit VISTA volunteers. Directs the Administrator to give such locally-recruited volunteers priority for placement in the sponsoring organization that recruited them.

Requires the Director to undertake specified recruitment, publicity, and information activities, and to coordinate them with those of the Peace Corps. Includes among such activities publicizing student loan deferment and forgiveness opportunities available to volunteers. Requires attempts to involve former volunteers in information dissemination activities. Requires an annual plan for recruitment of volunteers.

Requires the Director to ensure that, of all VISTA volunteers: (1) at least 20 percent are age 55 or older; and (2) beginning in FY 1991, at least 20 percent are age 18 through 27.

Requires that, beginning in FY 1991, a specified portion of VISTA funds be obligated for public awareness and recruitment activities.

Authorizes the Director to extend the five-year maximum period of service for each VISTA volunteer for up to two additional years in certain circumstances. Allows such extensions to be granted to no more than one percent of volunteers, and only during the FY 1990 through 1993 period.

Raises the maximum monthly stipend for VISTA volunteers from $75 to $90 in FY 1991 and $95 in subsequent fiscal years. Requires the Director to set a subsistence allowance for VISTA volunteers so that: (1) the minimum allowance is no less than 95 percent of the poverty line; (2) the average allowance is no less than 105 percent of such line (excluding allowances for certain higher cost areas); and (3) allowances are adjusted for higher cost areas. Requires the Director to report to appropriate congressional committees on methods for setting such allowances.

Prohibits termination of VISTA assistance to any project or organization solely on the basis of the duration of assistance previously received. Requires case-by-case consideration of renewal applications, taking into account extenuating circumstances preventing attainment of original goals. Requires that new applications from organizations previously receiving assistance be considered on an equal basis with those that have not received assistance, if the proposed project is clearly distinct from the previously assisted activities. Prohibits taking duration of assistance into account in considering applications from intermediary organizations.

Title II: Service-Learning Programs - Renames the Service-Learning Programs under the Act as the Student Community Service Programs.

Title III: Special Volunteer Programs - Limits the amount of any grant or contract under the Special Volunteer Programs. Prohibits funds for such programs for FY 1990 and thereafter from being used for any State office of volunteerism.

Requires the Director to provide assistance for identifying, developing, and disseminating effective literacy materials and programs, by grant or contract, to public and private nonprofit organizations, whose principal purpose is combatting illiteracy and associated problems.

Renames provisions for Special Initiatives as Drug Abuse Education and Prevention Services Activities. Requires the Director to give priority, in awarding grants and contracts for such activities, to projects that serve communities, including those in rural areas, which have not previously received Special Volunteer Programs assistance for drug abuse education and prevention. Requires the Director to provide for evaluation of activities and projects conducted with assistance under such provisions. Requires applications for such grants in excess of a specified amount to describe methods to be used in evaluating the impact of the program and activities on the drug abuse problem within the community.

Title IV: Administration and Coordination - Requires the Director to submit to the Congress within 60 days after the start of each fiscal year a report which includes descriptions of: (1) the annual VISTA recruitment plan; (2) VISTA activities and number of applicants, applicants approved, applicants assigned, and volunteers assigned outside of their home communities; (3) efforts made to involve former volunteers in recruitment and public awareness, numbers of such individuals involved, and the manner of their involvement; and (4) number and location of ACTION Agency employees assigned to VISTA recruitment and public awareness duties.

Requires the Director to evaluate the VISTA Literacy Corps as a separate program at least once every three years.

Title V: Older American Volunteer Programs - Amends title II (Older American Volunteer Programs) of the Act with respect to the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, the Foster Grandparent Program, and the Senior Companion Program.

Requires the Director to use specified amounts to make, within each National Older American Volunteer Program, grants to support activities that address national problems on a local level. Sets forth award criteria. Authorizes grant use for activities assisting: (1) those with chronic debilitating illnesses such as AIDS; (2) drug and alcohol abuse prevention and treatment; (3) teenage parents; (4) mentoring of youth needing guidance; (5) adult and school-based literacy; (6) respite care; (7) before- and after-school programs serving children of working parents; (8) boarder babies; (9) child care, especially of children with special needs; (10) developmentally disabled adult individuals (and, when appropriate, involvement of such individuals as volunteers); and (11) volunteer tutoring of educationally disadvantaged children in basic skills on a one-to-one basis. Limits funding of such grants to those years when program funding is increased by a specified amount.

Increases the amount of stipends or allowances under the Foster Grandparent Program. Revises provisions relating to individuals who are not low-income persons serving as volunteers without stipends under such program. Prohibits the Director from coercing any volunteer applicant or grant or contract recipient to engage in specified conduct with respect to such unpaid volunteer positions.

Requires the Director to encourage and facilitate: (1) private organizational efforts to promote National Older American Volunteer Programs; and (2) involvement of older persons as volunteers in such programs. Requires the Director to expend specified funds for special efforts to publicize such programs, including notifying grant and contract recipients of all available information.

Requires the Director to: (1) make appropriate cost-of-living adjustments in Federal financial assistance to meet administrative costs of applicants under National Older American Volunteer Programs, and (2) report annually to specified congressional committees on such adjustments.

Authorizes the Director to approve multiple-year grants or contracts for projects.

Title VI: Literacy - Requires the Director to ensure that records are maintained to indicate the degree of compliance with a requirement that certain funds for the VISTA Literacy Corps supplement and not supplant other specified funds to address the problem of illiteracy.

Authorizes the Director to reassign a consenting VISTA Literacy Corps volunteer to a regular VISTA literacy project. Requires, to the extent practicable, that another VISTA Literacy Corps volunteer be assigned to replace that volunteer.

Requires the Director to assist public and private nonprofit organizations, whose principal purpose is combatting illiteracy and associated problems, to identify, develop, and disseminate literacy materials and programs, with emphasis on the training and use of volunteers. Requires the Director to submit annual summaries of exemplary projects to the national clearinghouse on literacy education.

Authorizes the Director to provide technical assistance to employers who have established or wish to establish worksite literacy volunteer programs and to coordinate such assisted activities with the Department of Education Workplace Literacy programs under the Adult Education Act.

Title VII: General Provisions - Includes among authorized VISTA volunteer assignments work in addressing significant health care problems, including chronic and life-threatening illnesses and health care for homeless individuals, especially homeless children, through prevention, treatment, and community-based care activities.

Makes a technical amendment relating to the loyalty oath or affirmation required of VISTA volunteers.

Raises to 30 percent the limit on the amount of funds which may be used for grants and contracts which directly support volunteers.

Requires that there be three individuals each responsible for one of the older volunteer programs, to report directly to the Assistant Director of the ACTION Agency responsible for the Older Volunteer Programs.

Amends the Human Services Reauthorization Act of 1986 to revise the Community Services Block Grant Program with respect to partnership agreements addressing the needs of the poor. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for such program. Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services annually to: (1) identify new programs for replication; and (2) evaluate and report to specified congressional committees on programs funded under such program.

Title VIII: Authorization of Appropriations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for the following National Volunteer Antipoverty Programs: (1) the VISTA volunteer program; (2) the VISTA Literacy Corps; (3) Service-Learning programs; and (4) Special Volunteer programs.

Requires necessary amounts to be available for increasing numbers of years of VISTA volunteer service for FY 1990 through 1993.

Requires the Director to give a reasonable period of advance notice to the relevant congressional committees upon determination that a reallocation is necessary because of insufficient appropriations to carry out VISTA programs. Requires that such reallocation be made from funds for Special Volunteer programs before reallocation from other parts of title I of the Act.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for administration of the Act.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for the following National Older American Volunteer Programs: (1) the Retired Senior Volunteer Program; (2) the Foster Grandparent Program; and (3) the Senior Companion Program.

Title IX: Technical Amendments - Makes technical amendments to the table of contents, headings, and other provisions of the Act.

Title X: Technical Amendments to Other Laws - Makes technical amendments to: (1) the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988; (2) the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974; (3) the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act; and (4) the Missing Children's Assistance Act.

Arms Control and Disarmament Amendments Act of 1989 - Title I: Arms Control and Disarmament Agency - Amends the Arms Control and Disarmament Act to authorize appropriations for the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for FY 1990 and 1991.

Makes the Deputy Director of the Agency responsible for administrative management, intelligence-related activities, security, and the Special Compartmental Intelligence Facility.

Declares that one Agency Special Representative should serve as representative at conventional arms control negotiations and the other as the chief science advisor to the Agency Director.

States that the Agency Director should study and report to the Congress on the advisability of establishing an arms control implementation and compliance resolution bureau or other organizational unit to: (1) manage the implementation of arms control agreements; (2) coordinate the activities of specified commissions; and (3) prepare analyses and policy positions regarding the resolution of arms control compliance questions.

Provides that the President should establish a working group to: (1) examine verification approaches to arms reduction and control agreements; and (2) assess the relevance for such agreements of the verification provisions of the INF Treaty.

Directs the Agency to allocate sufficient resources to develop an information and data base on verification concepts, research, technologies, and systems. Requires the Agency to collect, analyze, and disseminate information on arms control verification and monitoring, including information on: (1) all current U.S. bilateral and multilateral treaties; and (2) prospective arms treaties in the areas of nuclear, conventional, chemical, and space weapons. Directs the Agency to: (1) improve U.S. verification and monitoring activities through the monitoring and support of relevant research and analysis; and (2) provide information on such activities in its annual report to the Congress.

Permits the use of appropriations for expenses of travel of Agency personnel outside the United States that continues beyond the end of a fiscal year.

Directs the Agency Director to study and report to the Congress on steps which could be taken to improve prospects for conversion of portions of U.S. defense industries to nondefense-related activities as opportunities are presented through the achievement of arms control agreements.

Title II: On-Site Inspection Activities - Declares that: (1) the Secretary of Defense should provide to the On-Site Inspection Agency policy guidance formulated through an interagency mechanism established by the President; and (2) the Director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency should provide to the interagency mechanism appropriate recommendations for such guidance.

Authorizes appropriations for the On-Site Inspection Agency for FY 1990 and 1991.

Requires the Secretary of Energy to submit to the Congress recommendations for specified Department of Energy research and development programs for 1995, including biofuels energy systems, hydrogen energy systems, solar buildings energy systems, ocean energy systems, and geothermal energy. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 for: (1) the wind energy research program; (2) the photovoltaic energy systems program; (3) the solar thermal energy systems program; (4) the biofuels energy systems program; (5) hydrogen energy systems; (6) the solar buildings energy systems program; (7) the ocean energy systems program; and (8) the geothermal energy program.

Authorizes appropriations for specified energy efficiency research and development programs for FY 1991 through 1993.

Directs the Secretary to establish joint research and development ventures in specified energy technologies and to report to the Congress on the implementation of such plans. Directs the Secretary to establish the Advisory Committee on Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Joint Ventures to advise the Secretary regarding solicitation and evaluation criteria for joint research and development ventures, proposals, and project selection. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress regarding actions taken on joint research and development ventures. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 for such joint ventures.

Directs the Secretary to recommend to the Congress three additional joint research and development ventures in the fields of renewable energy or energy efficiency technologies for FY 1992.

Requires the interagency working group on commerce in renewable energy products and related services to report annually to the Congress regarding renewable energy technology exports. Authorizes appropriations for such interagency working group activities for FY 1991 through 1993.

Amends the National Energy Conservation Policy Act to direct the Secretary to establish an information dissemination program for Federal procurement and loan officers on the benefits of solar heating and cooling technology, including site visits and technical briefings.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to provide for Overseas Private Investment Corporation loans for renewable energy and other small business activities.

Requires the Secretary to make annual reports to the Congress regarding the research programs and ventures under this Act. Directs the Secretary to prepare a national renewable energy and energy efficiency management plan. Requires the first annual report to analyze available options for assisting the private sector with the timely commercialization of specified renewable energy and energy efficiency technologies.

Declares that no antitrust immunity or defense shall be deemed created by this Act.

Title I: Implementation of Compact of Free Association with Palau - Authorizes the entry into force of the Compact of Free Association between the United States and Palau (the Compact), subject to its approval by referendum and freedom from legal challenge.

Directs the Department of the Interior to develop a plan for an anti-drug program in Palau. Requires the President to negotiate an agreement with Palau to implement such plan.

Directs the President, upon request of the Government of Palau, to provide appropriate technical assistance to the public auditor or special prosecutor.

Prohibits using funds appropriated for assistance to Palau to satisfy any obligation or expense incurred by Palau prior to November 14, 1986, with respect to contracts or debts related to electrical generating plants or related facilities which have not been specifically authorized by the Congress in advance, with exceptions.

Directs the chief officer of any agency conducting annual audits of assistance provided to the Federated States of Micronesia and the Marshall Islands to certify such audits.

Declares that the Compact does not restrict the President from requesting additional funding or consenting to an extension concerning the use by the United States of privately owned lands in Palau as defense sites.

Directs the Secretary of the Interior to station at least one professional staff person in each of the offices of the U.S. in Palau, Micronesia, and the Marshall Islands to provide Federal program coordination and assistance.

Makes funding available to carry out this title and for assistance to the Palau central health facility, prison, and offices of public auditor and special prosecutor. Authorizes the President to negotiate an agreement with the Government of Palau which shall provide the following: (1) $28,000,000 shall be provided to Palau upon entry into force of the Compact; (2) Palau shall pay to the United States, on or before the 15th anniversary of the effective date of the Compact, the net economic costs of providing such funds; and (3) automatic payment to the United States if Palau has not paid such amount by the 15th anniversary of the effective date of the Compact.

Amends the Act approving the Compact to provide that the authorizations for transition purposes shall decline over the first through third fiscal years after the Compact's effective date (under current law, FY 1987 through 1989).

Title II: Insular Areas Matters - Authorizes the President to negotiate agreements to provide that: (1) the United States shall carry out certain provisions of the Controlled Substances Act for the lawful distribution of controlled substances in the freely associated states; and (2) such states which maintain voluntary systems to report annual estimates of narcotics needs to the International Narcotics Control Board and which impose import controls on narcotic drugs consistent with the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961 shall be eligible for U.S. exports of such drugs in the same manner as countries meeting certain requirements of the Controlled Substances Act.

Designates the Northern Marianas College as a depository to receive U.S. Government publications.

Amends the Revised Organic Act of the Virgin Islands to repeal requirements for the locations of courts for the Virgin Islands.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1981 to increase the maximum percentage of monetary consideration received by Guam from the sale of certain lands conveyed to it by the Secretary of the Navy that is deductible as reasonable development costs from sale proceeds required to be paid to the United States.

Authorizes additional appropriations to the Secretary of the Army for the design and construction of the Nanpil hydropower project.

Makes a technical amendment to the Compact of Free Association between the United States and the Government of Palau.

Amends the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 to consider American Samoa and the Northern Mariana Islands as one state for purposes of receiving drug control grants and to set percentages for the allocations of such grants.

Authorizes appropriations to the Secretary of the Interior for prison construction and renovation in the Virgin Islands.

Exempts real property owned by the Northern Mariana Islands in the capital of the United States and used by the Resident Representative from assessment and taxation.

Amends the Agricultural Act of 1949 to authorize the Secretary of Agriculture to establish a percentage reduction of less than five percent for the 1990 oat crop.

Directs the Commodity Credit Corporation to make funds available to promote U.S. meat exports to military commissaries in the European Community.

Amends the Egg Research and Consumer Information Act to set forth "aggregate number of hens" provisions for individual, general partnership, and corporation producers for purposes of specified exemptions under such Act.

Amends the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as reenacted with amendments by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, to require the quality inspection of all peanuts if a marketing agreement is in effect (regardless of whether the particular handler is participating in the agreement). Prohibits the sale for human consumption of peanuts that fail to meet the quality requirements of an agreement.

Amends the National Agricultural Research, Extension, and Teaching Policy Act of 1977 to authorize research into new commercial products from natural plant materials.

Amends the Farm Credit Act of 1971 to set forth the formula for calculating Farm Credit System (FCS) institution insurance premiums.

Makes October 1, 1992, the effective date for certain FCS institution stock purchase requirements.

Amends the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (Gramm-Rudman-Hollings Act) to exempt certain Farm Credit System Financial Assistance Corporation interest payments from Treasury sequestration.

Amends the Disaster Assistance Act of 1989 to make earthquake losses in ornamentals, orchards, forest crops, and rural business enterprises eligible for disaster assistance under such Act. Increases such rural business enterprise assistance limits to $300,000,000 (currently, $200,000,000).

Amends the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act to extend through FY 1990 the exclusion of third party payments for certain housing without cooking or refrigerated storage facilities from household income for purposes of food stamp program eligibility.

Amends the Agricultural Act of 1949, with respect to the 1989 and subsequent crops of wheat, feed grains, upland cotton, and rice to direct the Secretary of Agriculture to: (1) allow producers to provide county committees with actual crop yield data; (2) notify producers of such opportunity; and (3) maintain such data for at least five crop years.

Requires the Secretary, with respect to the 1989 crop year, to determine the impact on producers and commodity programs of alternative methods of determining payment yields for such crops. Directs the Secretary to report the results of such determination to the appropriate congressional committees by January 30, 1990.

Permits 1989 and 1990 soybean producers to provide county committees with actual crop yield data.

Amends the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 to permit specified issuers of Rural Development Insurance Fund obligations to purchase such unsold obligations during a 150-day period from the date of enactment of this Act.

Conditions eligibility for certain agricultural export benefits on the U.S. exporter's certifying that none of such domestic commodity exports shall be used as the basis for import drawbacks (reimbursement) under the Tariff Act of 1930.

Requires U.S. vegetable oil or vegetable oil products exporters to comply with this Act.

Exempts contracts entered into before the effective date of this Act.

Delays the repayment of advance deficiency payments for 1988 producers of wheat, feed grains, upland cotton, and rice who qualified for specified disaster assistance relief.

Steel Trade Liberalization Program Implementation Act - Amends the Steel Import Stabilization Act to declare that the Congress supports the implementation of the steel trade liberalization program.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the United States Trade Representative should conduct negotiations, through the Uruguay Round of negotiations under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and through complementary bilateral arrangements, to seek an international consensus regarding steel trade that provides for: (1) disciplines over trade-distorting government subsidies; (2) the lowering of trade barriers to ensure market access; and (3) enforcement measures to deal with violations of consensus obligations. Requires the President to provide the Congress an annual assessment of progress of such negotiations.

Extends the Steel Import Stabilization Act for a three-year period. Authorizes the President, between October 1, 1989, and the concluding of any bilateral steel arrangement, to take necessary actions to ensure an orderly transition to such arrangement. Authorizes the Secretary of Commerce to permit the importation of additional quantities of steel products without regard to any aggregate quantitative import limitation arrangement in effect if: (1) such bilateral arrangement includes a short supply provision; and (2) the Secretary determines that a short supply situation exists in the United States with respect to any steel product subject to such arrangement.

Authorizes the filing of petitions requesting the Secretary to determine whether a short supply situation exists. Requires the Secretary to provide an opportunity for comment by interested persons regarding issues raised in such petitions. Directs the Secretary to publish such determinations in the Federal Register.

Requires the International Trade Commission to seek information: (1) from purchasers, as well as domestic producers, of steel products regarding improvements in domestic quality and service that result from industry modernization; and (2) on worker retraining efforts of the steel industry.

Amends the Tax Reform Act of 1986 to treat certain ethyl alcohols produced in an insular possession or beneficiary country as indigenous products of such possession or country if certain requirements are met.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code with respect to environmental taxes on petroleum to revise the financing rate for the Hazardous Substance Superfund.

Anti-Terrorism and Arms Export Amendments Act of 1989 - Amends the Arms Export Control Act to prohibit the Government or U.S. persons from exporting or providing munitions items to, or facilitating (through loans, credits, guarantees, or other financial assistance) the acquisition of munitions by, any country, or any individual or group in a country, which, as determined by the Secretary of State, has repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism. Permits the rescission of a determination of the Secretary only after the President makes specified certifications to the Congress concerning the country involved.

Authorizes the President to waive such prohibition with respect to transactions determined to be essential to national security after consulting with, and reporting to, the Congress. Exempts from such prohibition transactions subject to reporting requirements of the National Security Act of 1947. Authorizes additional waivers pursuant to authority under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961. Sets forth criminal and civil penalties for violations of this Act.

Requires the Director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, in making decisions concerning the issuance of export licenses, to consider whether the export of an article will support international terrorism. Requires the Director's evaluation of an arms sale submitted to the Congress to include an evaluation of whether the sale would support international terrorism.

Amends the Export Administration Act of 1979 to require a validated license for the export of goods or technology to a country if the Secretary determines that: (1) such country has repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism; and (2) such exports could contribute to the military potential of such country or would enhance the ability of such country to support acts of international terrorism. Removes the $1,000,000 threshold for notification to the Congress of the issuance of an export license. Revises the President's authority to rescind the Secretary's determination.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to prohibit the provision of any assistance under such Act, the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, the Peace Corps Act, or the Export-Import Bank Act to any country which the Secretary determines has repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism. Authorizes the President to: (1) rescind such a determination only after making specified certifications to the Congress concerning the country involved; and (2) waive such prohibition for national security interests or humanitarian reasons only after consulting with, and reporting to, the Congress.

Requires the President, in order to rescind a determination by the Secretary that a country supports international terrorism, to certify to the Congress that: (1) there has been a fundamental change in the leadership and policies of the government concerned and such government is not supporting acts of international terrorism and has provided assurances not to do so in the future; or (2) the government concerned has not provided any support for international terrorism during the preceding six-month period and has provided assurances that it will not support acts of international terrorism in the future.

Amends the Arms Export Control Act to specify that any presidential designation to place a defense item on the munitions list shall not be subject to judicial review.

Directs the President to include in required quarterly reports to the Congress concerning military exports a listing of: (1) all consents granted to third-party transfers of defense articles or defense services exceeding $1,000,000 in value; and (2) munitions items exceeding $250,000 in value transferred by the Department of Defense to other agencies of the U.S. Government, excluding items transferred for use within the United States or for intelligence activities subject to other reporting requirements under the National Security Act of 1947.

Revises requirements for reporting the use of foreign assistance funds where it is inadvisable to specify the nature of the use of such funds to require that such a report be transmitted to the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives rather than to the Speaker of the House.

Amends the Hostage Act to specify that the President may not use any means otherwise prohibited by law in attempting to cause the release of U.S. citizens imprisoned by foreign governments. (Current law specifies that the President may not use any means amounting to acts of war.)

Specifies that the use by any government of armed force in the exercise of individual or collective self-defense in accordance with applicable international agreements and customary international law shall not be considered an act of international terrorism for purposes of this Act.

District of Columbia Police Authorization and Expansion Act of 1989 - Amends the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act to authorize appropriations for FY 1990 through 1994 for 700 additional officers and members of the Metropolitan Police Department (D.C. Police) of the District of Columbia. Makes such funding available only for salaries and expenses of the D.C. Police in excess of the authorized level of 4,355 members of the department for FY 1989. Prohibits the use of such funds in FY 1990 until the Mayor develops and submits a community-oriented policing system plan to specified congressional committees. Prohibits the use of such funds after FY 1990 until the Mayor notifies such committees that a community-oriented policing system has been implemented in the District of Columbia.

Requires the Joint Committee on Judicial Administration in the District of Columbia to report to the Congress on: (1) the resources available to D.C. courts; (2) the feasibility and cost of increasing D.C. court personnel; and (3) the need for changes in detention and sentencing guidelines and the social services program of the D.C. courts. Directs the Attorney General to report to the Congress on the potential effects of increased efforts to eliminate drug-related criminal activity in the District of Columbia on crime and law enforcement in the D.C. metropolitan area.

Requires the District of Columbia to request the Director of the Bureau of Prisons and the Director of the National Institute of Corrections to provide it with technical assistance and training in the development of a criminal recordkeeping and classification system providing the basis for a uniform strategy for managing and evaluating the processing of D.C. criminals.

Amends the District of Columbia Uniform Controlled Substances Act of 1981 to require that proceeds from the sale of forfeited property be used to finance law enforcement activities of the D.C. Police.

Directs the D.C. Police to disseminate its unexpurgated adult arrest records to members of the court and law enforcement officers without cost and without the authorization of persons to whom such records relate.

Authorizes appropriations for the implementation of a Police Corps program in West Virginia and the District of Columbia assisting up to 25 college or graduate students in each of such jurisdictions in paying for their education if they agree to serve for at least four years as law enforcement officers in West Virginia or the District of Columbia.

Coast Guard Authorization Act of 1989 - Title I: Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations for the Coast Guard for FY 1990 and 1991 for: (1) operation and maintenance; (2) acquisition, construction, rebuilding, and improvement for aids to navigation, shore and offshore facilities, vessels, and aircraft; (3) research, development, test, and evaluation; (4) retirement pay and benefits; and (5) alteration or removal of bridges that are obstructions to navigation.

Authorizes the end strength for active-duty personnel of the Coast Guard for FY 1990 and 1991.

Specifies the authorized average military training student load for the Coast Guard for FY 1990 and 1991.

Amends the Inland Navigational Rules Act of 1980 (INRA) to rename the Rules of the Road Advisory Committee as the Navigation Safety Advisory Council. Amends the INRA and other Federal law to extend the termination of the Council and the Towing Safety Advisory Committee to September 30, 1995.

Amends Federal law to prohibit the Secretary from considering the political affiliation of individuals considered for appointment to the Commercial Fishing Industry Vessel Advisory Committee.

Title II: Programs - Makes technical amendments to the Act To Prevent Pollution from ships and to provisions of law relating to military whistleblowers.

Amends Federal law providing for continuity of grade for Coast Guard vice admirals when reappointed to another position as vice admiral to include reappointment of a vice admiral as an admiral.

Amends Federal law relating to appointment of Coast Guard personnel to require appointment to the grade of lieutenant (junior grade) or lieutenant to be made by the President without the advice and consent of the Senate.

Directs the Secretary to furnish the board that recommends continuation of captains on active duty with the number of officers that may be so recommended, which number must be no less than 50 percent (currently 75 percent) of the number considered.

Authorizes the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating, in certain circumstances, to adjust the date of appointment of Coast Guard Reserve officers.

Applies provisions relating to Coast Guard retention boards and removal from an active status to provide a flow of promotion to Reserve officers who have 18 years or more of service for retirement.

Authorizes the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to carry out a pilot program to establish and maintain a junior reserve officers training program, to be known as the Claude Pepper, Junior Reserve Officers Training Program, in Dade County, Florida, as part of the Maritime and Science Technology Academy established by the public school system in that county. Allows the Secretary to authorize the Academy to employ as administrators and instructors for the pilot program retired Coast Guard and Coast Guard Reserve commissioned, warrant, and petty officers. Provides for the amount of pay for each such employee and requires the Secretary to pay to the Academy one half of such amount.

Prohibits, notwithstanding any other law, any officer or employee of the United States from contracting for procurement of performance of any function being performed by Coast Guard personnel as of January 1, 1989, before: (1) the Secretary of Transportation has performed a study under a specified Office of Management and Budget circular with respect to that procurement; (2) the Secretary has performed a study to determine the impact of that procurement on the multimission capabilities of the Coast Guard; and (3) copies of the studies are submitted to specified committees of the Congress.

Requires contracts awarded by the Coast Guard for construction or services in States with an unemployment rate higher than the national average to include a provision requiring the contractor to employ local residents. Empowers the Secretary of Transportation, in certain circumstances, to waive such requirement.

Directs the Secretary of Transportation to: (1) report to the Congress on the options available to control the infestation of U.S. waters, including the Great Lakes, by exotic species from ballast water; and (2) report to the Congress on the costs incurred by the Coast Guard in providing security at Kennebunkport, Maine, and seek reimbursement of those security costs from the Secretary of the Treasury.

Directs the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to etablish a vessel traffic service in the New York Harbor area and on the Lower Mississippi River in New Orleans.

Directs the Secretary of Transportation to submit to the Congress: (1) a report on the needs for outfitting existing Coast Guard aircraft with surveillance and reconnaissance equipment to assist in law enforcement, and the cost of that equipment; and (2) a plan for closing existing gaps in radar coverage along the U.S. coastline on the Gulf of Mexico and the southeastern U.S. coastline on the Atlantic Ocean.

Amends Federal law relating to vessels and seamen to define "numbered vessel" to mean a vessel for which a number has been issued under provisions governing numbering of undocumented vessels.

Directs the Secretary of Transportation and the Secretary of the Treasury to develop a procedure for constructive seizure of vessels engaged solely in coastwise trade which are suspected of being used for violations of law involving controlled substances.

Amends Federal law relating to a report to the Congress to specify that information in the report on user fees collected by the Coast Guard is to include user fees collected under any law.

Directs the Secretary of Transportation to: (1) amend specified Federal regulations, governing the board for the correction of military records, to ensure that an application for correction is processed expeditiously and that final action is taken within ten months; and (2) appoint and maintain a permanent staff, and a panel of civilian officers or employees to serve as members of the board, which are adequate to ensure such processing and final action.

Directs the Secretary of Transportation or the Commandant of the Coast Guard, before acquiring a vessel for use by the Coast Guard, to review the inventory of vessels acquired by the Secretary or the Secretary of Commerce under default on federally insured ship mortgages to determine whether any of those vessels are suitable for the Coast Guard.

Amends Federal law relating to merchant seamen protection and relief to: (1) remove provisions authorizing the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to prescribe regulations; and (2) require an individual in charge of a documented vessel to report to the Secretary a complaint of a sexual offense prohibited under provisions of Federal criminal law relating to sexual abuse. Provides for civil monetary penalties for failing to make such a report.

Directs the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to convey the Block Island Southeast Lighthouse to the Block Island Southeast Lighthouse Foundation of the town of New Shoreham, Rhode Island. Provides for continued U.S. operation and maintenance of navigation aids in the lighthouse.

Prohibits the Secretary of Transportation from transferring the Coast Guard cutter ACUSHNET from Gulfport, Mississippi, until two Coast Guard patrol boats are based permanently in Gulfport.

Deems the Coast Guard to be an instrumentality within the Department of Defense for certain purposes relating to housing.

Prohibits the reduction of 1990 or 1991 expenditures for Coast Guard services other than drug law enforcement unless Congress is notified in accordance with this Act. Provides that this provision shall not be construed to reduce the Coast Guard's ability to interdiction opportunities.

Provides for the operation of the Boston Light Station on a permanent basis.

Sets forth a Coast Guard environmental compliance and restoration program which shall include identifying and cleaning up hazardous substances and pollutants. Establishes the Coast Guard Environmental Compliance and Restoration Account.

Title III: Sets forth various technical amendments relating to documentation and licensing of vessels on the Great Lakes, vessel identification systems, commercial instruments and maritime liens, an extension of the exemption of certain fishing industries for inspection requirements, and the issuance of certificates of documentation for coastwise operation to several vessels.

Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1986 (the Act) to revise funding distribution for certain programs. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 for a new emergency grants program.

Adds specified new requirements relating to distribution of appropriations.

Requires State educational agencies to use specified additional amounts to make grants to local educational agencies for certain programs.

Revises the use of State program funds to include grants to promote and establish drug-free school zones. Directs State Governors to: (1) make grants or contracts, giving priority to community, or parent groups, for community-based programs of coordinated services designed for high-risk youth; and (2) make grants to private nonprofit organizations to develop new strategies to communicate anti-drug abuse messages to youths. Adds juveniles in detention facilities to the list of high-risk youths.

Allows the use of State program funds for nondiscriminatory random drug testing programs for students voluntarily participating in athletic activities in schools which voluntarily choose to participate in such a program.

Requires State applications to include a plan for providing innovative programs of drug abuse education for all juveniles in detention facilities within the State.

Revises provisions for State educational agency responsibilities with respect to reallocation of grants to local and intermediate education agencies.

Revises local drug abuse education and prevention programs. Elaborates on the types of activities which may be included in school-based programs of drug abuse prevention and early intervention and in drug abuse prevention counseling programs. Provides for model alternative schools for youth with drug problems that address the special needs of such students through education and counseling.

Requires local applications to include specified information relating to: (1) school participation in community-wide efforts; (2) provision of trained counselors, social workers, psychologists, and nurses; (3) distribution of lists of local resources; (4) curricula review; and (5) training for teachers and other personnel implementing the programs.

Requires local applicants to submit annual program progress reports to the State educational agency. Requires States to include an evaluation of State and local program effectiveness in their biennial reports to the Secretary of Education (the Secretary). Provides for grants for training teachers, counselors, and school personnel.

Adds to Federal activities: (1) use of private nonprofit organizations to develop innovative strategies to communicate antidrug abuse messages to youths and to eliminate drug abuse from the communities of the Nation; and (2) program evaluation.

Creates a national emergency grants program. Directs the Secretary to make grants to eligible local educational agencies that demonstrate significant need for additional assistance to combat drug and alcohol abuse by students. Sets forth eligibility criteria and minimum and maximum grant limits. Provides that FY 1990 funds for such grants shall be allocated to State Governors for distribution through State educational agencies to local educational agencies.

Establishes a drug-free school zones demonstration program of grants by the Secretary to local and intermediate educational agencies and consortia. Directs the Secretary to evaluate such programs. Authorizes appropriations.

Defines the use of anabolic steroids as drug abuse.

Authorizes a State educational agency bypass of the local educational agency where necessary to provide for program participation of children and teachers from private nonprofit elementary and secondary schools.

Requires the Secretary, through the National Diffusion Network, to disseminate information and technical assistance with respect to drug abuse education and prevention programs of demonstrated effectiveness. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991.

Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 to provide for development of skills and techniques for administering drug prevention and education programs.

Amends the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act, as amended by the Child Abuse Prevention Challenge Grants Reauthorization Act of 1989 (Public Law 101-126), to establish a program of emergency child protective services grants. Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to make such grants to eligible entities to provide services to children whose parents are substance abusers. Authorizes appropriations for such grants for FY 1990 and subsequent fiscal years.

Amends the Higher Educational Act of 1965 (HEA) to bar an institution of higher education from receiving funds or any other Federal financial assistance, including any federally funded or guaranteed student loans, unless it certifies to the Secretary that it has adopted and implemented a program to prevent the use of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol by students and employees. Sets forth minimum requirements for such programs.

Sets forth a similar prohibition under the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1986 against the receipt of Federal financial assistance by a local educational agency unless it certifies that it has in place a drug and alcohol abuse prevention program for its students and employees which meets specified minimum requirements. Requires State educational agencies to receive such certifications and to make a similar certification to the Secretary.

Amends the National Narcotics Leadership Act of 1988 to provide for before and after school programs for unsupervised children, including: (1) education and instruction consistent with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1988; (2) athletic activities; (3) creative activities; and (4) other programs designed to reduce the risk of drug abuse.

Everglades National Park Protection and Expansion Act of 1989 - Title I: Everglades National Park Expansion - Modifies the boundaries of the Everglades National Park, Florida. Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior (Secretary) to acquire lands for addition to the Park. Expresses the intent of Congress that acquisition within the boundaries of the addition shall be completed within five years after enactment of this Act. Authorizes appropriations.

Authorizes the Secretary to expedite the construction of a visitor center facility at Everglades City, Florida. Designates the facility the Marjory Stoneman Douglas Center.

Directs the Secretary of the Army, upon completion of a final report by the Army Corps of Engineers, to construct modifications to the Central and Southern Florida Project to improve water deliveries to the Park. Requires the Secretary of the Army to make a determination as to whether a specified residential area within the East Everglades or adjacent agricultural areas will be adversely affected by such project modifications. Directs the Secretary of the Army, if he makes an affirmative determination, to undertake measures to prevent flood damages to such areas which are attributable to improved water deliveries.

Prohibits the issuance of any Federal license or assistance with respect to the West Dade Wellfield until the Secretary, the Governor of Florida, the South Florida Water Management District and Dade County, Florida, enter into an agreement providing that the South Florida Water Management District's water use permit for such wellfield include specified conditions.

Title II: Fort Jefferson National Monument Redesignation Study - Requires the Secretary, within two years after enactment of this Act, to transmit to specified congressional committees a study of the feasibility of expanding and redesignating Fort Jefferson National Monument as Fort Jefferson National Park.

International Narcotics Control Act of 1989 - Declares that the Congress finds that: (1) it is crucial to international antidrug efforts that funds be made available to provide alternative sources of income for individuals in major coca producing countries who are dependent on illicit drug production, as well as for eradication, enforcement, rehabilitation, treatment, and education programs in such countries; and (2) the United States and other major donor countries should provide increased economic assistance to major coca producing countries which have taken steps to attack illicit coca production by methods which reduce the flow of cocaine to the world market. Urges the Director of National Drug Control Policy to submit to the Congress a plan which addresses such needs.

Urges the President to include such findings and the following issues on the formal agenda of the meeting between the President and the Governments of Bolivia, Colombia, and Peru in February 1990: (1) initiatives to expand antidrug efforts in the Andean region; (2) debt-for-drug exchanges that forgive Andean bilateral debt held by the United States and other creditor countries in return for commitments to use the savings in debt service for antidrug programs; and (3) efforts to halt the transfer of arms, precursor chemicals, and communications equipment and technology from legitimate sources to drug trafficking organizations. Requires the President to report to the Congress on the outcome of such meeting and to submit supplemental budget requests for FY 1990 and 1991 as may be necessary to cover the U.S. share of additional assistance for the Andean antidrug strategy.

Authorizes the President to make funds for foreign military financing under the Arms Export Control Act and international military education and training under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 available to provide defense articles and services and international military education and training to Bolivia, Colombia, and Peru. Earmarks specified amounts of such assistance for narcotics law enforcement training and interdiction activities and procurement of defense articles by enforcement agencies in such countries. Reduces such amounts by the amounts provided for military assistance to such countries under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 and the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations Act, 1990. Makes such countries eligible only if they maintain democratic governments and their law enforcement agencies do not engage in human rights violations. Requires the President to report to specified congressional committees prior to obligating such funds. Provides for human rights reporting on such countries. Authorizes appropriations.

Amends the Arms Export Control Act to require the Special Defense Acquisition Fund to be used to acquire defense articles for narcotics control purposes.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to authorize the President to transfer excess defense articles to any country: (1) which is a major illicit drug producing country in Latin American and the Caribbean with a democratic government; and (2) whose armed forces do not engage in human rights violations. Requires such countries to ensure that such articles will be used only in support of anti-narcotics activities. Limits the aggregate value of articles to be transferred to a country in any fiscal year. Permits such transfers only if: (1) the articles are drawn from existing Department of Defense (DOD) stocks; (2) funds available to DOD for the procurement of defense equipment are not expended in connection with such transfers; and (3) the President determines that such transfers will not have an adverse impact on the military readiness of the United States. Permits such transfers without cost to the recipient country. Requires the President to notify specified congressional committees prior to transferring such articles.

Waives certain prohibitions on the provision of assistance to countries in default on loan payments to the United States with respect to narcotics-related assistance for FY 1990 for major illicit drug producing countries.

Limits the amount of FY 1990 international narcotics control assistance to be made available for Mexico. Permits excess assistance to Mexico only if specified congressional committees are notified.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that: (1) President Salinas should be supported in his willingness to end narcotics-related corruption in the Mexican Government; (2) Mexico should conclude prosecutions for the murders and torture of certain Drug Enforcement Administration agents and make progress in the prosecution of Felix-Gallardo; (3) Mexico should demonstrate its commitment to cooperating fully in anti-narcotics activities by entering into negotiations with the United States on over-flight and hot pursuit operations, participation of U.S. law enforcement agencies in narcotics interdiction operations, and U.S. requests for access to bank records and requests for verification of eradication statistics; and (4) the Mexican people should be supported in efforts to rid their country of illicit narcotics, bribery and corruption, and electoral fraud.

Waives annual certification procedures with respect to FY 1990 assistance to major drug transit countries if the President certifies that: (1) certain provisions of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 with regard to money laundering do not apply to such a country; (2) such country was previously a major illicit drug producing country but has effectively eliminated drug production during the preceding two years; and (3) such country is cooperating fully with the United States or has taken certain steps with respect to narcotics control.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that U.S. trade policy should be coordinated with U.S. narcotics control objectives, particularly with respect to the International Coffee Agreement.

Commends the President for reviewing whether: (1) the International Coffee Agreement negotiations should be resumed; and (2) the trade benefits provided in the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act should be extended to the major coca producing countries of Latin America.

Authorizes the President to release Bolivia, Colombia, or Peru from obligations to the U.S. Government of payments on U.S. loans if the President determines that such countries are participating in programs to reduce the flow of cocaine to the United States in accordance with a formal agreement. Provides for congressional review of such agreements before such releases take effect.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the proposal for the promotion of a multilateral anti-narcotics force for the Western Hemisphere should be endorsed; and (2) the United States should work through multilateral organizations to determine the feasibility, and assist in the establishment, of such force.

Urges the President to: (1) seek agreement by relevant foreign countries, especially NATO countries and members of the Warsaw Pact, to join with the United States in halting weapons transfers to narcotics traffickers in Latin America; and (2) improve the coordination of U.S. efforts to track the flow of such weapons to international narcotics traffickers and to prevent illegal shipments from the United States. Calls upon the President to direct the U.S. representative to INTERPOL to urge such organization to study the feasibility of establishing an international database on the flow of the types of weapons acquired illegally by international narcotics traffickers. Requires the President to report to the Congress on such actions.

Amends the State Department Basic Authorities Act of 1956 to raise the limit on the amount of rewards for information concerning international terrorism. Provides that such amendment shall not take effect if the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 is enacted before this Act and makes the same amendment.

Exempts assistance for narcotics control crop substitution activities from a prohibition on the use of funds to support the production of any agricultural commodity in a foreign country which would compete with a similar U.S. commodity.

Makes technical amendments to provisions of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 concerning international narcotics control.

Authorizes appropriations for international narcotics control assistance. Requires countries receiving such assistance to bear an appropriate share of the costs for any activity for which assistance is provided.

Makes technical amendments to the Narcotics Control Trade Act.

North American Wetlands Conservation Act - Establishes a North American Wetlands Conservation Council. Sets forth elements to be considered by the Council in making recommendations to the Migratory Bird Conservation Commission for wetlands conservation projects. Requires the Council to submit annual descriptions to the Commission of projects recommended for Federal funding.

Directs the Commission to approve, reject, or reorder any project recommended by the Council. Makes Federal funding available for approved projects. Requires the Commission to report annually to the appropriate congressional committees on such projects.

Directs the Secretary of the Interior to carry out approved projects with funding available under this Act and the Federal Aid to Wildlife Restoration Act. Requires that lands, waters, or other interests acquired by the Secretary to carry out such projects be included in the National Wildlife Refuge System.

Authorizes the Secretary, subject to certain conditions, to grant funds or convey any real property interest acquired with funding provided by this Act to States or public or other entities if such interests should not be included in the National Wildlife Refuge System. Prohibits the Secretary from conveying such interests to States, public agencies, or other entities unless the recipient is committed to managing such interests in accordance with this Act. Subjects such conveyances to conditions that will ensure that the interests will be administered for the long-term conservation and management of the wetland ecosystem and the fish and wildlife dependent on such ecosystem.

Directs the Secretary to grant funds to public and other entities for carrying out wetlands conservation projects in Canada and Mexico. Subjects the granting of such funds to the same conditions applicable to the conveyance of property interests. Prohibits the inclusion of property acquired pursuant to the implementation of such projects in the National Wildlife Refuge System.

Amends the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act to require the Secretary of the Treasury to invest in interest-bearing obligations such portion of the wildlife restoration fund not required for the current year's withdrawals. Sets forth authorized investment activities and the required use of interest held on obligations in such fund. Excludes such interest from revenues to be deducted for administrative expenses.

Authorizes the sums of certain penalties or fines received for violations of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act to be appropriated to the Department of the Interior for allocations of funds under this Act. Authorizes additional appropriations. Allocates funds made available under this Act and the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act. Limits the Federal contribution to wetlands conservation projects to 50 percent of the total cost for projects in the United States. Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to: (1) make progress payments to wetlands conservation projects; and (2) enter into agreements to make payments on initial portions of such projects, subject to the availability of Federal funds.

Requires the head of each Federal agency responsible for acquiring, managing, or disposing of Federal lands and waters to cooperate with the Director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to restore, protect, and enhance the wetland ecosystems and other habitats for migratory birds, fish, and wildlife within such lands and waters.

Requires the Secretary to report to the appropriate congressional committees on the implementation of this Act.

Requires the Secretary, in 1991 and quinquennially thereafter, to revise the North American Waterfowl Management Plan with appropriate Canadian officials. Provides that the appropriate officials in Mexico shall be invited to participate in any Plan revision.

Prohibits funds made available under this Act and the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act from being used for fish and wildlife mitigation purposes under the Fish and Wildlife Coordination Act or the Water Resources Development Act of 1986.

Amends the Migratory Bird Conservation Act to provide that the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (in lieu of the Secretary of Transportation) shall be a member of the Commission.

Provides that only personnel and administrative costs directly related to acquisition of real property shall be levied against the Migratory Bird Conservation Account.

Requires the Secretary to undertake to establish migratory bird protection agreements with appropriate Western Hemisphere nations.

Amends the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Act to require the Secretary to identify lands and waters in the United States and other Western Hemisphere nations whose protection, management, or acquisition will foster the conservation of migratory nongame birds.

Expands the boundaries of the Bogue Chitto National Wildlife Refuge. Removes a limitation on the amount authorized to be appropriated for the acquisition of lands and interests to be included in such refuge.

Amends the Emergency Wetlands Resources Act of 1986 to require the Secretary to produce assessments of: (1) the estimated total number of acres of wetland habitat as of the 1780's in each State; and (2) the estimated total of wetlands acreage in each State and the percentage of loss of wetlands in each State between the 1780's and the 1980's.

Medicare Catastrophic Coverage Repeal Act of 1989 - Title I: Provisions Relating to Part A of Medicare Program and Supplemental Medicare Premium - Repeals provisions of the Medicare Catastrophic Coverage Act of 1988 (the Act) expanding coverage under part A (Hospital Insurance) of title XVIII (Medicare) of the Social Security Act. Excepts reductions of the deductible for blood from such repeal.

Repeals provisions of the Act imposing an annnual supplemental Medicare premium on part A beneficiaries whose tax liability equals or exceeds $150 and establishes the Federal Hospital Insurance Catastrophic Coverage Reserve Fund. Delays, from November 30, 1988, to May 31, 1990, the date by which the Secretary of the Treasury must report to the Congress on Federal tax policies to promote private financing of long-term care.

Title II: Provisions Relating to Part B of the Medicare Program - Repals the Act's amendments to part B (Supplementary Medical Insurance) of the Medicare program, including the financing mechanisms created to support the Act's expansion of part B benefits. Excepts from such repeal the requirement that physician payment requests include diagnostic coding information.

Requires the revision of Medicare supplemental health insurance policy standards to relect this Act's enactment. Directs such policies to inform policyholders who are Medicare beneficiaries of the changes made by this Act's enactment and their effect on the policy. Requires Medicare supplemental insurance policies from which an individual terminated his or her coverage prior to this Act's enactment to offer such individual policy terms which: (1) impose no waiting period for the treatment of preexisting conditions; (2) offer coverage substantially equivalent to the old coverage; and (3) classify premiums at least as favorably for the individual as did the old policy.

Requires the continued provision of certain part B benefits otherwise repealed by this Act to health maintenance organization enrollees through 1990.

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to notify Medicare beneficiaries of changes made by this Act's enactment.

Title III: Miscellaneous Amendments - Repeals the Act's extension of: (1) certain waiver of liability provisions applicable to hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, and home health agencies; and (2) the prohibition of new Medicare cost-saving regulations. Abolishes the Advisory Committee on Medicare Home Health Claims and Medicare catastrophic illness case management demonstration projects.

Veterans' Benefits Amendments of 1989 - Title I: Compensation and Pension - Part A: Compensation Rate Increases - Directs the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to increase the rates of, and limitations on, Department of Veterans Affairs (Department) disability compensation, additional compensation for dependents, the clothing allowance for certain disabled veterans, dependency and indemnity compensation for surviving spouses and children, and supplemental dependency and indemnity compensation for disabled adult children.

Part B: Compensation and Pension Program Changes - Increases from $60 to $90 the monthly pension payable to a veteran having neither spouse nor child and being furnished domiciliary care by the Department. Extends the provision of such assistance from two to three months following admission for such care.

Expands the eligibility for a veterans' clothing allowance to include veterans who, because of a compensable disability, use medication for a service-connected skin condition which stains or damages such veteran's clothing.

Reduces from two years to one the period of marriage required for a veteran's survivor to be eligible for veterans' survivors' benefits.

Reduces from 50 to 45 years the minimum age required of new pension recipients to be eligible for a temporary program of vocational training. Preserves a veteran's rating of total and permanent disability if such veteran secures employment within one year after such veteran's eligibility for vocational counseling expires.

Requires the Secretary to provide claimants for veterans' benefits with timely notice of his decision as well as the reasons for such decision.

Title II: Health-Care Provisions - Extends through FY 1992 the authority of the Secretary to: (1) provide respite care services to eligible veterans; (2) make grants to States for the construction of State nursing home facilities; and (3) continue a pilot program of community-based residential care for homeless chronically mentally ill and other veterans. Extends through 1989 the years for which a report is required on the furnishing of non-service-connected health care to veterans under the Veterans' Health Care Amendments of 1986. Extends for one additional year the requirement for a report concerning the provision of care and treatment to veterans suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder.

Authorizes the reimbursement of expenses for the provision of emergency care in non-Department facilities to participants in a veterans' vocational rehabilitation training program.

Authorizes the Secretary to appoint qualified individuals in the competitive civil service who have successfully completed a clinical education program with the Department to the Veterans Health Services and Research Administration (the Administration) without regard to Federal provisions regarding examination, certification, and appointment in the competitive service. Requires the Secretary to apply the principles of preference for hiring veterans and others under such Federal provisions.

Revises notice provisions required for the payment of special pay to health care personnel of the Department involved in the provision of direct patient care services or services incident to such care.

Includes registered nurses who are retired military personnel and are necessary to meet emergency employment needs in the category of Administration personnel who are exempt from reductions in retirement pay under Federal provisions regarding pay administration in the Federal service. Terminates such exemption with respect to such registered nurses as of the end of FY 1992.

Requires the Secretary to establish and conduct a leave transfer program for employees of the Department consistent with the Federal leave transfer program authorized under current law. Requires such program to be voluntary. Authorizes the Secretary and the Director of the Office of Personnel Management to enter into an agreement whereby health-care employees of the Department would choose to participate in the Federal leave transfer program in lieu of the program established by the Secretary. Requires the program established by the Secretary to be implemented no later than October 1, 1990.

Requires the Secretary, in selecting applicants for the Department's Health Professionals Scholarship program, to ensure an equitable allocation of such scholarships to persons enrolled in the second year of a program leading to an associate degree in nursing.

Title III: Housing - Veterans Home Loan Indemnity and Restructuring Act of 1989 - Establishes the Guaranty and Indemnity Fund (GIF) with respect to housing loans guaranteed or insured by the Department after 1989. Provides that the following sums shall be credited to the Fund: (1) all fees collected for loans with respect to which the GIF is available; (2) specified percentages of each loan closed during or after FY 1990 with respect to which the GIF is available; (3) all collections of principal and interest and the proceeds from property held or disposed of with respect to such loans; and (4) all income from investments of the GIF that are required to be made by the Secretary in obligations of the United States. Outlines contracts and acquisitions for which the GIF shall be available.

Requires the Department to include in its annual budget submission to the Congress certain information about the current and projected operations and financial status of both the Loan Guaranty Revolving Fund and the GIF.

Raises the basic loan fee, with respect to loans closed after December 31, 1989, to 1.25 percent of the loan. Reduces such fee to .75 percent if the borrower makes a downpayment of five percent or more of the purchase amount. Reduces both the fee and the Government contribution to 0.5 percent if the borrower makes a downpayment of ten percent or more. Allows the Government to allocate its contribution between the first two years of the loan. Requires Government payment of an amount equal to the fee that an exempt borrower is excused from paying.

Indemnifies against liability to the Department, with respect to loans made after September 30, 1989, veterans who default on guaranteed loans except in the case of fraud, misrepresentation, or bad faith by the veteran in obtaining the loan or in connection with the loan default.

Nullifies (if enacted by the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989) a provision postponing until October 1, 1990, the effective date of a provision allowing the Department to sell vendee loans without recourse only if the proceeds are at least equal to the value of the home.

Provides additional guaranty entitlement for loans that exceed $144,000 equal to 25 percent of the loan amount over $144,000 up to a total guaranty of $46,000.

Requires a lender to notify the Secretary when the lender refuses a borrower's tender of partial payment on a defaulted loan. Authorizes the Secretary to require a statement of the circumstances of the default, the amount tendered, the amount of the indebtedness on the date of the tender, and the reasons for the lender's refusal.

Prohibits the Department from considering the cost of borrowing funds in determining net value. Extends the no-bid formula through FY 1991.

Exempts from the 90-percent loan-to-value loan limits those loans made to refinance a construction loan, to replace an installment land sales contract with a deed and mortgage loan, or to refinance a conventional or FHA-insured loan with a lower-rate Department-guaranteed loan. Prohibits such refinancing loans from exceeding the lesser of the home's reasonable value or the sum of the outstanding balance on the existing loan plus closing costs.

Restores a veteran's entitlement to a home loan guaranty to veterans who have repaid the original guaranteed loan but have not yet disposed of the property, as long as the restored entitlement is to be used for a loan secured by the same property that secured the original loan.

Makes manadatory the granting of waivers of home-loan debts if collection of the debt would be against equity and good conscience. Prohibits such waivers in cases involving fraud, misrepresentation, or bad faith.

Requires the Secretaries of Veterans Affairs and the Interior to jointly study and report to the Senate and House veterans' committees on the extent to which veterans who are Native Americans living on Native-American trust lands participate in the veterans' home loan guaranty program.

Title IV: Education and Employment - Veterans Education and Employment Amendments of 1989 - Authorizes rate increases or increased allowances for: (1) rehabilitation subsistence allowances for veterans with service-connected disabilities; and (2) educational assistance for veterans' survivors and dependents.

Makes permanent the Department program for the provision of independent living services and assistance for severely handicapped veterans.

Provides that hours of services to be performed in connection with Department activities by veteran-students shall be equal to 25 times the number of weeks in the applicable enrollment period for the veterans' work-study program. Authorizes the Secretary to base work-study allowance payments on the higher of the Federal minimum wage or the minimum wage of the State in which the work is performed. Changes the name of such program to work-study allowance.

Authorizes, for purposes of work-study in the case of an individual who is receiving armed forces' educational assistance, activities related to the administration of such assistance at DOD facilities.

Provides that individuals pursuing at least 3/4-time programs of rehabilitation, education, or training under either veterans' educational assistance programs or armed forces educational assistance programs are eligible for work-study participation as of May 1, 1990. Authorizes work-study participation to a veteran's survivors or dependents who are pursuing an education program at a 3/4-time rate or higher as of the same date.

Extends the Veterans' Readjustment Appointment authority through December 31, 1993. Provides eligibility for such authority during the extended period to: (1) Vietnam-era veterans who are service-disabled or who received a campaign badge during the Vietnam era; (2) post-Vietnam-era veterans; and (3) eligible non-disabled veterans who have completed not more than 16 years of education at the time of appointment. Raises the grade-level restriction for such appointments to GS-11 for a Vietnam-era veteran who is service-disabled or who earned a campaign badge during the Vietnam era. Limits the period during which a veteran may receive such an appointment to the later of: (1) the end of the four-year period from his date of separation; or (2) the end of the two-year period beginning on the enactment of this Act. Requires an appointee to complete satisfactorily an education or training period under such program only if such appointees have fewer than 15 years of education.

Directs the Secretary of Labor to conduct a three-year pilot program, in at least five but not more than ten geographically-dispersed States, to furnish employment and training information and services to members of the armed forces within 180 days before such members are separated from service. Requires specific personnel to be utilized to provide such information. Requires a report on the success of such program.

Permits Montgomery GI Bill participants to meet the secondary-school-diploma requirement by successfully completing the equivalent of 12 semester hours in a program of education leading to a standard college degree before the end of the individual's initial obligated period of active duty. Prohibits individuals from receiving entitlement credit to educational assistance under both the veterans' and armed forces' educational assistance programs.

Revises conditions under which a veteran will be permitted to reenter a program of education assistance after having already failed such a program due to unsatisfactory conduct or progress, allowing such renewal if the school involved certifies to the Department that such veteran has been readmitted into such institution for such educational purposes.

Eliminates the bar to payment of educational assistance or subsistence allowances to an individual enrolled in certain courses not leading to a standard college degree for any day of absence in excess of 30 days in a 12-month period. Provides, in lieu, that no such payment shall be made to a person who is not pursuing their course in accordance with the policies and regulations of the educational institution and the Secretary and the requirements of veterans' educational assistance provisions. Allows the Department to discontinue such assistance allowances following unsatisfactory attendance as determined in accordance with the policies and practices of the institution involved.

Revises provisions concerning the standard for evaluating the training time of students enrolled in courses with shop training.

Provides that FY 1990 funding that the Secretary provides to State approving agencies for veterans' training curriculum development expenses may be used to train new approving agencies' employees and for continuing the training of such current employees in the development of a national veterans' training curriculum.

Authorizes the Secretary to: (1) withhold educational or rehabilitation allowances under any Department program until the required proof of enrollment and pursuit of a program of education is received and the amount of the payment is appropriately adjusted; and (2) accept the veteran's or eligible person's certification of enrollment in, and pursuit of, their program as sufficient proof of the certified matter.

Includes veterans pursuing a program of rehabilitative training due to service-connected disabilities as veterans on whose behalf the Department pays participating schools a fee to defray certain costs incurred by the school in participating in such training programs.

Revises the method for measuring pursuit of a non-degree course so that the number of college credit hours would be converted to equivalent clock hours and combined with actual clock hours being pursued to determine training time under the clock-hour measurement standards.

Authorizes the Secretary to approve the enrollment of an eligible member of the Selected Reserve or the Ready Reserve under contracts with the Department of Defense for a program of education.

Provides for a determination of the effective date of an educational benefits adjustment in education programs which require monthly self-certification.

Provides that the ten-year delimiting period for the use of veterans' educational assistance benefits shall begin on the date of the last discharge or release from active duty of at least 90 continuous days' duration, unless the individual is discharged or released for a service-connected disability, for a medical condition which preexisted such service and which the Secretary determines is not service-connected, for hardship, or as a result of a reduction in force.

Directs the Secretary, in order to assist individuals receiving Department-administered education benefits, to: (1) prepare and update periodically a detailed document describing benefits, limitations, procedures, requirements, and other important aspects of such education programs; (2) distribute copies of documents to individuals applying for such benefits, education and training institution officials, and others significantly affected, including military education personnel; and (3) use funds appropriated to the Department's readjustment benefits account to carry out this provision.

Amends Federal armed forces educational assistance provisions under the Montgomery GI Bill for both the active duty and the Selected Reserve members to authorize the Secretary to approve the pursuit of flight training by an individual entitled to basic educational assistance under either program if: (1) such training is generally accepted as necessary for the attainment of a recognizable objective in the field of aviation; (2) the individual possesses a valid private pilot's license and meets the medical requirements necessary for a commercial pilot's license; and (3) the flight school courses meet FAA standards and are approved by the FAA and the State approving agency. Terminates the approval of such flight training courses which commence after September 30, 1994. Provides the monthly amount of such assistance. Requires proof from the individual and the institution of the training received and the cost of such training before such educational assistance allowance will be paid by the Secretary. Charges an individual's general entitlement to basic educational assistance an appropriate amount for each month of flight training assistance provided. Directs the Secretary to report to the Veterans' Committees on paying educational assistance for flight training under both the armed forces educational assistance provisions and the veterans' educational assistance provisions.

Title V: Memorial Affairs - Permits payment of the headstone or marker allowance to the estate of a deceased veteran who purchased a headstone or marker prior to death.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to set aside an appropriate area in Arlington National Cemetery for the unmarked interment of the cremated remains of persons eligible for burial in that ceme- tery. Requires Secretaries of the military departments to make available appropriate forms for those who wish to be buried in such manner.

Authorizes the appointment of enlisted members of the armed forces as members of the American Battle Monuments Commis- sion.

Directs the Secretary to provide a grave liner for each new grave in an open cemetery within the National Cemetery System in which remains are interred in a casket.

Directs the Secretary to enter into a contract with the State of Michigan under which the Secretary shall operate and maintain the cemetery located in Mackinac Island State Park, Michigan.

Title VI: Miscellaneous - Expands the Department's multiyear procurement authority to include the purchase of non-health-care supplies and services.

Includes the U.S. Court of Veterans Appeals within the list of courts covered by laws requiring certain financial disclosure by judicial personnel. Requires judges and other judicial personnel of such Court, within 30 days after enactment of this Act, to file a report containing the financial disclosure information as required under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978. Grants judges of such Court the authority to administer oaths and to compel action of the Secretary unreasonably delayed.

Requires the Secretary to provide for the collocation of at least three regional offices of the Department with medical centers of the Department. Authorizes the Secretary to lease property for such purposes. Provides lease and sublease terms and conditions. Directs the Secretary to transmit copies of both the invitation for collocation offers and the proposed collocation agreements to the Veterans' Committees. Terminates on October 1, 1992, the au- thority to enter into any collocation agreements.

Authorizes the Secretary to acquire no more than three facilities for the provision of outpatient medical services or nursing-home care through lease-purchase arrangements on real property under the jurisdiction of the Department. Terminates on October 1, 1993, the authority to enter into such agreements.

Immigration Nursing Relief Act of 1989 - Provides for adjustment to immigrant status without regard to specified numerical limita- tions under the Immigration and Nationality Act for an alien (and accompanying spouse and children): (1) who as of September 1, 1989, had H-1 nonimmigrant registered nurse status; (2) who has been employed in that capacity for at least three years prior to applying for status adjustment; and (3) whose continued nursing employment meets certain labor certification requirements. Re- quires the Attorney General to issue implementing regulations within 90 days of enactment of this Act.

Provides that H-1 nurses whose visas expire December 31, 1989, shall be considered to be in legal status for 120 days after the promulgation of related Immigration and Naturalization Service regulations.

Amends the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 to authorize additional uses of State legislation impact assistance grants for: (1) amnesty program outreach; and (2) employer sanc- tions education.

Requires adjustment applications to be filed within five years of the date of such regulations issuance.

Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to establish a new procedure for the admission of nonimmigrant (H-1a) nurses. Re- quires such an alien: (1) to be licensed as a nurse in the country where he or she received nursing education, or to have received such education in the United States or Canada; and (2) to have passed an appropriate examination or to have a license and be otherwise eligible to practice immediately in the State of intended employment.

Requires the employer-facility to attest that: (1) services are necessary to avoid substantial disruption of health care services; (2) such alien's employment will not affect similarly employed nurses' wages and working conditions; (3) such alien will be paid the wage for similarly employed nurses at the facility; (4) steps are being taken to recruit and retain U.S. citizen or immigrant nurses, or that the facility is subject to an approved State plan for such purpose; (5) there is no ongoing strike or labor dispute; and (6) notice of such hiring petition has been given to the nurses' bargaining representa- tive, or conspicuously posted if no such representative exists.

States that a facility shall not meet the "substantial disruption of services" requirement if it has laid off registered nurses within the previous year.

Enumerates facility "nurse recruitment and retention" steps, in- cluding: (1) operating or financing training or career development programs; and (2) paying wages above local wage rates or provid- ing salary advancement opportunities.

Makes such attestations valid for one year. Permits multiple petitions to be filed on the basis of one attestation.

Requires the Secretary of Labor to compile and make available in Washington, D.C., a list of facility petitions and attestations.

Requires the Secretary to establish a process for the receipt, investigation, and disposition of complaints with respect to a facili- ty's failure to comply with the terms of its attestation. Authorizes: (1) an aggrieved person or organization (including a bargaining representative) to file a complaint; and (2) the Secretary to initiate an investigation. Requires: (1) the Secretary to make a determina- tion within 180 days of a complaint; and (2) a hearing on the complaint within 60 days of such determination. Authorizes civil monetary penalties (not to exceed $1,000 per violation) for viola- tions and prohibits the approval of such facility's petitions for one year. Requires the payment of back wages where appropriate.

Directs the Secretary to provide for a process under which a State may submit a plan for the recruitment and retention of U.S. citizen and immigrant nurses.

Establishes for H-1a alien nurses an initial admission period of up to three years, with an extension period not to exceed a total admissions period of five years (six years under extraordinary cir- cumstances).

Directs the Secretary to appoint an advisory group by January 1, 1991, with regard to: (1) the impact of the H-1a program on the nursing shortage; (2) recruitment and retention of U.S. nurses; and (3) program extension.

Amends provisions of the seasonal agricultural worker (SAW) program to permit the Attorney General to deny permanent status adjustment and terminate temporary resident status in the case of an alien: (1) who received such temporary status through fraud or willful misrepresentation; or (2) who is inadmissible as an alien or who has been convicted of a felony or three or more misdemeanors in the United States.

Directs the Attorney General: (1) before June 1, 1991, to consult with State governments about improving the security of State or local documents provided to the Government under the Immigra- tion and Nationality Act; and (2) report to the appropriate congres- sional committees before September 1, 1991, and again by August 1, 1993.

Directs the Attorney General to make grants to, and enter into contracts with, California and at least two other States with large immigrant populations for initiatives to improve document securi- ty. Authorizes FY 1992 appropriations.

Amends the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 to authorize additional uses of State legalization impact assistance grants for: (1) amnesty program outreach; and (2) employer sanc- tions education.

Public Law 101-239 Approved 12/19/89; H.R. 3299.

Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989 - Title I: Agriculture and Related Programs - Agricultural Reconciliation Act of 1989 - Amends the Agricultural Act of 1949 to direct the Secretary of Agriculture to permit producers to plant soybeans, sunflowers, or safflowers on up to 25 percent of the permitted acreage for 1990 crops of wheat, feed grains, cotton, and rice. Requires the Secretary to reduce such percentage (or even prohibit such plantings) if it is estimated, based on the anticipated additional soybean, sunflower, and safflower plantings, that the average market price for the 1990 soybean crop will be below 110 percent of the loan rate for the 1989 crop. Requires a report to the appropriate congressional committees. Counts any acreage planted to soybeans, sunflowers, or safflowers as acreage planted to the program crop for which they are substituted.

Sets forth a sliding-scale of acreage limitations and reductions for the 1990 crop of feed grains.

Makes across-the-board reductions in deficiency payments for the 1990 crops of: (1) wheat and corn, by 2.33 cents per bushel; (2) cotton, by .515 cents per pound; and (3) rice, by .515 cents per hundred-weight.

Amends the Disaster Assistance Act of 1988 to declare that refunds of advance deficiency payments may not be required: (1) before December 31, 1989, (currently July 31) for producers of 1988 crops of wheat, feed grains, rice, and cotton if they suffered losses of 1988 or 1989 crops due to a natural disaster; or (2) before July 31, 1990, for any such 1988 deficiency payments.

Prohibits the Commodity Credit Corporation during FY 1990 from making more than $566,000,000 in commodities available to exporters, processors, or foreign importers in order to enhance the export of U.S. commodities by making their prices competitive in the world market.

Amends the Food Security Act of 1985 to reduce the amount of targeted export assistance available for FY 1990 from $325,000,000 to $200,000,000.

Delays until October 1, 1992, the effective date of certain Farm Credit System Financial Assistance Corporation (FAC) stock purchase requirements of the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended by the Rural Development, Agriculture, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1989. Requires that FAC make, out of its Trust Fund, four annual payments (calculated according to specified formulae) to each institution of the Farm Credit System that purchased FAC stock. Makes such installments payable as soon as practicable after October 1 of each of the calendar years 1989 through 1992.

Directs the Secretary, during calendar year 1990, to offer to buy butter at no more than $1.10 per pound. Permits the Secretary to allocate the rate of price support between the purchase prices for nonfat dry milk and butter in any other manner determined to result in the lowest level of expenditures by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Requires notification of the appropriate congressional committees of such a determination.

Makes the mandatory 50 percent cut in the price support for milk discretionary.

Title II: Student Loan and Pension Fiduciary Amendments - Subtitle A: Student Loan Reconciliation Amendments - Student Loan Reconciliation Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA) to revise provisions relating to repayment of student loans by medical residents.

Provides that no borrower shall be eligible for certain student loans or be classified as a student for a deferment of student loan repayments while serving in a medical internship or residency program.

Requires lenders to grant borrowers, upon written request, forbearance from student loan repayments, renewable at 12-month intervals, for the time remaining in the borrower's medical or dental internship, residency, or fellowship program. Prohibits lenders from: (1) charging an administrative or other fee in connection with granting such a forbearance; or (2) reporting adverse information regarding a borrower solely because of granting such a forbearance.

Revises HEA provisions relating to the Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS) program. Prohibits borrowing of funds under the SLS program at an institution of higher education by any undergraduate student if that institution had a cohort default rate of 30 percent or more with respect to repayment of student loans under the SLS or the Guaranteed Student Loan (GSL) programs.

Revises maximum annual limits on individual student loan amounts under the SLS program.

Makes ability-to-benefit students ineligible for the SLS program until they have obtained a high school diploma or equivalency certificate. Requires institutions which admit ability-to-benefit students to make available to them a program proven successful in assisting students in obtaining a high school equivalency certificate.

Sets forth additional requirements with respect to the disbursement of GSL and SLS loans. Requires multiple disbursement of such student loans, with minimum intervals between first and second installments.

Prohibits endorsements of the first installment of an SLS loan to a new student borrower entering the first undergraduate year until 30 days after the borrower begins a course of study, but allows such installment to be delivered to the eligible institution prior to the end of the 30-day period. Prohibits disbursement of loans to any other student more than 30 days before the beginning of the enrollment period under GSL and SLS programs.

Sets forth requirements for methods of multiple disbursement.

Requires the lender or escrow agent to withhold a second or succeeding installment if the borrower has ceased to be enrolled on at least a half-time basis.

Requires withholding of all or part of the second installment if a student has received an overpayment in the first installment.

Excludes from such additional disbursement requirements parent (PLUS) loans, consolidation loans, and loans to cover study at an institution outside the United States.

Directs the Secretary of Education (the Secretary) to establish a student loan default reduction program. Establishes such program as an amnesty program for defaulters on loans under the Robert T. Stafford Student Loan Program. Allows borrowers with defaulted loans to fully repay the debt: (1) without penalties; (2) with any information on the defaulted loans removed from credit bureaus; and (3) with their student aid eligibility restored. Directs the Secretary to make a specified share of repayments. Sets forth other repayment incentives, including sale of loans, use of proceeds of sales, and borrower eligibility for additional loans under general loan conditions. Directs the Secretary to widely publicize the availability of such default reduction program.

Authorizes the Secretary to take certain emergency actions to impose sanctions against lenders and institutions and their agents if they violate HEA student aid program provisions.

Prohibits an institution from being certified or recertified as eligible for the Stafford Student Loan Program or other HEA title IV student assistance programs if it has lost its institutional accreditation during the preceding 24 months, unless such accreditation has been restored or the institution has demonstrated its academic integrity to the Secretary's satisfaction.

Directs the Secretary to consult with a representative group of guaranty agencies, eligible lenders, and eligible institutions to develop a mutually agreeable proposal for the establishment of a National Student Loan Data System. (Such a system is currently authorized but not mandated.) Authorizes the Secretary to require lenders, guaranty agencies, and institutions to verify information or eligiblity through such system before making, guaranteeing, or certifying student loans. Directs the Secretary to report annually to the appropriate congressional committees on the results obtained through such system.

Provides that nothing in title IV limits the authority of student financial aid administrators to: (1) make necessary adjustments to the cost of attendance and expected student and/or parent contribution under special circumstances; or (2) use supplementary information about the financial status or personal circumstance of eligible applicants in selecting recipients and determining award amounts under specified student assistance programs.

Subtitle B: Fiduciary Responsibilities - Amends the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) to provide for mandatory civil penalties for certain violations by fiduciaries.

Directs the Secretary of Labor to assess a civil penalty equal to 20 percent of the applicable recovery amount under a settlement or court order against a fiduciary or other person in the case of: (1) any breach of fiduciary responsibility or other violation of specified ERISA provisions; or (2) any knowing participation in such breach or violation by any other person. Authorizes the Secretary to have sole discretion to waive or reduce such penalty upon determination that the fiduciary or other person: (1) acted reasonably and in good faith; or (2) cannot restore all losses to the plan without severe financial hardship unless such waiver or reduction is granted. Reduces such penalty by the amount of any penalty or tax imposed on such fiduciary or other person with respect to such transaction under specified provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

Title III: Regulatory Agency Fees - Subtitle A: Federal Communications Commission Fees and Penalties - Amends the Communications Act of 1934 to adjust the Schedule of Charges assessed by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) for the provision of the following services: (1) private radio services; (2) equipment approval services/experimental radio; (3) mass media services; (4) common carrier services; and (5) miscellaneous charges. Changes to every two years after October 1, 1991, the date upon which such Schedule shall be reviewed by the FCC and adjusted to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index.

Increases fines and penalties for various failures and noncompliance under the Communications Act of 1934 (the Act).

Increases the fines assessed against those who receive from a common carrier a rebate or offset against the regular charges for the transmission of messages or signals. Makes such fines higher for broadcast station licensees or permittees, cable television operators, or applicants for cable television operation. States penalty amounts if the violator is a common carrier subject to the provisions of the Act or an applicant for a common carrier license. Requires the FCC to assess such forfeiture penalty amount via written notice.

Subtitle B: Nuclear Regulatory Commission User Fees - Amends the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 to provide that for FY 1990 the maximum amount of aggregate user charges which the Nuclear Regulatory Commission may assess from its licensees shall, when added to other amounts collected, not exceed 45 percent of the costs incurred by the Commission for such fiscal year.

Title IV: Civil Service and Postal Service Programs - Declares that the receipts and disbursements of the Postal Service Fund: (1) shall not be included in the totals of the Federal budget or the congressional budget; (2) shall be exempt from Federal budget limitations on expenditures and net lending; and (3) shall be exempt from sequestration and shall not be counted for purposes of calculating the Federal deficit.

Makes the United Postal Service liable for unfunded increases in the benefits to be paid from the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund to: (1) Postal Service annuitants who separated from service after September 30, 1986; (2) their survivors; or (3) the survivors of Postal Service employees who died after such date, when such increases result from cost-of-living adjustments.

Directs the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) to determine such increases. Requires the Postal Service to pay such increases to OPM in annual installments plus interest with the first payment due at the end of the fiscal year in which the cost-of-living adjustment becomes effective. Requires the first payment to include the total of amounts which would have been due if this Act had been enacted before October 1, 1986, plus interest. Specifies the amount of such annual installments to fund cost-of-living adjustments for FY 1987 through 1989.

Provides for the funding of health benefit premiums for survivors of Postal Service annuitants or employees of the Postal Service who died after October 1, 1986.

Mandates that required Postal Service payments to the Employees' Compensation Fund to cover costs paid from the Fund for Postal Service employee injury or death benefits must be deposited within 30 days after the Secretary of Labor furnishes a statement of the amount of such costs due from the Postal Service. Requires such deposits to remain available without fiscal year limitation.

Provides for partial deferred payments of lump-sum credit according to a specified payment schedule for certain individuals electing alternative forms of annuities if the commencement date of the annuity to be paid falls between December 2, 1989 and October 1, 1990. Directs OPM to prescribe regulations to provide that, unless the individual involved indicates otherwise by written notice to OPM, provisions for such payment of lump-sum credit shall not apply in the case of any individual: (1) who is separated from Government service involuntarily, other than for cause on charges of misconduct or delinquency; and (2) if application of such provisions would be against equity and good conscience due to a critical medical condition affecting such individual.

Title V: Veterans Programs - Extends through FY 1990 the authority of the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to collect a loan fee from veterans receiving home loans guaranteed by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Title VI: Medicare, Medicaid, Maternal and Child Health, and Other Health Provisions - Subtitle A: Medicare - Part 1: Provisions Relating to Part A - Subpart A: General Provisions - Continues payment reductions under part A (Hospital Insurance) of title XVIII (Medicare) of the Social Security Act made pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (Gramm-Rudman-Hollings Act) through 1989. Increases such payments for the remainder of FY 1990.

Amends the Medicare Program to reduce payments for the capital-related costs of inpatient hospital services for the final three quarter of FY 1990 by 15 percent.

Increases Medicare payments for the operating costs of inpatient hospital services in FY 1990 by the market basket percentage increase in such costs: (1) plus 4.22 percent for rural hospitals; (2) plus .12 percent for hospitals in large urban areas; and (3) minus .53 percent for hospitals located in other urban areas. Requires the reduction of diagnosis-related group weighting factors by 1.22 percent for FY 1990 and their annual recalibration in a budget-neutral manner. Increases payments to hospitals serving a disproportionate share of low-income patients. Continues the classification of certain hospitals as rural referral centers through FY 1992.

Alters the formula for determining the amount of payments to be made to sole community hospitals. Provides a payment adjustment to sole community hospitals and Medicare dependent, small rural hospitals which experience a decrease of more than five percent of their inpatient cases due to circumstances beyond their control so as to cover fixed costs. Redefines a sole community hospital as a hospital located more than 35 road miles from another hospital or serving as the sole source of inpatient hospital services reasonably available to part A Medicare beneficiaries in a geographical area. Maintains the sole community hospital designation of current sole community hospitals which do not satisfy the new definition of such hospitals.

Establishes a demonstration program under which the Secretary of Health and Human Services makes grants to no more than seven States for use in: (1) planning and implementing a rural health care plan and rural health networks; (2) designating hospitals or facilities as essential access community hospitals or rural primary care hospitals; and (3) developing and supporting communication and emergency transportation systems. Authorizes hospitals and facilities in grant States to apply, subject to the State's approval, to the Secretary for a grant to finance the costs it incurs in converting itself to a primary care hospital or in becoming part of a rural health network in the State in which it is located. Requires that hospitals designated as essential access community hospitals be isolated rural hospitals that have at least 75 inpatient beds and provide emergency and medical backup services to rural primary care hospitals in their rural health network and throughout their service area. Requires that rural primary care hospitals provide 24-hour emergency care and no more than 72 hours of inpatient care for no more than six inpatients. Requires States, in designating facilities as rural primary care hospitals, to give preference to facilities participating in the rural health network. Defines a "rural health network" as an organization consisting of at least one essential access community hospital, rural referral center, or urban regional referral center and at least one rural primary care hospital which cooperate in the deliverance of health care. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 for such demonstration program.

Amends the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 to extend the Rural Health Care Transition Grant Program through FY 1992, and permit hospitals to use grants received under such Program to provide instruction and consultation via telecommunications to physicians in rural health manpower shortage areas, to develop a plan for converting to rural primary care hospitals or to develop a rural health network, if located in a State participating in the preceding demonstration program.

Amends the Medicare program to treat essential access community hospitals as sole community hospitals.

Covers inpatient rural primary care hospital services.

Establishes the Medicare Geographical Classification Review Board which shall consider hospital requests for changes in their geographical classification pursuant to guidelines to be issued by the Secretary. Directs the Secretary to fashion a legislative proposal eliminating the system of determining separate average standardized payment amounts for hospitals located in large urban, other urban, or rural areas. Requires the Prospective Payment Assessment Commission to conduct a study regarding Medicare reimbursement of small rural hospitals and rural sole community hospitals.

Exempts hospitals involved extensively in cancer treatment or cancer research from the prospective payment system (PPS). Sets forth a formula for establishing the target amount to be used in determining the amount of payments to be made to such hospitals.

Increases medicare payment rates for hospice care. Requires a hospice care beneficiary to be certified as terminally ill no later than two days or eight days, if verbal certification is obtained within two days, after the initiation of such care.

Subpart B: Technical and Miscellaneous Provisions - Requires that Medicare payments for blood clotting factors administered to inpatient hemophiliacs be made on the basis of a predetermined price per unit consumed.

Allows individuals under age 65 whose entitlement to OASDI disability benefits ended due to their employment earnings to enroll in part A (Hospital Insurance) of the Medicare program. Requires the Secretary, at the request of a State, to permit qualified Medicare beneficiaries in the State (enrolled under part B of the Medicare program) to enroll in the Hospital Insurance program.

Requires studies into the appropriateness of an adjustment to the methodology of determining payment amounts for hospitals serving a disproportionate share of Medicare beneficiaries and on methods of compensating hospices for high-cost care.

Authorizes the Secretary to assign a new base period to a hospital in determining Medicare hospital payment amounts when such hospital's costs are skewed by events beyond the hospital's control or by extraordinary circumstances.

Imposes obligations on hospitals regarding the treatment of emergency medical conditions and indigent care.

Provides for the release of hospital accreditation surveys to the Secretary and the Secretary's release of survey information which relates to an enforcement action. Permits the Secretary to withdraw a hospital's Medicare-approved status on the basis of information other than accreditation surveys.

Establishes intermediate sanctions for psychiatric hospitals.

Permits certain merged or consolidated hospitals to receive Medicare periodic interim payments.

Alters the basis for judging the effectiveness of a waiver of Medicare hospital reimbursement mechanisms in favor of a State hospital reimbursement control system.

Prohibits the Secretary from requiring a hospital to change its bad debt recognition policy approved as of August 1, 1987.

Requires the Secretary to determine a nursing facility's routine service costs using data collected no earlier than October 1985.

Permits dentists to serve as hospital medical directors.

Directs the Comptroller General to conduct a study of the differences in costs and case-mix between hospital-based and free-standing skilled nursing facilities.

Prohibits the Secretary from collecting overpayments from hospitals in Massachusetts prior to May 1990 occurring during a specified statewide hospital reimbursement demonstration project.

Permits nurse practitioners and clinical nurse specialists to certify an individual's need for Medicare extended care and hospice services.

Part 2: Provisions Relating to Part B - Subpart A: General Provisions - Continues payment reductions under part B (Supplementary Medical Insurance) of the Medicare program made pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 through the first half of FY 1990.

Provides for the gradual transition, from 1992 through 1995, to the determination of Medicare payments for physician services pursuant to a fee schedule which takes into account the relative value of the work, practice expenses, and malpractice risks associated with each physician services. Allows for geographic variations in resource values and fee schedule adjustments which take into account inflation, changes in demand for and the technology of a physician service, and inadequate access to such service. Sets Medicare payments for nonparticipating physicians' services at 95 percent of the fee schedule amount. Prohibits payments for the same physician service from varying on the basis of whether or not the physician is a specialist. Sets forth sumptuary provisions. Limits nonparticipating physicians' actual charges for unassigned claims. Requires that payments for physician services to Medicaid-eligible Medicare beneficiaries be made on an assignment-related basis. Increases the incentive payment for physicians' services furnished in manpower shortage areas from five to ten percent of the payment for such services. Sets forth miscellaneous study and reporting requirements.

Amends the Public Health Service Act to create a new title to establish, within the Public Health Service, the Agency for Health Care Research and Policy (Agency) to enhance the quality, appropriateness, and effectiveness of health care services, and access to such services, through the establishment of a broad base of scientific research, and improvements in clinical practice and in the organization, financing, and delivery of health care services. Requires that the agency be headed by an Administrator for Health Care Research and Policy, to be appointed by the President. Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services, through the Administrator, to carry out the new title.

Sets forth the general authorities and duties of the Administrator, including conducting and supporting research, demonstration projects, evaluations, training, and the dissemination of information. Prohibits the Administrator from restricting the publication of data or results from projects conducted or supported under the new title, but prohibits disclosure of identifying data without consent.

Directs the Administrator and the Director of the National Library of Medicine (the Library) to enter into an agreement for indexing, abstracting, translating, publishing, and other services leading to a more effective and timely dissemination of information on research, demonstration projects, and evaluations.

Directs the Administrator to promote the development and application of appropriate health care technology assessments. Establishes at the Library an information center on health care technologies and health care technology assessment. Directs the Administrator and the Director of the Library to enter into an agreement providing for the information center the Administrator to make recommendations to the Secretary with respect to whether specific health care technologies should be reimbursable under federally financed health programs.

Establishes within the Agency the Office of the Forum for Quality and Effectiveness in Health Care, to be headed by a director to be appointed by the Administrator. Directs the Administrator, through the Director, to establish the Forum for Quality and Effectiveness in Health Care to develop, review, and update: (1) clinically relevant diagnosis and treatment guidelines for physicians and health care practitioners; and (2) standards of quality, performance measures, and medical review criteria. Requires the Director to contract with public or private nonprofit entities and convene panels of qualified experts, practicing physicians, and health care consumers for the development of such guidelines and standards.

Amends part A (General Provisions) of title XI of the Social Security Act to direct the Secretary, through the Administrator for Health Care Research and Policy, to: (1) conduct and support research with respect to the outcomes of health care services and procedures to identify how diseases and disorders can most effectively and appropriately be prevented, diagnosed, treated, and managed clinically; and (2) assure that Medicare needs and priorities are reflected in treatment-specific or condition-specific practice guidelines. Directs the Secretary to establish priorities with respect to the diseases and disorders for which outcome evaluations are to be conducted. Imposes additional duties on the Secretary concerning the administration of outcomes research and information dissemination. Authorizes appropriations for outcomes research for FY 1990 through 1994.

Amends the Public Health Service Act to establish the National Advisory Council for Health Care Policy, Research, and Evaluation to advise the Secretary and the Administrator with respect to activities of the Agency for Health Care Research and Policy.

Requires that technical and scientific peer review be conducted on each application for a grant, cooperative agreement, or contract under the new title of the Public Health Service Act added by this Act. Prohibits application approval by the administrator unless the application has been recommended for approval by a peer review group.

Directs the Administrator to: (1) establish guidelines for uniform methods of developing and collecting data under the title added by this Act; (2) assure that statistics developed under that title are of high quality, timely, comprehensive, specific, standardized, and adequately analyzed and indexed; and (3) disseminate the statistics and widely as possible.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 to carry out the title added by this Act. Requires, in addition, that a portion of amounts available under specified existing provisions of the Public Health Service Act relating to evaluations of programs be made available for evaluations under the title added by this Act.

Removes from the Public Health Service Act provisions establishing the National Center for Health Services Research and provisions providing for grants for a council on health care technology.

Directs the Secretary to request the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences to enter into a contract to: (1) recommend priorities for the assessment of specific health care technologies; and (2) assist in the establishment of the information center. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for carrying out such contract.

Provides for the transfer of information and materials developed by the council on health care technology to the Secretary in establishing the information center on health care technologies and health care technology assessment.

Amends part B (Supplementary Medical Insurance) of the Medicare program to reduce Medicare payments for a specified list of physicians' services furnished during the last three quarters of 1990.

Reduces payments for radiology services (other than portable X-ray services). Requires the Secretary to establish a relative value guide for use in all carrier localities in making payment for physician anesthesia services. Prohibits the rounding of fractional time units in calculating Medicare payments for anesthesia services.

Delays the Medicare economic index adjustment to payments for physicians' services from January 1, 1990, to April 1, 1990. Extends Medicare physician and supplier participation agreements for which a termination is not requested before December 31, 1989, through March 31, 1990. Limits increases in the Medicare economic index for the final three quarters of 1990 to: (1) zero percent for radiology services, anesthesia services and other physicians' services on a specified list; and (2) two percent for other physicians' services, excepting primary care services.

Requires the Secretary to set the customary charge for new physicians' services for the last three quarters of 1990 at 85 percent of the prevailing charge for such services. Limits payment for physician services furnished by more than one specialty.

Prohibits Medicare carriers from recovering certain part B overpayments made between July 1, 1985, and March 31, 1986.

Reduces payments for the capital-related costs of outpatient hospitals services for FY 1990 by 15 percent, except when the hospital is a sole community hospital.

Eliminates the requirement that a fee schedule for clinical diagnostic laboratory tests be established on a nationwide basis. Lowers the payment ceiling for a clinical laboratory test to 93 percent of the median of all fee schedules established for that test for that setting. Allows medicare payments for such tests to be made to the referring laboratory only if: (1) it is located in, or is part of, a rural hospital; (2) it submits payment requests for tests of which no more than 30 percent in any year are performed by another laboratory; or (3) it is involved in a common ownership relationship with the laboratory performing the test.

Delays current cost-of-living updates of payments for durable medical equipment until 1991. Establishes a 15-month cap on rental payments for an enteral or parenteral pump. Requires the payment of reasonable pump maintenance and servicing fees after the expiration of such period. Reduces payments for seat-lift chairs and transcutaneous electrical nerve stimulators furnished on or after April 1, 1990, by 15 percent. Treats power driven wheelchairs as routinely purchased durable medical equipment for Medicare payment purposes. Requires the Secretary to specify criteria to be used by carriers in deciding on a case-by-case basis whether to classify power-driven wheelchairs as customized items for payment purposes. Treats ostomy supplies as home health services which home health agencies must provide to beneficiaries who need them.

Eliminates the restriction of covered psychologist services to services furnished at community mental health centers. Covers clinical social worker services pertaining to the diagnosis and treatment of mental illnesses. Directs the Secretary to develop criteria requiring covered psychologists to consult with their patients' physicians within a reasonable time after initiating treatment so as to consider physical conditions that may be contributing to their patients' symptoms. Eliminates the dollar limitation on part B coverage of mental health services.

Covers the services of nurse practitioners working in collaboration with a physician in a nursing facility. Makes Medicare payments for such services to the nurse practitioner's employer. Requires Medicare carriers to permit routine part B payments for up to 1.5 monthly visits per resident of a nursing facility by a member of a team which includes a physician and physician assistant and/or nurse practitioner. Directs the Secretary to establish at least one demonstration project applying such limitation on visits on an average basis over the aggregate total of nursing facility residents served by team members.

Covers a screening pap smear for women who have not undergone such a test during the preceding three years or for a shorter period set by the Secretary for women at higher risk of developing cervical cancer.

Covers outpatient rural primary care hospital services. Directs the Secretary to develop and implement a prospective payment system for determining payments for such services by January 1, 1993.

Subpart B: Technical and Miscellaneous Provisions - Permits the coverage of additional inserts for therapeutic shoes for individuals with severe diabetic foot disease and the substitution of shoe modifications for inserts.

Extends indefinitely the coverage of certified registered nurse anesthetist services as inpatient hospital services when furnished at rural hospitals with 500 or fewer surgical procedures requiring anesthesia services per year.

Increases the payment limit for physical and occupational therapy services.

Requires studies into payments for portable X-ray services, ambulance services, hospital outpatient services, assistants at surgery, blood clotting factor for hemophilia patients, and standards for the use of and payment for durable medical equipment.

Amends the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 to terminate four specified municipal health service demonstration projects by January 1, 1994.

Amends the Medicare program to narrow the range of acceptable purchase prices for durable medical equipment.

Covers diagnostic tests performed in physician office labs which meet specified certification requirements.

Part 3: Provisions Relating to Parts A and B - Subpart A: General Provisions - Continues health maintenance organization (HMO) payment reductions made pursuant to the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 through 1989. Increases such payments for the remainder of FY 1990.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to provide for the disclosure of taxpayer identification information regarding a Medicare beneficiary for the determination of the extent to which such beneficiary is covered under a group health plan. Amends the Medicare program to require employers to disclose information concerning the status and nature of a beneficiary's coverage under a group health plan of the employer.

Prohibits group health plans of employers of 20 or more employees from discriminating in the provision of benefits against individuals who are entitled to Medicare benefits by reason of their eligibility for old-age insurance benefits under the OASDI program. Prohibits large group health plans from discriminating against individuals who are entitled to Medicare benefits by reason of their eligibility for disability or disability-based insurance benefits under the OASDI program. Prohibits group health plans, for 12 months, from discriminating in the provision of benefits against individuals who are entitled to Medicare benefits by reason of their affliction with end stage renal disease. Makes such group health plans primary payers against whom the Federal government may bring action to recover Medicare payments. Establishes a private cause of action against primary payers who fail to pay. Amends the Internal Revenue Code to impose a penalty excise tax against nonconforming group health plans. Repeals the denial of a tax deduction to nonconforming group health plans.

Amends the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 to maintain the current base rate for routine dialysis treatment through FY 1990. Requires that subsequent changes in such rate be subject to Medicare notice and comment requirements. Amends the Medicare program to prohibit payments for dialysis services which are determined under any method other than a method based on a single composite weighted formula from exceeding payments that would have been made under such formula for hospital-based facilities. Requires suppliers of home dialysis supplies and equipment to a patient whose self-care home dialysis is not under the direct supervision of an approved provider to work under a written agreement under which it: (1) is the sole supplier to the patient; (2) agrees to receive payment only on an assignment-related basis; and (3) certifies that it has entered into a written agreement with an approved renal dialysis provider or facility under which such provider or facility agrees to furnish such patient with all self-care home dialysis support services and all other necessary dialysis services and supplies.

Prohibits a physician from referring a patient to an entity for the provision of Medicare clinical laboratory services or an entity from presenting a claim pursuant to such referral if the physician has a financial interest in, or receives compensation from, such entity. Makes exceptions to such prohibition. Sets forth entity investment and ownership disclosure requirements. Imposes sanctions against persons who present claims for services prohibited by this Act and against physicians or entities that enter into arrangements for the purpose of prohibited referrals or violate disclosure requirements. Directs the Comptroller General to conduct a study and report to the Congress by February 1, 1991, on the ownership of hospitals by referring physicians and joint ventures between hospitals and referring physicians. Requires the Secretary to submit quarterly reports to the Congress and the Comptroller General comparing Medicare beneficiaries' utilization of entities in which the referring physician has a financial interest and their utilization of entities in which the referring physician has no such interest.

Allows a hospital to be reimbursed on a reasonable cost basis for the costs of a hospital-based nursing school if it incurs at least 50 percent of the costs of training students at such school, the school and hospital share some board members, and all instruction is provided on the hospital grounds. Prohibits the Secretary from recovering, prior to October 1, 1990, alleged Medicare overpayments attributable to nursing and allied health education. Directs the Secretary to issue regulations before July 1, 1990, regarding Medicare payment of costs for such education.

Requires the Secretary to give health maintenance organizations (HMOs) annual notice of proposed changes in the methodology used or assumptions made in calculating payment rates for each class of HMO enrollee. Modifies the requirement that HMOs in an area have a coordinated annual open enrollment period to require such coordination only if the Medicare contract of one HMO in the area is not renewed or is terminated, or reduces its service area in a way which discontinues coverage for Medicare enrollees in part of the area.

Amends the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 to delay, from April 1, 1990, to April 1, 1991, the effective date of the provision subjecting an HMO to civil penalties if it makes a payment to a physician to reduce or limit services provided to Medicare or Medicaid beneficiaries. Amends the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 to extend the prohibition on the Secretary's issuing cost-saving policies before the beginning of a fiscal year through October 15, 1990.

Subpart B: Technical and Miscellaneous Provisions - Sets forth hospital responsibilities with respect to the treatment or transfer of individuals having emergency medical conditions. Imposes penalties against physicians who engage in specified acts related to the examination, treatment, or transfer of individuals with emergency medical conditions.

Amends the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 to extend, through 1993, the application of a waiver of the Medicare requirement that HMOs must have an enrolled population of which not more than 50 percent are Medicare or Medicaid (title XIX of the Social Security Act) beneficiaries to HMOs which had a pre-existing waiver of such requirement and received specified grants in FY 1987. Directs the Secretary to conduct a study regarding staffing at the Health Care Financing Administration.

Amends part B (Peer Review) of title XI of the Social Security Act to require Peer Review Organizations (PROs) which review of non-physician services to include practitioners of such services within their review body. Requires PROs to give providers whose services are denied Medicare coverage an opportunity for reconsideration of the determination before patients or organizations responsible for paying claims are notified of such determination.

Part 4: Part B Premium - Amends part B (Supplementary Medical Insurance) of the Medicare program to extend the basic part B premium through 1990.

Subtitle B: Medicaid - Part 1: General Provisions - Amends title XIX (Medicaid) of the Social Security Act to require States to provide Medicaid coverage of children between the ages of one and five, inclusive, whose family income does not exceed 133 percent of the Federal poverty level. Gives States the option of extending such coverage to children who are age seven or eight.

Requires that States submit to the Secretary, by April 1 of each year, proposed Medicaid payment rates for obstetrical and pediatric services and such other data as will assist the Secretary in determining whether such rates are sufficient to ensure that obstetrical and pediatric services will be at least as available to Medicaid beneficiaries as they are to the general population. Requires States to immediately revise rates determined to be insufficient.

Requires States to cover ambulatory services offered to pregnant women or children by certain federally-funded health centers.

Sets forth the required components of Medicaid early and periodic screening, diagnostic, and treatment services. Requires Medicaid coverage of the measures which need to be taken to correct or ameliorate defects or conditions discovered by the screening services. Requires States to report annually to the Secretary concerning the number of children receiving such services. Directs the Secretary to establish annual participation goals for each State to increase participation in Medicaid early and periodic screening and diagnostic services.

Requires States to provide Medicaid coverage of the services provided by health centers which provide the services rural health clinics are authorized to provide and meet the requirements for receiving a grant under the Public Health Service Act.

Requires States to provide Medicaid coverage of services furnished by certified pediatric or family nurse practitioners.

Requires States to: (1) coordinate Medicaid services with the special supplemental food program for women, infants, and children (WIC) under the Child Nutrition Act of 1966; and (2) notify Medicaid - eligible pregnant, breastfeeding, or postpartum women and children under age five of WIC program benefits.

Directs the Secretary to conduct three-year demonstration projects in several States to study the effect on access to health care, private insurance coverage, and health care costs of allowing States to extend Medicaid benefits to pregnant women and children under age 20 who are not eligible for Medicaid benefits but whose income does not exceed 185 percent of the Federal poverty level. Imposes premiums on project beneficiaries whose family income exceeds the Federal poverty level. Caps project expenditures. Sets forth reporting requirements.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress by October 1, 1990, on modifications in Medicaid coverage of mental health services that may be appropriate to accommodate to any changes which may have occurred in the delivery of inpatient mental health services since 1972 and on the continued Medicaid coverage of subacute psychiatric facility services. Places a moratorium on the consideration of two specified hospitals in Michigan as mental institutions for Medicaid purposes until 180 days after the submission of such report.

Amends the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 to extend from January 1, 1990, to July 1, 1990, waivers for the demonstration project, "Modification of the Texas System of Care for the Elderly: Alternatives to the Institutionalized Aged."

Sets a floor on Medicaid payments for hospice care.

Covers Medicare cost-sharing amounts for disabled individuals who are entitled to enroll for Medicare hospital insurance benefits and whose income and resources do not exceed 200 percent of the Federal poverty level and twice the SSI resource eligibility limit, respectively. Permits States to impose a Medicaid premium on such individuals pursuant to a sliding scale which increases from 1 to 100 percent of the cost-sharing amounts as incomes move from 150 to 200 percent of the Federal poverty level.

Part 2: Technical and Miscellaneous Provisions - Makes miscellaneous technical amendments to the Medicaid program.

Subtitle C: Maternal and Child Health Block Grant Program - Amends title V (Maternal and Child Health Services) of the Social Security Act to increase authorized appropriations under the title. Adds to the purposes to which title V funds shall be devoted: (1) the promotion and provision of family-centered, community-based, coordinated care for children with special health care needs; (2) screening of newborns for sickle cell anemia, and other genetic disorders and follow-up services; (3) projects to increase the participation of obstetricians and pediatricians under the title V program; and (4) outpatient and community-based services programs for children with special health care needs provided primarily through inpatient institutional care. Changes the formula for determining the amount to be set aside for specified title V purposes.

Authorizes States to use block grant funds to pay the salaries of National Health Service Corps personnel. Prohibits States from using more than ten percent of block grant funds for administering such funds. Requires that a State apply for an allocation of title V funds, and that the application include a needs assessment and a plan for meeting those needs. Requires States to use at least: (1) 30 percent of such funds for preventive and primary care for children; and (2) 30 percent of such funds on children with special health care needs. Permits a waiver of such requirement if a State demonstrates an extraordinary unmet need for one of the activities. Requires State agencies administering a State's title V program to: (1) provide for a toll-free telephone number for parents to access information about health care providers and practitioners who provide services under titles V and XIX; and (2) assist individuals who are eligible for assistance under title XIX (Medicaid) of the Social Security Act in applying for Medicaid benefits. Requires title V providers to provide Medicaid services.

Imposes maternal and child health reporting requirements on States and the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

Provides States with: (1) Federal technical assistance in developing consistent and accurate maternal and child health data collection mechanisms; (2) assistance in the development of care coordination services; and (3) national directory listing by State of the toll-free telephone numbers mandated by this Act.

Directs the Secretary to develop: (1) a model application form for use in applying, simultaneously, for assistance for a pregnant woman or a child under age six under specified maternal and child assistance programs; (2) a model application form for use by certain individuals in applying for benefits under title XIX (Medicaid) of the Social Security Act; and (3) a national system for linking an infant's birth record, such infant's death record, and information on Medicaid claims submitted with respect to such infant or his or her birth.

Authorizes the Secretary of Health and Human Services to conduct not more than four demonstration projects to provide health insurance to medically uninsurable children under the age of 19.

Sets forth various plan requirements, including: (1) that the plan be school based; (2) non-Federal funding in specified percentages; (3) that premiums, if any, be varied by the income of the individual; and (4) evaluation and reporting requirements.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993.

Directs the Secretary to develop, publish, and make available a maternal and child health handbook. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993.

Subtitle D: Vaccine Compensation Technicals - Amends title XXI (Vaccines) of the Public Health Service Act to direct the Secretary to inform the public of the availability of the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program. Makes miscellaneous changes affecting the procedures to be followed and compensation available under the Program. Grants the U.S. Claims Court and the U.S. Claims Court special masters (currently, the U.S. Claims Court) jurisdiction over proceedings to determine entitlement to compensation under the Program.

Establishes within the U.S. Claims Court an office of special masters. Provides for the appointment, removal, terms of office, compensation and functioning of the special masters, and for the responsibilities of the chief special master.

Requires the Claims Court to promulgate rules providing for: (1) a less-adversarial, expeditious, and informal proceeding; (2) flexible and informal admissibility standards; (3) summary judgment; (4) the opportunity to submit arguments and evidence on the record without routine use of oral presentations, cross examinations, or hearings; and (5) limitations on discovery and allowing the special masters to replace the usual rules of discovery in civil actions in the Claims Court.

Provides for the responsibility and authority of the special masters. Prohibits discovery other than that required by the special master.

Provides for the disclosure and protection from disclosure of certain types of information involved in a proceeding.

Allows payment of compensation under the Program to be used as ordered by the special master to purchase an annuity or otherwise used, with the consent of the petitioner, as determined by the special master to be in the best interests of the petitioner. Requires that payment of compensation for damages associated with the administration of a vaccine before the effective date of specified provisions be determined on the basis of the net present value of the elements of compensation and paid as ordered by the master or, with consent, as determined to be in the petitioner's best interests.

Prohibits payments from the Program for any item or service covered by a State health benefits program other than title XIX (Medicaid) of the Social Security Act (currently, by any State health benefits program).

Authorizes appropriations through FY 1993 for payment of compensation under the Program.

Extends from 365 to 420 days the time period after which, if the Claims Court has not entered a judgment, the petitioner may withdraw the petition and file a civil action.

Requires that the legal representatives of children receiving vaccines be provided with a summary of relevant Federal recommendations concerning a complete schedule of childhood immunizations and the availability of the Program.

Directs the Secretary to esablish a task force on safer childhood vaccines to prepare recommendations to the Secretary on the implementation of provisions directing the Secretary to promote the development of safer childhood vaccines.

Authorizes appropriations for the administration of the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program for FY 1990 and 1991. Directs the Secretary to conduct a study and report to the Congress by January 1, 1992, concerning such Program.

Requires the Comptroller General to conduct a study regarding the loss by retirees of health benefits due to the liquidation of their employer in bankruptcy.

Declares that, if any amendment made by this subtitle is held unconstitutional, title XXI (Vaccines) of the Public Health Service Act without that amendment shall continue in effect. (Current law invalidates all of title XXI if any part of it is held unconstitutional.)

Subtitle E: Provisions with respect to COBRA Continuation Coverage - Part 1: Extension of Coverage for Disabled Employees - Amends the Internal Revenue Code with respect to excise taxes on group health plans to require that continuation of coverage under a plan be offered to a disabled beneficiary of a qualified pension plan at the time of termination of employment.

Amends the Public Health Service Act to extend the maximum required period of continuation coverage of group health plans from 18 months to 29 months for an individual determined, under title II (Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance) or title XVI (Supplemental Security Income) of the Social Security Act, to have been disabled at the time of termination or reduction in hours. Makes the extension contingent on the beneficiary's notifying the plan administrator of the determination.

Terminates extended coverage in the month following a final determination that the beneficiary is no longer disabled.

Allows increased premiums, to a specified limit, during the period of extended coverage.

Requires a recipient who is determined to have been disabled at the time of termination or reduction in hours to notify the plan administrator: (1) within 60 days of that determination; and (2) within 30 days of any final determination that the beneficiary is no longer disabled.

Amends the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 to extend from 18 to 29 months the continuation of certain health insurance coverage to be offered to those with a disability at the time of termination of employment, if they notify the plan administrator of such disability determination before the end of the 18-month period. Allows increased premiums, to a specified limit, during the period of extended coverage.

Part 2: Miscellaneous Amendments - Amends the Public Health Service Act to remove provisions specifying which rules apply, with regard to continuation coverage, to State and local governmental group health plans.

Provides that continuation coverage for qualified beneficiaries other than the covered employee shall not terminate before 36 months after the covered employee becomes entitled to benefits under title XVIII (Medicare) of the Social Security Act.

Specifies that "continuation coverage" means coverage in which, in addition to other requirements, becoming covered under any other group health plan terminates coverage only if the new coverage does not contain any preexisting condition exclusion or limitation. (Current law makes no reference to preexisting conditions.)

Prohibits a plan from requiring premium payment before 45 days after the initial election for continuation coverage. (Current law requires a plan to permit payment within 45 days of the date of the election.)

Modifies the definition of "covered employee" to mean a person, including a self-employed individual, covered under a plan because of the performance of services for one or more persons maintaining the plan.

Subtitle F: Technical and Miscellaneous Provisions Relating to Nursing Home Reform - Makes miscellaneous amendments to Medicaid and Medicare requirements imposed on nursing facilities by the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987.

Title VIII: Human Resource and Income Security Provisions - Amends part E (Foster Care and Adoption Assistance) of title IV of the Social Security Act to extend through FY 1992 the authority of States to use foster care funds to cover expenditures under part B (Child Welfare Services) of title IV of the Social Security Act.

Extends, through FY 1992, Federal funding for State programs to assist children who have attained age 16 in making the transition from foster care to independent living (Independent Living Initiatives Program). Increases payments to States for such programs. Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to report to the Congress on the effectiveness of such programs.

Amends the Child Support Enforcement Amendments of 1984 to permanently extend the provision continuing a family's Medicaid (title XIX of the Social Security Act) eligibility if such family loses eligibility under part A (Aid to Families with Dependent Children) (AFDC) of title IV of the Social Security Act) due to the collection or increased collection of child support under part D (Child Support and Establishment of Paternity) of title IV of the Social Security Act.

Amends the AFDC program to establish a new AFDC quality control system which imposes penalties on States on the basis of a sliding scale which reflects the degree to which a State's AFDC error rate exceeds the national average. Takes into account erroneous payments and underpayments in determining such error rates. Establishes a Quality Control Review Panel for the resolution of quality control review cases that are in dispute between States and the Federal government. Directs the Secretary to conduct a study and report to the Congress on negative AFDC case actions.

Prohibits the Secretary from implementing specified proposed regulations concerning the use of AFDC emergency assistance. Permits the issuance of a revised proposed regulation on such subject incorporating certain recommendations submitted by the Secretary to the Congress on July 3, 1989. Prohibits the Secretary from establishing an effective date occurring before October 1, 1990, for any fiscal regulations changing current policy regarding the use of emergency assistance or special needs funds under the AFDC program. Requires States to report, on a quarterly basis, any AFDC emergency assistance and special needs funds spent by the State to house welfare recipients in temporary living arrangements.

Amends the Foster Care and Adoption Assistance program to cover, through FY 1992, 75 percent of the costs for the short-term training of current or prospective foster or adoptive parents and the staff of licensed child-care institutions.

Requires that the written case plan developed for each foster care child include specified health and education records which are to be reviewed and updated when the child is placed in foster care and to be supplied to the foster care parent or provider.

Amends title XVI (Supplemental Security Income) (SSI) of the Social Security Act to require the Secretary to conduct an ongoing outreach program for children who are potentially eligible for SSI benefits by reason of disability or blindness.

Makes the U.S. residency requirement for SSI eligibility inapplicable to a disabled child who resides with a parent who is serving overseas with the U.S. armed forces if such child was an SSI recipient prior to such parent's overseas assignment.

Excludes parental income and resources from the determination of a disabled child's SSI eligibility if such child was receiving SSI benefits and Medicaid home care plan benefits while in a hospital, extended care, nursing, or intermediate care facility. Specifies the SSI benefit rate to which such children are entitled.

Excludes the value of domestic commercial transportation tickets received as gifts and not converted to cash from income for SSI purposes.

Treats a married couple as separate individuals for SSI eligibility and benefit determination purposes beginning with the first month following their month of separation.

Excludes interest accrued on the value of the purchase of a burial space from the buyer's income and resources for SSI purposes.

Excludes all work-related equipment from resources in SSI eligibility and benefit determinations.

Authorizes Minnesota to conduct a demonstration project to determine whether the State family investment plan helps families to become self-supporting and enhances the ability of families to care for their children more effectively than does the AFDC program. Sets forth project requirements, including the requirement that family assistance under such project be no less than the family would have received under the AFDC and Food Stamp programs. Pays Minnesota the amount it would have been paid under the AFDC program in the absence of such project plus 50 percent of its expenses in evaluating the project.

Amends title XX (Block Grants to States for Social Services) of the Social Security Act to increase the amount authorized for such program in FY 1990 and thereafter.

Title IX: Offshore Oil Pollution Compensation Fund - Amends the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act Amendments of 1978 to require a fee of three cents (currently, not to exceed such amount) on each barrel of oil from the Outer Continental Shelf.

Requires the Offshore Oil Pollution Compensation Fund to be maintained at a specified level.

Title X: Miscellaneous and Technical Social Security Act Amendments - Miscellaneous and Technical Social Security Act Amendments of 1989 - Subtitle A: Time-Sensitive Provisions - Amends title II (Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance) (OASDI) of the Social Security Act to extend the continued provision of disability benefits during appeal through June 1991.

Amends the Railroad Retirement Solvency Act of 1983 to transfer increases in FY 1990 railroad retirement tax liabilities to the Railroad Retirement Account.

Amends the Social Security Disability Amendments of 1980 to extend the authority for disability insurance demonstration projects through 1992.

Subtitle B: Technical Provisions - Amends the Internal Revenue Code to make agreements to provide OASDI coverage of U.S. citizens and residents employed abroad by a foreign affiliate of an American employer effective until the foreign entity ceases to be a foreign affiliate. Excludes refunds required to be paid to employees by employers who have duplicated Medicare (title XVIII of the Social Security Act) coverage in their employee benefit package from consideration as wages or compensation for OASDI or taxation purposes.

Amends the OASDI program to eliminate carryover reductions in retirement or disability benefits due to the receipt of widow's or widower's benefits before age 62.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to exempt certain church employees from the self-employment tax if their services are exempt from the employment tax on wages. Clarifies the inclusion of partnerships among employers eligible for religious exemption from employment taxes.

Subjects to railroad retirement taxes: (1) payments for group-term life insurance which is includable in the employee's gross income as compensation; and (2) certain deferred compensation. Excludes the value of meals or lodging from railroad retirement taxes if at the time of such furnishing it was unreasonable to believe that the employee could exclude such items from income.

Includes deferred compensation in wages for OASDI purposes.

Subtitle C: Additional Amendments - Makes individuals who attained age 18 prior to being adopted by parents who were already entitled to old-age or disability insurance benefits eligible for child's insurance benefits if they lived with or were dependent upon such parents for the year preceding their adoption.

Deems an individual who failed to apply for OASDI or SSI (title XVI) (Supplemental Security Income) of the Social Security Act) benefits due to misinformation presented by an officer or employee of the Social Security Administration (SSA) to have applied for such benefits on the later of the date such information was provided to such individual or the date such individual met all eligibility requirements for such benefits.

Guarantees that individuals whose visit to an SSA Office is occasioned by their receipt of a notice requiring a timely response or their loss or nonreceipt of OASDI or SSI benefits will be seen for an interview that same day.

Restricts the Secretary of Health and Human Services' authority to amend wage records after the expiration of the time limit for such amendments.

Requires the Secretrary to take into account an OASDI or SSI beneficiary's physicial, mental, educational or linguistic limitations in specified situations when deciding whether his or her action or omission should result in the discontinuance of benefits or forfeiture of payments.

Provides that individuals who are applying for or receiving OASDI benefits on the basis of blindness may elect to receive notice of decisions made and actions taken with respect to their rights under the program: (1) by certified mail and by telephone five days after such mailing; or (2) by some alternative procedure established by the Secretary.

Requires the Secretary to: (1) maintain the names of representatives of OASDI and SSI claimants in the SSA's electronic information retrieval system; and (2) provide written notice to such claimants of the availability of attorneys to represent them in presenting their cases before the Secretary.

Amends part A (General Provisions) of title XI of the Social Security Act to require the Secretary to provide, upon request, beginning by October 1, 1990, a social security account statement to individuals who have a social security number, have wages or self-employment earnings, and have attained age 25 (hereinafter referred to as "eligible individuals"). Directs the Secretary to assure that eligible individuals are informed of the availability of the statement. Makes the provision of such statement to each eligible individual who attains age 60 and is not receiving benefits under title II (Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance) (OASDI) of the Act mandatory from FY 1995 through 1999, if his or her mailing address can be determined. Requires the provision of such statement biennially by FY 2000 to each eligible individual who is not receiving OASDI benefits and for whom a mailing address can be determined.

Subtitle D: Human Resource and Income Security Provisions - Amends part B (Child Welfare Services) of title IV of the Social Security Act to increase authorized appropriations under such part.

Amends part E (Foster Care and Adoption Assistance) of title IV of the Social Security Act to extend through FY 1992: (1) the ceiling on Federal payments to States for foster care expenditures; and (2) the authority for States to use such payments to cover expenditures under the Child Welfare Services program. Increases the appropriations level which triggers the foster care ceiling.

Makes miscellaneous technical corrections to the Family Support Act of 1988, the Tax Reform Act of 1986, and the Social Security Act.

Provides for the conduct of demonstration projects in up to ten communities to determine the extent to which the use of volunteer senior aides in the provision of basic medical assistance and support to families with disabled or chronically ill children reduces the cost of caring for such children.

Excludes Agent Orange settlement payments from income or resources in determining eligibility for benefits under certain Federal or federally assisted programs.

Prohibits the Secretary from penalizing States under part B or E of title IV of the Social Security Act before FY 1991 by reason of a determination made in connection with any triennial review of State compliance with foster care protections.

Title XI: Miscellaneous - Declares that any transfer of outlays, receipts, or revenues from one fiscal year to an adjacent fiscal year that occurs pursuant to this Act shall be considered a necessary (but secondary) result of a significant policy change as provided under the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Reaffirmation Act of 1987 (thus allowing such transfer to be treated as altering the deficit or producing a net deficit reduction).

Rescinds the President's order for sequestration of October 16, 1989. Provides for the President to issue a new order with adjusted reductions. Requires a compliance report to the Congress by the Comptroller General with regard to a new final order of the President's. Prohibits any double reduction in Medicare.

Public Law 101-240 Approved 12/19/89; H.R. 2494.

International Development and Finance Act of 1989 - Title I: Export-Import Bank Act Amendments - Amends the Export-Import Bank Act of 1945 to remove a certain limitation on the Bank's authority to make interest subsidy payments. Limits the amounts authorized to be appropriated for such payments for FY 1990 and 1991. Extends the Bank's authority to make interest subsidy payments to October 1, 1991. Extends the Bank's authority to make interest subsidy payments to October 1, 1991.

Makes technical amendments to provisions concerning the administration of the tied aid credit program. Authorizes appropriations through FY 1991 for the Tied Aid Credit Fund.

Prohibits the Bank from providing any export financing, loans, or financial services to China. Waives such prohibitions with respect to food or agricultural commodities. Authorizes the President to waive such prohibitions if he reports to the Congress that: (1) the Chinese Government has made progress on a program of political reform in China and Tibet; or (2) it is in the U.S. national interest to terminate such suspension.

Authorizes the Bank to accept reimbursement for travel and subsistence expenses incurred by Bank employees.

Prohibits the Bank from guaranteeing, insuring, or extending credit in connection with the exports of goods (other than food or agricultural commodities) or services to Angola until the President certifies to the Congress that free and fair elections have been held in Angola and that the Angolan Government: (1) is seeking to achieve an equitable political settlement of conflict through a mutual cease-fire and a dialogue with opposition armed forces; and (2) has demonstrated progress in protecting human and worker rights and other attributes of political pluralism and democracy.

Title II: Inter-American Development Bank - Amends the Inter-American Development Bank Act to authorize the U.S. Governor of the Bank to vote for resolutions which: (1) were transmitted by the Board of Executive Directors to the Governors by resolution of April 19, 1989; (2) are pending before the Board of Governors of the Bank; and (3) provide for increases in the authorized capital stock of the Bank and resources of the Fund for Special Operations. Permits the Governor, upon adoption of such resolutions, to subscribe to a certain number of shares of the increase in capital stock and contribute a certain amount to the Fund. Authorizes appropriations to pay for such increases.

Prohibits the Secretary of the Treasury from making payments for such subscription and contribution unless the Bank has: (1) established an environmental unit to promote environmentally sustainable development in borrower countries; (2) increased the number of staff with environmentally oriented responsibilities and training and the number of environmentally beneficial projects financed by the Bank; and (3) designed a process for ensuring the access of indigenous non-governmental organizations to the process for designing such projects.

Prohibits the Secretary from making such payments until certifying to the Congress that: (1) the Bank has given the U.S. Comptroller General access to the audit memorandum issued by the Bank's Auditor General with respect to the November 1987 disbursement of funds to the Nicaraguan Government; (2) the Bank has implemented and continues to implement revised procedures issued in 1988 for collecting loan services payments in arrears and such procedures satisfy the recommendations of the Auditor General; and (3) the U.S. Comptroller General has access to all Bank documents on the same terms and conditions as such documents are available to the U.S. Executive Director of the Bank.

Directs the Secretary to instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the Bank, from 1990 to 1994, to promote an increase in the proportion of Bank lending in support of projects supporting investments in human capital and to seek the implementation by the Bank of mechanisms of consultation with locally affected populations in borrower countries through representative non-governmental organizations.

Requires the Chairman of the National Advisory Council on International Monetary and Financial Policies to include within a certain FY 1991 report a report on the progress by the Bank in achieving investments in human capital.

Directs the Secretary to encourage the Bank to: (1) limit the aggregate value of policy based loans, with specified exceptions, from 1990 through 1994; (2) instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the Bank to explore ways to use the resources made available to the Bank through the subscription and contribution for debt reduction and debt service reduction; and (3) report to the Congress on such matters.

Requires the Secretary to instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the Bank to enter into discussions with the management of the Bank and with other member countries to seek to increase Bank lending to the Caribbean region for projects which will: (1) result in expanded regional economic integration and diversification, industrial and agricultural production, and improved infrastructure; and (2) seek to ensure equitable and environmentally sustainable economic growth.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that loans made by the Bank from 1990 to 1994 should promote economic development which will reduce the growing economic dependence on the production and transit of illicit narcotics in certain borrower countries.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the Bank to encourage the provision of technical assistance to borrower countries to transform enterprises owned by the governments of such countries into privately owned, self-sufficient enterprises.

Title III: International Monetary Fund Enhanced Structural Adjustment Facility - Amends the Bretton Woods Agreements Act to authorize the U.S. Governor of the International Monetary Fund to contribute $150,000,000 to the Interest Subsidy Account of the Enhanced Structural Adjustment Facility of the Fund. Prohibits the U.S. Governor from making a commitment to contribute before such amount has been appropriated for such purpose.

Authorizes appropriations.

Requires the Secretary to instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the Fund to seek policy changes which will result in: (1) the initiation of a review of policy prescriptions to determine the social and environmental impacts of such prescriptions and whether the Fund's objectives were met; and (2) the establishment of policy options to eliminate the potential adverse impact on the well-being of the poor or the environment from economic reform programs.

Title IV: International Debt Provisions - Foreign Debt Reserving Act of 1989 - Amends the International Lending Supervision Act of 1983 to direct appropriate Federal banking agencies, by December 31, 1990, to review the exposure to risk of U.S. banking institutions arising from outstanding medium- and long-term loans made by such institutions to any highly indebted country. Requires such agencies to provide direction to such institutions regarding additions to general reserves for potential loan losses and requirements for special reserves arising from such review. Directs such agencies to include within reports required under such Act a report on such actions.

Directs the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), and the Comptroller of the Currency to report to the House Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs and the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs on the merits of mark to market accounting treatment for the sovereign debt of highly indebted countries which is held by U.S. commercial banks.

Requires the Secretary to: (1) instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the International Monetary Fund to propose that the Fund conduct a study on means by which the banking industry might help reverse capital flight from countries engaged in debt restructuring; and (2) report to the House and Senate Banking Committees on such study.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) consider specified factors when determining U.S. policy with respect to debt reduction for highly indebted countries which have substantial shares of the export market for agricultural commodities for which the United States also has a substantial share; and (2) report to the Congress on the effects of such policy on such factors in highly indebted countries.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary should continue to encourage trade liberalization as an element of economic reform programs.

Requires the Secretary to: (1) instruct the U.S. Executive Directors of the multilateral development banks, in voting on debt reduction loans, to give preferences to countries which are major producers, processors, traffickers, or exporters of illegal drugs to the United States and which show marked improvement in reducing the cultivation, trafficking, and export to the United States of illegal drugs; and (2) include in a specific report required under the International Narcotics Control Act a discussion of such program.

Title V: Alleviation of Poverty; Environmental Provisions; Debt-for-Development Swaps; Consolidation of Reporting Requirements - Subtitle A: Alleviation of Poverty - Amends the International Financial Institutions Act to direct the Secretary to instruct the U.S. Executive Directors of the multilateral banks to: (1) advocate an increase in the productive role of the poor in the economies of borrowing countries; (2) encourage and assist such countries in developing plans to eliminate poverty and achieve economic participation of the poor; and (3) require countries which receive structural adjustment assistance to have such participation strategies. Requires the Secretary to report to specified congressional committees on the progress made in implementing such programs.

Subtitle B: International Debt Exchanges and the Environment - Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the Secretary should include support for sustainable development and conservation projects when negotiating or facilitating exchanges or reductions of commercial debt of foreign countries; and (2) the Secretary and the Secretary of State should support efforts to provide adequate resources for such projects as components of the restructured commercial bank debt of heavily indebted foreign countries.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to instruct the U.S. Executive Directors of multilateral development banks to: (1) negotiate for the creation of a department in such banks to be responsible for environmental protection and resource conservation policies; (2) encourage the approval of loans which facilitate the implementation of an effective environmental policy in borrowing countries; (3) encourage such banks to assist such countries in reducing and restructuring debt through environmental loans which enable such countries to buy back debt at discount rates, at auctions in the secondary market, or through creditor negotiations; (4) seek to ensure that bank staff facilitates such countries' collaboration with local and international nongovernmental or private organizations in implementing debt-for-nature exchanges; and (5) seek to ensure that such banks adopt specified environmental policy guidelines.

Requires U.S. Executive Directors of such banks to negotiate with the other directors to provide guidelines for restoration, protection, or sustainable use policies.

Directs the Secretary to instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (World Bank) to initiate discussions with the other directors and the management and propose the establishment of a project and policy based environmental lending program to be made available to interested countries with demonstrated commitments to natural resource conservation.

Requires the Secretary to instruct the U.S. Executive Directors of multilateral banks to promote policies which: (1) increase collaboration with, strengthen, and provide assistance to nongovernmental organizations in such countries which are concerned with environmental protection; and (2) encourage international information exchange and project enhancement with such organizations, government agencies, and private voluntary organizations concerned with environmental protection in such countries.

Subtitle C: Environmental Impact Assessments - Precludes the U.S. Executive Directors of multilateral development banks from voting in favor of any proposed action which would have a significant environmental impact unless a comprehensive environmental impact assessment has been furnished. Directs the Secretary to seek the adoption of policies which make such assessments available to member countries. Requires that: (1) an environmental impact assessment accompany loan proposals through the agency review process; (2) such banks develop and make available to member governments and borrowers a systematic environmental assessment procedure for development projects; and (3) appropriate U.S. government personnel be made available to train and assist bank staff in making environmental impact assessments.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to report to certain congressional committees on the efficacy of U.S. efforts to encourage consistent and timely environmental impact assessments of proposed multilateral development bank actions.

Subtitle D: Debt-for-Development Swaps - Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) debt-for-development swaps provide banking institutions with constructive opportunities for debt reduction and highly-indebted countries with a creative method of reducing debt; (2) such institutions should give consideration to engaging in such swaps as a means of strengthening loan portfolios; and (3) in order to avoid bias against such swaps in the regulatory framework applicable to financial reporting by such institutions, where payment is made in local currency at the free market rate, recognition of the fair market exchange value of such currency should be made. Requires appropriate Federal banking agencies to adopt uniform guidelines concerning the regulatory framework and accounting treatment of swaps involving payments in local currency.

Subtitle E: Consolidation of Certain Reporting Requirements - Directs the Chairman of the National Advisory Council on International Monetary and Financial Policies to report annually to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and the President on U.S. participation in international financial institutions. Requires the Chairman, at the request of the House Banking Committee, to testify on such reports.

Directs the Secretary to transmit to the Congress copies of the monthly operating summary of the World Bank (showing loan proposals or appraisal reports) and comparable documents prepared by other multilateral development banks.

Requires the Administrator of the Agency for International Development to consolidate reports required under the International Financial Institutions Act and the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations Act, 1988 and submit a combined report to specified congressional committees on the effect of multilateral development bank loans on the environment, public health, and indigenous peoples.

Directs the Secretary to instruct the U.S. Executive Directors of the multilateral development banks to ensure that information relating to potential procurement opportunities for U.S. firms is expeditiously communicated to the Secretary, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, and to businesses.

Requires the Secretary of the Treasury to consult with the Chairman and specified congressional members before any discussion by any U.S. official concerning the placement or removal of a principal officer of an international financial institution.

Incorporates provisions of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 concerning export enhancement and multilateral development bank procurement into the International Financial Institutions Act.

Requires the Secretary to report quarterly to the Chairman and to specified congressional members on all loans considered by international financial institutions listed under the International Financial Institutions Act.

Title VI: Miscellaneous Provisions - Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary should instruct the U.S. Executive Directors of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund to urge that their institutions move as expeditiously as possible in acting upon loan requests from, and disbursing approved loans to, Poland.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary should instruct certain multilateral lending institutions to: (1) act promptly upon requests by Poland for the establishment of financial institutions and businesses involved in credit and financial services in Poland; and (2) propose that such institutions prohibit financial assistance or debt forgiveness to Poland until the Polish Government allows privately owned entities in foreign countries to invest in private commercial ventures in Poland.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should: (1) instruct the U.S. Executive Directors of the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank to oppose the extension of any financial or technical assistance to China; and (2) consider China to be a country engaging in gross violations of human rights for purposes of the International Financial Institutions Act until the President determines that the repression and reprisals against persons in connection with prodemocracy demonstrations has ended.

Title VII: Miscellaneous - Global Environmental Protection Assistance Act of 1989 - Part A: Commercial Debt-for-Nature Exchanges - Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to authorize the Administrator of the Agency for International Development to furnish grants to nongovernmental organizations for the purchase of a foreign government's discounted commercial debt which will be canceled or redeemed as part of a debt-for-nature exchange. Requires the Administrator to ensure that such exchanges support specified environmental activities. Directs the Administrator to identify areas which are in particular need of immediate attention to prevent the loss of unique biological life or a valuable ecosystem. Requires the Administrator to encourage as many countries as possible to propose such exchanges to demonstrate the feasibility and benefits of sustainable development. Directs the Administrator, in order for a country to be eligible for a debt-for-nature exchange, to determine that the country has a long-term plan and an agency to oversee the long-term viability of a nature program. Prohibits the U.S. Government from accepting title or interest in any land in a foreign country as a condition of the debt exchange.

Requires the Administrator to invite the government of each Subsaharan African country to submit a list of: (1) areas of severely degraded natural resources which threaten human survival and well-being and the opportunity for future economic growth; or (2) areas of biological and ecological importance in such country. Directs the Administrator to reach agreement with a host country for the restoration and sustainable use of such areas. Authorizes the Administrator to make grants to nongovernmental organizations for the purchase of such countries' discounted commercial debt in exchange for such countries' commitments to restore natural resources and develop plans for sustainable use of such resources.

Part B: Multilateral Foreign Assistance Coordination - Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary of State should seek to develop an increased consideration of global warming, tropical deforestation, sustainable development, and biological diversity among the highest goals of bilateral foreign assistance programs of all countries. Declares that the Secretary, acting through the Development Assistance Committee of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, should initiate negotiations among member countries on a coordinated approach to global warming, tropical deforestation, sustainable development, and biological diversity through bilateral assistance programs.

Title VIII: Effective Date - Provides that this Act shall take effect on the date of enactment of this Act.

Other Measures Receiving Action

SENATE BILLS

S. 1 Sen. Thurmond, et al.; 1/25/89

Integrity in Post Employment Act of 1989 - Amends the Federal criminal code to revise provisions regarding former Federal employees attempting to influence the Government.

Makes it unlawful, within one year after employment or service has ceased, for: (1) former senior officials to lobby their former employing agency; (2) former top level officials (Cabinet Secretaries and Deputy Secretaries) to lobby any executive or independent agency or any Member of Congress; and (3) former Members of Congress to lobby any entity of the legislative branch or any top level official of the executive branch.

Prohibits any senior or top level official, within 18 months after employment has ceased, from being employed by, representing, or advising a foreign entity for compensation, financial gain, or other remuneration.

Prohibits any person from acting as an agent and communicating on behalf of such former officials and Members of Congress.

Includes as exceptions to such prohibitions: (1) any person who is engaging solely in the solicitation or collection of funds and contributions within the United States to be used only for medical assistance, food, or clothing to relieve human suffering; or (2) any person who is providing a statement based on that person's special knowledge, provided that no compensation is received for such statement other than that regularly provided by law for witnesses.

Increases the criminal and civil penalties for violations of this Act.

Prohibits the partner of a Member, officer, or employee of the legislative branch in a partnership for the provision of professional services from acting as an agent or attorney for, or otherwise representing, any other person other than the United States in lobbying activities in either House of Congress.

Provides for the imposition of penalties upon any Member of Congress who: (1) affiliates with a firm, partnership, association, or corporation for the purpose of providing professional services for compensation; (2) permits the use of the Member's name by such firm, partnership, association, or corporation; or (3) practices a profession for compensation.

Amends the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 to prohibit Members of Congress from converting excess campaign funds to their personal use.

Title II: Fairness in Personal Campaign Expenditures - Amends the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 to prohibit any candidate for Federal office who makes expenditures from personal funds or the personal funds of the candidate's immediate family to the candidate's campaign committee, or makes a loan from such funds to such committee, from using any other contributions made after the election to such candidate or committee to repay such expenditure or loan.

S. 4 Sen. Kennedy, et al.; 1/25/89

Minimum Wage Restoration Act of 1989 - Amends the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to increase the Federal minimum wage per hour from $3.35 to: (1) $3.85 in 1990; (2) $4.25 in 1991; and (3) $4.65 in 1992 and thereafter.

Increases the small business exemption by revising the definition of an enterprise engaged in commerce for purposes of coverage under the Act ("the enterprise test"). Exempts from such coverage retail or service establishments whose annual gross volume of sales or business is less than $500,000 (currently $362,500), effective in 1989. Requires employers who were covered in 1988, but who are exempt under the new threshold, to continue to pay the $3.35 per hour minimum wage (and continue to be covered by overtime and child labor provisions of the Act).

Removes the Virgin Islands from coverage by provisions for special industry committee minimum wage determinations and orders, including those involving employment under special certificates for learners, apprentices, and messengers and for students. Adds references to American Samoa under such provisions (American Samoa is currently covered by references under other special minimum wage provisions). Removes references to Puerto Rico under such provisions, but continues and revises the special minimum wage treatment of Puerto Rico as follows: (1) in addition to designated types of employees (Federal, hotel, motel, restaurant, and food service) entitled to receive the full Federal minimum wage, employees in industries averaging $4.65 or more per hour would be so entitled; (2) employees in industries averaging from $4.00 to $4.64 per hour would receive the full rate in 1994 after a five-year of gradual increases; (3) employees in industries averaging less than $4.00 per hour would receive the full rate in 1995 after a six-year period of gradual increases; and (4) employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a municipality or other governmental entity of the Commonwealth, in categories averaging less than $4.00 per hour and covered by 1985 amendments to the Act, would receive the full rate in 1996 after a seven-year period of gradual increases.

Increases the tip credit under the Act from 40 percent to 45 percent for 1990 and to 50 percent for 1991 and thereafter. (The tip credit deems the amount paid to a tipped employee, for minimum wage purposes, to be increased by an amount determined by the employer, but not by an amount in excess of the specified percentage of the applicable minimum wage rate).

S. 5 Sen. Dodd, et al.; 1/25/89

Act for Better Child Care Services of 1989 - Title I: Child Care Services - Act for Better Child Care - Makes eligible for services under this Act children: (1) who are less than 13 years of age; (2) whose family income does not exceed the State median income for a family of the same size; and (3) who either reside with a parent or parents who are working, seeking employment, or enrolled in a job training or educational program, or reside with a parent or parents not thus described and receive or need to receive protective services.

Authorizes appropriations for: (1) FY 1990 through FY 1994 to carry out this Act generally, with ten percent of such funds for FY 1993 and 1994 earmarked for standards improvement incentive grants; and (2) FY 1990 for the child care liability risk retention group, to remain available through FY 1994.

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services (the Secretary) to make grants to applicant Indian tribes or tribal organizations for programs and activities under this Act for the benefit of Indian children.

Requires the designation of a lead agency in each State which participates in the program under this Act. Requires the chief executive of a State which has not designated a lead agency to establish a State Child Care Board to fill that role.

Requires States to submit, in order to qualify for assistance under this Act, an application and three-year plan to the Secretary.

Requires the plan to specify that at least 70 percent of the State allotment will be used to provide qualified child care services to eligible children, on a sliding fee scale basis (according to specified funding methods) with priority given to services to children of families with very low incomes for their size.

Requires that child care services provided out of a State allotment be provided by: (1) contracts directly with or direct grants to eligible child care providers; (2) grants to local governments to contract with such providers to provide such services directly; or (3) child care certificates distributed to parents of eligible children to enable them to purchase such services from such providers.

Requires that a specified portion of State allotment funds be used to enable providers to extend the hours of operation of part-day programs to provide full-working-day child care services throughout the year.

Prohibits financial assistance under this Act from being expended for the construction of a new facility, and sets forth limitations on such assistance for renovation or repair of existing facilities.

Authorizes the Secretary to make planning grants, in the first year of their program participation, to States which desire to participate under this Act but cannot fully satisfy the requirements of a State plan without financial assistance.

Provides for a review of the operation of a State plan during the three-year period to determine the State's continued eligibility for funds beyond such period.

Directs the Governor of each participating State to establish, and appoint members of, a State advisory committee on child care to assist the lead agency, review and evaluate services, make recommendations on standards and practices, and perform other functions to improve the quantity and quality of child care services. Requires the committee to have a subcommittee on licensing to review the laws applicable to, and the licensing requirements and policies of, each licensing agency regulating child care services and programs in the State (unless the State has done such a review during the four years before the establishment of the committee). Requires the committee to report to the Governor on specified matters, and the Governor to report to the Secretary with comments and a plan for correcting or improving licensing, regulating, and monitoring of child care services and programs.

Requires States receiving funds under this Act to designate private nonprofit community-based organizations or public organizations, including local governments, as resource and referral agencies for particular areas, and to provide assistance to such agencies.

Requires each participating State to require that all employed or self-employed persons providing licensed or regulated child care complete a minimum number of hours per year of specified training. Permits the State to make grants to, and enter into contracts with, specified entities to provide such training to eligible providers, including family child care providers.

Authorizes participating States to provide scholarship assistance to: (1) individuals who seek a nationally recognized child development associate credential for center-based or family child care; and (2) caregivers who seek to obtain the 40-hour minimum annual training and whose income is not above the poverty line.

Requires States to establish in the lead agency a clearinghouse to collect and disseminate training materials to resource and referral agencies and child care providers.

Provides for child care public-private partnership. Requires participating States to carry out activities designed to encourage businesses to support or provide child care services to a reasonable mix of children of employees and nonemployees, including those from different socioeconomic backgrounds.

Establishes the President's Award for Responsive Management Policy to honor public and private sector employers who have: (1) successfully implemented personnel programs and policies responsive to child care needs of working parents; or (2) made significant contributions to child care projects. Directs the Secretary of Labor to promulgate regulations for annual awards by the President.

Establishes in the Department of Health and Human Services the position of Administrator of Child Care who shall: (1) coordinate all activities of the Department and of other Federal agencies relating to child care; (2) annually collect and publish State child care standards, including periodic modifications; (3) evaluate activities funded under this Act; (4) act as a clearinghouse for specified matters, including studies on salaries of child care workers; and (5) provide technical assistance to States to carry out this Act.

Establishes enforcement provisions for review of State plans and monitoring of State compliance.

Sets the Federal share for funding activities under a State plan at 80 percent.

Requires the Secretary to establish a National Advisory Committee on Recommended Child Care Standards to: (1) review Federal policies on child care services and such other data as appropriate; (2) submit to the Secretary proposed recommended standards for child care programs; and (3) develop and make available to lead agencies model regulations for resource and referral agencies. Prescribes a procedure fo the issuance of such standards. Terminates the Committee 90 days after the Secretary establishes such standards.

Directs the Secretary to establish a program of incentive grants to assist States in improving their child care standards.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a national study on child care standards and report the results to the appropriate congressional committees.

Prohibits financial assistance under this Act from being used for: (1) any sectarian purpose or activity, including sectarian worship and instruction (except where the provider receives funds resulting from distribution of a child care certificate to a parent, or the provider is a relative of the eligible child in certain circumstances); and (2) with regard to services to students in grades one through 12, any services during the regular school day, or for which academic credit is given toward graduation, or which supplant or duplicate a public or private school academic program.

States that financial assistance under this Act constitutes Federal financial assistance for purposes of various civil rights and nondiscrimination laws.

Prohibits a child care provider that receives assistance under this Act from discriminating: (1) against any child on the basis of religion in providing child care services; or (2) in employment on the basis of the religion of the prospective employee if such employee's primary responsibility is or will be working directly with children in the provision of child services. Makes exceptions with respect to non-funded child care slots, two or more qualified applicants for employment, and present employees. Requires specific assurances of such religious nondiscrimination in the case of providers receiving 80 percent or more of their operating budget from assistance under this Act. Provides for the severability of such religious nondiscrimination provisions.

Provides that nothing in this Act shall be construed or applied in any manner to infringe upon or usurp the moral and legal rights and responsibilities of parents or legal guardians.

Authorizes any State to assist in the establishment and operation of a child care liability risk retention group (i.e., a corporation or other limited liability association whose members are child care providers licensed or accredited pursuant to State and local law and standards, and which otherwise satisfies specified criteria for risk retention groups).

Directs the Secretary to make allotments to each State for such child care liability risk retention groups, on the basis of a specified formula.

Amends the Head Start Act to increase the amount of appropriations authorized for FY 1990 for the Head Start program.

Declares that nothing in this Act shall be construed to require the training or licensing of individuals to provide child care to other family members.

Provides for direct allotments of Federal funds to local governments in any fiscal year that a State does not seek or receive assistance under this Act.

Title II: Internal Revenue Code Provisions - Child Care and Health Insurance Act of 1989 - Subtitle A: Tax Credit for Certain Health Insurance Premiums and Child Care and Supplemental Earned Income Credit for Families With Young Children - Amends the Internal Revenue Code to increase the tax by the credit percentage of qualified health insurance premiums credit for expenses for household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment.

Makes the dependent care and health insurance premium credit refundable for low- and moderate-income taxpayers.

Requires employers to make advance payments of the dependent care credit to eligible employees.

Increases the dependent care credit for low-income taxpayers.

Declares that employment-related expenses or qualifying health insurance expenses that are subsidized by Federal, State, or local government are not eligible for the tax credit.

Allows a supplemental earned income credit for individuals with one or more children under age four.

Requires the Comptroller General to report to the appropriate congressional committees on a study of the effectiveness and complexity of the advance payment system.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to establish a taxpayer awareness program to inform the public of the availability of the credit for dependent care and health insurance premiums.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1994 for the Secretary of Health and Human Services to conduct demonstration projects to extend health insurance to children and their families who are not covered by public or private health programs.

Subtitle B: Employee Benefit Nondiscrimination Rules - Amends the Tax Reform Act of 1986 to delay until 1990 the effective date of the nondiscrimination requirements for benefits provided under certain employee benefit plans.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to revise such (section 89) nondiscrimination requirements by requiring the taxation of the excess health benefits of a highly compensated employee. Excludes from such requirements certain students, certain elderly, prisoners, certain church employees, and five-percent owners with an adjusted gross income of under $30,000.

Imposes an excise tax on employers or employer plans if an employee benefit plan fails to satisfy certain administrative requirements.

Restores prior law with resepct to nondiscrimination requirements of group-term life insurance plans.

Authorizes an employer to elect to use current nondiscrimination rules for years beginning 1990 or 1991 as they apply to health plans and dependent care assistance programs.

Delays the application of section 89 to small employers until January 1, 1991. Directs the Secretary of the Treasury (or a delegate) to study whether discrimination in favor of highly compensated employees occurs in the providing of employee benefits by small employers. Requires a report on such study to specified congressional committees by July 1, 1990.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury (or a delegate) to issue compliance guidance with respect to section 89 by January 1, 1990.

Revises provisions relating to the nontaxable benefits of employers of leased employees, the dependent care assistance program, and group-term life insurance provided to highly compensated employees.

Directs the United States Bipartisan Commission on Comprehensive Health Care to study the implementation and effectiveness of (section 89) nondiscrimination requirements.

Subtitle C: Other Revenue Provisions - Makes the telephone excise tax permanent. Specifies the time for the deposit of such taxes. Requires certain persons who are exempt from such tax to file a one-time exemption certificate.

Requires an S corporation to make estimated tax payments if it has tax attributable to: (1) the recognition of certain build-in gains; (2) the realization of excess passive income; and (3) the recapture of certain investment tax credits.

Title III: Social Security Act Amendments - Amends title II (Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance) the Social Security Act to increase from $8,800 to $10,560 the amount of earnings exempt from the retirement test and its attendant benefits reductions. Lowers the rate of benefit reductions for earnings above the exempt amount from 50 percent to 25 percent. Revises the effective dates of certain benefits recomputations. Provides for payment of retroactive benefits as an increase in monthly benefit amounts.

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services, beginning with FY 1991, to provide every eligible individual upon request a social security account statement with information on wages, insurance contributions, and potential benefits. Requires the Secretary: (1) by September 30, 1994, to provide such a statement to every eligible individual who attained age 60 by October 1, 1993, who is not yet receiving old age, survivors and disability (OASDI) benefits; (2) in FY 1994 through 1999 to provide such a statement to every eligible individual reaching age 60 during those fiscal years who is not yet receiving OASDI benefits; and (3) beginning by FY 2000 to provide such a statement to every eligible individual biennially. Limits this statement provision requirement to individuals whose mailing address can be determined. Requires a report to the Congress by October 1, 1996, on the implementation of these requirements.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury, upon written request, to disclose to the Commissioner of Social Security the mailing address of any taxpayer entitled to receive social security benefits.

Amends the Social Security Act to exempt child-care earnings for services performed by an individual after he or she becomes entitled to OASDI benefits from wages and self-employment income subject to the excess earnings test.

Title IV: General Provisions - Declares that it is the sense of the Congress that $10,000,000 should be appropriated in FY 1990 for special child care assistance for low-income students.

Amends Federal law to establish a fine of up to $1,000 or a prison sentence of up to one year, or both, for anyone who knowingly and publicly mutilates, defaces, burns, displays on the floor or ground, or tramples upon any flag of the United States.

S. 13 Sen. Cranston, et al.; 1/25/89

Veterans Benefits and Health Care Act of 1989 - Title I: Compensation and Pension - Directs the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to increase: (1) the rates of, and limitations on, Department of Veterans Affairs disability compensation and dependency and indemnity compensation; and (2) rates of certain disability compensation that were increased to coincide with benefit increases under title II (Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance) of the Social Security Act. Requires monthly rates to be rounded to the next lower dollar for disabilities at 20 percent or below, and to the next higher dollar for disabilities in excess of 20 percent. Requires such rate increases to be published by the Secretary in the Federal Register.

Expands the eligibility for a veterans' clothing allowance to authorize such allowance for veterans who, because of a compensable disability, use medication for a service-connected skin condition which stains or damages such veteran's clothing.

Increases from $60 to $105 the monthly pension payable to a veteran having neither spouse nor child and being furnished domiciliary care by the Department. Extends from three to eight months the period of hospitalization permitted for a veteran having neither spouse nor child before the $105 monthly pension benefits are reduced. Authorizes the Secretary to extend such period for up to four months if the Secretary determines that the veteran is likely to be discharged from the hospital within a reasonably short period.

Increases from $1,500 to $6,000 the value of the estate allowed a hospitalized incompetent veteran without dependents before the Department suspends the veteran's compensation or benefits. Increases from $500 to $2,000 the amount to which an estate must be reduced before such benefits may be resumed.

Title II: Health Care - Part A: Mental Health - Authorizes the provision of health care and services for veterans of World War I or II, the Korean Conflict, the Vietnam Era, or in any other area during a period in which hostilities occurred who have been diagnosed to be suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder related to such service, even though such disorder has not been determined to be service-connected. Requires the Department to accomplish an evaluation of a veteran within seven days after referral of such veteran to a Department health-care facility from a Vet Center (a center for treatment of veterans with mental illness disabilities).

Expands eligibility for readjustment counseling at Vet Centers to include veterans of wars prior to Vietnam and veterans of service in any areas in which U.S. personnel were subjected to danger from armed conflict comparable to that occurring in battle with an enemy during a period of war.

Directs the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, until September 30, 1992, to conduct a program to provide care and treatment and rehabilitative services in halfway houses, therapeutic communities, psychiatric residential treatment centers, and other community-based treatment facilities to homeless veterans suffering from chronic mental illness disabilities. Requires the Secretary, before providing such care, to approve the quality and effectiveness of the program operated by such facility. Authorizes the Secretary to provide in-kind assistance to a non-Department facility which is furnishing care and services to veterans under these provisions, with certain limitations, including reimbursement to the Department for the full cost of such assistance.

Directs the Secretary to report to the Senate and House Veterans' Affairs Committees on the experience of the Department with regard to the provision of such care and services and continuation of the program.

Directs the Secretary to establish and operate up to five Department health-care facilities as centers of mental illness research, education, and clinical activities, taking into account appropriate geographic distribution of such facilities.

Precludes the Secretary from designating any health-care facility as such a center unless the facility has (or may reasonably be anticipated to develop): (1) an arrangement with an accredited medical school and graduate school of psychology which provides education and training in psychiatry and psychology through regular rotation through such center so as to provide training in the diagnosis and treatment of mental illness; (2) an arrangement under which nurses, social workers, or other allied health personnel receive education and training in mental health care through regular rotation through such facility; (3) the ability to attract the participation of scientists who are capable of ingenuity and creativity in research into the causes, treatment, and prevention of mental illness and into models for furnishing care and treatment to veterans suffering from mental illness; (4) a policymaking advisory committee to advise the directors of such facility and center on policy matters pertaining to the activities of such center; and (5) the capability to conduct effectively evaluations of the activities of such center.

Authorizes appropriations.

Declares that activities of clinical and scientific investigation at each center shall be eligible to compete for the award of funding from funds appropriated for the Department's medical and prosthetics research account and shall receive priority insofar as funds are awarded to projects for mental illness.

Requires the Chief Medical Director to ensure that: (1) research activities carried out through such centers include an appropriate emphasis on the psychosocial dimension of mental illness and on models for furnishing care and treatment to veterans suffering from mental illness; and (2) useful information produced by the centers is disseminated throughout the Veterans Health Services and Research Administration.

Requires the Secretary to submit to the House and Senate Committees on Veterans' Affairs an annual report on activities and effectiveness of the centers.

Directs the Special Committee on Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder to submit to the Secretary and the Senate and House Veterans' Affairs Committees no later than January 1, 1990, a report on the Committee's evaluation of the results of a study required under the Veteran's Health Care Amendments of 1983 relating to the diagnosis and treatment of veterans suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder. Directs the Secretary to comment to the veterans' committees concerning such report. Requires the Committee to update certain reports required of the Committee under the Veterans' Health Care Act of 1984 and requires the Secretary to comment to the veterans' committees concerning such updates.

Requires the National Center on Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder to provide for a study of the extent and effectiveness of the Department's outreach program and treatment services for Vietnam veterans who are Asian-American, American-Indian, Native-Hawaiian, and other Native-American Pacific Islanders, Alaska Natives, blacks, or Hispanic Americans who suffer from post-traumatic stress disorder or other psychological problems. Requires the Center to report to the Secretary and the Veterans' Affairs Committees on study results, together with findings and recommendations.

Directs the Secretary, in certain papers required to be submitted to the President annually, to identify the amounts in the appropriations requests for the VA that are estimated to be obligated for payments and treatments for veterans suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder, and for education, training, research, and the operation of the National Center on Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder.

Part B: General Health - Includes within the definition of "medical services" for coverage under Federal veterans' benefits provisions services to achieve pregnancy in a veteran or a veteran's spouse when such services are necessary to overcome a service-connected disability impairing the veteran's procreative ability. Directs the Chief Medical Director to appoint an advisory committee to advise the CMD on the exercise of authority to furnish such services.

Authorizes use of the Special Therapeutic and Rehabilitation Activities Fund of the Department for the payment of travel and related expenses necessary for the training of employees in the administration of therapeutic and rehabilitative services.

Directs the Secretary, during FY 1990-1994, to conduct a compensated work therapy and therapeutic residence pilot program (CWTTR). Directs the Secretary to establish nonprofit corporations for the making of contracts for conducting work therapy programs under the CWTTR program at no less than ten or more than 15 Department medical centers operating such programs. Requires the Secretary to be assured from a nonprofit corporation that it will operate a therapeutic residence for eligible veterans in conjunction with an existing compensated work therapy program at a medical center. Allows for the provision of in-kind services from the Secretary to the corporation, including technical and clinical advice, supervision of activities, and minor maintenance and repairs to a therapeutic residence. Authorizes the Secretary to lend amounts to a corporation in order to assist such corporations to lease or purchase property for use as such therapeutic residential treatment centers. Provides loan limits and other administrative provisions concerning such loans. Directs the Secretary to transfer to the Veterans Health Services and Research Administration no less than ten residences acquired by the Department for use for such centers. Requires each such property to be leased to a nonprofit corporation for operation as a therapeutic residence under the pilot program. Outlines lease conditions and other administrative provisions concerning the establishment of nonprofit corporations for therapeutic residences. Requires each such corporation to submit to the Secretary annual reports providing a detailed statement of its operations, activities, and accomplishments during the preceding year. Requires the Secretary to report to the veterans' committees concerning each such corporation and its participation under the pilot program.

Requires the Secretary, under the pilot program, to operate residences as therapeutic residences for the furnishing of transitional housing solely for veterans who are furnished compensated work therapy under applicable Federal law. Authorizes the Secretary to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire residential housing for the purpose of furnishing such transitional housing for veterans being furnished compensated work therapy. Outlines the following conditions for the operation of such transitional housing: (1) that only qualified veterans and a house manager live in such residence; (2) that each resident (other than the house manager) pay the Department rent for the period of residence in such housing; (3) that, in the establishment and operation of such housing, the Secretary must comply with all local zoning, building, and other similar requirements; and (4) that the residence meet the State and community fire and safety requirements applicable to property used for similar purposes. Authorizes the Secretary to provide for free room and subsistence for a house manager. Requires the Chief Medical Director to be responsible for the management, maintenance, and disposition of property acquired for such transitional housing. Authorizes the Secretary to dispose of such property when no longer used for such purpose. Authorizes appropriations. Requires the Secretary to report to the veterans' committees on the experience under the pilot program.

Allows the Secretary to authorize the establishment of one or more nonprofit corporations to provide a flexible funding mechanism for the conduct of Department compensated work therapy programs for veterans (including homeless veterans) in such community or communities as the Secretary may designate. Requires such corporations to be established solely for such programs. Requires funds received by such a corporation for the conduct of such programs to be transferred to the Special Therapeutic and Rehabilitation Activities Fund. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the establishment and operation of each such nonprofit corporation, including provisions concerning: (1) the board of directors and executive officers; (2) general powers; (3) applicable State law; and (4) accountability and oversight. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress no later than February 1, 1992, on the experience under the program. Prohibits the establishment of any nonprofit corporation for such purposes after September 30, 1992.

Authorizes the use of the Special Therapeutic and Rehabilitation Activities Fund for the purchase of property to be used for transitional housing under this Act.

Directs the Secretary, during the four-year period beginning on October 1, 1989, to conduct a pilot program for the furnishing of medical, rehabilitative, and health-related services in noninstitutional settings for veterans who: (1) are eligible for nursing home care; (2) are in receipt or in need of nursing home care primarily for the treatment of a service-connected disability; and (3) have a service-connected disability rated at 50 percent or more. Directs the Secretary, under such program, to: (1) furnish appropriate health-related services solely through contracts with appropriate public and private agencies that provide such services; and (2) in the case of each veteran provided services under the program, appoint a Department health-care employee to furnish case management services. Authorizes the Secretary to provide in-kind assistance (through the services of Department employees and the sharing of other Department resources) to a facility furnishing such noninstitutional services to veterans. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the provision of such in-kind assistance. Limits the total cost of the provision of such alternative services to eligible veterans to 65 percent of the cost that would have been incurred by the Department if the Department had furnished such nursing home care to such veteran. Directs the Secretary to report to the veterans' committees the Secretary's evaluation, findings, and conclusions regarding the provision of such alternative noninstitutional care.

Extends through FY 1994 the pilot program for the furnishing of preventive health-care services for veterans by the Secretary. Directs the Secretary to implement annually at each Department facility a major preventive health-care and health-promotion initiative for any veteran receiving other care and services administered through the Secretary. Limits expenditures for such programs and initiatives through FY 1994.

Directs the Chief Medical Director (CMD) of the Veterans Health Services and Research Administration to designate an official in such Administration as the Director of Preventive Health-Care and Health-Promotion Programs. Requires such Director to prepare guidance regarding, to be responsible for coordinating and evaluating, and to advise the CMD on, all activities carried out under such program and initiatives.

Requires the Secretary to submit to the veterans' committees an interim and final report on experiences under the pilot program.

Extends through FY 1991 the authority of the Secretary to furnish respite care to eligible veterans. Extends to February 1, 1990, the deadline for a report from the Secretary to the veterans' committees concerning the provision of such care.

Directs the Secretary, during FY 1990 through 1993, to conduct a pilot program for providing assistive animals to aid veterans in the performance of daily living tasks which they are unable to perform due to certain disabilities or handicaps. Outlines administrative provisions and requires reports from the Secretary to the veterans' committees concerning such program. Requires the CMD of the Department, before furnishing such assistive animals to veterans under the program, to provide for the conduct of an independent evaluation of the way that assistive monkeys would be treated during training and placement under the pilot program.

Authorizes the Secretary to provide signal dogs specially trained to provide hearing assistance to veterans who have service-connected hearing impairments and are in need of such dogs. Provides for the payment of travel and other expenses incurred in becoming adjusted to the signal dogs.

Extends through FY 1992 the authorization of appropriations to assist States in the construction of State nursing home facilities.

Directs the Secretary to report to the veterans' committees concerning a backlog that has occurred in the procurement of prosthetic appliances in FY 1989, for the failure to furnish certain other prosthetic appliances, and the actions planned by the Secretary to prevent a recurrence of such problem.

Includes the provision of outpatient dental services and treatment to veterans where medically necessary in preparation for hospital admission. Increases from $500 to $1,000 the total amount that may be expended on any veteran in a 12-month period for such services and treatment.

Provides for the reimbursement by the Department of certain medical expenses of a veteran who is a participant in a vocational rehabilitation program and is medically determined to have been in need of care or treatment to make possible such veteran's entrance into such a program, to prevent interruption of such program, or to hasten his or her return to such program.

Repeals the authority of the Secretary to furnish tobacco to veterans receiving hospital or domiciliary care.

Includes health-care facilities in a provision authorizing the sharing of specialized medical resources with medical schools, hospitals, and medical research centers. Revises the authority to share specialized medical resources.

Directs the Secretary to establish a task force to recommend policies and legislation for the elimination of inconsistencies among provisions of law relating to veterans' eligibility for certain health-care benefits. Directs the Secretary to review the report submitted by the task force and either approve the recommendations for legislation contained therein or prepare alternative legislative proposals appropriate for the elimination of the inconsistencies identified by the task force. Requires a report from the Secretary to the veterans' committees concerning the recommendation of such legislative proposals.

Authorizes third-party reimbursement for the Department for certain health care and services provided to a veteran who either does not have a service-connected disability or has a service-connected disability rated at 20 percent or less. (Currently, such reimbursement is permitted only in the case of veterans having no service-connected disability.) Authorizes the Secretary, in such cases, to contract for the carrying out of recovery and collection activities to receive such reimbursement. Outlines contract conditions and requires reports from the Secretary to the veterans' committees on the implementation of such reimbursement provisions.

Redesignates the Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Leavenworth, Kansas, as the Dwight D. Eisenhower Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center.

Part C: Health-Care Personnel - Veterans Health-Care Personnel Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary, for the pay period beginning on or after July 1, 1990, to establish the rates of basic pay for the following health-care personnel employed within the Veterans Health Services and Research Administration (HSRA) of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA): registered nurses and registered nurse anesthetists, physicians, dentists, podiatrists, optometrists, nurses, physician assistants, dental assistants, certain clinical or counseling psychologists, certain therapists, practical or vocational nurses, pharmacists, and occupational therapists. Requires the director of each VA health-care facility to conduct a survey which will establish the rate of basic pay in each appropriate pay grade by a specified date. Requires the director to conduct an annual review to determine if such basic pay rates need to be adjusted, and to adjust them, if necessary. Requires the director, as part of such survey, to survey the equivalent entry-level positions for such work performed in non-Department health-care facilities in order to determine the amount of basic pay for similar work. Outlines further administrative provisions relating to the determination of a similar labor market area for purposes of making such pay-rate determinations, requiring the director of a Department facility to notify the Chief Medical Director (CMD) of the labor market area identified of his or her selection of a labor market area, and requiring the CMD to approve or disapprove of such a labor market area selection within a specified time. Provides maximum amounts for such minimum rates of basic pay as established under this Act. Outlines employee exceptions to such basic pay rates. Requires the Secretary to submit an annual report to the Senate and House Veterans' Affairs Committees regarding the exercise of authority under this Act for the preceding fiscal year and to prescribe final regulations setting forth criteria and procedures to carry out this Act. Requires the director of each Department facility to establish and adjust such basic pay rates by a specified date even if such final regulations have not been implemented. Requires each director, within a specified period, to conduct a survey and establish an interim competitive pay rate to be followed until such final regulations and pay rates are determined.

Authorizes the Secretary, upon the recommendation of the CMD, to appoint in the competitive service any individual who: (1) has been awarded a degree or certificate in a health-care profession or occupation by an accredited institution; (2) has been appointed by the Secretary to a clinical education program conducted by an educational institution affiliated with a VA health-care facility; and (3) has successfully completed such program within one year before the individual's appointment into the competitive service.

Provides a director-scale pay category for physicians or dentists serving in a director position in the central office of the Veterans Health Services and Research Administration.

Authorizes overtime pay for nurses who perform in excess of 40 hours in an administrative workweek. (Currently, overtime is authorized only for work performed in excess of eight hours a day.) Authorizes the payment of six percent additional pay per hour for nurses performing work as a head nurse.

Authorizes the payment of special pay on the same basis as that given to registered nurses to those health-care professionals who are furnishing direct care to patients or services incident to direct patient care.

Increases the limitation on the amount authorized to be paid as special pay to certain individuals in the HSRA of the VA. Requires increases in such pay of a specified amount or more to be reported by the Secretary to the veterans' committees. Reduces from 90 to 45 days the time in which the Secretary must notify the President of the Secretary's intention to approve such special rates of pay.

Provides for the waiver of a mandatory reduction of special pay under Federal law for physicians, health-care professionals involved in direct patient care, or other health-care personnel involved in the provision of services incident to direct patient care.

Authorizes a one-time lump-sum payment of special pay to each nurse who is recertified in the specialty in which the nurse is employed.

Includes coverage of HSRA personnel under Federal employees' collective bargaining rights and procedures.

Revises provisions concerning disciplinary actions and grievances within the HSRA.

Directs the Secretary to establish a voluntary transfer of leave program for the benefit of health-care professionals of the HSRA. Authorizes the Secretary to establish a voluntary leave bank program for the benefit of such individuals. Requires such programs to be consistent with current Federal voluntary leave programs. Authorizes the Secretary and the Director of the Office of Personnel Management to enter into agreements permitting health-care professionals of the HSRA to participate in the current Federal voluntary leave transfer and voluntary leave bank programs. Requires the Secretary to implement such programs no later than October 1, 1990.

Includes physical therapists, occupational therapists, or pharmacists among positions to which temporary full-time appointments shall not exceed two years. Provides that students who have a temporary appointment and are pursuing a degree in such field may be reappointed for a period not to exceed the duration of the student's academic program.

Directs the Secretary to pay a cash award to any VA employee who is a supervisor or manager employed in any of the following positions: physician, dentist, podiatrist, optometrist, nurse, physicians' assistant, or expanded-function dental auxiliary.

Directs the Secretary to establish and conduct a dependent care assistance program, which meets certain requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, for the care of dependents of employees of the HSRA. Requires such program to be implemented no later than June 1, 1990.

Requires the Secretary, in selecting applicants for the VA Scholarship Program, to ensure an equitable allocation of scholarships to persons enrolled in the second year of a program leading to an associate degree in nursing. Requires such requirement to be implemented beginning with scholarships awarded in 1990.

Requires current representatives of the field of paramedics to assist in the establishment of cooperative arrangements to provide for the training of health and paramedical personnel in order to improve the manpower utilization of such personnel. Requires such requirement to be implemented no later than February 1, 1990. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for making grants for such cooperative programs.

Requires the Secretary to pay the maximum amount of special pay authorized for Department physicians and dentists. Provides exceptions.

Directs the CMD of the VA to conduct a pilot program at no less than five VA medical facilities during FY 1990 through 1992 in order to determine the effect on employees of VA pay and personnel management practices. Requires the CMD to establish certain alternative pay and personnel management practices, such as increasing certain pay differentials for day versus evening duty, utilizing registered nurses in new ways for the furnishing of direct patient care, and establishing a collaborative practice committee involving physicians, nurses, and other direct health-care personnel. Requires various reports between the CMD, the Secretary, and the veterans' committees relating to the results of such pilot program.

Directs the Secretary to pay special incentive pay to psychologists employed within the HSRA of the Department. Requires psychologists receiving such special pay to hold diplomas in psychology from a recognized institution unless the Secretary determines that such psychologists are not needed to furnish appropriate psychological services for veterans.

Title III: Education and Employment - Veterans Education and Employment Amendments of 1989 - Authorizes rate increases or increased allowance for: (1) rehabilitation subsistence allowances for veterans with service-connected disabilities; and (2) educational assistance for veterans' survivors and dependents.

Repeals a current requirement that the Secretary make separate determinations of whether the achievement of a vocational goal is reasonably feasible for veterans under the age of 50. Provides that a pension being paid to a veteran who, while participating in a veterans' vocational training program, secures employment in an area related to the veteran's vocational training goal, shall not be terminated unless the veteran maintains that employment for 12 consecutive months.

Makes permanent the Department program for the provision of independent living services and assistance for severely handicapped veterans.

Revises provisions concerning the determination of the appropriate hourly minimum wage for the work-study allowance determination under the veteran-student and reservist-student work-study program. Authorizes the payment of a work-study allowance for veteran-students receiving educational assistance under the armed forces reserves educational assistance program for work performed at Department of Defense facilities in connection with the administration of such assistance program. Expands work-study eligibility to include veterans with service-connected disabilities rated at 30 percent or more and pursuing educational programs or training on at least a half-time basis and veterans who are pursuing rehabilitation programs on at least a half-time basis.

Authorizes the payment of a work-study allowance for veterans' survivors and dependents who are pursuing a program of full-time education in a State in return for such person's agreement to perform services.

Provides that "mitigating circumstances" authorizing the withdrawal of a student from a program of education shall include withdrawal to furnish care for the veteran's or person's child due to difficulties in making or changing child-care arrangements.

Extends through 1991 the authority for veterans' readjustment appointments within the Department. Expands eligible veterans for such program to include veterans of the post-Vietnam era who are qualified for such employment and advancement. Authorizes a veteran to be eligible for such an appointment for a four-year period beginning from their date of discharge or separation from active duty. Authorizes only one such appointment per veteran. Makes eligible for such appointments veterans with service-connected disabilities rated at 30 percent or more.

Directs the Secretary of Labor, during a three-year period beginning on October 1, 1989, to conduct a pilot program to furnish employment and training information and services to members of the armed forces within 180 days before such members are separated from service. Requires such pilot program to be conducted in no more than five geographically-dispersed areas. Requires certain personnel to furnish such information. Requires a report from the Secretary to the veterans' committees concerning the experience under the pilot program.

Eliminates the reference to a high school equivalency certificate (as a requirement for eligibility for educational benefits under the Montgomery GI Bill), instead requiring that an individual have certain alternate school credentials accepted by the armed forces, pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Defense, which are equivalent to a secondary school diploma.

Prohibits an individual serving in the Selected Reserve from receiving educational assistance entitlement credit under both the Vietnam Veterans' Educational Assistance program and armed forces educational assistance as provided under the Montgomery GI Bill, instead requiring a choice between the two.

Revises conditions under which a veteran will be permitted to reenter a program of educational assistance after having already failed an educational program due to unsatisfactory conduct or progress, allowing such renewal if the school involved certifies to the Department that such veteran has been readmitted into such institution for such educational purposes. Provides identical reentry conditions for the survivors' and dependents' educational assistance program.

Requires certain attendance performance to be taken into consideration in the approval (or disapproval) of accredited courses having no attendance standards. Revises the standards under which an educational or subsistence allowance need not be paid to include those periods when a person's attendance, conduct, or progress is unsatisfactory or such person is not pursuing the course in accordance with the standards as prescribed by the Secretary.

Revises provisions concerning the permissible uses of funding provided from the Secretary to State approving agencies for training curriculum development, disallowing use of such funds for the payment of administrative overhead expenses.

Authorizes the Secretary to withhold the payment of educational assistance benefits until the required proof is received that the person is satisfactorily pursuing the program of education.

Includes veterans pursuing a program of rehabilitative training due to service-connected disabilities as among those on whose behalf the Department pays participating schools a fee to defray certain costs incurred by the school in participiating in such training program.

Revises current Federal provisions which provide for the measurement of certain unit courses or subjects pursued by veterans toward a standard college degree to measure such course enrollment by converting the credit hours being pursued to equivalent clock hours, and combining this number with the actual number of clock hours concurrently being pursued, if any, to determine appropriate training time to be credited to such veterans.

Authorizes the Secretary to approve the enrollment of an eligible member of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve under contracts with the Department of Defense for a program of education.

Repeals a limitation on the number of changes of programs of education allowed for veterans and other eligible persons, instead allowing any number of such changes as long as each change is approved by the Secretary. Authorizes the Secretary to approve a program change necessitated by circumstances beyond the control of the eligible veteran or person. Limits the circumstances under which the Secretary may approve a second or subsequent change of a program of education.

Provides for a determination of the effective date of an educational benefits adjustment in education programs which require monthly self-certification.

Amends a provision of the Post-Vietnam Era Veterans' Educational Assistance Program to provide for a proportionate reduction in the educational assistance entitlement in accordance with the reduction in the monthly educational assistance allowance paid when a veteran pursuing an apprenticeship or other on-the-job training program fails to complete 120 hours of such training in a month.

Amends Federal armed forces educational assistance provisions under the Montgomery GI Bill for both the active duty and the Selected Reserve members to authorize the Secretary to approve the pursuit of flight training by an individual entitled to basic educational assistance under either program if: (1) such training is generally accepted as necessary for the attainment of a recognizable objective in the field of aviation; (2) the individual possesses a valid private pilot's license and meets the medical requirements necessary for a commercial pilot's license; and (3) the flight school courses meet FAA standards and are approved by the FAA and the State approving agency. Terminates the approval of such flight training courses which commence after October 1, 1994. Provides the monthly amount of such assistance. Requires proof from the individual and the institution of the training received and the cost of such training before such educational assistance allowance will be paid by the Secretary. Charges an individual's general entitlement to basic educational assistance an appropriate amount for each month of flight training assistance provided under this provision.

Directs the Secretary to conduct an evaluation, and report to the veterans' committees, of paying education assistance for flight training under both the armed forces educational assistance provisions and the veterans' educational assistance provisions.

Title IV: Home Loan - Veterans Home Loan Guaranty Restructuring and Solvency Act of 1989- Establishes the Home Loan Guaranty Fund. Provides that the Fund shall be available to the Secretary of Veterans Affairs for all operations with respect to: (1) guaranteed or insured Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) housing loans for which fees are collected and which are made after FY 1989; and (2) loans for property which has been disposed of by a veteran to a purchaser who will assume liability for such loan. Provides that the following shall be credited to the Fund: (1) all fees collected for housing loans made after FY 1989; (2) .25 percent of the original amount for all loans guaranteed or insured by the VA after FY 1989 for the first three fiscal years beginning with the fiscal year in which such fee is collected; (3) all collections of principal and interest and the proceeds from property held or disposed of with respect to such loans; and (4) all income from investments of the Fund that are required to be made by the Secretary of the Treasury in obligations of the United States.

Requires the Department to include in its annual budget submission to the Congress certain information about the current and projected operations and financial status of both the Loan Guaranty Revolving Fund (LGRF) and the Home Loan Guaranty Fund (HLGF) created under this title.

Increases the fee for a VA housing loan to 1.25 percent of the total loan amount. Provides that the following fees shall be collected: (1) one percent of the total loan amount with respect to housing loans obtained which are in default; (2) .75 percent of the total loan amount with respect to loans for purchase or construction for which a down payment of at least five percent of the total purchase price or construction costs have been made; and (3) .25 percent of the total loan amount with respect to such loans for which a down payment of at least ten percent has been made. Provides for the waiver of such fees for veterans who are receiving veterans' disability compensation or for the surviving spouse of a veteran who died from a service-connected disability. Requires the Secretary, in the case of such a waiver, to deposit into the HLGF the amount that the veteran or surviving spouse would have been required to pay without the waiver provision. Allows the Secretary to increase any of such loan fees if the Secretary determines that the HLGF would be unable to pay the valid claims of holders of defaulted loans during the first 24 months that such increase would take effect. Limits the amount of any such loan fee increase. Requires the Secretary to notify the veterans' committees before any such fee increase. Requires the Director of the Congressional Budget Office to submit views to such committees regarding the proposed fee increases. Provides that any veteran who pays a fee for such loans, other than loans which are in default or loans for property which has been disposed of, shall have no liability to the Secretary with respect to such loan for any loss resulting from a default of the veteran, except: (1) in the case of fraud, misrepresentation, or bad faith in obtaining loan approval or loan assumption; and (2) in the case of any default or liquidation resulting from circumstances not beyond the individual's control.

Extends until October 1, 1990, the authority of the Secretary to sell notes evidencing such loans with or without recourse.

Authorizes the maximum amount of guaranty entitlement available to a veteran for the purchase or construction of a home to be increased by not more than $5,000 in connection with any single loan. Requires the collection of a loan fee for such additional loan amount. Limits the total amount of guaranty entitlement available to any single veteran. Waives such limitation whenever the Secretary determines that the housing is being purchased or constructed in a housing market in which certain conditions exist which make it unlikely for a veteran to obtain such a loan for the purchase or construction of housing.

Provides that when a default of a loan made, guaranteed, or insured by the Department occurs, the holder of the obligation shall notify the Secretary upon refusing an offer by the veteran of a significant partial payment.

Revises the definition of the term "net value" for purposes of the determination of such amount upon default of a loan made, guaranteed, or insured by the Department. Extends through September 30, 1991, the current procedures to be followed by the Department upon the default of such loans.

Repeals current Federal law limiting the maximum amount of loan guarantee for the refinancing of existing mortgage loans or other liens which are secured by a dwelling or farm residence owned or occupied by a veteran. Prescribes maximum loan amounts to be guaranteed to veterans in the case of a loan made to refinance a construction loan, an installment land sales contract, or a loan obtained by a previous owner of property which was assumed by the veteran as the lesser of the reasonable value of the dwelling or farm residence or the sum of the outstanding balance of the refinanced loan plus closing costs. Limits the maximum amount of the loan to be guaranteed in all other cases to no more than 90 percent of the reasonable value of the dwelling or farm residence.

Limits the time during which a veteran may apply for waiver of a home-loan debt to the one-year period following the date on which the Department notified the debtor of the indebtedness. Requires that debt notices for home-loan and non-home-loan debts inform the recipient of his or her right to apply for a waiver and the procedure for such application.

Makes all former active-duty veterans eligible for basic entitlement to Department-guaranteed housing loans whether or not such a veteran has ever been discharged or released from active duty.

Amends the Housing Act of 1949 to extend the authorized period for reciprocity between Federal agencies for administrative approval of housing subdivisions to 180 days after a report is submitted to the Congress on housing subdivision approval policies and practices. Extends to November 6, 1989, the due date for such report.

Title V: Memorial Affairs - Authorizes the Secretary to reimburse a veteran for the cost of a prepurchased headstone or marker (in lieu of furnishing such a headstone or marker at burial).

Directs the Secretary of the Army to set aside an appropriate area within Arlington National Cemetery for the unmarked burial of cremated remains of persons entitled to burial in such cemetery.

Authorizes the Secretary, in connection with the administration of the Arizona Veterans Memorial Cemetery, to employ without regard to civil service laws certain persons employed by the State of Arizona in such capacity when such cemetery was transferred to the Department under prior Federal law. Requires the Secretary to submit to the veterans' committees an operating budget plan for such Cemetery for each of fiscal years 1989 through 1991.

Title VI: Minority Affairs - Amends the Department of Veterans Affairs Act to assign as one of the functions of the Assistant Secretary of Veterans Affairs the review and assessment of the effects of policies, programs and activities of the Department on minority veterans and the monitoring of access of such veterans to services and benefits under laws administered by the Department. Defines "minority veterans" as veterans who are black, Native-American, Hispanic-American, Asian-American, Pacific Islander-Americans, or women.

Reestablishes, as of October 1, 1989, the Advisory Committee on Native Americans. Requires reports from such Committee concerning the plight of Native Americans and their access to services and benefits of the Department. Terminates such Committee 90 days after their second report is transferred to the veterans' committees. Requires the Secretary to conduct a study to determine whether Native Americans living on trust lands or communally-owned lands experience difficulty in obtaining Department home-loan benefits, and, if so, administrative or legislative changes to correct such problems. Defines "Native Americans" as Indians, Native Hawaiians, Alaska Natives, or Pacific Islanders.

Title VII: Miscellaneous - Prohibits the Secretary from delegating the functional and technical supervision of the performance of security and law enforcement functions within the Department to any official outside the Office of the Secretary. Requires the Secretary to report to the veterans' committees concerning security and law enforcement matters within the Department.

Expands the Department's multiyear procurement authority to include the purchase of non-health-care supplies and services.

Requires the Secretary to provide procedural rights and other information to persons claiming Department benefits with regard to claim disallowances and the options available to pursue those claims further.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to permit disclosure to the Department of income-related tax return information for the purpose of determining eligibility for specified veterans' pension and benefit programs.

Amends Federal law to prohibit the Secretary from using this tax return information to terminate, deny, suspend, or reduce a person's benefits or services without first: (1) taking appropriate steps to verify independently the amount and accessibility of the income in question; and (2) providing the affected individual with notice and an opportunity to respond to the findings. Restricts the Secretary's right to verify or act upon information relating to disability compensation. Requires the Secretary to initially notify and periodically renotify benefit recipients and applicants that income reported to the Department will be subject to verification against such individual's tax return information. Provides for the payment of administrative costs associated with such income verification procedures.

Provides that the jurisdiction of the Court of Veterans Appeals to review exclusively decisions of the Board of Veterans' Appeals shall not apply with respect to certain Department insurance or loan guarantee matters when a timely notice of disagreement is filed.

Includes the United States Court of Veterans Appeals within the list of courts covered by laws requiring certain financial disclosure by judicial personnel. Requires judges and other judicial personnel of such Court, within 30 days after enactment of this Act, to file a report containing the financial disclosure information required under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978. Grants judges of such Court the authority to administer oaths and to compel action of the Secretary unreasonably delayed.

Amends the Department of Veterans Affairs Act to increase the number of people authorized to be appointed by the Secretary to a commission formed for the purpose of selecting individuals for the position of the Chief Medical Director of the Veterans Health Services and Research Administration whenever a vacancy in such position occurs.

Title VIII: Veteran's Agent Orange Exposure and Vietnam Service Benefits - Veterans' Agent Orange Exposure and Vietnam Service Benefits Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to pay a monthly disability or death benefit to a veteran or his or her survivors for any disability or death of a veteran who served in the active forces in Vietnam during the Vietnam era and who suffered from non-Hodgkins lymphoma or a soft-tissue sarcoma. Provides an exception to the payment of such benefits when there is affirmative evidence that such disease was not incurred during such service in Vietnam or that there was an intervening disease since such service. Provides the rates for the payment of such disability or death benefit. Prohibits such payments when other disability compensation is being paid for such disability. Provides that such disabilities or deaths shall be treated as service-connected for the purposes of all laws administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs (Department). Terminates such payments as of April 15, 1992, unless extended by a joint resolution of the Congress. Outlines congressional procedures for the consideration of such joint resolution. Requires the Secretary to take all reasonable actions necessary to notify eligible veterans and their survivors of the availability of such payments. Requires the Secretary to inform such recipients of the temporary nature of such payments.

Provides that the disease of chloracne in Vietnam veterans shall be considered to have been service-connected if such disease became manifest to a ten percent degree of disability or more within one year after the last date on which the veteran performed such service in Vietnam.

Provides a presumption of service-connection in the case of a Vietnam veteran suffering from a disease associated with effects of exposure to certain dioxins or other herbicide agents during such service in Vietnam. Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations listing a positive association between any disease and the biological effects of exposure to an herbicide agent in Vietnam. Requires the Secretary to update such list continually. Requires the Secretary, in prescribing and revising such list, to obtain by contract the determinations and estimates of a contract scientific organization. Requires such organization to: (1) determine which diseases have any degree of association with the biological effects of exposure to an herbicide agent; and (2) estimate the extent of association between each such disease and each such biological effect. Requires the organization to determine such association specifically with respect to non-Hodgkins lymphoma, each soft-tissue sarcoma, lung cancer, and each other cancer. Outlines contract provisions required in such agreements between the Secretary and the scientific organization, including surveys, evaluations, and periodic determinations. Requires such scientific organizations to provide reports to the Secretary and the Senate and House Veterans' Affairs Committees regarding its determinations and evaluations. Requires such organization to determine, in the event of a positive association, whether there is a reasonable basis for concluding that a Vietnam veteran with the highest level of exposure to that herbicide agent in Vietnam was exposed to such agent under the circumstances necessary for such biological effects. Requires a report from the organization to the Secretary and the veterans' committees when there is no such reasonable basis found. Requires the Secretary to make certain determinations and follow-up reports after receiving such reports from the contract scientific organization, including the issuance of a report to the veterans' committees and the promulgation of positive association regulations, if necessary. Requires benefits to be continued even though a disease is removed from the regulations listing diseases having positive associations. Terminates such contracting authority ten years after the first day of the fiscal year in which a scientific organization transmits its first report to the Secretary. Provides interim regulations and special effective dates.

Directs the Secretary to compile and analyze all clinical data that: (1) are obtained by the Department in connection with examinations and treatment of veterans for disabilities related to exposure to certain herbicides or to service in Vietnam; and (2) are likely to be scientifically useful in determining the association, if any, between the disabilities of such veterans and their exposure to such herbicides and other toxic substances. Requires the Secretary to submit an annual report to the veterans' committees concerning such analysis and its results. Directs the Secretary to consult with the Director of the Office of Technology Assessment (OTA) before compiling and analyzing such information. Requires the Director of OTA to review each annual report submitted by the Secretary and transmit to the Secretary an evaluation of the contents of each report.

Directs the Secretary to establish and maintain a system for the collection and storage of voluntarily contributed samples of blood and tissue of veterans who performed active service in Vietnam during the Vietnam era. Outlines provisions concerning the security and authorized uses of such specimens, as well as limitations on the acceptance of such samples. Requires the Secretary to consult with the National Academy of Sciences (NAS) to the extent that an agreement has been reached with the NAS serving as the contract scientific organization for the Secretary. Requires the Secretary to consult with the Director of OTA in the event of no agreement with NAS.

Directs the Secretary to establish a program to provide for the conduct of studies of the feasibility of conducting additional scientific research on health hazards resulting from: (1) exposure to dioxin; (2) exposure to other toxic agents in herbicides used in support of U S. and allied military operations in Vietnam during the Vietnam era; and (3) active military, naval, or air service there. Requires the Secretary to report to the veterans' committees on the results of such studies. Requires the Secretary to consult with the NAS before undertaking such studies and requires the NAS to review such studies and report recommendations to the Secretary and the veterans' committees, to the extent provided under any agreement between the Secretary and NAS.

Amends the Veterans' Benefits Improvement Act of 1988 to require the Secretary to annually furnish updated information to individuals listed in the Department of Veterans Affairs Agent Orange Registry on health risks resulting from exposure to dioxin or other toxic agents in herbicides as a result of service in Vietnam during the Vietnam era.

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to report to the veterans' committees on the research being conducted to develop treatments for psychological absorption of dioxin and other toxic agents used in herbicides by the United States in Vietnam, including research relating to exposure to dioxin and other toxic agents outside Vietnam.

Extends through December 31, 1993, the eligibility for hospital and nursing home care for veterans exposed to toxic substances in Vietnam.

Amends the Veterans' Benefits Improvement Act of 1988 to authorize direct consultation between the Ranch Hand Advisory Committee and Department of the Air Force scientists conducting the Ranch Hand Study (a study of the long-term health effects of exposure to phenoxy herbicides and contaminants). Requires the preparation and submission of annual reports and a final report in connection with such study.

S. 32 Sen. Thurmond, et al.; 1/25/89

Federal Death Penalty Act of 1989 - Amends the Federal criminal code to establish criteria for the imposition of the death penalty for Federal crimes.

Requires the Government, for any offense punishable by death, to serve notice upon the defendant a reasonable time before trial or acceptance of a plea, that it intends to seek the death penalty and the aggravating factors upon which it will rely.

Requires a separate sentencing hearing before a jury, or the court upon motion by the defendant, when the defendant is found guilty or pleads guilty to an offense punishable by death.

Allows the defendant and the Government to present any information relevant to sentencing, without regard to the rules of evidence, but permits information to be excluded where its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading of the jury.

Specifies mitigating factors which the defendant must establish by a preponderance of the information and aggravating factors which the Government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt.

Includes as threshold aggravating factors for homicide that the defendant: (1) intentionally killed the victim; (2) intentionally inflicted serious bodily injury which resulted in death of the victim; (3) intentionally participated in an act, contemplating that the life of a person would be taken and the victim died as a direct result of the act; (4) attempted to kill the President of the United States; or (5) intentionally engaged in an act constituting reckless disregard for human life, knowing that the act created a grave risk of death to someone other than the participants, and the victim died as a direct result of the act.

Sets forth special aggravating factors with respect to the crimes of treason, espionage, homicide, and attempted murder of the President.

States that no person under the age of 18 may be sentenced to death.

Directs the court, or the jury by unanimous vote, to recommend whether a sentence of death shall be imposed based on consideration of both the aggravating and mitigating factors. Directs the court to issue the death sentence if recommended.

Requires the court to instruct the jury: (1) not to consider the race, color, national origin, creed, or sex of the defendant or any victim in its consideration of the sentence; and (2) that it is never required to return a death sentence.

Establishes procedures for appeal from a death sentence. Requires the Court of Appeals, upon considering the record and the information and procedures of the sentencing hearing, to affirm the decision if: (1) the sentence was not imposed under influence of passion, prejudice, or arbitrariness; and (2) the information supports the finding of aggravating factors. Requires the court to provide a written explanation of its determination.

Sets forth provisions governing implementation of a death sentence. Prohibits the execution of a woman while she is pregnant or of a person who is mentally retarded or disabled under specified criteria. Prohibits requiring any employee of any State department of corrections, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, or any provider of services under contract to participate in any execution if contrary to his or her moral or religious convictions.

Limits the circumstances under which the offense of delivering defense information to aid foreign governments is punishable by death.

Provides for the imposition of the death penalty for: (1) murders committed by prisoners in Federal correctional institutions; (2) kidnappings which result in the death of any person; (3) attempting to kill the President of the United States (if such attempt results in bodily injury or comes dangerously close to causing the President's death); (4) "murder for hire"; (5) murder in the aid of a racketeering activity; (6) engaging in a criminal enterprise activity which results in death; and (7) other specified offenses.

Racial Justice Act of 1989 - Amends the Federal judicial code to make it unlawful to impose or execute sentences of death under color of State or Federal law in a racially discriminatory pattern. Prohibits a person from being put to death in the execution of a sentence imposed pursuant to any law if that person's death sentence furthers a racially discriminatory pattern.

Provides that ordinary methods of statistical proof shall suffice to establish a racially discriminatory pattern. States that it shall not be necessary to show discriminatory motive, intent, or purpose on the part of any individual or institution.

Establishes the requirements for a prima facie showing that a racially discriminatory pattern exists. States that a State or Federal entity may rebut a prima facie showing by establishing by clear and convincing evidence that identifiable nonracial factors explain the racial disparities constituting the pattern.

Requires any State or Federal entity that provides for the imposition of the death penalty to collect and maintain pertinent data on the charging, disposition, and sentencing patterns for all cases of death-eligible crimes.

Provides for the appointment of counsel for all indigent clients (and the furnishing of investigative and other services) for habeas corpus actions arising under this Act. Provides that no State court determination on the merits of a factual issue pertinent to a claim under this Act shall be presumed to be correct unless: (1) the State has collected and maintained the necessary death penalty data; and (2) the determination was made in a court proceeding where the defendant was afforded his rights required under this Act.

States that nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to affect the lawfulness of any sentence of death that does not violate this Act.

States that the failure to raise such a claim before the enactment of this Act shall not bar future claims.

10-20-89	Reported to Senate from the Committee on the Judiciary with amendment, S. Rept. 101-170

S. 53 Sen. Dole, et al.; 1/25/89

Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to reformulate the Cedar Bluff Unit of the Pick-Sloan Missouri Basin Program, Kansas, including reallocation of the conservation capacity of the Cedar Bluff Reservoir, to create: (1) a designated operating pool for fish, wildlife, and recreation purposes, and for groundwater recharge for environmental, domestic, municipal, industrial, and irrigation uses; and (2) a joint-use pool for flood control, water sales, fish, wildlife, and recreation purposes.

Authorizes the Secretary to contract with Kansas for the sale, use, and control of the designated operating pool (with the exception of water reserved for Russell, Kansas), and to allow Kansas to acquire use and control of water in the joint-use pool. Provides that Kansas shall not permit utilization of water from Cedar Bluff Reservoir to increase irrigation of lands in the Smoky Hill River Basin from such Reservoir to its confluence with Big Creek.

Authorizes the Secretary to contract with Kansas for the acceptance of a specified payment and the State's commitment to pay a proportionate share of the annual operation, maintenance, and replacement charges for the Cedar Bluff Dam and Reservoir, as full satisfaction of reimbursable cost associated with irrigation of the Cedar Bluff Unit. Requires, after the reformulation authorized by this Act, that any revenues in excess of operating and maintenance expenses received by Kansas from the sale of water from the Cedar Bluff Unit be paid to the United States and covered into the Reclamation Fund if so required under reclamation law. Provides that any additional revenues shall be retained by Kansas, once all such obligations or charges are satisfied.

Authorizes the Secretary to transfer ownership of the fish hatchery facility at Cedar Bluff Dam and related water rights to Kansas for its use and operation.

Provides that if any of such transferred property is subsequently transferred from State ownership or used for any purpose other than those provided for in this Act, title to such property shall revert to the United States.

Authorizes the Secretary to transfer title to the Cedar Bluff Irrigation District headquarters located near Hays, Kansas, contingent upon the District's agreement to close down the irrigation system to the satisfaction of the Secretary at no additional cost to the United States, after which all easement rights shall revert to the owners of the land to which the easements are attached.

Requires the transferee of any interest conveyed pursuant to this Act to assume all liability with respect to such interests and to indemnify the United States against all such liability.

Age Discrimination in Employment Waiver Protection Act of 1989 - Amends the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the Act) to prohibit an individual from waiving any right under the Act without the supervision of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) or a court, except in settlement of a bona fide claim alleging a certain kind of prohibited age discrimination.

Allows a settlement of a bona fide claim to occur only if the settlement is knowing and voluntary and only if certain criteria are met.

Prohibits any waiver agreement from: (1) affecting EEOC rights and responsibilities to enforce the Act; or (2) being used to justify interfering with the protected right of an employee to file a charge or participate in an EEOC investigation or proceeding.

Defines "bona fide claim," for such purposes, as: (1) a charge of age discrimination filed with the EEOC; (2) an action alleging age discrimination filed in court by the individual or the individual's representative; or (3) a specific allegation of age discrimination communicated in writing by the individual or the individual's representative directly to the employer, employment agency, labor organization, or their representatives.

Provides that, effective upon the enactment of this Act, a specified rule on waivers issued by the EEOC shall have no force and effect.

S. 71 Sen. Helms; 1/25/89

AIDS Control Act of 1989 - Amends the Public Health Service Act to require the Director of the Centers for Disease Control to keep records of cases of individuals infected with the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV).

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to promulgate regulations to require that, as a condition of receiving a license, any entity which collects or distributes blood or blood components or derivatives: (1) test all donors for the HIV; and (2) allow directed and autologous blood donations.

Requires that recipients of grants under provisions relating to population research and family planning programs provide individuals with certain information concerning prevention of infection with the HIV.

Prohibits the Secretary from making a grant under title XXV (Prevention of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) of the Public Health Service Act to support a project for education, testing, or counseling concerning acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) unless the State requires that: (1) physicians and medical technicians report to public health authorities the names and addresses of HIV-infected individuals; and (2) such reporting be carried out in accordance with State laws regulating confidentiality of records for individuals with sexually transmitted diseases.

Prohibits the Secretary from making a grant under such title and any State from obligating or expending any funds made available under such Act unless the State requires notification of the spouse of an AIDS-infected patient.

Prohibits a State from obligating or expending funds made available under such title unless the State closes all bathhouses where a pattern of continuous homosexual sexual activity or continuous illegal intravenous drug use occurs.

Prohibits the use of funds under such title: (1) to provide individuals with hypodermic needles or syringes so that they may use illegal drugs, or to distribute bleach for cleaning needles for such use; (2) to promote condoms as a method to prevent the spread of AIDS or to provide condoms; (3) to provide AIDS education, information, or prevention materials and activities that promote or encourage, directly or indirectly, homosexual sexual activities; or (4) unless the State requires marriage license applicants to be tested for infection with the HIV and both individuals to be notified of each test result.

Amends the Federal criminal code to create a new chapter regarding public health preservation. Makes it unlawful for any individual to knowingly donate or attempt to donate blood, semen, or organs if that individual knows he or she is infected with the HIV, is a member of certain groups (including African and Haitian immigrants, hemophiliacs, prostitutes, homosexuals, and intravenous drug users) at high risk of contracting AIDS, or has engaged in activity which places such person at high risk of contracting AIDS. Provides for criminal fines and imprisonment.

Requires the Director of the Bureau of Prisons to test each person incarcerated in a Federal penal or correctional institution for HIV infection at the time of entry, annually, and at any other appropriate time. Requires reports on positive test results to be made to the Director of the Centers for Disease Control. Requires that prisoners testing positive for the HIV infection be placed in separate residential facilities and be restricted from holding any employment in the institution which may increase transmission of HIV.

Prohibits the induction or retention in the armed forces, other than in a retired status, of a person infected with HIV. Requires individuals to be tested for HIV infection prior to induction. Requires members of the armed forces to be tested for the HIV infection: (1) at least once a year; (2) whenever admitted to any medical facility of the uniformed services or of the Department of Veterans Affairs for in-patient care; and (3) at other times as the Secretary concerned considers appropriate.

Amends the Veterans' Benefits and Services Act of 1988 to direct the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to provide for a program of routine testing of each patient for infection with the HIV. Requires the Department to provide pre- and post-test counseling. Amends Federal law relating to veterans' benefits and confidentiality of certain medical records to require a physician or professional counselor to disclose information or records indicating that a patient or subject is infected with the HIV to a spouse or sexual partner.

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to promulgate regulations requiring the recipient of funds under specified provisions of the Public Health Service Act to routinely test for infection with the HIV, and provide pre- and post-testing counseling to, each person receiving treatment for tuberculosis, substance abuse, or a sexually transmitted disease.

Directs the Secretary of Transportation to promulgate regulations requiring all airmen applying for certification to operate a commercial airplane to undergo annual testing for the HIV. Requires any airmen who test positive to be denied certification.

Comprehensive Uranium Act of 1989 - Title I: Uranium Enrichment Act of 1989 - Amends the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to repeal the statutory pricing requirements applicable to uranium enrichment enterprises.

Establishes the United States Enrichment Corporation as a wholly-owned Government corporation to conduct uranium marketing and enrichment activities as a commercial, profitable, self-financing enterprise. Sets forth the Corporation's corporate office and powers and vests its management in an Administrator (appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate). Grants the Secretary of Energy (the Secretary) general supervision over such Administration only with respect to national security and health and environmental concerns. Establishes a Corporate Board whose members shall be appointed by the President, and who shall advise the Administrator and the Secretary regarding Corporation matters. Prescribes guidelines for: (1) Corporation personnel; (2) certain property transfers from the Department of Energy; (3) the Corporation's capital structure; and (4) Corporation pricing policies, including user charges for decommissioning, decontamination, and remedial activities.

Requires the Corporation to make annual status reports to certain congressional committees, the President, and the Secretary.

Prescribes licensing and taxation guidelines for the Corporation. Sets guidelines for payments in lieu of taxes by the Corporation to States and local governments. Requires the Administrator to make recommendations to the President and the Congress by specified dates regarding the transfer of the Corporation's functions and assets to private ownership.

Establishes the Uranium Enrichment Decontamination and Decommissioning Fund to cover the Corporation's decommissioning and decontamination expenses.

Applies Federal environmental and occupational safety and health law to the Corporation as though it were privately owned.

Eliminates the treatment of uranium enrichment facilities as production facilities under the Atomic Energy Act with respect to the importation of such facilities into the United States (thus subjecting them to less stringent licensing requirements). Exempts the Corporation from sequestration because the maximum deficit amount has been exceeded under the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (Gramm-Rudman-Hollings Act).

Prohibits the Corporation's total FY 1990 expenditures from exceeding its total FY 1990 receipts.

Title II: Uranium - Subtitle A: Short Title, Finding and Purposes, Definitions - Uranium Security and Tailings Reclamation Act of 1989 - Sets forth findings, purposes, and definitions of this title.

Subtitle B: Uranium Revitalization - Directs the Corporation to establish for a minimum five-year period a voluntary overfeeding program to be made available to its enrichment services customers. ("Overfeeding" means the use of uranium in the enrichment process in excess of the amount required at the Transactional Tails assay, thus reducing customers' power costs). Provides that the resultant savings shall be credited to such customers.

Establishes the National Strategic Uranium Reserve, consisting of 50,000,000 of natural uranium, to be restricted to military purposes and Government research under the control of the Secretary.

Confers continuing responsibility upon the Secretary for promotion of the domestic uranium industry, but without using any supervisory authority over the Corporation. Directs the Secretary to develop recommendations and implement Government programs promoting domestic uranium exports.

Restricts all uranium purchases by Federal entities to uranium purchased from domestic producers. Exempts the Tennessee Valley Authority from such restriction.

Subtitle C: Remedial Action for Active Processing Sites - Provides that remedial action costs such as decontamination, decommissioning, and reclamation at an active uranium or thorium processing site shall be borne by specified licensees for any activity resulting in by specified licensees for any activity resulting in by-product material. Sets forth a reimbursement schedule for: (1) individual active site uranium licensees; (2) all active site uranium licensees; and (3) thorium licensees. Directs the Secretary to promulgate regulations governing such reimbursement.

Authorizes appropriations.

Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act of 1989 - Title I: Debt Collection Procedures - Establishes a uniform, nationwide system of procedures to facilitate the collection of debts owed to the United States. Provides that the United States shall not be barred by the statute of limitations of any State in the enforcement of any of its claims.

Establishes a pre- and post-judgment right of discovery with respect to the financial condition of any debtor.

Establishes special rules with respect to the sale of perishable property during the pendency of any proceeding to recover debts owed to the United States.

Grants U.S. counsel and non-attorney debt collection personnel absolute immunity from liability arising from errors, omissions, or negligence in performing their official debt collection duties.

Allows U.S. district courts to assign their duties in proceedings under this Act to U.S. magistrates.

Authorizes appropriations.

Permits a U.S. Attorney to commence a proceeding against parties for the purpose of determining whether a claim for relief should be asserted whenever the United States believes that an illegal activity threatens to deprive it of a claim.

Allows the United States to name as an additional defendant any party believed to owe sums to the debtor arising out of the transaction giving rise to the obligation to the United States.

Permits the United States to seek any prejudgment remedy allowed by law. Sets forth procedures to be followed by the United States under such circumstances. Establishes additional procedural requirements with respect to the attachment of property, garnishment, sequestration, and replevin. Prohibits a U.S. marshal from selling property unless ordered by the court.

Allows the United States to apply for the appointment of a receiver for property in which it has an interest and which is or will be the subject of a court action. Sets forth the powers of the receiver.

Allows the district court to enter a "judgment by confession" in favor of the United States without the filing of a civil action for money due and owing.

States that a judgment creates a lien upon all the real property of a judgment debtor. Makes any person who is the subject of such a lien ineligible for Federal grants and loans. Allows the district court to order the United States to sell any real property subject to its judgment lien. Sets forth procedures for determining the applicable interest to be charged on judgments. States that such liens shall be effective for a period of 20 years and renewable for one additional 20-year period.

Sets forth procedures with respect to: (1) the issuance of restraining notices; (2) the sale of real and personal property subject to levy pursuant to a writ of execution; (3) installment payments; and (4) garnishment.

Grants the court power to: (1) modify the use of any enforcement procedure; (2) punish for civil and criminal contempt with respect to an enforcement procedure or order under this Act; and (3) under certain circumstances, issue a warrant for the arrest of a judgment debtor.

Lists the types of property exempt from the enforcement procedures of this Act, including the debtor's: (1) interest in real property used as a residence; (2) interest in one motor vehicle; (3) interest in unmatured life insurance contracts; (4) right to receive social security, veterans' disability, Medicaid, Medicare, unemployment, and AFDC benefits; and (5) right to receive an award under a crime victim's reparation law, a payment on account of the wrongful death of certain individuals, a payment under certain life insurance contracts, a payment, not to exceed $7,500, on account of personal bodily injury, with limitations, or a payment in compensation of the loss of certain future earnings. Places certain limitations on exempt property.

Provides remedies for the fraudulent transfer of an asset by a debtor.

Allows the United States to bring an action in U.S. district court to compel a partition of property among co-owners and tenants.

States that Federal law shall govern: (1) any action by the United States to foreclose security interests in real property; and (2) the right of the United States to collect a deficiency following the foreclosure of a loan guaranteed or insured by the United States.

Title II: Amendments to Other Provisions of Law - Makes technical and conforming amendments to various provisions of Federal law.

Establishes in the Treasury the Department of Justice Debt Collection Fund, which shall be used to: (1) train Department personnel in debt collection; (2) provide services pertinent to debt collection; and (3) cover expenses associated with the sale of property. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993.

Allows the court to order that criminal appearance bail bonds be applied to the payment of any assessment, fine, restitution, or penalty imposed upon the defendant.

Family Planning Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Public Health Service Act to require that voluntary family planning projects receiving grants or contracts under provisions of that Act offer adoption referral services. Requires the services to be nondiscriminatory as to race, color, religion, and national origin. Removes provisions allowing the Secretary of Health and Human Services (Secretary), at the request of a grant recipient, to reduce the amount of the grant by the value of supplies or equipment furnished by the Secretary. Authorizes appropriations for such grants and contracts for FY 1990 through 1992.

Repeals existing formula grant provisions.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 for technical assistance and personnel training, including clinical training for obstetric-gynecologic nurse practitioners and training for educators and counselors.

States that research grants and contracts may be made for evaluation as well as for development of contraceptives, and to improve clinical management and direct delivery of family planning services. Authorizes the Secretary to conduct, make grants, and enter into contracts for applied research into the development, evaluation, and bringing to the marketplace of contraceptive devices, drugs, and methods. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Authorizes the Secretary to make grants or enter into contracts for community-based information and education programs regarding sexuality, pregnancy, parenthood, and sexually transmitted diseases. Directs the Secretary to make grants and enter into contracts for the development, evaluation, and dissemination of educational and informational materials consistent with the objectives of such programs. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Directs the Secretary to collect data annually on: (1) the number of low-income and marginal-income individuals and adolescents at risk of unintended pregnancies; (2) the sources of funding available for family planning services in the United States; (3) the numbers and age, gender, race, and family income of persons who receive family planning services; and (4) the types of services chosen by individuals receiving services.

Amends provisions of the Public Health Service Act relating to population research and voluntary family planning programs to require that all grantees receiving assistance under those provisions provide education to patients concerning self breast examinations.

Directs the Secretary to make available a specified sum during FY 1990 through 1992 for the selection of a single State in which to establish a research project to determine the impact of family planning services in a State that has in effect a law prohibiting the use of public funds for family planning services to an unmarried minor without the prior written consent of the parent or guardian of the minor.

Authorizes the Secretary to make grants to and enter into contracts with public agencies in such a State for the provision of family planning services, carried out in accordance with such State law.

Requires a public agency applicant for a grant or contract to include in the application assurances that: (1) for the fiscal year for which the application is submitted, such State law will not be applied to family planning services provided by private agencies; and (2) if a public agency of the State makes a grant to, or enters into a contract with, a private agency for family planning services, and the grant or contract is funded in whole or in part under these provisions, the State shall ensure that the private agency meets the same requirements for eligibility for assistance under title X (Population Research and Voluntary Family Planning Programs) of the Public Health Service Act as the Secretary may prescribe for all private agencies assisted under such title.

Sets forth reporting requirements.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 to carry out title XX (Adolescent Family Life Demonstration Projects) of the Public Health Service Act.

S. 120 Sen. Kennedy, et al.; 1/25/89

Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention, Care, and Research Grants Act of 1989 - Replaces the current title XX (Adolescent Family Life Demonstration Projects) of the Public Health Service Act with a new title on adolescent pregnancy prevention, care, and research grants.

Authorizes the Secretary of Health and Human Services to make grants to provide care services to pregnant adolescents and adolescent parents and prevention services to nonpregnant adolescents. Lists permissible uses for the grants. Requires that grantees charge fees for services only according to a fee schedule approved by the Secretary that bases fees on income. Prohibits a grantee from discriminating on the basis of an individual's inability to pay for services. Sets forth priorities in making the grants. Provides for the amount of a grant.

Prohibits the Federal portion of the grant from exceeding 75 percent of annual program costs. Allows non-Federal contributions to be in cash or in kind. Allows the Secretary to waive the 75 percent limitation in accordance with criteria established by regulation.

Sets forth descriptions and assurances which must be included in grant applications.

Requires grant recipients to spend between three and ten percent to conduct, through an independent entity, an evaluation of the services supported. Allows grantees to use up to one-half of the ten percent amount to: (1) participate in a multi-site evaluation; and (2) be pooled to conduct a study of the effectiveness of different combinations of services. Sets forth reporting requirements.

Directs the Secretary to coordinate Federal policies and programs providing services relating to the prevention of initial and recurrent adolescent pregnancies and providing care for pregnant adolescents and adolescent parents. Requires grant recipients to coordinate activities with other grant recipients in the same locality.

Authorizes the Secretary to make grants to support: (1) research concerning the societal causes and consequences of pregnancy, childbearing, and child rearing for adolescent females and males; (2) evaluative research to identify services that reduce adolescent pregnancy rates and that improve the outcome of adolescent childbearing; and (3) the dissemination of information from programs and research relating to adolescent pregnancy and parenthood.

Allows research and dissemination grants to be made for one year, with renewals for four additional one-year periods. Limits the amount of a grant for direct costs, but allows: (1) additional amounts for indirect costs as the Secretary deems appropriate; and (2) the Secretary to waive the limitation. Sets forth allowed and prohibited uses of the funds.

Directs the Secretary to coordinate research and dissemination activities carried out under these provisions with such activities carried out by the National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Directs the Secretary to establish a system for the review of applications that is substantially similar to the system for scientific peer review of the NIH. Requires the creation of a panel to review applications. Prohibits application approval unless the panel has determined the program to be of scientific merit.

Sets forth reporting requirements.

Directs the Secretary to reserve certain amounts appropriated under this title for evaluation of activities. Requires the Secretary to report the results of each evaluation to the appropriate committees of the Congress.

Authorizes appropriations for carrying out the title added by this Act for FY 1990 through 1992.

Prohibits use of funds for grants under this Act for payment for the performance of an abortion.

S. 123 Sen. Kennedy, et al.; 1/25/89

Smart Start: The Community Collaborative for Early Childhood Development Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary of Education (the Secretary) to make grants to States and localities with approved plans and applications to assist them to expand or establish full-day, full-year early childhood development services for prekindergarten children.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993. Prohibits appropriations for Smart Start for any fiscal year unless minimum appropriations for certain programs are achieved. Directs the Secretary, in years when such funding levels are not met, to make, instead, a certain number of discretionary grants for model programs to States and localities according to specified criteria.

Sets forth application, planning, and other requirements relating to State and local eligibility for Federal assistance under this Act, including establishment or designation of a State Advisory Task Force, a Lead State Agency, and a Local Policy Group. Provides for Federal assistance to localities in States which elect not to participate.

Allows any locality to apply for a six-month planning grant to the State or, if the State does not participate, to the Secretary.

Provides for State Advisory Task Forces. Requires each Task Force to report annually to the Governor and the Secretary on the status of early childhood development programs and child care programs operating within the State. Allows a State to use an existing comparable task force for such purposes.

Directs the Governor to designate a Lead State Agency to administer the early childhood development programs assisted under this Act.

Requires any locality desiring to receive a grant under this Act to form a Local Policy Group. Requires each Group to report annually to the State Advisory Task Force on the status of early childhood development programs and child care within the locality.

Requires selection of a local administering agency by specified local officials from among specified types of local agencies.

Makes a child eligible to participate in programs assisted under this Act in the school year two years prior to the school year in which the child would be eligible under State law to enter first grade. Permits any State or locality which has served all children of the eligible age group requesting services to use funds to serve children in the school year three years prior to the school year in which they would be eligible under State law to enter first grade.

Sets forth family contribution requirements. Provides services under this Act without charge to eligible children in families with incomes under 115 percent of the poverty line. Requires, for eligible children from families with incomes at or above 115 percent of the poverty line, payment of fees on a sliding scale up to the full cost of such services.

Allows localities to use Smart Start funds to: (1) expand or upgrade, by grant or contract, existing public or nonsectarian nonprofit programs for prekindergarten children to operate them full-day and full-year and in compliance with minimum standards; or (2) create, through grant or contract to public or nonsectarian nonprofit entities, full-day, full-year early childhood development programs in compliance with this Act.

Allows the use of Smart Start grants, with respect to early childhood development programs, for: (1) development and training in the use of developmentally appropriate curricula; (2) services to enable a program to operate full-day and full-year; (3) health screening and diagnosis of children; (4) health, mental health, and social services for children in families with income under 115 percent of the poverty line; (5) nutrition services and education; (6) parent outreach and involvement including family home visits; (7) family support and parenting education; (8) referral and assistance in obtaining education, nutrition, health, mental health, and other social services for families of children in the program; (9) prenatal health and education for parents; (10) distribution of information about services and locality outreach; (11) staff and personnel training; (12) upgrading of staff salaries; (13) program activities designed to mix children from different backgrounds; (14) materials and equipment; (15) space rental, and minor program space renovation; (16) transportation of children; (17) recruitment of senior citizens to work with children; and (18) evaluation of services.

Gives priority to expanding and upgrding existing programs, rather than to creating new ones.

Requires that at least: (1) 50 percent of spaces created by funds under this Act be filled by children whose families earn less than 115 percent of the poverty line; and (2) 67 percent of such funds be used by service providers or programs that serve such children.

Sets forth minimum standards for service providers, including maximum group size and child to adult ratios, staff training and credentials, parental involvement, and health, safety, and nutrition requirements.

Sets forth Federal administrative provisions. Gives the Secretary responsibility to carry out this Act, but requires that the Secretary and the Secretary of Health and Human Services jointly develop and issue policy regulations for such purpose.

Requires Local Policy Groups to arrange for periodic on-site evaluation of local programs, and make the results available to the Task Force, service providers, parents, and interested members of the locality. Requires the Lead State Agency to arrange for periodic on-site monitoring and inspection. Requires the Task Force to evaluate programs, and make the results available to the Secretary, service providers, parents, and interested members of the locality. Directs the Secretary to: (1) ensure that programs are inspected and monitored for compliance with minimum standards; and (2) report annually to the appropriate congressional committees, summarizing State reports. Directs the Secretary, either directly or by grant or contract, to provide for continuing evaluation of programs, including use of appropriate nonparticipant control groups. Directs the Secretary to: (1) publish results of such research and evaluations within 90 days of their completion; and (2) submit copies to the appropriate congressional committees.

Prohibits awards of financial assistance for any program, project, or activity under this Act unless the grant or contract specifically provides that no person with operational responsibilities will discriminate with respect to any such program, project, or activity because of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, political affiliation, handicap, or age.

Sets forth requirements relating to program payments, non-Federal share, supplementation of funding, and records and audits.

1991 Mount Rushmore Commemorative Coin Act - Requires the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a specified number of five-dollar gold coins, one-dollar silver coins, and half-dollar clad coins in commemoration of the Mount Rushmore National Memorial.

Provides that such coins shall be considered legal tender. Requires the Secretary to issue such coins during calendar year 1991.

Allows the Secretary to obtain silver for the minting of such coins from stockpiles established under the Strategic and Critical Minerals Stock Piling Act and to obtain gold pursuant to authority under existing law.

Provides that the design of such coins shall be selected by the Secretary after consultation with the Mount Rushmore National Memorial Society of Black Hills.

Specifies the sales price of such coins as the face value plus costs. Requires that all sales of such coins include a surcharge of $35 per coin for five-dollar coins, $7 per coin for one-dollar coins, and $1 for half-dollar coins.

Requires that of the total surcharges received by the Secretary from the sale of such coins: (1) 50 percent shall be returned to the Treasury for purposes of reducing the national debt; and (2) 50 percent shall be paid to the Society to assist efforts to improve the Mount Rushmore National Memorial. Authorizes the Comptroller General to audit such payments.

Requires the Secretary to take such actions as may be necessary to ensure that the minting and issuance of such coins shall not result in any net costs to the Government.

National Global Change Research Act of 1989 - Amends the National Science and Technology Policy, Organization, and Priorities Act of 1976 to provide for assignment to the Federal Coordinating Council for Science, Engineering, and Technology of responsibilities to make long-range plans for cooperative scientific and technical research among Federal agencies.

Directs the President, through the Council, to develop a National Global Change Research Plan for a ten-year national research effort concerning both human-induced and natural processes of global change. Requires submission of the Plan to the Congress within one year and revision at least triennially thereafter.

Directs each participating Federal agency to include global change research funding requirements in its annual budget request.

Directs the Chairman of the Council to submit to the President and to the Congress an annual report on global change research efforts.

Directs the President, through the Council, to establish an ozone depletion working group to: (1) coordinate and assist in implementing initiatives of Federal entities to develop safe substitutes for chlorofluorocarbons and halons and alternative technology; and (2) determine ways to reduce chlorofluorocarbon and halon emissions. Directs the Council to report these determinations to the President and to specified congressional committees.

Instructs the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy to establish an advisory board to assist the Council and the ozone depletion working group.

S. 195 Sen. Pell, et al.; 1/25/89

Chemical and Biological Weapons Control Act of 1989 - Title I: Sanctions Against the Use of Chemical and Biological Weapons - Requires the President: (1) after information becomes available to the U.S. Government indicating the possibility that a foreign country has used chemical or biological weapons, to make a determination as to whether that foreign country has used chemical or biological weapons in violation of international law or has used lethal chemical or biological weapons against its own nationals; and (2) to make such a determination after being requested to do so by the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee or the chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Requires the President, after determining that a foreign country has used such weapons in violation of international law or against its own nationals, to: (1) terminate assistance to that country under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, except for humanitarian assistance and assistance for purchasing agricultural products; (2) terminate all foreign military sales financing under the Arms Export Control Act with respect to that country; (3) terminate U.S. Government sales to that country of any defense articles or services; (4) prohibit the issuance of any licenses for the export to that country of any item on the U.S. Munitions List; (5) prohibit the exportation of any goods or on the control list established pursuant to the Export Administration Act technology, except for food or agricultural products, pursuantant to foreign policy control provisions on the control list established pursuant to the Export Administration Act of 1979; (6) oppose, in accordance with the International Financial Institutions Act, the extension of any loan, financial, or technical assistance to that country by international financial institutions; (7) deny that country any credit or credit guarantees through the Export-Import Bank of the United States; (8) prohibit, any U.S. bank from making any loan or providing any credit to that country, except to purchase food or other agricultural products; and (9) terminate the landing rights in the United States of any airline owned by the government of that country. Authorizes the President to waive some or all of such sanctions for a period not to exceed twelve months upon a determination and certification to the Congress that such a waiver would be in the national interest.

Requires the President to notify the Congress of the imposition of such sanctions not later than five days after he imposes such sanctions.

Provides that specified sanctions shall not apply to any activity pursuant to any contract or international agreement entered into before the date of the presidential determination under this Act unless the President determines, on a case-by-case basis, that to apply such sanctions would prevent the performance of a contract or agreement that would have the effect of assisting a country in using chemical or biological weapons in violation of international law or against its own nationals.

Applies specified sanctions to contracts and agreements, without regard to the date they were entered into, with the exception that such sanctions shall not apply to any contract or agreement entered into before the date of the presidential determination under this Act if the President determines that the application of such sanctions would be detrimental to the national security interests of the United States. Provides for the removal of such sanctions after specified conditions are met.

Requires the President to report to the Congress annually on: (1) efforts by countries or subnational groups that threaten U.S. security interests or regional stability to acquire materials and technology to develop, produce, stockpile, and deliver chemical and biological weapons; (2) an assessment of the present and future capabilities of such countries or groups to develop, produce, stockpile, and deliver such weapons; and (3) the degree to which any country or foreign person has aided or abetted the government of any country or subnational group to engage in any activity in connection with the acquisition of any such weapons.

Urges the President to cooperate in multilateral efforts to control chemical and biological weapons and to give full support to United Nations involvement in such efforts.

Title II: Measures to Prevent the Proliferation of Chemical and Biological Weapons - Requires the President to use the authorities of the Arms Export Control Act to control the export of those defense articles and defense services, and use the authorities of the Export Administration Act of 1979 to control the export of those goods and technologies, that the President determines would assist a country in acquiring the capability to develop, produce, stockpile, deliver, or use chemical or biological weapons.

Amends the Export Administration Act of 1979 to require a validated license under such Act for the export of any goods or technology that the President determines would assist a country in acquiring the capability to develop, produce, stockpile, deliver, or use chemical or biological weapons, unless the destination of such export is a country with whose government the United States has entered into arrangements for the control of chemical or biological weapons related goods or technology.

Requires the President to impose sanctions, with exceptions, on a foreign person if the President determines that such person has knowingly and substantially contributed to the efforts to use, develop, produce, stockpile, or otherwise acquire chemical or biological weapons by any country that the President determines has, at any time after January 1, 1980: (1) used such weapons in violation of international law; (2) used lethal chemical or biological weapons against its own nationals; (3) made substantial preparations to do either of the preceding activities; or (4) been designated pursuant to the Export Administration Act of 1979 as a country which supports international terrorism. Allows the President to waive sanctions for such foreign person under certain conditions. Requires the President to report to the Congress after making a determination with respect to such foreign person. Sets forth as sanctions to be imposed on such foreign person prohibitions on: (1) the Government procurement of goods or services from such person; and (2) the importation of products produced by that person. Provides for the termination of such sanctions after two years if the President certifies to the Congress that such person has ceased prohibited activities.

State Energy Efficiency Programs Improvement Act of 1989 - Amends the Energy Policy and Conservation Act to mandate that each State energy conservation plan which receives Federal assistance under the Act contain specified energy efficiency improvement goals for the year 2000.

Adds to Federal assistance eligibility prerequisites for proposed State energy conservation plans, including an emergency planning program for energy supply disruption and programs implementing all the functions currently performed by the Energy Extension Service. Repeals the National Energy Extension Service Act. Cites optional State energy conservation programs.

Establishes an Energy Technology and Engineering Services Program designed to assist on a fee basis small and start-up businesses engaged in energy technology.

Repeals the mandate for supplemental State energy conservation plans.

Sets forth additional allocation guidelines for Federal financial assistance to State energy conservation plans. Includes as an eligibility criterion for such assistance submission of a State supplementary emergency contingency plan to the Secretary of Energy (the Secretary).

Directs the Secretary to establish policies and procedures designed to assure that Federal financial assistance for related State energy conservation programs will only be used to supplement, rather than supplant, State and local energy conservation programs.

Establishes within the Department of Energy a State Energy Advisory Board to report annually to the Congress regarding recommended energy efficiency objectives, the technology transfer aspect of Federal research and development with respect to energy efficiency and renewable resources, and recommended changes with respect to State and Federal energy policies.

Authorizes the use of loan programs and performance contracting for the non-Federal share of energy conservation project costs under the grant program. Amends grant allocation guidelines for schools and hospitals to cite conditions under which a State may expend up to 100 percent of Federal funds for technical assistance. Allows the use of Federal grants for school administration.

Defines cooling weatherization materials and directs the Secretary to establish criteria for cooling efficiency modifications that States may use to qualify for Federal financial assistance.

Prescribes guidelines to assure that the benefits of Federal weatherization assistance accrue primarily to low-income tenants.

Cites conditions under which the Secretary is authorized to approve a State application for a waiver of: (1) the requirement that at least 40 percent of Federal weatherization assistance for low-income persons be used for weatherization materials; and (2) the limitations placed upon expenditures per dwelling unit for weatherization measures.

Terminates the Performance Fund used for State weatherization assistance.

Authorizes the Secretary to allocate funds from the Low-Income Weatherization Incentive Fund to provide supplementary financial assistance to the States and to State subgrantees which have achieved the best weatherization performance during the previous fiscal year.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) make funds available to the States to establish training programs for unemployed persons in low-income weatherization auditing and installation skills; and (2) establish a low-income home weatherization technology applications project and a State energy conservation technology applications project in the Office of Conservation and Renewable Energy.

Authorizes appropriations for: (1) the State Plan program; (2) the energy conservation program for schools and hospitals; and (3) the weatherization assistance program.

Prescribes guidelines under which the Secretary may provide financial assistance to insular area governments in U.S. territories to implement energy efficiency and renewable energy measures which reduce the area's dependency on imported fuels. Authorizes appropriations.

National Nutrition Monitoring and Related Research Act of 1989 - Title I: Nutrition Monitoring and Related Research - Establishes a ten-year coordinated program, to be known as the National Nutrition Monitoring and Related Research Program, which will be implemented by the Secretaries of Health and Human Services (HHS) and Agriculture. Establishes an Interagency Board for Nutrition Monitoring and Related Research to facilitate program implementation. Authorizes the Secretaries to appoint an Administrator of Nutrition Monitoring and Related Research.

Sets forth the program functions of the Secretaries, including: (1) establishing matching grants programs for specified nutritional and dietary purposes; and (2) submitting a biennial report to the President for transmittal to the Congress.

Requires the Secretaries to implement a comprehensive national nutrition monitoring and related research plan which shall: (1) assess and report on U.S. nutritional and dietary trends; (2) sample representative subsets of identifiable low income populations and assess and report on food and household expenditures; (3) sponsor and conduct research; (4) develop and update a national dietary and nutritional status data bank, (5) assist State and local agencies in developing procedures and networks for nutrition monitoring and surveillance; and (6) focus the activities of Federal agencies. Requires the plan to allocate the project functions and activities among the various Federal agencies and offices involved.

Provides that the comprehensive plan shall be carried out during the period ending with the close of the ninth fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the final comprehensive plan is submitted.

Requires the Secretaries to coordinate and enter into contracts for such scientific research and development as may be necessary to support the coordinated program and comprehensive plan.

Requires the President, at the time of the submission of the annual budget to the Congress, to submit a report to specified congressional committees on expenditures required for carrying out the coordinated program and implementing the comprehensive plan.

Title II: National Nutrition Monitoring Advisory Council - Establishes a nine-member National Nutrition Monitoring Advisory Council to: (1) provide scientific and technical advice on the development and implementation of all components of the coordinated program and the comprehensive plan; (2) evaluate such program and plan; and (3) submit an annual report to the Secretaries.

Title III: Dietary Guidance - Directs the Secretaries, by the start of 1990 and every five years thereafter, to publish and review dietary guidelines for the general public.

Requires the Secretary of HHS to submit a report describing the appropriate Federal role in assuring that medical students and physicians practicing in the United States have adequate training in the field of nutrition and its relationship to health.

Negotiated Rulemaking Act of 1989 - Authorizes a Federal agency to establish a negotiated rulemaking committee to develop and negotiate a proposed agency rule whenever the head of the agency determines that the use of the negotiated rulemaking procedure is in the public interest. Specifies guidelines for the head of the agency in making such determination.

Authorizes an agency to use the services of a convener to assist the agency in: (1) identifying persons who will be significantly affected by a proposed rule; and (2) conducting discussions with such persons to identify the issues involved and to ascertain the feasibility and appropriateness of establishing such a committee. Requires the convener to report its findings to the agency, including the names of persons who are qualified and willing to represent the significant interests affected by the proposed rule.

Requires the agency to publish in the Federal Register notice of its intention to form a negotiated rulemaking committee, including information about the rulemaking and the solicitation of comments about the proposal and membership on the committee. Authorizes persons who will be significantly affected by a proposed rule and who believe that their interests will not be adequately represented to apply for, or nominate another person for, membership on the committee.

Requires the agency to provide a 30-day period for the submission of comments and applications. Authorizes the agency, after the consideration of such comments and applications, to establish a committee as an advisory committee pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act. Requires the agency to publish notice in the Federal Register if it decides not to establish a committee. Limits such committees to 25 members unless the agency head determines that a greater number is necessary.

Sets forth procedures for the conduct of committees in the consideration of rulemaking proposals. Provides for the selection of a facilitator for committee negotiations. Requires the committee to report to the agency at the conclusion of negotiations, with a proposed rule or a report on the areas of consensus and disagreement.

Provides for the termination of a committee.

Authorizes an agency to employ, contract for, or use the services of Government employees as conveners and facilitators. Authorizes the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to provide services and facilities to assist such an agency.

Declares that any agency may consult with the Administrative Conference of the United States and other individuals and organizations for information and assistance in forming a negotiated rulemaking committee and conducting negotiations.

Directs the Conference to maintain a roster of individuals qualified to act as conveners or facilitators. Requires the Conference to maintain data on negotiated rulemaking proceedings to assist agencies and other interested parties. Requires the Conference to review and analyze reports of committees and report to the Congress annually with recommendations on the negotiated rulemaking process.

Authorizes the Conference to provide training in negotiated rulemaking processes to Federal personnel (and to private individuals on a reimbursable basis).

Authorizes the Chairman of the Conference to pay, upon request of an agency head, all or part of the expenses of convening and conducting a negotiated rulemaking proceeding.

Declares that any agency action pertaining to establishment of a negotiated rulemaking committee shall not be subject to judicial review.

Authorizes appropriations to the Conference for FY 1990 through 1992.

Salt Lake City Watershed Improvement Act of 1989 - Authorizes and directs the Secretary of Agriculture to convey certain Federal lands managed by the Forest Service in Utah to the Salt Lake City Corporation in exchange for the conveyance of certain city lands to the Secretary. Provides that the lands acquired by the United States shall be added to, and administered as part of, the National Forest System. Provides for the protection of valid existing rights appurtenant to lands exchanged under this Act. Requires the city to recognize the designation of the Mormon Pioneer National Historic Trail over lands acquired by it and to manage such lands accordingly.

Authorizes appropriations.

S. 321 Sen. Inouye, et al.; 1/31/89

Indian Preference Act of 1989 - Amends the Buy Indian Act to require Federal agencies administering funds appropriated for the benefit of Indians to provide a preference to eligible Indian enterprises in the award of a contract or grant. Directs such agencies to require the recipient of such a contract or grant, or subcontract or subgrant, to provide training and employment preferences to Indians and preferences to Indian preference enterprises in awarding any subcontracts or subgrants under the contract or grant.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to provide preferences for such enterprises in awarding any Federal agency contract not involving such funds when requested by a Federal agency if such preferences will help to fulfill his or her special responsibilities toward Indians.

Gives such preferences priority over all other Federal procurement preferences.

Prohibits this Act from applying to: (1) contracts awarded under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, but shall apply to the awarding of subcontracts and employment and training opportunities under such contracts; (2) contracts for procurement of expert advice and testimony in litigation by the United States as a trustee for Indians or Indian tribes; and (3) certain contracts awarded under the Small Business Act.

Makes this Act applicable to the Five Civilized Tribes and members of the Osage Tribe.

Requires Federal agencies to implement such preferences by limiting the competition for the awarding of a contract to Indian preference enterprises if: (1) there is an expectation that offers will be obtained from at least three responsible offerors in the case of an architectural-engineering services contract or at least two such offerors in the case of a contract for the procurement of any other service or product; and (2) the contract can be awarded at a fair and reasonable price.

Allows the procuring agency to negotiate a contract award if only one offer is received under a competition restricted to such an enterprise for a contract for a product or service other than architectural-engineering services. Provides that if it is not feasible for an agency to limit the competition for a contract award, such contract shall be awarded after open competition to the lowest bidder, under certain conditions. Provides that preference requirements may be waived only upon extraordinary circumstances and by certain officials. Directs Federal agencies, at the beginning of each fiscal year, to provide a list of contracts that cannot be awarded under limited competition to the Office of Indian Preference and to advertise such contracts.

Allows Indian preference enterprises to benefit from such a preference only if they submit to the agency or person providing such a preference an affidavit certifying that they continue to meet the requirements necessary for certification by the director of the Office of Indian Preference as an Indian preference enterprise. Requires such affidavit to be executed and submitted at the time the contract or subcontract bid, or grant or subgrant application, is submitted and again when such contracts or grants are awarded. Allows such enterprises that are engaged in construction activities and have successfully completed, independently, at least one contract, to enter into joint ventures with other enterprises that are not Indian preference enterprises. Declares that such an enterprise and joint venture shall remain eligible for preferences under this Act as long as the enterprise: (1) owns at least 51 percent of the joint venture and receives at least the same percent of its profits; and (2) has successfully completed, independently, at least one contract for each contract awarded to the joint venture for which a preference is provided under this Act.

Establishes within the Department of the Interior the Office of Indian Preference to be supervised by a Director who shall: (1) develop and publish a set of criteria for certifying Indian enterprises as eligible for the preferences provided under this Act; (2) investigate the financial backgrounds of enterprises which apply for certification as Indian enterprises eligible for such preferences, enterprises that have acquired such certification, and the owners and officers of such enterprises; (3) review applications from Indian enterprises for such certification; (4) certify Indian enterprises that satisfy such criteria as eligible for such preferences; (5) prescribe such regulations and establish such policies and systems in conjunction with the Office of Federal Procurement Policy as may be necessary to carry out this Act; (6) investigate complaints alleging violations of this Act; and (7) develop and assist Federal agencies in implementing a program to ensure that Federal funds expended for the benefit of Indians also assist the promotion of Indian economic development. Requires the Director to be responsible for employing staff for the Office. Sets forth regulations to be prescribed by the Director. Requires the Director to revoke the certification of any such enterprise as an Indian preference enterprise if, as a result of such an investigation, the Director determines that violations of this Act exist with respect to such enterprise.

Authorizes appropriations.

Directs Federal agency heads to deduct an amount equal to 1.5 percent of the total payment from each contract payment to an Indian preference enterprise for deposit into the Indian Enterprise Opportunity Fund to be established within the Treasury. Prohibits such a deduction if at the close of any fiscal year the total amount in the fund exceeds $100,000,000. Makes the Secretary the trustee of such Fund. Directs the Secretary to report to specified congressional committees on the financial condition and the results of the operations of such Fund. Requires such report to be printed as a congressional document. Sets forth provisions governing investments and reimbursements with respect to such Fund.

Prohibits application of the Miller Act to a contract awarded to an Indian preference enterprise by a Federal agency if: (1) the award price is anticipated to be $3,000,000 or less; (2) the Indian preference enterprise has been determined to be a responsible contractor capable of performing the contract; (3) the Federal agency determines that such an enterprise has been unable to obtain the requisite bonds after making at least two good faith applications to surety firms determined by the Secretary of the Treasury to issue acceptable bonds; and (4) the enterprise has provided for the protection of persons furnishing materials and labor, in lieu of a payment bond, through a program of direct disbursement of payments from the Federal Government to such persons through an escrow account or a Government payment center of a procuring agency.

Provides that an Indian tribe's preference requirements shall apply to an Indian preference contract or grant in lieu of the preferences provided under this Act and the tribal office shall have primary responsibility for enforcing those preferences if: (1) an Indian preference contract or grant is to be performed on an Indian reservation; (2) the governing body of an Indian tribe has established preferences generally comparable to those provided under this Act and a tribal office to enforce such preferences and has submitted a request to the Director for primary enforcement responsibility; and (3) such tribal office submits a statement certifying that it will administer the preferences established by the Indian tribe.

Prohibits such office from having such responsibility if the Director determines that the tribal preferences are not generally comparable to those provided under this Act, or that such office is not capable of enforcing such preferences, or is failing to meet its responsibilities to the extent that the rights of Indians or Indian preference enterprises are being seriously jeopardized.

Provides for penalties in addition to those already provided under Federal or tribal law for any misrepresentation of the status of an individual as an Indian, or of an enterprise as an Indian enterprise, in order to obtain a preference under this Act for such a person or any other person.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior or the Director to request the Inspector General of the Department of the Interior to investigate any contract, grant, subcontract, or subgrant with respect to which preferences are required to be provided under this Act.

Amends the Federal criminal code to establish criminal penalties for Indian preference violations.

Amends the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 to establish a separate Small Business Administration (SBA) surety bond guarantee for Indian preference enterprises. Requires such guarantee not to exceed 95 percent of the loss incurred and to apply to those bonds issued with the specific approval of the Administrator of the SBA. Prohibits the total amount of the bond contract from exceeding $5,000,000. Directs the Secretary of the Interior to guarantee to reimburse the Administrator for any amount paid the surety on such loss. Provides that the SBA may guarantee any surety against loss resulting from a breach of the terms of a bid bond, payment bond, or performance bond by a principal on any contract up to: (1) $5,000,000 if the principal is an Indian preference enterprise; or (2) $1,250,000 for any other principal.

Declares that the membership of the Osage Tribe shall consist of all persons of Osage ancestry listed on a certain tribal roll and the descendants of such persons until the Tribe reorganizes and adopts its own criteria for membership.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to negotiate and enter into cooperative agreements with Indian tribes to engage in manpower and job training programs.

Family and Medical Leave Act of 1989 - Title I: General Requirements for Family Leave and Medical Leave - Entitles employees to family leave for specified periods in cases involving the birth, adoption, foster care, or serious health condition of a child or the serious health condition of a parent.

Entitles employees to temporary medical leave for specified periods in cases involving inability to work because of a serious health condition.

Sets forth conditions for certification for such types of leave.

Provides that such leave may be without pay. Allows employees to substitute other types of paid leave to cover part of such leave period.

Sets forth employment and benefits protections relating to such leave.

Provides for administrative enforcement of this title by the Secretary of Labor, as well as enforcement by civil action.

Requires employers to post notice of the pertinent provisions of this title.

Title II: Family Leave and Temporary Medical Leave for Civil Service Employees - Amends specified Federal law to entitle civil service employees to family and temporary medical leave for specified periods.

Provides that such leave will be without pay. Allows employees to substitute other types of paid leave for part of such leave.

Provides for protection for job position and health insurance benefits of employees using such leave.

Directs the Office of Personnel Management to prescribe regulations for administration of this title which are consistent with the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor under title I of this Act.

Title III: Commission on Family and Medical Leave - Establishes the Commission on Family and Medical Leave.

Requires the Commission to report on its study of family and medical leave (which may include legislative recommendations concerning coverage of small businesses) to the Congress within two years after the Commission first meets. Terminates the Commission within 30 days after its final report.

Title IV: Miscellaneous Provisions - Sets forth the effect of this Act on existing laws and existing employment benefits.

Provides that nothing in this Act shall be construed to discourage employers from adopting more generous leave policies.

Directs the Secretary of Labor to prescribe regulations to carry out title I of this Act within 60 days.

S. 347 Sen. Kerry, et al.; 2/2/89

Antiterrorism and Arms Export Amendments Act of 1989 - Amends the Arms Export Control Act to prohibit the Government or U.S. persons from exporting or providing munitions items to, or facilitating (through loans, credits, guarantees, or other financial assistance) the acquisition of munitions by, any country, or any individual or group in a country, which, as determined by the Secretary of State, has repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism. Permits the rescission of a determination of the Secretary only after the President makes specified certifications concerning the country involved to the Congress.

Authorizes the President to waive such prohibition with respect to transactions determined to be vital to national security after consulting with, and reporting to, the Congress. Exempts from such prohibition transactions subject to reporting requirements of the National Security Act of 1947. Authorizes additional waivers pursuant to authority under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 in exceptional circumstances where time is of the essence and the President consults with and submits a report to the Congress at least 24 hours prior to granting such a waiver. Sets forth criminal and civil penalties for violations of this Act.

Requires the Director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, in making decisions concerning the issuance of export licenses, to consider whether the export of an article will support international terrorism. Requires the Director's evaluation of an arms sale submitted to the Congress to include an evaluation of whether the sale would support international terrorism.

Amends the Export Administration Act of 1979 to provide that a validated license shall be required for the export of goods or technology to a country if the Secretary determines that: (1) such country has repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism; and (2) such exports could contribute to the military potential of such country or would enhance the ability of such country to support acts of international terrorism. Removes the $1,000,000 threshold for notification to the Congress of the issuance of an export license. Revises the President's authority to rescind the Secretary's determination.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to prohibit the provision of any assistance under such Act, the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, the Peace Corps Act, or the Export-Import Bank Act to any country which the Secretary determines has repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism. Authorizes the President to: (1) rescind such a determination only after making specified certifications concerning the country involved to the Congress; and (2) waive such prohibition for national security interests or humanitarian reasons only after consulting with, and reporting to, the Congress.

Requires the President, in order to rescind a determination by the Secretary that a country supports international terrorism, to certify to the Congress that: (1) there has been a fundamental change in the leadership and policies of the government concerned and such government is not supporting acts of international terrorism and has provided assurances not to do so in the future; or (2) the government concerned has not provided any support for international terrorism during the preceding six-month period and has provided assurances that it will not support acts of international terrorism in the future.

Amends the Arms Export Control Act to specify that any presidential designation to place a defense item on the munitions list shall be final and conclusive and shall not be subject to judicial review.

Directs the President to include in required quarterly reports to the Congress concerning military exports a listing of: (1) all consents granted to third-party transfers of defense articles or defense services exceeding $1,000,000 in value; or (2) munitions items exceeding $250,000 in value transferred by the Department of Defense to other agencies of the U.S. Government, excluding items transferred for use within the United States or for intelligence activities subject to other reporting requirements under the National Security Act of 1947.

Revises requirements for reporting the use of foreign assistance funds where it is inadvisable to specify the nature of the use of such funds to require that such a report be transmitted to the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives rather than to the Speaker of the House.

Amends the Hostage Act to specify that the President may not use any means otherwise prohibited by law in attempting to cause the release of U.S. citizens imprisoned by foreign governments. (Current law specifies that the President may not use any means amounting to acts of war.)

Specifies that the use by any government of armed force in the exercise of individual or collective self-defense in accordance with applicable international agreements and customary international law shall not be considered an act of international terrorism for purposes of this Act.

S. 358 Sen. Kennedy, et al.; 2/7/89

Title I: Immigration Act of 1989 - Immigration Act of 1989 - Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to establish a two-tiered immigration annual entry level made up of "family connection" immigrants and "independent" (employment-related) immigrants.

Establishes a worldwide fiscal year level of "family connection" immigrants equal to the greater of: (1) 216,000; or (2) 480,000 minus a number of immediate family relatives plus the number of unused independent visas, if any.

Establishes a worldwide fiscal year level of "independent" immigrants equal to 150,000 plus a number of family connection visas.

Requires the Attorney General to report annually to the President and to the appropriate congressional committees on the social, economic, and environmental impacts of immigration.

Requires the President, at three-year intervals, to submit to the Congress a determination to maintain or change such immigration levels. Sets forth House and Senate procedures for the consideration of a joint resolution with respect to a change in the number of immigrant visas transmitted by the President under this Act.

Limits annual "family connection" and "independent" visas from each county to seven percent (two percent from dependent areas) of worldwide visas for each category.

Revises the immigration admissions preference system to allocate "family connection" preferences as follows: (1) unmarried sons and daughters of U.S. citizens; (2) spouses and unmarried sons and daughters of permanent resident aliens; (3) married sons and daughters of U.S. citizens; and (4) brothers and sisters of U.S. citizens if such citizens are at least 21 years old.

Allocates "independent" preferences as follows: (1) special immigrants; (2) medical personnel for rural areas (of which 80 percent shall be nurses and 20 percent physicians); (3) aliens who are members of the professions with advanced degrees or aliens of exceptional ability; (4) employment creation (minimum $1,000,000 capital investment which will create at least ten full-time jobs, or minimum $500,000 capital investment which will create at least ten full-time jobs in a rural or high unemployment area); and (5) selected immigrants chosen on a point basis.

Sets forth the following selected immigrant criteria: (1) age; (2) education; (3) U.S. occupational demand or labor shortage; (4) occupational training and work experience; and (5) prearranged U.S. employment. Reserves 20 percent of selected immigrant visas for those persons with the highest points, and the remaining 80 percent for those attaining a qualifying score. Reserves 10,000 of such visas for nationals of foreign states adversely affected by Public Law 89-236.

Terminates the registration of an alien who fails to apply for an immigrant visa within one year of availability unless the alien establishes within two years of such time that such failure was due to circumstances beyond his or her control.

Amends the petitioning procedure of such Act to permit special immigrant petitions to be filed with the Attorney General. Requires former U.S. employees to file for such status with the Secretary of State.

Amends labor certification provisions of such Act to exclude certain classes of immigrants unless the Secretary of Labor certifies that there are not sufficient qualified U.S. workers and that employment of aliens in such positions will not adversely affect U.S. workers' wages and conditions. Directs the Secretary to conduct a study, and hold public hearings, about the labor certification process and to report to the appropriate congressional committees by March 31, 1993.

Establishes a two-year conditional permanent resident status for certain alien entrepreneurs and their families. Subjects an alien to deportation and criminal penalties for entrepreneurship fraud. Sets forth related application and interview requirements.

Provides for selected immigrant visa fees to be charged for the filing of a petition for certain immigrant categories. Directs the Secretary of State to pay the expenses of the immigrant visa program incurred during the first two years. Authorizes FY 1990 and 1991 appropriations for such purpose.

Credits a Department of State fund (derived from fees collected by consular officers) to pay the expenses of research and development of visa and passport functions beginning with FY 1990.

Establishes, effective February 1, 1991, a Commission on Legal Immigration Reform to evaluate the impact of the amendments made by this Act. Directs the Commission to consider the impact on: (1) family reunification; (2) labor needs, employment, and other economic and domestic conditions; (3) demographics and natural resources; and (4) U.S. foreign policy and national security. Requires the Commission to submit interim reports (February 1, 1992 and 1993) and a final report to the President and the Congress by February 1, 1994. Authorizes appropriations. Terminates the Commission upon submission of the final report, except that it may continue to function until October 1, 1994, in order to conclude its activities.

Provides a temporary stay of deportation and work authorization for the alien spouse and minor unmarried children of an alien legalized under the amnesty program residing in the United States as of November 6, 1986 (amnesty program enactment date). Requires such aliens to apply for second preference (spouses and unmarried sons and daughters of permanent resident aliens) visas within 90 days of eligibility.

Continues to permit the immigration of certain adopted children.

Prohibits direct or indirect (State reimbursement) Federal financial or social insurance benefits for illegal aliens.

Treats Hong Kong as a separte foreign state rather than a colony or dependent area for U.S. immigration purposes, beginning in FY 1990. (Thereby increasing the number of visas chargeable to Hong Kong.)

Provides conditional permanent resident status for trained medical personnel (and spouses and children) who agree to work in a health manpower shortage area for ten years. Subjects such an alien to termination of status, deportation, and criminal penalties for failure to comply with such conditions. Sets forth related application and interview requirements. Considers such an alien for naturalization purposes to be lawfully admitted for permanent residence five years after his or her conditional admission.

Authorizes the Attorney General and the Secretary of State to waive visa requirements for aircraft crewmembers who are nationals of countries participating with the United States in the pilot visa waiver program.

Makes the effective date of this Act October 1, 1990, with applicability to visas issued beginning with FY 1991. Makes the provisions of this Act relating to the immigrant visa petitioning process effective upon enactment.

Title II: Naturalization Amendments of 1989 - Naturalization Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to: (1) establish an administrative naturalization procedure; and (2) make such procedure the sole procedure for naturalization.

Authorizes the applicant to choose the forum for the swearing-in ceremony (before the Attorney General or in U.S. district court or appropriate State court).

Provides for review of a denied application before the Board of Immigration Appeals and thereafter in U.S. district court.

Reduces naturalization residency requirements from six months State residency to three months residency in a State or Immigration and Naturalization Service district.

Directs the Attorney General to provide the public with information regarding naturalization benefits. Obligates funds for such purpose.

Directs the Attorney General to provide for the naturalization of certain Filipino veterans who served in the U.S. armed forces during World War II.

Title III: Status of Students from the People's Republic of China - Emergency Chinese Immigration Relief Act of 1989 - Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide for the adjustment to temporary or permanent resident status, or change to another nonimmigrant status, of certain nonimmigrant (student, exchange visitor) nationals of the People's Republic of China. (Waives the two-year home country residence requirement for "J" visa exchange visitors).

Authorizes such persons to travel abroad and to work in the United States.

Establishes a deferred departure period for such persons through June 5, 1993. Authorizes the Attorney General as of June 5, 1990, to terminate such deferred departure period if the President certifies to the Congress that conditions in China have changed.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the President establish a Task Force on Certain Nationals of the People's Republic of China in the United States which shall: (1) assess the needs and status of such Chinese citizens admitted under U.S. nonimmigrant visas; (2) formulate appropriate policies and programs; and (3) establish a related information clearinghouse.

Requires the President to: (1) submit a program report to the Congress within 60 days of enactment of this Act; and (2) submit program reports to the appropriate congressional committees every 90 days (the first report due by May 1, 1990).

Terminates the Task Force two years after enactment of this Act.

Title IV: Burmese Students - Directs the Attorney General to report to the appropriate congressional committees within 30 days of enactment of this Act with regard to U.S. immigration policy toward Burmese pro-democracy protestors who have fled Myanmar (Burma) to border camps or to Thailand.

Requires such report to include information concerning: (1) the number and location of such people; (2) U.S. visa and parole applications and approvals; (3) immigration policies of Thailand and other concerned countries; and (4) assistance from the United States, other nations, and international organizations.

Title V: Labor Shortage Reduction - Directs the Secretary of Labor, using available data bases, to identify, publish, and distribute an annual list of national labor shortages. Requires the first publication within 18 months of enactment of this Act.

Requires such list to include information on: (1) the intensity and concentration of the shortage; (2) the supply and demand of affected workers; (3) affected wages; and (4) affected job content and entry requirements.

Directs the Secretary to conduct related research and data bank development.

Directs the Secretary to submit an annual program report to the Congress.

Authorizes appropriations.

Title VI: Census - Expresses the findings of the Congress that not counting the millions of illegal aliens residing in the United States separately in the 1990 ensus will distort the House of Representatives reapportionment base.

Directs the Secretary of Commerce to make necessary population figure adjustments in order to prevent such occurrence.

States that a finding of unconstitutionality with regard to any provision of this title shall not affect the validity of other provisions of this Act.

Martin Luther King, Jr., Federal Holiday Commission Extension Act - Extends the Martin Luther King, Jr. Federal Holiday Commission to April 30, 1994. (Current law terminates the Commission on April 20, 1989.) Makes the term of Commission members one year, except for Coretta Scott King (life term) and members of the family surviving Martin Luther King, Jr. (at the discretion of the family).

Prohibits the Commission from making any expenditures, or receiving or utilizing any assistance under this Act, for training activities for the purpose of directing or encouraging: (1) the organization or implementation of campaigns to protest social conditions; and (2) any form of civil disobedience.

Amends existing requirements to make the Commission's report on its activities reflect the most recent observance of the holiday.

Replaces provisions requiring all expenditures of the Commission to be from donated funds with provisions authorizing appropriations for each fiscal year. Makes payment of expenses for Commission members and staff salary subject to the availability of funds. Repeals provisions exempting the Commission from the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the bronze replica of the Declaration of Independence should be returned to a place of prominence in the Rotunda of the U.S. Capitol.

S. 486 Sen. Bentsen, et al.; 3/1/89

Authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to construct and test the Lake Meredith Salinity Control Project, New Mexico and Texas, to improve the quality of water to the Canadian River downstream of Ute Reservoir, New Mexico, and entering Lake Meredith, Texas.

Authorizes the Secretary to enter into a contract with the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority of Texas (Authority) for the design and construction management of project facilities by the Bureau of Reclamation and for the payment of construction costs by the Authority. Makes it the responsibility of the Authority to operate and maintain the facilities upon completion of construction and testing.

Requires the Authority to advance all costs of construction of project facilities as the non-Federal contribution. Declares the Federal share to be all project costs for verification, design preparation, and construction management. Requires the Authority, upon termination of construction pursuant to this Act, to reimburse the Secretary a sum equal to 67 percent of all costs incurred by the Secretary in project verification, design, and construction management, reduced by any sums previously paid by the Authority to the Secretary for such purposes. States that upon such termination, the United States is under no obligation to complete the project as a nonreimbursable development.

Provides for transferring control of the project works to the Authority or to a bona fide entity agreeable to New Mexico and Texas upon completion of construction and testing, or upon termination of activities at the request of the Authority and reimbursement of Federal costs pursuant to this Act.

Authorizes appropriations.

Directs the Secretary to inventory all wetlands on Federal lands owned by or withdrawn for the use of the Bureau of Reclamation and other Federal lands associated with reclamation projects. Requires the Secretary, not later than February 1, 1990, to report to specified congressional committees a plan for the implementation of the inventory directive. Requires the Secretary to report the results of such inventory to the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources and the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs by December 31, 1991.

Makes drug and alcohol counseling and referral and individual and family counseling eligible supportive services.

Includes representatives of public assistance agencies on private industry councils (PICs). Revises provisions relating to education and labor representatives.

Revises requirements for service delivery area (SDA) job training plans. Requires that such plans be made available for review and comment by community-based organizations.

Revises requirements for performance standards to include measuring increased educational attainment and occupational skills. Directs the Secretary of Labor (the Secretary) to develop performance standards for Adult and Youth Opportunity programs. Adds to allowable performance standards for adult training programs the acquisition of basic skills and workplace competencies, as well as of a high school or general equivalency diploma. Authorizes the Secretary to prescribe variations in such youth training program standards to reflect the differences between in-school and out-of-school programs. Requires PIC's to determine such standards, based on factors such as entry skill levels and other hiring requirements. Directs Governors to award incentive funds to SDAs for achieving performance standard levels. Requires Governors to prescribe variations in performance standards based upon specified criteria. Allows Governors to prescribe additional performance standards for specified programs, including employment and training assistance for dislocated workers. Directs the Secretary to prescribe performance standards for certain federally administered programs.

Requires selection of service providers on a competitive basis to the maximum extent possible. Requires such selection process to include: (1) determination of the service provider's ability to meet program design specifications; and (2) documentation of compliance with procurement standards. Requires SDAs to give priority in selecting service providers for older individuals, displaced homemakers, and other target populations, to agencies and organization with a record of demonstrated effectiveness in serving such people.

Requires, with specified exceptions, that all expenditures under JTPA be charged to appropriate cost categories. Establishes new cost categories and cost limitations for the Adult Opportunity and Youth Opportunity programs.

Allows SDAs to enter into agreements with one another to share the cost of education, training, and placement. Requires PIC approval of such agreements and provides that each SDA in such agreement shall be credited under appropriate performance standards.

Authorizes the Secretary to reallot certain funds that will not be expended within a reasonable period.

Requires the Governor's coordination and special services plan to include descriptions of State coordination measures and projected grant uses. Allows coordination and special services activities to include: (1) coordination between Adult Opportunity and Dislocated Worker programs; and (2) initiatives under the State Innovation and Coordination Grants program.

Repeals specified provisions for State education and coordination grants and for training programs for older workers.

Limits the duration of on-the-job training under the Act to a period not in excess of that generally required for acquisition of necessary skills for the particular position but in no event longer than six months.

Prohibits specified funds from being used for public service employment.

Requires States to establish fiscal control and fund accounting procedures to ensure proper disbursal and accounting of Federal funds. Requires the Governor to establish procurement standards for States, local areas, and SDAs to ensure that specified criteria are met.

Requires States, administrative entities conducting the program, and recipients (other than sub-recipients) to monitor the performance of service providers in complying with the agreements under JTPA.

Revises training services for disadvantaged adults and renames them the Adult Opportunity Program. Sets forth new eligibility requirements and a new formula for the allotment of funds to the disadvantaged adult program. Requires that the following features be included in all individual adult programs: (1) assessment of skill levels and service needs; (2) service strategy; (3) progress review; and (4) where appropriate, basic and occupational skills training. Requires SDAs to link the adult program with: (1) other specified Federal programs; and (2) State, local, and private programs, as appropriate. Allows an SDA to transfer up to ten percent of adult program funds to the youth program under certain conditions.

Revises training services for disadvantaged youth and renames them the Youth Opportunity Program. Sets forth new eligibility requirements and a new formula for the allotment of funds to the disadvantaged youth program. Requires that the following features be included in all individual youth programs: (1) assessment of skill levels and service needs; (2) service strategy; (3) progress review; and (4) where appropriate, training in basic, occupational, pre-employment, and work maturity skills, work experience combined with skills training, and supportive services. Requires SDAs to link the youth program with: (1) other specified Federal programs; and (2) as appropriate, State, local, and private programs. Allows an SDA to transfer up to ten percent of youth program funds to the adult program under certain conditions.

Establishes a State Innovation and Coordination Grants Program, with grants to States to encourage: (1) Statewide policies and strategies to achieve critical human resource development goals for at-risk populations; (2) use of cooperative and innovative arrangements among various State agencies to address the multifaceted problems of at-risk youth and adults; (3) program innovations to develop comprehensive and coordinated education, training, and employment services for youth and adults at risk of chronic unemployment and welfare dependency; and (4) development of public-private collaboration to assure private sector employment and continued learning opportunities for economically disadvantaged adults and youth. Sets forth provisions relating to Federal share, State innovation and coordination plan, program review and oversight, and reports.

Provides, with respect to employment and training assistance for dislocated workers, that an eligible dislocated worker participating in training (except on-the-job training) shall be deemed to be in training with the approval of the State agency for purposes of unemployment compensation.

Revises Native American programs to extend program eligibility to American Samoans. Directs the Secretary to: (1) designate a single organizational unit in the Department of Labor to have principal responsibility for developing, coordinating, and overseeing policies for operating Native American programs under JTPA; and (2) make a special effort to recruit Indians, Native Alaskans, American Samoans, and Native Hawaiians for employment in such unit. Directs the Secretary to establish an Advisory Council on Native American Job Training Programs. Reserves specified (other than Job Corps) funds for Native American programs, especially for certain programs for economically disadvantaged Native American youth.

Reserves specified (other than Job Corps) funds for Migrant and Seasonal Farmworker Programs.

Raises from ten to 20 percent the percentage of Job Corps participants who may be in the non-residential program. Prohibits reduction of residential program participants in any program year to below that of 1989 in order to increase the number of non-residential program participants.

Consolidates and revises: (1) national partnership and special training programs; (2) research, demonstration, and evaluation activities; and (3) training and technical assistance.

Authorizes the Secretary to engage in research, demonstration, and other activities to determine the feasibility of various methods of organizing, and making accessible nationwide, information on the quarterly earnings for all individuals for whom such information is collected by the States. Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress on costs and benefits of establishing and maintaining a national longitudinal data base using unemployment insurance wage records, including safeguards for confidentiality and privacy.

Increases the amount of funding for the National Occupational Information Coordinating Committee (by changing the current specified maximum limit on such reserved funds to a higher minimum amount availability requirement).

Provides for replication of successful programs. Directs the Secretary to make grants to: (1) national or regional public or private nonprofit organizations to provide technical assistance; and (2) States and SDAs for costs of developing and operating model programs. Directs the Secretary to appoint a review panel of experts in operating and evaluating employment and training ograms for economically disadvantaged youth, adults, and dis- cated workers. Requires the panel to select and designate model ograms according to specified criteria, giving special considera- on to programs that have integrated or coordinated services with her service providers in basic skills instruction, and occupation- , pre-employment, and work maturity training programs. Sets rth grant application requirements. Prohibits the Secretary from pproving grants in any three-year period for the same replication ctivities in more than ten States or communities. Requires the anel to evaluate such programs during such period. Authorizes e Secretary, on the basis of panel recommendations, to: (1) repli- ate such programs in more than ten communities or for longer an three years; or (2) waive such limitation if immediate replica- on efforts on a larger scale are warranted by extensive evaluation rior to designation as a model program.

Establishes a Fair Chance Youth Opportunities Unlimited Pro- ram. Authorizes the Secretary to establish such national program f Youth Opportunities Unlimited (YOU) grants to pay 50 percent f the cost of comprehensive services for youth in high poverty reas in cities and rural areas. Authorizes the Secretary to select s grant recipients up to: (1) 25 communities during the first year fter the program is authorized; and (2) a total of 40 communities ver the five-year authorization period. Requires that at least one, ut not more than three, of such grants be awarded to designated epresentatives of Indian reservations and Alaskan native villages. Allows renewal of grants for specified periods. Authorizes par- icipating communities to apply for grants on behalf of target areas. Requires such grants to be awarded to the local SDA (on behalf of the participating community) in which the target area is located. Sets forth requirements for applications and grant agreements. Directs the Secretary to provide for implementation assistance, independent evaluations, and a report to the President and the Congress by December 31, 1994.

Establishes a program of employment and training assistance for displaced homemakers. Authorizes the Secretary to provide financial assistance for projects using comprehensive and innovative approaches to delivering services to displaced homemakers. Authorizes a grant award to a statewide public agency or a statewide nonprofit organization which has demonstrated effective administration of a diversified education, training, and employability development program for displaced homemakers. Directs the Secretary to award not more than one renewable grant per State to administer such services. Sets forth provisions for applications, priorities for grant awards, funding supplementation, and administrative procedures.

Title II: State Human Resource Council - Requires each State which receives assistance under an applicable program to establish a single State human resource investment council to review and advise on coordination of and standards for applicable programs under: (1) the Adult Education Act; (2) the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act; (3) the Job Training Partnership Act; (4) the Wagner-Peyser Act; and (5) the JOBS program of the Social Security Act. Department of Energy National Laboratory Cooperative Research and Technology Competitiveness Act of 1989 - Defines terms and lists laboratories subject to this Act.

Declares it a mission of the National Laboratories to foster, through the transfer of technology to the private sector consistent with the national security and a fair return on taxpayers' investment, the commercialization of technology developed through laboratory activities. Directs the Secretary of Energy to take actions to further this mission.

Subtitle A: National Laboratory Centers for Technology Management - Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations to ensure that the director of any National Laboratory has the authority to negotiate and enter into cooperative research and development agreements with various private and public entities and to negotiate intellectual property licensing agreements for National Laboratory property.

Authorizes National Laboratory directors to include specified types of provisions in cooperative agreements. Enumerates mandatory determinations the director must make when deciding whether to enter an agreement, including a determination that National Laboratory facilities are available and that the proposed work is consistent with applicable guidelines and would neither interfere with Department of Energy programs nor create a financial burden on the laboratory.

Sets forth criteria the director of a National Laboratory must consider when deciding which agreements to enter into, including a preference for businesses that agree to manufacture the relevant property substantially in the United States.

Limits the cumulative total of nonappropriated funds received in any year under agreements under this title to ten percent of the annual budget of the laboratory, unless the Secretary gives advance approval.

Prescribes criteria to be met in the interest of avoiding cooperative research and development agreements or intellectual property licenses that reflect any conflict of interest with respect to National Laboratory personnel.

Requires each National Laboratory to keep records of all agreements and to submit them annually to the Secretary.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) review existing regulations, policies, conflict of interest standards, and incentives for non-governmental parties in connection with cooperative research agreements; (2) formulate and implement comprehensive policy to advance this Act's objectives; and (3) report review findings and recommendations to the Congress and to the President.

Allows the Secretary to include provisions in cooperative research and development agreements for temporary exchanges of personnel between any domestic firm or university and the National Laboratories.

Authorizes the Secretary to make facilities, personnel, and other resources of the Department of Energy available to other Federal departments or agencies and to any participant in cooperative research and development agreements.

Directs the Secretary to ensure that unnecessarily duplicative research is not performed at the research facilities of the Department of Energy, including the National Laboratories.

Subtitle B: Centers for Research on High-Temperature Superconducting Technologies - Directs the Secretary of Energy to: (1) initiate and implement a cooperative program of research on enabling high-temperature superconductor technology and its practical applications; (2) form the Council for Research on Enabling Technologies, comprising representatives of appropriate government, university, and industry personnel, to advise the Secretary concerning goals and strategies; and (3) establish cooperative research centers in enabling technologies for high-temperature superconducting materials and applications at at least one National Laboratory. Prescribes criteria for selecting Laboratories.

Directs the Secretary to ensure that National Laboratories may participate in the cooperative program and to enter into agreements and contracts to provide for their active participation. Requires the program to include provisions for at least one National Laboratory to conduct research, experimental, and development activities relating to high-temperature superconductivity.

Subtitle C: General Provisions - Directs the Secretary to issue regulations with respect to cooperative agreements, criteria for entering into agreements, and agreement considerations, subjecting the regulations to preissuance review by the Office of Federal Procurement Policy.

Lists provisions to govern disposition of title to property developed by National Laboratories. Permits waivers of Government license rights in connection with categories of inventions determined to be directly related to research and development on the design, manufacture, or use of any nuclear weapon or component.

Enumerates intellectual property rights and royalty provisions that must be included in DOE funding agreements to operate a National Laboratory.

Vests in arbitration boards the responsibility of determining the amount to be paid to the United States by National Laboratory managers or directors for intellectual property rights retained by the laboratory.

Authorizes the Secretary to require the licensing to third parties of all intellectual property subject to this title's provisions.

Directs the Secretary and the Inspector General of the Department of Energy, along with the Comptroller General, to conduct periodic audits of National Laboratory activities.

Declares that the United States shall not be liable for the use or manufacture of an invention covered by a patent acquired under this Act nor for the infringement of any copyright or certificate of plant variety protection acquired under this Act.

Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1989 - Amends the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 to direct the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) to establish a program requiring air carriers and foreign air carriers to conduct pre-employment, reasonable suspicion, periodic recurring, random, and post-accident testing of employees whose duties include responsibility for safety-sensitive functions for use of alcohol or a controlled substance in violation of Federal law.

Requires the Administrator to establish the same program for FAA employees. Sets forth guidelines for such program.

Prohibits such employees from serving in safety-sensitive functions unless they have completed a rehabilitation program established under FAA auspices. Prohibits such individuals from performing air transportation-related duties if they: (1) engaged in such use while on duty; (2) prior to such use had completed a rehabilitation program; (3) following a determination of such use refuse to undertake such a program; or (4) fail to complete the program.

Requires the Administrator to prescribe regulations setting forth requirements for rehabilitation programs which provide for the identification and opportunity for treatment of such employees in resolving problems with substance abuse.

Requires the Administrator to establish and maintain such a rehabilitation program for FAA employees whose duties include responsibility for flight safety operations and who need assistance in resolving substance abuse problems. Outlines the requirements of such program.

Amends the Federal Railroad Safety Act of 1970 to direct the Secretary of Transportation to issue regulations relating to alcohol and drug use in railroad operations. Outlines the requirements for test procedures for alcohol and drug use among railroad employees responsible for safety-sensitive functions.

Amends the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986 to direct the Secretary to establish a program requiring motor carriers to conduct pre-employment, periodic recurring, random, and post-accident testing of commercial motor vehicle operators for use of alcohol or a controlled substance. Mandates that such program include post-accident testing of a commercial motor vehicle operator in any accident involving a commercial motor vehicle in which serious bodily injury, loss of human life, or significant property damage has occurred.

Directs the Secretary to issue regulations setting forth the requirements for a rehabilitation program for the identification and opportunity for treatment of commercial motor vehicle operators who are determined to have used alcohol or a controlled substance. Sets forth the requirements of the testing procedures. Requires the Secretary to: (1) determine appropriate sanctions against operators who are determined, as a result of such tests, to have used alcohol or a controlled substance (but who are not under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance); (2) design and implement a pilot test program for the random testing of commercial motor vehicle operators to determine the use of alcohol or a controlled substance; (3) solicit (and select) State participation in such a program; and (4) submit a comprehensive report to the Congress setting forth the pilot program results.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for such pilot testing program.

S. 568 Sen. Pell, et al.; 3/15/89

Stafford Student Loan Default Prevention and Management Act of 1989 - Title I: Default Management - Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 (the Act) to require default management plans to be developed and carried out by certain guaranty agencies, eligible lenders, and eligible institutions with high default rates under part B (the Robert T. Stafford Student Loan Program, formerly known as the Guaranteed Student Loan Program) of title IV (Student Assistance) of the Act.

Directs the Secretary of Education (the Secretary) to determine the default rates for guaranty agencies, eligible lenders, and eligible institutions. Requires those guaranty agencies, lenders, and institutions with default rates in excess of 25 percent to develop and carry out default management plans.

Subjects guaranty agencies, lenders, and institutions with high volume default rates in the highest five percent by volume of defaulted student loans to program reviews by the Secretary (in the case of guaranty agencies) or by the State guaranty agency (in the case of lenders or institutions). Directs the Secretary (or the State guaranty agency, as the case may be) to develop and implement a default management plan for such guaranty agencies, lenders, or institutions if it is determined that their management practices substantially contribute to the high volume default.

Title II: Improved Stafford Student Loan Collection Provisions - Requires each eligible institution to transmit financial aid transcripts (necessary for loan need determination statements) within 30 days of receiving a request from another such institution.

Requires lenders or holders of the loan to notify the borrower, within 180 days after the student borrower leaves the eligible institution, of the month in which the repayment period begins, for both federally-insured student loans (FISL loans) and guaranteed student loans under the Stafford program (Stafford loans).

Requires lenders of Stafford loans to notify the guaranty agency (and the borrower, if the loan is to be paid at a new address) of any sale or transfer of the loan to another holder, and the address and phone number through which to contact such other holder concerning loan repayment, within 60 days of such sale or transfer.

Prohibits guaranty agencies from selling lists of student borrowers under the Stafford Student Loan program

Authorizes guaranty agencies, when the location of a student borrower is unknown or unavailable to them, to enter into agreements for the appropriate State licensing board to provide that information.

Eliminates loan repayment deferments that are based on the status of the child rather than the parent, under the parent loan (PLUS) program.

Requires lenders to obtain a credit check of applicants for PLUS loans. Allows the lender to charge the applicant for the actual cost of such credit check, up to $25. Requires applicants with negative credit histories to obtain credit-worthy cosigners.

Requires an administrative fee, not to exceed five percent of the principal, to be charged to the borrower and paid to the Secretary by the lender, under the Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS) and PLUS loan programs.

Requires that the amount to be consolidated be greater than $7,500, in order for a borrower to consolidate loans borrowed for an enrollment period of 12 months or less.

Requires multiple disbursement of student loans under the Stafford Student Loan program. Requires that any such loan for $1,000 or more for an enrollment period ending more than 180 days or six months after the disbursement date, be disbursed in two or more installments, none of which exceeds one-half of the loan.

Prohibits endorsement of the first installment to a new student borrower entering the first undergraduate year until 30 days after the borrower begins a course of study, but allows such installment to be delivered to the eligible institution prior to the end of the 30-day period. Prohibits disbursement of loans to any other student more than 30 days before the beginning of the enrollment period.

Sets forth requirements for methods of multiple disbursement.

Requires the lender or escrow agent to withhold a second or succeeding installment if the borrower has ceased to be enrolled on at least a half-time basis.

Provides that all loans issued for the same enrollment period shall be considered a single loan for specified purposes.

Excludes from such additional disbursement requirements parent (PLUS) loans, consolidation loans, and loans to cover study at an institution outside the United States.

Establishes an extended collection demonstration program under the Stafford Student Loan program. Directs the Secretary to enter into agreements with guaranty agencies to establish up to three demonstration programs for extended efforts to reduce defaults on delinquent Stafford student loans. Terminates the demonstration program on September 30, 1993.

Directs the Secretary, guaranty agency, eligible lender, or subsequent holder to disclose to credit bureau organizations any information concerning the date a delinquency began and the repayment status of any loan that has been delinquent for 90 days. Requires that the borrower be informed that such organizations will be notified of such delinquency.

Requires eligible lenders to furnish appropriate eligible institutions and guaranty agencies with lists of delinquent Stafford loan borrowers within 120 days of the date on which a loan is delinquent.

Requires each eligible institution to make available to prospective students, at or before the time of application, relevant State licensing requirements for any job for which the course of instruction is designed.

Requires institutions, under student aid program participating agreements, to withhold academic transcripts of student borrowers in default on any title IV loan unless this will prevent the borrower from obtaining employment and repaying the loan.

Prohibits institutions, under student aid program participation agreements, from using any independent contractor or anyone other than a salaried employee, except in specified circumstances, to conduct any canvassing, surveying, recruiting, or similar activities, or to make final determinations that an individual meets the institution's admissions or financial aid eligibility requirements.

Authorizes the Secretary to prescribe regulations for the limitation, suspension (up to 60 days), or termination of eligibility of an individual or organization to administer any aspect of an institution's student assistance program.

Directs the Comptroller General to: (1) conduct a study relating to the discharge of student loan indebtedness in bankruptcy proceedings; and (2) report the results of such study to the Congress within three years after enactment of this Act.

Title III: Federal Responsibilities - Directs the Secretary to develop and publish an annual default report to the Congress, beginning on September 30, 1988, which includes: (1) the annual default rate for the Stafford Student Loan program; (2) a summary of the default rates for guaranty agencies, lenders, and institutions determined under default management plan positions; and (3) the net dollar volume in default for each such entity.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) prepare a list of guaranty agencies, a list of eligible lenders, and a list of eligible institutions in the order of the volume of Stafford student loans in default for each such entity; and (2) identify the highest five percent of entities on each such list.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) develop a plan, to be published in the Federal Register for public comment, for conducting program reviews of all guaranty agencies, eligible lenders, and eligible institutions; (2) report annually to the Congress on the results of such reviews; and (3) give priority to conducting program reviews of guaranty agencies and eligible institutions with the highest default rates and the highest dollar value of loans in default.

Authorizes the Secretary to carry out limitation, suspension, or termination proceedings against an institution if it: (1) withdraws from an accrediting agency or association during a show cause or suspension proceeding; or (2) is denied institutional accreditation.

Directs the Secretary to contract for, or establish, and publicize a toll-free telephone number as a consumer hotline for use by the public, to permit students to inform the Department of alleged fraud or unfair practices by eligible institutions.

Requires the Secretary to establish the National Student Loan Data System, and to assure that such computerized System is operable by October 1, 1989. (Such system is currently authorized but not mandated.) Requires guaranty agencies to: (1) furnish the Department with information to be used in the System about each loan under the Stafford Student Loan program; (2) expand and standardize the confirmation reports to assure information at least bimonthly on delinquencies, defaults, and borrower status changes; and (3) provide the Secretary with complete and accurate data for the System on a quarterly basis.

Authorizes the Secretary to require an institution to refund the student's tuition and fees in cases of violation, failure, or misrepresentation under title IV of the Act.

Title IV: Amendments to the Needs Analysis Provisions - Modifies need analysis provisions under title IV of the Act for the computation of parents, students', and spouses' contributions to require a family member to be enrolled at an eligible institution in a postsecondary education program meeting specified requirements in order for that member to be counted as in college.

Reduces from 70 percent to 50 percent the amount of student income considered for purposes of expected contribution by a dependent student.

Prohibits double-counting of income in the conduct of Pell Grant and general need analysis for student assistance programs under the Act.

Provides that nothing in title IV limits the authority of student financial aid administrators to: (1) make necessary adjustments to the cost of attendance and expected student and/or parent contribution under special circumstances; or (2) use supplementary information about the financial status or personal circumstance of eligible applicants in selecting recipients and determining award amounts under specified student assistance programs. Repeals specified provisions of the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1989 which had repealed such provisions for such administrator discretion.

Allows the costs of food and shelter for dependent care to be included in the cost of attendance, in the case of independent students with dependents and with incomes less than the Standard Maintenance Allowance. Allows projected income for the award year to be considered instead of income reported for the preceding tax year. Allows the exclusion of certain assets from the calculation of expected family contribution in the case of dislocated workers or homemakers.

Includes a student's total veterans' education benefits in determinations of need. Excludes certain assets of families with annual adjusted gross incomes of $30,000 or below.

Title V: Other Higher Education Amendments - Revises the period of eligibility for Pell Grants to limit it to the full-time equivalent of: (1) the number of academic years that the undergraduate degree normally requires, plus one academic year; or (2) six academic years in the case of a degree or certificate program normally requiring more than four academic years.

Revises College Work-Study program eligibility standards to require that only need-based employment (employment that directly offsets educational expenses) be monitored.

Makes individuals serving in a medical internship or residency program leading to a degree or certificate eligible for certain two-year deferments from student loan repayment (but ineligible for certain others) under the FISL, Stafford Student Loan, and Direct Student Loan programs.

Student Loan Marketing Association Amendments of 1989 - Revises the corporate organization of the Student Loan Marketing Association (Sallie Mae).

Revises requirements concerning the common Federal student aid application and its processing.

Directs the Secretary, in reallocating returned funds under the supplemental educational opportunity grants program, to give special consideration to institutions located in major natural disaster areas.

Requires each State guaranty agency to ensure that there is a lender of last resort in its State.

Revises the formula for determining an institution's eligible amount under the direct student loan (Perkins loan) program.

Requires that institutional and financial assistance information be provided to students concerning terms and conditions for repayment deferments (and in the case of Federal volunteer programs, partial cancellations of amounts owed) for service under the Peace Corps Act and the Domestic Volunteer Service Act (VISTA) or for comparable full-time volunteer service for a tax-exempt organization.

Revises part B (Patricia Roberts Harris Fellowships) of title IX (Graduate Education) of the Act to authorize the Secretary to make grants to consortia of institutions of higher education which include historically Black colleges for programs to provide supplemental need-based financial aid to students and faculty from historically Black colleges who are pursuing doctoral studies. Sets the Federal share of such program costs at 66 2/3 percent. Authorizes appropriations for such grants for FY 1990 and 1991.

Amends the General Education Provisions Act (GEPA) to no longer exclude programs under the Higher Education Act of 1965 from GEPA audit provisions.

Title VI: Effective Dates - Sets forth effective dates for various provisions of this Act.

Student Athlete Right-to-Know Act - Requires institutions of higher education receiving Federal assistance to provide certain information with respect to the graduation rates of student-athletes. Includes information on race and sex under such requirement.

Requires such institutions to: (1) report such information annually to the Secretary of Education; and (2) provide it to the student and the student's parents, guidance counselor, and high school coach when the institution offers a potential student-athlete any athletically related student aid.

Directs the Secretary to compile and publish a report containing such information and to make copies available upon request to individuals and to secondary schools.

Authorizes the Secretary to obtain such information from a private, not-for-profit organization when such collection will reduce the paperwork burden imposed on higher education institutions.

Directs the Secretary, in conjunction with the national Junior College Athletic Association, to develop and obtain data on graduation rates from two-year colleges that award athletically related student aid.

Consumer Product Safety Commission Authorization Act of 1989 - Amends the Consumer Product Safety Act with respect to the Consumer Product Safety Commission to: (1) require the President, when making appointments to the Commission, to consider individuals with consumer product safety backgrounds; (2) decrease the number of Commission members from five to three and revise quorum requirements accordingly; (3) revise and add to the list of personnel to be appointed by the Chairman; and (4) direct the Commission to establish an agenda and priorities for its actions prior to each fiscal year.

Permits disclosure of certain administrative information to Commission representatives, including contractors.

Amends the Consumer Product Safety Act, the Federal Hazardous Substances Act, and the Flammable Fabrics Act to require the Commission to approve or deny any petition to initiate rulemaking with respect to consumer product safety rules within a reasonable time after the petition is filed. Directs the Commission to explain both approvals and denials. Prescribes standards to govern denials made on the basis of voluntary standards.

Requires the Commission: (1) with limited exception, to issue proposed consumer product safety rules within 12 months of publication of advanced notice of proposed rulemaking (authorizes extensions, subject to notice requirements with respect to both the Congress and the public); (2) to offer interested persons an opportunity for comment before relying upon any voluntary consumer product safety standard; and (3) to develop procedures to monitor compliance with such standards.

Increases civil penalties imposed under the Consumer Product Safety Act on persons who violate consumer product safety requirements. Adds civil penalties to the criminal penalties imposed in connection with violations of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act. Provides for automatic increases in the maximum authorized civil penalties under both Acts, based on increases in the Consumer Price Index.

Directs the Commission annually to submit to specified congressional committees information concerning the imposition of civil penalties with regard to activities under its administration.

Revises provisions relating to appointments to the Chronic Hazard Advisory Panel.

Authorizes FY 1989 through 1991 appropriations.

S. 640 Sen. Kassebaum, et al.; 3/16/89

General Aviation Accident Liability Standards Act of 1989 - Declares that this Act supersedes any State law regarding liability for general aviation accidents. Establishes guidelines for uniform standards of liability of general aviation manufacturers for general aviation accidents.

States that all actions for harm arising out of a general aviation accident shall be governed by the principles of comparative responsibility.

Establishes, with specified exceptions, a limitation of actions period of 20 years from delivery of aircraft or harm-causing part to the purchaser for general aviation civil liability brought against a general aviation manufacturer. Declares admissible as evidence certain income tax and payroll tax liability for purposes of establishing financial harm arising out of a general aviation accident. Permits the award of punitive damages if a claimant establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the harm suffered was the direct result of conduct manifesting conscious, flagrant indifference to safety. Establishes a two-year limitation of actions period for actions arising out of a general aviation accident.

Declares the intent of the Congress that sanctions be strictly enforced for violations of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including orders to pay to the other party the reasonable costs of legal fees.

Confers original jurisdiction upon the Federal district courts, concurrently with State courts, for all civil actions for harm arising out of a general aviation accident. Provides procedures for removal from State to Federal district courts of such actions.

S. 673 Sen. Bryan, et al.; 3/17/89

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration Authorization Act of 1989 - Title I: Authorization of Appropriations - Amends the following Acts to authorize appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991: (1) the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966; (2) the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act with respect to bumper standards, automobile consumer information, and odometer requirements; and (3) the National Driver Register Act of 1982.

Authorizes the Secretary of Transportation (the Secretary) to derive a specified maximum amount from unobligated highway safety program funds to implement a national community education program regarding drunk driving prevention and the use and effectiveness of airbag technology.

Title II: Side Impact Protection and Crashworthiness Data - Directs the Secretary to: (1) issue a final rule amending Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard 214 to establish performance criteria for improved occupant protection in side impacts; and (2) issue an Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to extend the applicability of such Standard to multipurpose passenger vehicles.

Directs the Secretary to enter into arrangements with the National Academy of Sciences to study means of establishing a method for calculating a uniform numerical rating enabling consumers to compare meaningfully crashworthiness data for passenger automobiles and multipurpose passenger vehicles. Prescribes the contents of such study. Requires that a report of such study be submitted to the Secretary and the Congress within 19 months after the date of enactment of this Act.

Prescribes schedules for: (1) obtaining public comment on implementation of National Academy recommendations; (2) determining whether an objectively based system of comparative crashworthiness data can be established; (3) promulgating a rule to establish such a system, if the determination is positive; (4) submitting the proposed rule for review to specified congressional committees; (5) waiting 60 calendar days after such submission, unless both committees notify the Secretary that they have no objection to the rule; and (6) establishing (by rule) procedures requiring auto dealers to make comparative crashworthiness data available to prospective customers.

Title III: Miscellaneous Provisions - Amends the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 to direct the Secretary to: (1) establish a schedule for use in ensuring compliance with each Federal motor vehicle safety standard established under this Act which the Secretary determines is capable of being tested; (2) establish written guidelines and procedures for conducting investigations regarding noncompliance with the regulations issued under this Act; and (3) establish criteria for the determination and imposition of civil penalties for such noncompliance.

Requires the Secretary, 18 months after enactment of this Act, to require each State to provide for a uniform system for handicapped parking according to prescribed guidelines. Provides for reduction of apportioned funds for noncompliance.

Directs the Secretary to complete rulemaking to: (1) revise specified motor vehicle safety standards regarding multipurpose passenger vehicles; (2) review the classification system for vehicles with a gross weight under 10,000 pounds to determine if such vehicles should be reclassified; (3) amend Federal motor vehicle safety standards to provide that lap and shoulder seatbelt protecion for outboard rear seat passengers should be installed in passenger automobiles after specified dates and to provide for head restraints for multipurpose passenger vehicles; and (4) consider the establishment of a standard to protect against unreasonable risk of rollover of multipurpose passenger vehicles. Mandates that a specified percentage of certain authorized appropriations shall be used to disseminate consumer information regarding retrofitting passenger automobiles with lap and shoulder rear seatbelts.

Directs the Secretary to establish a program requiring airbags for Federal passenger vehicles.

Amends the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act to direct the Secretary to: (1) promulgate regulations establishing passenger motor vehicle bumper system labeling requirements; and (2) arrange with the National Academy of Sciences to conduct a study of specified aspects of the effectiveness of State motor vehicle safety inspection programs for transmittal to certain congressional committees.

Amends the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 to: (1) conduct a rulemaking to increase the safety of child booster seats used in passenger automobiles; and (2) authorize the Secretary of Transportation to direct the manufacturer of a defective motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to send a second notification if the Secretary determines that the first notification sent by such manufacturer has not resulted in an adequate number of vehicles (or items of equipment) being returned for remedy.

Requires any lessor who receives notification of a defective motor vehicle part pertaining to any leased motor vehicle to send a copy of such notice to the lessee.

Provides that a dealer may sell or lease a motor vehicle (or motor vehicle item) for which a safety defect notice has been received only if: (1) the defect or failure to comply has been remedied before delivery under sale or lease; or (2) an enforcement order has been set aside or restrained.

Directs the Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration to conduct a study of the use of darkened windshields and window glass in passenger automobiles, and to submit the results of such study to certain congressional committees.

Directs the Secretary to amend the bumper standard published in the Code of Federal Regulations to ensure that such standard is identical to that in effect on January 1, 1982.

Directs the Secretary to make grants to States which adopt and implement seatbelt ,and child restraint programs which include specified measures to foster the increased use of seatbelts and the correct use of child restraint systems. Sets conditions for the use of such grants by such States. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Directs the Secretary to initiate a rulemaking to: (1) consider methods of reducing head injuries in passenger automobiles and multipurpose passenger vehicles from contact with vehicle interior components by revising the appropriate Federal motor vehicle safety standards; and (2) consider the establishment of a standard to minimize pedestrian death and injury attributable to vehicle components.

Arctic Coastal Plain Competitive Oil and Gas Leasing Act - Title I: Statement of Purpose and Definitions - Declares that it is the congressional purpose to: (1) authorize competitive oil and gas leasing development on the Arctic Coastal Plain in a manner consistent with environmental and wildlife protection; and (2) provide a new funding source for the Land and Water Conservation Fund and for commercialization of energy conservation and alternative energy sources.

Title II: Congressional Determination of Compatibility - Declares that it is congressional policy that oil and gas activities on the Coastal Plain which are conducted with no significant adverse impact upon fish, wildlife, and the environment shall be deemed compatible with the purpose of the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge, and that no further compatibility findings by the Secretary of the Interior (the Secretary) are required under the National Wildlife Refuge System Administration Act.

Title III: Coastal Plain Competitive Leasing Program - Directs the Secretary to establish and implement a competitive oil and gas leasing program that will result in an environmentally sound program for Coastal Plain resources exploration, development, and production. Declares that this Act is the sole authority for leasing on the Coastal Plain.

Directs the Secretary to promulgate rules and regulations to implement this Act.

Declares that the Congress finds that the "Final Legislative Environmental Impact Statement" (April 1987) on the Coastal Plain satisfies the legal requirements under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

Sets forth the administrative parameters for: (1) lease sales and lease terms; (2) antitrust review by the Attorney General in consultation with the Federal Trade Commission; (3) exploration and development and production plans; (4) plan approval; (5) bonding requirements; and (6) lease suspension and cancellation. Allows the Secretary to exclude from leasing any areas of particular environmental sensitivity. Requires the Secretary's consent for lease assignments or subletting. Mandates that lessees unite to the greatest extent practicable in collectively adopting and operating under a cooperative or unit plan for oil pools and gas fields.

Provides for the confidentiality of privileged or proprietary information regarding development activities which must be furnished to the Secretary. Sets forth civil and criminal penalties for violations of this Act. Provides for adjudication of lease controversies. Sets forth joint, several, and strict liability for environmental damages and removal costs resulting from oil pollution or the discharge of hazardous substances. Provides for judicial review of complaints regarding regulations issued by the Secretary.

Requires the Secretary to report annually to the Congress regarding the leasing program under this Act.

Repeals certain limitations applicable to subsurface interests owned by the Inupiat Eskimo people. Provides for expedited judicial consideration of any claims for relief by certain Alaskan corporations.

Title IV: Coastal Plain Environmental Protection - Directs the Secretary to promulgate environmental protection regulations which ensure that Coastal Plain activities will result in no significant adverse effect on fish and wildlife, their habitat, and the environment. Requires site-specific assessment and mitigation.

Designates the Sadlerochit Spring area as a special area for wildlife conservation and environmental protection. Authorizes the Secretary to exclude such area from leasing and to designate other Coastal Plain areas as special areas requiring protection.

Directs the Secretary to prepare and periodically update a facilities construction and siting plan for oil and gas development and transportation. Authorizes the Secretary to grant rights-of-way and easements across the Coastal Plain in a manner that does not adversely affect fish, wildlife, and the environment. Requires the Secretary to conduct additional studies to monitor the human, marine, and coastal environments. Directs the Secretary to promulgate regulations providing for bi-annual facility inspections for compliance with environmental and safety regulations.

Provides funding for a ten-year period for environmental monitoring and enforcement on the Coastal Plain. Requires the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency to: (1) consult with the Department of Transportation and the State of Alaska about the State's role in monitoring and enforcing the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act; and (2) report annually to the Congress regarding the environmental monitoring activities.

Title V: Land Reclamation and Reclamation Liability Fund - Makes leaseholders fully responsible and liable for land reclamation within the Coastal Plain and other Federal lands adversely affected by lease activities.

Requires establishment of the Coastal Plain Liability and Reclamation Fund within six months of a commercial discovery within the Coastal Plain. Directs the Secretary to collect fees based upon the crude oil volume entering the trans-Alaska pipeline. Prescribes revenue collection and expenditure procedures.

Title VI: Disposition of Oil and Gas Revenues - Sets forth an allocation schedule for revenue distribution related to oil and gas leasing within the Arctic National Refuge, Alaska. Mandates that moneys deposited into the Land and Water Conservation Fund shall be credited to a special account within the Fund. Prescribes the administration of such Fund.

Title VII: Energy Plan - Requires the Secretary of Energy to transmit to the Congress, within 15 months after the date of enactment of this Act, an energy plan containing a proposed statement of national energy policy objectives. Outlines the contents of such plan. Directs the Secretary of the Interior to transmit to the Congress within 15 months after the date of enactment of this Act a study of present and projected offshore and onshore oil and gas developments in the Alaska Arctic region. Prohibits the Secretary of the Interior from conducting first lease sales under this Act until 21 months after its date of enactment. Directs the Secretary of Energy to establish an Energy Research and Demonstration Grant Program in the areas of energy conservation and alternative energy sources whose focus shall be energy technologies which can significantly reduce U.S. reliance on imported oil.

Title VIII: Export Restrictions - Prohibits the export of crude oil produced from Coastal Plain lands except in specified circumstances.

S. 686 Sen. Mitchell, et al.; 4/4/89

Oil Pollution Liability and Compensation Act of 1989 - Title I: Oil Pollution Liability and Compensation - Establishes the Oil Spill Compensation Fund. Makes vessel owners or operators of onshore or offshore facilities liable for removal costs and for economic or natural resource damages, including: (1) injury or loss of real or personal property or natural resources; (2) loss of use (including subsistence use) of natural resources; (3) loss or impairment of income, profits, or earning capacity; and (4) loss of Federal and State tax, royalty, rental, or net profits share revenue for up to one year.

Establishes liability limits for: (1) owners and operators of tankers; (2) other vessel owners; (3) lessees and permittees of Outer Continental Shelf facilities; (4) deepwater port facility owners; and (5) other facility owners. Excludes interest (including prejudgment interest) from such limits.

Authorizes the President to establish lower liability limits for other onshore or offshore facilities. Requires the periodic adjustment of liability limits to reflect increases in the Consumer Price Index. Makes the President (or the authorized representative of any State or foreign government) the trustee to act on behalf of the public to recover damages for injury to Federal, State, or foreign government natural resources. Requires the President, acting through the Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, to promulgate regulations within two years of enactment of this Act for the assessment of damages for injury to natural resources resulting from an oil discharge. Requires that such regulations be reviewed and revised (if necessary) every two years.

Makes the owner or operator of a vessel liable under: (1) this Act; (2) maritime tort law; and (3) the Clean Water Act.

Directs the President to use the money in the Oil Spill Compensation Fund for specified removal costs and damages. Requires the President to publish regulations regarding implementation of the authority to obligate the Fund or enter into agreements. Limits the amount which may be paid from the Fund for a single incident to $1,000,000,000.

Authorizes States to obligate the Fund for a maximum of $250,000 per discharge or substantial threat of discharge of oil and to enter into agreements with the President for additional Fund monies. Provides that the Attorney General (upon request of the President) shall commence an action against the responsible foreign government or other responsible party to recover any costs paid from the Fund as a result of oil discharge or substantial threat of discharge from a foreign offshore unit.

Requires the owner or operator of certain-size vessels and offshore facilities to establish financial responsibility sufficient to meet the maximum amount of liability to which such persons could be subjected under this Act.

Provides for judicial review of regulations and actions under this Act. Grants State courts jurisdiction to hear cases under this Act, as well as under State law. Permits the States to impose additional liability or requirements regarding oil discharges within their borders. Retains the rights of the States to maintain a fund for oil pollution compensation. Authorizes States to enforce the financial responsibility requirements of this Act. Requires the President to consult with affected States regarding removal actions.

Title II: Oil Pollution Prevention and Response - Amends the Federal Water Pollution Control Act to require (current law authorizes) the President to arrange for the removal of discharged oil or hazardous substances unless determined that such removal will be done properly and promptly by a State or the owner or operator of the vessel or facility responsible for the discharge. Authorizes the President to order an owner or operator to begin and continue removal actions until determined such actions are no longer necessary.

Requires the President (current law authorizes the United States), in the event of a maritime disaster discharge, to act through an emergency strike force to coordinate and direct all efforts to eliminate the threat posed by such discharge and to ensure compliance with contingency plans. Makes technical amendments to provisions concerning such discharges and requirements of the National Contingency Plan. Authorizes the reimbursement from the Fund of persons required to participate in removal efforts.

Directs the President to establish and maintain an oil spill response team for each region in need of a team and for inland waters to ensure the prompt removal of oil from a worst case discharge. Makes Fund moneys available to maintain such teams.

Requires owners and operators of certain oil facilities and tankers to submit to the President contingency plans for the prevention, containment, and cleanup of oil spills and for the protection of fisheries and wildlife from such spills. Outlines plan requirements and approval procedures. Directs the President to provide for regular inspection of vessels, equipment, and facilities to ensure compliance with such plans. Permits the delegation of the President's approval authority to States. Makes it unlawful to operate a vessel or facility not in compliance with an approved plan.

Directs the President to publish an annual notice of availability of descriptions of such plans and an inventory of equipment available for oil spill responses. Requires biannual practice drills under such plans. Directs the President to: (1) review and report on such drills; and (2) require additional drills and changes in implementation of approved plans, as necessary. Prescribes civil penalties for failure to comply with such plans.

Requires the President to establish a research and development program on scientific and operational aspects of spill prevention, response, containment, and recovery which gives priority to on-water oil recovery and treatment and prevention of loss from and away from vessels. Limits Fund moneys for such program to $25,000,000 annually.

Makes technical amendments to provisions concerning inspection and entry of vessels or facilities from which there is a threat of discharge. Authorizes the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency to enter any premises where oil or pollutants are stored to determine the need for, or to effectuate, response actions or to obtain samples of oil or pollutants.

Makes conforming amendments to subject violators of this title to criminal and administrative penalties. Revises civil penalty provisions to require the greater of up to $25,000 per day for discharge violations or up to $1,000 per barrel of oil or hazardous substance. Repeals a provision which prohibits assessment of penalties under more than one provision for the same discharge. Revises provisions concerning penalties for knowing discharges of oil or hazardous substances to subject violators to fines in accordance with the Federal criminal code (currently, fines up to $10,000) or to imprisonment of up to three years (currently, one), or both. Provides for the deposit of certain penalties into the Fund.

Requires the President to report to the Congress within one year after enactment of this Act regarding a study on improved methods for oil discharge prevention in restricted waters.

Directs the Administrator to report biennially to the Congress on the adequacy of the National Contingency Plan and any regulations concerning discharges of oil.

Requires the President to prescribe regulations for the assessment and collection of user fees from owners or operators of tankers or facilities for review and approval of contingency plans, inspection of equipment and personnel, and practice drills.

Title III: Oil Tanker Navigation Safety - Subtitle A: Provisions Applicable Nationally - Directs the Secretary of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating to require oil tankers operating in pilotage waters subject to U.S. jurisdiction (except when pilotage is provided by a qualified pilot who is also licensed by a State) to have: (1) one deck officer and one lookout on the navigation bridge in addition to the mate and helmsman on watch to assist in navigation, communication, and lookout responsibilities; (2) at least two individuals on board that hold First Class Pilot licenses with endorsements for the waters being transited; and (3) at least one of the personnel required to be on the navigation bridge to record the position of the tanker at least once every six minutes and to make available a nautical chart of such position to the Secretary. Defines "pilotage waters" as waters in which tankers are required to be controlled by First Class Pilots.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries on the adequacy of current regulations in minimizing the risk of oil spills and to determine which additional U.S. waters should be considered as pilotage waters.

Amends the National Driver Register Act of 1982 to authorize applicants for new and renewed merchant seamen licenses and certificates of registry to serve on or operate a commercial vessel to request the chief State driver licensing official to transmit to the Commandant of the Coast Guard information regarding such applicants' motor vehicle driving records.

Prescribes the use of such information by the Commandant. Precludes access to information that was entered more than five years before the date of request unless it relates to revocations or suspensions which are still in effect on the date of request.

Amends Federal law concerning merchant seaman licenses to authorize the suspension or revocation of such a license if the holder: (1) has been convicted of a serious criminal offense or of certain offenses under the National Driver Register Act of 1982; (2) has had a license to operate a motor vehicle denied, revoked, or suspended; or (3) fails in any way to meet Federal standards for issuance.

Directs the Commandant of the Coast Guard to require applicants for new and renewed merchant mariner's licenses to request the chief State driver licensing official to transmit to the Commandant information regarding such individuals' driving records.

Directs the Secretary to require the periodic, random, and reasonable cause testing for use of alcohol by individuals who perform safety sensitive functions on affected oil tankers. Requires the Secretary to determine whether to require that the Coast Guard be informed whenever an individual who has applied for or received a license to perform such safety functions is undergoing treatment in an alcohol rehabilitation program. Directs the Secretary to temporarily suspend such individual's license if there is probable cause that the individual: (1) has served in such capacity while impaired or under the influence of alcohol; (2) has had a motor vehicle license denied, revoked, or suspended within the previous five years; or (3) has been convicted within the previous five years of certain offenses under the National Driver Register Act of 1982.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries on U.S. ports in need of new or improved Vessel Traffic Systems (VTS) systems, to be ranked in order of the priority of need. Authorizes the Secretary to establish a system for the collection of payments by users of VTS systems.

Directs the Secretary to determine whether to require that electronic means of vessel position-reporting and identification be carried on board affected oil tankers.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) require affected oil tankers to be equipped with double hulls and bottoms, unless the Secretary determines that such requirements will not enhance navigation safety; and (2) report to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries on whether limitations on the size or cargo capacity of oil tankers should be imposed to minimize navigation risks or oil spills. Authorizes the Secretary to require other structural or navigational features that are determined to enhance navigation safety.

Establishes a National Council on Oil Spill Technology Research and Development.

Requires the Council to submit to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries: (1) a bibliography of all existing foreign and domestic research on oil spill containment and cleanup; (2) a report describing the containment and cleanup research and development activities of Federal, State, and local governments, foreign governments and corporations, the academic research community, and industry; and (3) recommendations concerning additional Federal action with respect to such activities. Terminates the Commission after the submission of such report.

Authorizes the Secretary to deny the right to enter, exit, or transit U.S. waters to any affected oil tanker operated in violation of this title. Prescribes civil and criminal penalties for violations of this title.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries on the need to impose user fees to offset the costs of implementing this title.

Subtitle B: Provisions Applicable With Respect to States or Regions - Directs the Secretary to require all affected tankers entering and departing the Port of Valdez, Alaska, to embark and disembark a qualified pilot who is also licensed by the State of Alaska at locations that will ensure that pilotage of such tankers in waters adjacent to Bligh Reef is provided by such pilots. Requires the Secretary to install and ensure operation of an automated navigation light on or adjacent to Bligh Reef to provide effective long-range warning of the reef's location.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) operate such additional equipment, train such personnel, and issue such regulations as are necessary to increase the range of the VTS system in the Port of Valdez to track the locations and movements of oil tankers transiting Prince William Sound and to sound an alarm when such tankers depart from designated routes; and (2) report to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries on the feasibility and desirability of instituting positive control by the Coast Guard on movements of such tankers with the use of the VTS system, telecommunications, and satellite-linked transmitters.

Requires the Secretary of Commerce to establish a Prince William Sound Oil Spill Recovery Institute to be administered by the Secretary through the Prince William Sound Science and Technology Institute and located in Cordova, Alaska. Directs the Institute to conduct research and carry out educational and demonstration projects to: (1) identify and develop the best available techniques and equipment for dealing with oil spills in the arctic and sub-arctic marine environment; and (2) complement Federal and State damage assessment efforts and document and assess the long-term effects of the Exxon Valdez oil spill on Prince William Sound's natural resources, environment, economy, and lifestyle and well-being of the people dependent on such resources.

Directs the Secretary of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating to issue such regulations as are necessary to ensure that vessels transiting the Mississippi River have the capability to: (1) receive marine navigation safety warnings; and (2) engage in radio communications on designated frequencies with the Coast Guard, other vessels on the Mississippi River, and such stations as may be specified by the Secretary.

Allocates funds for the projects in Alaska and for the Prince William Sound Oil Spill Recovery Institute.

Title IV: Conforming Amendments - Makes conforming amendments to the following Acts: (1) the Trans-Alaska Pipeline Authorization Act; (2) the Intervention on the High Seas Act; (3) the Clean Water Act; (4) the Deepwater Port Act; and (5) the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act.

Amends the Trans-Alaska Pipeline Authorization Act to abolish the Trans-Alaska Pipeline Liability Fund. Replaces the Trans-Alaska Pipeline Liability Fund and the Deepwater Port Liability Fund with the Oil Spill Compensation Fund of this Act. Makes claims against the Trans-Alaska Pipeline Liability Fund that arise from discharges prior to this Act's enactment enforceable against the Oil Spill Compensation Fund.

Repeals the oil spill liability provisions of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act Amendments of 1978 (thereby replacing the Offshore Oil Pollution Compensation Fund under that Act with the Oil Spill Compensation Fund established in this Act).

Title V: Oversight and Monitoring - Oil Terminal Environmental Oversight and Monitoring Act of 1989 - Establishes Oil Terminal Environmental Oversight and Monitoring Demonstration Programs at the Alyeska terminal facilities at Valdez and the Kenai Peninsula in Cook Inlet.

Establishes an Oil Terminal Facilities Operations Association for each Program to: (1) establish policies relating to the operation and maintenance of oil terminal facilities which may affect the environment; and (2) provide a forum between the industrial users, owners and operators, the United States, and the State of Alaska for the discussion and resolution of permits, plans, and site-specific regulations governing terminal facilities.

Establishes: (1) an Oil Terminal Environmental Advisory Council for each Program to advise and make policy recommendations to the Association; (2) a Monitoring Committee to manage a comprehensive monitoring program of the environmental impacts of such facilities' operations; and (3) a Technical Committee to assess the planning for responding to, containing, and cleaning up oil spills.

Limits annual funding for such Programs to $3,000,000. Requires: (1) each Council and Association to report to the President and the Congress on its activities; and (2) the General Accounting Office to report to the President and the Congress on the effectiveness of demonstration programs carried out pursuant to this title.

Title VI: General Provisions - Amends the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act to increase the amount of civil penalties which may be assessed for violations of such Act. Requires the Secretary of the Interior to adjust such penalties at least every three years to reflect increases in the Consumer Price Index. Authorizes civil penalties to be assessed without regard to the expiration of a period allowed for corrective action if such violations constitute serious, irreparable harm to life, the environment, or mineral deposits.

Directs the Secretary to prevent the harmful effects of unrestrained competitive production of hydrocarbons from a common hydrocarbon-bearing area underlying the Federal and State boundary. Exempts from such requirement the West Delta Field offshore of Louisiana.

Authorizes appropriations to compensate the State of Louisiana and its lessees for net drainage of oil and gas resources as determined in a certain 1989 factfinding study.

Directs the Secretary of State to: (1) review international agreements with Canada to determine whether amendments are necessary to such agreements to resolve questions of recovery of damages in the event of an oil spill in the Great Lakes and to ensure the adequacy of measures to prevent and remedy such spills; and (2) report to the Congress on the results of such review.

Calls upon the Secretary of State and the Canadian Foreign Minister to begin negotiations on a treaty dealing with recovery of damages, contingency plans, and coordinated actions in the event of an oil spill in the Arctic Ocean or a tanker accident during the shipment of oil by sea. Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress no later than January 1, 1990, on efforts to negotiate such treaty.

S. 695 Sen. Kassebaum, et al.; 4/5/89

Educational Excellence Act of 1989 - Title I: Improving Elementary and Secondary Education - Part A: Presidential Merit Schools - Presidential Merit Schools Act - Amends the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA) to establish the Presidential Merit Schools Program to recognize and reward public and private elementary and secondary schools that have made substantial progress in: (1) raising student educational achievement, especially in reading, writing, and mathematics; (2) creating a safe and alcohol- and drug-free school environment; and (3) reducing the dropout rate.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993.

Authorizes State educational agencies (SEAs) to designate as a Merit School any public or private elementary or secondary school nominated through procedures established by the SEA. Sets forth requirements for selection criteria established by the Secretary of Education (the Secretary) and by SEAs.

Provides that each Merit School will be awarded a Presidential Certificate of Merit, as well as funds to further its educational program.

Prohibits Federal, State, or local reduction of other assistance to a school because it receives such an award.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) evaluate Merit Schools biennially; and (2) submit information on successful Merit Schools programs to the National Diffusion Network for possible dissemination.

Part B: Schools of Excellence - Schools of Excellence Act of 1989 - Amends ESEA to establish the Schools of Excellence Program of grants to support public elementary or secondary schools that: (1) offer the highest quality instruction in an academic or vocational discipline or create a unique and effective learning environment; (2) are open to students from beyond the immediate school attendance area; and (3) are capable of attracting students from a variety of backgrounds.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993.

Sets forth criteria for selection of applications.

Limits such grants to any one school to no more than two years and requires satisfactory progress in order to receive the grant for the second year.

Prohibits Federal, State, or local reduction of assistance to a school because it receives such an award.

Part C: Alternative Certification for Teachers and Principals - Alternative Certification of Teachers and Principals Assistance Act of 1989 - Amends ESEA to establish a program of assistance for Alternative Certification of Teachers and Principals.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991.

Repeals this part as of October 1, 1992.

Part D: Administrative Provision - Amends Federal law relating to impact aid for local educational agencies in areas affected by Federal activity to exclude from the definition of local educational agency any agency or school authority that the Secretary determines on a case-by-case basis: (1) was constituted or reconstituted primarily for the purpose of receiving assistance under such impact aid law or increasing its amount; or (2) is not constituted or reconstituted for legitimate educational purposes.

Part E: Fund for the Improvement and Reform of Schools and Teaching - Amends the Fund for the Improvement and Reform of Schools and Teaching Act to provide that the Fund Board (rather than the Secretary) shall appoint a Director of the Fund.

Title II: National Science Scholars - Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA) to establish the National Science Scholars Program to recognize student excellence and achievement in the physical, life, and computer sciences, mathematics, and engineering.

Authorizes the Secretary to award scholarships to outstanding students selected as National Science Scholars by the President. Allows students who satisfy certain requirements to receive such scholarships for the first year of undergraduate study and, if they satisfy additional requirements, additional scholarships to cover the remaining undergraduate years.

Directs the Secretary to appoint a panel of experts to recommend academic achievement criteria for use in the nomination of scholars.

Sets forth requirements for initial and continuation awards.

Sets the scholarship amount at $10,000 for an academic year, but reduces such amount based on cost of attendance and other grant or scholarship assistance, and adjusts for insufficient appropriations.

Requires that scholarship recipients, to the extent they are otherwise qualified, be given priority consideration for federally financed summer employment in research and development centers.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 to carry out the National Science Scholars Program.

Title III: Drug-Free Schools Urban and Rural Emergency Grants - Amends the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1986 to increase the amount authorized to be appropriated for FY 1989.

Establishes a Drug-Free Schools Urban and Rural Emergency Grants program. Requires the State Governor to use approximately one-third of funds available under such Act for FY 1989 through 1993 to make contracts with, and emergency grants to, local educational agencies serving urban and rural communities with severe drug problems. Requires that such grants be first awarded to LEAs serving the largest city in the State and then to urban and rural LEAs with severe drug problems. Permits waivers for States in which there is no concentration of drug problems.

Title IV: Historically Black Colleges and Universities - Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 to authorize appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for special awards to historically black colleges and universities. Makes institutions that receive such awards ineligible for other specified awards.

Title V: Extension of School Dropout Demonstration Program - Amends ESEA to extend through FY 1991 the authorization of appropriations for programs under the School Dropout Demonstration Assistance Act of 1988 (which is part A of title VI of ESEA). Prohibits any such funds from being authorized to be appropriated for any fiscal year in which assistance is made available to LEAs under the Secondary School Programs for Basic Skills Improvement and Dropout Prevention and Reentry.

Directs the Secretary to reserve a limited amount of funds to evaluate such school dropout demonstration assistance programs.

Revises the formula for allotment of such program funds to educational partnerships.

Revises the deadline for evaluation of programs operated with specified funds.

Title VI: Stafford Student Loan Default Prevention and Management Provisions - Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA) to prohibit guaranty agencies from selling lists of student borrowers under the Stafford Student Loan program.

Authorizes guaranty agencies, when the location of a student borrower is unknown or unavailable to them, to enter into agreements for the appropriate State licensing board to provide that information.

Eliminates loan repayment deferments that are based on the status of the child rather than the parent, under the parent loan (PLUS) program.

Directs the Secretary, guaranty agency, eligible lender, or subsequent holder to disclose to credit bureau organizations any information concerning the date a delinquency began and the repayment status of any loan that has been delinquent for 90 days. Requires that the borrower be informed that such organizations will be notified of such delinquency.

Requires students, in order to be eligible for any loan under title IV (Student Assistance) of HEA, to provide the lender at the time of application with their driver's license number and the name and address of their next of kin.

Prohibits institutions, under student aid program participation agreements, from: (1) using any contractor or anyone other than a salaried employee of the institution or a volunteer to conduct any activities related to recruiting and admission of students, including canvassing, surveying, promotion, or similar activities; or (2) paying any commission, bonus, or other incentive payment based directly or indirectly on success in securing enrollments to any person engaged in such activity.

Requires the institution to use the same definition of "academic year" for all student assistance programs authorized by title IV of HEA.

Requires eligible lenders to request pre-claims assistance for default prevention within the first ten days such assistance is available from the guarantee agency. Requires guarantee agencies, within 30 days of receipt of the request for pre-claims assistance, to notify each eligible institution with respect to students delinquent in repayment of any loan for attendance at such institution, of the lender's request for pre-claims assistance for default prevention on such loan.

Directs the Secretary to promulgate regulations specifying legal restrictions and requirements of eligible institutions relating to loan counseling and reporting requirements, including but not limited to disclosure of borrower records to third parties, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and any other applicable Federal law.

Prohibits an institution from being certified or recertified as eligible for the Stafford student loan program or other title IV student assistance programs if it has lost its institutional accreditation during the preceding 24 months, unless such accreditation has been restored or the institution has demonstrated its academic integrity to the Secretary's satisfaction.

Authorizes the Secretary to carry out limitation, suspension, or termination proceedings against an institution if it: (1) withdraws from an accrediting agency or association during a show cause or suspension proceeding; or (2) is denied institutional accreditation.

Prohibits the Secretary from approving an institution's accreditation if it is in the process of receiving new accreditation by a national or regional agency, unless the institution submits to the Secretary all materials relating to the prior accreditation, including the applicable reasons for changing the accrediting agency.

Directs the Secretary to contract for, or establish, and publicize a toll-free telephone number as a consumer hotline for use by the public, to permit students to inform the Department of alleged fraud or unfair practices by eligible institutions.

Authorizes the Secretary to require an institution to refund the student's tuition and fees in cases of violation, failure, or misrepresentation under title IV of HEA.

Revises the period of eligibility for Pell Grants to limit it to the full-time equivalent of: (1) the number of academic years that the undergraduate degree normally requires, plus one academic year; or (2) six academic years in the case of a degree or certificate program normally requiring more than four academic years.

Establishes special disclosure rules for Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS loans).

Directs the Comptroller General to: (1) conduct a study relating to the discharge of student loan indebtedness in bankruptcy proceedings; and (2) report the results of such study to the Congress within three years after enactment of this Act.

Title VII: Needs Analysis Amendments - Revises need analysis provisions under title IV (Student Assistance) of HEA to redefine "independent student."

Modifies provisions for the computation of parents', students', and spouses' contributions to require a family member to be enrolled at an eligible institution in a postsecondary education program meeting specified requirements in order for that member to be counted as in college.

Reduces from 70 percent to not less than 50 percent the amount of student income considered for purposes of expected contribution by a dependent student.

Provides that nothing in title IV limits the authority of student financial aid administrators to: (1) make necessary adjustments to the cost of attendance and expected student and/or parent contribution under special circumstances; or (2) use supplementary information about the financial status or personal circumstances of eligible applicants in selecting recipients and determining award amounts under specified student assistance programs.

Allows the costs of food and shelter for dependent care to be included in the cost of attendance, in the case of independent students with dependents and with incomes less than the Standard Maintenance Allowance.

Allows projected income for the award year to be considered instead of income reported for the preceding tax year, in the case of dislocated workers.

Allows the exclusion of certain assets from the calculation of expected family contribution, in the case of dislocated workers or displaced homemakers.

Includes a student's total veterans' education benefits in determination of need.

Excludes certain assets of families with annual adjusted gross incomes of $30,000 or below.

Title VIII: Other Higher Education Amendments - Revises College Work-Study program eligibility standards to require that only need-based employment (employment that directly offsets educational expenses) be monitored.

Student Loan Marketing Association Amendments of 1989 - Revises the corporate organization of the Student Loan Marketing Association (Sallie Mae).

Revises requirements concerning the common Federal student aid application and its processing.

Requires each State guaranty agency to ensure that there is a lender of last resort in its State.

Revises the formula for determining an institution's eligible amount under the direct student loan (Perkins loan) program.

Provides that any student who meets certain general requirements concerning U.S. citizenship or permanent residency or who is a resident of the freely associated states, and who attends a public or nonprofit institution of higher education in any of the freely associated states rather than a State, is eligible, if otherwise qualified, for specified student assistance programs.

Title IX: We the People ....the Citizen and the Constitution - Amends ESEA to direct the Secretary to carry out a program, entitled "We the People...The Citizen and the Constitution," to educate students about the history and principles of the Constitution and Bill of Rights and to foster civic competence and civil responsibility, by continuing and expanding the educational activities of the National Bicentennial Competition of the Constitution and Bill of Rights administered by the Center for Civic Education. Authorizes the Secretary to contract with such Center to carry out such program. Sets forth program content, including simulated congressional hearings, to be made available to public and private elementary and secondary schools. Allows surplus funds to be used for advanced training of teachers about the Constitution and Bill of Rights. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993.

Title X: National Board for Professional Teaching Standards - National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary to provide financial assistance to the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (a private nonprofit organization) for research and development relating to teacher assessment and certification procedures.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993.

Requires the Board to: (1) establish a Research and Development Advisory Committee; and (2) consult with the Secretary and other specified entities in appointing the ten Committee members (with the Secretary selecting two members).

Requires funds under this title to be used only for research and development of teacher assessment and certification procedures for elementary and secondary school teachers. Requires that priority be given to activities relating to teaching: (1) the subject areas of mathematics, the sciences, foreign languages, and literacy (including reading, writing, and analytical ability); and (2) special educational populations, including limited English proficient children, gifted and talented children, handicapped children, and economically and educationally disadvantaged children.

Sets the Federal share of the cost of such Board activities at 50 percent.

Requires the Board to report annually to the appropriate committees of Congress. Requires the Department of Education, the National Science Foundation, and the National Research Council to review and comment on the Board's report and to report to such committees on the Board's compliance with this title.

Title XI: Middle School Teacher Training Demonstrations - Middle School Teacher Training Demonstration Program Act of 1989 - Authorizes the Secretary to make grants to institutions of higher education to develop innovative models related to the specialized training of teachers of grades six through nine. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 for such grants program.

Title XII: President's Council on Academic Excellence - President's Council on Academic Excellence - Establishes a President's Council on Academic Excellence, located in Washington, D.C., to: (1) define the components or courses of an academically rigorous secondary school curriculum; and (2) present a medal or other suitable award to all secondary students who complete the curriculum (but without establishing a national curriculum or a national secondary school diploma). Authorizes appropriations for the Council for FY 1991 and thereafter.

09-19-89 Reported to Senate from the Committee on Labor and Human Resources with amendment, S. Rept. 101-136

S. 712 Sen. Johnston, et al.; 4/5/89

Puerto Rico Status Referendum Act - Title I - Requires an islandwide referendum to be held in Puerto Rico in which voters will be presented a choice of three status options for Puerto Rico as follows: (1) statehood; (2) independence; or (3) commonwealth. Specifies a date or time period during which such referendum must occur. Provides for a runoff referendum between the two status options which received the largest number of votes if there is not a majority in favor of one of the options. Requires such referendum to include "None of the Above" as an option. Requires the Governor of Puerto Rico to certify to the President and the Congress the decision of the people which receives a majority of the votes cast, if a majority is obtained.

Requires the Attorney General to provide for adequate monitoring of the referendum by U.S. marshals.

Authorizes any aggrieved person to institute an action to challenge the choice certified by the Governor. Gives a three-judge court exclusive jurisdiction over all such claims. Provides that an appeal from a final judgment of such three-judge court will lie to the U.S. Supreme Court by way of certiorari.

Requires the certified option to go into effect on October 1, 1991, in accordance with the appropriate title (II, III, or IV) of this Act.

Directs the President to appoint a Referendum Information Officer to be responsible for the translation and distribution of information and educational materials on the referendum. Authorizes appropriations.

Title II: Statehood - Declares Puerto Rico to be a State of the United States admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the other States upon certification under title I of this Act. Accepts the current Constitution as the constitution of the State of Puerto Rico.

Provides that any lands and other properties that are set aside pursuant to law for the use of the United States shall remain the property of the United States. Requires each Federal agency having control over such lands or property retained by the United States to report to the President and the Congress concerning the continued need for such land or property.

Provides for the election of U.S. Senators and Representatives. States that the office of Resident Commissioner shall cease to exist upon the swearing in of the first Member of the House. Increases the permanent membership of the House of Representatives to account for the additional Representatives from Puerto Rico.

Continues in force all of the local territorial laws in force at the time of Puerto Rico's admission into the Union. States that all of the laws of the United States shall have the same force and effect within Puerto Rico as on the date immediately prior to the date of admission, with enumerated exceptions.

Directs the President to appoint a Commission on Federal laws to survey U.S. laws and to make recommendations to the Congress as to which laws should be made applicable to Puerto Rico. Requires the Commission to report to the Congress on such recommendations. Authorizes appropriations.

Provides for the continuation of civil causes of action and criminal offenses. Preserves the right of judicial review of final decisions of the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico or the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico.

Reserves authority in the United States for the exercise by the Congress of the power of exclusive legislation over lands held by the United States for defense or Coast Guard purposes. States that Puerto Rico shall always have the right to serve civil or criminal process within such lands for acts committed within the State but outside such lands.

Provides that no provision of this title will operate to confer, terminate, or restore U.S. nationality.

Extends all Federal excise taxes not formerly applicable to Puerto Rico to the State in the same manner as otherwise applicable in the several States.

Directs the heads of all Federal agencies to examine the application of all programs within their jurisdiction and to recommend to the President and to the Commission on Federal Laws necessary changes and additional administrative requirements to properly apply Federal laws in the new State.

Provides that effective on the date of admission of Puerto Rico, all Federal programs which provide assistance to individuals shall apply in Puerto Rico as they apply within the several States, with specified exceptions.

Continues the current tax treatment applicable to Puerto Rico until January 1, 1994, upon which date the Federal internal revenue laws applicable to all States shall apply. Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to consult with the Governor of Puerto Rico on the transition of the new State from a foreign tax jurisdiction. Authorizes the Secretary to provide, on a nonreimbursable basis, technical and other assistance to reform the present revenue situation of Puerto Rico.

Continues the current payment provided by permanent indefinite appropriations of customs duties and equivalency payments on alcohol as a statehood grant. Requires that all revenues derived from certain excise taxes or any new excise taxes be deposited into Puerto Rico's Treasury. Provides for a transitional statehood grant to assist in maintenance of government services, to provide for maintenance of infrastructure, and to minimize the impact on local revenues.

Title III: Independence - Requires the Legislative Assembly of Puerto Rico to provide for the election of delegates to a Constitutional Convention to serve until the proclamation of independence and to draft a Constitution for the Republic of Puerto Rico. Requires such Convention to draft a Constitution establishing a republican form of government which is required to guarantee the protection of fundamental human rights. Provides for the adjustment of U.S. property rights and for the ratification of the Constitution.

Requires the Governor to issue a proclamation calling for the election of such officers of the Republic of Puerto Rico as may be required by the Constitution.

Provides for a Joint Transition Commission which shall be responsible for expediting the orderly transfer of all functions currently exercised by the United States in Puerto Rico. Requires that the costs of the Transition Commission be evenly divided between the United States and Puerto Rico. Authorizes appropriations for the U.S. share of such costs. Directs U.S. agencies to provide technical assistance to the Commission on a reimbursable basis.

Directs that any action arising from the title filed in U.S. Court be stayed and referred to the Joint Transition Commission for resolution.

Directs the President, within one month of the certification of elected officers and approval of specified agreements, to: (1) withdraw and surrender all rights of possession, supervision, jurisdiction, control, or sovereignty then existing and exercised by the United States over Puerto Rico; and (2) recognize on behalf of the United States the independence of Puerto Rico.

Vests all property, rights, and interest which the United States may have acquired over Puerto Rico, with an exception, on the Republic of Puerto Rico. Withdraws the application of all U.S. laws applicable to Puerto Rico immediately prior to independence.

Requires Puerto Rico to recognize all orders and judgments rendered by U.S. or Commonwealth courts prior to independence. Declares that upon the proclamation of independence, the judicial power of the United States shall no longer extend to Puerto Rico. Provides for pending proceedings.

Deems the Government of the Republic of Puerto Rico the successor to the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Directs the President to notify the Governments with which the United States is in diplomatic correspondence, the United Nations, and the Organization of American States that: (1) the United States has recognized the independence of Puerto Rico; and (2) all obligations and responsibilities of the U.S. Government which arise from any valid international instruments affecting Puerto Rico shall cease.

Provides that all matters pertaining to Puerto Rican citizenship shall be regulated pursuant to the Constitution and laws of the Republic. States that upon the certification of the referendum under this Act, Puerto Rico shall no longer be deemed to be a part of the United States for the purposes of acquiring U.S. citizenship by place of birth. States that no person born outside of the United States after the Proclamation of Independence shall be a U.S. citizen at birth if the parents of such person acquired U.S. citizenship solely by virture of being born in Puerto Rico prior to the Proclamation. Authorizes certain non-U.S. citizens to enter into, lawfully engage in occupations, and establish residence as immigrants in the United States.

Requires that specific arrangements for the use of military areas by the United States in Puerto Rico be negotiated by a task force established by the Joint Transition Commission. Requires such arrangements to come into effect simultaneously with the proclamation of independence.

Continues all Federal programs in Puerto Rico until the end of the fiscal year in which independence is proclaimed. Requires that specific arrangements for the continuation or phaseout of Federal programs be negotiated by a Task Force on Economic Assistance established by the Joint Transition Commission. Requires such arrangements to come into effect simultaneously with the proclamation of independence.

Directs the Joint Transition Commission to: (1) establish a Task Force on Social Security to protect the rights of workers who have permanently insured status under the Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance (OASDI) programs under title II of the Social Security Act, as of five years subsequent to the certification of the referendum; and (2) negotiate agreements necessary for the coordination of the U.S. social security system with a similar system to be established in the new Republic.

Requires the Joint Transition Commission to establish a Task Force on Medicare to negotiate agreements for the coordination of the U.S. medicare system with a similar system to be established in the new Republic.

Directs the Commission to establish a Task Force on Trade to consider and develop specific provisions governing trade between the United States and Puerto Rico following the Proclamation of Independence. States that in the absence of any mutual free trade arrangement, Puerto Rico shall be afforded most favored nation status and, if Puerto Rico meets all criteria and requirements under the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act, designation as a beneficiary country under the Caribbean Basin Initiative. Encourages the President to seek favorable tariff treatment for exports from Puerto Rico from other nations and to encourage other countries to designate Puerto Rico as a beneficiary under their respective General Systems of Trade Preferences.

Disallows a specified tax credit under the Internal Revenue Code with respect to income or investments from activity in Puerto Rico. Requires the Commission to establish a Task Force on Taxation to negotiate appropriate tax treaties between the United States and Puerto Rico.

Directs the Commission to establish a Task Force on Currency and Finance to negotiate an agreement to: (1) assist Puerto Rico in the design and establishment of a deposit insurance system; (2) determine the extent of financial support to be provided for the system by U.S. insurance organizations in which Puerto Rico's financial institutions currently participate; and (3) make the necessary arrangements with respect to the use of U.S. currency by Puerto Rico if requested by Puerto Rico. Maintains until maturity the guarantees provided by the U.S. Government to investors in the secondary market for existing loans which originated in Puerto Rico.

Requires the Republic of Puerto Rico to assume the outstanding debts, liabilities, and obligations of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and its municipalities and instrumentalities.

Title IV: Commonwealth - Makes this title effective October 1, 1991, should the Commonwealth be certified as having obtained a majority of the votes cast in the referendum.

States that Puerto Rico is a self-governing body politic joined in political relationship with the United States and is under U.S. sovereignty. Makes this relationship permanent unless revoked by mutual consent.

Allows the Governor of Puerto Rico to certify that the Puerto Rico legislature has adopted a resolution that states that a Federal law should no longer apply to Puerto Rico because there is no overriding national interest in having such law apply to Puerto Rico. Provides that a Federal law so certified shall no longer apply to Puerto Rico if a joint resolution approving the recommendation of the Puerto Rican Government is enacted. Sets forth procedures for consideration of such joint resolution.

Authorizes the Governor of Puerto Rico to enter into international agreements to promote the international interests of Puerto Rico as authorized by the President.

Details procedures for agencies to follow with respect to rulemaking and in carrying out their duties. Provides for judical review of such rulemaking decisions.

Directs the officials of the Departments of State and Transportation to seek the advice of appropriate officials of Puerto Rico when negotiating any air transportation agreements which would affect air traffic to or from Puerto Rico.

Authorizes Puerto Rico to impose tariff duties on imported foreign origin products. Permits duties in addition to duties imposed by the United States. Amends the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 to express the sense of the Senate that the President should: (1) consider the effects of any proposed tariff rate or any proposed changes in nontariff measures on the economy of Puerto Rico; (2) consult with Puerto Rico's Governor concerning such potential effects before concluding international trade negotiations; (3) seek to obtain favorable treatment from foreign countries for Puerto Rican exports; and (4) take steps to encourage other countries to consider Puerto Rico as a developing area for purposes of their respective Generalized Systems of Trade Preferences schemes and any such regional systems of trade preferences.

Includes Puerto Rico as an insular area for purposes of provisions providing for the consolidation of Federal grants to such areas.

Requires the heads of Federal agencies to consult with the Governor of Puerto Rico as to whether there are special circumstances or qualifications which should be considered in making appointments to specified positions. Requires the President, prior to nominating any person to serve in Puerto Rico whose appointment requires the advice and consent of the Senate, to consult with the Governor as to whether such circumstances or qualifications should be considered in deciding on a nomination. Makes consultation requirements inapplicable with respect to U.S. armed forces, Coast Guard, and law enforcement agency positions.

Establishes the Office of Senate liaison for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. States that the purpose of such office shall be to facilitate the exchange of information between the Senate and the Puerto Rican Government. Authorizes appropriations for such Office.

Directs the Secretary of State to establish a Passport Office for the Caribbean in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Directs the Secretary and the Attorney General to consult with Puerto Rico's Governor to determine what administrative actions can be taken to expedite the processing of visas. Requires the Secretary and Attorney General to report to the Congress on such consultations by March 15, 1990.

Sets forth provisions with respect to antitrust laws and the development of voluntary guidelines designed to alleviate the negative impact of violence, sexually explicit material, and illegal drug use in telecast material and to promote local programming in Puerto Rico.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on eight specified Federal properties. Requires such report to include an assessment of: (1) the Federal need for each property; (2) the costs and/or benefits of disposal of each property; and (3) the comments of the Puerto Rican Government regarding each property. States that, unless the President finds that there is a national interest which requires continued Federal ownership, such properties should be transferred to Puerto Rico.

Establishes the San Juan National Historic Site Advisory Commission. Requires the Commission to regularly advise the Secretary of the Interior on the operation, management, and administration of the San Juan National Historic Site. Waives the renewal provision of the Federal Advisory Committee Act with respect to the Commission. Requires the Commission to report annually to the Secretary and specified congressional committees.

Declares that the purpose of this Act is to implement the Bipartisan Accord on Central America of March 24, 1989.

Authorizes the President to transfer to the Agency for International Development (AID) unobligated funds from specified defense appropriations accounts for: (1) humanitarian assistance (including transportation expenses) to the Nicaraguan Resistance to be available through February 28, 1990; and (2) operating expenses of AID to be available through March 31,1990.

Requires the transportation of such assistance to be arranged solely by AID in a manner consistent with the Bipartisan Accord. Prohibits the transportation of any assistance not specified by this Act.

Authorizes the President to transfer to AID an additional amount from the specified accounts for medical assistance for the civilian victims of Nicaraguan civil strife. Requires such assistance to be transported and administered by the Nicaraguan Catholic Church.

Encourages the President to submit proposals for actions to: (1) provide additional economic assistance to the democratic countries of Central America; (2) facilitate the ability of Central American economies to grow through the development of infrastructure, expansion of exports, and increased investment opportunities; (3) provide a plan to assist Central American countries in managing debt; and (4) develop such initiatives in concert with Western Europe, Japan, and other democratic allies.

Rescinds funds available for research, development, test, and evaluation for the Navy for 1989.

Prohibits the obligation or expenditure of funds available under this Act to assist the Nicaraguan Resistance in military or paramilitary operations. Prohibits providing assistance under this Act to any group including an individual who has been found to engage in: (1) gross violations of internationally recognized human rights; or (2) drug smuggling or significant misuse of funds.

Grants congressional oversight for assistance under this Act to specified congressional committees.

Applies provisions of a specified Act concerning management and delivery of assistance to the Nicaraguan Resistance to assistance under this Act.

Prohibits additional assistance to the Nicaraguan Resistance unless authorized specifically by a subsequent Act.

Repeals title IX (Assistance for the Nicaraguan Resistance) of the Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 1989.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on progress in the peace and democratization process, including the use of assistance under this Act.

S. 768 Sen. Kennedy, et al.; 4/12/89

Basic Health Benefits for All Americans Act - Title I: Amendments to Public Health Service Act - Amends the Public Health Service Act to add provisions which require each employer to enroll each of its employees and their families in a health benefit plan. Makes State and local employers which do not so enroll their employees and their families ineligible to receive grants, contracts, loans, or loan guarantees under such Act.

Title II: Amendments to Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 - Amends the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to add provisions which require each employer to enroll each of its employees and their families in a health benefit plan.

Amends the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) regarding supersedure of State laws relating to contracts or policies of insurance issued to or under a health benefit plan under title III of this Act. Amends ERISA with regard to the treatment of the Hawaii Prepaid Health Care Act.

Title III: Requirements for Health Benefit Plans for Employees and Their Families - Subtitle A: Requirement and Definitions - Applies this title to employers required to enroll employees in health benefit plans under certain provisions of the Public Health Service Act or the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Requires each small and certain large employers to use a regional insurer, subject to certain exceptions and conditions. Exempts employers in the State of Hawaii so long as the Hawaii Prepaid Health Care Act remains in effect.

Requires that enrollment of an employee in a health benefit plan under this title includes enrollment of the employee's family in the plan. Prohibits the employee from waiving personal or family enrollment. Provides exceptions: (1) to avoid duplicate family coverage; and (2) in the case of multiple employers.

Prohibits employers from discriminating against any individual because such individual has a spouse or child required under this title to be enrolled in a health benefit plan.

Subtitle B: Requirements for Health Benefit Plans - Sets forth general requirements for plans. Permits a health benefit plan to be considered as meeting such requirements provided the actuarial benefits under the plan are not less than would have applied if the plan met the requirements of this subtitle. Sets forth minimum requirements, including a limit on out-of-pocket expenses. Mandates inclusion of certain mental health benefits. Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to: (1) establish an advisory board to advise the Secretary on development of actuarial equivalency standards; and (2) publish, at least three months before the effective date of this Act, a table of actuarial equivalency describing as many variations as feasible. Declares a plan using variations not included in the table to be in compliance with this Act if it meets certain requirements. Directs the Secretary to establish streamlined procedures regarding employers with multiple plans. Allows new small businesses to use a tailored health benefit plan, as defined in this title.

Specifies benefits which a plan must provide, including inpatient and outpatient hospital care and physician services, tests, prenatal and well-baby care, and inpatient and outpatient care for mental disorders. Prohibits placing limits on the amount, scope, or duration of benefits for hospital care, physician services, or tests, but allows plan limits on prenatal and well-baby care under regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

Declares that nothing in this Act: (1) prohibits a health plan from providing benefits through a panel or other form of managed care system or establishing a different level of payments for reimbursement for different health care providers furnishing benefits; or (2) requires a plan to use a provider to provide benefits provided before the effective date of this Act other than the providers being utilized by the plan on that date or make payments to any provider that is excluded from participation in any Federal health care program.

Allows an insurer to establish a fee schedule or other basis of payment that is different from actual charges if the schedule meets certain requirements.

Specifies requirements regarding the date of initial coverage. Prohibits pre-existing condition provisions. Provides special requirements regarding certain part-time and temporary employees.

Allows a plan to require an employee to pay for premiums, deductibles, copayments, and coinsurance not to exceed certain limits. Provides for adjustments for covered spouses with other coverage and for employed retirees. Requires each employer with an employee whose hourly wage is less than a specified amount to offer each such employee at least one plan that does not require a premium for the employee. Prohibits State laws from preventing employers from using payroll withholding for premiums due by employees. Sets forth special rules for the calculation of premiums for part-time employees. Sets limitations on: (1) deductibles, to be increased for increases in the consumer price index; (2) copayments and coinsurance, subject to exception; and (3) out-of-pocket expenses.

Subtitle C: Certification of Regional Insurers - Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services (Secretary) to designate six to eight health insurance regions and to establish procedures for the periodic certification of insurers for each region. Sets forth certification eligibility requirements. Specifies requirements for application for and consideration of applications for such certification. Directs the Secretary to periodically evaluate the performance of regional insurers and, under certain circumstances, allows the Secretary to terminate the certification of the insurer. Allows the Secretary, if the Secretary determines that there is a failure of competition among regional insurers in the region and that other conditions are met, to restrict certification, based on a competitive bidding or other system, to those qualified insurers which offer plans at lower rates.

Sets forth requirements regarding the types of plans each regional insurer must offer.

Requires each regional insurer to fix premiums under a community rating system. Prohibits adjustment of such premiums based on age, gender, other factors relating to the projected or actual use of services, or, subject to exception, on geographical location within the region.

Permits regional insurers to enter into subcontracts.

Directs the Secretary to encourage regional insurers to enter into arrangements with entities representing groups of small businesses for the provision of administrative services. Requires such insurers to reduce the premiums charged by an amount which reflects the value of such services.

Directs the Secretary to provide technical assistance to employers, utilizing to the maximum extent feasible entities with experience in providing health insurance services to small businesses.

Subtitle D: Regulations and Enforcement - Directs the Secretary to promulgate rules to carry out this title by specified deadlines.

Provides for civil penalties for any nongovernmental employer who does not comply with certain provisions of this Act. Makes nongovernmental employers who knowingly fail to comply with certain provisions of this Act liable for damages, including health care costs incurred, to the employee or the employee's family.

Subtitle E: Small Business Subsidy - Directs the Secretary of Labor to provide for payment to a small employer, whose compliance cost exceeded a specified percentage of the employer's gross revenues, of 75 percent of such excess. Allows adjustments for industries for which the specified percentage is not an appropriate measure of the financial burden of providing the insurance.

Directs the Secretaries of Labor and of Health and Human Services to establish a small business advisory committee to advise the Secretaries and appropriate congressional committees on the provisions of this Act which relate to small business. Authorizes appropriations.

Title IV: Assuring Provision of Health Benefits to Under-Poverty, Near-Poverty, and Other Individuals - Amends the Public Health Service Act to create a new title on State-provided health care benefits for poor individuals.

Requires each State to operate and phase in a health care benefits program under which the State offers benefits to under-poverty individuals, near-poverty individuals, and all other individuals not covered under a health benefit plan under title III of this Act. Requires the benefits under the State benefits program to be the same as required of health benefit plans under such title plus coverage for items and services relating to early and periodic screening and diagnosis of children under the age of 21. Prohibits the benefits from including any other items or services.

Prohibits the imposition of premiums, deductibles, copayments, or cost-sharing on under-poverty individuals. Allows such features, subject to limitations, for near-poverty and other covered individuals.

Makes an individual who is enrolled in a health benefit plan under title III of this Act ineligible for benefits under a State benefits program, but requires or permits a State program to pay part or all of the premiums, deductibles, and other cost-sharing imposed by a title III plan on an individual who is under or near poverty. Allows a State to require an under-poverty or near-poverty individual who is eligible for but not required to be enrolled in a plan under title III to enroll in the plan, but only if the individual's premiums and out-of-pocket expenses will be no greater than if the individual had not been required to enroll.

Requires the State to determine the eligibility of an individual within 30 days of application. Provides for enrollment periods and effective dates of coverage. Declares that an individual who is determined in a month to be eligible must remain eligible for not less than six months.

Requires reimbursement to providers under each State benefits program to be at a level sufficient to achieve access to services covered by the program.

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to pay to a State the State's Federal health benefit assistance percentage, determined under a specified formula, for the cost of benefits under the State program.

Directs the Secretary to provide for review of State programs to ensure that the programs meet the requirements of this title and provide quality health care.

Requires the use of such clinical practice guidelines as the Secretary may develop in determining whether items and services are medically necessary.

Prohibits a State from providing benefits through a plan that restricts the provider from whom an individual may obtain items and services unless the plan meets certain requirements.

Requires each State to administer its benefits program, unless the State elects to have the Secretary do so and pays for such services.

Title V: Effective Date for Titles I through III - Provides for the effective dates of titles I through III of this Act and transition rules for certain circumstances.

Declares that no employer will be required under title III of this Act to provide any health benefit in addition to the benefits required to be provided by specified provisions of this Act unless: (1) such additional benefit is for a service which State Medicaid plans (under title XIX of the Social Security Act) are required to cover for certain individuals; and (2) before the enactment of such requirement, the benefits and costs of requiring the provision of such additional health benefit have been analyzed and considered by the Congress, according to certain procedures.

S. 774 Sen. Riegle; 4/13/89

Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 - Title I: Purpose - Sets forth the purposes of this Act.

Title II: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Authorities and Responsibilities - Amends the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to require the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) to insure deposits held at savings associations. Increases the membership of the FDIC's Board of Directors from three to five members, one of whom shall be the Chairman of the Office of Savings Associations (COSA) (a position established by this Act). Outlines the treatment of certain insured accounts held by savings associations covered by this Act.

Declares COSA to be the appropriate Federal banking agency for cases involving a savings association or a savings and loan holding company. Includes within the insurance purview of this Act all savings associations accounts insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC) immediately before enactment of this Act.

Requires the appropriate Federal banking agency to submit for FDIC comment any application by a financial institution to commence or resume the business of banking. States that a State financial institution resulting from the conversion of an insured Federal financial institution shall continue as an insured financial institution.

Outlines the procedure under which Federal savings associations may apply for insured status. Establishes an insurance fee to be paid to the FDIC by noninsured financial institutions which become FDIC-insured. Requires that such fee be credited to either the Bank Insurance Fund (BIF) or to the Savings Association Insurance Fund (SAIF). Prohibits any insured financial institution from participating in any conversion transaction which would result in a change of membership from one such Fund to the other without prior FDIC consent. Cites circumstances under which the FDIC may provide such consent. Prescribes guidelines for the imposition by the FDIC of exit and entry fees to prevent the dilution of either BIF or SAIF as the result of an approved conversion transaction.

Provides that whenever the FDIC incurs a loss related to the default or threatened default of an insured financial institution, any other commonly-controlled insured financial institution is liable to the FDIC and must reimburse it upon request. Sets forth compensation and loss review guidelines. Imposes a five-year moratorium during which BIF and SAIF members are not liable to the FDIC for default-related losses caused by the other Fund's members.

Includes among insurability factors to be considered by the FDIC when evaluating applications for insurance coverage the risk presented to either the BIF or the SAIF. Authorizes the FDIC to require insured financial institutions to file additional reports for insurance purposes. Directs the FDIC to set annual assessment rates for insured financial institutions. Mandates that the rates for BIF members be set independently from those for SAIF members. Prescribes an assessment rating scheme, with a reserve ration that may range from 1.25 up to 1.65 percent of insured accounts under specified circumstances. Requires any assets in excess of 1.25 percent of insured accounts to go into a supplemental account.

Grants the FDIC the same power to examine State savings associations and insured savings associations for insurance purposes as it presently possesses with respect to insured banks.

Establishes the Bank Insurance Fund (BIF) and the Savings Association Insurance Fund (SAIF) whose funds may not be commingled. Dissolves the Permanent Insurance Fund and transfers its assets and liabilities to the BIF. Mandates deposit into the BIF of all assessments due from BIF members. Makes similar provisions for amounts assessed of SAIF members, with the exception of certain assessments required for the Financing Corporation or the Resolution Funding Corporation. Prohibits SAIF assessments from being provided to the FSLIC Resolution Fund after a specified date.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury (the Secretary) to make payments to the SAIF according to a prescribed payment schedule until its reserve ratio reaches a designated ceiling. Requires the Secretary to make additional payments to the SAIF to ensure that its minimum statutory net worth is met. Authorizes appropriations without fiscal year limitations for such purpose. Declares that funds borrowed by the FDIC for SAIF use shall be a direct liability of the SAIF, and subject to certain limitations.

Revises the authorities granted the FDIC as receiver or conservator of a financial institution in default. Confers upon the FDIC all receivership powers previously held by the FSLIC. Exempts certain market-sensitive contracts from the FDIC's right of repudiation during a conservatorship or receivership. Prescribes guidelines for the transfer of assets and liabilities of a financial institution under such a conservatorship or receivership. Revises the receivership powers granted the FDIC with respect to Federal and State financial institutions.

Provides that if COSA appoints a conservator or receiver under the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 with respect to a savings association the Resolution Trust Corporation shall be appointed for a three year period following enactment of this Act, and that the FDIC shall be appointed thereafter. Grants the FDIC the power to appoint itself as sole conservator or receiver of a State savings association if either the FDIC or the Resolution Trust Corporation makes specified determinations.

Mandates that all payments of insured deposits made by the FDIC on account of either a BIF member or a SAIF member shall be made only from the member's Fund.

Revises the FDIC's subrogation rights to include insurance payments made to depositors of all financial institutions within its purview (currently, such rights apply only to national banks).

Revises the operating guidelines for bridge banks to include within their purview failed savings financial institutions. Establishes a claims valuation and review scheme for creditors of a defaulting financial institution who are not its insured depositors.

Permits an FDIC action for damages against directors or officers of a financial institution for gross negligence or intentionally tortious conduct, as determined by State law.

Establishes the FSLIC Resolution Fund to be separately managed and maintained by the FDIC, and not commingled. Transfers all FSLIC assets and liabilities exclusively to the Fund, and precludes their consolidation with either the BIF, the SAIF, or the FDIC. Sets forth a prioritized funding scheme. Provides for backup funding from the Treasury in the event that such prioritized scheme is insufficient to satisfy the Fund's liabilities. Limits any judgment resulting from certain FSLIC-related transactions to the assets of the FSLIC Resolution Fund. Dissolves the Fund upon satisfaction of all debts and liabilities and the sale of all assets acquired in case resolutions. Requires that any remaining funds be covered into the Treasury. Directs the FDIC to report annually to the Congress and the President regarding the Fund's financial status. Mandates an annual Fund audit. Outlines a secondary reserve scheme to be available to the FDIC only to the extent that the FSLIC Resolution Fund is insufficient to cover FDIC losses.

Mandates that the funds held in the BIF, the SAIF, or the FSLIC Resolution Fund be invested in U.S. or federally-guaranteed obligations. Mandates that legal proceedings to which the FDIC becomes a party due to the exercise of its authorities be held in abeyance for a designated period upon FDIC request. Directs the FDIC, when calculating the cost of assistance to insured financial institutions in default, to include: (1) its immediate, long-term, and contingent liabilities; and (2) Federal tax revenues which would be foregone. States that the transfer of any assets or liabilities associated with any trust business of an insured financial institution in default is effective without State or Federal approval.

Requires that assistance payments made to insured financial institutions in default be made: (1) from the BIF in case of payments made to such Fund's member; or (2) from the SAIF or the Resolution Trust Corporation in the case of SAIF members. Revises the guidelines for FDIC-assisted emergency interstate acquisitions. Prescribes guidelines for FDIC authorization of mergers, consolidations, transfers, and acquisitions of savings associations in default by other savings associations or insured banks. Increases the borrowing authority of the FDIC, and authorizes its use for either the BIF or the SAIF. Restricts the State and local tax liability of the FDIC by virtue of its role as receiver or conservator of an insured financial institution in default. Precludes the FDIC from incurring a financial liability under a guarantee or obligation with respect to either the BIF or the SAIF if the estimated cost of it would reduce the net worth of the respective Insurance Fund to less than zero. Subjects the Corporation's borrowing authority to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Pledges the full faith and credit of the United States with respect to all liabilities incurred by the BIF and the SAIF.

Requires the FDIC to make: (1) annual status reports to the Congress regarding the BIF, the SAIF, and the FSLIC Resolution Fund; (2) quarterly fiscal reports to the Secretary of the Treasury regarding its financial operations and forecasts; (3) a risk-based premium assessment report to the Congress by a specified deadline; and (4) recommendations to the Congress regarding deposit insurance pass-through options.

Directs the FDIC (together with the Department of Justice and the Department of the Treasury) to report to the Congress the results of a study regarding liability insurance and financial institution surety bonds for directors and officers of insured financial institutions.

Requires signs and logos displayed by an insured financial institution to contain specified information only. Requires: (1) prior FDIC written approval of a merger transaction if the acquiring, assuming, or resulting bank is to be a State nonmember insured bank (with specified exceptions); and (2) prior written approval of the Chairman of the Office of Savings Associations if the acquiring, assuming, or resulting institution (in a merger transaction) is to be a savings association.

Requires an insured State financial institution to obtain prior FDIC consent before retiring or reducing its capital assets or liabilities (with specified exceptions).

Subjects the activities of insured savings associations and their subsidiaries to the jurisdiction and oversight powers of the FDIC and COSA. Authorizes the FDIC to determine whether such activities are incompatible with deposit insurance. Precludes certain unindentifiable intangible assets from being included in a financial institution's capital compliance calculations.

Prescribes guidelines under which the investment activities of State-chartered savings associations must either conform to investment activities of federally-chartered savings associations, or obtain FDIC approval. Sets forth guidelines under which insured financial institutions may make loans secured by real property. Includes State savings associations within the FDIC's non-discrimination policy.

Amends the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to prohibit: (1) a troubled financial institution from using brokered deposits unless it receives a waiver from the FDIC upon a finding that acceptance of them does not constitute an unsafe or unsound business practice; and (2) contracts between a financial institution and a vendor on certain deposits or purchases of stock or assets not directly related to the vendor's products or services, if such conditions have an anticompetitive effect on or adversely affect the health or safety of such institution.

Directs the General Accounting Office to study and report to specified congressional committees on the contracting practices among third-party vendors and insured financial institutions, especially regarding any questionable contract provisions that tend to erode financial integrity and soundness by allowing the artificial inflation of capital or divestiture of troublesome assets.

Title III: Chairman of the Office of Savings Associations - Amends the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 to grant the Chairman of the Office of Savings Association general supervisory powers over the operation and regulation of savings associations. Directs the Chairman to prescribe uniform savings association accounting and disclosure standards which incorporate the same principles used to determine compliance with the rules and regulations issued by Federal banking agencies. Mandates that the standards governing savings associations' operations be at least as stringent as those of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Prohibits savings associations from participating in lottery-related activities.

Sets guidelines under which a savings association may override State usury laws.

Directs the Chairman to establish rules governing the selection of independent auditors by savings associations and service corporations and the performance of auditing services.

Establishes an Office of Savings Associations in the Department of the Treasury. Terminates the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and transfers its powers and authorities to the Chairman. Reserves for the Chairman those functions of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and its Chairman which have not been expressly transferred to either the FDIC, the Resolution Trust Corporation, or the Federal Home Loan Bank Agency. Requires the Chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank System to report annually to the Congress, and to send it copies of certain communications with the President and the Office of Management and Budget.

Directs the Chairman to prescribe liquidity regulations governing the amount of assets which savings associations and Federal Home Loan Bank members must maintain. Authorizes the Chairman to: (1) assess a penalty for noncompliance with liquidity requirements; and (2) reduce or suspend liquidity requirements under specified circumstances.

Empowers the Chairman to issue charters and to prescribe regulations governing the establishment and operation of Federal savings and loan associations and savings banks as sources of housing credit. Outlines the lending and investment parameters of housing credit. Outlines the lending and investment parameters for such institutions, including the Chairman's authority to: (1) appoint the FDIC as receiver or conservator under specified circumstances; (2) prescribe rules for institutions in conservatorship or receivership; and (3) monitor such institutions' compliance with monetary transaction recordkeeping requirements. Confers Federal Home Loan Bank membership status automatically upon each Federal savings association upon its incorporation. Authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to subscribe for preferred shares in Federal savings associations. Prescribes guidelines under which a Federal savings association may convert into a Federal savings bank, a Federal savings and loan association, or into a State savings association. Permits subscription by the Secretary of the Treasury for full paid income shares in Federal savings associations.

Cites circumstances under which a savings association or Federal Home Loan Bank member may: (1) be a depository of public money; (2) act as agent for a Federal instrumentality; (3) act as trustee for certain retirement accounts; (4) act as trustee in certain fiduciary capacities; (5) surrender its Federal charter; and (6) have its powers revoked by the Chairman.

Sets forth a conversion mechanism whereby: (1) the Chairman may authorize the conversion of a BIF State-chartered savings bank into a Federal savings bank; (2) certain insured savings banks may be converted or chartered as Federal stock savings banks upon FDIC determination that to do so would improve their financial condition; and (3) certain FDIC insured mutual savings institutions may be converted or chartered as Federal stock savings institutions.

Prohibits a savings association from conditioning its services to a customer upon certain additional requirements beyond the usual industry practice (tying arrangements). Limits the circumstances under which a Federal savings association may operate an out-of-State branch. Directs the Chairman to establish minimum capital requirements for savings associations. Requires the Chairman to establish uniform capital standards for savings associations which are as stringent as those for national banks (including the leverage ratio and risk-based capital standards). Includes goodwill as a component of capital. Requires an association to maintain tangible capital (excluding goodwill) equal to 1.5 percent of its total assets. Sets a deadline for standards implementation. Applies the same lending limitations to savings associations as presently apply to national banks. Requires each savings association to report its financial status to the Chairman.

Authorizes appropriations for the Chairman to develop State or federally chartered local thrift and home-financing institutions.

Grants the Chairman the same regulatory investigative and operational powers over certain District of Columbia building and loan associations that the Chairman has with respect to Federal savings and loan associations. Precludes the Chairman from: (1) causing District of Columbia associations to become Federal savings and loan associations; or (2) imposing upon such District associations the same regulations that are imposed upon Federal savings and loan associations.

Authorizes the Chairman to assess certain user's fees upon savings associations to cover the expenses and supervisory activities of the Office of Savings Associations.

Details the regulatory parameters within which savings and loan holding companies must operate. Exempts certain foreign savings and loan holding companies and bank holding companies registered with the Federal Reserve System from such regulatory framework. Requires the Chairman's prior approval with respect to acquisitions (including interstate acquisitions) by a savings and loan holding company. Sets forth civil and criminal penalties for certain prohibited acts including: (1) holding or exercise of proxy votes in a mutual savings association by any person (including a savings and loan holding company) that already controls more than 25 percent of voting shares; and (2) control of a non-subsidiary savings association by such person.

Outlines the requirements which State savings banks and cooperative banks must meet in order to attain qualified thrift lender status and be deemed savings associations. Restricts the business activities of a savings association which fails to maintain such status, and mandates that its charter be converted to a bank charter. Subjects a company that controls such a savings association to all the terms of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 as if it were a bank holding company. Subjects to the tying restrictions of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933: (1) a State-chartered savings association that is a subsidiary of a savings and loan holding company; and (2) a savings and loan holding company and its affiliates.

Outlines conditions under which a savings association operating in mutual form may reorganize as a mutual holding company, subject to the approval of COSA.

Subjects each savings association to the restrictions of the Federal Reserve Act with respect to: (1) transactions with affiliates; and (2) loans and extensions of credit by a savings association to selected executives and any person controlling more than ten percent of any class of voting securities. Grandfathers certain savings associations and insured institutions participating in certain capital recovery plans as long as they adhere to such plans and report regularly to the Chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank System.

Amends the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 to revise the standards under which savings associations attain qualified thrift lender status (a measure of a thrift institution's involvement in housing finance).

Sets forth a transitional period during which thrift institutions may continue to purchase mortgages from a mortgage-banking affiliate.

Title IV: Dissolution and Transfer of Functions, Personnel, and Property of Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation - Terminates the FSLIC and transfers its functions to either the FDIC or the Resolution Trust Corporation. Retains FSLIC rules (including those of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board) and places them under the enforcement purview of either the FDIC or COSA. Provides for the allocation of enforcement authority between the FDIC and COSA. Grants the FDIC rulemaking and enforcement authority over savings associations whose activities seriously threaten either the SAIF or the BIF. Sets forth an FSLIC personnel transfer scheme. Divides between COSA and the FDIC all personnel and property pertaining to the FSLIC and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. Requires the FSLIC to provide a final accounting of its finances and operations to the Congress, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget immediately before its dissolution.

Title V: Financing for Thrift Resolutions - Subtitle A: Resolution Trust Corporation - Amends the Federal Home Loan Bank Act to establish the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC) under the direction of the Oversight Board to: (1) resolve all FSLIC cases for which a liquidating receiver or conservator was appointed within a specified period; (2) manage the assets of the Federal Asset Disposition Association; and (3) make the most economical use of RTC financial activities. Places RTC authorities and limitations within the parameters of the FDIC Act, and precludes it from obligating either the FDIC or its funds. Proclaims the RTC as liquidating conservator or receiver with respect to any: (1) institution for which such an agent was appointed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board during a certain period; and (2) SAIF member for which the FDIC or COSA appoints such an agent during a designated period.

Establishes the Oversight Board which shall serve as the RTC board of directors.

Requires the RTC to report to the Oversight Board the results of a statutorily mandated review of: (1) all insolvent institution cases resolved by the FSLIC within a specified time frame; and (2) all means of reducing costs under existing FSLIC agreements relating to such cases.

Directs the RTC to dissolve and wind up the affairs of the Federal Asset Disposition Association (FADA). Terminates the RTC five years after the date of enactment of this Act. Directs the RTC to: (1) assume certain guarantees issued by the FSLIC; (2) document its decisions regarding the solicitation and selection of offers for assisted acquisitions and the disposition of assets of institutions under its purview; (3) submit annual and semiannual reports to the President and the Congress regarding its operations and financial status; (4) maintain a list of foreclosed properties of particular historical, environmental, or recreational value (and provide it to the Secretary of Interior, the Secretary of Agriculture, and to appropriate public agencies for possible acquisition); (5) establish up to 12 Regional Advisory Board districts to assist the RTC to dispose of acquired assets in the most economical manner; and (6) establish valuation methods to minimize the impact of real estate sales in depressed real estate markets. Subjects RTC employees and independent contractors to conflict of interest standards no less stringent than those applicable to FDIC personnel.

Subtitle B: Resolution Funding Corporation - Amends the Federal Home Loan Bank Act to establish the Resolution Funding Corporation (RFC) to provide funding for the RTC. Places RFC management under a three-member Directorate drawn from specified Federal Home Loan Bank senior executives supervised by the RTC Oversight Board. Prescribes guidelines under which the Federal Home Loan Banks must capitalize the RFC, including purchase of its non-voting capital stock. Requires the RFC to submit an annual status report to the President and the Congress. Terminates the RFC after the maturity and full payment of all obligations issued by it.

Revises guidelines for the assessment authority of the Financing Corporation to mandate that it assess each SAIF member in the same manner as the FDIC assesses each SAIF member. Grants the Financing Corporation first priority to make such assessments.

Revises the guidelines for Federal Home Loan Bank reserves to prohibit the payment of any dividends by a bank whose reserve accounts have fallen below 100 percent of its paid-in capital until its reserves have been restored to such percentage.

Title VI: Thrift Acquisition Enhancement Provisions - Amends the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 to authorize the Federal Reserve Board to approve savings association acquisitions by a bank holding company. Prohibits the Board from imposing restrictions on transactions between a savings association and its holding company affiliates (except as required under specified Federal Reserve Act provisions).

Amends the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (as amended by this Act) to prohibit a savings and loan holding company from acquiring more than five percent of the voting shares of a non-subsidiary savings association or a non-subsidiary savings and loan holding company.

Title VII: Federal Home Loan Bank System Reforms - Subtitle A: Federal Home Loan Bank Act Amendments - Amends the Federal Home Loan Bank Act to establish as an independent agency in the executive branch the Federal Home Loan Bank Agency (the Agency) to supervise Federal Home Loan Banks (FHLBs) to ensure that they: (1) implement their housing finance mission; (2) remain adequately capitalized and able to raise funds in the capital markets; and (3) operate safely and soundly. Requires the Agency to report annually to the Congress.

Declares certain insured credit unions eligible to become members or non-member borrowers of an FHLB. Precludes an insured financial institution which was not a member as of January 1, 1989, from becoming a member if: (1) it has not attained qualified thrift lender status; or (2) its financial condition or practices are adjudged unsound by the Agency. Authorizes the FHLBs to make loans to the FDIC for the use of the SAIF.

Abolishes the Federal Savings and Loan Advisory Council (Thrift Advisory Council) and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation Industry Advisory Committee.

Provides that advances made by an FHLB must be based upon collateral that is sufficient to fully secure such advances. Mandates that all long term advances be made only for the purpose of providing funds for housing finance. Requires an FHLB at the time of loan origination, renewal, or advance to maintain a security interest in specified categories of collateral. Directs the Comptroller General to audit the Agency and FHLBs to determine their compliance with this Act.

Subtitle B - Conforming Amendments - Makes technical and conforming amendments to relevant statutes.

Title VIII: Bank Conservation Act Amendments - Amends the Bank Conservation Act to authorize the Comptroller of the Currency to appoint without notice or prior hearing a conservator (which may be the FDIC) of a financially troubled notice bank under specified conditions. Grants the Comptroller exclusive conservator-appointment authority for a bank. Sets forth circumstances under which the Comptroller may terminate a bank conservatorship. Presents general conservatorship guidelines.

Title IX: Enforcement Authority Improvements - Enforcement Authority Improvements Act of 1989 - Subtitle A: Regulation of Financial Institutions - Amends the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to: (1) decrease from 120 days to 60 days the period during which an insured bank must correct business practices adjudged unsound by the the FDIC Board of Directors; (2) revise (from two years to from six months to two years) the period which a depositor's account remains insured after termination of a bank's insured status; and (3) authorize the FDIC to issue a temporary order suspending deposit insurance on deposits received by an insured financial institution adjudged to have no tangible capital under Federal banking agency guidelines.

Directs the FDIC to include goodwill to a specified extent when determining the tangible capital of a savings association. Cites circumstances under which the FDIC may temporarily suspend the deposit insurance of a savings association which would be adjudged to have no tangible capital but for the inclusion of goodwill as a capital component. Requires the FDIC to make special examinations of such associations once every quarter.

Authorizes the appropriate Federal banking agency to require a financial institution engaged in unsound business practices to implement specified remedies, including restitution and reimbursement. Authorizes such banking agency to: (1) limit the activities of such institution (including prohibiting or restricting its asset growth); and (2) issue a temporary cease and desist order whenever it determines that the institution's recordkeeping is so inaccurate as to prevent the agency from ascertaining the institution's financial condition.

Revises the enforcement procedures for breaches of fiduciary duty, unsafe business activities, or violations of this Act and increases the civil and criminal penalties for such violations. Sets forth standards for the imposition of civil penalties in excess of $2,500 per day. Prohibits a financial institution from discriminating or discharging personnel reporting possible violations by it. Authorizes the FDIC to coordinate its enforcement actions with COSA. Precludes the FDIC from delegating its decisionmaking authority about enforcement actions.

Subtitle B: Regulation by the Chairman of the Office of Savings Associations - Amends the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 to impose civil penalties upon savings associations which fail to file status reports, or file false or incomplete reports.

Requires the written approval of COSA before an individual may either participate in the affairs of an SAIF member, or serve as an SAIF officer, if such individual has previously been prohibited by the FSLIC or the Federal Home Loan Bank Board from either voting for an officer or participating in the affairs of an FSLIC insured member.

Subtitle C: Credit Unions - Amends the Federal Credit Union Act to authorize the National Credit Union Administration Board (the Board) to: (1) require an insured credit union engaged in certain unsound business practices to implement specified remedies (including restitution and reimbursement); (2) restrict such credit union's activities, including the growth of its assets; and (3) issue temporary cease and desist orders whenever it determines that the credit union's recordkeeping is so inaccurate as to prevent the Board from ascertaining the credit union's financial condition. Revises the enforcement procedures for breaches of fiduciary duty, unsafe business practices and violations of this Act. Increases the civil and criminal penalties for such violations. Prohibits a credit union from discriminating against or discharging personnel reporting possible violations to a regulatory authority. Prohibits a person convicted of dishonesty from participating in credit union affairs. Increases the civil penalties imposed upon a credit union for filing either non-timely or false status reports. Sets forth standards for the imposition by the Board of civil penalties exceeding $2,500 per day.

Amends the Federal Credit Union Act to direct the Board of Directors of the National Credit Union Administration to prescribe audit standards requiring an outside, independent audit by a certified public accountant for any credit union for any fiscal year that it fails to conduct a satisfactory annual supervisory committee audit, or during which it has experienced persistent and serious record-keeping deficiencies.

Subtitle D: Right to Financial Privacy Act - Amends the Right of Financial Privacy Act of 1978 to permit the disclosure of financial records to: (1) a supervisory agency exercising its conservatorship or receivership functions; (2) the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (or any Federal Reserve Bank) in the exercise of its credit extension authority; or (3) the Resolution Trust Corporation in the exercise of its liquidation functions.

Prohibits a financial institution on which a grand jury subpoena has been served regarding specified criminal violations from notifying the affected party about the existence or contents of the subpoena, or the information that it has furnished to the grand jury.

Title X: Criminal Enhancements - Amends the Federal criminal code to increase the criminal penalties and impose civil penalties for designated financial institution offenses including: (1) receipt of commissions or gifts for procuring loans; (2) theft, embezzlement, or misapplication of funds; and (3) fraudulent activities. Sets forth a statute of limitations for financial institution offenses, and instructs the U.S. Sentencing Commission to promulgate specified minimum sentencing guidelines for such offenses. Sets forth civil and criminal forfeiture guidelines regarding offenses affecting a federally insured financial institution. Cites circumstances under which certain grand jury matters may be disclosed to Federal or State attorneys and in litigation proceedings. Authorizes appropriations for the Department of Justice for proceedings falling within the purview of this Act.

Title XI: Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation - Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation Transition Act - Amends the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation Act to revise the membership of the Board of Directors, including five members who shall be appointed by the President.

Grants the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development (the Secretary) regulatory authority over the Corporation. Authorizes the Secretary to require that a reasonable portion of the Corporation's mortgage purchases be related to the national goal of providing adequate housing for low and moderate income families (with reasonable economic return to the Corporation). Requires the Secretary to report annually to the Congress regarding Corporation activities. Revises the Corporation's capitalization guidelines. Precludes the Corporation from imposing any charge or fee upon any mortgagee participating in a mortgage insurance program under the National Housing Act solely because of such status.

Prescribes guidelines under which: (1) the Secretary of the Treasury may purchase obligations and securities of the Corporation; (2) securities evidencing the Corporation's debt may be issued; and (3) the Corporation may make financial commitments based upon collateralized mortgage obligations.

Amends the Federal National Mortgage Association Charter Act to prohibit the Corporation from using its lending authority either to: (1) advance funds to a mortgage seller or originator on an interim basis using mortgage loans as collateral, pending the sale of mortgages in the secondary market; or (2) originate mortgage loans.

Title XII: Participation by State Housing Finance Authorities and Nonprofit Entities - Authorizes State housing finance authorities and nonprofit entities to purchase mortgage-related assets from the Resolution Trust Corporation or from financial institutions with respect to which the FDIC is acting as receiver or conservator. Requires that the net income attributable to the ownership of such assets be invested in low and moderate income housing within the jurisdiction of such State housing finance authority or nonprofit entity.

Title XIII: Study of Federal Deposit Insurance and Banking Regulation - Requires the Secretary of the Treasury to report to the Congress regarding the results of a study of the Federal deposit insurance system.

Title XIV: Miscellaneous Provisions - Directs the Comptroller General to report to specified congressional committees regarding the Nation's credit union system.

Amends the Federal Credit Union Act to direct the National Credit Union Administration Board to report to the Congress regarding the comparability of credit union regulator salaries with the compensation at other Federal bank regulatory agencies.

Amends the Revised Statutes to direct the Comptroller of the Currency to: (1) report to the Congress regarding the compensation of employees of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency; and (2) concurrently submit to the Congress any budget estimates or legislative recommendations made either to the President or the Office of Management and Budget. Precludes any Federal officer or agency from requiring the Comptroller to submit legislative commentaries prior to their submission to the Congress.

Subjects all entities performing functions or activities under this Act to audit by the Comptroller General. Requires specified Federal entities falling within the purview of this Act to report to the Congress regarding the extent of discriminatory lending practices by mortgage lenders subject to their supervision or regulation.

Applies a certain Executive Order relating to equal employment opportunity in the Federal Government to specified Federal lending agencies. Requires certain agencies under the purview of this Act to establish programs which solicit businesses owned by women or minorities, and to provide such businesses with opportunities to participate in their procurement programs.

Directs the FDIC to submit to certain congressional committees an annual detailed status report regarding the Federal Deposit Insurance Fund.

Mandates that specified Federal banking agencies establish uniform accounting standards to determine the capital ratios of all federally insured financial institutions.

Amends the Bank Holding Company Act to revise the cross-marketing restrictions placed upon banks controlled by specified holding companies.

Amends the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council Act of 1978 to establish within the Council an Appraisal Subcommittee to: (1) monitor State and Federal appraisal standards for federally related transactions; (2) maintain a national registry of State licensed appraisers for federally related transactions; (3) report annually to the Congress regarding its activities; and (4) monitor the Appraisal Foundation. Authorizes appropriations. Authorizes the Subcommittee to collect registration fees from persons who perform appraisals in federally related transactions. Requires Federal financial institutions, regulatory agencies, and mortgage agencies to prescribe real estate appraisal standards for federally related transactions. Directs the Subcommittee to monitor State appraiser certifying and licensing agencies to determine consistency with this Act. Empowers the Subcommittee to reject a State's appraiser certifications or licenses. Provides for a temporary waiver of appraiser certification or licensing requirements for States having a scarcity of qualified appraisers. Requires a Federal agency (including the Subcommittee) to report any State certified or licensed appraiser who violates this Act. Subjects a financial institution to a civil penalty for knowingly engaging the services of an appraiser in a federally related transaction who is not State certified or licensed.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the House of Representatives should adopt and send to the Senate for consideration as part of this Act legislation to repeal certain tax rules for financial institutions, including: (1) the exclusion from income of payments made to financially troubled institutions by the FSLIC and the FDIC; (2) the granting of tax-free status to certain reorganizations of such institutions; and (3) the relaxation of certain loss carryover rules.

Amends the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 to revise the conditions under which certain bank holding companies which control grandfathered nonbank and certain savings association holding companies may own more than five percent of the shares or assets of other financial institutions (passive investments).

Amends the Federal Savings and Loan Recapitalization Act to exempt from its moratorium on voluntary termination of FSLIC insured status a certain institution (First City Federal Savings Bank, Memphis, Tennessee) whose board of directors had decided to terminate such status before April 1, 1987, and whose deposit insurance had been in effect for less than one year as of such date.

Title XV: General Provisions - Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) an 800-bed local correctional treatment facility be constructed in the District of Columbia at the earliest possible date; and (2) Mayor Barry and other District of Columbia officials be urged to move expeditiously with a crime containment program, including the construction of a local 800-bed prison and jail space.

National Endowment for Children's Educational Television Act of 1989 - Amends the Communications Act of 1934 to establish, under the direction of the Secretary of Education, a National Endowment for Children's Educational Television for the purpose of creating and producing television programming specifically directed toward the development in children of fundamental intellectual skills. Directs the Secretary, in administering the Endowment, to make grants to persons creating and producing educational television programming for children. Requires the Secretary to consult with the Advisory Council on Children's Educational Television in making such grants. Authorizes the Secretary to make grants to persons using other forms of media and to apply conditions to such grants pertaining to the availability of such programming to commercial television licensees and cable system operators. Authorizes the Secretary to waive grant conditions in certain circumstances.

Directs the Secretary to establish the criteria for making such grants. Outlines grant application requirements. Limits amounts authorized for such grants.

Directs the Secretary to establish an Advisory Council on Children's Educational Television. Requires members appointed to have expertise in the fields of education, psychology, child development, television programming, or related disciplines.

Requires each grant recipient to maintain such records as are reasonably necessary to enable the Secretary to carry out functions under this Act. Gives the Secretary and the Comptroller General access to all documents of grant recipients for auditing and examination purposes. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to carry out this Act.

Motor Carrier Safety Act of 1989 - Requires the Secretary of Transportation to issue a final rule regarding Federal motor carrier safety regulations to: (1) establish a public information system that periodically updates the safety ratings of motor carriers which have received unsatisfactory safety ratings; (2) provide a rating reassessment within nine months after receipt of a motor carrier's written request to have an unsatisfactory rating reassessed; and (3) prohibit the operation of certain commercial motor vehicles by motor carriers who have received unsatisfactory safety ratings.

Requires the Secretary to submit operational guidelines to the Congress with specific criteria for determining civil penalties for motor carrier safety violations that pose imminent safety hazards. Requires reports not later than January 1, 1991, 1992, and 1993 to the Congress on enforcement actions.

Amends the Controlled Substances Act to impose mandatory minimum criminal penalties for the unlawful distribution or possession of controlled substances within 1,000 feet of a truck stop or safety rest area. Precludes the suspension of criminal sentences and denies probation for repeat offenders. Directs the U.S. Sentencing Commission to establish specified sentencing guidelines for violations of this Act.

Amends the Truck and Bus Safety and Regulatory Reform Act of 1988 to direct the Secretary of Transportation to initiate a rulemaking proceeding regarding improved braking performance standards for commercial motor vehicles.

Classifies Department of Transportation safety inspectors at GS-12 of the General Schedule.

Sets a deadline within which the Secretary must establish procedures ensuring the timely correction of commercial motor carrier safety violations found in a nationwide random reinspection system. National Voter Registration Act of 1989 - Requires each State to establish procedures with respect to elections for Federal office to permit voter registration by: (1) application simultaneously with application for a motor vehicle driver's license; (2) mail application; or (3) application in person at designated Federal, State, and private sector locations.

Declares that this Act does not apply to any State that has no voter registration requirement with respect to elections for Federal office.

Requires each State to: (1) assure that any eligible applicant who submits his or her application not later than the lesser of 30 days, or the period provided by State law, before the election is registered to vote in the election; (2) require the appropriate State election official to send notice to each applicant of the disposition of the application; (3) provide that the name of a voter may not be removed from the official list of eligible voters except by reason of death, criminal conviction, mental incapacity, change in residence, or voter request; (4) inform applicants under this Act of voter eligibility requirements and penalties provided by law for submission of a false voter registration application; (5) incorporate in application forms and other forms used at locations specified in this Act some means by which the person completing the form may decline to register to vote in elections for Federal office; and (6) provide a registration form to any individual who does not decline to register.

Provides that any State program or activity to protect the integrity of the electoral process by assuring an accurate and current voter registration roll for elections for Federal office: (1) shall be uniform and nondiscriminatory; and (2) may not result in the removal of the name of any person from the official list of registered voters for failing to vote.

Prohibits a general or comprehensive program which is designed to systematically remove ineligible voters from the rolls from taking place less than 60 days prior to a primary or general election for Federal office.

Prohibits a State from removing the name of a voter from the official list of eligible voters for Federal elections on the grounds that the registrant has moved, unless such registrant: (1) confirms in writing that he or she has changed residence to outside of the jurisdiction of the registrar; or (2) has failed to respond to a notice from the registrar and has not appeared to vote and, if necessary, correct the address in an election during the period beginning with the date of such notice and ending on the day after the next presidential election.

States that in the event of a change of address, for voting purposes, of a voter to another address within the jurisdiction of the same voting registrar, such registrar shall correct the voting registration list accordingly. Prohibits such voter's name from being removed from such registry of eligible voters by reason of such change of address, except as provided in this Act.

Directs the Federal Election Commission to: (1) develop a mail voter registration application form for Federal elections; (2) submit, not later than June 30 of each odd-numbered year, to the Congress a report assessing the impact of this Act on the administration of Federal elections during the preceding two-year period; and (3) provide information to the States with respect to State responsibilities under this Act.

Requires each State to designate a chief State election official to coordinate State functions under this Act.

Provides a private right of action for an individual aggrieved by a violation of this Act. Provides for the awarding of attorney fees to the prevailing party, other than the United States.

Imposes criminal penalties upon any person who: (1) intimidates, threatens, or coerces any person for registering or voting or exercising any right under this Act; or (2) deprives or defrauds the inhabitants of a State of a fair and impartially conducted election process.

S. 903 Sen. Reid; 5/3/89

Airspace Protection Act of 1989 - Requires the Secretary of Defense to provide written notice on any proposed designation of special use airspace to: (1) the Governor of any State over which airspace is sought to be designated as special use airspace; (2) the head of an Indian tribe on any Indian lands which are likely to be affected by such designation; and (3) the Secretary of the Interior, if such designation includes airspace above any national park, national wildlife refuge, national wild and scenic river, national trail, or national wilderness administered by the Department of the Interior.

Directs the Secretary of Defense, upon the request of any Governor, to hold a public meeting and consider comments prior to making a determination with respect to such designation.

Requires the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration to adopt procedures for assuring that such designations comply with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 and for the triennial review of each designation. Provides for the termination or modification of any designation if determined that the use of such airspace cannot justify the continued designation of special use airspace.

National Aeronautics and Space Administration Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1990 - Title I: Fiscal Year 1990 NASA Authorization - Authorizes FY 1990 appropriations to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) for the Inspector General and for specified activities relating to: (1) research and development; (2) space flight, control, and data communication; (3) construction of facilities; and (4) research and program management, including scientific consultations.

Permits appropriations for the first two numbered categories to be used for certain items of a capital nature (other than land acquisition) required for the performance of research and development contracts, and for grants to nonprofit educational and research organizations to augment their research facilities. Prohibits the use of these funds for the construction of any major facility whose estimated cost exceeds $500,000, unless the Administrator of NASA notifies specified congressional committees.

Authorizes certain fund use, subject to limitations, for facilities construction, repair, or modification and for unforeseen programmatic facility project needs.

Permits upward variances of funds for facilities construction under circumstances outlined in this Act.

Authorizes certain fund transfers and makes available specified funds for the construction and modification of facilities. Requires the Administrator to notify specified congressional committees of the nature, cost, and need for such construction before expending the funds in question.

Prohibits, until 30 days following congressional receipt of the Administrator's full explanation, the use of funds appropriated pursuant to this Act for any program that: (1) has been eliminated by the Congress; (2) is in excess of the amount actually authorized for the particular program (except for construction of facilities); or (3) has not been presented to either of the relevant congressional committees.

Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to: (1) the geographic distribution of Federal research funds; and (2) the continuation and expansion of the current prohibition on the export of U.S. satellites to the Soviet Union and other nations for launch on rockets of the Soviet Union.

Prohibits any civil space station authorized under this Act from being used to carry, place, install, or station any mass destruction weapon in space.

Authorizes the Administrator to expend funds up to a certain amount for: (1) the small business innovation research program; (2) space shuttle structural parts; (3) continued development of an extended duration orbiter; and (4) space transportation system requirements.

Title II: Commercial Space Launch Act - Amends the Commercial Space Launch Act to authorize FY 1990 appropriations to carry out such Act.

Title III: National Space Council - Authorizes FY 1990 appropriations to carry out the activities of the National Space Council.

Sets forth provisions concerning the hiring of certain employees at certain rates of pay, including experts and consultants.

Requests the Council to review the launch policy of the United States and to submit its findings to specified congressional committees.

Title IV: National Space Grant College and Fellowship Program - Amends the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Authorization Act of 1988 to make undergraduate schools eligible to participate in the National Space Grant College and Fellowship Program.

Cash Management Improvement Act of 1989 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to collect a charge from each executive agency that does not comply with regulations regarding the timely disbursement of Federal funds through cash, checks, electronic funds transfer, or any other means prescribed by the Secretary. Requires the deposit of such charges in the Treasury. Provides that such charges shall, to the maximum extent possible, be paid out of appropriations available for agency operations and shall not reduce program funding levels.

Requires States and Federal agencies to minimize the time elapsing between transfer of funds from the Treasury and the issuance or redemption of checks, warrants, or payments by other means.

Directs the Secretary to issue regulations requiring a State, when not inconsistent with program purposes, to pay interest on funds from the time of deposit until disbursement. Requires the Government to pay interest to a State that disburses its own funds under a Federal program. Requires the budget submitted by the President to include a statement of such interest payments.

Requires States that receive refunds of funds to return such refunds to the executive agency administering the grant program or apply such funds to reduce the amount of funds owed to the State under the grant program. Requires States to account for grant money made available to them as U.S. Government grant money in the accounts of the State.

Provides for periodic audits of the implementation of this Act.

S. 933 Sen. Harkin, et al.; 5/9/89

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1989 - Title I: Employment - Prohibits discrimination by any employer, employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee (covered entity) against any qualified individual with a disability in job application procedures, hiring or discharge, compensation, advancement, training, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.

Lists types of actions construed to be discrimination including, subject to exception, medical examinations and inquiries.

Provides that it may be a defense to a charge of discrimination that an application of qualification standards, tests, or selection criteria has been shown to be job-related and consistent with business necessity, and such performance cannot be accomplished by reasonable accommodation.

States that the term "qualification standards" may include a requirement that an individual with a currently contagious disease or infection shall not pose a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals in the workplace.

Sets forth special provisions regarding religious entities.

Declares that, for this title, "qualified individual with a disability" shall not include a current user of illegal drugs, unless otherwise handicapped. Sets forth the authority of a covered entity with regard to alcohol or illegal drugs. Specifies that, for this title, a test to determine the use of illegal drugs shall not be considered a medical examination.

Makes the remedies set forth in specified provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 available to any individual who believes that he or she is being subjected to discrimination in violation of this Act.

Title II: Public Services - Declares that no qualified individual with a disability shall be excluded from the participation in, denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination by an instrumentality of a State or a local government.

Lists types of actions deemed, for purposes of this Act and specified provisions of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, to be discrimination with regard to public transportation. Includes in that list, subject to exception, the failure to provide paratransit services for those who cannot use fixed route services.

Allows the Secretary of Transportation to temporarily relieve a public entity from the obligation to purchase new buses that are accessible if certain requirements are met, including that the entity demonstrate the unavailability of lifts.

Mandates that the Secretary require the appropriate public entity to develop a plan for compliance with provisions of this Act regarding accessibility of key stations.

Makes the remedies and rights set forth in specified provisions of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 available to any individual who believes that he or she is being subjected to discrimination in violation of this Act.

Title III: Public Accommodations and Services Operated by Private Entities - Prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in the enjoyment of any place of public accommodation.

Prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in public transportation services provided by a private entity that is primarily engaged in transporting people, but that is not in the principal business of air transportation.

Lists types of actions construed to be discrimination.

Requires the Office of Technology Assessment to: (1) undertake a study, with regard to over-the-road buses, to determine the access needs of individuals and the most cost effective methods for making the buses readily accessible; (2) establish, in connection with conducting the study, an advisory committee; and (3) report to the President and the Congress within 36 months after enactment of this Act. Requires that a draft of the study be submitted to the Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board and that any comments made by the Board before a specified deadline be incorporated into the final study.

Exempts from the provisions of this title: (1) private clubs or establishments exempted from coverage under title II (Public Accommodations) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; and (2) religious organizations or entities controlled by religious organizations, including places of worship.

Makes provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, relating to civil actions for preventive relief in public accommodations matters, available to any individual who is being or is about to be subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability. Provides for injunctive relief in certain circumstances.

Directs the Attorney General to investigate alleged violations of this title. Authorizes the Attorney General to commence a civil action in U.S. district court if there is reasonable cause to believe that any person or group is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to enjoyment of the rights granted by this title or that any person or group has been denied any such rights, and the denial raises an issue of general public importance. Sets forth the authority of the court, including equitable relief and civil monetary penalties. Requires the court, in such a civil action, when considering what amount of civil penalty, if any, is appropriate, to give consideration to any good faith effort or attempt to comply with this Act.

Title IV: Telecommunications Relay Services - Amends the Communications Act of 1934 to define "telecommunications relay services" (TRS) to mean telephone services that allow an individual with a hearing or speech impairment to communicate with a hearing individual in a manner that is equivalent to an individual without a hearing or speech impairment, including services that enable two-way communication between an individual using a telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) or other non-voice terminal device and an individual who does not use such a device.

Requires the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to ensure that interstate and intrastate TRS are available, to the extent possible and in the most efficient manner, to hearing-impaired and speech-impaired individuals in the United States. Applies, for purposes of these provisions, the remedies, procedures, rights, and obligations that are applicable under the Communications Act of 1934 to interstate common carriers to intrastate carriers, and to carriers engaged in both interstate and intrastate communication.

Requires each common carrier providing telephone voice transmission services to provide TRS individually, through designees, or in concert with other carriers within two years after enactment of these provisions.

Requires the Commission to prescribe regulations regarding: (1) functional requirements, minimum standards, hours of operation, rates, refusal of calls or limiting the length of calls, and disclosure of the content of calls; (2) use of existing technology and development of improved technology; (3) jurisdictional separation of costs; (4) fixed monthly charges; (5) extension of compliance deadlines for undue burdens; (6) enforcement; (7) certification by the FCC of State TRS programs; and (8) complaints alleging a violation of these provisions.

Title V: Miscellaneous Provisions - Prohibits retaliatory discrimination against any individual because of actions related to this Act. Makes it unlawful to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person in connection with the exercise or enjoyment of any right granted or protected by this Act. Makes specified enforcement provisions of titles I, II, and III of this Act available to aggrieved persons with regard to such retaliatory discrimination and coercion or interference.

Declares that a State shall not be immune under the 11th Amendment to the Constitution from an action in Federal court for a violation of this Act.

Requires the Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board to issue minimum guidelines to supplement the existing Minimum Guidelines and Requirements for Accessible Design.

Allows the awarding of reasonable attorney's fees, in certain circumstances, in any action or proceeding under this Act.

Directs the Attorney General to develop and publish for public comment a plan to assist entities covered by this Act, along with other executive agencies and commissions, in understanding their responsibilities. Authorizes the Attorney General to obtain the assistance of other Federal agencies in implementing the plan. Authorizes each department or agency that has responsibility for implementing this Act to: (1) render technical assistance to individuals and institutions that have rights or responsibilities under this Act; and (2) make grants and enter into contracts to effectuate the purposes of this Act, including to disseminate information and to provide technical assistance.

Requires the National Council on Disability to report to the Congress on the effect that wilderness designations and wilderness land management practices have on the ability of individuals with disabilities to use and enjoy the National Wilderness Preservation System.

States that, for this Act, the term "disabled" or "disability" shall not apply to an individual solely because that individual is a transvestite.

Applies the provisions of this Act, in their entirety and notwithstanding any other provision of this Act or of law, to the Senate, the House of Representatives, and all the instrumentalities of the Congress, or either House of the Congress.

Amends the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 with regard to the definitions of: (1) the term "individual with handicaps," particularly as it relates to alcohol and drugs; and (2) the term "illegal drugs."

Nontraditional Employment for Women Act - Amends the Job Training Partnership Act (the Act) to define "nontraditional employment," as applied to women, to refer to occupations or fields of work where women comprise less than 25 percent of the individuals employed.

Requires service delivery area (SDA) job training plans to include: (1) goals for the training of women in nontraditional employment and the training-related placement of women in nontraditional employment and apprenticeship; (2) a description of efforts to be undertaken to accomplish such goals, including efforts to increase awareness of such training and placement opportunities; and (3) procedures for annual reporting of the extent to which the SDA has met such goals and of a statistical breakdown of women trained and placed in nontraditional occupations, including specified types of information.

Requires the State Governor's coordination and special services plan also to include such goals and descriptions of efforts for training and placement of women in nontraditional employment under the Act and the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act.

Directs the State job training coordinating council to: (1) review, summarize, and annually disseminate the results of SDAs' and Governor's efforts to train and place women in nontraditional employment; and (2) obtain from the sex equity coordinator under the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act a summary of activities and an analysis of results under that Act and disseminate them annually.

Requires State education coordination grant recipients to provide statewide coordinated approaches, including model programs, to train, place, and retain women in nontraditional employment.

Allows the use of funds under title II (Training Services for the Disadvantaged) for outreach activities relating to education, training, work experience, and retention of women in nontraditional employment.

Directs the Secretary of Labor to use a specified portion of funds for national activities under the Act for FY 1990 through 1993 to make grants to States to develop demonstration and exemplary programs to train and place women in nontraditional employment. Limits such grants to no more than six per fiscal year. Allows States receiving such assistance to award grants to service providers and SDAs under specified conditions.

Directs the Secretary of Labor to report, with recommendations, to the Congress within five years on the extent of success of States and SDAs, and the effectiveness of such demonstration programs, in training, placing, and retaining women in nontraditional employment.

Declares that nothing in this Act shall be construed to mean that the Congress is taking a position on the issue of comparable worth.

Provides that failure to meet the goals in this Act shall not itself constitute a violation of title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or any other Federal law prohibiting discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or age.

Provides for the allocation of funds awarded to the Seminole Indians in certain dockets of the Indian Claims Commission according to a specified formula to the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma, the Seminole Tribe of Florida, the Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida, and the independent Seminoles of Florida.

Authorizes the governing body of the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma to prepare a plan for the use and distribution of its funds within 180 days of this Act's enactment. Directs the Secretary of the Interior to submit such a plan to the Congress for approval or, if the Seminole Nation has not prepared such a plan, to prepare and submit such a plan.

Specifies that any such plan shall provide that not less than 80 percent of the funds allocated to the Seminole Nation shall be set aside and programmed to serve common tribal needs, educational requirements, and such other purposes as the circumstances of the Seminole Nation may determine.

Restricts per capita distributions and allows such a distribution only after a membership roll of Seminole Indians has been certified by the Secretary.

Directs the Secretary to implement such a plan 60 days after its submission unless the Congress enacts a joint resolution disapproving it.

Subjects tribal investment decisions under such plans to the approval of the Secretary.

Directs the Secretary to pay the governing body of the Seminole Tribe of Florida its portion of allocated funds within 60 days after submission of an appropriate resolution by the tribal governing body.

Prohibits the preparation or implementation of a distribution plan or the distribution of allocated funds to the Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida unless authorized by the General Council of the Miccosukee Tribe or by a referendum vote of tribal members called by the General Council.

Provides for the investment of funds allocated to the independent Seminole Indians of Florida until such funds are distributed.

Directs the Secretary to compile a roll of independent Seminole Indians of Florida. Requires that the funds allocated to such Indians, including all accrued interest and investment income, be distributed on a per capita basis to those enrolled.

Declares that the funds allocated to each Indian tribe under this Act are to be held in trust by the United States for the benefit of such tribe. Provides that except for per capita payments above $2,000, funds held in trust or distributed under this Act shall not be considered as income for purposes of any Federal program.

Veterans' Agent Orange Exposure and Vietnam Service Benefits Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to pay a monthly disability or death benefit to a veteran or his or her survivors for any disability or death of a veteran who served in the active forces in Vietnam during the Vietnam era and who suffered from non-Hodgkins lymphoma or a soft-tissue sarcoma. Provides an exception to the payment of such benefits when there is affirmative evidence that such disease was not incurred during such service in Vietnam or that there was an intervening disease since such service. Provides the rates for the payment of such disability or death benefit. Prohibits such payments when other disability compensation is being paid for such disability. Provides that such disabilities shall be treated as service-connected for the purposes of all laws administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs (Department). Terminates such payments as of April 15, 1992, unless extended by a joint resolution of the Congress. Outlines congressional procedures for the consideration of such joint resolution. Requires the Secretary to take all reasonable actions necessary to notify eligible veterans and their survivors of the availability of such payments. Requires the Secretary to inform such recipients of the temporary nature of such payments.

Provides that the disease of chloracne in Vietnam veterans shall be considered to have been service-connected if such disease became manifest to a ten percent degree of disability or more within one year after the last date on which the veteran performed such service in Vietnam.

Provides a presumption of service-connection in the case of a Vietnam veteran suffering from a disease associated with effects of exposure to certain dioxins or other herbicide agents during such service in Vietnam. Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations listing a positive association between any disease and the biological effects of exposure to a herbicide agent in Vietnam. Requires the Secretary to update such list continually. Requires the Secretary, in prescribing and revising such list, to obtain by contract the determinations and estimates of a contract scientific organization. Requires such organization to: (1) determine which diseases have any degree of association with the biological effects of exposure to a herbicide agent; and (2) estimate the extent of association between each such disease and each such biological effects. Requires the organization to determine such association specifically with respect to non-Hodgkins lymphoma, each soft-tissue sarcoma, lung cancer, and each other cancer. Outlines contract provisions required in such agreements between the Secretary and the scientific organization, including surveys, evaluations, and periodic determinations. Requires such scientific organizations to provide reports to the Secretary and the Senate and House Veterans' Affairs Committees regarding its determinations and evaluations. Requires such organization to determine, in the event of a positive association, whether there is a reasonable basis for concluding that a Vietnam veteran with the highest level of exposure to that herbicide agent in Vietnam was exposed to such agent under the circumstances necessary for such biological effects. Requires a report from the organization to the Secretary and the veterans' committees when no such reasonable basis is found. Requires the Secretary to make certain determinations and follow-up reports after receiving such reports from the contract scientific organization, including the issuance of a report to the veterans' committees and the promulgation of positive association regulations, if necessary. Requires benefits to be continued even though a disease is removed from the lists of diseases having positive associations. Terminates such contracting authority ten years after the first day of the fiscal year in which a scientific organization transmits its first report to the Secretary. Provides interim regulations and special effective dates.

Directs the Secretary to compile and analyze all clinical data that: (1) are obtained by the Department in connection with examinations and treatment of veterans for disabilities related to exposure to certain herbicides or to service in Vietnam; and (2) are likely to be scientifically useful in determining the association, if any, between the disabilities of such veterans and their exposure to such herbicides and other toxic substances. Requires the Secretary to submit an annual report to the veterans' committees concerning such analysis and its results. Directs the Secretary to consult with the Director of the Office of Technology Assessment (OTA) before compiling and analyzing such information. Requires the Director of OTA to review each annual report submitted by the Secretary and transmit to the Secretary an evaluation of the contents of each report.

Directs the Secretary to establish and maintain a system for the collection and storage of voluntarily contributed samples of blood and tissue of veterans who performed active service in Vietnam during the Vietnam era. Outlines provisions concerning the security and authorized uses of such specimens, as well as limitations on the acceptance of such samples. Requires the Secretary to consult with the National Academy of Sciences (NAS) to the extent that an agreement has been reached with the NAS serving as the contract scientific organization for the Secretary. Requires the Secretary to consult with the Director of OTA if no agreement is made with NAS.

Directs the Secretary to establish a program to provide for the conduct of studies of the feasibility of conducting additional scientific research on health hazards resulting from: (1) exposure to dioxin; (2) exposure to other toxic agents in herbicides used in support of U.S. and allied military operations in Vietnam during the Vietnam era; and (3) active military, naval, or air service there. Requires the Secretary to report to the veterans' committees on the results of such studies. Requires the Secretary to consult with NAS before undertaking such studies and requires NAS to review such studies and report recommendations to the Secretary and the veterans' committees to the extent provided under any agreement between the Secretary and NAS.

Amends the Veterans' Benefits Improvement Act of 1988 to require the Secretary to annually furnish updated information to individuals listed in the Department of Veterans Affairs Agent Orange Registry on health risks resulting from exposure to dioxin or other toxic agents in herbicides as a result of service in Vietnam during the Vietnam era.

Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to report to the veterans' committees on the research being conducted to develop treatments for psychological absorption of dioxin and other toxic agents used in herbicides by the United States in Vietnam, including research relating to exposure to dioxin and other toxic agents outside Vietnam.

Extends through December 31, 1993, the eligibility for hospital and nursing home care for veterans exposed to toxic substances in Vietnam.

Amends the Veterans' Benefits Improvement Act of 1988 to authorize direct consultation between the Ranch Hand Advisory Committee and Department of the Air Force scientists conducting the Ranch Hand Study (a study of the long-term health effects of exposure to phenoxy herbicides and contaminants). Requires the preparation and submission of annual reports and a final report in connection with such study.

Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1990 - Title I: The Department of State - Part A: Authorization of Appropriations; Allocation of Funds - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for the Department of State for: (1) administration of foreign affairs; (2) international organizations and conferences; (3) international commissions; and (4) migration and refugee assistance. Earmarks specified amounts of such funds for the South Pacific Commission, refugees resettling in Israel, displaced Tibetans in India and Nepal, and displaced Burmese in India and Thailand. Prohibits the obligation or expenditure of funds appropriated for international conferences for any U.S. delegation to a meeting of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe unless such delegation includes representatives of the Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe.

Amends the Asia Foundation Act to authorize appropriations for FY 1990 for grants to the Asia Foundation. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to the Department of State for bilateral science and technology agreements and Soviet-East European research and training.

Amends the State Department Basic Authorities Act to authorize the transfer into the Buying Power Maintenance Account of amounts deobligated from accounts for the administration of foreign affairs. Authorizes amounts appropriated to the Department of State to be obligated for 12 month contracts for two fiscal years, provided that the total amount is obligated in the earlier fiscal year.

Part B: Department of State Authorities and Activities; Foreign Missions - Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to prohibit Federal officers and employees from soliciting funds for the purpose of carrying out activities for which assistance is prohibited by U.S. law. Prescribes penalties for such violations.

Amends the State Department Basic Authorities Act to authorize the Secretary of State to use appropriated funds for: (1) obligations assumed in Germany on or after June 5, 1945; (2) telecommunications services; and (3) the provision of maximum physical security in Government-owned and leased properties abroad.

Authorizes special agents of the Department of State and the Foreign Service to make arrests without warrant for any offense concerning passport or visa issuance if there are grounds to believe that a person has committed or is committing such offense. Removes violations of specified sections of the criminal code from a list of violations for which such agents are authorized to make arrests without warrants.

Authorizes funds appropriated in connection with the use of Blair House for FY 1990 to be credited to the appropriate account and to be available for maintenance and other expenses of Blair House.

Allows the Secretary of State to require foreign missions to obtain benefits or comply with other terms of the Secretary if necessary to implement an exchange of property with a foreign country to be used in connection with diplomatic or consular establishments. Authorizes the Secretary, if determined that the purposes of the Foreign Service Buildings Act, 1926 can best be met by such exchanges, to transfer funds for the acquisition and maintenance of buildings abroad to the Working Capital Fund. Permits only certain transferred funds to be used for such exchanges.

Amends the International Center Act to authorize the Department of State to charge Federal agencies for the lease or use of International Center facilities used for security and maintenance.

Authorizes the expenditure from appropriations available to the International Boundary and Water Commission for repairs of sanitation works threatened by the Colorado or Tijuana Rivers and for emergency actions against health threatening sanitation problems.

Authorizes the President to carry out preliminary surveys, operations, and maintenance of the system constructed to intercept sewage flows from Tijuana and selected canyon areas. Prohibits the operation of the Anzalduas diversion dam for irrigation or water supply purposes in the United States unless arrangements have been made with the prospective water users for repayment to the Government of the allocated portions of such dam. Authorizes the Secretary, acting through the Commission, to conduct investigations relating to the drainage of transboundary waters between the United States and Mexico.

Repeals a provision of a specified Act relating to the solemnization of marriages by consular officials.

Adds the Department of State to the list of agencies to which criminal justice agencies are required to make available criminal record information regarding individuals under investigation by the Department for determining the eligibility of such individuals for access to classified information or assignment to sensitive national security duties.

Authorizes the U.S. Postal Service to establish branch post offices at diplomatic posts abroad. Requires the Department of State to transfer postal revenues to the Service for expenses incurred in providing air mail services. Provides for such authority only to the extent that the total cost of such postal service does not exceed the cost of service incurred by the Department of State in the absence of such authority.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should take all practicable steps to reopen the American consulate in Bratislava, Czechoslovakia.

Provides that preferences for U.S. contractors under the Diplomatic Security Act shall not apply to the construction or renovation of the U.S. embassy in Ottawa, Canada.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on the advisability of reorganizing the Department of State's regional and functional bureaus, including the creation of bureaus and the transfer of jurisdictional responsibilities.

Earmarks a specified amount of funds appropriated under this Act for FY 1990 for continued support for the establishment of a Latin American and Caribbean data base.

Directs the Secretary to develop and implement programs to provide for the safe and efficient evacuation of U.S. government personnel, dependents, and citizens when their lives are endangered. Requires such policies to include measures to identify high risk areas where evacuation may be necessary and, if appropriate, to provide staff to U.S. missions abroad to assist in such evacuations. Sets forth responsibilities of the Secretary with respect to carrying out such policy.

Part C: Diplomatic Immunity, Reciprocity, and Security - Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to make ineligible to receive a visa and to exclude from admission into the United States any alien who has committed a serious criminal offense and for whom immunity from criminal jurisdiction was exercised with respect to such offense. Waives such excludability under certain conditions.

Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress on the feasibility of establishing a program to compensate U.S. citizens and permanent resident aliens for physical injury or financial loss resulting from criminal activity committed by individuals with diplomatic immunity. Outlines the requirements of such report.

Amends the State Department Basic Authorities Act to authorize the Secretary to make grants to child care facilities to offset the costs of such care in Moscow and at no more than five other posts abroad where the Secretary determines that such facilities are necessary to the efficient operation of the post.

Amends the Employee Polygraph Protection Act of 1988 to exempt the Department of State from a prohibition on administering lie detector tests, in any counterintelligence function, to individuals working under Department contracts.

Amends the Omnibus Diplomatic Security and Antiterrorism Act of 1986 to direct the Secretary to: (1) develop policies to use persons with appropriate U.S. security clearances for maintenance and repair work in classified areas of U.S. diplomatic or consular posts abroad; and (2) report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee on the feasibility of requiring clearances for contractors performing such work in certain diplomatic facilities abroad.

Part D: Personnel - Amends the Foreign Service Act of 1980 to require the Secretary of the Treasury, at the direction of the Secretary of State and the election of a foreign national employee, to transfer such employee's interest in the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund to a trust or other local retirement plan (except a social security plan). Deems such transfers to be a complete and final payment of benefits under Federal provisions governing civil service compensation. Requires such transfers to occur after October 1, 1990.

Amends the Foreign Service Act of 1980 to prohibit members of the Foreign Service selection boards from being foreign agents or from receiving income from foreign governments while serving on such boards.

Authorizes judicial review of any separation for cause of a Foreign Service member. Provides that certain members of the Foreign Service who are separated for cause shall be subject to reinstatement with back pay unless convicted of a crime related to the separation for cause.

Authorizes the establishment of a Visiting Scholars Program at the Foreign Service Institute.

Prohibits extra credit for foreign service at an unhealthful post from being used to determine the eligibility of a person to qualify as a former spouse of a Foreign Service employee or to compute such person's pro rata share of employee credit. Prohibits such credit for service as part of a tour of duty. Entitles qualified former spouses of former U.S. Information Agency (USIA) and Agency for International Development (AID) employees to Foreign Service health, retirement, and survivor benefits if such an employee retired before participation in the Foreign Service Retirement and Disability System was possible and the marriage lasted at least five years during the overseas assignment.

Makes technical amendments to provisions regarding the payment of travel expenses for Foreign Service members and their families in emergency situations.

Revises Federal provisions regarding civil service compensation to extend the time period for which payments to employees whose evacuation has been ordered may be made.

Revises Federal provisions regarding quarters, education, and cost-of-living allowances for Federal employees stationed in foreign countries.

Amends the State Department Basic Authorities Act to authorize the Secretary of State to make grants to post-secondary institutions or students (with special emphasis on minorities) to promote awareness of, and interest in, Foreign Service employment. Requires satisfactory educational progress by grant recipients for continued receipt of such grants.

Requires recommendations made by the Foreign Service Grievance Board which were reviewed before the enactment of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 to be considered final actions of the Department of State.

Directs the Secretary to submit to the Congress a plan to assure that equal efforts are undertaken in each region of the United States to recruit policy and professional Government service employees and Foreign Service officers for the Department of State and affiliated agencies. Requires the Secretary to implement such plan no later than January 1, 1990. Directs the Inspector General of the State Department to report to the Congress on the geographic, racial, ethnic, and gender composition of such employees and officers.

Includes as a prohibited discriminatory Foreign Service personnel practice discrimination based on geographic or educational affiliation within the United States.

Requires the Director of the Office of Personnel Management to appoint an Ombudsman for Civil Service Employees unless such position has been filled.

Part E: Foreign Language Competence Within the Foreign Service - Directs the Secretary to designate as model foreign language competence posts at least two Foreign Service posts in each of the Department of State's five geographic bureaus in countries where English is not the common language. Requires Government employees assigned to such posts to possess an appropriate level of competence in the language common to the foreign country. Provides that at least one of the designated posts shall be in a country where the principal language is Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, or Russian. Requires such posts to continue as model foreign language posts at least until September 30, 1993. Directs the Secretary to report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee on such program. Authorizes the Secretary to make exceptions to the requirements of the program if unanticipated exigencies so require. Prohibits certain posts from being designated as model foreign language posts under this Act. Authorizes appropriations.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on an entrance requirement for the Foreign Service of at least one world language at the S-3/R-3 level or one nonworld language at the S-2/R-2 level.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that Foreign Service promotion panels should: (1) only promote candidates to the Senior Foreign Service who have demonstrated foreign language proficiency in at least one language at the S-3/R-3 level; (2) strive for a minimum proficiency in two such languages; and (3) have at least one person on each such panel who has attained at least the S-3/R-3 level.

Directs the Department of State, AID, and USIA to revise the evaluation reports for foreign service officers to include an assessment of an employee's performance in each foreign language tested at the S-3/R-3 level. Requires the directors of personnel at such agencies to instruct promotion panels to take account of language ability and give precedence in promotions to officers who have achieved such level in one or more foreign languages.

Part F: Arctic Ocean Oilspills - Calls upon the Secretary and the Foreign Minister of Canada to begin negotiations on a treaty dealing with recovery of damages, contingency plans, and coordinated actions in the event of an oil spill in the Arctic Ocean or a tanker accident during the shipment of oil by sea. Directs the Secretary to report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on efforts toward this end.

Requires the Secretary to: (1) review international agreements with Canada to determine whether amendments or additions to such agreements are necessary to resolve questions of recovery of damages in the event of an oil spill in the Great Lakes and to ensure the adequacy of measures to prevent and remediate such a spill; and (2) report to the Congress on the results of such review.

Title II: United States Information Agency - Authorizes appropriations for: (1) FY 1990 for USIA; (2) U.S. participation in the World's Fair in Seville, Spain; and (3) FY 1990 to carry out the Center for Cultural and Technical Interchange Between East and West Act of 1960.

Authorizes additional appropriations for: (1) Voice of America (VOA); (2) radio construction; (3) the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs; and (4) the National Endowment for Democracy. Earmarks specified amounts of such funds for: (1) VOA Cuba Service; (2) the Fulbright Academic Program; (3) the International Visitors Program; (4) the Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program; (5) Congress-Bundestag Exchanges; (6) the Samantha Smith Programs; (7) the Arts America Program; (8) the Office of Citizen Exchanges; (9) the Edward Zorinsky Memorial Library in Jakarta, Indonesia; and (10) research exchanges with the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe.

Amends the Omnibus Diplomatic Security and Antiterrorism Act of 1986 to modify the preference for U.S. contractors with respect to certain bids for diplomatic construction involving physical or technical security.

Amends the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948 to require the USIA Director to make available to the Archivist of the United States for domestic distribution 12 years after the initial dissemination motion pictures, films, and other materials prepared for dissemination abroad.

Authorizes the USIA Director to acquire time on commercial or U.S. Government satellites to transmit USIA materials and programs to posts and other users abroad. Outlines the programs authorized to be transmitted. Requires the Director to give preferences to programs produced by American commercial and public television where such programs are available at a reasonable cost. Authorizes the transmission of public and commercial programs only if such programs: (1) are comprised of news, public affairs, artistic, cultural, or scientific programming; and (2) have been or are being broadcast in the United States. Earmarks specified amounts of funds made available to USIA under this Act for the purchase or use of programs produced with grants from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting or produced by U.S. public television networks. Requires satellite time not utilized by USIA to be made available to other Government agencies without cost. Authorizes time not utilized by the Government to be sold to commercial users. Waives certain restrictions concerning television broadcasting under the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 for FY 1990.

Requires USIA to promote, and provide assistance to facilitate, access in foreign countries to the news and public affairs programming of U.S. commercial and public television networks.

Prohibits VOA from selecting candidates who must be or are preapproved for employment by a foreign government or entity. Makes such prohibition inapplicable to participants in VOA's exchange programs or clerical, technical, or maintenance staff at VOA offices in foreign countries. Requires the USIA Director, in the event that such prohibition would require the discontinuation of a specific VOA foreign language service, to report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on: (1) the number and location of speakers of that foreign language who could be recruited without violating the prohibition; and (2) the efforts made by VOA to recruit such persons for employment.

Revises provisions regarding the United States Advisory Commission on Public Diplomacy.

Authorizes the credit of payments for USIA-produced publications and USIA English-teaching and library programs to the applicable appropriation.

Amends the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 to redesignate the Board of Foreign Scholarships as the J. William Fulbright Scholarship Board. Requires the Board to ensure that academic and artistic freedoms of grant recipients are protected.

Establishes within the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs an Office of Citizen Exchanges to support private nonprofit organizations engaged in such exchanges between the United States and other countries.

Authorizes the President to negotiate and implement an agreement with the Soviet Union under which repayments by the Soviet Union on lend-lease debts to the United States would be used to finance educational, artistic, and cultural exchanges between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Requires at least: (1) 30 Hubert H. Humphrey scholarships to be made available to Tibetan students and professionals outside Tibet; and (2) 15 scholarships to be made available to Burmese students and professionals outside Burma.

Directs USIA to establish and maintain through VOA a system of international public service announcements focusing on child survival techniques.

Requires the USIA Director to: (1) establish VOA broadcasts to Tibet to occur at least two hours daily; and (2) report to the Congress on such programming.

Directs the Director to maintain and submit to the Congress an Afghanistan country plan.

Requires the Director to make available to the Archivist of the United States a master copy of the film entitled "Long Journey Home." Directs the Archivist to reimburse the Director for any expenses incurred in making such film available and to make such film available for purchase and public viewing in the United States.

Authorizes the Director to enter into a contract for the construction of Thailand's VOA facilities for a period not to exceed five years or delegate such authority to the Department of the Army Corps of Engineers, provided that there are sufficient funds to cover the Government's liability for payments for the first fiscal year plus the amount of cancellation costs.

Requires VOA, during FY 1990, to broadcast its programs at least 12 hours each day into China.

Title III: Board for International Broadcasting - Amends the Board of International Broadcasting Act of 1973 to authorize appropriations to the Board for International Broadcasting for FY 1990.

Authorizes appropriations to the Board for FY 1990 for radio transmitter construction and modernization and construction of a relay station in Israel.

Amends the State Department Basic Authorities Act of 1956 to extend the authority of the Secretary to procure legal services to the chairman of the Board for International Broadcasting.

Title IV: International Organizations - Authorizes the President to continue U.S. membership in the International Sugar Organization. Allows U.S. contributions to such organization to be paid from funds appropriated for contributions to international organizations, beginning in FY 1991.

Urges the President to protect the independence of the international civil service at the United Nations. Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should ensure that the United Nations continues to pay sufficient attention to the United States and other major financial contributors in decision-making procedures on budgetary matters. Directs the President to withhold up to 20 percent of funds for the U.S. assessed contribution to the United Nations or its agencies until the President determines that the United Nations or any such agency: (1) has continued implementing decision-making procedures in such a manner; (2) is making progress toward the elimination of secondment in the United Nations Secretariat; or (3) is implementing the 15 percent reduction in staff of the Secretariat and such reduction is being equitably applied among the nationals on such staff. Requires the President to notify the Congress when making such determinations.

Directs the Secretary to report annually to the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate on the voting practices of governments represented at the United Nations and the responsiveness of such governments to U.S. policy. Outlines the requirements of such report. Repeals provisions of specified Acts concerning such voting practices.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary should monitor closely the changes achieved in UNESCO and should work with U.S. allies and UNESCO leadership to promote U.S. reentry in UNESCO as soon as possible.

Prohibits any funds authorized to be appropriated under this or any other Act from being available to the United Nations or any specialized agency which accords the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) the same standing as member states.

Title V: Refugee and Other Provisions - Amends the Migration and Refugee Assistance Act of 1962 to make technical amendments to a provision regarding audits of funds received by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to: (1) commendations to Malawi and Pakistan for their treatment of Afghan and Mozambican refugees; (2) commitments to facilitating the departure of Jews and other religious minorities from the Soviet Union; (3) the protection and asylum of Southeast Asian refugees and a review of the orderly departure program from Vietnam; (4) the forcible repatriation of Mozambicans by the Government of South Africa and the Secretary's required report on Mozambicans seeking to enter South Africa; and (5) actions by the Government of Ethiopia to improve the situation of Sudanese and Somalian refugees and the Secretary's required report on such actions.

Repeals a provision of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 concerning the effective date for a prohibition on the exclusion or deportation of certain aliens.

Directs the Attorney General to: (1) report to the Senate Committees on Foreign Relations and the Judiciary on U.S. immigration policy toward Burmese pro-democracy protesters who have fled from the Burmese Government and are now located in border camps or inside Thailand; and (2) recommend any legislative changes to meet the asylum, refugee, parole, or visa status of such persons.

Title VI: Global Environment Protection Act - Global Environmental Protection Assistance Act of 1989 - Part A: Commercial Debt-for-Nature Exchanges - Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to authorize the AID Administrator to furnish grants to nongovernmental organizations for the purchase of a foreign government's discounted commercial debt which will be canceled or redeemed as part of a debt-for-nature exchange. Directs the Administrator to identify areas which are in particular need of immediate attention to prevent the loss of unique biological life or a valuable ecosystem. Requires the Administrator, in order for a country to be eligible for a debt-for-nature exchange, to determine that the country has a long-term plan and an agency to oversee the long-term viability of a nature program. Prohibits the U.S. Government from accepting title or interest in any land in a foreign country as a condition of the debt exchange.

Requires the Administrator to invite the government of each Subsaharan African country to submit a list of: (1) areas of severely degraded natural resources which threaten human survival and well-being and the opportunity for future economic growth; or (2) areas of biological and ecological importance in such country. Directs the Administrator to reach agreement with a host country for the restoration and sustainable use of such areas. Authorizes the Administrator to make grants to nongovernmental organizations for the purchase of such countries' discounted commercial debt in exchange for such countries' commitments to restore natural resources and develop plans for sustainable use of such resources.

Part B: Multilateral Foreign Assistance Cooperation - Declares that the Secretary, acting through the Development Assistance committee of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, should initiate negotiations among member countries on a coordinated approach to global warming, tropical deforestation, sustainable development, and biological diversity through bilateral assistance programs.

Part C: International Debt Exchanges and the Environment - Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President, acting through the Secretary, should include support for sustainable development and conservation projects when negotiating exchanges or reductions of commercial debt of foreign countries. Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to: (1) report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the Speaker of the House on the methods to be used to incorporate environmental considerations into debt restructuring plans; and (2) include in the annual Multilateral Development Bank environmental report an analysis of the support provided to conservation and development projects as a part of major debt restructuring agreements.

Requires the Secretary to direct the U.S. executive directors of the multilateral development banks to: (1) negotiate for the creation in each bank of a department responsible for environmental protection and resource conservation policies; (2) support and provide funds for debt reduction; (3) encourage loans which facilitate debt-for-nature exchanges; and (4) support sustainable use policies.

Directs the Secretary to: (1) conduct an assessment of which institution can best serve as an international clearinghouse to promote debt-for-nature exchanges; (2) report the findings of such assessment and a timetable for establishing such clearinghouse; and (3) instruct the U.S. executive directors of such banks to seek to implement such findings.

Requires the U.S. executive directors of such institutions to negotiate with the other directors to provide guidelines for restoration, protection, or sustainable use policies.

Part D: Wildlife and Nature Protection - Authorizes the President to maintain U.S. membership in the International Tropical Timber Organization and the International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for U.S. contributions to and participation in: (1) the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora; (2) the International Tropical Timber Organization; (3) the World Heritage Convention; and (4) the International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources.

Part E: Global Warming - Directs the Secretary of State to report to the Congress on the feasibility of establishing a global warming prevention information network to disseminate information to foreign governments and citizens.

Part F: International Environmental Education - Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the United States should promote and support assistance to nongovernmental independent libraries in regions with ecological crises and limited access to literature related to such crises and contributions of corporate book inventories and other items related to environmental protection to charitable organizations assisting in such regions; and (2) the Internal Revenue Service should interpret the Internal Revenue Code to include within the term "needy" libraries in regions of environmental crisis that lack the capacity to acquire basic environmental science literature.

Part G: Miscellaneous Provisions - Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on the political, economic, commercial, and security implications of technology transfers to foreign countries for the purpose of improving energy efficiency and reducing carbon dioxide emissions into the atmosphere.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the President should persuade other world leaders to join in an International Energy Conference or use the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change to bring the nations of the world together to focus attention on international energy problems, including ways to assist less-developed nations in developing energy through efficient and clean technologies that will mitigate alterations to the atmosphere that cause global warming.

Requires the President to submit a coordinated national global climate change policy to the Congress by February 1, 1990.

Title VII: Television Broadcasting to Cuba Act - Television Broadcasting to Cuba Act - Directs USIA to provide television broadcasting to Cuba. Requires the USIA Director to establish a Television Marti Service to be responsible for such broadcasts. Designates such broadcasts as the USIA Television Marti Program.

Requires the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to allocate a spectrum for such broadcasts, except that no such allocation shall result in objectionable interference with domestic broadcasts. Prohibits such broadcasts if the FCC determines that such broadcasts are causing interference with domestic broadcasts. Requires the FCC to assist domestic licensees in overcoming the adverse effects of interference caused by the Service. Prohibits Federal agencies from compelling domestic licensees to change frequencies in order to eliminate interference caused by Service broadcasting. Requires the FCC to monitor and periodically report to appropriate congressional committees on interference from Cuban radio and television stations and from television broadcasting to Cuba.

Authorizes assistance to USIA from other Federal agencies to carry out this Act.

Authorizes appropriations. Prohibits such funds from being expended unless the President notifies the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that such broadcasting is feasible pursuant to a test under the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1989 and will not cause objectionable interference. Requires the President to report the findings of such test to the Congress.

Amends the Radio Broadcasting to Cuba Act to redesignate the Advisory Board for Radio Broadcasting to Cuba as the Advisory Board for Cuba Broadcasting. Revises administrative provisions regarding the Board.

Title VIII: PLO Commitments Compliance Act of 1989 - PLO Commitments Compliance Act of 1989 - Reiterates the U.S. policy that any dialogue with the PLO shall be contingent upon the PLO's recognition of Israel's right to exist, its acceptance of United Nations Security Council Resolutions 242 and 338, and its abstention from, and renunciation of, all acts of terrorism.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the United States, in any discussions with the PLO, should seek: (1) the prevention of terrorism and other violent activity by the PLO or its factions; and (2) the implementation of concrete steps by the PLO consistent with its commitments to recognize Israel and renounce terrorism.

Requires the U.S. representative, during the next round of talks with the PLO, to obtain from the PLO representative a full accounting of specified attempted incursions into Israel which occurred after Yasser Arafat's statement of December 14, 1988. Directs the Secretary to report to the Senate any such accounting.

Requires the President, as long as the dialogue between the United States and the PLO continues, to report every 120 days to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the PLO's progress in achieving concrete actions to further the peace process.

Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress on policies of Arab states toward the Middle East peace process, including: (1) public recognition of Israel's right to exist in peace and security; (2) ending the Arab economic boycott of Israel; and (3) ending efforts to expel Israel from international organizations or denying participation in such organizations.

Title IX: People's Republic of China - Condemns the Government of China for carrying out arrests and executions of those who participated in the prodemocracy movement. Commends the President for taking measures against China and urges additional measures to be taken to discourage arrests and executions.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that: (1) the Export-Import Bank should postpone approval for financing of U.S. exports to China; (2) U.S. executive directors of international financial institutions should oppose the extension of financial assistance to China; (3) the President should review the advisability of continuing to extend most-favored nation trade treatment to Chinese products, all bilateral trade agreements between the United States and China, bilateral commercial agreements concerning satellite launches, and the Chinese-American Agreement for Cooperation on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy signed in July 1985; and (4) the President should consult with U.S. allies at the upcoming Economic Summit, Members of the Coordinating Committee on Exports to Communist Countries, and the other signatories of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade to review China's status with regard to such organizations.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the President should ask the United Nations Commission on Human Rights to investigate the condition of human democratic rights in China and Tibet; (2) the President should convey to China that the lifting of martial law, the release of political prisoners, and the opening of Tibet to foreigners is a critical factor in the improvement of U.S.-Chinese relations; (3) the President and the Secretary should convey to China the importance of living up to its international undertaking with respect to the 1984 Joint Declaration for the future prosperity and stability of Hong Kong; and (4) the Secretary should advise the United Kingdom of continuing concern about the absence of guarantees of free direct elections and human rights in the Joint Declaration.

Suspends to China OPIC financial support, assistance from the Trade and Development Agency, munitions and crime control equipment exports, and exports of U.S. satellites intended for launch by a Chinese launch vehicle unless the President reports to the Congress that: (1) China has made progress on a program of political reform; or (2) it is in U.S. national security interests to terminate such a suspension. Suspends licenses for export to China of goods or technology which could be used for nuclear explosive purposes until the President: (1) has certified to the Congress that China is not assisting and will not assist any non-nuclear nation in acquiring nuclear explosive devices or materials; and (2) the President makes a certain required report.

Requires the President to negotiate with governments participating in the Coordinating Committee to suspend any liberalization of controls on exports of goods and technology to China under the Export Administration Act of 1979. Directs the President to oppose any liberalization by the Committee until six months after this Act's enactment or until the President reports that such suspension should be terminated.

Exempts from the suspension on the issuance of munitions export licenses any systems and components designed specifically for civil products and controlled as defense articles only for purposes of export to a controlled country, unless the President determines that the recipient of such items is the Chinese military or security forces.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the President should inform the Congress of the results of his review of the U.S. relationship with China, his consultations with U.S. major allies regarding their relations with China, and his actions with regard to human rights in China and the status of Hong Kong.

Title X: Miscellaneous Provisions - Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1969 to authorize appropriations for FY 1990 for the Inter-American Foundation.

Amends the Arms Export Control Act to credit certain munitions control registration fees to a Department of State account for FY 1990.

Sets forth procedures for issuances of commercial arms export licenses under the Arms Export Control Act. Requires the office primarily responsible for export licensing functions, as part of such procedures, to report semiannually to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on the percentage of cases handled that have fallen within required processing time frames.

Prohibits the sale or transfer of any defense article on the U.S. Munitions List to China if such equipment is used by China to enforce martial law or suppress demonstrations in Tibet or to violate Tibetan human rights. Requires the President, before the issuance of any export license to China of an item on the List, to certify to the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that no defense article has been or is being used for such purposes. Terminates this section on October 1, 1993.

Directs the Assistant Secretary for International Narcotics Matters, for each country in which the Department of State uses, or approves for use, a herbicide for the aerial eradication of coca or opium, to report to the Congress on: (1) the expected impact of eradication on the price and availability of cocaine and heroin in the United States; (2) the extent to which such eradication could encourage coca or opium growers to align themselves with insurgent groups against legitimate governments; (3) the total dollar amount of assistance from the United States, international organizations, and local governments to help coca and opium growers in eradication zones shift to production of licit crops; and (4) what countermeasures may be taken by such growers and illicit drug cartels in response to eradication. Prohibits the use or deployment of equipment or aircraft made available to foreign countries for narcotics control under such Act in locations where U.S. Government representatives are not permitted free access by a foreign government.

Directs the Secretary and the U.S. Trade Representative to report to the Congress on: (1) the feasibility and effect of a meeting among Canada, Mexico, and the United States to discuss greater economic integration and cooperation; (2) the factors related to an economically integrated and cooperative border region between Mexico and the United States; and (3) the adequacy of Federal agencies' resources to handle the increased work load resulting from such integration.

Requires members of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board to file biannual financial disclosure reports with the Office of Government Ethics.

Declares that it is in the interest of the United States to pursue the establishment of a Pacific Basin Forum for the discussion of economic, diplomatic, and other issues unique to the region. Urges the President to call for an annual summit meeting with the leaders of key Pacific Rim nations.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the leadership of China should take all necessary steps to establish a just and democratic society, with a free and open political system that will protect the essential human rights of China's people; and (2) the Secretary should communicate to the Chinese leadership that official violence directed at those who peacefully demonstrate for democracy, liberty, and justice will seriously damage relations with the United States.

Urges the United States to recognize the bicentennial of Benjamin Franklin's death and calls on Federal agencies to recognize the preservation goals of the Friends of Benjamin Franklin House and the American Franklin Friends Committee.

Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress on the feasibility of negotiating an international agreement to establish an international agricultural conservation reserve to protect fragile agricultural soils.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that a certain agreement with Japan should be interpreted to ensure that, for the 1990 fishing season: (1) electronic position-indicating and vessel-identification devices will be operating aboard all Japanese vessels which fish with driftnets in the North Pacific Ocean outside the exclusive economic zone or territorial sea of any nation; and (2) a sufficient number of observers will be aboard such vessels to ensure the collection of statistically reliable data on the number of U.S. marine resources killed by such vessels.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the United States should initiate the establishment of a COCOM-type organization of supplier nations to coordinate policies to control the export of chemicals, biological agents, technology, equipment, and any other materiel that can be used for manufacturing of chemical and biological weapons.

Requests the Secretary to report to the Senate by September 30, 1989, on: (1) why the U.S. Cargoscan monitoring system for the Intermediate-Range Nuclear Forces Treaty was not installed at the Votkinsk Portal Monitoring Facility in the Soviet Union by December 1, 1988, as provided for in the Treaty; and (2) when such system will be operational.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should request NATO allies to consider the concept of a direct military to military communications link between NATO and the Warsaw Pact. Directs the President to report to the Congress on the feasibility and costs of establishing such link.

Condemns the brutal treatment of, and blatant discrimination against, the Turkish minority by the Government of Bulgaria.

Calls upon the Bulgarian authorities to cease all such discriminatory practices, release all those imprisoned because of their participation in nonviolent political acts, and honor obligations concerning the right of all Bulgarians to emigrate.

Urges the President and Secretary of State to make strong diplomatic representations to Bulgaria protesting its treatment of its Turkish minority and to raise this issue in all appropriate international fora.

Authorizes appropriations to Turkey for assistance to ethnic Turkish refugees fleeing Bulgaria and resettling in Turkey.

Expresses concern regarding human rights abuses, violence, and ethnic unrest in Kosovo. Urges the Government of Yugoslavia to: (1) assure that further violence does not occur in Kosovo; and (2) observe its obligations under the Helsinki Final Act and the United Nations Declaration on Human Rights to assure full protection of the rights of all citizens of Kosovo. Requests the President and the State Department to continue to monitor closely the human rights situation in Kosovo.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the future of Taiwan should be settled peacefully, free from coercion, and in a manner acceptable to the people of Taiwan; and (2) good relations between the United States and China depend upon the Chinese authorities' willingness to refrain from the use or threat of force in resolving Taiwan's future.

Requires the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations to report to the Senate on the appropriate relationship between the legislative and executive branches with respect to the formulation of U.S. foreign policy.

Authorizes the President to make available to non-Communist resistance forces and civilians in Cambodia funds made available for FY 1990 foreign military financing and economic support assistance. Prohibits the use of such funds to aid the Khmer Rouge in conducting military or paramilitary operations in Cambodia or Indochina.

Treats Hong Kong as a separate foreign state for purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act, beginning in FY 1990. Limits the number of immigrant visas made available to Hong Kong natives in any fiscal year to 10,000.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should: (1) take immediate steps to achieve a consensus among South Africa's major trading partners on effective measures to bring an end to apartheid; (2) implement all provisions of the Comprehensive Anti-Apartheid Act of 1986; (3) take steps to bring about concerted multilateral pressure to dismantle apartheid; (4) instruct the U.S. representative to the United Nations to offer a resolution in the Security Council that would impose sanctions against South Africa (similar to those embodied in the Anti-Apartheid Act); (5) strengthen the impact of such Act through diplomatic and political pressure; (6) direct specified executive agencies to monitor trade relations between South Africa and U.S. allies; and (7) take action against those countries benefiting from or taking advantage of U.S. sanctions against South Africa.

Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to the Tripartite Agreement, peace and stability in southern Africa, and an end to apartheid.

Prohibits the expenditure of funds authorized to be appropriated in this Act for assistance with respect to the Tripartite Agreement among Angola, Cuba, and South Africa until the President certifies to the Congress that the United States has received assurances from each of the parties to the Bilateral Agreement between Angola and Cuba and the United Nations Secretary General that all Cuban troops will be withdrawn from Angola by July 1, 1991. Prohibits the expenditure of such funds if: (1) the Government of Cuba fails to comply with its obligations under the Bilateral Agreement relating to the redeployment and withdrawal of Cuban troops; or (2) any Cuban troops remain in Angola after such date. Requires the President, no more than 15 days after each scheduled phase of the redeployment and withdrawal of Cuban troops, to report to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations on whether the signatories of the Tripartite Agreement are complying with such Agreement.

Provides that funds appropriated for the implementation of the Tripartite Agreement shall be available only if the President certifies that: (1) parties to such Agreement are in compliance with such Agreement and Cuba has complied with redeployment and withdrawal provisions of the Bilateral Agreement; (2) Cuba has not engaged in any offensive military actions against the Union for the Total Independence of Angola; (3) the United Nations has terminated all funding for the South West Africa People's Organization; and (4) the United Nations Angola Verification Mission is demonstrating diligence and professionalism in verifying the departure of Cuban troops and the recording of troop rotations.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the United States should recognize Guillermo Endara as the legitimate President of Panama and should work for the immediate expulsion of Manuel Noriega from Panama.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the State Department should submit to the Senate for advice and consent all agreements with the Soviet Union which relate to U.S. boundaries.

Declares that a certain United Nations resolution makes the United Nations an inappropriate forum for the sponsorship of any international conference on the Arab-Israeli conflict.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the President should seek to negotiate an international protocol, at the earliest possible date, to require all nations producing plastic explosives to implant taggants in such explosives to facilitate detection for anti-terrorist purposes.

Expresses support for the aspirations of the Soviet Georgian nation for freedom, democracy, and cultural and human rights.

Authorizes appropriations for the Commission on the Ukraine Famine.

Prohibits certain transactions between U.S. and Cuban firms.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative shall have a representative in the American embassy in Tokyo.

S. 1182 Sen. Kennedy; 6/14/89

Fair Labor Standards Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (the Act) to increase the minimum wage per hour from $3.35 in 1989 to: (1) $3.85 in FY 1990; (2) $4.25 in FY 1991; and (3) $4.55 in FY 1992 and thereafter.

Provides for annual adjustments of the minimum wage. Directs the Minimum Wage Review Board (established by this Act), by January 1, 1992, to review current economic data on wages, prices, and other economic indicators and determine how the minimum wage rate should be adjusted. Directs the Board, by October 1, 1992, to transmit to the Congress a recommendation to adjust the rate, including an estimate of the economic effects of doing so. Directs the Board to conduct such reviews and transmit such recommendations annually.

Establishes the Minimum Wage Review Board, composed of five members appointed by certain congressional officers.

Increases the small business exemption by revising the definition of an enterprise engaged in commerce for purposes of coverage under the Act ("the enterprise test"). Exempts from such coverage those businesses whose annual gross volume of sales or business is less than $500,000 (currently $362,500), effective October 1, 1989. Requires employers who were covered in 1988, but who are exempt under the new threshold, to continue to pay the $3.35 per hour minimum wage (and continue to be covered by overtime and child labor provisions of the Act).

Removes the Virgin Islands from coverage by provisions for special industry committee minimum wage determinations and orders, including those involving employment under special certificates for learners, apprentices, and messengers and for students. Adds references to American Samoa under such provisions (American Samoa is currently covered by such provisions through references under other special minimum wage provisions). Removes references to Puerto Rico under such provisions, but continues and revises the special minimum wage treatment of Puerto Rico as follows: (1) in addition to designated types of employees (Federal, hotel, motel, restaurant, and food service) entitled to receive the full Federal minimum wage, employees in industries averaging $4.65 or more per hour would be so entitled; (2) employees in industries averaging from $4.00 to $4.64 per hour would receive the full rate by October 1, 1993, after a four-year period of gradual increases; (3) employees in industries averaging less than $4.00 per hour would receive the full rate by October 1, 1994, after a five-year period of gradual increases; and (4) employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a municipality or other governmental entity of the Commonwealth, in categories averaging less than $4.00 per hour and covered by 1985 amendments to the Act, would receive the full rate by October 1, 1995, after a six-year period of gradual increases.

Increases the tip credit under the Act from 40 percent to 45 percent for FY 1990 and to 50 percent for FY 1991 and thereafter. (The tip credit deems the amount paid to a tipped employee, for minimum wage purposes, to be increased by an amount determined by the employer, but not by an amount in excess of the specified percentage of the applicable minimum wage rate.)

Allows employers to pay a training wage at less than the minimum wage rate. Allows such training wage to be paid only: (1) until the employee has been employed a cumulative total of 60 days by all employers who are required to withhold payroll taxes for such employee; and (2) while such eligible employee is engaged in on-the-job training which is at least 30 days in duration. Prohibits payment of such training wage to migrant or seasonal agricultural workers or nonimmigrant aliens. Makes the individual responsible for providing proof of previous periods of employment with other employers. Allows such training wage to be paid only during the period from October 1, 1989, to September 30, 1992. Sets such training wage at: (1) not less than $3.35 per hour during the year beginning October 1, 1989; and (2) beginning October 1, 1990, not less than $3.35 per hour or 85 percent of the minimum wage, whichever is greater. Prohibits layoffs or termination of employment or reduction of the number of regular employees because of the training wage. Prohibits employee hours at the training wage during any month from exceeding one-fourth of all employee hours in the establishment. Sets forth notice requirements and enforcement provisions. Directs the Secretary of Labor (the Secretary) to report to the Congress by July 1, 1992, on the effectiveness of the training wage.

Exempts from overtime provisions of the Act up to ten hours in any workweek if during such time the employee is receiving certain remedial education.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the rights and protections of the Act should apply to employees of the Senate or any office thereof. Directs the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, within 180 days after the first minimum wage increase under this Act, to report a resolution which applies such rights and protection to Senate employees and establishes the scope of such coverage and remedies, enforcement, and other necessary procedures.

Applies the rights and protections under the Act to any employee in an employment position in, and any employing authority of, the House of Representatives, or under the Architect of the Capitol, using remedies and procedures under the Fair Employment Practices Resolution.

Adds civil penalties for repeated or willful violations of specified provisions of the Act.

Directs the Secretary, within 90 days, to promulgate regulations that interpret a specified professional exemption from overtime provisions under the Act to include computer systems analysts, software engineers, and other similarly skilled professional workers, even if such employees are compensated on an hourly basis, as long as they are compensated at an hourly rate at least six and one-half times greater than the minimum.

Directs the Minimum Wage Review Board to contract with the Secretary to provide for the Bureau of Labor Statistics to conduct: (1) a study of the impact of increasing the Federal minimum wage on rural areas and high unemployment areas; and (2) specified surveys and research on the characteristics of minimum wage employment and the impact of modification of the scope of coverage and minimum wage levels under the Act. Directs the Board to submit to specified congressional committees the results of such studies and surveys, which are to be completed by specified deadlines.

Child Care and Health Insurance Act of 1989 - Title I: Tax Credit for Certain Health Insurance Premiums and Child care - Amends the Internal Revenue Code to increase by the credit percentage of qualified health insurance premiums the tax credit for expenses for household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment.

Makes the dependent care and health insurance premium credit refundable for low and moderate taxpayers.

Requires employers to make advance payments of the dependent care credit to eligible employees.

Increases the dependent care credit for low-income taxpayers.

Declares that employment-related expenses or qualifying health insurance expenses that are subsidized by Federal, State, or local government are not eligible for the tax credit.

Requires the Comptroller General to report to the appropriate congressional committees on a study of the effectiveness and complexity of the advance payment system.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to establish a taxpayer awareness program to inform the public of the availability of the credit for dependent care and health insurance premiums.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1994 for the Secretary of Health and Human Services to conduct demonstration projects to extend health insurance to children and their families who are not covered by public or private health programs.

Title II: Employee Benefit Nondiscrimination Rules - Amends the Tax Reform Act of 1986 to delay until 1990 the effective date of the nondiscrimination requirements for benefits provided under certain employee benefit plans.

Amends the Internal Revenue Code to revise such (section 89) nondiscrimination requirements by requiring the taxation of the excess health benefits of a highly compensated employee. Excludes from such requirements certain students, certain elderly, and prisoners.

Imposes an excise tax on employers or employer plans if an employee benefit plan fails to satisfy certain administrative requirements.

Restores prior law with respect to nondiscrimination requirements of group-term life insurance plans.

Authorizes an employer to elect to use current nondiscrimination rules for years beginning 1990 or 1991 as they apply to health plans and dependent care assistance programs.

Revises provisions relating to the nontaxable benefits of employers of leased employees, the dependent care assistance program, and group-term life insurance provided to highly compensated employees.

Directs the United States Bipartisan Commission on Comprehensive Health Care to study the implementation and effectiveness of (section 89) nondiscrimination requirements.

Title III: Other Revenue Provisions - Makes the telephone excise tax permanent. Specifies the time for the deposit of such taxes. Requires certain persons who are exempt from such tax to file a one-time exemption certificate.

Requires an S corporation to make estimated tax payments if it has tax attributable to: (1) the recognition of certain built-in gains; (2) the realization of excess passive income; and (3) the recapture of certain investment tax credits.

S. 1191 Sen. Hollings, et al.; 6/15/89

Technology Administration Authorization Act of 1989 - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to the Secretary of Commerce to carry out executive and analytical activities performed by the Technology Administration including: (1) executive direction; (2) technology policy and commercial affairs; and (3) Japanese technical literature.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to the Secretary for the internal science and technology research and services activities of the National Institute of Standards and Technology (Institute), including: (1) measurement research and standards; (2) materials science and engineering; (3) engineering measurements and standards; (4) computer science and technology; and (5) research support activities.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990, in addition to sums already authorized for specified purposes, to the Secretary to carry out the industrial technology extension activities of the Institute.

Authorizes the transfer of funds among the line items listed in the internal research and services authorization, subject to certain limitations and requirements.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992 to pay the Federal share of an international standards pilot program to assist in the development of comprehensive industrial standards for countries requesting such U.S. assistance.

Amends Federal law to establish within the Institute an Office of Industrial Technology Services to supervise: (1) the Regional Centers for the Transfer of Manufacturing Technology program; (2) the Institute's assistance to State technology programs; and (3) other activities or programs as the Secretary or the Director of the Institute may specify.

Authorizes, in addition to sums otherwise authorized by this Act, appropriations for FY 1990 to the Secretary for: (1) industry-led joint ventures to create and test generic enabling technologies; (2) such ventures in other areas of technology; (3) assistance to certain small businesses which have promising technologies in economically important technical fields; and (4) program management, analyses, and workshops.

Sets forth terms and conditions for aid to joint ventures, including: (1) that the venture be led by at least two North American companies; (2) non-Federal matching funds; (3) a business plan; and (4) a research and development agenda and management team which have high technical merit. Requires the use of competitive or other merit-based procedures in making joint venture awards.

Prohibits participation by a foreign company or its subsidiary in a joint venture receiving financial assistance from the Secretary unless: (1) the foreign company makes material contributions that would be in the best interests of the United States; (2) the foreign company makes a commitment to the United States market, contributions to U.S. employment, and certain agreements with respect to technology arising from the venture; (3) the foreign company's home market affords comparable reciprocal treatment to U.S. companies; and (4) the parent and affiliate organizations of the foreign company have not been involved in certain dumping or countervailing duty proceedings.

Requires and authorizes certain measures related to cooperation and coordination in Federal technology programs, including between the Departments of Commerce and Defense.

Authorizes the Secretary, the Under Secretary of Commerce for Technology, and the Director of the Institute to: (1) organize industry advisory committees; (2) organize an Advanced Electronics Advisory Board; and (3) commission studies by the National Research Council.

Defines "foreign company" to mean a business entity in which majority ownership or control is held by individuals who are not citizens of the United States or Canada.

Directs the Secretary to report within 90 days after enactment to the President and the Congress concerning the establishment, as a domestically based industry, of a high definition television enterprise or enterprises, together with ancillary products and services. Defines "enterprise" to include U.S. and, in certain circumstances, foreign owned entities.

Authorizes the Secretary to: (1) employ technical and professional personnel to manage the Advanced Technology Program without regard to provisions of Federal law relating to Government organization and employees; (2) appoint, on a limited or temporary basis, scientists, engineers, and other technical and professional personnel on leave from industrial, academic, research, or State institutions to work for the Program; and (3) pay travel and relocation expenses for the limited or temporary personnel. Provides for payment or reimbursement for certain retirement, life insurance, or health benefit plan contributions in certain circumstances.

Authorizes appropriations, in addition to sums otherwise authorized by this Act, for FY 1990 to the Secretary to make adjustments in salary, pay, retirement, and other employee benefits which may be provided for by law.

Amends provisions of the Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980 relating to the Technology Administration of the Department of Commerce to direct the Secretary of Commerce, through the Under Secretary for Technology, to submit an annual report to the Congress on the state of U.S. industrial technology.

Directs the Secretary to report to the Congress regarding options and a strategy for equalizing the real cost of capital, including interest rates, paid by U.S. manufacturing and electronics companies with the real cost of capital in Japan.

Directs the Secretary of Commerce, with the participation of the Director of the National Science Foundation, to submit to the Congress a plan for collaborative programs between the two agencies to: (1) stimulate the transfer of federally supported research to the private sector; and (2) assist academic researchers to pursue high-quality research of economic potential and to transfer that research to the private sector.

Directs the Secretary of Commerce to report to the Congress regarding: (1) the feasibility and advisability of establishing a Quality Institute and a privately funded foundation to support that Quality Institute, for stated purposes; and (2) the advantages and disadvantages of small U.S. manufacturing firms participating in new multicompany manufacturing centers.

Requires the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy to report to the Congress regarding improving the university research capabilities of those States which historically have received relatively little Federal research and development funding, focusing particularly on using the National Science Foundation's Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research as a model for similar programs in other Federal departments and agencies.

Court of Veterans Appeals Judges Retirement Act - Title I: Judges Retirement and Survivor Annuity Program - Amends Federal veterans' benefits provisions concerning the U.S. Court of Veterans Appeals (Court) to outline the age and service requirements for full retirement benefits. Requires a judge who is unable to perform the duties of office due to permanent disability to retire. Provides that a judge serving for less than ten years who retires due to permanent disability shall receive retired pay of one-half of the rate of pay in effect at retirement. Requires an election to retire under such retirement provisions to be made while the judge is still an active judge. Prohibits revocation of such an election after the retired pay begins to accrue. Requires such election to be in writing and sent to the chief judge or, in the case of the chief judge, to the Director of the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). Outlines provisions concerning: (1) forfeiture of rights to retired pay while accepting employment with the United States; (2) the lack of an annuity payable under civil service retirement laws, as well as the lack of a deduction from retired pay for the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund; and (3) notice to the President in writing when a judge is unable to perform the duties of office due to a permanent disability.

Allows an individual who has elected to receive retired pay under these provisions to revoke such election at any time before the first day on which retired pay would begin to accrue. Requires notice of such revocation to be in writing and sent to the Director of OPM. Outlines the ramifications of such revocation (basically, reinclusion under Federal civil service retirement provisions).

Requires the Director of OPM to begin withholding one percent of the salary of a judge under this Act after proper notice of the election to receive retirement coverage under this Act. Requires withheld amounts to be credited to the Court of Veterans Appeals Judges Retirement Fund. Allows a judge to deposit into such Fund amounts for up to 15 years of service prior to the date on which contributions may be made under this Act.

Authorizes a judge to become a participant in the survivors annuity program by filing a written notice of such election under this Act while in office in a manner prescribed by the Court. Provides for a deduction of 3.5 percent of the judge's pay to provide coverage for the annuity. Requires amounts so withheld to be deposited into the Fund. Requires a judge to deposit into the Fund, for annuity coverage, 3.5 percent of the judge's pay or other compensation for service as a member of Congress or any other civilian Federal service. Allows such payments for prior years of service to be made in installments. Provides that if the service of a judge who makes an election to be covered under the annuity provisions is terminated, or if any judge ceases to be married after making the election and revokes the election, the amount in the judge's individual account shall be returned to the judge. Allows an annuity to be paid to the surviving spouse and dependent child of a judge under this Act if the judge dies after having rendered at least five years of civilian service and has made payments into the Fund for at least five years. Terminates the annuity to the surviving spouse upon his or her death or remarriage before age 55. Terminates the annuity payable to the child at the child's death. Recomputes the annuity payable to a dependent child after the death of a surviving spouse and after the death of another dependent child. Terminates any annuity payments if a judge making an election to be covered for annuity purposes dies before having rendered at least five years of civilian service or dies without a survivor entitled to such benefits. Provides, in such case, that the full amount of deposits made by the judge before his or her death, plus interest, shall be returned to the persons surviving on the date that title to the payment arises, in a specified order of priority. Provides for payment of the unpaid remaining annuity of a survivor or dependent upon the termination (other than by death) of the annuity of any individual based upon the service of a judge, in a specified order of preference. Provides for alternative measures to be taken for the payment of annuities to minors or mentally incompetent persons. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the time and amounts of annuity payments (determined on the basis of a judge's average annual pay). Requires the years of service for determining the amount of a surviving spouse's annuity rights to include years of service as a judge of the Court, as a Member of Congress, and as a member of the armed forces (within a specified limit) and any other Federal civilian service.

Requires a judge making an election to provide an annuity under this Act to waive all benefits under the civil service retirement laws. Requires annuity payments to be increased whenever a judge's salary is increased as long as the deceased judge rendered some portion of his or her final 18 months as a judge of the Court.

Establishes in the Treasury the Court of Veterans Appeals Retirement Fund. Requires the chief judge of the Court to submit to the President an annual estimate of the expenditures and appropriations necessary for maintenance and operation of the Fund. Provides for periodic examinations of the Fund by an actuary. Requires deposits into the Fund as necessary to reduce to zero its unfunded liability.

Title II: Provisions Relating to Establishment of Court of Veterans Appeals - Directs the Administrator of General Services to provide suitable building space in the District of Columbia for use by the Court. Requires such space to be approved by the Court.

Extends the date by which an appeal must be filed with the Court with regard to Board of Veterans Appeals decisions made before notice of the commencement of operations by the Court has been published in the Federal Register. Provides for interim rules of the Court.

Provides for the appointment, qualification, classification, and removal of a Court clerk, deputies, law clerks, secretaries, and other employees for the Court without regard to Federal law concerning appointments made in the competitive service. Prohibits any employee of the Court from being converted to the competitive service without the approval of the Court.

Title III: Technical Corrections - Makes technical corrections to current Federal law concerning the Board of Veterans' Appeals.

Title IV: Miscellaneous Provisions - Excludes certain noncareer appointments and competitive service-excepted confidential or policy making positions in the Department of Veterans Affairs from a requirement prohibiting political affiliation or activity from being taken into account in connection with the appointment of personnel to certain positions.

Provides for an acting chief judge of the Court in the event of a vacancy.

Federal Trade Commission Act Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Federal Trade Commission Act to deny authority to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) to find a method of competition unfair (in any action under the Sherman Act) if such method of competition would be held to constitute State action.

Denies the FTC authority to: (1) study, investigate, or prosecute agricultural cooperatives for any action not in violation of antitrust Acts; or (2) study or investigate agricultural marketing orders.

Repeals the authority of the FTC to pay attorneys fees, expert witness fees, and other costs of participating in a rulemaking proceeding.

Prohibits the FTC from instituting a civil action, in cases involving consent orders, to obtain civil penalties for unfair or deceptive acts or practices.

Permits a district court to review certain FTC determinations of law which found an act or practice unfair or deceptive.

Permits the FTC to issue a notice of proposed rulemaking for certain rules only where it has reason to believe that the unfair or deceptive acts or practices are prevalent.

Revises the effective dates for cease and desist orders issued by the FTC.

Applies FTC civil investigative demand procedures only to acts, practices, or methods of competition declared unlawful by a law administered by the Commission.

Requires that an unfair act or practice must be likely to cause substantial injury to consumers which is not reasonably avoidable by consumers themselves and not outweighed by countervailing benefits to consumers or to competition.

Denies FTC authority to initiate any new rulemaking proceeding which results in a rule prohibiting commercial advertising on the basis that such advertising constitutes an unfair act or practice in or affecting commerce.

Authorizes the court to: (1) summon any person, partnership, or corporation without regard to whether they reside or transact business in the district in which the suit is brought; and (2) serve process in any district. Specifies requirements for the service of process.

Authorizes the FTC to serve civil investigative demands to obtain physical evidence (under current law, restricted to documentary material) relevant to unfair or deceptive practices.

Directs the FTC to submit semiannual reports in FY 1990 through 1992 to specified congressional committees on instances in which resale price maintenance or predatory pricing practices have been suspected or alleged.

Directs the FTC to submit to appropriate congressional committees a report describing complaints made, investigations undertaken, recommendations and opinions given, and consent agreements and other dispositions made by the FTC. Requires that such report shall also contain a statement of the reasons for the termination of any matter.

Directs the FTC to report to specified congressional committees on instances in which predatory pricing practices in such industries have been suspected or alleged.

Prohibits the FTC from intervening in the proceedings of any Federal or State agency without first notifying specified congressional committees at least 60 days in advance, or as soon as practicable.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1992.

Directs the FTC to: (1) conduct an evaluation of the level of its personnel resources and the manner in which such resources are allocated and to submit the results to specified congressional committees; and (2) review its statutory responsibilities to identify matters within its jurisdiction where Federal enforcement is particularly necessary or desirable and those areas that might more effectively be enforced at the State or local level and to submit such information together with specific recommendations for greater Federal-State cooperation to such committees.

Amends the Indian Health Care Improvement Act to direct the Secretary of Health and Human Services to competitively award at least ten mental health demonstration grants of no more than $1,000,000 each to assist Indian tribes and tribal organizations in meeting the costs of planning, developing, and implementing mental health care programs. Requires the Secretary to provide a preference to inter-tribal consortia in awarding at least half of the grants, with at least 30 percent of such grants to be awarded to Indian tribes or inter-tribal consortia serving urban areas and 30 percent for those serving rural areas.

Requires the Director of the Indian Health Service to establish review panels to make recommendations to the Secretary regarding the merits of grant applications and to rank such applications in relation to other applications being considered by the Secretary.

Requires the Secretary to prescribe regulations for the awarding of such grants to ensure the consideration of the extent to which such programs would provide Indians with access to a mental health service delivery system that combines clinical approaches with traditional cultural approaches. Requires grant recipients to furnish certain information and to report to the Secretary at the close of the grant term. Requires the Secretary to report periodically to the Congress.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993.

Directs the Secretary to establish within the Indian Health Service a technical assistance office to act as an information center for Indian tribes and tribal organizations regarding on-going mental health activities, programs, and services within Indian country. Terminates such office after submission of a final report to the Congress.

Library Services and Construction Act Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Library Services and Construction Act (the Act) to revise its programs and extend the authorization of appropriations.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1994 for grants (or activities) relating to: (1) library services; (2) public library and construction technology enhancement; (3) interlibrary cooperation and resource sharing; (4) library services for Indian tribes; (5) foreign language materials acquisition; (6) library literacy programs; and (7) evaluation and assessment.

Revises allocations to Indian tribes and to Alaskan native villages, regional corporations, and village corporations.

Requires assurances that libraries within the State receiving assistance shall not discriminate, in providing space for public meetings, on the basis of race, religion, age, gender, national origin, or handicapping condition.

Provides for interlibrary cooperation and resource sharing under long-range State programs.

Directs the Secretary of Education (the Secretary) to: (1) coordinate specified programs; and (2) give the head of the State library administrative agency opportunity for comment on applications for foreign language and for library literacy grants before the award, to assure that the purposes of such grants are consistent with the long-range State program.

Permits each State library agency, in FY 1990 and every fifth year thereafter, to review its expenditures under the programs from State and local sources and file with the Secretary a statement to establish a current, revised expenditure level to be used for measuring maintenance of effort.

Requires library service programs to provide for assistance to libraries: (1) in developing intergenerational library programs matching older volunteers with libraries interested in developing after school literacy and reading skills programs for unsupervised school children; (2) in providing mobile library services and programs to child-care providers or centers which are licensed or certified by the State or otherwise meet the requirements of State law; and (3) in establishing model library literacy centers to reduce the number of functionally illiterate individuals and help them reach full employment.

Authorizes a State, in carrying out its library services program, to make subgrants to library systems or networks which include libraries other than public libraries, if the purpose of the subgrant is to improve services for public library patrons.

Allows States to ratably reduce payments to major urban resource libraries only under specified conditions.

Revises services for institutionalized individuals under certain maintenance of effort requirements to make them services to handicapped individuals generally.

Requires State library services programs to provide assistance to public libraries for technology enhancement to improve services.

Provides for grants to develop the technological capacity of libraries for interlibrary cooperation and resource sharing.

Requires that public library construction projects follow policies and procedures that will promote the preservation of library and information resources in such facilities.

Requires that a statewide resource sharing plan be directed toward attaining compliance with specified provisions.

Authorizes the State long-range interlibrary cooperation and resource sharing program to: (1) include a statewide preservation cooperation plan; and (2) identify the preservation objectives to be achieved during the period covered by the long-range plans. Authorizes: (1) the use of funds to carry out such preservation cooperation plan; and (2) part or all of such preservation program to be contracted to other agencies or institutions.

Raises the maximum limit on the amount of a single Library Literacy Program grant from $25,000 to $35,000.

Exempts major urban resource libraries from the $15,000 maximum limitation on grants for foreign language materials acquisition; but prohibits the Secretary from using more than 30 percent of total grant funds to make grants to such libraries in amounts exceeding such limitation.

Authorizes the Secretary, directly or by grants or contracts, to evaluate and assess programs under the Act.

Retitles title I of the Act as Public Library Services.

S. 1310 Sen. Simon, et al.; 7/13/89

National Literacy Act of 1989 - Title I: Literacy Coordination - Literacy Coordination, Research, and Dissemination Act of 1989 - Establishes the National Literacy 2000 Federal Interagency Council (the Council).

Amends the Department of Education Organization Act to direct the Assistant Secretary for Vocational and Adult Education to: (1) coordinate all literacy related programs and policy initiatives within the Department; (2) coordinate staff resources and assistance provided to the Council; (3) assist in coordinating the related programs of other Federal agencies; and (4) assist the Secretary of Education in carrying out Council chairperson duties.

Directs the Secretary of Education (the Secretary) to make a grant or contract to establish and operate a nonprofit National Center for Literacy, with a Director of the Center. Requires such grant to be awarded on a competitive basis, limited to not more than five years, and renewable. Allows the Center to use such grant funds for: (1) basic and applied research; (2) technical assistance; (3) an information clearinghouse; (4) policy analysis and program evaluation; (5) a model demonstrative program of remedial training and placement; (6) a toll-free hotline for literacy information; (7) coordination with the national clearinghouse on literacy education; and (8) collection of data on literacy and illiteracy, giving direct access to such data to all interested parties for research and statistical acquisition purposes.

Requires the Director of the Center to report annually to the Congress and the Council.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 for the Center, limiting the amount which may be used for its model demonstration program.

Authorizes the Secretary to make grants to pay the Federal share of costs of establishing and operating State literacy resource centers. Limits the amount and duration of such grants. Allows each State to contract on a competitive basis with a State agency or a volunteer or community-based or other nonprofit organization to operate such a State center. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 for such purpose.

Title II: Workforce Literacy - Workforce Literacy Act of 1989 - Amends the Adult Education Act (AEA) to authorize appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993. Provides that, if a majority of the illiterate population assisted under basic program provisions of AEA has been served. the authorization of appropriations for each of the succeeding fiscal years during FY 1991 through 1993 shall be equal to that for the fiscal year in which such determination is made.

Provides that adult education programs for which AEA grants have been made to States shall be carried out by a public or private nonprofit entity only if its grant application has been made available to the applicable local educational agency for review and comment.

Requires State educational agencies receiving such basic State grants to assure direct and equitable access to Federal funds to local educational agencies, public or private nonprofit agencies, community-based organizations, and institutions which serve educationally disadvantaged adults. Grants preference to those organizations which will serve adults with a reading ability below the fifth grade level and adults residing in areas where a high proportion do not have high school diplomas or the equivalent.

Raises from 20 percent to 25 percent the limit on the portion of a State's grant allotment earmarked for high school equivalency certificate programs.

Changes the name of State Advisory Councils under AEA to State Advisory Councils for Adult Education and Literacy. Revises membership composition and expands council duties to include certain literacy-related functions.

Requires State adult education plans to: (1) report the amount of administrative funds spent on program improvements; and (2) contain assurances that specified AEA funds will be used for existing programs and for developing new programs for adults lacking basic skills.

Revises AEA provisions for special experimental demonstration projects and teacher training to include the training of professional teachers, volunteers, and administrators, with particular emphasis on training full-time professional adult educators, minority adult educators, limited English proficiency adult educators, and teachers to recognize and more effectively serve illiterate individuals with learning disabilities and reading abilities below fifth grade level. Requires that not more than 15 percent of funds received for business, industry, labor, and education partnerships for workplace literacy be used for professional teacher or volunteer training (including learning disabled identification and teaching), or technical assistance. Gives priority for such grant funds to applications from partnerships which include small businesses. Extends the authorization of appropriations for such partnership program provisions through FY 1993.

Amends the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to authorize use of local targeted assistance program funds for training programs to help teachers and school counselors to identify, particularly in early grades, students with reading and related problems placing them at risk of adult illiteracy.

Directs the Comptroller General to update, within 18 months, a 1975 study of the adult basic education program's progress in reducing illiteracy.

Title III: Families for Literacy - Families for Literacy Act of 1989 - Amends the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA) to extend through FY 1995 the authorization of appropriations for Even Start programs operated by local educational agencies.

Establishes a Families for Literacy program under which the Secretary may make ten demonstration grants to nonprofit entities (or consortia of businesses, nonprofit entities, local educational agencies, and other public agencies) to pay 80 percent of the cost of establishing intergenerational learning programs (emphasizing literacy skills) for children aged three and under and their parents. Directs the Secretary to give priority to applicants whose programs serve hard-to-serve populations. Sets forth program requirements for staff teams and community advisory councils.

Authorizes the Secretary to enter into a contract with the Corporation for Public Broadcasting to produce and disseminate a family literacy program to assist parents in improving family literacy and language development.

Authorizes appropriations for: (1) FY 1991 through 1995 for the Family Literacy Program demonstration grants; and (2) FY 1991 for the family literacy program public broadcasting contract.

Title IV: Books for Families - Books for Families Literacy Act of 1989 - Amends ESEA provisions for the inexpensive book distribution program for reading motivation to require the contractor (the Reading Is Fundamental organization), beginning in FY 1991 and thereafter, to: (1) give priority to additional local programs which serve children and students with special needs; and (2) report annually to the Department of Education on the number and description of such individuals.

Amends the Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA) to authorize appropriations for FY 1991 through 1995 to make grants for model library literacy centers and for the inexpensive book distribution program.

Makes books, tapes, and computer software authorized materials for acquisition with LSCA grants to local libraries for literacy programs.

Directs the Secretary, in awarding literacy program grants to State and local libraries, to give priority to local library programs and services which: (1) will be delivered in areas of greatest need, with highest concentrations of adults without high school degrees or the equivalent; and (2) coordinate with literacy organizations and community based organizations providing literacy grants.

Authorizes the Secretary, under LSCA, to carry out a new program of grants to State and local public libraries to establish model library literacy centers. Requires the Secretary to establish a peer review panel to assist in establishing criteria for awarding such grants.

Authorizes the Secretary, under LSCA, to contract with the Reading Is Fundamental organization to promote the establishment of reading motivation programs which include the distribution of inexpensive books. Requires such contract to provide for: (1) giving priority to programs which target rural and urban areas with large concentrations of economically disadvantaged children and students; (2) increasing access to children's books for parents of newborns through children aged five; and (3) developing motivational materials to reach parents most disconnected from the education community, by making children's books available in specified types of places.

Title V: Students for Literacy - Students for Literacy Act of 1986 - Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 to increase the amount of the FY 1991 authorization of appropriations for the Student Literacy Corps Program. Sets the amount of the FY 1991 authorization of appropriations for the College Work-Study (CWS) program at the same level as that for FY 1987.

Exempts literacy training programs and the creation and placement of literacy jobs for students from specified caps on CWS funds. Sets the Federal share of the compensation of students employed in literacy work-study training programs at 100 percent.

Title VI: Volunteers for Literacy - Volunteers for Literacy Act of 1989 - Amends the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973 to require the Director of the ACTION Agency (the Director) to make grants and contracts for a program of full-time volunteer service to be known as University Year for Literacy, which establishes and supports innovative ways to use full-time students enrolled in higher education institutions as volunteers: (1) in addressing the problems facing illiterate and functionally illiterate individuals; and (2) in assisting organizations which combat illiteracy and those problems. Gives priority to individuals pursuing a course of study related to a career in a field addressing the problem of illiteracy.

Establishes a program of literacy challenge grants. Authorizes the Director to award such grants to eligible public agencies and private organizations for a portion of the costs of community or employee literacy programs that include use of volunteers.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 for: (1) the University Year for Literacy Program; and (2) the literacy challenge grant program. Makes such funding for these programs contingent upon the meeting of certain conditions with respect to the volunteer service years provided for the VISTA program and the VISTA Literacy Corps.

Amends specified Federal law relating to impact aid for local educational agencies to set forth circumstances under which the United States shall be deemed to own Federal property.

S. 1324 Sen. Boren; 7/14/89

Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Title I: Intelligence Activities - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for intelligence activities in specified departments and agencies of the U.S. Government, including the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the Department of Defense (DOD).

Declares that the authorized amounts and personnel ceilings for such intelligence activities are those specified in the classified schedule of authorizations.

Authorizes the Director of Central Intelligence to employ civilian personnel in excess of the ceiling for such personnel when necessary to the performance of important intelligence functions.

Title II: Intelligence Community Staff - Authorizes appropriations for the Intelligence Community Staff for FY 1990 and 1991.

Establishes an end strength ceiling of 230 full-time Intelligence Community Staff employees. Provides that such staff shall be administered in the same manner as the CIA.

Title III: Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System - Authorizes appropriations for the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability Fund for FY 1990 and 1991.

Title IV: Central Intelligence Agency Administrative Provisions - Amends the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees to require participants, within the last two years before any separation from service, to complete at least one year of creditable civilian service to be eligible for an annuity.

Provides for precedence of survivor benefits over death in service benefits for certain former spouses of CIA employees eligible for such benefits.

Amends the Central Intelligence Act of 1949 to provide CIA employees in the Civil Service Retirement System and the Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS) performing qualifying service with the same disability and death in service benefits as those received by employees who qualify under the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System and the FERS-Special Category.

Title V: Personnel Authorities Improvements - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to accept gifts for the Defense Intelligence College.

Makes permanent the Secretary of Defense's authority to terminate employment of civilian intelligence officers and employees of military departments and of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA).

Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act with respect to citizenship requirements for staff of the U.S. Army Russian Institute.

Authorizes the Secretary, during FY 1990, to pay a certain death gratuity to the surviving dependents of a member of the armed forces who, while serving on active duty assigned to a Defense attache office abroad, died as a result of hostile or terrorist activities. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress concerning the advisability of making such provision permanent.

Title VI: FBI Enhanced Counterintelligence Authorities - Amends the Intelligence Authorization Act for fiscal year 1989 to provide that New York Field Division employees need not be subject to directed geographical transfer or reassignment to receive periodic payments under a certain demonstration project for the Division.

Expresses the sense of the Congress with respect to personnel ceilings for the United States and Soviet Missions.

Makes the FBI responsible for investigations of espionage by persons employed by, or assigned to, U.S. diplomatic missions abroad.

Title VII: General Provisions - Declares that appropriations authorized by this Act for Federal employee pay and benefits may be increased by such additional or supplemental amounts as may be necessary for increases in compensation or benefits authorized by law.

Directs the President, in preparing the Budget of the United States for Fiscal Year 1991 for submission to the Congress, to take into account and, incorporate into such budget the recommendations of the National Advisory Commission on Law Enforcement as established by the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988.

Title VIII: Inspector General for the Central Intelligence Agency - Amends the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 to replace certain reporting requirements by the Inspector General (IG) of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) with provisions establishing, by statute, an Office of Inspector General within the CIA.

Sets forth provisions with respect to the appointment and removal of the IG by the President and the supervision of the IG by the CIA Director.

Requires the IG to: (1) provide policy direction for and to conduct, supervise, and coordinate independently, inspections, investigations, and audits relating to CIA programs and operations to assure that they are conducted efficiently and in accordance with applicable law and regulations; (2) keep the Director informed of violations of law and regulations, fraud, and other serious problems, abuses and deficiencies in such programs and operations and of progress made in implementing corrective action; (3) take due regard for the protection of intelligence sources and methods in the preparation of all reports; and (4) comply with generally accepted Government auditing standards.

Sets forth requirements for reports by the IG to: (1) the Director and the House and Senate Select Committees on Intelligence (intelligence committees) including semiannual activity reports and immediate reports of serious or flagrant problems, abuses, or deficiencies; and (2) the intelligence committees regarding conflicts between the IG and the Director or investigations of the Director.

Specifies that the IG shall have: (1) direct and prompt access to the Director when necessary for any purpose pertaining to the performance of his duties; (2) access to any employee of the CIA or a contractor whose testimony is needed for the performance of his duties; and (3) direct access to all records or other material relating to programs and operations for which the IG has responsibilities under this Act. Makes failure by any employee or contractor to cooperate with the IG grounds for appropriate administrative actions by the Director, including the termination of employment or the contractural relationship.

Authorizes the IG to receive and investigate employee complaints of violations of laws, rules, or regulations, mismanagement, gross waste of funds, abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to the public health and safety. Specifies that: (1) the IG shall not disclose the identity of the complainant without the employee's consent, unless such disclosure is unavoidable during the course of the investigation; and (2) no reprisal or threat thereof may be made against the employee unless the complaint was made or the information was disclosed with the knowledge that it was false or with willful disregard for its truth or falsity.

Authorizes the IG to administer to or take from any person an oath, affirmation, or affidavit whenever necessary in the performance of his duties.

Provides for office space, equipment, supplies, and services for the IG.

Directs the IG to select, appoint, and employ qualified officers and employees. Expresses the sense of the Congress that the IG should create a career cadre of sufficient size to provide appropriate continuity and objectivity needed for the effective performance of his duties.

Requires the Director, beginning in FY 1991, to include in the National Foreign Intelligence Program budget a separate account for the Office of Inspector General.

Transfers to the Office of the Inspector General created by this Act the personnel, assets, liabilities, authorization, and appropriations of the existing CIA Office of Inspector General.

Title IX: Intelligence Oversight - Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 and the National Security Act of 1947 to revise and consolidate intelligence oversight provisions.

Requires the President (under current law, the CIA Director and agency heads) to ensure that the intelligence committees are kept informed of U.S. intelligence activity.

Requires the President (under current law, the Director and agency heads) to ensure that any illegal intelligence activity as well as any corrective action is reported to the intelligence committees.

Includes "covert actions" within the definition of "intelligence activities."

Provides statutory authority for the President to authorize the conduct of covert actions by departments, agencies, or entities of the United States only when he determines such activities are necessary to support the foreign policy objectives of the United States and are important to the national security of the United States. (Current law requires the President to determine only that each such operation is important to national security.) Requires such a determination to be set forth in a written finding that: (1) is not retroactive; (2) specifies each participating Government entity and whether a third party not subject to U.S. regulations will be used; and (3) may not authorize any action which is intended to influence the U.S. political process, media, or public opinion or which violates the Constitution or statutes of the United States. Requires the President to ensure that any such determination or finding is reported to the intelligence committees before the covert activities are initiated, except in rare occasions which shall be justified by the President to the committees. Authorizes the President, in extraordinary circumstances affecting vital U.S. interests, to limit the reporting of findings or determinations to specified congressional officials. Requires the President to notify the intelligence committees or congressional officials of any significant change in a previously-approved covert action. Prohibits the expenditure of any funds appropriated or otherwise made available to any Government entity for any covert action until such a presidential finding has been issued.

Defines "covert action" as any activity conducted by an element of the U.S. Government to influence political, economic, or military conditions abroad so that the Government's role is not apparent or acknowledged. Excludes: (1) activities the primary purpose of which is to acquire intelligence, traditional counterintelligence activities, traditional activities to improve or maintain the operational security of U.S. Government programs, or administrative activities; (2) traditional diplomatic or military activities, or routine support to such activities; (3) traditional law enforcement activities conducted by U.S. Government law enforcement agencies or routine support to such activities; or (4) certain activities to provide routine support to the overt activities of other U.S. Government agencies abroad.

S. 1347 Sen. Pell; 7/18/89

International Security and Development Cooperation Act of 1989 - Title I: Military Assistance and Sales and Related Programs - Amends the Arms Export Control Act to authorize appropriations for foreign military sales (FMS) credits for FY 1990.

Requires financing under such Act to be provided without the requirement of repayment of principal or interest. Requires funds appropriated under such Act to be available only for financing the procurement of defense articles and services or design and construction services, except with respect to certain countries.

Earmarks specified amounts of FMS credits for FY 1990 for Israel (including credits for advanced weapon systems), Egypt, Greece, Turkey (with the understanding that the U.S. Government is opposed to any action aimed at effecting a permanent bifurcation of Cyprus), Portugal, the Philippines, El Salvador, and the Dominican Republic.

Applies restrictions on the sale of defense articles or services to foreign countries or international organizations to the licensing of such articles or services. Revises provisions to terminate cash sales or deliveries to countries which make unauthorized third country transfers of such articles or services.

Repeals a requirement for an annual report regarding South Korean progress in modernizing its armed forces, the role of the United States in mutual security efforts in South Korea, and the military balance between the two Koreas. Removes requirements for projections of arms sales in the President's quarterly reports on military exports. Requires such reports to include a listing by country of FMS financing used for procurement outside the United States.

Requires presidential certifications to the Congress concerning export licenses to contain a statement on the extent to which comparable defense articles or services are available from other countries and to which countries the U.S. system has already been offered.

Removes exemptions from prohibitions on exports of defense articles or services for specified countries.

Provides that congressional approval shall not be given to any commercial technical assistance or manufacturing licensing agreement for or in a non-NATO country, unless the President states in his certification that an emergency exists which requires approval of such an agreement in the national security interests of the United States.

Makes ineligible for FMS financing any contract between a foreign government and a person convicted or debarred for violations of the Arms Export Control Act or international traffic in arms regulations. Outlines forfeiture requirements for violators of such Act.

Requires the biennial review of international traffic in arms regulations.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to authorize appropriations for the military assistance program for FY 1990. Earmarks a specified amount of such assistance for the procurement of weapons to defend aircraft used in narcotics control eradication or interdiction efforts. Prohibits such funds from being used to purchase new aircraft. Requires the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations to be notified of the use of such funds.

Authorizes the President, in the case of defense articles or services that were delivered to foreign countries prior to 1985 (currently, 1975), to waive the requirement that net proceeds be paid to the U.S. Government.

Excludes salaries of military personnel from costs of overseas management of international security assistance and general administrative expenses which may be reimbursed from funds made available under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 and the Arms Export Control Act.

Makes technical amendments to provisions concerning letters of offer for the sale of defense articles or services under the Arms Export Control Act.

Allows the President to waive certain requirements with regard to the leasing of defense articles only during FY 1990 (currently, FY 1989).

Permits financing for the procurement of defense articles by leasing from U.S. commercial suppliers to be provided to any NATO country or major non-NATO ally if the President determines that there are compelling foreign policy or national security reasons for such articles being provided by commercial lease rather than by government-to-government sale.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to remove a fiscal year limitation on the President's authority to transfer defense articles to countries of NATO's southern flank.

Authorizes the stockpiling of defense articles in countries which are major non-NATO allies.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for: (1) international military education and training; (2) peacekeeping operations; and (3) antiterrorism assistance. Earmarks a specified amount of the military education and training assistance for narcotics control activities in Latin American and Caribbean countries: (1) which are major illicit drug producing or transit countries; (2) which have democratic governments; and (3) whose law enforcement agencies do not engage in a consistent pattern of human rights violations.

Allows specified international law enforcement training services to be conducted outside the United States. Authorizes employees of the Bureau of Diplomatic Security of the Department of State to provide such training in bomb protection measures, facility security, and VIP protection.

Permits the disbursement of foreign military credit sales for the Philippines.

Requires periodic reports regarding activities of Turkish armed forces on Cyprus.

Amends the Arms Export Control Act to prohibit the sale of antitank shells containing a depleted uranium component to any country except a NATO member country, a major non-NATO ally, or Pakistan.

Requires the President to notify the Congress prior to designating a country as a major non-NATO ally or terminating such a designation. Deems Australia, Egypt, Israel, Japan, South Korea, and the Philippines to have been so designated by the President.

Prohibits the sale or issuance of licenses under the Arms Export Control Act to China of any item on the U.S. Munitions List unless the President has certified to the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that: (1) no U.S. defense article or technology was used in certain missiles or aircraft transferred by China to Iran, Iraq, Syria, or Libya in contravention of the Arms Export Control Act; and (2) no chemical weapons and no equipment or materials for use in nuclear devices were transferred by China to such countries.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Director of the Defense Security Assistance Agency should support the use by eligible foreign governments of U.S. civilian and military retirees for purposes of providing military education and training.

Directs the Secretary of State to report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee on a review of U.S. security commitments abroad.

Title II: Economic Support Fund - Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to authorize appropriations for FY 1990 for the Economic Support Fund (ESF). Earmarks a specified amount of such funds for: (1) Israel; (2) Egypt; (3) regional cooperative programs in the Middle East; (4) Cyprus; (5) Portugal; (6) Pakistan; (7) the Anglo-Irish International Fund; (8) Central American democracies (including an earmarked amount for Costa Rica's debt reduction program); and (9) Subsaharan Africa. Expresses the sense of the Congress, with regard to economic support assistance for Cyprus, that there should be compliance with United Nations Security Council Resolution 550 which considers attempts to settle any part of Varosha (Famagusta) by people other than its inhabitants as inadmissible.

Restricts the use of ESF assistance for nuclear facilities.

Permits ESF assistance to be provided as a cash transfer only if the recipient country spends an amount equal to such cash transfer to purchase U.S. goods and services. Makes exemptions to such requirement under certain circumstances.

Title III: Development Assistance - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for agriculture, rural development, and nutrition assistance.

Authorizes additional appropriations for FY 1990 for: (1) the Child Survival Fund; and (2) population planning and health activities. Prohibits conditioning the provision of assistance on the acceptance of population planning assistance by a recipient country.

Authorizes additional appropriations for FY 1990 for assistance to prevent and control acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS). Earmarks a specified amount of such assistance for use by the World Health Organization in financing its Global Program on AIDS. Provides that such funds shall not be available to the World Health Organization if such organization accords the Palestine Liberation Organization the same standing as member states.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for education and human resources development. Requires at least 30 percent of such funds to be used only for programs to reduce illiteracy and extend basic education.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for private sector and energy programs, private and voluntary organizations, and the private sector revolving fund and guaranty authority.

Revises provisions concerning the integration of women into national economies to set forth required strategies for women in development programs.

Sets forth congressional findings concerning the use of private and voluntary organizations and cooperatives in providing foreign development assistance. Encourages and authorizes the Administrator of the Agency for International Development (AID) to utilize such organizations in providing development assistance.

Directs the Administrator to establish within AID a Center for Voluntary Cooperation in Development and a Center for University Cooperation in Development. Provides that the respective purposes of such centers shall be to strengthen the partnership for development between the U.S. Government and: (1) U.S. institutions of higher education engaged in education, research, and public service programs relevant to developing countries; and (2) U.S. private voluntary organizations, cooperatives, and credit unions engaged in activities relevant to such countries. Creates an advisory board for each center.

Title IV: Other Assistance Programs and Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for American schools and hospitals abroad.

Extends the President's authority to issue worldwide housing guaranties for one year. Increases the limit on: (1) the amount of borrowing authority with respect to claims pursuant to such guaranties; and (2) the amount of guaranties per country. Removes certain restrictions on the average face value of guaranties issued per fiscal year.

Extends the authority to guarantee commitments under the trade credit insurance program until September 30, 1992. Limits commitments under such program during FY 1990.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for voluntary contributions to international organizations and programs. Earmarks specified amounts of such funds for certain United Nations programs.

Permits funds to be contributed to the International Atomic Energy Agency only if the Secretary determines and reports to the Congress that Israel is not being denied its right to participate in such agency.

Provides that if Israel is denied its right to participate in any agency of the United Nations, the United States shall suspend its participation in, and contributions to, any such agency until the denial of rights is reversed.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for international disaster assistance and international narcotics matters.

Authorizes the President to furnish assistance to the Philippines to strengthen the administration of justice. Extends the authority to provide such assistance to September 30, 1990.

Applies an exemption to a prohibition on the provision of assistance for police training to assistance to police forces participating in the regional security system of the Eastern Caribbean.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for: (1) the Trade and Development Program; (2) operating expenses of AID; and (3) operating expenses of the AID Office of Inspector General.

Title V: East Asia and the Pacific - Multilateral Assistance Initiative for the Philippines Act of 1989 - Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the United States should participate with multilateral financial institutions and other bilateral donors in an economic reform and development program in the Philippines; and (2) a multiyear commitment of resources by the United States, donors, and institutions with a continued reform effort and leadership role by the Government of the Philippines will be necessary to ensure continued economic growth in the Philippines and enhanced participation of the Filipino people in the democratic process.

Authorizes the President to provide assistance on such terms as determined necessary to carry out this Act. Links assistance to progress by the Government of the Philippines in implementing its economic, structural, and administrative reform program and provides that such assistance may include programs to stimulate and strengthen private sector growth, including voluntary debt reduction, greater U.S. participation in such sector, and sustained economic growth.

Requires the Secretary and the AID Administrator, beginning with the submission of the budget request for FY 1991, to report annually to the Congress on progress in implementing the objectives of this program.

Authorizes appropriations. Limits the amount of appropriations for FY 1990. Prohibits funds appropriated for FY 1990 from being made available until the President has received a document developed by the Government of the Philippines and acceptable to the bilateral donors and multilateral financial institutions that sets forth the framework and objectives of macroeconomic, administrative, and structural reforms and voluntary debt reduction, under appropriate circumstances, which the multilateral assistance program is designed to support. Expresses the sense of the Congress that, prior to requesting additional amounts to carry out this Act, the President shall take into account: (1) the progress being made by the Philippines toward achieving such reform objectives; (2) the extent of participation by the bilateral donors and multilateral financial institutions; (3) attention to natural resource management that supports sustained economic growth; and (4) the efforts to coordinate the assistance program.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) coordination of programs by donors, institutions, and the Government of the Philippines is critical to the success of the Multilateral Assistance Initiative; (2) all donors should simplify procurement and disbursement procedures and ensure that conditions on the provision or use of assistance are complementary; and (3) the Philippines will ensure the most effective use of such assistance.

Title VI: Near East and South Asia - Sets forth U.S. policy on assistance to Pakistan. Extends to September 30, 1994, the President's authority to waive prohibitions concerning nuclear transfers to Pakistan.

Amends the International Security and Development Cooperation Act of 1985 to increase the amount of funds earmarked for humanitarian assistance to the Afghan people.

Title VII: Middle East - Expresses the sense of the Congress that no FMS financing may be used to finance Jordan's procurement of advanced aircraft, new air defense weapons systems, or other new advanced military weapons unless Jordan is publicly committed to recognizing Israel and to negotiating with Israel under the basic tenets of United Nations Resolutions 242 and 338.

Prohibits the United States from selling or making available to any Persian Gulf country any STINGER antiaircraft missiles under the Arms Export Control Act or the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961. Authorizes the United States, if specified conditions are met, to make limited numbers of such missiles available to Bahrain or Oman. Requires the President to notify the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee before making such missiles available. Prohibits the President from selling any defense articles or services to Qatar until he notifies the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations that Qatar has returned to the United States all illegally-obtained STINGER missiles.

Directs the President, with each submission of a certification to the Congress concerning a proposed arms transfer to a country in the Middle East, to provide a detailed justification of the impact of such proposed transfer.

Requires the President to submit annually to the Congress an analysis of the Middle East arms balance based upon the cumulative impact of the aggregate U.S. transfers of defense articles to the region and of what type of military or economic compensation is required for countries whose qualitative edge the United States is committed to maintaining.

Urges the President to: (1) call immediately for multilateral talks among the world's major arms suppliers to draft guidelines to govern transfers of weapons to the Middle East; (2) urge U.S. allies to cease or slow weapons transfers to the Middle East; (3) place the problem of Middle East arms proliferation high on the agenda of U.S.-Soviet talks in the next twelve months and encourage the Soviet Union to restrain its allies on the issue of Middle East arms proliferation; and (4) initiate bilateral talks with potential arms recipients in the Middle East to stimulate the development of initiatives to restrain arms transfers. Requires the President to report to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations on the progress in achieving such goals.

Directs the Secretary, taking into account Iraq's conduct toward its Kurdish population since September 22, 1980, to report to the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on whether Iraq's conduct toward its Kurdish population constitutes a consistent pattern of human rights violations.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for cooperative development program projects and research among the United States, Israel, and developing countries.

Commends President Bush for his call for an immediate cease-fire in Lebanon. Condemns parties unwilling to heed such call. Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should: (1) continue to press for such cease-fire, for the removal of foreign military forces posing a threat to Lebanese sovereignty, and for the abolition of all paramilitary forces in Lebanon; (2) support international efforts to mediate the civil strife in Lebanon and to bring an end to all blockades; and (3) fund humanitarian efforts of the Lebanese Government and of private voluntary organizations coordinated with such Government.

Title VIII: Africa - Part A: Africa Famine Recovery and Development - Africa Famine Recovery and Development Act - Authorizes the President to provide project and program assistance for long-term development in Subsaharan Africa. Requires the purpose of such assistance to be to help the poor majority of men and women in Subsaharan Africa to participate in a process of long-term development through economic growth that is equitable, participatory, environmentally sustainable, and self-reliant. Provides that such assistance should also encourage private sector development and promote individual initiatives and help to reduce the role of central governments in areas more appropriate for the private sector.

Requires the agency primarily responsible for administering development assistance programs (responsible agency) to: (1) take into account the local-level perspective of the rural and urban poor in Subsaharan Africa during the planning process for project assistance under this Act; and (2) make available funds for the strengthening of development efforts by private and voluntary organizations which have demonstrated effectiveness in or commitment to the promotion of local grass-roots activities on behalf of long-term development in Subsaharan Africa.

Requires: (1) the close consultation and involvement of local people in projects that have a local focus; and (2) the participation and integration of African women in development projects assisted by this Act.

Requires the responsible agency to use the program assistance provided by this Act to: (1) address critical sectoral priorities for long-term development; and (2) promote reform of national economic policies to support these priorities.

Requires policy reforms to include provisions to protect vulnerable groups, especially poor farmers and the urban poor, from possible negative consequences of such reforms.

Designates as the critical sectoral priorities for long-term development: (1) increased agricultural production and the maintenance and restoration of renewable natural resources; (2) improved health conditions; (3) voluntary family planning services; (4) improved relevance and efficiency of education; and (5) development of income generating opportunities for the unemployed and underemployed. Imposes minimum levels of assistance for certain critical sectors.

Directs the responsible agency to provide support for strengthening and developing selected African higher education institutions in order to address the problems of food production and distribution.

Requires the assistance provided under this Act to be concentrated in countries that will make the most effective use of such assistance.

Specifies uses for local currencies generated by assistance provided under this Act and other Acts. Provides that funds made available under this Act may be used to assist the countries in Subsaharan Africa to increase their capacity to participate in donor coordination mechanisms at the country, regional, and sector levels.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for long-term development assistance for Subsaharan Africa. Expresses the sense of the Congress that the authorization should be extended whenever appropriate. Limits transfers between accounts funded by this Act. Authorizes the Administrator of the responsible agency to transfer certain funds in order to increase the AID resources for development assistance activities for Subsaharan Africa.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the purposes of the African Development Foundation are consistent with the purposes of this Act.

Amends the African Development Foundation Act to: (1) authorize appropriations for the African Development Foundation for FY 1990; and (2) require that no more than four members of the Foundation's Board are from any one political party. Repeals a provision of such Act requiring the expiration of the Foundation's authorities on September 30, 1990.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that special efforts should be taken to: (1) reduce trade barriers and promote economic interchange between the United States and developing countries in Subsaharan Africa; and (2) establish a guaranteed minimum level of sugar imports, within the present world quota, for Subsaharan African countries exporting to the United States.

Part B: Other Provisions Relating to Sub-Saharan Africa - Earmarks specified amounts of funds made available under this Act for sector projects supported by the Southern African Development Coordination Conference (SADCC). Urges: (1) the President to use diplomatic means to protect the security of such projects; and (2) the Government of South Africa to respect the territorial integrity of SADCC states and to refrain from military aggression across its borders.

Declares that the provision of ESF assistance and FMS financing to Kenya for FY 1990 shall bear a relation to significant steps by the Government of Kenya to increase respect for internationally recognized human rights.

Prohibits the provision of ESF assistance and FMS financing to Liberia unless the President reports to the Congress that the Liberian Government has: (1) demonstrated its commitment to economic reform; and (2) made significant progress toward removing restrictions on political freedoms, maintaining an independent judiciary and legislative branch, and ending human rights violations. Exempts from such prohibition assistance to or through private voluntary organizations and assistance for basic education activities.

Directs the President, in determining whether to furnish ESF assistance and FMS financing to Somalia for FY 1990, to take into account whether the Government of Somalia has demonstrated increased respect for human rights and taken steps to achieve a peaceful political settlement to the conflict in the north.

Permits no more than 50 percent of the respective amounts of ESF assistance and FMS financing for Sudan for FY 1990 to be obligated prior to May 1, 1990. Provides that amounts of such assistance may be obligated after such date only if the President reports to the Congress that the Sudanese Government has: (1) made demonstrable progress in the delivery of increased relief to displaced populations in areas under its control; (2) taken steps to bring an end to violence perpetrated by government-armed militias and to put distance between itself and Libya; and (3) made good faith efforts to achieve progress in negotiations with the Sudan People's Liberation Army for a national peace accord. Exempts from such restrictions assistance for international military education and training or programs of disaster relief, related rehabilitation and reconstruction, or other humanitarian assistance.

Limits the amount of FMS financing to be made available to Zaire for FY 1990. Requires development assistance for Zaire for FY 1990 to be provided, to the maximum extent practicable, through private and voluntary organizations.

Requires the President to notify specified congressional committees prior to the obligation of funds for assistance to Kenya, Liberia, Somalia, and Sudan.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that no less than the amount justified for the Republic of Cape Verde in the FY 1990 Congressional Presentation Document should be made available to such republic.

Declares that: (1) it is in the interest of the United States to encourage the promotion of human rights and political and economic freedom in African countries; and (2) the President, in furnishing assistance to such countries for FY 1990, should consider each country's record in human rights and economic reform and its friendship to the United States.

Earmarks a specified amount of FMS financing for Malawi for FY 1990.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President shoudl take into account progress made by the Ethiopian Government toward a peaceful settlement of the civil war, improvements in the human rights situation, and macroeconomic reform when deciding on improvements in U.S.-Ethiopian relations.

Repeals a provision of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 concerning the Sahel development program.

Makes conforming amendments to the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954.

Title IX: Western Hemisphere - Part A: Central America - Earmarks a specified amount of ESF assistance for FY 1990 for the United Nations Development Programme to reintegrate the displaced and refugee populations, create employment opportunities, and establish an infrastructure to ensure adequate food supplies and health facilities for the poor in Central American countries which are in compliance with the Esquipulas II Accords.

Requires the President, in concert with the governments of Central America, other nations providing assistance, the United Nations, and international and regional organizations, to: (1) encourage and participate in the creation of a multi-donor, multisectoral coordinating mechanism to be known as the Central American Development Coordination Commission (CADCC); and (2) provide a certain amount of assistance for the implementation of, and U.S. participation in, such Commission. Designates the United Nations Development Programme as the social service and refugee and displaced persons technical assistance secretariat for the CADCC. Authorizes the President to furnish CADCC assistance to Central American countries which are in compliance with the Esquipulas Accords.

Urges the President to encourage and secure greater international support for the implementation of the recommendations of the International Commission for Central American Recovery and Development. Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President, in attempting to secure support for such recommendations, should exert leadership in multilateral and regional forums and at economic summits to further a multi-donor, multi-sector approach to the Central American crisis.

Requires the President to direct the Secretary of State to report to the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on U.S. military advisors in El Salvador.

Directs the U.S. Comptroller General to: (1) conduct an evaluation of administration of justice assistance provided to El Salvador to determine whether such assistance has achieved its intended purposes; and (2) report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee on the findings of such evaluation.

Permits police training assistance to be furnished to El Salvador for FY 1990 if certain conditions are met. Requires the President, prior to obligating such assistance, to certify to specified congressional committees that El Salvador has made significant progress during the preceding six months in eliminating human rights violations.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that U.S. military assistance to Guatemala should continue as long as the Guatemalan Government makes concerted efforts to maintain civilian control over the military and security forces, prevents and prosecutes human rights abuses by such forces, and strengthens democratic processes and institutions. Limits the amount of non-lethal military assistance to be made available to Guatemala for FY 1990.

Authorizes additional appropriations to be made available to the Government of Honduras for environmental restoration programs in areas affected by displaced persons in Honduras.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Honduran Government has made a reasonable and good faith settlement offer to compensate a U.S. citizen for the expropriation of property in Trujillo, Honduras, and encourages the owner of such property to accept such offer.

Makes certain funds allocated for Honduras, but withheld from expenditure, available for expenditure. Authorizes the President to use such funds, any unearmarked development and ESF assistance funds, and funds made available to AID, for the expenses of election observer missions sent to Nicaragua.

Authorizes the provision of assistance to promote the production of soybean, soy oil, citrus fruit, or other appropriate crops in Bolivia and Peru if such production is not intended for export or if the President determines that the export of such commodities would not adversely affect U.S. exporters.

Part B: The Caribbean - Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Haitian Government must take concrete measures to demonstrate its commitment to the democratic processes set forth in the approved 1987 Haitian Constitution before the suspension of U.S. assistance to Haiti is lifted. Prohibits assistance under this Act or the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, with specified exceptions, from being provided to Haiti unless the President certifies to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs that such processes have been adhered to by such Government.

Part C: South America - Expresses the sense of the Congress concerning the Falklands/ Malvinas Islands dispute between the United Kingdom and Argentina.

Authorizes the provision of international military education and training assistance to Chile for FY 1990 if the President reports to the Congress that: (1) a civilian, democratically-elected president is in office and has requested such funds; and (2) such government is making good faith efforts to resolve the murders of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt.

Amends the International Security and Development Cooperation Act of 1981 to exempt from a prohibition on assistance to Chile certain aircraft parts, tools, or related services to enhance the safety of Chilean Air Force aircraft.

Part D: Other Regional Provisions - Expresses the sense of the Congress that U.S. foreign policy interests will be well served by greater involvement and utilization of the Organization of American States in seeking solutions to regional conflicts.

Title X: Multilateral Lending and Development Institutions - Part A: The Inter-American Development Bank Authorization - Inter-American Development Bank Replenishment Act of 1989 - Amends the Inter-American Development Bank Act to authorize the U.S. Governor of the Bank to vote for resolutions which: (1) were transmitted by the Board of Executive Directors to the Governors by resolution of April 19, 1989; (2) are pending before the Board of Governors of the Bank; and (3) provide for increases in the authorized capital stock of the Bank and resources of the Fund for Special Operations. Permits the Governor, upon adoption of such resolutions, to subscribe to a certain number of shares of the increase in capital stock and contribute a certain amount to the Fund. Authorizes appropriations to pay for such increases.

Part B: The Enhanced Structural Adjustment Facility - Amends the Bretton Woods Agreement to authorize the U.S. Governor of the International Monetary Fund to contribute a certain amount to the Interest Subsidy Account of the Enhanced Structural Adjustment Facility of the Fund. Authorizes appropriations.

Part C: Limitations on Expenditures for Multilateral Institutions - Limits the amount which may be obligated or expended for FY 1990 for U.S. participation in multilateral development banks.

Part D: International Monetary Fund - Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to instruct the U.S. Executive Director of the Fund to work for: (1) the addition to the Fund's staff of natural resource economists, poverty experts, development economists trained in the linkage between short-term exploitation of natural resources and long-term economic impacts, and other specialists trained in social issues; (2) the establishment by the Fund of a review of policy prescriptions to determine if the Fund's objectives were met and what the social and environmental impacts of such policy prescriptions were; and (3) the establishment by the Fund of long-term management of natural resources as a part of stabilization and adjustment policies, including the creation of energy-efficient economies to minimize the effect of global warming and provide consumer benefits. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on such changes.

Title XI: Peace Corps - Amends the Peace Corps Act to: (1) extend authorizations of appropriations for the Peace Corps through FY 1990; (2) shorten the period during which a former Foreign Service-appointed Peace Corps employee is ineligible for reemployment by the Peace Corps; and (3) establish the Foreign Currency Fluctuations, Peace Corps, Account to pay expenses for Peace Corps operations which exceed appropriations for such expenses as a result of currency exchange rate fluctuations.

Authorizes appropriations for such Account. Requires the Director of the Peace Corps to report to the Congress annually on such Account.

Title XII: Miscellaneous and General Provisions - Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to increase the amount authorized to be used by the President for emergency assistance.

Limits the value of additions to stockpiles in foreign countries during FY 1990 and 1991.

Prohibits the provision of assistance to any country in default to the United States in payments on a loan for a period exceeding twelve (currently, six) months, except under specified conditions. Exempts from such prohibition international military education and training assistance as long as the recipient country has an elected government seeking to strengthen democratic institutions.

Terminates assistance under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 and the Arms Export Control Act (including the issuance of export licenses for the export of defense articles and services) to a country if the democratically-elected government of such country is overthrown by a military coup or decree or by Communist insurgency. Conditions the resumption of such assistance on the President's certification to specified congressional committees that a democratically-elected government has taken office. Exempts from such prohibition disaster relief or humanitarian assistance.

Amends the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1986 and 1987 to revise provisions concerning the Senate Caucus on International Narcotics Control. Increases the amount authorized to be appropriated to the Caucus.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to set forth requirements for the computation of annuities for certain members of the AID Inspector General Office staff and for mandatory retirement for such individuals.

Amends a specified Act to authorize the President, pursuant to agreement with a foreign country, to confer rights upon such country (with regard to service courts of friendly foreign forces) equivalent to those granted by such country to the United States.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to add Afghanistan, Laos, and Cambodia to the list of Communist countries to which the provision of assistance is prohibited. Makes each determination by the President to remove a country from such list applicable for up to twelve months.

Requires the AID Administrator to report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on the problems of water resources management in the Jordan River Basin and Subsaharan Africa.

Authorizes the President to provide assistance for desalting and water treatment activities. Designates such assistance as the Desalination and Fresh Water Fund. Permits unobligated ESF assistance and funds from the Prototype Desalting Plant project to be used for such activities. Prohibits the disbursement of funds without the consultation of the Bureau of Reclamation of the Department of the Interior.

Prohibits the provision of assistance under any Act for educational scholarships or exchange programs for foreign nationals who are members of terrorist organizations.

Requires the President to report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on clean coal technologies export programs within Federal agencies and the feasibility of establishing an interagency commission for promoting the export and use of such technologies.

Directs the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Agriculture to report to specified congressional committees on foreign agricultural development programs of the European Community and the potential impact of the Europe 1992 plan on market access to U.S. agricultural exports.

Requires the President, in order to gauge the extent to which U.S. firms can compete for the provision of commodities and services under other major donors' assistance programs, to report to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on specific issues concerning the programs of the major Western donors and Japan. Requires such report to include recommendations for ways in which U.S. firms can participate more fully in such programs and an evaluation of the effect that subsidization of domestic suppliers of commodities or services under such programs would have on the willingness of donor countries to further untie their assistance programs to permit participation by other countries.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to report to the Congress on the Soviet military presence in Africa.

Urges the Government of Yugoslavia to: (1) assure that further violence does not occur in Kosovo; and (2) observe its obligations under the Helsinki Final Act and the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights to assure full protection of the rights of national groups in Yugoslavia. Requests the President and the State Department to monitor closely the human rights conditions in Yugoslavia and calls upon the President to express such concerns to Yugoslavia.

Authorizes the use of U.S.-owned excess foreign currencies for development assistance and the support of any institution providing education for a significant number of U.S. nationals. Prohibits such currencies from being used in Communist countries to which the provision of assistance is prohibited.

Title XIII: Index of Economic Freedom Act of 1989 - Index of Economic Freedom Act of 1989 - Directs the Administrator to develop a system for evaluating the economic freedom and opportunities of individuals in countries eligible for development assistance. Designates such system as the Index of Economic Freedom. Requires the Index to assign a numerical rating for property rights, business regulations, informal sector, wage and price controls, taxation, trade policy, restrictions on investment and capital flows, size of state sector, and banking based on the degree to which each such factor reflects the degree of economic freedom and opportunity in a country.

Directs the Administrator to apply the Index to eligible countries and to report to the Speaker of the House and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the findings of such evaluation. Prohibits certain assistance from being provided to a country under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 unless the Index data on such country has been considered.

Requires the Administrator to use the Index to: (1) promote improvements in the underlying economic conditions evaluated by the Index while retaining flexibility in implementing development programs; and (2) evaluate the direction of policy changes in less developed countries.

Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to direct the U.S. directors to specified multilateral development institutions to consider opposing the extension of financial assistance to countries which have rated poorly under the Index.

Title XIV: Repeals and Effective Date - Repeals specified provisions of named Acts. Sets forth the effective date of this Act.

07-18-89 Reported to Senate from the Committee on Foreign Relations, S. Rept. 101-80
07-18-89 Placed on calendar in Senate

S. 1352 Sen. Nunn; 7/19/89

National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Division A: National Defense Authorizations - Title I: Procurement - Part A: Funding Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 to the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, and Air Force for: (1) aircraft; (2) missiles; (3) weapons and tracked combat vehicles; (4) ammunition; (5) shipbuilding and conversion; and (6) other procurement.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for: (1) procurement for the defense agencies and the reserves; and (2) the chemical demilitarization program.

Specifies programs for which the Secretary of the military department concerned may and may not use funds appropriated for FY 1990 and 1991 to enter into multiyear procurement contracts for specified defense procurement programs.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 to reduce or increase various defense procurement program authorizations under such Act.

Authorizes additional appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for the armed forces for missile procurement.

Part B: Program Requirements, Restrictions, and Limitations - Places funding restrictions or limitations on the following programs: (1) the M-1 tank; (2) ten-ton trucks; and (3) procurement of V-22 aircraft.

Part C: Strategic Program Test and Reporting Requirements - Prohibits any funding reductions to be made during FY 1990 in the Trident II missile program to achieve any undistributed reduction required for Department of Defense programs.

Directs the Secretary of Defense, during FY 1990 and 1991, to develop a program and plan for a defense avionics test and evaluation program in connection with the proposed modifications of the B-1B aircraft. Requires the Secretary to report to the Senate and House Armed Services Committees (the defense committees) concerning such plan. Outlines provisions relating to the availability of funds for modifications to such aircraft and requirements for bimonthly status reports on such aircraft, and an independent assessment of the capabilities of such aircraft by a panel of experts appointed by the Secretary.

Earmarks specified FY 1990 Air Force procurement funds for the B-2 bomber program. Outlines certain flight test and other requirements to be satisfied before such funding is authorized for the B-2 bomber program, including an assessment of such aircraft by the Low-Observables Panel of the Defense Science Board. Requires the Secretary to certify annually to the Congress that the cost of such bomber program does not exceed specified amounts. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees concerning the correction of deficiencies clauses in B-2 aircraft procurement contracts. Requires the Secretary of the Air Force to take necessary action to ensure that procurement for the B-2 aircraft authorized for FY 1989 and 1990 is subject to a contractor guarantee under current Federal armed forces procurement provisions. Outlines other provisions concerning the prime contractor's assumption of greater liability responsibility for the cost of corrective actions under B-2 procurement contracts. Requires the Secretary to notify the defense committees concerning such contractor liability and corrective action taken.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to conduct a comprehensive study of alternative plans for the production of B-2 aircraft. Directs the Secretary to report the results of such study to the defense committees.

Sets forth certain testing and certification requirements to be satisfied before funding will be authorized in FY 1990 for the procurement of advanced cruise missiles.

Part D: Program Terminations - Terminates the following programs, with specified exceptions: (1) the F-14 aircraft, after FY 1989; (2) the AH-64 helicopter, after FY 1991; (3) the AHIP Scout helicopter, after FY 1989; (4) the F-15E aircraft, after October 1, 1991; and (5) the M88A2 recovery vehicle, after FY 1989.

Part E: Miscellaneous Provisions - Repeals the procurement requirement and limitation of funds for the Heavy Expanded Mobility Tactical Truck.

Requires the Secretary of the Navy to report to specified congressional committees on current and projected Navy aircraft requirements.

Revises current Federal armed forces provisions to authorize the Secretary of the Air Force to enter into contracts with U.S. citizens which allow such citizens to include or incorporate in their aircraft defense features which will ensure the interoperability of such aircraft with the Department of Defense (DOD) airlift system. Outlines contract terms and conditions.

Title II: Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation - Part A: Authorizations and Funding for Specific Programs - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for research, development, test, and evaluation (R&D funds) for the armed forces and the defense agencies.

Authorizes additional appropriations to the Army and Marine Corps for research and development for improved infantry weapons and equipment.

Part B: Program Requirements, Restrictions, and Limitations - Earmarks specified R&D funds for research and development under the Balanced Technology Initiative program. Outlines administrative provisions concerning such funds. Requires the Secretary to report to certain congressional committees specified information concerning the Initiative.

Authorizes the Secretary, in carrying out advanced research projects through the Defense Advanced Research Project Agency, to enter into cooperative agreements and other transactions with any Federal, State, local, educational, or other entity. Requires the Secretary to report annually to the defense committees on any such agreements entered into during the prior fiscal year. Provides FY 1990 and 1991 funding for such cooperative agreements program.

Authorizes the Secretary to use procedures other than competitive procedures in awarding grants to colleges and universities for the conduct of research and development. Requires the Secretary to report semiannually to the defense committees on the use of competitive procedures for R&D contracts with colleges and universities.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to establish an integrated electric drive system for the DDG-51 guided missile destroyer program. Earmarks R&D funds for such program.

Earmarks specified funds for the fast sealift technology development program. Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to establish such program.

Earmarks specified funds for the tactical oceanography program. Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to establish such program.

Prohibits FY 1991 R&D funds from being used for Navy ship design.

Earmarks specified R&D funds for: (1) biodegradable materials research; and (2) the chemical weapons monitoring program.

Increases by six months the time in which the Secretary of Defense must select a heavy truck system configured with a palletized loading system.

Requires the Secretary of a military department or defense agency head, in awarding R&D contracts in connection with laser weapon verification technology, to ensure that such contractors have laser research experience in specified areas of expertise.

Earmarks specified R&D funds for a joint Army-Department of Energy research project on magnetoencephalography and neuromagnetism.

Part C: Strategic Defense Initiative - Earmarks specified R&D funds for the Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI). Specifies an amount to be used solely in connection with the construction of the National Test Bed project. Requires the Secretary to report to certain congressional committees on the allocation of funds appropriated for SDI for FY 1990. Requires the Secretary to submit annual reports to the Congress on the programs and projects that constitute SDI and on any other program or project relating to defense against ballistic missiles. Places specified limitations on the development and testing of anti-ballistic missile systems or components.

Earmarks specified FY 1990 and 1991 R&D funds for support of the medical free electron laser program.

Directs the Secretary, in coordination with the Central Intelligence Agency, to report to the Congress on the asymmetry in U.S. and Soviet near-term capabilities to deploy anti-ballistic missile defenses beyond those permitted under the 1972 ABM Treaty.

Part D: Strategic Programs - Prohibits FY 1990 DOD funding reductions in the Trident II missile program in order to achieve any undistributed reduction required for Department of Defense programs.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to transfer specified R&D funds to fund priority security improvements at the Kwajalein Test Range, on Kwajalein Island.

Amends the Goldwater-Nichols Department of Defense Reorganization Act of 1986 to restore certain reporting requirements under such Act relating to chemical and biological warfare agents.

Part E: Allied Cooperative Research and Development - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to enter into a memorandum of understanding (or other formal agreement) with one or more major allies of the United States for the purpose of conducting cooperative research and development projects on defense equipment and munitions. Outlines certain restrictions to be followed by the Secretary under such program. Directs the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition to prepare a formal arms cooperation opportunities document for review by the Defense Acquisition Board at its formal meetings. Requires the Under Secretary to report to certain congressional committees describing the purpose, status, funding, and schedules of cooperative agreements carried out under this provision. Requires the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of State, whenever they consider it necessary, to report to certain committees enumerating those countries to be added to or deleted from the list designated as major non-NATO allies for purposes of this section.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that DOD should perform more side-by-side testing of conventional defense equipment manufactured by the United States and other member nations of NATO. Authorizes the Deputy Director of Defense Research and Engineering to acquire specified items for such side-by-side testing. Requires the Deputy Director to report to certain congressional committees concerning funding and systems and munitions evaluated under such side-by-side testing program. Repeals specified inconsistent provisions of prior defense authorization acts.

Title III: Operation and Maintenance - Part A: Authorization of Appropriations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for operation and maintenance for the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Air Force, the defense agencies, the reserves, the National Guard, the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, the Court of Military Appeals, environmental restoration, the Goodwill Games (FY 1990 only), and for humanitarian assistance. Authorizes appropriations for unbudgeted increases in fuel costs and unbudgeted increases as the result of inflation. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for working capital funds for the armed forces and the defense agencies. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for the Department of Defense Base Closure Account.

States as the purpose of the humanitarian assistance program to provide transportation and humanitarian relief for persons displaced or made refugees by the invasion of Afghanistan by the Soviet Union. Authorizes the Secretary to transfer funds to the Secretary of State for the purpose of providing such assistance. Requires transportation for such assistance, requiring the most economical means possible, to be under the direction of the Secretary of State. Requires reports concerning the provision of such assistance. Repeals prior reporting requirements.

Part B: Limitations - Repeals a provision of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 which limits the use of operation and maintenance funds for the purchase of investment items.

Prohibits the Secretary of the Navy from entering into a contract which would provide or permit joint use of the Marine Corps Aid Station, El Toro, California, with civil aviation.

Part C: Base Closure and Realignment Matters - Requires the Comptroller General to report to the Secretary and the defense committees on the methodology, findings, and recommendations of the Commission on Base Realignment and Closure.

Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on environmental contamination at the Jefferson Providing Ground, Indiana, resulting from activities of DOD.

Requires the Secretary, in every year in which military installation closure or realignment activities are carried out, to provide notice to each State and local education agencies which will experience a certain degree of enrollment changes of military dependents due to such closures or realignments.

Part D: Miscellaneous Reporting Requirements - Sets forth reporting requirements concerning: (1) military utilization of the inland navigation system; (2) long-range environmental challenges and goals of DOD; (3) the readiness of the armed forces in terms of manpower, mobility, sustainability, and equipment; and (4) the feasibility of restoring to the Secretary responsibility for the administration of impact aid for schools affected by DOD activities; and (5) a timetable for second source production for carbonizable rayon yarn for use on reentry vehicle heat shields and rocket nozzles.

Directs the Army Corps of Engineers to conduct as promptly as possible, and continue to inform interested parties concerning, its investigation of soil and water contamination at the former Nebraska Ordnance Plant near Mead, Nebraska.

Part E: Miscellaneous Provisions - Revises a provision of the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 concerning authorized uses of first-year energy cost savings from incentives implemented by DOD. Requires the amount of such energy cost savings to be determined by the Secretary of the military department concerned at the end of each of the first five years (currently, only at the end of the first year).

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to purchase a railroad structure and temporary right-of-way for rail line in Nevada for use in connection with the operation of Hawthorne Army Ammunition Plant, Nevada.

Requires the Secretary of Defense to formulate and carry out a program to reduce the unnecessary release of chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs) and halons and testing practices of DOD. Outlines report requirements in connection with such program. Requires the Secretary to appoint a CFC Advisory Committee to study the use of CFCs by DOD and by contractors in the performance of contracts for DOD and the cost and feasibility of using alternative compounds and technologies in lieu of CFCs. Outlines reporting requirements.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to enter into a long-term lease for the provision of air transportation at Kwajalein Atoll, Republic of the Marshall Islands, under specified conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to enter into a service contract for the training of undergraduate naval flight officers during FY 1992.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to increase, as of the end of FY 1990, the number of full-time personnel employed by the Defense Contract Audit Agency.

Directs the Secretary of the Army, acting through the Chief of Engineers, to conduct a study determining the damage and environmental impact on the Shenandoah River caused by companies under contract with DOD and NASA.

Directs the Secretary of the Navy to make certain acquisition regulation determinations with respect to tug and towing services at Port Canaveral, Florida.

Title IV: Military Personnel Authorizations For Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Part A: Active Forces - Authorizes end strengths for active-duty forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Prohibits the Secretary from reducing the number of active Army ground combat brigades assigned to the 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized) before December 1, 1990. Allows Army end strengths to be increased in order to maintain such prohibition. Reduces, temporarily, the number of colonels authorized for active duty for FY 1991.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that certain combat units stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky, should not be permanently reassigned to Fort Irwin, California.

Part B: Reserve Forces - Authorizes end strengths for reserve components of the armed forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Authorizes end strength reductions for the Selected Reserve components of the armed forces for each such fiscal year, as prescribed. Authorizes increases for each such fiscal year in the number of certain personnel authorized to be on active duty in support of the reserve forces. Reallocates the positions of two naval reserve officers serving in medical profession capacities.

Part C: Military Training - Authorizes the average military training student loads for FY 1990 and 1991. Provides for the adjustment of such student loads consistent with manpower strengths authorized under this Act.

Part D: Civilian Personnel - Repeals current Federal provisions concerning management constraints for DOD civilian personnel.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to accept voluntary services from an individual for work in a natural resources program.

Title V: Military Personnel - Part A: Matters Affecting the Reserve Components - Authorizes a person with no prior military service who is qualified for active-duty enlistment in the armed forces (regular) to be enlisted as a member of the reserves under a delayed entry program. Allows such person to be enlisted in a regular component of the armed forces within 365 days after enlistment in the reserves. Exempts members of the delayed entry program from otherwise applicable Ready Reserve training requirements. Prohibits the period of enlisted service under the delayed entry program form being counted as part of the years of service for the computation of the basic pay of a member.

Authorizes the Secretary to order a member of the Ready Reserve to muster duty one time each year without his consent. Authorize a member of the Ready Reserve who is not a member of the National Guard or of the Selected Reserve to be entitled to an allowance for such muster duty if engaged in such duty for at least two hours.

Repeals a provision of Federal law which allows a uniform and equipment reimbursement monthly for a reserve officer of the armed forces who has not become entitled to a uniform reimbursement or allowance as an officer for the preceding four years.

Extends through FY 1992 certain expiring authorities relating to the reserves.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for an enlisted member who is assigned to a high priority unit of the Selected Reserve and who performs inactive duty for training with such unit. Terminates such special assignment pay after FY 1991. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the administration of such special pay program.

Part B: Health Care Matters - Prohibits the Secretary, during FY 1990 and 1991, from charging for the receipt of outpatient medical or dental care at a military treatment facility.

Revises a provision concerning the limitation on payments made to noninstitutional health-care providers from the Secretary concerned under the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS). Authorizes the Secretary to increase the maximum amount of such payments whenever the Secretary of Health and Human Services increases the amount payable to providers of services under part B of title XVIII (Medicare) of the Social Security Act.

Authorizes the Secretary to require a private health-care provider which is also a health-care provider under CHAMPUS to provide such care under the same rules applicable under such program.

Authorizes the provision of specialized training as another benefit under the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. Allows a person participating in such specialized training, in addition to receiving a stipend under such Program, to be paid an annual grant of $15,000. Requires a pro rata refund of such grant amount from a person who voluntarily terminates the Program's specialized training.

Expands the type of loans qualifying for repayment by the Secretary concerned for health professionals who serve in the Selected Reserve as part of such loan repayment agreement, including any loan which was used to finance basic or advanced health professions education. Makes all members of the Ready Reserve (currently, only members of the Selected Reserve) eligible for such loan repayments and increases the yearly and total amount of such loan repayments. Repeals the current October 1, 1990, date for the termination of such loan repayments.

Revises the deadline for the use of diagnosis related groups for outpatient treatment.

Increases from 67 to 68 the deferment age for retirement for regular commissioned officers of the armed forces.

Authorizes the retention of reserve officer psychologists in an active status in order to fulfill a mission-based requirement.

Part C: Personnel Management - States the conditions under which the President may vacate a promotion to the grade of major through major general and lieutenant commander through rear admiral.

Directs the Secretary to reduce by the end of FY 1992 the number of nonoperational flying duty positions in the armed forces by five percent. Prohibits any increase in the number of such positions after FY 1991.

Outlines the minimum service requirement for certain flight crew positions.

Requires the Comptroller General to conduct a study, and report to the defense committees, on the aviator assignment policies and practices of the armed forces.

Part D: Total Force Policy - Directs the Secretary to convene a study group to review the operation and soundness of the Total Force Policy (the force mix in each of the military departments) of DOD and to make recommendations for the improvement of such Policy. Requires the Secretary to report the study group's results to the defense committees.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the service obligations for graduates of: (1) the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences; and (2) the service academies.

Revises the composition and term of members of the U.S. Court of Military Appeals. Revises provisions concerning: (1) the removal of judges from such Court; (2) incapacity of such judges; (3) service and pay of a senior judge of such Court; (4) the appointment and civil service status of legal staff of the Court; (5) the retirement of judges of the Court; and (6) appellate review procedures of action taken by the Judge Advocate General under provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice. Directs the President to prescribe procedures for the investigation and disposition of charges, allegations, and information pertaining to the fitness of a military judge or military appellate judge to perform the duties of office. Requires such procedures to be transmitted to the defense committees.

Makes permanent the authority to make temporary promotions of certain Navy lieutenants.

Extends through October 1, 1992, the authority for a test program for the reimbursement to members of the armed forces of qualifying adoption expenses.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to require each applicant for enlistment or appointment to undergo drug and alcohol abuse testing before becoming a member of the armed forces.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to correct the military records of promotion of enlisted members if the Secretary concerned considers such action necessary to correct an error or injustice.

Provides members of the National Guard, Reserves, retired military personnel, and civilian employees of DOD with the same relief from expenses incurred because of an error in the mandatory direct deposit of pay.

Provides for the awarding of the degree of Master of Arts in Leader Development.

Authorizes the Secretary to provide transportation to next-of-kin of members of the armed forces who have been prisoners of war or missing in action as a result of service during the Vietnam era to attend an annual meeting of such families.

Revises certain procedures regarding the solicitation and award of contracts for postsecondary education services for members of the armed forces, civilian DOD employees, or the dependents of such members and employees.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to employ civilian faculty at the United States Marine Corps University.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to enter into contracts providing for the production and commercial sale of a certain recording made by the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra and the U.S. Air Force Singing Sergents.

Title VI: Compensation and Other Personnel Benefits - Part A: Pay and Allowances - Waives the automatic adjustment authorized for military pay consistent with yearly increases in the GS Schedule of the Federal Government, authorizing instead a 3.6 percent increase in the rates of basic pay, basic allowance for quarters, and basic allowance for subsistence. Increases cadet and midshipman pay. Makes each such increase effective as of January 1, 1990.

Part B: Incentive Pay - Increases the flying duties required for an aviation officer to be entitled to aviation career incentive pay. Requires the President to increase such incentive pay by the percentage of any increase in basic pay. Authorizes the Secretary concerned to delay implementation of such increased flying duty when necessary to meet the needs of his department.

Extends through FY 1992 the aviator retention bonus program. Outlines certain reporting requirements under such program and limits the total obligations permitted for the Navy and Air Force during FY 1990 for the payment of such bonuses.

Increases the special pay for medical officers in the armed forces. Extends through FY 1990 the medical officer retention bonus program. Terminates such authority if a certain report is not made by a specified date.

Provides for the payment of special pay in the form of an accession bonus for registered nurses who agree within a specified period to accept a commission and perform duty as a registered nurse in the armed forces for not less than four years. Outlines certain limitations and conditions under such program.

Provides a nurse officer candidate accession bonus for individuals who execute a written agreement to accept an appointment as a nurse officer after completion of two years of a degree program in nursing and while enrolled as a full-time student in a nursing program in an institution that does not have a Senior Reserve Officers' Training Program. Outlines agreement terms. Requires a pro rata refund of any bonus paid when an individual fails to complete either the required period of education or the required period of military service after the completion of such education.

Authorizes the payment of special incentive pay for nurse anesthetists who execute a written agreement to remain on active duty for at least one year after their initial required period of duty. Outlines terms of such bonus pay. Requires refunds on a pro rata basis for agreed-upon time not successfully served. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the use of certified registered nurse anesthetists by the military departments.

Increases: (1) the special pay for reserve medical officers; and (2) the length and amount of the Selected Reserve reenlistment bonus program. Extends certain enlistment and reenlistment bonus authorities for reserve forces. Extends the bonus authority for certain nuclear career officer bonus programs.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for psychologists who are officers in the armed forces or the Public Health Service and who have been awarded a diploma by the American Board of Professional Psychology.

Part C: Travel and Transportation - Authorizes a travel and transportation allowance for a member of the armed forces who is assigned to permanent duty aboard a ship that is undergoing construction away from the designated home port or away from the area where the dependents of the member are residing. Outlines terms and conditions for such allowances.

Authorizes reimbursement for parking fees, ferry fares, and tolls for any member of the armed forces entitled to general travel and transportation allowances.

Authorizes student travel allowances for dependents of members stationed outside the continental United States. Prohibits such allowance for dependents of members permanently stationed in Alaska or Hawaii for a child attending a school in the State of the permanent duty station.

Part D: Survivor Benefit Program - Revises the reduction in retired pay for participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan. Differentiates, in the level premium to be paid each month by participants in the Plan, as to whether the annuity being provided is a standard or reserve-component annuity and whether the person becomes an active participant in the Plan before or after the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989.

Directs the Secretary of the military department concerned to carry out a program, to be known as the Supplemental Survivor Benefit Plan (SSBP), which would enable participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) who are providing coverage for a spouse or former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to also provide a supplemental annuity for that spouse or former spouse beginning when the participant dies or when the spouse or former spouse becomes 62 years of age, whichever is later, in order to offset the effects of the two-tier annuity computation under the SBP. Outlines the following administrative provisions concerning the SSBP: (1) commencement of annuity; (2) the amount of such annuity for the beneficiary of a person providing the standard or the reserve-component annuity under the SBP (the latter annuity further defined by whether or not the beneficiary under the SSBP is initially under 62 years of age at the commencement of the annuity); and (3) adjustments in such annuities required by periodic adjustments in the cost-of-living index. Terminates a SSBP annuity when the beneficiary dies or otherwise becomes ineligible to continue to receive an annuity under the original SBP.

Allows a person who provides an annuity for a spouse or former spouse under SBP to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under these provisions. Requires a person providing a supplemental spouse annuity to be a participant in the SBP in order to cover a spouse or former spouse under the SSBP. Requires such election to be voluntary. Allows a person to make such an election only if the beneficiary of such person's annuity is not currently computed under the determination of spouse or former spouse beneficiary annuity under the SBP. Allows a person who anticipates becoming a participant in the SBP who has a spouse or former spouse to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP. Outlines conditions and requirements for such an anticipatory election. Requires a person to actually provide a spouse or former spouse annuity under the SBP in order to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP.

Allows a person who elects to provide SBP coverage for a former spouse after having been an SBP participant without coverage for that former spouse to also provide a supplemental spouse annuity for such former spouse under the SSBP. Requires notice to a current spouse of a person providing coverage under the SBP and the SSBP to a former spouse. Provides for irrevocability after a specified period of time of the election to provide SSBP coverage under both a standard annuity and a reserve-component annuity.

Authorizes provision of a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions by a person who is a participant in the SBP and is providing coverage for a spouse (or spouse and child) but is not a participant in the SSBP, who does not have an eligible spouse under that Plan, and who remarries, thereby allowing such person to elect to provide such coverage for the former spouse. Requires the person to be under the SBP in order to make the election for such coverage under the SSBP. Outlines conditions for such an election. Outlines administrative guidelines to be followed: (1) when there is a change of a former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to a current spouse or child beneficiary under the SBP; and (2) upon reinstatement of an SSBP annuity after discontinuance of an SBP annuity and reinstatement of such annuity.

Requires a person who elects to provide a SSBP annuity to a former spouse to provide the Secretary concerned with a written statement as to whether the election being made is pursuant to a written agreement incident to a divorce, dissolution, or annullment that has been incorporated in, or ratified or approved by, a court order. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the enforcement of such voluntary written agreements ratified by a court order. Provides a time limit for the making of such an election of one year after the date of the court order or filing involved.

Directs the retired pay of a person electing to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions to be reduced each month as required under prescribed regulations. Outlines considerations for the determination of such regulations by the Secretary of Defense. Prohibits any reduction during any month in which there is no eligible spouse or former spouse beneficiary. Requires the amount of the reduction to be adjusted whenever there is an adjustment to the reduction in retired pay for beneficiary coverage under the original SBP. Directs the President to prescribe regulations to implement the SSBP.

Revises the annuity computation for the survivors of certain retirement-eligible officers who die while on active duty, making such an officer's retired pay rate the rate of pay applicable at the time of death. Defines those persons eligible for such recomputation.

Authorizes an eligible retired or former member of the armed forces to participate in the SBP during an open enrollment period. Allows such person, at the same time, to also elect to participate in the SSBP. Defines as eligible a person who on the day before the first day of the open enrollment period is not a participant in the SBP and is either entitled to retired pay or would be so entitled but for the fact that such member or former member is under 60 years of age (for reserve members or former members). Allows a person who is a participant in the SBP but not at the maximum base amount while providing coverage for a dependent child but not for a spouse or former spouse to: (1) elect to participate in the SBP at a higher amount; or (2) elect to provide an annuity under the SBP for a spouse or former spouse.

Authorizes current SBP participants to elect to participate in the SSBP during the open enrollment period. Outlines those persons eligible to make such an election and sets limitations on eligibility for certain SBP participants not affected by the two-tier annuity computation (a computation that differentiates in the annuity amount depending on whether the annuitant has attained the age of 65). Requires any SSBP election to be made in writing, signed by the person making the election, and received by the Secretary concerned before the end of the open enrollment period. Defines the open enrollment period as the one-year period beginning on the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989. States that if a person dies before the end of a two-year period after making such an election, the election is void and the amount of reduction in retired pay taken as a result of such election shall be paid in a lump sum to the person's beneficiary under the SBP.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the educational assistance allowance for persons in the armed forces with a critical skill or speciality.

Authorizes the use of funds appropriated to DOD to pay for student meals provided by DOD overseas dependents' schools. Outlines limits to such authority.

Authorizes a reduction in the rates for meals sold in military dining facilities if the Secretary concerned determines that such rate reduction is in the best interest of the United States.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to pay a uniform allowance for any civilian DOD employee required to wear a prescribed uniform for the performance of official duties.

Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees a legislative proposal for an accidental death insurance plan for aviators serving on active duty.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should: (1) establish a commission to study the reasons for shortages of qualified aviators in both the armed forces and in the commercial airline industry and the means for eliminating such shortages; (2) include representatives from both the commercial airline industry and the armed forces on such commission; and (3) appoint members of such commission no later than February 15, 1990. Requires the commission to report the results of its study to the President and the Congress no later than March 1, 1991, together with recommendations.

Title VII: Department of Defense Management Matters - Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress regarding actions taken and to be taken by the Secretary to implement a report from the Secretary to the President entitled Defense Management.

Earmarks specified funds appropriated to DOD for FY 1990 for the establishment of a fund under the management of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to cover specified expenses of a unified or specified combatant command in performing its various duties and functions.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 to reduce the period before termination of a limitation on the alert status of any Air National Guard unit to 30 days after a certain report on the subject is transmitted to the Congress by the Secretary (currently, 180 days after such report).

Establishes the position of Comptroller of DOD at level III of the Executive Schedule. Establishes the positions of the General Counsels of the military departments and the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Financial Management at level IV of the Executive Schedule.

Title VIII: Acquisition Policy and Management - Part A: Defense Industrial and Technology Base - Requires the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy to establish a panel of experts in advanced technology to prepare and submit to the President a report identifying the product technologies and process technologies most essential to develop in order to assure the long-term national security and economic prosperity of the United States. Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to enter into agreements with specified entities for research and development identified in the report as essential.

Requires the Secretary to submit to the defense committees a plan for developing the technologies considered by the Secretary and the Secretary of Energy to be the technologies most critical to ensure the long-term qualitative superiority of U.S. weapons systems.

Directs the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition to report to the defense committees on actions taken toward the improvement of the defense industrial base of the United States. Requires the Under Secretary to analyze the ability of the defense industrial base to fulfill the national security needs of the United States.

Requires the Secretary of Defense, in the negotiation of any memorandum of understanding between the United States and one or more foreign countries relating to research, development, or production of defense equipment, to regularly solicit comments and recommendations from the Secretary of Commerce with respect to the commercial implications of such memoranda on the international competitive position of U.S. industry. Outlines memorandum review requirements and other limitations. Requires the Secretary of Defense, in the negotiation of such memoranda relating to the reciprocal procurement of defense equipment and supplies or research and development, to make every effort to achieve an agreement with the country concerned that would limit the adverse effects that offset arrangements have on the defense industrial base of the United States.

Part B: Acquisition Policy Initiatives - Changes the title of senior procurement executive to senior service acquisition executive, for purposes of the defense acquisition process. Adds the concept demonstration validation stage as one of the stages to be considered for milestone authorizations within defense enterprise programs.

Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees a discussion of all regulatory reform actions taken or planned in DOD on the basis of experience under the defense enterprise programs.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations governing the acquisition of commercial products. Outlines provisions, regarding such acquisition, relating to contract and subcontract clauses, modified inspection clauses and warranties, cost and pricing data requirements, the training of contract officers in the acquisition of nondevelopmental items, and encouraging the acquisition of nondevelopmental items. Directs the Secretary to implement such regulations and contract clauses within 270 days after enactment of this Act.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe a single, uniform regulation for DOD regarding dissemination of, and access to, acquisition information.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a test program for the use of simplified procedures in the competitive awarding of a DOD contract for the procurement of property or services on the basis of design or technical quality factors. Outlines conditions under which the Secretary of a military department or a defense agency head may award a contract for the procurement of such services, as well as conditions under which such Secretary or agency head may award a contract for the procurement of commercial products under the test program. Outlines the length of the test program. Requires the Secretary to designate organizations within DOD that will participate in the program. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the test program.

Revises Federal provisions concerning unit cost reports contained in Selected Acquisition Reports concerning defense procurement contracts as managed by program managers for major defense programs. Requires the service acquisition executive (currently, the Secretary concerned) to receive and tabulate information from such unit cost reports and Selected Acquisition Reports. Requires the Secretary concerned to take certain steps when the current program acquisition units costs have increased by more than 15 percent with regard to a major defense acquisition program. Requires notification to the Congress when such increases exceed 25 percent.

Requires justification by a specified senior procurement executive for a defense procurement contract for between $10,000,000 and $50,000,000 to be awarded without the use of competitive procedures. Limits the positions to which such justification authority may be delegated.

Requires the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation to ensure that a contractor does not assist in the test and evaluation of a weapons system if the contractor participated in the development, production, or testing of such weapon for any military department or defense agency unless the Director determines that sufficient steps have been taken to ensure the impartiality of the contractor in providing such assistance.

Requires the Secretary to conduct a test program under which the Secretaries of the military departments and the heads of the defense agencies may enter into master agreements for the procurement of advisory and assistance services. Outlines provisions concerning the scope of the program, the contents and awarding of the master agreements, the orders for specific advisory or assistance services, publication of notice, and limitations with respect to the commencement and termination of the test program.

Directs the Secretary to establish a test program under which one contracting activity in each military department and defense agency is authorized to undertake one or more demonstration projects to determine whether the negotiation and administration of small business subcontracting plans will result in simplified administration of the small business subcontracting opportunities provided for small businesses under DOD contracts. Outlines administrative provisions, including contents for small business subcontracting plans. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense and small business committees on the results of the test program.

Revises provisions of the Small Business Act to waive the requirement that a contracting officer refer a determination of responsibility of a small business to the Small Business Administration when a proposed contract is of a limited amount.

Requires the Secretary to ensure that the DOD quality assurance program is managed in a manner that will result in the production of the highest quality weapon systems, both at the initial acquisition stage and during repair and maintenance of fielded weapon systems. Outlines the structure of such program.

Earmarks specified FY 1990 and 1991 DOD operation and maintenance funds for carrying out cooperative technical assistance agreements. Sets aside certain funds for eligible entities under such cooperative agreement program. Provides certain funding limitations with respect to such assistance in the case of programs operated within one or more service areas of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Requires the Secretary to make certain revisions in the DOD Supplement to the Federal Acquisition Regulation with respect to certain fixed-price contracts awarded by DOD.

Authorizes the Secretary and the Secretary of a military department to obtain defense procurement products from Federal Prison Industries (FPI) only under specified conditions. Prohibits any Secretary from accepting a product from FPI if its price exceeds the current market price of such product.

Provides that credit in meeting certain minority subcontracting goals outlined under current Federal law shall be given to a contractor for each DOD contract that is to be performed on Indian lands or is a joint venture involving Indians or Indian lands. Defines contracts, subcontracts, and joint ventures eligible for such recognition, as well as the amount of credit to be given such contract or venture toward achieving such minority subcontracting goal.

Directs the Secretary to direct the Secretary of each military department to identify, in each of FY 1990 and 1991, not less than ten construction projects that are suitable for participation in the Minority Small Business and Capital Ownership Development Program of the Small Business Administration (SBA) and to make use of certain authority provided in the Small Business Act in the award of contracts in connection with each such project.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that an important consideration in DOD procurement should be whether such procurement is from a person of any country that denies adequate and effective protection of intellectual property rights or fair and equitable market access to U.S. persons that rely on intellectual property protection.

Part C: Acquisition Workforce - Requires, within two years after the enactment of this Act, demonstration programs using alternative compensation systems to be implemented by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and: (1) the head of the National Security Agency, Central Intelligence Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, or General Accounting Office; (2) the Secretary of Defense; or (3) the Administrator of NASA, whichever is appropriate. Requires no less than six and no more than ten demonstration projects to be conducted using such alternative compensation systems. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the number of programs to be undertaken by each official and the number of employees to participate in each program, and action to be taken if a demonstration program involves a collective bargaining system. Requires OPM, the Secretary, and the Administrator, with respect to each demonstration project conducted, to develop and publish in the Federal Register an information gathering plan with regard to such alternative compensation system demonstrated, and to notify affected employees and the Congress at least 90 days before implementation of such system. Provides for termination of each demonstration program. Outlines conditions under which the Secretary, the Administrator, or an agency head may permanently implement an alternative personnel compensation system previously demonstrated.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to prescribe the rates of pay for up to 500 positions designated by the Secretary as critical.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations to govern discussions of future employment opportunities of procurement officials of DOD (post-employment restrictions). Outlines provisions concerning: (1) authorized discussions of possible future employment opportunities with a competing contractor by a covered procurement official; and (2) the request of advice by an employee or former employee of DOD from the appropriate designated agency ethics official as to whether such employee or former employee is precluded from participating in the performance of a particular contract on behalf of a particular contractor or subcontractor.

Authorizes the Secretary to waive a certain prohibition against the receipt of dual compensation for not more than 1,000 DOD employees who are in scientific, engineering, professorial, or management positions designated as critical positions by the Secretary.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary should take all necessary actions to promote and encourage, at all educational levels, an increase in the number of U.S. citizens and nationals who pursue courses of study in science, engineering, and other technical disciplines.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations for the award of fellowships to U.S. citizens and nationals who agree to pursue graduate degrees in science, engineering, or other fields of study designated by the Secretary to be of priority interest to DOD. Outlines fellowship award conditions. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991.

Title IX: General Provisions - Authorizes the Secretary, as necessary for the national interest, to transfer amounts of authorizations made available to DOD in titles I through III between any such authorizations for that fiscal year. Limits the total amount that may be so transferred. Requires the Secretary to notify the Congress promptly of any such transfers made.

Limits the total amount authorized to be appropriated for FY 1990 and 1991 for military personnel and operations and maintenance. Places certain limitations upon DOD relating to the restoration of withdrawn unobligated balances.

Directs the President to report to the defense and intelligence committees on the types of measures that would be required to verify effectively the proposal for conventional arms reductions in Europe adopted by member nations of NATO in May, 1989. Commends the President's conventional arms initiatives announced on such date. Directs the President to report to the Congress on the foreign policy and military implications to NATO and the Warsaw Pact of significant reductions of conventional forces by NATO and Warsaw Pact countries to a ceiling which is the same for both sides.

Directs the President to report to the defense committees on the desirability of an agreement to impose limitations on anti-satellite capabilities.

Establishes a Commission on National Service to conduct a thorough study of the need for, and desirability and disadvantages of, a national service program (a program which includes both military and civilian community service). Requires the Commission to report to the President and the Congress on its findings and recommendations. Specifies information to be included in such report if the Commission recommends the establishment of a national service program. Terminates such Commission 120 days after its report is received.

Extends through FY 1991 certain authority provided to the Secretary of Defense in connection with the NATO Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS) program.

Revises certain provisions relating to the authority to enter into bilateral and multilateral arrangements for the procurement of communications support and related supplies and services from U.S.-allied countries.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to: (1) extend through FY 1994 the authority to use excess defense articles for the modernization of the defense capabilities of countries situated on the southern flank of NATO; and (2) prohibit the President from providing for the attendance of foreign military personnel without charge at the U.S. Army Russian Institute in West Germany.

Authorizes the payment of travel and similar expenses for travel to Canada and Mexico in connection with bilateral and regional cooperation programs.

Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to admit temporarily workers entering this country in order to perform services as part of a governmental program of cooperative research, development, or coproduction projects.

Increases from $10,000 to $100,000 the amount of an admiralty claim against the United States that may be settled by the Secretary of the military department concerned without certifying such payment to the Congress.

Authorizes the Secretary to procure services for the publication of the History of the Office of the Secretary of Defense through the Government Printing Office.

Directs the President to conduct and report to the Congress on a study of export financing of defense articles.

Prohibits the transfer of nuclear warheads or chemical munitions by DOD in exchange for supplies and services or other property the acquisition of which is prohibited by law.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on the Trident missile program and the Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty (START). Outlines issues to be addressed in such report. Waives such reporting requirement if the President has signed such a treaty or other agreement with the Soviet Union for the reduction of strategic arms.

Condemns the execution of American Lieutenant Colonel William R. Higgins. Urges the President to take all appropriate action to determine the identity of those responsible and bring them to justice or take appropriate retaliatory measures. Declares that: (1) the United States should make it clear to Iran's leadership that the United States will not tolerate actions supporting terrorist groups; (2) the United Nations Secretary General should ensure that Mr. Higgins or his remains are returned to the United States; and (3) the President should consult with other nations to ensure international cooperation and coordination to end terrorist attacks.

Extends the date under the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 for the receipt of certain reports on the manpower required to control the transfer of missile technology and certain weapons. Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees concerning the manpower required to implement export controls on certain nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons transfers.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the Secretary should direct the SDI Organization to give priority to the development of technologies and systems for protecting the United States from the accidential launch of a strategic ballistic missile against the continental United States; (2) such development should be done in compliance with the 1972 ABM Treaty; and (3) the Secretary should report to the Congress on the development of such an accidental launch protection system.

Reaffirms that service in the National Guard and Reserve is in the highest traditions of military service to the country. Acknowledges the valuable contributions made by men and women in such service. Encourages such participation in the future. Supports the National Guard and Reserve as part of the total U.S. force.

Directs the President to submit to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and, in some cases, the chairmen of the Senate and House Intelligence Committees a report on Government studies of U.S. capabilities to monitor and verify a START Treaty which allows mobile ICBMs. Expresses the sense of the Senate that any agreement negotiated to achieve a reduction and limitation on strategic arms: (1) should not prevent the United States from deploying a force structure under an agreement which emphasizes survivable strategic systems; and (2) should not prohibit or limit the deployment of non-nuclear cruise missiles.

Provides authority for any appropriate Government agency aircraft to fire upon an aircraft subject to seizure or examination for the illegal transportation of narcotics, after firing a warning shot and instructing such aircraft to land for inspection. Provides indemnification from liability for Government persons taking such action.

Requires the Senate Judiciary Committee to hold appropriate hearings and report back to the Senate on the legislative intent of provisions concerning the forfeiture and disqualification of active and retired officers from armed forces retirement pay and on whether remedial legislation as it affects the case of Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North is warranted.

Earmarks certain previously authorized but unobligated funds for carrying out during FY 1990 the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988.

Directs the Comptroller General to report to the defense committees on the International Military Education and Training Program.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that previous cooperation that existed between State and local law enforcement officials and Federal agencies participating in the National Narcotics Border Interdiction System should be continued and enhanced by the Director of the Office of National Drug Policy.

Directs the On-Site Inspection Agency (an arms control verification agency of DOD) to establish a database of prospective personnel that could be called upon to conduct onsite inspections pursuant to any future arms control agreement.

Directs the Secretary to review a report made by the Secretary of Commerce on the foreign availability of certain personal computers and report to specified congressional committees concerning such review.

Calls on the President to urge the Soviet Union to reduce its reliance on nuclear reactors in Earth orbit. Directs the President to report to the Congress on the potential for interference with gamma-ray astronomy missions that could be caused by the placement in earth orbit of space nuclear reactors presently under development by the United States.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on the current and planned administrative mechanisms to coordinate information within the executive branch concerning administrative and judicial actions taken as the result of fraudulent activities practiced by defense contractors.

Directs the Secretary of each military department to ensure that meat and meat products sold in commissary stores, or served in DOD dining facilities, located in any member country of the European Community are produced and processed in the United States. Urges each Secretary to intensify efforts to procure all products for such commissaries and dining facilities from U.S. sources.

Directs the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of Energy to report to the defense and intelligence committees on verification procedures for the dismantling of nuclear warheads, as well as fissile material monitoring.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to submit a baseline report to the defense committees on allied defense burdensharing in Europe (the ratio of the number of U.S. troops serving in European NATO countries to the number of troops of other NATO members serving in such countries). Directs the Secretary, if the U.S.-allied troop ratio for a fiscal year exceeds the ratio in the baseline report by more than one percent, to direct the President to initiate diplomatic initiatives to increase participation of NATO troops in such defense. Prohibits the obligation of DOD funds to support U.S. troops exceeding the baseline ratio by more than one percent. Authorizes the President to waive such requirements in the interest of national security, as long as the Congress is promptly notified.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) Japan should assume increased responsibility for its security; (2) Japan should offset the direct costs incurred by the United States in deploying military forces for the defense of Japan; and (3) Japan should assume a more significant security role consistent with its economic status by taking specified actions, including increasing spending for its Official Development Assistance program to areas outside East Asia, completing a five-year defense plan, and purchasing military equipment from the United States. Directs the President to: (1) enter into negotiations toward an agreement whereby Japan agrees to make contributions equal to the direct cost of deploying U.S. troops for its defense; and (2) report to the Congress on the status and results of such negotiations.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a study of, and report to the Congress on, options available to DOD to reduce costs associated with maintaining overseas large numbers of military dependents and dependents of civilian employees of DOD.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the United States should reassess the missions, force structure, and locations of its military forces in South Korea and East Asia; (2) South Korea should assume increased responsibility for its security; (3) South Korea should offset more of the direct costs incurred by the United States in deploying military forces there; and (4) the United States and South Korea should consult on the feasibility and desirability of partial, gradual reductions of U.S. military forces in such country. Requires reports from the President to the Congress and the defense committees concerning such subject, including a submission of a five-year plan with respect to the U.S. military presence in South Korea.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that: (1) the President should seek a START treaty that would not limit the U.S. to levels of intercontinental strategic forces inferior to those of the Soviet Union; (2) the success of attaining such a treaty is dependent upon the maintenance of a vigorous research, development, and modernization program; and (3) no action should be taken that will obligate the United States to disarm, reduce, or limit its armed forces, except pursuant to the treatymaking power of the President.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that: (1) it is not prudent or possible at this time to commit to the production of B-2 aircraft other than under the low-rate initial production plan; (2) the contingent authorization of funds under this Act for such production does not constitute a commitment to support the procurement of large numbers of such aircraft or to approve multiyear procurement of such aircraft; and (3) prior to commitment to rate production of such aircraft, the President and the Congress should carefully consider the feasibility and desirability of placing primary strategic air reliance on aircraft on bombers carrying cruise missiles and procuring fewer B-2 aircraft to reduce the total acquisition and life cycle cost of the B-2 program.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the Secretary and the Director of Central Intelligence shall report to the defense and intelligence committees on efforts to locate and obtain the release of American hostages in Lebanon.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should continue the development of the joint services V-22 Osprey program and carry out the comprehensive review of the potential military and civilian uses of such aircraft.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on the number of members of the armed forces who have dependents who are eligible for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits, including information on dependents who lose their eligibility as a consequence of member reassignment to duty outside the United States.

Title X: Panama Canal Commission - Authorizes the Panama Canal Commission to make such expenditures, contracts, and commitments as may be necessary for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the Panama Canal for FY 1990 and 1991, with certain conditions. Requires the Commission to provide written advance notification to the defense and merchant marine and fisheries committees regarding certain rates, payments, and projects associated with the operation and maintenance of the Canal. Authorizes funds for pay increases of officers and employees of the Commission as administratively authorized.

Title XI: Drug Interdiction and Law Enforcement Support - Earmarks specified DOD funds for the purpose of carrying out drug interdiction and law enforcement support activities. Directs the Secretary to provide guidance to the Secretaries of the military departments and commanders of the combatant commands on force levels and support resources necessary to fulfill the responsibilities of DOD as the single lead agency for the detection and monitoring of aerial and maritime transit of illegal drugs into the United States. Provides funding to carry out such responsibilities. Directs the Secretary to integrate into an effective communications network the command, control, communications, and technical assets of the United States that are dedicated to drug interdiction in the United States. Provides funding for such integration activities.

Directs the Secretary to provide to the Governor of each State which submits a plan for the use of its National Guard for drug interdiction assistance reimbursement for the expenses incurred by such State in providing such assistance. Provides funding for such reimbursement. Excludes members of the National Guard providing such services from inclusion in Federal armed forces end-strength computations.

Requires the Secretary to be responsible during FY 1990 for the maintenance and repair of equipment that has been made available by DOD to other Federal agencies for its use in antidrug efforts or because of potential future utility of such equipment to DOD. Provides funding for such maintenance and repair.

Requires the Secretary to ensure that adequate research and development activities of DOD are devoted to technologies concerned with the detection of illicit drugs and other dangerous and illegal substances concealed in containers. Provides funding for such specific research and development.

Requires the Secretary to pay for expenses incurred by the Civil Air Patrol in conducting drug surveillance flights for the detection and monitoring of the transportation of illegal drugs into the United States. Provides funding for the payment of such expenses. Directs the Secretary, under specified conditions, to transport personnel, supplies, and equipment within the United States and from the United States to a foreign country for the purpose of providing counter-drug operation assistance by the United States or a friendly foreign country. Provides funding for such transportation.

Directs the Secretary to authorize the National Guard to loan any equipment to any Federal or State law enforcement agency for use by such agency in carrying out drug enforcement activities. Requires the Secretary to maintain, repair, and restore any equipment loaned. Provides funding for the loan of such equipment.

Authorizes the Secretary to transfer to Federal and State law enforcement agenices such excess personal property of DOD as the Secretary determines suitable for use by Federal and State agencies in counter-drug activities.

Title XII: Military Child Care - Directs the Secretary to make available specified funds appropriated by this Act for military child development centers (facilities on military installations used primarily for the provision of child care for members of the armed forces). Requires the Secretary to give priority to increasing the number of child care employees who are directly involved in providing child care and to expanding the availability of child care for such members. Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the use of child care funds.

Directs the Secretary to establish, and prescribe regulations to implement, a uniform training program for child care employees as a condition of employment. Outlines training requirements to be included in such regulations. Requires the Secretary to increase the compensation of child care employees so that their compensation is comparable to other employees at the same installation. Requires at least one employee at each military child development center to be a training and curriculum child care employee, with appropriate educational credentials and child care experience.

Directs the Secretary to provide a preference in hiring for child care employees for military spouses, if such spouses are among those determined to be best qualified for such positions. Adds 3,700 new child development competitive service positions for FY 1990 and 1991, in addition to those authorized for FY 1989.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations on fees to be charged to parents for the attendance of children at military child development centers.

Directs the Secretary to establish a special task force to respond in the case of allegations of widespread child abuse at a military child development center. Directs the Secretary to establish and publicize a national telephone hotline for persons to report suspected child abuse or safety violations at a military child development center or family day care home. Requires assistance from local authorities when appropriate. Directs the Secretary to prescribe or require: (1) safety regulations at military child development centers; and (2) inspections of each facility at least four times a year. Outlines remedies for violations by military child development centers of any laws or regulations. Directs the Secretary to study, and report to the Congress on, areas of interdepartmental concern in military child care.

Directs the Secretary to require the establishment of parent boards and parent participation programs at each military child development center. Directs the Secretary to submit a report and plan to the Congress on demand for child care by military and civilian personnel in the armed forces over a specified five-year period.

Directs the Secretary to ensure that at 15 percent of all military child development centers are accredited by an appropriate national early childhood accrediting body by January 1, 1991. Requires the Secretary to obtain an independent evaluation of the programs provided for by such child development centers. Requires the Secretary to report the results of such evaluation to the Congress, together with a plan for providing all necessary regulations required for the establishment of such centers.

Division B: Military Construction Authorizations - Title XXI (sic): Army - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units, to carry out architectural and engineering services and construction design, and to improve existing military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Army for fiscal years beginning after FY 1989 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title. Extends certain FY 1985-1988 military construction projects.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Army for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Title XXII: Navy - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units, to carry out architectural and engineering services and construction design, and to improve existing military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Navy for fiscal years beginning after FY 1989 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title. Extends certain prior-year military construction projects.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1989 to increase the amount authorized under such Act for the construction of a community support center at the Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, California. Authorizes the Secretary to use funds paid to the United States in settlement of certain litigation proceedings solely for the construction of military family housing at such Air Station.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Navy for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units, to carry out architectural and engineering services and construction design, and to improve existing military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Air Force for fiscal years beginning after FY 1989 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title. Extends certain FY 1986-1988 military construction projects. Authorizes the Secretary to make a grant to the Douglas School District, South Dakota, for the construction of a school at Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specifed amounts at specified installations and locations.

Authorizes appropriations to the Air Force for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within the Department. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 to increase the amount authorized for a military construction project at the Arnold Engineering Development Center, provided DOD validates the requirement for the Large Rocket Test Facility.

Title XXIV: Defense Agencies - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations. Authorizes the Secretary to construct or acquire military family housing units and to improve existing military family housing units in specified amounts at specified installations.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1987 to extend through FY 1990 the authority of the Secretary to carry out military construction projects not otherwise authorized by law for conforming storage facilities.

Authorizes appropriations to the defense agencies for fiscal years beginning after FY 1989 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within DOD. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Authorizes the Secretary to contract for the design and construction of military construction projects for the Portsmouth Naval Hospital, Virginia, and Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada, under certain conditions.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1989 to increase the amount authorized for the construction of a certain medical facility at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Extends certain FY 1987 and 1988 military construction projects.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1987 to extend through FY 1991 the authority of the Secretary to carry out military construction projects not otherwise authorized by law for conforming storage facilities.

Authorizes appropriations to the defense agencies for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within DOD. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Title XXV: North Atlantic Treaty Organization Infrastructure - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to make contributions for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Infrastructure Program. Authorizes appropriations to the Secretary for fiscal years after 1989 for such contributions.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary to make contributions for the NATO Infrastructure Program. Authorizes appropriations to the Secretary for fiscal years after 1990 for such contributions.

Title XXVI: Guard and Reserve Forces Facilities - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes appropriations for fiscal years after 1989 for acquisition, architectural and engineering services, and construction of facilities for the Guard and Reserve forces in specified amounts.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes appropriations for fiscal years after 1990 for acquisition, architectural and engineering services, and construction of facilities for the Guard and Reserve forces in specified amounts.

Title XXVII: Expiration of Authorizations - Terminates all authorizations contained in titles XXI through XXV of this Division on October 1, 1991, or the date of enactment of an Act authorizing funds for military construction for fiscal year 1992, whichever is later, with specified exceptions.

Title XXVIII: General Provisions - Part A: Military Construction Program Changes - Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1984 to provide that a contract assuring the occupancy of rental housing owned by DOD may: (1) provide that utilities, trash collection, snow removal, and entomological services will be furnished by the Government to the same extent that such services are provided to other occupants of government-owned housing; and (2) require that rent collection and the operation and maintenance of the housing be accomplished through the use of separate agreements or the use of Government personnel.

Increases the leasing and the high-cost threshold amounts for military family housing as contained in Federal armed forces law.

Adds potable waste water treatment services to the authorized uses of long-term defense facilities contracts. Extends through FY 1991 the authority of the Secretary concerned to enter into all such contracts.

Waives a certain per-unit expenditure limitation for improvements to military family housing units for three units for each military department if done to make the unit suitable for habitation by a handicapped person. Place a maximum improvement-cost limitation on any such unit.

Authorizes the Secretaries of the Navy and the Air Force to enter into contracts for a specified increased number of leased family housing units. Authorizes the use of such contracts through FY 1991.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to use one-step turn-key selection procedures to enter into contracts for the construction of authorized military construction projects. (Currently, the Secretaries may use such procedures only with the approval of the Secretary of Defense.) Authorizes the use of such procedures through FY 1991.

Revises Federal provisions concerning the authorized cost variations for a military construction project or for the construction, improvement, or acquisition of a military family housing project.

Provides that certain defense contract limitations shall not apply to the acquisition of military construction projects or family housing projects obtained through governments of NATO subsidiary bodies for elements of the armed forces deployed in Europe and adjacent waters.

Increases the amount authorized to be expended for minor military construction projects not otherwise authorized by law.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to enter into a lease for a facility on or near a military installation for the provision of the following activities or services: (1) administrative office space; (2) troop housing; (3) energy production facilities; (4) potable and waste water treatment facilities; (5) hospital and medical facilities; (6) transient quarters; and (7) depot or storage facilities. Outlines lease provisions and conditions, including a congressional notice requirement.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to transfer certain funds to the Homeowners Assistance Fund, Defense, as determined necessary to extend homeowners assistance benefits to eligible homeowners.

Part B: Land Transactions - Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to convey all right, title, and interest to a parcel of real property located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, comprising the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Center in Pittsburgh, under specified terms and conditions.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1988 and 1989 to revise provisions concerning the sale of land and replacement of facilities at the Kapalama Military Reservation, Hawaii.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to convey all right, title, and interest of the United States to certain land near Fort Knox, Kentucky, using competitive bidding procedures. Directs the Secretary to use the proceeds from such sale for the construction of additional family housing units at Fort Knox.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to: (1) sell and convey all right, title, and interest of the United States to specified real property comprising the Public Works Center, Great Lakes, Illinois; and (2) use the proceeds from such sale to construct additional military family housing units at the Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois, under specified terms and conditions.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to modify the reversionary interest of the United States in specified real property conveyed to the Port of Benton, Washington, to permit a donation of real property to Washington State University for the establishment of a university branch on the donated land, under specified terms and conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to convey to Hudson County, New Jersey, all right, title, and interest of the United States to a portion of the Naval Reserve Center, Kearney, New Jersey in order to provide additional motor vehicle parking facilities for such Center.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to convey a portion of Fort Belvoir, Virginia, known as the Engineering Proving Ground to any grantee for the construction of such facilities and improvements as may be specified by the Secretary under an agreement concerning such conveyance. Requires the Secretary to submit any such agreement to the defense committees and wait 21 days before taking any action under such agreement.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to convey to the State of Georgia all right, title, and interest of the United States to a parcel of real property at Fort Gillem, Georgia, for use by the State for the administration of the Georgia Department of Defense, the Georgia National Guard, and other military activities.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to convey to the State of Hawaii all right, title, and interest of the United States to certain real property located on Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii, under specified terms and conditions.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to release to the State of Minnesota all reversionary interests of the United States over a specified parcel of land in such State known as Area J, under specified terms and conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to acquire a depot operations logistics facility at Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma, under certain terms and conditions.

Requires the Secretary of the Army to report to the defense committees on the feasibility of conveying to the State of Delaware a parcel of property known as the Fort Meade Recreation Area.

Part C: Miscellaneous Provisions - Transfers to the Secretary of Defense jurisdiction, custody, and control of the operation and maintenance of the Pentagon office building and its related facilities with parking grounds (known as the Pentagon Reservation). Authorizes the Secretary to appoint military or civilian personnel or contract employees to perform law enforcement and security functions for the Reservation. Authorizes the Secretary to promulgate all necessary rules and regulations to ensure the safe, efficient, and secure operation of the Reservation. Provides fines and penalties for violations of such rules and regulations.

Authorizes the Secretary to enter into cooperative agreements with public or private entities willing to match Federal funds or efforts to maintain and improve natural resources or to benefit natural and historic research on DOD installations.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to: (1) design and construct a multipurpose facility at Henderson Hall, Arlington, Virginia; (2) accept from the Navy Mutual Aid Association reimbursement for all costs of the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of such facility; and (3) lease to the Association at no cost approximately one-third of the square footage of the facility to be constructed. Outlines terms and conditions to such lease.

Transfers from the Secretary of Defense to the Secretary of Energy jurisdiction and control of certain real property at Sandia, New Mexico, for use by the Department of Energy in providing a location for the Center for National Security and Arms Control.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to reimburse specified amounts to the Lake Charles Harbor and Terminal District, Lake Charles, Louisiana, for certain costs associated with the closing of a naval homeporting base at Lake Charles. Requires the Secretary to convey to such District the land constituting the proposed Lake Charles Navy Homeport, Louisiana.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to ensure that all information relating to environmental restoration activities of DOD required to be provided to the EPA and other appropriate State and local authorities is expeditiously provided. Requires the Secretary to ensure that all DOD environmental contamination plans and assessments are carried out in accordance with applicable Federal law. Directs the Administrator of EPA to submit to the Secretary and the appropriate congressional committees comments with regard to any assessment, plan, or other action taken by DOD in the areas of environmental contamination or restoration. Requires the Secretary to install systems to monitor any potential environmental contamination at any DOD facility conducting environmental restoration activities to ensure that there is no release of contamination that will pose a risk to public health.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a study of the feasibility of selling or otherwise transferring to the Commonwealth of Virginia or a subdivision thereof a parcel of land from a military installation in such State suitable as a site for a medium security correctional facility for persons sentenced in Virginia courts. Requires the study results to be reported to the defense committees.

Division C: Other National Defense Authorizations - Title XXXI (sic): Department of Energy National Security Programs - Part A: National Security Programs Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations to the Department of Energy (DOE) for FY 1990 for operating expenses incurred and for plant and capital equipment necessary in carrying out national security programs in the following areas: (1) weapons activities; (2) defense nuclear materials production; (3) verification and control technology; (4) nuclear materials safeguards and security technology development program; (5) security investigations; (6) new production reactors; (7) naval reactors development; and (8) capital equipment not related to construction. Places special funding limitations for DOE for FY 1990 for the following programs and projects: (1) SDI; (2) inertial confinement fusion; (3) special isotope separation; and (4) Lance Warhead follow-on.

Part B: Recurring General Provisions - Prohibits the use of funds appropriated pursuant to this title for: (1) the costs of a program exceeding 105 percent of the program authorization or $10,000,000 more than the amount authorized, whichever is the lesser; or (2) programs which have not been presented to, or requested of, the Congress, unless the Secretary of Energy transmits to the appropriate committees a full and complete statement of the action proposed and 30 days have elapsed since such statement was submitted.

Prohibits the total funds obligated pursuant to this title from exceeding the total amount authorized to be appropriated by this title.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to carry out any general plant project only if the maximum estimated cost of the project does not exceed $1,200,000. Requires reports to specified committees by the Secretary when the costs exceed such amount.

Sets forth procedures for the approval of projects which exceed by more than 25 percent their estimated cost or authorized amount. Exempts from such procedures any projects which have an estimated cost of less than $5,000,000.

Allows for the transfer of funds from specified projects to other Government agencies for the performance of work for which the funds were appropriated.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to transfer to the Secretary of Energy specified FY 1990 DOD research and development funds for the performance of work on SDI.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to perform advance planning and construction design services in connection with any proposed construction project if the total estimated cost for such services does not exceed $2,000,000. Authorizes the Secretary to notify specified congressional committees whenever the estimated cost of such planning and design exceeds $300,000. Requires specific authorization by law whenever such estimated costs exceed $2,000,000.

Authorizes the Secretary to perform emergency construction planning and design in order to meet the needs of national defense or to protect property or human life.

Makes funds appropriated for management and support activities and for general plant projects under this title available for all national security programs of DOE.

Part C: Defense Energy Technology Transfer - Department of Energy National Competitiveness Technology Transfer Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary of Energy, within 180 days after enactment of this Act, to: (1) review all existing laws, regulations, guidelines, and administrative procedures associated with DOE's ability to accomplish a national competitiveness mission (the transfer of technology gained at DOE facilities to the U.S. private sector in order to establish national security and industrial base strength goals); (2) confer with representatives of U.S. industry and labor, educational institutions, and contracting parties with respect to the implementation of a national competitiveness mission; (3) advise the Congress of any existing legal obstacles interfering with DOE's ability to achieve such mission; and (4) publish a comprehensive set of policy guidelines, procedures, and supporting regulations to effectuate the purposes of this part. Requires cooperative arrangements between private parties and contractor-managers of DOE research and development facilities to be reviewed, concurred in, modified, or rejected in an expeditious manner. Outlines certain national security and other principles to be followed by the Secretary in attempting to achieve the national competitiveness mission. Requires the benefits of technology transfer resulting from such mission to accrue to U.S. industry. Requires entities owned or controlled by a foreign government or entity to be separately considered in light of national security objectives. Requires the Secretary to establish an explicit policy and procedure to govern a contractor-manager's use of Government resources for the national competitiveness mission, as well as for royalties, receipts, and other income resulting from such cooperative arrangements. Requires appropriate rights to be acquired for intellectual property acquired by the contractor-manager, private parties, or their successors-in-interest to assure commercial utilization of technology developed under cooperative arrangements. Requires the Secretary and contractor-managers to continually confer concerning such cooperative arrangements to assure progress toward achieving the national competitiveness mission.

Requires each contractor-manager, beginning after the inclusion in a contract of the national competitiveness mission, to identify in writing in advance of its use in a contemplated cooperative arrangement any particular inventions conceived or reduced to practice and specific technical data or computer software first produced by the contractor-manager in the performance of program missions under its contract. Authorizes the Secretary to designate special circumstance technologies or inventions the title for which shall vest in the United States in the same manner as exceptional circumstance determinations under current Federal law. Limits the authority of the Secretary to make such designations. Outlines other provisions with respect to the disposal of title to other inventions or technologies made or discovered within the course of such cooperative arrangement contracts. Requires the Secretary, with respect to specific technical data or computer software determined to have near-term commercial value and to be necessary for the commercialization of technology to be developed under cooperative arrangements, to include in such cooperative arrangement the specific intellectual property rights to such data or software. Requires, in such case, that such data or software not be disclosed by the Government to any third party, with a specified exception relating to national security or a related reason. Extends such property rights for up to six years after their discovery, after which time the Government shall have full rights to such property.

Provides that the rights to any inventions conceived or first actually reduced to practice by a collaborating party in a cooperative arrangement shall be agreed to by the parties to the arrangement, subject to regulations and to the Government's license (to practice on behalf of the United States) to that invention. Provides, with respect to technical data or software first produced under such an arrangement which the Secretary determines to have near-term commercial value and to be necessary for the commercialization of technology to be developed under the arrangement, that such data or software may not be disclosed by the Government to any third party (with the same national security-related exceptions). Extends such property rights for up to six years after discovery, after which time the Government shall have full rights to such data or software. Provides oversight of this part's provisions by the Secretary, the Inspector General of DOE, and the Comptroller General. Exempts the United States and the contractor managers from liability for injury or damage due to a defect in a product or process produced or a service performed by a collaborating party or its licensees or assigns that embodies technology developed under a cooperative arrangement under this part.

Part D: Miscellaneous Provisions - Amends the Department of Defense Authorization Act, 1985 to require the Secretaries of Energy and Defense to jointly report to the Congress concerning the production of the 155-millimeter artillery-fired automatic projectile.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to designate not more than 25 positions in DOE as critical positions. Terminates such designation authority three years after enactment of this Act. Outlines provisions concerning the rates of pay for positions designated as critical. Authorizes the Secretary to designate not more than 250 positions in DOE as special scientific, engineering, and managerial positions.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, 1986 to provide equal participation of the Secretary of Defense with the Secretary in the nuclear test ban readiness program outlined under such Act.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to make necessary payments, and earmarks funds, for a Rocky Flats, Colorado, decontamination and cleanup agreement entered into between DOE and the State of Colorado.

Requires the Secretary of Energy, not later than 120 days before a DOE defense nuclear facility ceases all production and processing operations, to report to the defense committees on the training and job placement services needed to enable former employees of such facility to obtain employment in the environmental remediation and cleanup activities at such facility. Requires DOE, upon cessation of productive operations, to report to the Congress on environmental problems at the facility, cleanup costs, and the proposed cleanup schedule.

Amends the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to authorize the Department of Energy to ensure that investment in research and development in the military application of atomic energy results in the development of civilian applications for, and commercialization of, advanced technology through appropriate transfers of federally owned or originated technology to State and local governments, private industry, and educational and nonprofit institutions.

Part E: Environment, Safety, and Management - Authorizes appropriations to DOE for FY 1990 for environmental restoration and management of defense waste and transportation in specified amounts at specified locations.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to report to the defense and appropriations committees at the end of each calendar quarter on each major DOE national security program (a program that is either designated by the Secretary as a major DOE national security program or that is estimated by the Secretary to cost more than $500,000,000). Outlines report information requirements, including a description of the program, its purpose, and its schedule and cost. Requires the Secretary to identify to such committees all programs of DOE that are major national security programs. Directs the Secretary to prepare and submit to such committees a five-year budget plan for national security programs of DOE.

Directs the Secretary to establish and carry out a program for the supervision, direction, and coordination of all research activities of DOE for the development of technologies useful for the reduction of environmental hazards and contamination resulting from defense waste and the environmental restoration of inactive defense waste disposal sites. Requires the Secretary to carry out such program through a program manager. Requires the Secretary to coordinate such research program with the research activities of the EPA relating to the same matter. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on such activities.

Directs the President to establish a Blue Ribbon Task Group on Environmental Restoration and Defense Waste Management to examine the procedures used in establishing requirements, providing necessary resources, planning, and implementing plans with respect to defense waste management and environmental restoration at DOE facilities that conduct atomic energy defense activities. Requires various reports from the President and the Task Group with respect to the membership, activities, and recommendations of the Task Group.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to establish and implement a management training program for DOE personnel involved in the management of atomic energy defense activities.

Amends the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to authorize the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to: (1) provide for the safe storage, processing, transportation, and disposal of hazardous waste resulting from nuclear materials and weapons production and naval nuclear propulsion programs; and (2) carry out research and development of technologies needed for the negotiation and verification of international agreements on control of special nuclear materials and nuclear weapons.

Title XXXII: Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for the establishment and operation of the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board.

Requires a report from the Secretary of Defense to the defense and veterans' committees identifying the number of individuals who participated in radiation-risk activities while serving in some capacity in the armed forces, but who are not covered under provisions of the Atomic Veterans Act.

Title XXXIII: National Defense Stockpile - Authorizes the President to make specified changes in quantities of materials to be acquired for the National Defense Stockpile (NDS) as provided under the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act. Authorizes the President, during FY 1990 and 1991, to use specified amounts from the National Defense Stockpile Transaction Fund for the purpose of stockpile acquisitions. Authorizes the President, during FY 1990 and 1991, to dispose of specified materials in the NDS that have been determined to be excess to the current requirements of the stockpile.

Title XXXIV: Civil Defense - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to carry out the Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950.

S. 1369 Sen. Nunn; 7/20/89

Authorizes appropriations to the Department of Energy for FY 1990 for environmental restoration and management of defense waste and transportation.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to: (1) report periodically to specified congressional committees regarding each major Department of Energy (DOE) national security program; and (2) identify all such programs for such committees.

Requires the Secretary to submit to the committees a five-year budget plan for DOE national security programs at the same time as the President submits the budget to the Congress.

Directs the Secretary to establish a defense waste cleanup technology program for: (1) the reduction of environmental hazards and contamination resulting from defense waste; and (2) environmental restoration of inactive defense waste disposal sites. Requires the Secretary to submit an annual status report to the Congress on such program.

Directs the President to establish a Blue Ribbon Task Group on Environmental Restoration and Defense Waste Management to examine and report to the President and the Congress regarding environmental restoration activities and defense waste management operations and disposal. Requires the President to report to certain congressional committees on the Task Force membership and a detailed plan for completing the Task Force's report to the Congress.

Directs the Secretary to establish a management training program for DOE personnel involved in the management of atomic energy defense activities.

Amends the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to authorize the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to: (1) provide for the safe disposition of hazardous waste resulting from nuclear materials activities; and (2) implement research and development of technologies needed for effective negotiation and verification of international agreements on control of special nuclear materials and weapons.

S. 1392 Sen. Kennedy, et al.; 7/24/89

Biomedical and Behavioral Research Act of 1989 - Title I: Scientific Personnel Demonstration Program - Amends the Public Health Service Act to authorize the Secretary of Health and Human Services to establish a Senior Biomedical Scientific Service. Requires that: (1) members of the Service be appointed by the Secretary without regard to provisions of Federal law relating to Government organization and employees; (2) the Service be limited to 800 individuals; and (3) members of the Service be outstanding in the field of biomedical research, behavioral research, or clinical research evaluation.

Declares that provisions of Federal law relating to retention preference, performance appraisal and performance-based actions, classification, General Schedule pay rates, and adverse actions shall not apply to any member of the Service.

Requires that members of the Service be assigned by the Secretary to duties directly involving biomedical research, behavioral research, or clinical research evaluation, or to supervision of such activities.

Authorizes the Secretary to determine the basic and supplemental pay of Service members. Sets forth limits on supplemental pay.

Provides for retirement of individuals who enter the Service directly from a position as a commissioned officer in the Public Health Service Corps.

Requires that the Service be administered in such a manner that, in FY 1990, it does not result in additional appropriations for the Department of Health and Human Services.

Terminates the Service five years after it attains full membership.

Amends provisions of Federal law relating to physicians comparability allowances to include physicians and dentists in the Senior Biomedical Scientific Service in the definition of "Government physician" for purposes of such provisions.

Title II: Physician's Comparability Allowance - Amends the Public Health Service Act to provide that the positions of the Assistant Secretary for Health, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Health, the heads of the Public Health Services agencies, and other positions compensated under the Executive Schedule, when employed as physicians, shall be defined as "Government physicians" for purposes of eligibility for physicians comparability allowances.

Title III: National Center for Medical Rehabilitation Research - Amends the Public Health Service Act to declare that the purpose of the National Center for Medical Rehabilitation Research (Center) is to conduct biomedical research and research training, the dissemination of information, and other programs with respect to the rehabilitation of individuals with physical disabilities resulting from diseases or disorders of the neurological, musculoskeletal, cardiovascular, or other physiologic systems (medical rehabilitation).

Requires the Director of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) to develop a comprehensive plan for the conduct and support of medical rehabilitation research. Requires the Director to establish the Medical Rehabilitation Coordinating Committee to make recommendations with regard to the plan.

Requires establishment of the Medical Rehabilitation Advisory Council to assist and make recommendations to the NIH Director and the Center Director.

Title IV: NIH Director's Discretionary Fund - Amends the Public Health Service Act to authorize the Director of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) to retain a specified percentage of the amount appropriated for extramural grants, up to a specified amount in each fiscal year, in an account for the purchase or rental of equipment and space for research that cannot otherwise be supported adequately because of funding cycle constraints or because the research does not fit clearly into the research assignment of any existing Institute. Provides for the reversion of remaining funds to individual Institutes at the end of each fiscal year.

S. 1426 Sen. Dodd, et al.; 7/27/89

Domestic Volunteer Service Act Amendments of 1989 - Title I: National Volunteer Antipoverty Programs - Amends the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973 (the Act) to increase the amounts to be used for publicity, recruitment, and assignment under the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) program.

Requires the Director of the ACTION Agency (the Director) to appoint a national Administrator of Recruitment and Placement (the Administrator) for VISTA, and to hire appropriate support staff. Revises VISTA publicity, recruitment, application, and assignment procedures.

Requires the Administrator to undertake specified recruitment, publicity, and information activities, and to coordinate them with those of the Peace Corps. Includes among such activities publicizing student loan deferment and forgiveness opportunities available to volunteers. Requires attempts to involve former volunteers in information dissemination activities.

Requires the Administrator to provide VISTA volunteers assignments which, to the maximum extent practicable, are consistent with their abilities, experiences, and preferences, and with the needs and preferences of the projects or programs. Requires the Director, whenever feasible and appropriate, to assign low-income community volunteers to serve in their home communities in teams with nationally recruited specialist volunteers. Requires the Director to: (1) try to assign volunteers to serve in their homes or nearby communities; and (2) make national efforts to attract other individuals to serve in VISTA. Requires the Director to consider: (1) community-identified needs which cannot be met in the local area; and (2) individual volunteer desires with regard to geographic placement. Allows a sponsoring organization to recruit VISTA volunteers. Directs the Administrator to give such locally-recruited volunteers priority for placements in the sponsoring organization that recruited them.

Requires the Director to ensure that, of all VISTA volunteers: (1) at least 20 percent are age 55 or older; and (2) by FY 1991, at least 20 percent are age 18 through 27.

Raises the maximum monthly stipend for VISTA volunteers from $75 to $100. Requires the Director to: (1) set a subsistence allowance for VISTA volunteers so that the the average allowance is no less than 105 percent of the poverty line (reflecting higher costs-of-living in certain areas); and (2) report to appropriate congressional committees on methods for setting such allowances.

Prohibits termination of VISTA assistance to any project or organization solely on the basis of the duration of assistance previously received. Requires case-by-case consideration of renewal applications, taking into account extenuating circumstances preventing attainment of original goals. Requires that new applications from organizations previously receiving assistance be considered on an equal basis with those that have not received assistance, if the proposed project is clearly distinct from the previously assisted activities. Prohibits taking duration of assistance into account in considering applications from intermediary organizations.

Title II: Service-Learning Programs - Renames the Service-Learning Programs under the Act as the Student Community Service Programs.

Title III: Special Volunteer Programs - Limits the amount of any grant or contract under the Special Volunteer Programs.

Renames certain Special Initiatives as Drug Abuse Education and Prevention Services and Activities. Requires the Director to give priority, in awarding grants and contracts for such activities, to projects that serve communities, including those in rural areas, which have not previously received Special Volunteer Programs assistance for drug abuse education and prevention. Requires the Director to provide for evaluation of activities and projects conducted with assistance under such provisions. Requires applications for such grants in excess of a specified amount to include data on the use of such funds.

Title IV: Administration and Coordination - Requires the Director to submit to the Congress within 60 days after the start of each fiscal year a report, which includes descriptions of: (1) the annual VISTA recruitment plan; (2) VISTA activities and number of applicants, applicants approved, applicants assigned, and volunteers assigned outside of their home communities; (3) efforts made to involve former volunteers in recruitment and public awareness; and (4) number and location of ACTION Agency employees assigned to VISTA recruitment and public awareness duties.

Requires the Director to evaluate the VISTA Literacy Corps as a separate program at least once every three years.

Title V: Older American Volunteer Program - Amends title II (Older American Volunteer Programs) of the Act with respect to the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, the Foster Grandparent Program, and the Senior Companion Program.

Requires the Director to establish, within each National Older American Volunteer Program, grants to support activities that address national problems on a local level. Sets forth award criteria and grant uses. Gives grant priority to activities assisting: (1) those with chronic debilitating illnesses such as AIDS; (2) drug and alcohol abuse prevention and treatment; (3) teenage parents; (4) mentoring of youth needing guidance; (5) adult and school-based literacy; (6) respite care; (7) before and after-school programs serving children of working parents; (8) boarder babies; (9) child care, especially of children with special needs; (10) developmentally disabled adult individuals (and, when appropriate, involvement of such individuals as volunteers); and (11) volunteer tutoring of educationally disadvantaged children in basic skills on a one-to-one basis. Limits funding of such grants to those years when program funding is increased by a specified amount.

Increases the amount of stipends or allowances under the Foster Grandparent Program. Revises provisions relating to individuals who are not low-income persons serving as volunteers without stipends under such program. Prohibits the Director from coercing any volunteer applicant or grant or contract recipient to engage in specified conduct with respect to such unpaid volunteer positions.

Requires the Director to encourage and facilitate: (1) private organizational efforts to promote National Older American Volunteer Programs; and (2) involvement of older persons as volunteers in such programs. Requires the Director to expend specified funds for special efforts to publicize such programs, including notifying grant and contract recipients of all available information.

Title VI: General Provisions - Includes among authorized VISTA volunteer assignments work in addressing significant health care problems, including chronic and life-threatening illnesses and health care for homeless individuals, especially homeless children, through prevention, treatment, and community-based care activities.

Requires the Director to ensure that records are maintained to indicate the degree of compliance with a requirement that certain funds for the VISTA Literacy Corps supplement and not supplant other specified funds to address the problem of illiteracy.

Makes a technical amendment relating to the loyalty oath or affirmation required of VISTA volunteers.

Requires the Director to notify specified congressional committees when more than 16 percent of VISTA funds must be obligated for grants and contracts which directly support volunteers.

Authorizes the Director to provide: (1) technical and financial assistance to nonprofit organizations conducting operations in several areas and States for activities addressing the problem of illiteracy; and (2) technical assistance to employers who have established or wish to establish worksite literacy volunteer programs.

Requires the Director to: (1) make appropriate cost-of-living adjustments in Federal financial assistance to meet administrative costs of applicants under National Older American Volunteer Programs; and (2) report to specified congressional committees on such adjustments.

Authorizes the Director to approve multiple-year grants or contracts for projects.

Amends the Human Services Reauthorization Act of 1986 to revise the Community Services Block Grant Program with respect to partnership agreements addressing the needs of the poor. Directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services annually to: (1) identify new programs for replication; and (2) evaluate and report to specified congressional committees on programs funded under this Act.

Title VII: Authorization of Appropriations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for the following National Volunteer Antipoverty Programs: (1) the VISTA volunteer program; (2) the VISTA Literacy Corps; (3) Service-Learning programs; and (4) Special Volunteer programs.

Requires necessary amounts to be available for increasing numbers of years of VISTA volunteer service for FY 1990 through 1993.

Requires the Director to give a reasonable period of advance notice to the relevant congressional committees upon determination that a reallocation is necessary because of insufficient appropriations to carry out VISTA programs. Requires that such reallocation be made from funds for Special Volunteer programs before reallocation from other parts of title I of the Act.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for administration of the Act.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 through 1993 for the following National Older American Volunteer Programs: (1) the Retired Senior Volunteer Program; (2) the Foster Grandparent Program; and (3) the Senior Companion Program.

Title VIII: Technical Amendments - Makes technical amendments to the table of contents, headings, and other provisions of the Act.

Title IX: Effective Date - Sets forth the effective date of this Act and the amendments it makes.

Disaster Assistance Act of 1989 - Title I: Emergency Crop Loss Assistance - Subtitle A: Annual Crops - Extends disaster crop loss assistance through the 1989 crop year for wheat, feed grains, cotton, rice, peanuts, sugar, tobacco, soybeans, and other nonprogram crops.

Extends crop quality reduction disaster assistance through the 1989 crop year.

Reduces disaster assistance payments in relation to Federal crop insurance payments.

Requires the Secretary of Agriculture to announce within a specified time the conditions for establishing a 1989 farm yield for forage-use-crops.

Limits assistance under this Act to $100,000.

Authorizes the Secretary to determine a de minimis yield for each crop eligible for reduced yield disaster payments under this Act.

Reduces disaster payments by a replacement crop's value.

Authorizes the substitution of crop insurance program yields for assigned farm yields for 1989 disaster assistance eligibility purposes.

Subtitle B: Orchards - Provides disaster assistance (up to $25,000 or an equivalent value in seedlings) to orchardists who suffered tree losses as a result of 1989 freeze or related condition.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that Federal crop insurance should be made available to all orchard crops.

Subtitle C: Additional Assistance - Prohibits the Secretary from reducing rental payments to an owner or operator who hays or grazes livestock during the 1989 crop year on land subject to a conservation reserve program contract to the extent that such owner or operator carries out and pays for specified additional conservation practices.

Subtitle D: Administrative Provisions - Makes a person with qualifying annual gross income (as defined by this Act) in excess of $2,000,000 ineligible for assistance under this Act.

Requires assistance applications to be made by March 31, 1990, or such later date as the Secretary may prescribe.

Authorizes separate calculation of commodities produced on dry and irrigated lands for purposes of disaster assistance eligibility.

Title II: Emergency Livestock Assistance - Amends the Agricultural Act of 1949 to authorize the use of Commodity Credit Corporation stored grain for emergency livestock assistance.

Title III: Disaster Credit and Forbearance - Makes producers who suffered 1989 crop losses eligible for emergency loans even if they had crop insurance.

Directs the Secretary to make 1990 direct and guaranteed farm operating loans (including funds from the Agricultural Credit Insurance Fund) available to producers who suffered 1989 crop losses (1988 or 1989 for drought losses).

Authorizes unpaid principal reductions for certain agricultural loans made to Indian tribes.

Title IV: Rural Businesses - Directs the Secretary to provide loan guarantees through the Rural Development Insurance Fund to rural business enterprises (including Indian tribes) which have suffered disaster damage in 1988 or 1989.

Limits: (1) individual guarantees to the lesser of 90 percent of principal and interest or $500,000; and (2) aggregate guarantees to $200,000,000.

Title V: Water-Related Assistance - Amends the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act to direct the Secretary to establish an emergency water assistance grant program for rural and small communities (less than 5,000 population, median household income not more than State nonmetropolitan level) with significant water shortages, or to enable such communities to comply with the requirements of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act or the Safe Drinking Water Act. Obligates at least 75 percent of program funds for rural communities of less than 3,000 persons.

Limits grants to: (1) $75,000 for existing system repairs; and (2) $500,000 for water shortage areas. Authorizes FY 1990 and 1991 appropriations.

Amends the Agricultural Credit Act of 1978 to authorize livestock water assistance activities.

Amends the Disaster Assistance Act of 1988 to authorize disaster assistance for watershed protection activities. Authorizes appropriations.

Title VI: General Provisions - Amends the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 to reduce the obligation of a handler to export peanuts by a specified shrinkage value.

S. 1430 Sen. Kennedy, et al.; 7/27/89

National and Community Service Act of 1989 - Title I: School Based Community Service - Part A: School Based Community Service - Serve America, the Service to America Act of 1989 - Authorizes the Secretary of Education (the Secretary) to make grants to States or local applicants to create or expand service opportunities for students and out-of-school youth and for community members, particularly senior citizens, to volunteer in schools.

Limits the term of such grants to three years.

Authorizes the Secretary to fund: (1) one or more national or regional clearinghouses on service; (2) national model youth service programs; and (3) development of innovative curriculum materials for use in student community service programs and school volunteer and partnership programs.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1995.

Part B: Higher Education - Amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA) to revise and rename a certain program Innovative Projects for Community Service. Provides that grants for innovative projects are to encourage student participation in community service activities before, during, or after the completion of the student's higher education.

Authorizes the Secretary to appoint a limited number of technical employees to administer Postsecondary Improvement Programs.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1995 for grants for innovative projects for community service.

Part C: State Student Incentive Grant and Work Study Programs - Amends HEA provisions relating to grants for State student incentives to direct the Secretary to make an additional reservation and allotment of funds for campus-based community work learning study jobs whenever appropriations exceed a specified amount.

Amends HEA provisions for Work Study Programs to: (1) decrease the maximum Federal share of compensation of students employed in the work study program from 70 percent to 60 percent for academic year 1992-1993; and (2) increase the maximum Federal share of compensation of students employed in the work study for community service-learning programs from 90 percent to 100 percent.

Part D: Publication - Amends HEA provisions for the direct (Perkins) and guaranteed (Stafford) student loan programs to require publicizing of the current loan repayment deferral program for full-time volunteers with the Peace Corps, VISTA, and tax-exempt organizations.

Requires informing students of this deferral program option in their exit counseling. Requires the Secretary of Education to: (1) provide students with specified information on the deferral program; and (2) gather data on loan deferrals and cancellations for such volunteers.

Part E: Direct Loans to Students in Institutions of Higher Education - Amends HEA provisions for the direct (Perkins) student loan program to provide for partial loan cancellation for full-time volunteer service with a tax-exempt organization. (Current law provides for such partial cancellation for service in the Peace Corps or VISTA.)

Part F: Loan Forgiveness - Amends HEA provisions for the guaranteed (Stafford) student loan program to provide for partial loan cancellation for service in the Peace Corps or VISTA or for comparable full-time service as a volunteer with a tax-exempt organization.

Title II: Youth Service Corps - American Conservation and Youth Service Corps Act of 1989 - Authorizes the National Service Board (the Board, established under title IV of this Act) to provide grants to State and local applicants to create or expand full-time or summer youth service corps programs. Sets forth provisions for grant duration and renewal, allocation of funds, and State and local applications. Sets forth authorized project for conservation corps programs and for human services corps programs. Sets forth ineligible service categories.

Encourages use of program services by related programs administered under the authority of the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

Directs the Board to: (1) fund only programs that involve projects on public lands or Indian lands or provide a public benefit; and (2) consult with the Department of the Interior in reviewing applications proposing programs or projects on public lands or Indian lands.

Requires program agencies to provide to participants: (1) in-service training and education; and (2) post-service education and training assistance.

Limits enrollment in programs under this title to individuals who at the time of enrollment are: (1) 16 through 25 years of age (15 through 21 for summer programs); and (2) U.S. citizens or nationals or lawful permanent resident aliens.

Requires program agencies to provide post-service education and training benefits in specified amounts for each participant.

Excludes such amounts from gross income for specified purposes of the Internal Revenue Code. Authorizes the program agency to provide certain services. Requires the program agency to provide necessary job guidance and placement information and assistance to participants, in coordination with other appropriate entities.

Requires that each participant in a full-time youth service corps program receive a living allowance and health insurance.

Authorizes the Board to develop regulations and standards for joint projects coordinating activities under this title with activities under employment and training programs administered by the Department of Labor (including the Job Training Partnership Act programs).

Makes participants, crew leaders, and volunteers responsible to, and the responsibility of, the program agency administering the project. Provides that participants and crew leaders shall not be considered Federal employees, except for purposes of work-related injuries, tort claims procedure, and allowances for quarters.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1995 to carry out this title.

Title III: National Service Demonstration Program - National and Community Service Demonstration Act - Directs the National Service Board, not later than one year from the date of enactment of this title, to make grants to States to create full-time and part-time national service demonstration programs.

Limits authorization to exercise an alternative voucher option to no more than 25 percent of the States. Requires that at least 25 percent of funded programs include full-time, part-time, and special senior service participants. Limits the number of States authorized to operate full-time or part-time programs in specified fiscal years.

Requires program participants to perform national service to meet unmet educational, human, environmental, and public safety needs, especially those relating to poverty. Sets forth various authorized types of such national service.

Requires part-time volunteers to agree to serve for: (1) at least three years but not more than six years, at the individual's discretion; and (2) two weekends a month and two weeks during the year, or an average of nine hours per week. Requires full-time volunteers to agree to serve for: (1) at least one year but not more than two years, at the individual's discretion; and (2) at least 40 hours per week. Requires special senior service participants to serve either part-time or full-time as allowed by the Board. Authorizes the Board to provide a participant with a portion of specified financial assistance if the State releases the participant from completion of service for compelling personal circumstances.

Allows individuals to serve part-time if they are: (1) age 17 or over; and (2) U.S. citizens or lawful permanent U.S. residents. Requires States, in selecting part-time participants, to give priority to applicants who are currently employed. Allows individuals to serve full-time if they: (1) are age 17 or over; (2) have received a high school diploma or equivalent, or agree to work toward it while participating; and (3) are U.S. citizens or lawful permanent U.S. residents. Allows individuals to serve as special senior service members if they: (1) are age 60 or over; and (2) meet eligibility criteria established by the Board.

Directs the Board to provide to each participant annually a nontransferable voucher equal to: (1) $3,000 for each year of part-time service; and (2) $8,500 for each year of full-time service. Makes special senior service participants ineligible for such vouchers. Limits use of such vouchers to payment of: (1) a student loan; (2) downpayment or closing costs for a first home; or (3) tuition at an institution of higher education on a full-time basis, or expenses of full-time participation in an approved apprenticeship program. Allows some States to apply to the Board for authorization to offer an alternative option limiting voucher use to either those education or those housing purposes. Excludes such vouchers from gross income for specified Internal Revenue Code purposes.

Requires that each full-time participant receive a living allowance and health insurance. Requires that each full-time special senior service participant receive an equivalent living allowance and such other assistance as the Board considers necessary and appropriate.

Requires that each participant receive three weeks of specified training conducted by the Board in cooperation with the State. Authorizes States to provide additional training. Requires that each participant receive additional training from the sponsoring organization in relevant skills.

Sets forth prohibited and allowable uses of Federal funds.

Directs the Board to develop opportunities for cooperation between public and private entities in the funding and execution of a program under this title, including cost-sharing arrangements with sponsoring organizations.

Requires each State receiving funds under this title to provide to each full-time participant in-service educational services and materials to enable such participant to obtain a high school diploma or equivalent.

Sets forth provisions relating to the treatment of such vouchers or living allowances for purposes of certain student aid determinations under the Higher Education Act of 1965.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1995 to carry out this title.

Title IV: Corporation for National Service - Establishes the Corporation for National Service (the Corporation), as a nonprofit corporation that shall not be considered an agency or establishment of the U.S. Government.

Declares that the Corporation shall be directed by a National Service Board consisting of members appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Directs the Corporation, pursuant to title III of this Act, to: (1) issue housing and education vouchers; and (2) establish living allowances, taking account of variations in the cost of living.

Requires each State receiving funds under specified provisions of this Act to report annually to the Board on the status of national and community youth service programs in that State and on compliance with specified nonduplication and nondisplacement requirements. Authorizes States to require local grantees to supply necessary information for such reports. Requires the Board to report annually to specified congressional committees.

Requires each State applying for funds under titles IA, II, or III of this Act to form a State Advisory Board for National and Community Service, with members appointed by the Governor. Sets forth State board duties, including coordinating service programs with related programs, disseminating information, recruiting participants, and developing materials and activities.

Directs the National Board to provide for continuing evaluation of programs assisted under titles II and III of this Act. Sets a deadline for the evaluation of title III programs' effectiveness in reaching specified objectives.

Directs the Board to: (1) administer programs under titles II and III; (2) provide training and technical assistance; (3) provide one or more service information clearinghouses; (4) consult with appropriate Federal agencies; and (5) arrange for program evaluation.

Authorizes the President to make Presidential Awards for service to: (1) individuals demonstrating outstanding community service; and (2) outstanding service programs. Authorizes one individual award and one program award in each congressional district, and one statewide program award in each State. Provides for dissemination of information on such individuals and programs.

Directs the President to design a comprehensive Federal service strategy including specified elements.

Prohibits a State from engaging a participant to serve in any program funded under this Act unless and until Federal funds have been appropriated for vouchers and other necessary costs associated with such participant in such fiscal year in such State.

Title V: Expansion of Volunteers in Service to America - VISTA Expansion Act of 1989 - Amends the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973 to authorize appropriations increasing amounts for FY 1990 through 1993 for the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) program.

Title VI: National Older Americans Volunteer Programs - National Older American Volunteer Programs Expansion Act of 1989 - Amends the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973 to require the Director of the ACTION Agency to establish, within each National Older American Volunteer Program, grants to support activities that address national problems on a local level. Sets forth award criteria and grant uses. Gives grant priority for activities assisting: (1) those with chronic debilitating illnesses such as AIDS: (2) drug and alcohol abuse prevention and treatment; (3) teenage parents; (4) mentoring of youth needing guidance; (5) adult and school-based literacy; (6) respite care; (7) before and after-school programs serving children of working parents; (8) boarder babies; (9) child care, especially of children with special needs; and (10) developmentally disabled adult individuals (and, when appropriate, involvement of such individuals as volunteers). Limits funding of such grants to those years when program funding is increased by a specified amount.

Authorizes appropriations in increasing amounts for FY 1990 through 1993 for: (1) the Retired Senior Volunteer Program; (2) the Foster Grandparent Program; and (3) the Senior Companion Program.

10-27-89 Reported to Senate from the Committee on Labor and Human Resources with amendment, S. Rept. 101-176

S. 1437 Sen. Nunn; 7/31/89

Requires the Secretary of Defense to submit to the House and Senate defense and appropriations committees a baseline report showing: (1) a breakdown of the end strength levels of members of the U.S. armed forces, the allied forces, and the armed forces of each member nation of NATO assigned to permanent duty ashore in European member nations of NATO for FY 1989; and (2) the baseline ratio of U.S. to allied forces.

Directs the Secretary to submit to such committees from 1991 through 1993 a report showing the end strength levels of U.S. and allied forces in the fiscal year in which the report is submitted, including: (1) data showing the U.S.-allied forces ratio for the preceding fiscal year; (2) a statement indicating whether there has been any change in the ratio since the preceding fiscal year and, if so, the amount of and reasons for the change; and (3) a discussion of any action taken in the preceding fiscal year to encourage the NATO allies to increase the number of allied forces and the results of any such action.

Specifies that if the Secretary determines on the basis of the baseline report that the U.S.-allied forces ratio for the preceding fiscal year is greater than the baseline ratio by more than one percentage point: (1) the President shall initiate appropriate diplomatic measures to persuade the NATO allies to increase their forces so that the ratio no longer exceeds the baseline ratio; and (2) Department of Defense funds may not be obligated or expended to support an end strength level of such U.S. forces for the following fiscal year in any number that would cause the U.S.-allied forces ratio in such fiscal year to exceed the baseline ratio by more than one percentage point.

Authorizes the President to waive such requirements if such action is critical to national security and he immediately notifies the Congress. Makes such requirements inapplicable in the event of a declaration of war, an armed attack on any NATO member, or the signing of a comprehensive arms reduction agreement.

Requires the Secretary of the Navy to report to specified congressional committees on current and projected Navy aircraft requirements.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to enter into contracts with U.S. citizens which allow such citizens to include or incorporate in their aircraft defense features which will ensure the interoperability of such aircraft with the Department of Defense (DOD) airlift system. Outlines contract terms and conditions.

Title II: Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation - Part A: Authorizations and Funding for Specific Programs - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for research, development, test, and evaluation (R&D funds) for the armed forces and the defense agencies.

Part B: Program Requirements, Restrictions, and Limitations - Earmarks specified R&D funds for research and development under the Balanced Technology Initiative program. Outlines administrative provisions concerning such funds. Requires the Secretary to report to certain congressional committees specified information concerning the Initiative.

Authorizes the Secretary, in carrying out advanced research projects through the Defense Advanced Research Project Agency, to enter into cooperative agreements and other transactions with any Federal, State, local, educational, or other entity. Requires the Secretary to report annually to the defense committees on any such agreements entered into during the prior fiscal year. Provides FY 1990 and 1991 funding for such cooperative agreements program.

Authorizes the Secretary to use procedures other than competitive procedures in awarding grants to colleges and universities for the conduct of research and development. Requires the Secretary to report semiannually to the defense committees on the use of competitive procedures for R&D contracts with colleges and universities.

Earmarks specified R&D funds for: (1) the integrated electric drive program; (2) the fast sealift technology development program; (3) the tactical oceanography program; (4) biodegradable materials research; and (5) the chemical weapons monitoring program. Prohibits any such funding from being used for Navy ship design. Increases by six months the time in which the Secretary must select a heavy truck system configured with a palletized loading system.

Part C: Strategic Defense Initiative - Earmarks specified R&D funds for the Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI). Specifies an amount to be used solely in connection with the construction of the National Test Bed project. Requires the Secretary to report to certain congressional committees on the allocation of funds appropriated for SDI for FY 1990. Requires the Secretary to submit annual reports to the Congress on the programs and projects that constitute SDI and on any other program or project relating to defense against ballistic missiles. Places specified limitations on the development and testing of anti-ballistic missile systems or components.

Earmarks specified FY 1990 and 1991 R&D funds for support of the medical free electron laser program.

Directs the Secretary, in coordination with the Central Intelligence Agency, to report to the Congress on the asymmetry in U.S. and Soviet near-term capabilities to deploy anti-ballistic missile defenses beyond those permitted under the 1972 ABM Treaty.

Part D: Strategic Programs - Earmarks specified FY 1990 and 1991 R&D funds for the Trident II missile program.

Directs the Secretary of the Air Force to transfer specified R&D funds to fund priority security improvements at the Kwajalein Test Range, on Kwajalein Island.

Amends the Goldwater-Nichols Department of Defense Reorganization Act of 1986 to restore certain reporting requirements under such Act relating to chemical and biological warfare agents.

Part E: Allied Cooperative Research and Development - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to enter into a memorandum of understanding (or other formal agreement) with one or more major allies of the United States for the purpose of conducting cooperative research and development projects on defense equipment and munitions. Outlines certain restrictions to be followed by the Secretary under such program. Directs the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition to prepare a formal arms cooperation opportunities document for review by the Defense Acquisition Board at its formal meetings. Requires the Under Secretary to report to certain congressional committees describing the purpose, status, funding, and schedules of cooperative agreements carried out under this provision. Requires the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of State, whenever they consider it necessary, to report to certain committees enumerating those countries to be added to or deleted from the list designated as major non-NATO allies for purposes of this section.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that DOD should perform more side-by-side testing of conventional defense equipment manufactured by the United States and other member nations of NATO. Authorizes the Deputy Director of Defense Research and Engineering to acquire specified items for such side-by-side testing. Requires the Deputy Director to report to certain congressional committees concerning funding and systems and munitions evaluated under such side-by-side testing program. Repeals specified inconsistent provisions of prior defense authorization acts.

Title III: Operation and Maintenance - Part A: Authorization of Appropriations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for operation and maintenance for the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Air Force, the defense agencies, the reserves, the National Guard, the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, the Court of Military Appeals, environmental restoration, the Goodwill Games (FY 1990 only), and for humanitarian assistance. Authorizes appropriations for unbudgeted increases in fuel costs, and unbudgeted increases as the result of inflation. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for working capital funds for the armed forces and the defense agencies. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for the Department of Defense Base Closure Account.

States as the purpose of the humanitarian assistance program to provide transportation and humanitarian relief for persons displaced or made refugees by the invasion of Afghanistan by the Soviet Union. Authorizes the Secretary to transfer funds to the Secretary for the purpose of providing such assistance. Requires transportation for such assistance, by the most economical means possible, to be under the direction of the Secretary of State. Requires reports concerning the provision of such assistance. Repeals prior reporting requirements.

Part B: Limitations - Repeals a provision of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 which limits the use of operation and maintenance funds for the purchase of investment items.

Prohibits the Secretary of the Navy from entering into a contract which would provide or permit joint use of the Marine Corps Aid Station, El Toro, California, with civil aviation.

Part C: Base Closure and Realignment Matters - Requires the Comptroller General to report to the Secretary and the defense committees on the methodology, findings, and recommendations of the Commission on Base Realignment and Closure.

Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the environmental contamination at the Jefferson Proving Ground, Indiana, resulting from activities of DOD.

Part D: Miscellaneous Reporting Requirements - Sets forth reporting requirements concerning: (1) military utilization of the inland navigation system; (2) long-range environmental challenges and goals of DOD; (3) the readiness of the armed forces in terms of manpower, mobility, sustainability, and equipment; and (4) the feasibility of restoring to the Secretary the responsibility for the administration of impact aid for schools affected by DOD activities.

Part F (sic): Miscellaneous Provisions - Revises a provision of the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 concerning authorized uses of first-year energy cost savings from incentives implemented by DOD. Requires the amount of such energy cost savings to be determined by the Secretary of the military department concerned at the end of each of the first five years (currently, only at the end of the first year).

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to purchase a railroad structure and temporary right-of-way for a rail line in Nevada for use in connection with the operation of the Hawthorne Army Ammunition Plant, Nevada.

Requires the Secretary of Defense to formulate and carry out a program to reduce the unnecessary release of chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs) and halons into the Atmosphere in connection with maintenance operations and training and testing practices of DOD. Outlines report requirements in connection with such program. Requires the Secretary to appoint a CFC Advisory Committee to study the use of CFCs by DOD and by contractors in the performance of contracts for DOD and the cost and feasibility of using alternative compounds and technologies in lieu of CFCs. Outlines reporting requirements.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to enter into a long-term lease for the provision of air transportation at Kwajalein Atoll, Republic of the Marshall Islands, under specified conditions.

Title IV: Military Personnel Authorizations For Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Part A: Active Forces - Authorizes end strengths for active-duty forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Prohibits the Secretary from reducing the number of active Army ground combat brigades assigned to the 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized) before December 1, 1990. Allows Army end strengths to be increased in order to maintain such prohibition. Reduces, temporarily, the number of colonels authorized for active duty for FY 1991.

Part B: Reserve Forces - Authorizes end strengths for reserve components of the armed forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Authorizes end strength reductions for the Selected Reserve components of the armed forces for each such fiscal year, as prescribed. Authorizes increases for each such fiscal year in the number of certain personnel authorized to be on active duty in support of the reserve forces. Reallocates the positions of two naval reserve officers serving in medical profession capacities.

Part C: Military Training - Authorizes the average military training student loads for FY 1990 and 1991. Provides for the adjustment of such student loads consistent with manpower strengths authorized under this Act.

Part D: Civilian Personnel - Repeals current Federal provisions concerning management constraints for DOD civilian personnel.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to accept voluntary services from an individual for work in a natural resources program.

Title V: Military Personnel - Part A: Matters Affecting the Reserve Components - Authorizes a person with no prior military service who is qualified for active-duty enlistment in the armed forces (regular) to be enlisted as a member of the reserves under a delayed entry program. Allows such person to be enlisted in a regular component of the armed forces within 365 days after enlistment in the reserves. Exempts members of the delayed entry program from otherwise applicable Ready Reserve training requirements. Prohibits the period of enlisted service under the delayed entry program form being counted as part of the years of service for the computation of the basic pay of a member.

Authorizes the Secretary to order a member of the Ready Reserve to muster duty one time each year without his consent. Authorize a member of the Ready Reserve who is not a member of the National Guard or of the Selected Reserve to be entitled to an allowance for such muster duty if engaged in such duty for at least two hours.

Repeals a provision of Federal law which allows a uniform and equipment reimbursement monthly for a reserve officer of the armed forces who has not become entitled to a uniform reimbursement or allowance as an officer for the preceding four years.

Extends through FY 1992 certain expiring authorities relating to the reserves.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for an enlisted member who is assigned to a high priority unit of the Selected Reserve and who performs inactive duty for training with such unit. Terminates such special assignment pay after FY 1991. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the administration of such special pay program.

Part B: Health Care Matters - Prohibits the Secretary, during FY 1990 and 1991, from charging for the receipt of outpatient medical or dental care at a military treatment facility.

Revises a provision concerning the limitation on payments made to noninstitutional health-care providers from the Secretary concerned under the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS). Authorizes the Secretary to increase the maximum amount of such payments whenever the Secretary of Health and Human Services increases the amount payable to providers of services under part B of title XVIII (Medicare) of the Social Security Act.

Authorizes the Secretary to require a private health-care provider which is also a health-care provider under CHAMPUS to provide such care under the same rules applicable under such program.

Authorizes the provision of specialized training as another benefit under the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. Allows a person participating in such specialized training, in addition to receiving a stipend under such Program, to be paid an annual grant of $15,000. Requires a pro rata refund of such grant amount from a peorson who voluntarily terminates the Program's specialized training.

Expands the type of loans qualifying for repayment by the Secretary concerned for health professionals who serve in the Selected Reserve as part of such loan repayment agreement, including any loan which was used to finance basic or advanced health professions education. Makes all members of the Ready Reserve (currently, only members of the Selected Reserve) eligible for such loan repayments and increases the yearly and total amount of such loan repayments. Repeals the current October 1, 1990, date for the termination of such loan repayments.

Revises the deadline for the use of diagnosis-related groups for outpatient treatment.

Increases from 67 to 68 the deferment age for retirement for regular commissioned officers of the armed forces.

Part C: Personnel Management - States the conditions under which the President may vacate a promotion to the grade of major through major general and lieutenant commander through rear admiral.

Directs the Secretary to reduce by the end of FY 1992 the number of nonoperational flying duty positions in the armed forces by five percent. Prohibits any increase in the number of such positions after FY 1991.

Outlines the minimum service requirement for certain flight crew positions.

Requires the Comptroller General to conduct a study, and report to the defense committees, on the aviator assignment policies and practices of the armed forces.

Part D: Total Force Policy - Directs the Secretary to convene a study group to review the operation and soundness of the Total Force Policy (the force mix in each of the military departments) of DOD and to make recommendations for the improvement of such Policy. Requires the Secretary to report the study group's results to the defense committees.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the service obligations for graduates of: (1) the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences; and (2) the service academies.

Revises the composition and term of members of the U.S. Court of Military Appeals. Revises provisions concerning: (1) the removal of judges from such Court; (2) incapacity of such judges; (3) service and pay of a senior judge of such Court; (4) the appointment and civil service status of legal staff of the Court; (5) retirement of judges of the Court; and (6) appellate review procedures of action taken by the Judge Advocate General under provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice. Directs the President to prescribe procedures for the investigation and disposition of charges, allegations, and information pertaining to the fitness of a military judge or military appellate judge to perform the duties of office. Requires such procedures to be transmittted to the defense committees.

Makes permanent the authority to make temporary promotions of certain Navy lieutenants.

Extends through October 1, 1992, the authority for a test program for the reimbursement to members of the armed forces of qualifying adoption expenses.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to require each applicant for enlistment or appointment to undergo drug and alcohol abuse testing before becoming a member of the armed forces.

Authorizes the the Secretary concerned to correct the military records of promotion of enlisted members if the Secretary considers such action necessary to correct an error or injustice.

Provides members of the National Guard, Reserves, retired military personnel, and civilian employees of DOD with the same relief from expenses incurred because of an error in the mandatory direct deposit of pay.

Provides for the awarding of the degree of Master of Arts in Leader Development.

Authorizes the Secretary to provide transportation to the next-of-kin of members of the armed forces who have been prisoners of war or missing in action as a result of service during the Vietnam era in order to attend an annual meeting of such families.

Revises certain procedures regarding the solicitation and award of contracts for postsecondary education services for members of the armed forces, civilian DOD employees, or the dependents of such members and employees.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to employ civilian faculty at the United States Marine Corps University.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to enter into contracts providing for the production and commercial sale of a certain recording made by the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra and the U.S. Air Force Singing Sergeants.

Title VI: Compensation and Other Personnel Benefits - Part A: Pay and Allowances - Waives the automatic adjustment authorized for military pay consistent with yearly increases in the GS Schedule of the Federal Government, authorizing instead a 3.6 percent increase in the rates of basic pay, basic allowance for Increases cadet and midshipman pay. Makes each such increase effective as of January 1, 1990.

Part B: Incentive Pay - Increases the flying duties required for an aviation officer to be entitled to aviation career incentive pay. Requires the President to increase such incentive pay by the percentage of any increase in basic pay. Authorizes the Secretary concerned to delay implementation of such increased flying duty when necessary to meet the needs of his department.

Extends through FY 1992 the aviator retention bonus program. Outlines certain reporting requirements under such program and limits the total obligations permitted for the Navy and Air Force during FY 1990 for the payment of such bonuses.

Increases the special pay for medical officers in the armed forces. Extends through FY 1990 the medical officer retention bonus program. Terminates such authority if a certain report is not made by a specified date.

Provides for the payment of special pay in the form of an accession bonus for registered nurses who agree within a specified period to accept a commission and perform duty as a registered nurse in the armed forces for not less than four years. Outlines certain limitations and conditions under such program.

Provides a nurse officer candidate accession bonus for individuals who execute a written agreement to accept an appointment as a nurse officer after completion of two years of a degree program in nursing and while enrolled as a full-time student in a nursing program in an institution that does not have a Senior Reserve Officers' Training Program. Outlines agreement terms. Requires a pro rata refund of any bonus paid when an individual fails to complete either the required period of education or the required period of military service after the completion of such education.

Authorizes the payment of special incentive pay for nurse anesthetists who execute a written agreement to remain on active duty for at least one year after their initial required period of duty. Outlines terms of such bonus pay. Requires refunds on a pro rata basis for agreed-upon time not successfully served. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the use of certified registered nurse anesthetists by the military departments.

Increases: (1) the special pay for reserve medical officers; and (2) the length and amount of the Selected Reserve reenlistment bonus program. Extends certain enlistment and reenlistment bonus authorities for reserve forces. Extends the bonus authority for certain nuclear career officer bonus programs.

Part C: Travel and Transportation - Authorizes a travel and transportation allowance for a member of the armed forces who is assigned to permanent duty aboard a ship that is undergoing construction away from the designated home port or away from the area where the dependents of the member are residing. Outlines terms and conditions for such allowances.

Authorizes reimbursement for parking fees, ferry fares, and tolls for any member of the armed forces entitled to general travel and transportation allowances.

Authorizes student travel allowances for dependents of members stationed outside the continental United States. Prohibits such allowance for dependents of members permanently stationed in Alaska or Hawaii for a child attending a school in the State of the permanent duty station.

Part D: Survivor Benefit Program - Revises the reduction in retired pay for participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan. Differentiates, in the level premium to be paid each month by participants in the Plan, as to whether the annuity being provided is a standard or reserve-component annuity and whether the person becomes an active participant in the Plan before or after the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989.

Directs the Secretary of the military department concerned to carry out a program, to be known as the Supplemental Survivor Benefit Plan (SSBP), which would enable participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) who are providing coverage for a spouse or former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to also provide a supplemental annuity for that spouse or former spouse beginning when the participant dies or when the spouse or former spouse becomes 62 years of age, whichever is later, in order to offset the effects of the two-tier annuity computation under the SBP. Outlines the following administrative provisions concerning the SSBP: (1) commencement of annuity; (2) the amount of such annuity for the beneficiary of a person providing the standard or the reserve-component annuity under the SBP (the latter annuity further defined by whether or not the beneficiary under the SSBP is initially under 62 years of age at the commencement of the annuity); and (3) adjustments in such annuities required by periodic adjustments in the cost-of-living index. Terminates a SSBP annuity when the beneficiary dies or otherwise becomes ineligible to continue to receive an annuity under the original SBP.

Allows a person who provides an annuity for a spouse or former spouse under the SBP to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under these provisions. Requires a person providing a supplemental spouse annuity to be a participant in the SBP in order to cover a spouse or former spouse under the SSBP. Requires such election to be voluntary. Allows a person to make such an election only if the beneficiary of such person's annuity is not currently computed under the determination of spouse or former spouse beneficiary annuity under the SBP. Allows a person who anticipates becoming a participant in the SBP who has a spouse or former spouse to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP. Outlines conditions and requirements for such an anticipatory election. Requires a person to actually provide a spouse or former spouse annuity under the SBP in order to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP.

Allows a person who elects to provide SBP coverage for a former spouse after having been an SBP participant without coverage for that former spouse to also provide a supplemental spouse annuity for such former spouse under the SSBP. Requires notice to a current spouse of a person providing coverage under the SBP and the SSBP to a former spouse. Provides for irrevocability after a specified period of time of the election to provide SSBP coverage under both a standard annuity and a reserve-component annuity.

Authorizes provision of a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions by a person who is a participant in the SBP and is providing coverage for a spouse (or spouse and child) but is not a participant in the SSBP, who does not have an eligible spouse under that Plan, and who remarries, thereby allowing such person to elect to provide such coverage for the former spouse. Requires the person to be under the SBP in order to make the election for such coverage under the SSBP. Outlines conditions for such an election. Outlines administrative guidelines to be followed: (1) when there is a change of a former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to a current spouse or child beneficiary under the SBP; and (2) upon reinstatement of an SSBP annuity after discontinuance of an SBP annuity and reinstatement of such annuity.

Requires a person who elects to provide a SSBP annuity to a former spouse to provide the Secretary concerned with a written statement as to whether the election being made is pursuant to a written agreement incident to a divorce, dissolution, or annullment that has been incorporated in, or ratified or approved by, a court order. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the enforcement of such voluntary written agreements ratified by a court order. Provides a time limit for the making of such an election of one year after the date of the court order or filing involved.

Directs the retired pay of a person electing to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions to be reduced each month as required under prescribed regulations. Outlines considerations for the determination of such regulations by the Secretary of Defense. Prohibits any reduction during any month in which there is no eligible spouse or former spouse beneficiary. Requires the amount of the reduction to be adjusted whenever there is an adjustment to the reduction in retired pay for beneficiary coverage under the original SBP. Directs the President to prescribe regulations to implement the SSBP.

Revises the annuity computation for the survivors of certain retirement-eligible officers who die while on active duty, making such an officer's retired pay rate the rate of pay applicable at the time of death. Defines those persons eligible for such recomputation.

Authorizes an eligible retired or former member of the armed forces to participate in the SBP during an open enrollment period. Allows such person, at the same time, to also elect to participate in the SSBP. Defines as eligible a person who on the day before the first day of the open enrollment period is not a participant in the SBP and is either entitled to retired pay or would be so entitled but for the fact that such member or former member is under 60 years of age (for reserve members or former members). Allows a person who is a participant in the SBP but not at the maximum base amount while providing coverage for a dependent child but not for a spouse or former spouse to: (1) elect to participate in the SBP at a higher amount; or (2) elect to provide an annuity under the SBP for a spouse or former spouse.

Authorizes current SBP participants to elect to participate in the SSBP during the open enrollment period. Outlines those persons eligible to make such an election and sets limitations on eligibility for certain SBP participants not affected by the two-tier annuity computation (a computation that differentiates in the annuity amount depending on whether the annuitant has attained the age of 65). Requires any SSBP election to be made in writing, signed by the person making the election, and received by the Secretary concerned before the end of the open enrollment period. Defines the open enrollment period as the one-year period beginning on the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989. States that if a person dies before the end of a two-year period after making such an election, the election is void and the amount of reduction in retired pay taken as a result of such election shall be paid in a lump sum to the person's beneficiary under the SBP.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the educational assistance allowance for persons in the armed forces with a critical skill or speciality.

Authorizes the use of funds appropriated to DOD to pay for student meals provided by DOD overseas dependents' schools. Outlines limits to such authority.

Authorizes a reduction in the rates for meals sold in military dining facilities if the Secretary concerned determines that such rate reduction is in the best interest of the United States.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to pay a uniform allowance for any civilian DOD employee required to wear a prescribed uniform for the performance of official duties.

Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees a legislative proposal for an accidental death insurance plan for aviators serving on active duty.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should: (1) establish a commission to study the reasons for shortages of qualified aviators in both the armed forces and in the commercial airline industry and the means for eliminating such shortages; (2) include representatives from both the commercial airline industry and the armed forces on such commission; and (3) appoint members to such commission no later than February 15, 1990. Requires the commission to report the results of its study to the President and the Congress no later than March 1, 1991, together with recommendations.

Title VII: Department of Defense Management Matters - Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress regarding actions taken and to be taken by the Secretary to implement a report from the Secretary to the President entitled Defense Management.

Earmarks specified funds appropriated to DOD for FY 1990 for the establishment of a fund under the management of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to cover specified expenses of a unified or specified combatant command in performing its various duties and functions.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 to reduce the period before termination of a limitation on the alert status of any Air National Guard unit to 30 days after a certain report on the subject is transmitted to the Congress by the Secretary (currently, 180 days after such report).

Establishes the position of Comptroller of DOD at level III of the Executive Schedule. Establishes the positions of the General Counsels of the military departments and the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Financial Management at level IV of the Executive Schedule.

Title VIII: Acquisition Policy and Management - Part A: Defense Industrial and Technology Base - Requires the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy to establish a panel of experts in advanced technology to prepare and submit to the President a report identifying the product technologies and process technologies most essential to develop in order to assure the long-term national security and economic prosperity of the United States. Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to enter into agreements with specified entities for research and development identified in the report as essential.

Requires the Secretary to submit to the defense committees a plan for developing the technologies considered by the Secretary and the Secretary of Energy to be the technologies most critical to ensure the long-term qualitative superiority of U.S. weapons systems.

Directs the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition to report to the defense committees on actions taken toward the improvement of the defense industrial base of the United States. Requires the Under Secretary to analyze the ability of the defense industrial base to fulfill the national security needs of the United States.

Requires the Secretary of Defense, in the negotiation of any memorandum of understanding between the United States and one or more foreign countries relating to research, development, or production of defense equipment, to regularly solicit comments and recommendations from the Secretary of Commerce with respect to the commercial implications of such memoranda on the international competitive position of U.S. industry. Outlines memorandum review requirements and other limitations. Requires the Secretary of Defense, in the negotiation of such memoranda relating to the reciprocal procurement of defense equipment and supplies or research and development, to make every effort to achieve an agreement with the country concerned that would limit the adverse effects that offset arrangements have on the defense industrial base of the United States.

Part B: Acquisition Policy Initiatives - Changes the title of senior procurement executive to senior service acquisition executive, for purposes of the defense acquisition process. Adds the concept demonstration validation stage as one of the stages to be considered for milestone authorizations within defense enterprise programs.

Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees a discussion of all regulatory reform actions taken or planned in DOD on the basis of experience under the defense enterprise programs.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations governing the acquisition of commercial products. Outlines provisions, regarding such acquisition, relating to contract and subcontract clauses, modified inspection clauses and warranties, cost and pricing data requirements, the training of contract officers in the acquisition of nondevelopmental items, and encouraging the acquisition of nondevelopmental items. Directs the Secretary to implement such regulations and contract clauses within 270 days after enactment of this Act.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe a single, uniform regulation for DOD regarding dissemination of, and access to, acquisition information.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a test program for the use of simplified procedures in the competitive awarding of a DOD contract for the procurement of property or services on the basis of design or technical quality factors. Outlines conditions under which the Secretary of a military department or a defense agency head may award a contract for the procurement of such services, as well as conditions under which such Secretary or agency head may award a contract for the procurement of commercial products under the test program. Outlines the length of the test program. Requires the Secretary to designate organizations within DOD that will participate in the program. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the test program.

Revises Federal provisions concerning unit cost reports contained in Selected Acquisition Reports relating to defense procurement contracts as managed by program managers for major defense acquisition programs. Requires the service acquisition executive (currently, the Secretary concerned) to receive and tabulate information from such unit cost reports and Selected Acquisition Reports. Requires the Secretary concerned to take certain steps when the current program acquisition unit costs have increased by more than 15 percent with regard to a major defense acquisition program. Requires notification to the Congress when such increases exceed 25 percent.

Requires justification by a specified senior procurement executive for a defense procurement contract for between $10,000,000 and $50,000,000 to be awarded without the use of competitive procedures. Limits the positions to which such justification authority may be delegated.

Requires the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation to ensure that a contractor does not assist in the test and evaluation of a weapons system if the contractor participated in the development, production, or testing of such weapon for any military department or defense agency unless the Director determines that sufficient steps have been taken to ensure the impartiality of the contractor in providing such assistance.

Requires the Secretary to conduct a test program under which the Secretaries of the military departments and the heads of the defense agencies may enter into master agreements for the procurement of advisory and assistance services. Outlines provisions concerning the scope of the program, the contents and awarding of the master agreements, the orders for specific advisory or assistance services, publication of notice, and limitations with respect to the commencement and termination of the test program.

Directs the Secretary to establish a test program under which one contracting activity in each military department and defense agency is authorized to undertake one or more demonstration projects to determine whether the negotiation and administration of small business subcontracting plans will result in simplified administration of the small business subcontracting opportunities provided for small businesses under DOD contracts. Outlines administrative provisions, including contents for small business subcontracting plans. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense and small business committees on the results of the test program.

Revises provisions of the Small Business Act with regard to the requirement of a determination of responsibility of a small business to the Small Business Administration when a proposed contract is of a limited amount.

Requires the Secretary to ensure that the DOD quality assurance program is managed in a manner that will result in the production of the highest quality weapon systems, both at the initial acquisition stage and during repair and maintenance of fielded weapon systems. Outlines the structure of such program.

Extends through FY 1991 the authorization of appropriations for the procurement technical assistance cooperative agreement program. Provides certain funding limitations with respect to such assistance in the case of programs operated within one or more service areas of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Part C: Acquisition Workforce - Requires, within two years after the enactment of this section, the Secretary of: (1) Defense to develop and implement four alternative personnel management demonstration programs within DOD; and (2) Energy to develop and implement one such demonstration program for the national security programs of the Department of Energy. Requires each Secretary to provide for the development and testing of an alternative employee compensation system in each demonstration project so conducted. Requires certain action to be taken if a demonstration program involves a collective bargaining system. Outlines further administrative provisions concerning program costs, participation requirements, and consultation with the Director of the Office of Personnel Management with regard to the development and implementation of such plans. Requires the Secretary concerned to notify the Congress and employees concerned regarding the impending implementation of such plans. Directs the Comptroller General to review each plan and make certain reports and recommendations regarding such plans. Provides conditions under which such plans shall or may be terminated. Requires notification to covered employees of any plan termination.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to prescribe the rates of pay for up to 500 positions designated by the Secretary as critical.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations to govern discussions of future employment opportunities of employees of DOD (post-employment restrictions). Outlines provisions concerning: (1) authorized discussions of possible future employment opportunities with a covered contractor by a covered acquisition official; and (2) the request of advice by an employee or former employee of DOD from the appropriate designated agency ethics official as to what constitutes proper and improper possible employment discussions. Defines "covered acquisition official" and "covered contractor" for purposes of this section.

Authorizes the Secretary to waive a certain prohibition against the receipt of dual compensation for not more than 1,000 DOD employees who are in scientific, engineering, professorial, or management positions designated as critical positions by the Secretary.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary should take all necessary actions to promote and encourage, at all educational levels, an increase in the number of U.S. citizens and nationals who pursue courses of study in science, engineering, and other technical disciplines.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations for the award of fellowships to U.S. citizens and nationals who agree to pursue graduate degrees in science, engineering, or other fields of study designated by the Secretary to be of priority interest to DOD. Outlines fellowship award conditions. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991.

Title IX: General Provisions - Authorizes the Secretary, as necessary for the national interest, to transfer amounts of authorizations made available to DOD in titles I through III of this Act between any such authorizations for that fiscal year. Limits the total amount that may be so transferred. Requires the Secretary to notify the Congress promptly of any such transfers made.

Limits the total amount authorized to be appropriated for FY 1990 and 1991 for military personnel and operation and maintenance.

Limits the total amount of funds available to DOD for FY 1990. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense and appropriations committees concerning actions taken to ensure maintaining such limited budget authority. Places certain limitations upon DOD relating to the restoration of withdrawn unobligated balances.

Directs the President to report to the defense and intelligence committees on the types of measures that would be required to verify effectively the proposal for conventional arms reductions in Europe adopted by member nations of NATO in May, 1989. Commends the President's conventional arms initiatives announced on such date. Directs the President to report to the Congress on the foreign policy and military implications to NATO and to the Warsaw Pact of significant reductions of conventional forces by NATO and Warsaw Pact countries to a ceiling which is the same for both sides.

Directs the President to report to the defense committees on the desirability of an agreement to impose limitations on anti-satellite capabilities.

Establishes a Commission on National Service to conduct a thorough study of the need for, and desirability and disadvantages of, a national service program (a program which includes both military and civilian community service). Requires the Commission to report to the President and the Congress on its findings and recommendations. Specifies information to be included in such report if the Commission recommends the establishment of a national service program. Terminates such Commission 120 days after its report is received.

Extends through FY 1991 certain authority provided to the Secretary of Defense in connection with the NATO Airborne Warning and Alert Control System (AWACS) program.

Revises certain provisions relating to the authority to enter into bilateral and multilateral arrangements for the procurement of communications support and related supplies and services from U.S.-allied countries.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to: (1) extend through FY 1994 the authority to use excess defense articles for the modernization of the defense capabilities of countries situated on the southern flank of NATO; and (2) prohibit the President from providing for the attendance of foreign military personnel without charge at the U.S. Army Russian Institute in West Germany.

Authorizes the payment of travel and similar expenses for travel to Canada and Mexico in connection with bilateral and regional cooperation programs.

Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to admit temporarily workers entering this country in order to perform services as part of a governmental program of cooperative research, development, or coproduction projects.

Increases from $10,000 to $100,000 the amount of an admiralty claim against the United States that may be settled by the Secretary of the military department concerned without certifying such payment to the Congress.

Authorizes the Secretary to procure services for the publication of the History of the Office of the Secretary of Defense through the Government Printing Office.

Title X: Panama Canal Commission - Authorizes the Panama Canal Commission to make such expenditures, contracts, and commitments as may be necessary for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the Panama Canal for FY 1990 and 1991, with certain conditions. Requires the Commission to provide written advance notification to the defense and merchant marine and fisheries committees regarding certain rates, payments, and projects associated with the operation and maintenance of the Canal. Authorizes funds for pay increases of officers and employees of the Commission as administratively authorized.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1989 to increase the amount authorized for the construction of a certain medical facility at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Extends certain FY 1987 and 1988 military construction projects.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to acquire real property and carry out military construction projects in specified amounts at specified installations and locations.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1987 to extend through FY 1991 the authority of the Secretary to carry out military construction projects not otherwise authorized by law for conforming storage facilities.

Authorizes appropriations to the defense agencies for fiscal years beginning after FY 1990 for military construction projects, unspecified minor construction projects, architectural and engineering design services, and military family housing functions within DOD. Limits the total cost of construction projects authorized by this title.

Title XXV: North Atlantic Treaty Organization Infrastructure - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to make contributions for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Infrastructure Program. Authorizes appropriations to the Secretary for fiscal years after 1989 for such contributions.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes the Secretary to make contributions for the NATO Infrastructure Program. Authorizes appropriations for fiscal years after 1990 for such contributions.

Title XXVI: Guard and Reserve Forces Facilities - Part A: Fiscal Year 1990 - Authorizes appropriations for fiscal years after 1989 for acquisition, architectural and engineering services, and construction of facilities for the Guard and Reserve forces in specified amounts.

Part B: Fiscal Year 1991 - Authorizes appropriations for fiscal years after 1990 for acquisition, architectural and engineering services, and construction of facilities for the Guard and Reserve forces in specified amounts.

Title XXVII: Expiration of Authorizations - Terminates all authorizations contained in titles XXI through XXV of this Division on October 1, 1991, or the date of enactment of an Act authorizing funds for military construction for fiscal year 1992, whichever is later, with specified exceptions.

Title XXVIII: General Provisions - Part A: Military Construction Program Changes - Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1984 to provide that a contract assuring the occupancy of rental housing owned by DOD may: (1) provide that utilities, trash collection, snow removal, and entomological services will be furnished by the Government to the same extent that such services are provided to other occupants of government-owned housing; and (2) require that rent collection and the operation and maintenance of the housing be accomplished through the use of separate agreements or the use of Government personnel.

Increases the leasing and the high-cost threshold amounts for military family housing as contained in Federal armed forces law.

Adds potable waste water treatment services to the authorized uses of long-term defense facilities contracts. Extends through FY 1991 the authority of the Secretary concerned to enter into all such contracts.

Waives a certain per-unit expenditure limitation for improvements to military family housing units for three units for each military department if done to make the unit suitable for habitation by a handicapped person. Places a maximum improvement-cost limitation on any such unit.

Authorizes the Secretaries of the Navy and the Air Force to enter into contracts for a specified increased number of leased family housing units. Authorizes the use of such contracts through FY 1991.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to use one-step turn-key selection procedures to enter into contracts for the construction of authorized military construction projects. (Currently, the Secretaries may use such procedures only with the approval of the Secretary of Defense.) Authorizes the use of such procedures through FY 1991.

Revises Federal provisions concerning the authorized cost variations for a military construction project or for the construction, improvement, or acquisition of a military family housing project.

Provides that certain defense contract limitations shall not apply to the acquisition of military construction projects or family housing projects obtained through governments of NATO subsidiary bodies for elements of the armed forces deployed in Europe and adjacent waters.

Increases the amount authorized to be expended for minor military construction projects not otherwise authorized by law.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to enter into a lease for a facility on or near a military installation for the provision of the following activities or services: (1) administrative office space; (2) troop housing; (3) energy production facilities; (4) potable and waste water treatment facilities; (5) hospital and medical facilities; (6) transient quarters; and (7) depot or storage facilities. Outlines lease provisions and conditions, including a congressional notice requirement.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to transfer certain funds to the Homeowners Assistance Fund, Defense, as determined necessary to extend homeowners assistance benefits to eligible homeowners.

Part B: Land Transactions - Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to convey all right, title, and interest to a parcel of real property located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, comprising the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Center in Pittsburgh, under specified terms and conditions.

Amends the Military Construction Authorization Act, 1988 and 1989 to revise provisions concerning the sale of land and replacement of facilities at the Kapalama Military Reservation, Hawaii.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to convey all right, title, and interest of the United States to certain land near Fort Knox, Kentucky, using competitive bidding procedures. Directs the Secretary to use the proceeds from such sale for the construction of additional family housing units at Fort Knox.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to: (1) sell and convey all right, title, and interest of the United States to specified real property comprising the Public Works Center, Great Lakes, Illinois; and (2) use the proceeds from such sale to construct additional military family housing units at the Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois, under specified terms and conditions.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to modify the reversionary interest of the United States in specified real property conveyed to the Port of Benton, Washington, to permit a donation of real property to Washington State University for the establishment of a university branch on the donated land, under specified terms and conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to convey to Hudson County, New Jersey, all right, title, and interest of the United States to a portion of the Naval Reserve Center, Kearney, New Jersey, in order to provide additional motor vehicle parking facilities for such Center.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to convey a portion of Fort Belvoir, Virginia, known as the Engineering Proving Ground to any grantee for the construction of such facilities and improvements as may be specified by the Secretary under an agreement concerning such conveyance. Requires the Secretary to submit any such agreement to the defense committees and wait 21 days before taking any action under such agreement.

Directs the Secretary of the Army to convey to the State of Georgia all right, title, and interest of the United States to a parcel of real property at Fort Gillem, Georgia, for use by the State for the administration of the Georgia Department of Defense, the Georgia National Guard, and other military activities.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to convey to the State of Hawaii all right, title, and interest of the United States to certain real property located on Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii, under specified terms and conditions.

Part C: Miscellaneous Provisions - Transfers to the Secretary of Defense jurisdiction, custody, and control of the operation and maintenance of the Pentagon office building and its related facilities with parking grounds (known as the Pentagon Reservation). Authorizes the Secretary to appoint military or civilian personnel or contract employees to perform law enforcement and security functions for the Reservation. Authorizes the Secretary to promulgate all necessary rules and regulations to ensure the safe, efficient, and secure operation of the Reservation. Provides fines and penalties for violations of such rules and regulations.

Authorizes the Secretary to enter into cooperative agreements with public or private entities willing to match Federal funds or efforts to maintain and improve natural resources or to benefit natural and historic research on DOD installations.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to: (1) design and construct a miltipurpose facility at Henderson Hall, Arlington, Virginia; (2) accept from the Navy Mutual Aid Association reimbursement for all costs of the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of such facility; and (3) lease to the Association at no cost approximately one-third of the square footage of the facility to be constructed. Outlines terms and conditions to such lease.

Transfers from the Secretary of Defense to the Secretary of Energy jurisdiction and control of certain real property at Sandia, New Mexico, for use by the Department of Energy in providing a location for the Center for National Security and Arms Control.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to reimburse specified amounts to the Lake Charles Harbor and Terminal District, Lake Charles, Louisiana, for certain costs associated with the closing of a naval homeporting base at Lake Charles. Requires the Secretary to convey to such District the land constituting the proposed Lake Charles Navy Homeport, Louisiana.

Division C: Other National Defense Authorizations - Title XXXI (sic): Department of Energy National Security Programs - Part A: National Security Programs Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations to the Department of Energy (DOE) for FY 1990 for operating expenses incurred and for plant and capital equipment necessary in carrying out national security programs in the following areas: (1) weapons activities; (2) defense nuclear materials production; (3) verification and control technology; (4) nuclear materials safeguards and security technology development program; (5) security investigations; (6) new production reactors; (7) naval reactors development; and (8) capital equipment not related to construction. Places special funding limitations for DOE for FY 1990 for the following programs and projects: (1) SDI; (2) inertial confinement fusion; (3) special isotope separation; and (4) Lance Warhead follow-on.

Part B: Authorization for Environmental Restoration and for Defense Waste Management and Transportation - Authorizes appropriations to DOE for FY 1990 for environmental restoration and management of defense waste and transportation in specified amounts at specified locations.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to submit quarterly reports to the defense and appropriations committees on each major DOE national security program (a program that is either designated by the Secretary as a major DOE national security program or that is estimated by the Secretary to cost more than $500,000,000). Outlines report information requirements. Requires the Secretary to identify to such committees all programs of DOE that are major national security programs. Directs the Secretary to prepare and submit to such committees a five-year budget plan for national security programs of DOE.

Directs the Secretary to establish and carry out a program for the supervision, direction, and coordination of all research activities of DOE for the development of technologies useful for: (1) the reduction of environmental hazards and contamination resulting from defense waste; and (2) environmental restoration of inactive defense waste disposal sites. Requires the Secretary to carry out such program through a program manager. Requires the Secretary to coordinate such research program with the research activities of the EPA related to the same matter. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on such activities. Earmarks funds to carry out such program.

Directs the President to establish a Blue Ribbon Task Group on Environmental Restoration and Defense Waste Management to examine the procedures used in establishing requirements, providing necessary resources, planning, and implementing plans with respect to defense waste management. Requires various reports from the President and the Task Group with respect to the membership, activities, and recommendations of the Task Group.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to establish and implement a management training program for DOE personnel involved in the management of atomic energy defense activities.

Amends the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to authorize the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to: (1) provide for the storage, processing, transportation, and disposal of hazardous waste resulting from nuclear materials production, weapons production and surveillance programs, and naval nuclear propulsion programs; and (2) carry out research and development of technologies needed for the negotiation and verification of international agreements on control of special nuclear materials and nuclear weapons.

Part C: Recurring General Provisions - Prohibits the use of funds appropriated pursuant to this title for: (1) the costs of a program exceeding 105 percent of the program authorization or $10,000,000 more than the amount authorized, whichever is the lesser; or (2) programs which have not been presented to, or requested of, the Congress, unless the Secretary of Energy transmits to the appropriate committees a full and complete statement of the action proposed and 30 days have elapsed since such statement was submitted.

Prohibits the total funds obligated pursuant to this title from exceeding the total amount authorized to be appropriated by this title.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to carry out any general plant project only if the maximum estimated cost of the project does not exceed $1,200,000. Requires reports to specified committees by the Secretary when the costs exceed such amount.

Sets forth procedures for the approval of projects which exceed by more than 25 percent their estimated cost or authorized amount. Exempts from such procedures any projects which have an estimated cost of less than $5,000,000.

Allows for the transfer of funds from specified projects to other Government agencies for the performance of work for which the funds were appropriated.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to transfer to the Secretary of Energy specified FY 1990 DOD research and development funds for the performance of work on SDI.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to perform advance planning and construction design services in connection with any proposed construction project if the total estimated cost for such services does not exceed $2,000,000. Authorizes the Secretary to notify specified congressional committees whenever the estimated cost of such planning and design exceeds $300,000. Requires specific authorization by law whenever such estimated costs exceed $2,000,000.

Authorizes the Secretary to perform emergency construction planning and design in order to meet the needs of national defense or to protect property or human life.

Makes funds appropriated for management and support activities and for general plant projects under this title available for all national security programs of DOE.

Part D: Defense Energy Technology Transfer - Directs the Secretary of Energy to ensure: (1) that by means of appropriate transfers of federally owned or originated technology to the public or private sectors, the investment of research and development funds in the military application of atomic energy results in the development of civilian applications for, and commercialization of, advanced technologies; and (2) that such transfers do not interfere with the national security mission of DOE.

Provides that, whenever in the course of a Government contract or subcontract entered into in connection with a DOE nuclear defense research program a contractor makes an invention or discovery which would normally vest as a property right of the United States, such contractor may submit a request to the Secretary of Energy for a waiver of any or all of such property right of the Government in such invention or discovery. Provides that, in the case of a granted waiver, all rights of the United States not reserved by the Secretary shall vest in the contractor.

Authorizes the Secretary to deny the request for a waiver if the Secretary determines that such invention or discovery: (1) is covered by a provision of a funding agreement; (2) has been designated as sensitive technical information under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954; or (3) is in the best interest of the United States to retain. Requires the Secretary to notify the contractor of such a denial in a timely manner. Outlines other matters to be considered by the Secretary in determining whether or not to grant or deny such a waiver request.

Requires each DOE contract for the management and operation of a defense programs national laboratory to include a provision which authorizes the manager or operator of the laboratory to negotiate any cooperative research and development agreement with: (1) any other Federal department or agency; (2) any unit of State or local government; (3) any industrial organization; (4) any public or private foundation; (5) any institution of higher education or any other nonprofit organization; (6) any licensee of an invention or computer software owned by the laboratory manager or operator; and (7) any other person or entity. Outlines provisions authorized to be included in such cooperative research and development agreements. Provides that such agreement may not take effect unless the Secretary approves it or fails to take any action which indicates disapproval of such agreement. Requires the laboratory manager or operator to submit such agreement to the Secretary for approval or disapproval. Allows the Secretary 30 days to disapprove such an agreement. Requires written notice to the laboratory manager or operator of disapproval. Requires agreements between related persons or entities to be specifically approved by the Secretary before taking effect. Outlines factors to be considered by the Secretary in determining whether to approve, disapprove, or require the modification of a proposed cooperative research and development agreement. Outlines the effect of other laws on a specifically-approved agreement. Limits to ten percent of the revenue provided for in an annual budget of a defense programs national laboratory the amount which may be derived from nonappropriated funds pursuant to cooperative research and development agreements.

Requires each DOE contract for the management or operation of a defense programs national laboratory to specify that: (1) any royalties or other income earned by the manager or operator of such laboratory from the licensing or assignment of intellectual property rights in any invention made in the course of a cooperative research and development agreement shall be used in the same manner as income under Federal funding agreements; (2) any such royalties obtained in like manner from the licensing or assignment of intellectual property rights in any computer software or other technical data made in the course of such an agreement shall also be used in the same manner as income under Federal funding agreements; and (3) the costs of obtaining, protecting, and licensing intellectual property rights in inventions, computer software, or other technical data made in the course of such an agreement shall be allowable costs under contracts for the management and operation of such a laboratory. Outlines additional intellectual property rights matters in relation to such agreements.

Exempts the United States and any laboratory manager or operator from liability for damages resulting from the use of a product that is related to any invention, discovery, software, or other data in which the United States or such manager or operator has an intellectual property interest reserved or acquired pursuant to this Act.

Requires the Secretary to prescribe regulations to carry out this Act and to report to the Senate and House Armed Services Committees if regulations are not issued within 180 days after enactment of this Act. Requires the Secretary to modify existing contracts with laboratory managers and operators in order to incorporate the changes made under this Act.

Repeals a provision of the Department of Energy National Security and Military Applications of Nuclear Energy Authorization Act of 1987 relating to the protection of sensitive technical information in DOE inventions or discoveries (superseded by this Act).

Part E: Miscellaneous Provisions - Amends the Department of Defense Authorization Act, 1985 to require the Secretaries of Energy and Defense to jointly report to the Congress concerning the production of the 155-millimeter artillery-fired automatic projectile.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to designate not more than 25 positions in DOE as critical positions. Terminates such designation authority three years after enactment of this Act. Outlines provisions concerning the rates of pay for positions designated as critical. Authorizes the Secretary to designate not more than 250 positions in DOE as special scientific, engineering, and managerial positions.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, 1986 to provide equal participation of the Secretary of Defense with the Secretary in the nuclear test ban readiness program outlined under such Act.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to make necessary payments, and earmarks funds, for a Rocky Flats, Colorado, decontamination and cleanup agreement entered into between DOE and the State of Colorado.

Title XXXII: Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for the establishment and operation of the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board.

Title XXXIII: National Defense Stockpile - Authorizes the President to make specified changes in quantities of materials to be acquired for the National Defense Stockpile (NDS) as provided under the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act. Authorizes the President, during FY 1990 and 1991, to use specified amounts from the National Defense Stockpile Transaction Fund for the purposes of stockpile acquisitions. Authorizes the President, during FY 1990 and 1991, to dispose of specified materials in the NDS that have been determined to be excess to the current requirements of the stockpile.

Title XXXIV: Civil Defense - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to carry out the Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950.

07-31-89 Reported to Senate from the Committee on Armed Services (without written report)

07-31-89 Placed on calendar in Senate

S. 1446 Sen. Nunn; 7/31/89

National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Title I: Procurement - Part A: Funding Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 to the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, and Air Force for: (1) aircraft; (2) missiles; (3) weapons and tracked combat vehicles; (4) ammunition; (5) shipbuilding and conversion; and (6) other procurement.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for: (1) procurement for the defense agencies and the reserves; and (2) the chemical demilitarization program.

Specifies programs for which the Secretary of the military department concerned may and may not use funds appropriated for FY 1990 and 1991 to enter into multiyear procurement contracts for specified defense procurement programs.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 to reduce or increase various defense procurement program authorizations under such Act.

Authorizes additional appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for the armed forces for missile procurement.

Part B: Program Requirements, Restrictions, and Limitations - Places funding restrictions or limitations on the following programs: (1) the M-1 tank; (2) ten-ton trucks; and (3) procurement of V-22 aircraft.

Part C: Strategic Program Test and Reporting Requirements - Prohibits any funding reductions to be made during FY 1990 in the Trident II missile program to achieve any undistributed reduction required for Department of Defense programs.

Directs the Secretary of Defense, during FY 1990 and 1991, to develop a program and plan for a defense avionics test and evaluation program in connection with the proposed modifications of the B-1B aircraft. Requires the Secretary to report to the Senate and House Armed Services Committees (the defense committees) concerning such plan. Outlines provisions relating to the availability of funds for modifications to such aircraft and requirements for bimonthly status reports on such aircraft, and an independent assessment of the capabilities of such aircraft by a panel of experts appointed by the Secretary.

Earmarks specified FY 1990 Air Force procurement funds for the B-2 bomber program. Outlines certain flight test and other requirements to be satisfied before such funding is authorized for the B-2 bomber program, including an assessment of such aircraft by the Low-Observables Panel of the Defense Science Board. Requires the Secretary to certify annually to the Congress that the cost of such bomber program does not exceed specified amounts. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees concerning the correction of deficiencies clauses in B-2 aircraft procurement contracts. Requires the Secretary of the Air Force to take necessary action to ensure that procurement for the B-2 aircraft authorized for FY 1989 and 1990 is subject to a contractor guarantee under current Federal armed forces procurement provisions. Outlines other provisions concerning the prime contractor's assumption of greater liability responsibility for the cost of corrective actions under B-2 procurement contracts. Requires the Secretary to notify the defense committees concerning such contractor liability and corrective action taken.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to conduct a comprehensive study of alternative plans for the production of B-2 aircraft. Directs the Secretary to report the results of such study to the defense committees.

Sets forth certain testing and certification requirements to be satisfied before funding will be authorized in FY 1990 for the procurement of advanced cruise missiles.

Part D: Program Terminations - Terminates the following programs, with specified exceptions: (1) the F-14 aircraft, after FY 1989; (2) the AH-64 helicopter, after FY 1991; (3) the AHIP Scout helicopter, after FY 1989; (4) the F-15E aircraft, after October 1, 1991; and (5) the M88A2 recovery vehicle, after FY 1989.

Part E: Miscellaneous Provisions - Repeals the procurement requirement and limitation of funds for the Heavy Expanded Mobility Tactical Truck.

Requires the Secretary of the Navy to report to specified congressional committees on current and projected Navy aircraft requirements.

Revises current Federal armed forces provisions to authorize the Secretary of the Air Force to enter into contracts with U.S. citizens which allow such citizens to include or incorporate in their aircraft defense features which will ensure the interoperability of such aircraft with the Department of Defense (DOD) airlift system. Outlines contract terms and conditions.

Title II: Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation - Part A: Authorizations and Funding for Specific Programs - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for research, development, test, and evaluation (R&D funds) for the armed forces and the defense agencies.

Authorizes additional appropriations to the Army and Marine Corps for research and development for improved infantry weapons and equipment.

Part B: Program Requirements, Restrictions, and Limitations - Earmarks specified R&D funds for research and development under the Balanced Technology Initiative program. Outlines administrative provisions concerning such funds. Requires the Secretary to report to certain congressional committees specified information concerning the Initiative.

Authorizes the Secretary, in carrying out advanced research projects through the Defense Advanced Research Project Agency, to enter into cooperative agreements and other transactions with any Federal, State, local, educational, or other entity. Requires the Secretary to report annually to the defense committees on any such agreements entered into during the prior fiscal year. Provides FY 1990 and 1991 funding for such cooperative agreements program.

Authorizes the Secretary to use procedures other than competitive procedures in awarding grants to colleges and universities for the conduct of research and development. Requires the Secretary to report semiannually to the defense committees on the use of competitive procedures for R&D contracts with colleges and universities.

Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for working capital funds for the armed forces and the defense agencies. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991 for the Department of Defense Base Closure Account.

States as the purpose of the humanitarian assistance program to provide transportation and humanitarian relief for persons displaced or made refugees by the invasion of Afghanistan by the Soviet Union. Authorizes the Secretary to transfer funds to the Secretary of State for the purpose of providing such assistance. Requires transportation for such assistance, requiring the most economical means possible, to be under the direction of the Secretary of State. Requires reports concerning the provision of such assistance. Repeals prior reporting requirements.

Part B: Limitations - Repeals a provision of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 which limits the use of operation and maintenance funds for the purchase of investment items.

Prohibits the Secretary of the Navy from entering into a contract which would provide or permit joint use of the Marine Corps Aid Station, El Toro, California, with civil aviation.

Part C: Base Closure and Realignment Matters - Requires the Comptroller General to report to the Secretary and the defense committees on the methodology, findings, and recommendations of the Commission on Base Realignment and Closure.

Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on environmental contamination at the Jefferson Proving Ground, Indiana, resulting from activities of DOD.

Requires the Secretary, in every year in which military installation closure or realignment activities are carried out, to provide notice to each State and local education agencies which will experience a certain degree of enrollment changes of military dependents due to such closures or realignments.

Part D: Miscellaneous Reporting Requirements - Sets forth reporting requirements concerning: (1) military utilization of the inland navigation system; (2) long-range environmental challenges and goals of DOD; (3) the readiness of the armed forces in terms of manpower, mobility, sustainability, and equipment; and (4) the feasibility of restoring to the Secretary responsibility for the administration of impact aid for schools affected by DOD activities; and (5) a timetable for second source production for carbonizable rayon yarn for use on reentry vehicle heat shields and rocket nozzles.

Directs the Army Corps of Engineers to conduct as promptly as possible, and continue to inform interested parties concerning, its investigation of soil and water contamination at the former Nebraska Ordnance Plant near Mead, Nebraska.

Part E: Miscellaneous Provisions - Revises a provision of the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 concerning authorized uses of first-year energy cost savings from incentives implemented by DOD. Requires the amount of such energy cost savings to be determined by the Secretary of the military department concerned at the end of each of the first five years (currently, only at the end of the first year).

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to purchase a railroad structure and temporary right-of-way for rail line in Nevada for use in connection with the operation of the Hawthorne Army Ammunition Plant, Nevada.

Requires the Secretary of Defense to formulate and carry out a program to reduce the unnecessary release of chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs) and halons and testing practices of DOD. Outlines report requirements in connection with such program. Requires the Secretary to appoint a CFC Advisory Committee to study the use of CFCs by DOD and by contractors in the performance of contracts for DOD and the cost and feasibility of using alternative compounds and technologies in lieu of CFCs. Outlines reporting requirements.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Army to enter into a long-term lease for the provision of air transportation at Kwajalein Atoll, Republic of the Marshall Islands, under specified conditions.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to enter into a service contract for the training of undergraduate naval flight officers during FY 1992.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to increase, as of the end of FY 1990, the number of full-time personnel employed by the Defense Contract Audit Agency.

Directs the Secretary of the Army, acting through the Chief of Engineers, to conduct a study determining the damage and environmental impact on the Shenandoah River caused by companies under contract with DOD and NASA.

Directs the Secretary of the Navy to make certain acquisition regulation determinations with respect to tug and towing services at Port Canaveral, Florida.

Title IV: Military Personnel Authorizations For Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Part A: Active Forces - Authorizes end strengths for active-duty forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Prohibits the Secretary from reducing the number of active Army ground combat brigades assigned to the 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized) before December 1, 1990. Allows Army end strengths to be increased in order to maintain such prohibition. Reduces, temporarily, the number of colonels authorized for active duty for FY 1991.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that certain combat units stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky, should not be permanently reassigned to Fort Irwin, California.

Part B: Reserve Forces - Authorizes end strengths for reserve components of the armed forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Authorizes end strength reductions for the Selected Reserve components of the armed forces for each such fiscal year, as prescribed. Authorizes increases for each such fiscal year in the number of certain personnel authorized to be on active duty in support of the reserve forces. Reallocates the positions of two naval reserve officers serving in medical profession capacities.

Part C: Military Training - Authorizes the average military training student loads for FY 1990 and 1991. Provides for the adjustment of such student loads consistent with manpower strengths authorized under this Act.

Part D: Civilian Personnel - Repeals current Federal provisions concerning management constraints for DOD civilian personnel.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to accept voluntary services from an individual for work in a natural resources program.

Title V: Military Personnel - Part A: Matters Affecting the Reserve Components - Authorizes a person with no prior military service who is qualified for active-duty enlistment in the armed forces (regular) to be enlisted as a member of the reserves under a delayed entry program. Allows such person to be enlisted in a regular component of the armed forces within 365 days after enlistment in the reserves. Exempts members of the delayed entry program from otherwise applicable Ready Reserve training requirements. Prohibits the period of enlisted service under the delayed entry program form being counted as part of the years of service for the computation of the basic pay of a member.

Authorizes the Secretary to order a member of the Ready Reserve to muster duty one time each year without his consent. Authorize a member of the Ready Reserve who is not a member of the National Guard or of the Selected Reserve to be entitled to an allowance for such muster duty if engaged in such duty for at least two hours.

Repeals a provision of Federal law which allows a uniform and equipment reimbursement monthly for a reserve officer of the armed forces who has not become entitled to a uniform reimbursement or allowance as an officer for the preceding four years.

Extends through FY 1992 certain expiring authorities relating to the reserves.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for an enlisted member who is assigned to a high priority unit of the Selected Reserve and who performs inactive duty for training with such unit. Terminates such special assignment pay after FY 1991. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the administration of such special pay program.

Part B: Health Care Matters - Prohibits the Secretary, during FY 1990 and 1991, from charging for the receipt of outpatient medical or dental care at a military treatment facility.

Revises a provision concerning the limitation on payments made to noninstitutional health-care providers from the Secretary concerned under the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS). Authorizes the Secretary to increase the maximum amount of such payments whenever the Secretary of Health and Human Services increases the amount payable to providers of services under part B of title XVIII (Medicare) of the Social Security Act.

Authorizes the Secretary to require a private health-care provider which is also a health-care provider under CHAMPUS to provide such care under the same rules applicable under such program.

Authorizes the provision of specialized training as another benefit under the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. Allows a person participating in such specialized training, in addition to receiving a stipend udner such Program, to be paid an annual grant of $15,000. Requires a pro rata refund of such grant amount from a person who voluntarily terminates the Program's specialized training.

Expands the type of loans qualifying for repayment by the Secretary concerned for health professionals who serve in the Selected Reserve as part of such loan repayment agreement, including any loan which was used to finance basic or advanced health professions education. Makes all members of the Ready Reserve (currently, only members of the Selected Reserve) eligible for such loan repayments and increases the yearly and total amount of such loan repayments. Repeals the current October 1, 1990, date for the termination of such loan repayments.

Revises the deadline for the use of diagnosis-related groups for outpatient treatment.

Increases from 67 to 68 the deferment age for retirement for regular commissioned officers of the armed forces.

Authorizes the retention of reserve officer psychologists in an active status in order to fulfill a mission-based requirement.

Part C: Personnel Management - States the conditions under which the President may vacate a promotion to the grade of major through major general and lieutenant commander through rear admiral.

Directs the Secretary to reduce by the end of FY 1992 the number of nonoperational flying duty positions in the armed forces by five percent. Prohibits any increase in the number of such positions after FY 1991.

Outlines the minimum service requirement for certain flight crew positions.

Requires the Comptroller General to conduct a study, and report to the defense committees, on the aviator assignment policies and practices of the armed forces.

Part D: Total Force Policy - Directs the Secretary to convene a study group to review the operation and soundness of the Total Force Policy (the force mix in each of the military departments) of DOD and to make recommendations for the improvement of such Policy. Requires the Secretary to report the study group's results to the defense committees.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the service obligations for graduates of: (1) the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences; and (2) the service academies.

Revises the composition and term of members of the U.S. Court of Military Appeals. Revises provisions concerning: (1) the removal of judges from such Court; (2) incapacity of such judges; (3) service and pay of a senior judge of such Court; (4) the appointment and civil service status of legal staff of the Court; (5) retirement of judges of the Court; and (6) appellate review procedures of action taken by the Judge Advocate General under provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice. Directs the President to prescribe procedures for the investigation and disposition of charges, allegations, and information pertaining to the fitness of a military judge or military appellate judge to perform the duties of office. Requires such procedures to be transmitted to the defense committees.

Makes permanent the authority to make temporary promotions of certain Navy lieutenants.

Extends through October 1, 1992, the authority for a test program for the reimbursement to members of the armed forces of qualifying adoption expenses.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to require each applicant for enlistment or appointment to undergo drug and alcohol abuse testing before becoming a member of the armed forces.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to correct the military records of promotion of enlisted members if the Secretary considers such action necessary to correct an error or injustice.

Provides members of the National Guard, Reserves, retired military personnel, and civilian employees of DOD with the same relief from expenses incurred because of an error in the mandatory direct deposit of pay.

Provides for the awarding of the degree of Master of Arts in Leader Development.

Authorizes the Secretary to provide transportation to the next-of-kin of members of the armed forces who have been prisoners of war or missing in action as a result of service during the Vietnam era in order to attend an annual meeting of such families.

Revises certain procedures regarding the solicitation and award of contracts for postsecondary education services for members of the armed forces, civilian DOD employees, or the dependents of such members and employees.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to employ civilian faculty at the United States Marine Corps University.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to enter into contracts providing for the production and commercial sale of a certain recording made by the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra and the U.S. Air Force Singing Sargents.

Title VI: Compensation and Other Personnel Benefits - Part A: Pay and Allowances - Waives the automatic adjustment authorized for military pay consistent with yearly increases in the GS Schedule of the Federal Government, authorizing instead a 3.6 percent increase in the rates of basic pay, basic allowance for quarters, and basic allowance for subsistence. Increases cadet and midshipman pay. Makes each such increase effective as of January 1, 1990.

Part B: Incentive Pay - Increases the flying duties required for an aviation officer to be entitled to aviation career incentive pay. Requires the President to increase such incentive pay by the percentage of any increase in basic pay. Authorizes the Secretary concerned to delay implementation of such increased flying duty when necessary to meet the needs of his department.

Extends through FY 1992 the aviator retention bonus program. Outlines certain reporting requirements under such program and limits the total obligations permitted for the Navy and Air Force during FY 1990 for the payment of such bonuses.

Increases the special pay for medical officers in the armed forces. Extends through FY 1990 the medical officer retention bonus program. Terminates such authority if a certain report is not made by a specified date.

Provides for the payment of special pay in the form of an accession bonus for registered nurses who agree within a specified period to accept a commission and perform duty as a registered nurse in the armed forces for not less than four years. Outlines certain limitations and conditions under such program.

Provides a nurse officer candidate accession bonus for individuals who execute a written agreement to accept an appointment as a nurse officer after completion of two years of a degree program in nursing and while enrolled as a full-time student in a nursing program in an institution that does not have a Senior Reserve Officers' Training Program. Outlines agreement terms. Requires a pro rata refund of any bonus paid when an individual fails to complete either the required period of education or the required period of military service after the completion of such education.

Authorizes the payment of special incentive pay for nurse anesthetists who execute a written agreement to remain on active duty for at least one year after their initial required period of duty. Outlines terms of such bonus pay. Requires refunds on a pro rata basis for agreed-upon time not successfully served. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the use of certified registered nurse anesthetists by the military departments.

Increases: (1) the special pay for reserve medical officers; and (2) the length and amount of the Selected Reserve reenlistment bonus program. Extends certain enlistment and reenlistment bonus authorities for reserve forces. Extends the bonus authority for certain nuclear career officer bonus programs.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for psychologists who are officers in the armed forces or the Public Health Service and who have been awarded a diploma by the American Board of Professional Psychology.

Part C: Travel and Transportation - Authorizes a travel and transportation allowance for a member of the armed forces who is assigned to permanent duty aboard a ship that is undergoing construction away from the designated home port or away from the area where the dependents of the member are residing. Outlines terms and conditions for such allowances.

Authorizes reimbursement for parking fees, ferry fares, and tolls for any member of the armed forces entitled to general travel and transportation allowances.

Authorizes student travel allowances for dependents of members stationed outside the continental United States. Prohibits such allowance for dependents of members permanently stationed in Alaska or Hawaii for a child attending a school in the State of the permanent duty station.

Part D: Survivor Benefit Program - Revises the reduction in retired pay for participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan. Differentiates, in the level premium to be paid each month by participants in the Plan, as to whether the annuity being provided is a standard or reserve-component annuity and whether the person becomes an active participant in the Plan before or after the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989.

Directs the Secretary of the military department concerned to carry out a program, to be known as the Supplemental Survivor Benefit Plan (SSBP), which would enable participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) who are providing coverage for a spouse or former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to also provide a supplemental annuity for that spouse or former spouse beginning when the participant dies or when the spouse or former spouse becomes 62 years of age, whichever is later, in order to offset the effects of the two-tier annuity computation under the SBP. Outlines the following administrative provisions concerning the SSBP: (1) commencement of annuity; (2) the amount of such annuity for the beneficiary of a person providing the standard or the reserve-component annuity under the SBP (the latter annuity further defined by whether or not the beneficiary under the SSBP is initially under 62 years of age at the commencement of the annuity); and (3) adjustments in such annuities required by periodic adjustments in the cost-of-living index. Terminates a SSBP annuity when the beneficiary dies or otherwise becomes ineligible to continue to receive an annuity under the original SBP.

Allows a person who provides an annuity for a spouse or former spouse under the SBP to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under these provisions. Requires a person providing a supplemental spouse annuity to be a participant in the SBP in order to cover a spouse or former spouse under the SSBP. Requires such election to be voluntary. Allows a person to make such an election only if the beneficiary of such person's annuity is not currently computed under the determination of spouse or former spouse beneficiary annuity under the SBP. Allows a person who anticipates becoming a participant in the SBP who has a spouse or former spouse to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP. Outlines conditions and requirements for such an anticipatory election. Requires a person to actually provide a spouse or former spouse annuity under the SBP in order to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP.

Allows a person who elects to provide SBP coverage for a former spouse after having been an SBP participant without coverage for that former spouse to also provide a supplemental spouse annuity for such former spouse under the SSBP. Requires notice to a current spouse of a person providing coverage under the SBP and the SSBP to a former spouse. Provides for irrevocability after a specified period of time of the election to provide SSBP coverage under both a standard annuity and a reserve-component annuity.

Authorizes provision of a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions by a person who is a participant in the SBP and is providing coverage for a spouse (or spouse and child) but is not a participant in the SSBP, who does not have an eligible spouse under that Plan, and who remarries, thereby allowing such person to elect to provide such coverage for the former spouse. Requires the person to be under the SBP in order to make the election for such coverage under the SSBP. Outlines conditions for such an election. Outlines administrative guidelines to be followed: (1) when there is a change of a former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to a current spouse or child beneficiary under the SBP; and (2) upon reinstatement of an SSBP annuity after discontinuance of an SBP annuity and reinstatement of such annuity.

Requires a person who elects to provide a SSBP annuity to a former spouse to provide the Secretary concerned with a written statement as to whether the election being made is pursuant to a written agreement incident to a divorce, dissolution, or annullment that has been incorporated in, or ratified or approved by, a court order. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the enforcement of such voluntary written agreements ratified by a court order. Provides a time limit for the making of such an election of one year after the date of the court order or filing involved.

Directs the retired pay of a person electing to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions to be reduced each month as required under prescribed regulations. Outlines considerations for the determination of such regulations by the Secretary of Defense. Prohibits any reduction during any month in which there is no eligible spouse or former spouse beneficiary. Requires the amount of the reduction to be adjusted whenever there is an adjustment to the reduction in retired pay for beneficiary coverage under the original SBP. Directs the President to prescribe regulations to implement the SSBP.

Revises the annuity computation for the survivors of certain retirement-eligible officers who die while on active duty, making such an officer's retired pay rate the rate of pay applicable at the time of death. Defines those persons eligible for such recomputation.

Authorizes an eligible retired or former member of the armed forces to participate in the SBP during an open enrollment period. Allows such person, at the same time, to also elect to participate in the SSBP. Defines as eligible a person who on the day before the first day of the open enrollment period is not a participant in the SBP and is either entitled to retired pay or would be so entitled but for the fact that such member or former member is under 60 years of age (for reserve members or former members). Allows a person who is a participant in the SBP but not at the maximum base amount while providing coverage for a dependent child but not for a spouse or former spouse to: (1) elect to participate in the SBP at a higher amount; or (2) elect to provide an annuity under the SBP for a spouse or former spouse.

Authorizes current SBP participants to elect to participate in the SSBP during the open enrollment period. Outlines those persons eligible to make such an election and sets limitations on eligibility for certain SBP participants not affected by the two-tier annuity computation (a computation that differentiates in the annuity amount depending on whether the annuitant has attained the age of 65). Requires any SSBP election to be made in writing, signed by the person making the election, and received by the Secretary concerned before the end of the open enrollment period. Defines the open enrollment period as the one-year period beginning on the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989. States that if a person dies before the end of a two-year period after making such an election, the election is void and the amount of reduction in retired pay taken as a result of such election shall be paid in a lump sum to the person's beneficiary under the SBP.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the educational assistance allowance for persons in the armed forces with a critical skill or speciality.

Authorizes the use of funds appropriated to DOD to pay for student meals provided by DOD overseas dependents' schools. Outlines limits to such authority.

Authorizes a reduction in the rates for meals sold in military dining facilities if the Secretary concerned determines that such rate reduction is in the best interest of the United States.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to pay a uniform allowance for any civilian DOD employee required to wear a prescribed uniform for the performance of official duties.

Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees a legislative proposal for an accidental death insurance plan for aviators serving on active duty.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should: (1) establish a commission to study the reasons for shortages of qualified aviators in both the armed forces and in the commercial airline industry and the means for eliminating such shortages; (2) include representatives from both the commercial airline industry and the armed forces on such commission; and (3) appoint members to such commission no later than February 15, 1990. Requires the commission to report the results of its study to the President and the Congress no later than March 1, 1991, together with recommendations.

Title VII: Department of Defense Management Matters - Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress regarding actions taken and to be taken by the Secretary to implement a report from the Secretary to the President concerning Defense Management.

Earmarks specified funds appropriated to DOD for FY 1990 for the establishment of a fund under the management of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to cover specified expenses of a unified or specified combatant command in performing its various duties and functions.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, Fiscal Year 1989 to reduce the period before termination of a limitation on the alert status of any Air National Guard unit to 30 days after a certain report on the subject is transmitted to the Congress by the Secretary (currently, 180 days after such report).

Establishes the position of Comptroller of DOD at level III of the Executive Schedule. Establishes the positions of the General Counsels of the military departments and the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Financial Management at level IV of the Executive Schedule.

Title VIII: Acquisition Policy and Management - Part A: Defense Industrial and Technology Base - Requires the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy to establish a panel of experts in advanced technology to prepare and submit to the President a report identifying the product technologies and process technologies most essential to develop in order to assure the long-term national security and economic prosperity of the United States. Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to enter into agreements with specified entities for research and development identified in the report as essential.

Requires the Secretary to submit to the defense committees a plan for developing the technologies considered by the Secretary and the Secretary of Energy to be the technologies most critical to ensure the long-term qualitative superiority of U.S. weapons systems.

Directs the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition to report to the defense committees on actions taken toward the improvement of the defense industrial base of the United States. Requires the Under Secretary to analyze the ability of the defense industrial base to fulfill the national security needs of the United States.

Requires the Secretary of Defense, in the negotiation of any memorandum of understanding between the United States and one or more foreign countries relating to research, development, or production of defense equipment, to regularly solicit comments and recommendations from the Secretary of Commerce with respect to the commercial implications of such memoranda on the international competitive position of U.S. industry. Outlines memorandum review requirements and other limitations. Requires the Secretary of Defense, in the negotiation of such memoranda relating to the reciprocal procurement of defense equipment and supplies or research and development, to make every effort to achieve an agreement with the country concerned that would limit the adverse effects that offset arrangements have on the defense industrial base of the United States.

Part B: Acquisition Policy Initiatives - Changes the title of senior procurement executive to senior service acquisition executive, for purposes of the defense acquisition process. Adds the concept demonstration validation stage as one of the stages to be considered for milestone authorizations within defense enterprise programs.

Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees a discussion of all regulatory reform actions taken or planned in DOD on the basis of experience under the defense enterprise programs.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations governing the acquisition of commercial products. Outlines provisions, regarding such acquisition, relating to contract and subcontract clauses, modified inspection clauses and warranties, cost and pricing data requirements, the training of contract officers in the acquisition of nondevelopmental items, and encouraging the acquisition of nondevelopmental items. Directs the Secretary to implement such regulations and contract clauses within 270 days after enactment of this Act.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe a single, uniform regulation for DOD regarding dissemination of, and access to, acquisition information.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a test program for the use of simplified procedures in the competitive awarding of a DOD contract for the procurement of property or services on the basis of design or technical quality factors. Outlines conditions under which the Secretary of a military department or a defense agency head may award a contract for the procurement of such services, as well as conditions under which such Secretary or agency head may award a contract for the procurement of commercial products under the test program. Outlines the length of the test program. Requires the Secretary to designate organizations within DOD that will participate in the program. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the test program.

Revises Federal provisions concerning unit cost reports contained in Selected Acquisition Reports relating to defense procurement contracts as managed by program managers for major defense acquisiton programs. Requires the service acquisition executive (currently, the Secretary concerned) to receive and tabulate information from such unit cost reports and Selected Acquisition Reports. Requires the Secretary concerned to take certain steps when the current program acquisition units costs have increased by more than 15 percent with regard to a major defense acquisition program. Requires notification to the Congress when such increases exceed 25 percent.

Requires justification by a specified senior procurement executive for a defense procurement contract for between $10,000,000 and $50,000,000 to be awarded without the use of competitive procuredures. Limits the positions to which such justification authority may be delegated.

Requires the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation to ensure that a contractor does not assist in the test and evaluation of a weapons system if the contractor participated in the development, production, or testing of such weapon for any military department or defense agency unless the Director determines that sufficient steps have been taken to ensure the impartiality of the contractor in providing such assistance.

Requires the Secretary to conduct a test program under which the Secretaries of the military departments and the heads of the defense agencies may enter into master agreements for the procurement of advisory and assistance services. Outlines provisions concerning the scope of the program, the contents and awarding of the master agreements, the orders for specific advisory or assistance services, publication of notice, and limitations with respect to the commencement and termination of the test program.

Directs the Secretary to establish a test program under which one contracting activity in each military department and defense agency is authorized to undertake one or more demonstration projects to determine whether the negotiation and administration of small business subcontracting plans will result in simplified administration of the small business subcontracting opportunities provided for small businesses under DOD contracts. Outlines administrative provisions, including contents for small business subcontracting plans. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense and small business committees on the results of the test program.

Revises provisions of the Small Business Act to waive the requirement that a contracting officer refer a determination of responsibility of a small business to the Small Business Administration when a proposed contract is of a limited amount.

Requires the Secretary to ensure that the DOD quality assurance program is managed in a manner that will result in the production of the highest quality weapon systems, both at the initial acquisition stage and during repair and maintenance of fielded weapon systems. Outlines the structure of such program.

Earmarks specified FY 1990 and 1991 DOD operation and maintenance funds for carrying out cooperative technical assistance agreements. Sets aside certain funds for eligible entities under such cooperative agreement program. Provides certain funding limitations with respect to such assistance in the case of programs operated within one or more service areas of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Requires the Secretary to make certain revisions in the DOD Supplement to the Federal Acquisition Regulation with respect to certain fixed-price contracts awarded by DOD.

Authorizes the Secretary and the Secretary of a military department to obtain defense procurement products from Federal Prison Industries (FPI) only under specified conditions. Prohibits any Secretary from accepting a product from FPI if its price exceeds the current market price of such product.

Provides that credit in meeting certain minority subcontracting goals outlined under current Federal law shall be given to a contractor for each DOD contract that is to be performed on Indian lands or is a joint venture involving Indians or Indian lands. Defines contracts, subcontracts, and joint ventures eligible for such recognition, as well as the amount of credit to be given such contract or venture toward achieving such minority subcontracting goal.

Directs the Secretary to direct the Secretary of each military department to identify, in each of FY 1990 and 1991, not less than ten construction projects that are suitable for participation in the Minority Small Business and Capital Ownership Development Program of the Small Business Administration (SBA) and to make use of certain authority provided in the Small Business Act in the award of contracts in connection with each such project.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that an important consideration in DOD procurement should be whether such procurement is from a person of any country that denies adequate and effective protection of intellectual property rights or fair and equitable market access to U.S. persons that rely on intellectual property protection.

Part C: Acquisition Workforce - Requires, within two years after the enactment of this Act, demonstration programs using alternative compensation systems to be implemented by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and: (1) the head of the National Security Agency, Central Intelligence Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, or General Accounting Office; (2) the Secretary of Defense; or (3) the Administrator of NASA, whichever is appropriate. Requires no less than six and no more than ten demonstration projects to be conducted using such alternative compensation systems. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the number of programs to be undertaken by each official and the number of employees to participate in each program, and action to be taken if a demonstration program involves a collective bargaining system. Requires OPM, the Secretary, and the Administrator, with respect to each demonstration project conducted, to develop and publish in the Federal Register an information gathering plan with regard to such alternative compensation system demonstrated, and to notify affected employees and the Congress at least 90 days before implementation of such system. Provides for termination of each demonstration program. Outlines conditions under which the Secretary, the Administrator, or an agency head may permanently implement an alternative personnel compensation system previously demonstrated.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to prescribe the rates of pay for up to 500 positions designated by the Secretary as critical.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations to govern discussions of future employment opportunities of procurement officials of DOD (post-employment restrictions). Outlines provisions concerning: (1) authorized discussions of possible future employment opportunities with a competing contractor by a covered procurement official; and (2) the request of advice by an employee or former employee of DOD from the appropriate designated agency ethics official as to whether such employee or former employee is precluded from participating in the performance of a particular contract on behalf of a particular contractor or subcontractor.

Authorizes the Secretary to waive a certain prohibition against the receipt of dual compensation for not more than 1,000 DOD employees who are in scientific, engineering, professorial, or management positions designated as critical positions by the Secretary.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the Secretary should take all necessary actions to promote and encourage, at all educational levels, an increase in the number of U.S. citizens and nationals who pursue courses of study in science, engineering, and other technical disciplines.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations for the award of fellowships to U.S. citizens and nationals who agree to pursue graduate degrees in science, engineering, or other fields of study designated by the Secretary to be of priority interest to DOD. Outlines fellowship award conditions. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 and 1991.

Title IX: General Provisions - Authorizes the Secretary, as necessary for the national interest, to transfer amounts of authorizations made available to DOD in titles I through III between any such authorizations for that fiscal year. Limits the total amount that may be so transferred. Requires the Secretary to notify the Congress promptly of any such transfers made.

Limits the total amount authorized to be appropriated for FY 1990 and 1991 for military personnel and operations and maintenance. Places certain limitations upon DOD relating to the restoration of withdrawn unobligated balances.

Directs the President to report to the defense and intelligence committees on the types of measures that would be required to verify effectively the proposal for conventional arms reductions in Europe adopted by member nations of NATO in May, 1989. Commends the President's conventional arms initiatives announced on such date. Directs the President to report to the Congress on the foreign policy and military implications to NATO and the Warsaw Pact of significant reductions of conventional forces by NATO and Warsaw Pact countries to a ceiling which is the same for both sides.

Directs the President to report to the defense committees on the desirability of an agreement to impose limitations on anti-satellite capabilities.

Establishes a Commission on National Service to conduct a thorough study of the need for, and desirability and disadvantages of, a national service program (a program which includes both military and civilian community service). Requires the Commission to report to the President and the Congress on its findings and recommendations. Specifies information to be included in such report if the Commission recommends the establishment of a national service program. Terminates such Commission 120 days after its report is received.

Extends through FY 1991 certain authority provided to the Secretary of Defense in connection with the NATO Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS) program.

Revises certain provisions relating to the authority to enter into bilateral and multilateral arrangements for the procurement of communications support and related supplies and services from U.S.-allied countries.

Amends the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to: (1) extend through FY 1994 the authority to use excess defense articles for the modernization of the defense capabilities of countries situated on the southern flank of NATO; and (2) prohibit the President from providing for the attendance of foreign military personnel without charge at the U.S. Army Russian Institute in West Germany.

Authorizes the payment of travel and similar expenses for travel to Canada and Mexico in connection with bilateral and regional cooperation programs.

Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to admit temporarily workers entering this country in order to perform services as part of a governmental program of cooperative research, development, or coproduction projects.

Increases from $10,000 to $100,000 the amount of an admiralty claim against the United States that may be settled by the Secretary of the military department concerned without certifying such payment to the Congress.

Authorizes the Secretary to procure services for the publication of the History of the Office of the Secretary of Defense through the Government Printing Office.

Directs the President to conduct and report to the Congress on a study of export financing of defense articles.

Prohibits the transfer of nuclear warheads or chemical munitions by DOD in exchange for supplies and services or other property the acquisition of which is prohibited by law.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on the Trident missile program and the Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty (START). Outlines issues to be addressed in such report. Waives such reporting requirement if the President has signed such a treaty or other agreement with the Soviet Union for the reduction of strategic arms.

Condemns the execution of American Lieutenant Colonel William R. Higgins. Urges the President to take all appropriate action to determine the identity of those responsible and bring them to justice or take appropriate retaliatory measures. Declares that: (1) the United States should make it clear to Iran's leadership that the United States will not tolerate actions supporting terrorist groups; (2) the United Nations Secretary General should ensure that Mr. Higgins or his remains are returned to the United States; and (3) the President should consult with other nations to ensure international cooperation and coordination to end terrorist attacks.

Extends the date under the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989 for the receipt of certain reports on the manpower required to control the transfer of missile technology and certain weapons. Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees concerning the manpower required to implement export controls on certain nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons transfers.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the Secretary should direct the SDI Organization to give priority to the development of technologies and systems for protecting the United States from the accidential launch of a strategic ballistic missile against the continental United States; (2) such development should be done in compliance with the 1972 ABM Treaty; and (3) the Secretary should report to the Congress on the development of such an accidental launch protection system.

Reaffirms that service in the National Guard and Reserve is in the highest traditions of military service to the country. Acknowledges the valuable contributions made by men and women in such service. Encourages such participation in the future. Supports the National Guard and Reserve as part of the total U.S. force.

Directs the President to submit to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and, in some cases, the chairmen of the Senate and House Intelligence Committees a report on Government studies of U.S. capabilities to monitor and verify a START Treaty which allows mobile ICBMs. Expresses the sense of the Senate that any agreement negotiated to achieve a reduction and limitation on strategic arms: (1) should not prevent the United States from deploying a force structure under an agreement which emphasizes survivable strategic systems; and (2) should not prohibit or limit the deployment of non-nuclear cruise missiles.

Provides authority for any appropriate Government agency aircraft to fire upon an aircraft subject to seizure or examination for the illegal transportation of narcotics, after firing a warning shot and instructing such aircraft to land for inspection. Provides indemnification from liability for Government persons taking such action.

Requires the Senate Judiciary Committee to hold appropriate hearings and report back to the Senate on the legislative intent of provisions concerning the forfeiture and disqualification of active and retired officers from armed forces retirement pay and on whether remedial legislation as it affects the case of Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North is warranted.

Earmarks certain previously authorized but unobligated funds for carrying out during FY 1990 the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988.

Directs the Comptroller General to report to the defense committees on the International Military Education and Training Program.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that previous cooperation that existed between State and local law enforcement officials and Federal agencies participating in the National Narcotics Border Interdiction System should be continued and enhanced by the Director of the Office of National Drug Policy.

Directs the On-Site Inspection Agency (an arms control verification agency of DOD) to establish a database of prospective personnel that could be called upon to conduct onsite inspections pursuant to any future arms control agreement.

Directs the Secretary to review a report made by the Secretary of Commerce on the foreign availability of certain personal computers and report to specified congressional committees concerning such review.

Calls on the President to urge the Soviet Union to reduce its reliance on nuclear reactors in Earth orbit. Directs the President to report to the Congress on the potential for interference with gamma-ray astronomy missions that could be caused by the placement in earth orbit of space nuclear reactors presently under development by the United States.

Directs the President to report to the Congress on the current and planned administrative mechanisms to coordinate information within the executive branch concerning administrative and judicial actions taken as the result of fraudulent activities practiced by defense contractors.

Directs the Secretary of each military department to ensure that meat and meat products sold in commissary stores, or served in DOD dining facilities, located in any member country of the European Community are produced and processed in the United States. Urges each Secretary to intensify efforts to procure all products for such commissaries and dining facilities from U.S. sources.

Directs the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of Energy to report to the defense and intelligence committees on verification procedures for the dismantling of nuclear warheads, as well as fissile material monitoring.

Directs the Secretary of Defense to submit a baseline report to the defense committees on allied defense burdensharing in Europe (the ratio of the number of U.S. troops serving in European NATO countries to the number of troops of other NATO members serving in such countries). Directs the Secretary, if the U.S.-allied troop ratio for a fiscal year exceeds the ratio in the baseline report by more than one percent, to direct the President to initiate diplomatic initiatives to increase participation of NATO troops in such defense. Prohibits the obligation of DOD funds to support U.S. troops exceeding the baseline ratio by more than one percent. Authorizes the President to waive such requirements in the interest of national security, as long as the Congress is promptly notified.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) Japan should assume increased responsibility for its security; (2) Japan should offset the direct costs incurred by the United States in deploying military forces for the defense of Japan; and (3) Japan should assume a more significant security role consistent with its economic status by taking specified actions, including increasing spending for its Official Development Assistance program to areas outside East Asia, completing a five-year defense plan, and purchasing military equipment from the United States. Directs the President to: (1) enter into negotiations toward an agreement whereby Japa agrees to make contributions equal to the direct cost of deploying U.S. troops for its defense; and (2) report to the Congress on the status and results of such negotiations.

Directs the Secretary to conduct a study of, and report to the Congress on, options available to DOD to reduce costs associated with maintaining overseas large numbers of military dependents and dependents of civilian employees of DOD.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that: (1) the United States should reassess the missions, force structure, and locations of its military forces in South Korea and East Asia; (2) South Korea should assume increased responsibility for its security; (3) South Korea should offset more of the direct costs incurred by the United States in deploying military forces there; and (4) the United States and South Korea should consult on the feasibility and desirability of partial, gradual reductions of U.S. military forces in such country. Requires reports from the President to the Congress and the defense committees concerning such subject, including a submission of a five-year plan with respect to the U.S. military presence in South Korea.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that: (1) the President should seek a START treaty that would not limit the U.S. to levels of intercontinental strategic forces inferior to those of the Soviet Union; (2) the success of attaining such a treaty is dependent upon the maintenance of a vigorous research, development, and modernization program; and (3) no action should be taken that will obligate the United States to disarm, reduce, or limit its armed forces, except pursuant to the treatymaking power of the President.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that: (1) it is not prudent or possible at this time to commit to the production of B-2 aircraft other than under the low-rate initial production plan; (2) the contingent authorization of funds under this Act for such production does not constitute a commitment to support the procurement of large numbers of such aircraft or to approve multiyear procurement of such aircraft; and (3) prior to commitment to rate production of such aircraft, the President and the Congress should carefully consider the feasibility and desirability of placing primary strategic air reliance on aircraft on bombers carrying cruise missiles and procuring fewer B-2 aircraft to reduce the total acquisition and life cycle cost of the B-2 program.

Expresses the sense of the Senate that the Secretary and the Director of Central Intelligence shall report to the defense and intelligence committees on efforts to locate and obtain the release of American hostages in Lebanon.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should continue the development of the joint services V-22 Osprey program and carry out the comprehensive review of the potential military and civilian uses of such aircraft.

Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on the number of members of the armed forces who have dependents who are eligible for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits, including information on dependents who lose their eligibility as a consequence of member reassignment to duty outside the United States.

Title X: Panama Canal Commission - Authorizes the Panama Canal Commission to make such expenditures, contracts, and commitments as may be necessary for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the Panama Canal for FY 1990 and 1991, with certain conditions. Requires the Commission to provide written advance notification to the defense and merchant marine and fisheries committees regarding certain rates, payments, and projects associated with the operation and maintenance of the Canal. Authorizes funds for pay increases of officers and employees of the Commission as administratively authorized.

Title XI: Drug Interdiction and Law Enforcement Support - Earmarks specified DOD funds for the purpose of carrying out drug interdiction and law enforcement support activities. Directs the Secretary to provide guidance to the Secretaries of the military departments and commanders of the combatant commands on force levels and support resources necessary to fulfill the responsibilities of DOD as the single lead agency for the detection and monitoring of aerial and maritime transit of illegal drugs into the United States. Provides funding to carry out such responsibilities. Directs the Secretary to integrate into an effective communications network the command, control, communications, and technical assets of the United States that are dedicated to drug interdiction in the United States. Provides funding for such integration activities.

Directs the Secretary to provide to the Governor of each State which submits a plan for the use of its National Guard for drug interdiction assistance reimbursement for the expenses incurred by such State in providing such assistance. Provides funding for such reimbursement. Excludes members of the National Guard providing such services from inclusion in Federal armed forces end-strength computations.

Requires the Secretary to be responsible during FY 1990 for the maintenance and repair of equipment that has been made available by DOD to other Federal agencies for its use in antidrug efforts or because of potential future utility of such equipment to DOD. Provides funding for such maintenance and repair.

Requires the Secretary to ensure that adequate research and development activities of DOD are devoted to technologies concerned with the detection of illicit drugs and other dangerous and illegal substances concealed in containers. Provides funding for such specific research and development.

Requires the Secretary to pay for expenses incurred by the Civil Air Patrol in conducting drug surveillance flights for the detection and monitoring of the transportation of illegal drugs into the United States. Provides funding for the payment of such expenses. Directs the Secretary, under specified conditions, to transport personnel, supplies, and equipment within the United States and from the United States to a foreign country for the purpose of providing counter-drug operation assistance by the United States or a friendly foreign country. Provides funding for such transportation.

Directs the Secretary to authorize the National Guard to loan any equipment to any Federal or State law enforcement agency for use by such agency in carrying out drug enforcement activities. Requires the Secretary to maintain, repair, and restore any equipment loaned. Provides funding for the loan of such equipment.

Authorizes the Secretary to transfer to Federal and State law enforcement agenices such excess personal property of DOD as the Secretary determines suitable for use by Federal and State agencies in counter-drug activities.

Title XII: Military Child Care - Directs the Secretary to make available specified funds appropriated by this Act for military child development centers (facilities on military installations used primarily for the provision of child care for members of the armed forces). Requires the Secretary to give priority to increasing the number of child care employees who are directly involved in providing child care and to expanding the availability of child care for such members. Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the use of child care funds.

Directs the Secretary to establish, and prescribe regulations to implement, a uniform training program for child care employees as a condition of employment. Outlines training requirements to be included in such regulations. Requires the Secretary to increase the compensation of child care employees so that their compensation is comparable to other employees at the same installation. Requires at least one employee at each military child development center to be a training and curriculum child care employee, with appropriate educational credentials and child care experience.

Directs the Secretary to provide a preference in hiring for child care employees for military spouses, if such spouses are among those determined to be best qualified for such positions. Adds 3,700 new child development competitive service positions for FY 1990 and 1991, in addition to those authorized for FY 1989.

Directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations on fees to be charged to parents for the attendance of children at military child development centers.

Directs the Secretary to establish a special task force to respond in the case of allegations of widespread child abuse at a military child development center. Directs the Secretary to establish and publicize a national telephone hotline for persons to report suspected child abuse or safety violations at a military child development center or family day care home. Requires assistance from local authorities when appropriate. Directs the Secretary to prescribe or require: (1) safety regulations at military child development centers; and (2) inspections of each facility at least four times a year. Outlines remedies for violations by military child development centers of any laws or regulations. Directs the Secretary to study, and report to the Congress on, areas of interdepartmental concern in military child care.

Directs the Secretary to require the establishment of parent boards and parent participation programs at each military child development center. Directs the Secretary to submit a report and plan to the Congress on demand for child care by military and civilian personnel in the armed forces over a specified five-year period.

Directs the Secretary to ensure that at 15 percent of all military child development centers are accredited by an appropriate national early childhood accrediting body by January 1, 1991. Requires the Secretary to obtain an independent evaluation of the programs provided for by such child development centers. Requires the Secretary to report the results of such evaluation to the Congress, together with a plan for providing all necessary regulations required for the establishment of such centers.

S. 1447 Sen. Nunn; 7/31/89

Title I: Department of Energy National Security Programs - Part A: National Security Programs Authorizations - Authorizes appropriations to the Department of Energy (DOE) for FY 1990 for operating expenses incurred and for plant and capital equipment necessary in carrying out national security programs in the following areas: (1) weapons activities; (2) defense nuclear materials production; (3) verification and control technology; (4) nuclear materials safeguards and security technology development program; (5) security investigations; (6) new production reactors; (7) naval reactors development; and (8) capital equipment not related to construction. Places special funding limitations for DOE for FY 1990 for the following programs and projects: (1) SDI; (2) inertial confinement fusion; (3) special isotope separation; and (4) Lance Warhead follow-on.

Part B: Recurring General Provisions - Prohibits the use of funds appropriated pursuant to this title for: (1) the costs of a program exceeding 105 percent of the program authorization or $10,000,000 more than the amount authorized, whichever is the lesser; or (2) programs which have not been presented to, or requested of, the Congress, unless the Secretary of Energy transmits to the appropriate committees a full and complete statement of the action proposed and 30 days have elapsed since such statement was submitted.

Prohibits the total funds obligated pursuant to this title from exceeding the total amount authorized to be appropriated by this title.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to carry out any general plant project only if the maximum estimated cost of the project does not exceed $1,200,000. Requires reports to specified committees by the Secretary when the costs exceed such amount.

Sets forth procedures for the approval of projects which exceed by more than 25 percent their estimated cost or authorized amount. Exempts from such procedures any projects which have an estimated cost of less than $5,000,000.

Allows for the transfer of funds from specified projects to other Government agencies for the performance of work for which the funds were appropriated.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to transfer to the Secretary of Energy specified FY 1990 DOD research and development funds for the performance of work on SDI.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to perform advance planning and construction design services in connection with any proposed construction project if the total estimated cost for such services does not exceed $2,000,000. Authorizes the Secretary to notify specified congressional committees whenever the estimated cost of such planning and design exceeds $300,000. Requires specific authorization by law whenever such estimated costs exceed $2,000,000.

Authorizes the Secretary to perform emergency construction planning and design in order to meet the needs of national defense or to protect property or human life.

Makes funds appropriated for management and support activities and for general plant projects under this title available for all national security programs of DOE.

Part C: Defense Energy Technology Transfer - Department of Energy National Competitiveness Technology Transfer Act of 1989 - Directs the Secretary of Energy, within 180 days after enactment of this Act, to: (1) review all existing laws, regulations, guidelines, and administrative procedures associated with DOE's ability to accomplish a national competitiveness mission (the transfer of technology gained at DOE facilities to the U.S. private sector in order to establish national security and industrial base strength goals); (2) confer with representatives of U.S. industry and labor, educational institutions, and contracting parties with respect to the implementation of a national competitiveness mission; (3) advise the Congress of any existing legal obstacles interfering with DOE's ability to achieve such mission; and (4) publish a comprehensive set of policy guidelines, procedures, and supporting regulations to effectuate the purposese of this part. Requires cooperative arrangements between private parties and contractor-managers of DOE research and development facilities to be reviewed, concurred in, modified, or rejected in an expeditious manner. Outlines certain national security and other principles to be followed by the Secretary in attempting to achieve the national competitiveness mission. Requires the benefits of technology transfer resulting from such mission to accrue to U.S. industry. Requires entities owned or controlled by a foreign government or entity to be separately considered in light of national security objectives. Requires the Secretary to establish an explicit policy and procedure to govern a contractor-manager's use of Government resources for the national competitiveness mission, as well as for royalties, receipts, and other income resulting from such cooperative arrangements. Requires appropriate rights to be acquired for intellectual property acquired by the contractor-manager, private parties, or their successors-in-interest to assure commercial utilization of technology developed under cooperative arrangements. Requires the Secretary and contractor-managers to continually confer concerning such cooperative arrangements to assure progress toward achieving the national competitiveness mission.

Requires each contractor-manager, beginning after the inclusion in a contract of the national competitiveness mission, to identify in writing in advance of its use in a contemplated cooperative arrangement any particular inventions conceived or reduced to practice and specific technical data or computer software first produced by the contractor-manager in the performance of program missions under its contract. Authorizes the Secretary to designate special circumstance technologies or inventions the title for which shall vest in the United States in the same manner as exceptional circumstance determinations under current Federal law. Limits the authority of the Secretary to make such designations. Outlines other provisions with respect to the disposal of title to other inventions or technologies made or discovered within the course of such cooperative arrangement contracts. Requires the Secretary, with respect to specific technical data or computer software determined to have near-term commercial value and to be necessary for the commercialization of technology to be developed under cooperative arrangements, to include in such cooperative arrangement the specific intellectual property rights to such data or software. Requires, in such case, that such data or software not be disclosed by the Government to any third party, with a specified exception relating to national security or a related reason. Extends such property rights for up to six years after their discovery, after which time the Government shall have full rights to such property.

Provides that the rights to any inventions conceived or first actually reduced to practice by a collaborating party in a cooperative arrangement shall be agreed to by the parties to the arrangement, subject to regulations and to the Government's license (to practice on behalf of the United States) to that invention. Provides, with respect to technical data or software first produced under such an arrangement which the Secretary determines to have near-term commercial value and to be necessary for the commercialization of technology to be developed under the arrangement, that such data or software may not be disclosed by the Government to any third party (with the same national security-related exceptions). Extends such property rights for up to six years after discovery, after which time the Government shall have full rights to such data or software. Provides oversight of this part's provisions by the Secretary, the Inspector General of DOE, and the Comptroller General. Exempts the United States and the contractor managers from liability for injury or damage due to a defect in a product or process produced or a service performed by a collaborating party or its licensees or assigns that embodies technology developed under a cooperative arrangement under this part.

Part D: Miscellaneous Provisions - Amends the Department of Defense Authorization Act, 1985 to require the Secretaries of Energy and Defense to jointly report to the Congress concerning the production of the 155-millimeter artillery-fired automatic projectile.

Authorizes the Secretary of Energy to designate not more than 25 positions in DOE as critical positions. Terminates such designation authority three years after enactment of this Act. Outlines provisions concerning the rates of pay for positions designated as critical. Authorizes the Secretary to designate not more than 250 positions in DOE as special scientific, engineering, and managerial positions.

Amends the National Defense Authorization Act, 1986 to provide equal participation of the Secretary of Defense with the Secretary in the nuclear test ban readiness program outlined under such Act.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to make necessary payments, and earmarks funds, for a Rocky Flats, Colorado, decontamination and cleanup agreement entered into between DOE and the State of Colorado.

Requires the Secretary of Energy, not later than 120 days before a DOE defense nuclear facility ceases all production and processing operations, to report to the defense committees on the training and job placement services needed to enable former employees of such facility to obtain employment in the environmental remediation and cleanup activities at such facility. Requires DOE, upon cessation of productive operations, to report to the Congress on environmental problems at the facility, cleanup costs, and the proposed cleanup schedule.

Amends the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to authorize the Department of Energy to ensure that investment in research and development in the military application of atomic energy results in the development of civilian applications for, and commercialization of, advanced technology through appropriate transfers of federally owned or originated technology to State and local governments, private industry, and educational and nonprofit institutions.

Part E: Environment, Safety, and Management - Authorizes appropriations to DOE for FY 1990 for environmental restoration and management of defense waste and transportation in specified amounts at specified locations.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to report to the defense and appropriations committees at the end of each calendar quarter on each major DOE national security program (a program that is either designated by the Secretary as a major DOE national security program or that is estimated by the Secretary to cost more than $500,000,000). Outlines report information requirements, including a description of the program, its purpose, and its schedule and cost. Requires the Secretary to identify to such committees all programs of DOE that are major national security programs. Directs the Secretary to prepare and submit to such committees a five-year budget plan for national security programs of DOE.

Directs the Secretary to establish and carry out a program for the supervision, direction, and coordination of all research activities of DOE for the development of technologies useful for the reduction of environmental hazards and contamination resulting from defense waste and the environmental restoration of inactive defense waste disposal sites. Requires the Secretary to carry out such program through a program manager. Requires the Secretary to coordinate such research program with the research activities of the EPA relating to the same matter. Requires the Secretary to report to the Congress on such activities.

Directs the President to establish a Blue Ribbon Task Group on Environmental Restoration and Defense Waste Management to examine the procedures used in establishing requirements, providing necessary resources, planning, and implementing plans with respect to defense waste management and environmental restoration at DOE facilities that conduct atomic energy defense activities. Requires various reports from the President and the Task Group with respect to the membership, activities, and recommendations of the Task Group.

Directs the Secretary of Energy to establish and implement a management training program for DOE personnel involved in the management of atomic energy defense activities.

Amends the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to authorize the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to: (1) provide for the safe storage, processing, transportation, and disposal of hazardous waste resulting from nuclear materials and weapons production and naval nuclear propulsion programs; and (2) carry out research and development of technologies needed for the negotiation and verification of international agreements on control of special nuclear materials and nuclear weapons.

Title II: Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 for the establishment and operation of the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board.

Requires a report from the Secretary of Defense to the defense and veterans' committees identifying the number of individuals who participated in radiation-risk activities while serving in some capacity in the armed forces, but who are not covered under provisions of the Atomic Veterans Act.

Title III: National Defense Stockpile - Authorizes the President to make specified changes in quantities of materials to be acquired for the National Defense Stockpile (NDS) as provided under the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act. Authorizes the President, during FY 1990 and 1991, to use specified amounts from the National Defense Stockpile Transaction Fund for the purposes of stockpile acquisitions. Authorizes the President, during FY 1990 and 1991, to dispose of specified materials in the NDS that have been determined to be excess to the current requirements of the stockpile.

Title IV: Civil Defense - Authorizes appropriations for FY 1990 to carry out the Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950.

S. 1448 Sen. Nunn; 7/31/89

Title I: Military Personnel Authorizations For Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 - Part A: Active Forces - Authorizes end strengths for active-duty forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Prohibits the Secretary of Defense from reducing the number of active Army ground combat brigades assigned to the 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized) before December 1, 1990. Allows Army end strengths to be increased in order to maintain such prohibition. Reduces, temporarily, the number of colonels authorized for active duty for FY 1991.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that certain combat units stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky, should not be permanently reassigned to Fort Irwin, California.

Part B: Reserve Forces - Authorizes end strengths for reserve components of the armed forces for FY 1990 and 1991. Authorizes end strength reductions for the Selected Reserve components of the armed forces for each such fiscal year, as prescribed. Authorizes increases for each such fiscal year in the number of certain personnel authorized to be on active duty in support of the reserve forces. Reallocates the positions of two naval reserve officers serving in medical profession capacities.

Part C: Military Training - Authorizes the average military training student loads for FY 1990 and 1991. Provides for the adjustment of such student loads consistent with manpower strengths authorized under this Act.

Part D: Civilian Personnel - Repeals current Federal provisions concerning management constraints for DOD civilian personnel.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to accept voluntary services from an individual for work in a natural resources program.

Title II: Military Personnel - Part A: Matters Affecting the Reserve Components - Authorizes a person with no prior military service who is qualified for active-duty enlistment in the armed forces (regular) to be enlisted as a member of the reserves under a delayed entry program. Allows such person to be enlisted in a regular component of the armed forces within 365 days after enlistment in the reserves. Exempts members of the delayed entry program from otherwise applicable Ready Reserve training requirements. Prohibits the period of enlisted service under the delayed entry program form being counted as part of the years of service for the computation of the basic pay of a member.

Authorizes the Secretary to order a member of the Ready Reserve to muster duty one time each year without his consent. Authorize a member of the Ready Reserve who is not a member of the National Guard or of the Selected Reserve to be entitled to an allowance for such muster duty if engaged in such duty for at least two hours.

Repeals a provision of Federal law which allows a uniform and equipment reimbursement monthly for a reserve officer of the armed forces who has not become entitled to a uniform reimbursement or allowance as an officer for the preceding four years.

Extends through FY 1992 certain expiring authorities relating to the reserves.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for an enlisted member who is assigned to a high priority unit of the Selected Reserve and who performs inactive duty for training with such unit. Terminates such special assignment pay after FY 1991. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the administration of such special pay program.

Part B: Health Care Matters - Prohibits the Secretary, during FY 1990 and 1991, from charging for the receipt of outpatient medical or dental care at a military treatment facility.

Revises a provision concerning the limitation on payments made to noninstitutional health-care providers from the Secretary concerned under the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS). Authorizes the Secretary to increase the maximum amount of such payments whenever the Secretary of Health and Human Services increases the amount payable to providers of services under part B of title XVIII (Medicare) of the Social Security Act.

Authorizes the Secretary to require a private health-care provider which is also a health-care provider under CHAMPUS to provide such care under the same rules applicable under such program.

Authorizes the provision of specialized training as another benefit under the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. Allows a person participating in such specialized training, in addition to receiving a stipend udner such Program, to be paid an annual grant of $15,000. Requires a pro rata refund of such grant amount from a person who voluntarily terminates the Program's specialized training.

Expands the type of loans qualifying for repayment by the Secretary concerned for health professionals who serve in the Selected Reserve as part of such loan repayment agreement, including any loan which was used to finance basic or advanced health professions education. Makes all members of the Ready Reserve (currently, only members of the Selected Reserve) eligible for such loan repayments and increases the yearly and total amount of such loan repayments. Repeals the current October 1, 1990, date for the termination of such loan repayments.

Revises the deadline for the use of diagnosis related groups for outpatient treatment.

Increases from 67 to 68 the deferment age for retirement for regular commissioned officers of the armed forces.

Authorizes the retention of reserve officer psychologists in an active status in order to fulfill a mission-based requirement.

Part C: Personnel Management - States the conditions under which the President may vacate a promotion to the grade of major through major general and lieutenant commander through rear admiral.

Directs the Secretary to reduce by the end of FY 1992 the number of nonoperational flying duty positions in the armed forces by five percent. Prohibits any increase in the number of such positions after FY 1991.

Outlines the minimum service requirement for certain flight crew positions.

Requires the Comptroller General to conduct a study, and report to the defense committees, on the aviator assignment policies and practices of the armed forces.

Part D: Total Force Policy - Directs the Secretary to convene a study group to review the operation and soundness of the Total Force Policy (the force mix in each of the military departments) of DOD and to make recommendations for the improvement of such Policy. Requires the Secretary to report the study group's results to the defense committees.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the service obligations for graduates of: (1) the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences; and (2) the service academies.

Revises the composition and term of members of the U.S. Court of Military Appeals. Revises provisions concerning: (1) the removal of judges from such Court; (2) incapacity of such judges; (3) service and pay of a senior judge of such Court; (4) the appointment and civil service status of legal staff of the Court; (5) the retirement of judges of the Court; and (6) appellate review procedures of action taken by the Judge Advocate General under provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice. Directs the President to prescribe procedures for the investigation and disposition of charges, allegations, and information pertaining to the fitness of a military judge or military appellate judge to perform the duties of office. Requires such procedures to be transmitted to the defense committees.

Makes permanent the authority to make temporary promotions of certain Navy lieutenants.

Extends through October 1, 1992, the authority for a test program for the reimbursement to members of the armed forces of qualifying adoption expenses.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to require each applicant for enlistment or appointment to undergo drug and alcohol abuse testing before becoming a member of the armed forces.

Authorizes the Secretary concerned to correct the military records of promotion of enlisted members if the Secretary concerned considers such action necessary to correct an error or injustice.

Provides members of the National Guard, Reserves, retired military personnel, and civilian employees of DOD with the same relief from expenses incurred because of an error in the mandatory direct deposit of pay.

Provides for the awarding of the degree of Master of Arts in Leader Development.

Authorizes the Secretary to provide transportation to next-of-kin of members of the armed forces who have been prisoners of war or missing in action as a result of service during the Vietnam era to attend an annual meeting of such families.

Revises certain procedures regarding the solicitation and award of contracts for postsecondary education services for members of the armed forces, civilian DOD employees, or the dependents of such members and employees.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to employ civilian faculty at the United States Marine Corps University.

Authorizes the Secretary of the Air Force to enter into contracts providing for the production and commercial sale of a certain recording made by the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra and the U.S. Air Force Singing Sargents.

Title III: Compensation and Other Personnel Benefits - Part A: Pay and Allowances - Waives the automatic adjustment authorized for military pay consistent with yearly increases in the GS Schedule of the Federal Government, authorizing instead a 3.6 percent increase in the rates of basic pay, basic allowance for quarters, and basic allowance for subsistence. Increases cadet and midshipman pay. Makes each such increase effective as of January 1, 1990.

Part B: Incentive Pay - Increases the flying duties required for an aviation officer to be entitled to aviation career incentive pay. Requires the President to increase such incentive pay by the percentage of any increase in basic pay. Authorizes the Secretary concerned to delay implementation of such increased flying duty when necessary to meet the needs of his department.

Extends through FY 1992 the aviator retention bonus program. Outlines certain reporting requirements under such program and limits the total obligations permitted for the Navy and Air Force during FY 1990 for the payment of such bonuses.

Increases the special pay for medical officers in the armed forces. Extends through FY 1990 the medical officer retention bonus program. Terminates such authority if a certain report is not made by a specified date.

Provides for the payment of special pay in the form of an accession bonus for registered nurses who agree within a specified period to accept a commission and perform duty as a registered nurse in the armed forces for not less than four years. Outlines certain limitations and conditions under such program.

Provides a nurse officer candidate accession bonus for individuals who execute a written agreement to accept an appointment as a nurse officer after completion of two years of a degree program in nursing and while enrolled as a full-time student in a nursing program in an institution that does not have a Senior Reserve Officers' Training Program. Outlines agreement terms. Requires a pro rata refund of any bonus paid when an individual fails to complete either the required period of education or the required period of military service after the completion of such education.

Authorizes the payment of special incentive pay for nurse anesthetists who execute a written agreement to remain on active duty for at least one year after their initial required period of duty. Outlines terms of such bonus pay. Requires refunds on a pro rata basis for agreed-upon time not successfully served. Requires the Secretary to report to the defense committees on the use of certified registered nurse anesthetists by the military departments.

Increases: (1) the special pay for reserve medical officers; and (2) the length and amount of the Selected Reserve reenlistment bonus program. Extends certain enlistment and reenlistment bonus authorities for reserve forces. Extends the bonus authority for certain nuclear career officer bonus programs.

Authorizes the payment of special pay for psychologists who are officers in the armed forces or the Public Health Service and who have been awarded a diploma by the American Board of Professional Psychology.

Part C: Travel and Transportation - Authorizes a travel and transportation allowance for a member of the armed forces who is assigned to permanent duty aboard a ship that is undergoing construction away from the designated home port or away from the area where the dependents of the member are residing. Outlines terms and conditions for such allowances.

Authorizes reimbursement for parking fees, ferry fares, and tolls for any member of the armed forces entitled to general travel and transportation allowances.

Authorizes student travel allowances for dependents of members stationed outside the continental United States. Prohibits such allowance for dependents of members permanently stationed in Alaska or Hawaii for a child attending a school in the State of the permanent duty station.

Part D: Survivor Benefit Program - Revises the reduction in retired pay for participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan. Differentiates, in the level premium to be paid each month by participants in the Plan, as to whether the annuity being provided is a standard or reserve-component annuity and whether the person becomes an active participant in the Plan before or after the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989.

Directs the Secretary of the military department concerned to carry out a program, to be known as the Supplemental Survivor Benefit Plan (SSBP), which would enable participants in the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) who are providing coverage for a spouse or former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to also provide a supplemental annuity for that spouse or former spouse beginning when the participant dies or when the spouse or former spouse becomes 62 years of age, whichever is later, in order to offset the effects of the two-tier annuity computation under the SBP. Outlines the following administrative provisions concerning the SSBP: (1) commencement of annuity; (2) the amount of such annuity for the beneficiary of a person providing the standard or the reserve-component annuity under the SBP (the latter annuity further defined by whether or not the beneficiary under the SSBP is initially under 62 years of age at the commencement of the annuity); and (3) adjustments in such annuities required by periodic adjustments in the cost-of-living index. Terminates a SSBP annuity when the beneficiary dies or otherwise becomes ineligible to continue to receive an annuity under the original SBP.

Allows a person who provides an annuity for a spouse or former spouse under SBP to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under these provisions. Requires a person providing a supplemental spouse annuity to be a participant in the SBP in order to cover a spouse or former spouse under the SSBP. Requires such election to be voluntary. Allows a person to make such an election only if the beneficiary of such person's annuity is not currently computed under the determination of spouse or former spouse beneficiary annuity under the SBP. Allows a person who anticipates becoming a participant in the SBP who has a spouse or former spouse to elect to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP. Outlines conditions and requirements for such an anticipatory election. Requires a person to actually provide a spouse or former spouse annuity under the SBP in order to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the SSBP.

Allows a person who elects to provide SBP coverage for a former spouse after having been an SBP participant without coverage for that former spouse to also provide a supplemental spouse annuity for such former spouse under the SSBP. Requires notice to a current spouse of a person providing coverage under the SBP and the SSBP to a former spouse. Provides for irrevocability after a specified period of time of the election to provide SSBP coverage under both a standard annuity and a reserve-component annuity.

Authorizes provision of a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions by a person who is a participant in the SBP and is providing coverage for a spouse (or spouse and child) but is not a participant in the SSBP, who does not have an eligible spouse under that Plan, and who remarries, thereby allowing such person to elect to provide such coverage for the former spouse. Requires the person to be under the SBP in order to make the election for such coverage under the SSBP. Outlines conditions for such an election. Outlines administrative guidelines to be followed: (1) when there is a change of a former spouse beneficiary under the SBP to a current spouse or child beneficiary under the SBP; and (2) upon reinstatement of an SSBP annuity after discontinuance of an SBP annuity and reinstatement of such annuity.

Requires a person who elects to provide a SSBP annuity to a former spouse to provide the Secretary concerned with a written statement as to whether the election being made is pursuant to a written agreement incident to a divorce, dissolution, or annullment that has been incorporated in, or ratified or approved by, a court order. Outlines administrative provisions concerning the enforcement of such voluntary written agreements ratified by a court order. Provides a time limit for the making of such an election of one year after the date of the court order or filing involved.

Directs the retired pay of a person electing to provide a supplemental spouse annuity under the above provisions to be reduced each month as required under prescribed regulations. Outlines considerations for the determination of such regulations by the Secretary of Defense. Prohibits any reduction during any month in which there is no eligible spouse or former spouse beneficiary. Requires the amount of the reduction to be adjusted whenever there is an adjustment to the reduction in retired pay for beneficiary coverage under the original SBP. Directs the President to prescribe regulations to implement the SSBP.

Revises the annuity computation for the survivors of certain retirement-eligible officers who die while on active duty, making such an officer's retired pay rate the rate of pay applicable at the time of death. Defines those persons eligible for such recomputation.

Authorizes an eligible retired or former member of the armed forces to participate in the SBP during an open enrollment period. Allows such person, at the same time, to also elect to participate in the SSBP. Defines as eligible a person who on the day before the first day of the open enrollment period is not a participant in the SBP and is either entitled to retired pay or would be so entitled but for the fact that such member or former member is under 60 years of age (for reserve members or former members). Allows a person who is a participant in the SBP but not at the maximum base amount while providing coverage for a dependent child but not for a spouse or former spouse to: (1) elect to participate in the SBP at a higher amount; or (2) elect to provide an annuity under the SBP for a spouse or former spouse.

Authorizes current SBP participants to elect to participate in the SSBP during the open enrollment period. Outlines those persons eligible to make such an election and sets limitations on eligibility for certain SBP participants not affected by the two-tier annuity computation (a computation that differentiates in the annuity amount depending on whether the annuitant has attained the age of 65). Requires any SSBP election to be made in writing, signed by the person making the election, and received by the Secretary concerned before the end of the open enrollment period. Defines the open enrollment period as the one-year period beginning on the effective date of the Military Survivor Benefit Improvement Act of 1989. States that if a person dies before the end of a two-year period after making such an election, the election is void and the amount of reduction in retired pay taken as a result of such election shall be paid in a lump sum to the person's beneficiary under the SBP.

Part E: Miscellaneous - Increases the educational assistance allowance for persons in the armed forces with a critical skill or speciality.

Authorizes the use of funds appropriated to DOD to pay for student meals provided by DOD overseas dependents' schools. Outlines limits to such authority.

Authorizes a reduction in the rates for meals sold in military dining facilities if the Secretary concerned determines that such rate reduction is in the best interest of the United States.

Authorizes the Secretary of Defense to pay a uniform allowance for any civilian DOD employee required to wear a prescribed uniform for the performance of official duties.

Directs the Secretary to report to the defense committees a legislative proposal for an accidental death insurance plan for aviators serving on active duty.

Expresses the sense of the Congress that the President should: (1) establish a commission to study the reasons for shortages of qualified aviators in both the armed forces and in the commercial airline industry and the means for eliminating such shortages; (2) include representatives from both the commercial airline industry and the armed forces on such commission; and (3) appoint members of such commission no later than February 15, 1990. Requires the commission to report the results of its study to the President and the Congress no later than March 1, 1991, together with recommendations.

Oil Tanker Navigation Safety Act of 1989 - Title I: Provision Applicable Nationally - Directs the Secretary of the department i which the Coast Guard is operating to initiate a rulemaking proceeding to require each affected oil tanker transiting pilotage waters, except when a qualified State licensed pilot provides th pilotage, to have a specified number of personnel on its navigatio bridge.

Amends the National Driver Register Act of 1982 to permit a individual who has applied for or received a mariner's document certificate of registry, or license to operate a commercial vessel t request the chief driver licensing official of a State to transmi certain information regarding such individual to the Commandan of the Coast Guard. Sets forth specified requirements relating t access to such information.

Provides for suspension and revocation of such mariner's document, certificate of registry, or license.

Requires the Commandant to initiate a rulemaking proceeding to require each individual who has applied for or received such a document, certificate, or license to: (1) request the chief drive licensing official of each State in which he or she has within five years applied for or held a motor vehicle operator's license t provide the Commandant with certain driving record information.

Amends Federal law to require the Secretary to issue a final rule to require periodic, as well as post-accident, testing for use o alcohol by individuals who, pursuant to licenses or merchant mariner's documents, perform safety sensitive functions on affected oil tankers. Requires the Secretary to conduct a rulemaking proceeding to determine whether to require that the Coast Guard be informed whenever an individual who has applied for or received a license or merchant mariner's document to perform such safety sensitive functions is undergoing treatment in an alcohol rehabilitation program. Directs the Secretary to temporarily suspend and take possession of the license or merchant mariner's document pending a hearing if there is probable cause to believe that such individual: (1) has served in such capacity while impaired by or under the influence of alcohol; (2) has been denied or has had any cancellation, revocation, or suspension of a motor vehicle operator's license by a State for cause within the previous five years; or (3) has been convicted of specified offenses within the previous five years.

Requires the Secretary to report to specified congressional committees a list of U.S. ports that need improved Vessel Traffic Service (VTS) systems. Authorizes the Secretary to establish a system for the collection of payments by users of such VTS systems in such ports.

Requires the Secretary to complete a rulemaking proceeding to determine whether to require that electronic means of vessel position-reporting and identification be carried on board affected oil tankers.

Requires the Secretary to complete a rulemaking proceeding to require all newly constructed oil tankers to be equipped with double hulls and double bottoms, except to the extent such requirements will not enhance oil tanker navigation safety. Requires the Secretary to report to specified congressional committees on the size of each affected oil tanker.

Requires the Secretary to issue final regulations requiring operators of such tankers to submit to the Secretary for approval a contingency plan for the prevention and cleanup of oilspills from their oil tankers. Specifies items to be included in such plans.

Provides for: (1) regular inspection of such oil tankers; (2) approval of contingency plans; (3) the legal effect of such plans; (4) public awareness and practice drills with respect to such plans; (5) guidelines for maximum probable oilspills; and (6) action by the Secretary in the event of an oilspill.

Requires the Secretary to develop and periodically update an international inventory of oilspill equipment and personnel available to the United States in the event of an oil spill within U.S. waters. Declares that the Secretary shall require any person with which the Coast Guard contracts for the containment or cleanup of an oilspill to report to the Coast Guard information for such inventory.

Directs the Secretary to establish a National Council on Oilspill Technology Research and Development to conduct a study of governmental and nongovernmental research on oilspill containment and cleanup.

Amends the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act to make an oilspill a major disaster for disaster assistance purposes.

Authorizes the Secretary to deny the right to enter U.S. waters to affected oil tankers that operate in violation of this Act. Sets forth both civil and criminal penalties.

Requires the Secretary to submit to specified congressional committees a report on the need, if any, to impose fees upon operators of affected oil tankers or other persons to offset additional costs of implementing this Act.

Title II: Provisions Applicable With Respect to Alaska Pilotage at Port of Valdez - Directs the Secretary to initiate a rulemaking proceeding to require that all oil tankers entering and departing the Port of Valdez, Alaska, embark and disembark a pilot licensed in Alaska at locations that will ensure that pilotage of such tankers in certain areas is provided by such State pilots.

Requires the Secretary to install an automated navigation light on Bligh Reef in Prince William Sound, Alaska. Directs the Secretary to: (1) install additional radar equipment and train such personnel with respect to the VTS system at the Port of Valdez; and (2) submit to specified congressional committees a report on instituting Coast Guard control on oil tanker movements in Prince William Sound with the use of such system.

Directs the Secretary of Commerce to establish a Prince William Sound Oilspill Recovery Institute, to be administered by the Secretary of Commerce through the University of Alaska Institute of Marine Studies. Requires the Institute to conduct research and educational and demonstration projects with respect to the effects of oilspills on the environment and ways to deal with their cleanup. Declares that the policies of the Institute shall be determined by an Advisory Board composed of specified representatives from State and Federal agencies, with the Secretary of Commerce as Chairman. Directs the Advisory Board to establish a Scientific and Technical Committee composed of specialists in oilspill containment and cleanup technology from the University of Alaska and elsewhere. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1989 through 1999.
